PETER ANGELOS

MANAGING PARTNER

Peter Angelos, the Principal Owner and Managing Partner of the Baltimore Orioles, has brought dynamic leadership to the ballclub and to the community since he and his fellow investors restored the team to local ownership in August, 1993.

Under his 17-year stewardship, the Orioles have reached the American League Championship Series twice, led the league in attendance five times – the first times in franchise history – and hosted such historic occasions as the first games between a Major League Baseball team and Cuba in nearly 40 years and Cal Ripken's 2131st consecutive game. In a testament to the enduring popularity of the team, in 2008 the Orioles welcomed their 100 millionth fan in franchise history and Oriole Park at Camden Yards welcomed its 50 millionth fan in just 17 seasons. Opened in 1992, Oriole Park is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball.

The Orioles' ownership has committed to building a winner by rebuilding the farm system with young talent that is now beginning to pay dividends. Under Mr. Angelos, the Orioles have dramatically increased their stake in scouting and player development, both in the United States and internationally. President of Baseball Operations Andy MacPhail and his staff are paving the way to a new era of Orioles baseball designed to further fortify the player development and scouting areas while building on the talent already at the major league level.

In addition, Mr. Angelos' vision in creating the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network not only maintained the integrity of the Orioles television territory, but it created a valuable asset for the Orioles franchise, which is a part-owner of the regional sports network. The success of the network over the long term will provide the territorial and financial stability necessary to secure the future of the Orioles franchise in Baltimore for generations to come.

In conjunction with Major League Baseball's relocation of the Nationals in Washington, D.C., Mr. Angelos, refusing to allow the division or diminution of the Orioles' exclusive television territory, offered instead to share the Orioles' exclusive television territory with the Nationals and to form a jointly owned regional sports network that would professionally produce and present the games, shows, and programming of both teams throughout the Baltimore-Washington metropolitan area and the seven-state region served by MASN.

Orioles games are now distributed to a larger audience than ever, as the network is available to more than 6 million households from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network introduced pregame and postgame shows for every game and recruited Emmy award-winning, network-caliber broadcast teams, which include Hall of Famers and World Series MVPs. While the Orioles maintain a majority ownership interest in the network, MASN treats both teams equally in all matters. In 2011, the network began its seventh year televising Washington Nationals games and its fifth season as the Orioles' television outlet as part of its 24-hour programming schedule.

In addition to televising every available Nationals and Orioles game, Mr. Angelos wanted the network to highlight local collegiate programs whose games had not previously been televised. Many local Maryland schools are among the 300 NCAA football, basketball, and lacrosse games televised by MASN every year.

Mr. Angelos has been an industry leader in professional baseball and has helped strengthen the national pastime. He was the only owner to serve on the negotiating committee that worked out the historic 2002 labor agreement between Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association – the first such agreement without a strike in the 30-plus years of labor negotiations between the groups. His involvement in those labor negotiations was hailed by both sides. Major League Baseball and the MLB Players Association were able to reach a five-year agreement without a strike, the first settlement without a work stoppage since the rise of the players' labor movement in 1969, setting the stage for a second such agreement in the fall of 2006.

The Orioles owner also has taken the lead in helping utilize baseball as a bridge among people. He spearheaded the effort to have the Orioles and a team of Cuba's best players engage in an historic 2-game series in the two countries, a match-up viewed as a way to transcend politics and bring about closer cultural and social ties between the people of the United States and Cuba. He also helped to develop the first baseball team to represent Greece in Olympic baseball competition at the 2004 Olympics in Athens and thereafter to establish baseball on a permanent basis for Greek youth. This effort is being done in compliance with Commissioner Bud Selig's program to extend the internationalization of baseball.

At Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Mr. Angelos has taken constructive steps off the field to enhance the fan experience. In order to keep baseball games an affordable family experience, Angelos has insisted the club offer a range of ticket pricing. Furthermore, at his direction, Camden Yards maintains one of the most liberal food policies in all of professional sports, allowing outside food and beverages to be brought into the stadium. Despite an industry-wide trend towards selling stadium naming rights, Angelos has been steadfast in maintaining the integrity of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Recently, the fan experience was further enhanced by a complete upgrade of the ballpark's sound system and a conversion of the in-park video boards to a high definition (HD) signal.

In addition to building a club fans can be proud of, Mr. Angelos has overseen the efforts of the Orioles to make significant contributions to the community, particularly for children. Under Mr. Angelos' direction, the club launched OriolesREACH in 2007 to centralize its community relations initiatives in an effort to better reach those who needed the most assistance. Over 10,000 children experience a game for free at Oriole Park each season thanks to the OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program, which provides complimentary tickets, transportation, concessions and souvenirs to those who might otherwise not be able to attend a game. Other annual OriolesREACH initiatives include a Food Drive, Blood Drive, Equipment Drive and Kids Holiday Party, among other diverse and meaningful programs.

Through cash contributions, ticket and memorabilia donations, club resources and promotion, over 800 non-profit groups are aided by the Orioles each year. The Orioles Charitable Foundation has contributed to organizations such as the Salvation Army, the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation, the National Kidney Foundation, House with a Heart, Junior Advancement and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society Brain Gala. Also among recipients of Orioles support is the John Steadman Cancer Initiative, which raises funds for cancer research and awareness in memory of the longtime Baltimore sportswriter who succumbed to the disease in 2001. Through its foundation and client contributions, the Orioles have donated millions of dollars to various charitable causes, including for the 15th straight year being sponsors of the Baltimore Symphony Gala.

On a personal level, Mr. Angelos and his wife, Georgia, became the first ever $1 million donors to the United Way's Central Maryland chapter. The chapter, which covers Baltimore City and Baltimore, Harford, Carroll, Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, had never received an individual donation greater than $250,000 prior to Mr. and Mrs. Angelos' contribution. Mr. Angelos is also an active supporter of the Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS) Association.

The son of Greek immigrants, Mr. Angelos was born July 4, 1929 in Pittsburgh, PA. The family moved to Baltimore when he was an infant, and he was raised in the industrial neighborhood of Highlandtown in East Baltimore. He graduated from Patterson Park High School and from the University of Baltimore, where he was valedictorian of his class at the School of Law. An attorney since 1961, he has built the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos, P.C., into one of the nation's leading personal injury law firms representing the victims of harmful products. Throughout his legal career, Angelos has been a champion for ordinary citizens and has taken on some of the most powerful corporations in the country, including asbestos manufacturers, the tobacco companies and the pharmaceutical industry.

Mr. Angelos, who was elected to and served on the Baltimore City Council from 1959 to 1963, has long been active in civic and community endeavors. He currently is Chairman of WestSide Renaissance, Inc., the non-profit organization of civic leaders that is spearheading the $1 billion revitalization of Downtown Baltimore's west side. He also is a board member and major benefactor of Charles Street Development Corp., which is working to enhance Baltimore's historic avenue. In this regard, he has entered into a unique partnership with the Johns Hopkins University School of Continuing Studies to ensure they maintain its presence in the downtown area with a building at Charles and Fayette Streets devoted to business education.

Mr. Angelos serves as a member of the board for a number of colleges, hospitals and civic organizations and has been widely honored for his commitment to higher education and civic causes. He has received honorary doctorate degrees from Mount Saint Mary's College, Loyola College of Maryland and the University of Baltimore. He is a member of the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Supreme Court Historical Society, the American Academy of Achievement and the Ellis Island Medal of Honor Society. He is a recipient of the AFL-CIO Social Justice Award.

Mr. Angelos is also a strong supporter of the Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History and Culture. He serves on the Baltimore museum's Board of Directors and, in addition lending personal financial support, was instrumental in helping the museum secure funding from the state of Maryland.

In 2008, he made a $5 million, dollar-for-dollar matching pledge to support the construction of a new 190,000 square foot law school building, to open in 2013, as part of the John and Frances Angelos Law Center at the University of Baltimore Law School. This past year, Mr. Angelos donated another $5 million to his alma mater, bringing his total contribution to $10 million.

Peter Angelos also serves as a Member of the Board of the following institutions and foundations: Johns Hopkins University; University of Maryland Medical Systems Corporation; St. Joseph Medical Center Foundation; George Meany Center- National Labor College; Loyola College in Maryland; and the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He is also a member of The Johns Hopkins Medicine Board of Visitors, the Advisory Board of the University of Baltimore School of Law and the Board of Visitors of the University of Baltimore.

The Baltimore Urban League presented him with its Whitney Young, Jr. Memorial Award for his commitment to furthering the quality of life for the citizens of Greater Baltimore. He also has been honored by the NAACP, the Associated Black Charities of Maryland and the Johns Hopkins Allen L. Berman University Real Estate Institute. In 1998, the Baltimore Sun named Peter G. Angelos as its Man of the Year.

Mr. Angelos and his wife have two sons, John and Louis. John is an Executive Vice President with the Orioles and MASN, while Louis is an attorney with the Law Offices of Peter G. Angelos.

OWNERSHIP OF THE ORIOLES

On October 4, 1993, American League owners unanimously approved the sale of ownership of the Orioles from then-principal shareholder Eli S. Jacobs to a group of investors led by Baltimorean Peter Angelos. The sale placed the Orioles in local hands for the first time since 1979, when Jerold C. Hoffberger, representing his family, which owned a controlling interest in both the Orioles and the National Brewing Company, sold the franchise to prominent Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams.

From October 29, 1953, when the transfer of the St. Louis Browns franchise became official until Williams purchased the club late in 1979, the Baltimore Baseball Club, Inc. was publicly held and was operated by a group of Baltimore investors which owned a majority share of the BBCI. Among those who played key roles in the operation of the franchise during that 26-year period were: Former chief executives Clarence Miles, who organized the group that secured the St. Louis Browns for Baltimore and who served as the club's first president; James Keelty, Jr.; Joseph A. W. Iglehart; and Jerry Hoffberger, as well as longtime club treasurer Zanvyl Krieger ('58-'79).

TOM CLANCY

VICE CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY PROJECTS & PUBLIC AFFAIRS

In the mid-1980's, Tom Clancy was an obscure Maryland insurance agent with a passion for naval history and only a letter to the editor and a brief article on the MX missile to his credit. Years before, he had been an English major at Baltimore's Loyola College and had always dreamed of writing a novel. His first effort, The Hunt for Red October--the story of a Russian submarine captain who defects to the United States--sold briskly as a result of rave reviews, then catapulted on to the New York Times bestseller list after President Ronald Reagan pronounced it "the perfect yarn" and "non-put-downable." Since then, Clancy has established himself as an undisputed master at blending exceptional realism with authenticity, intricate plotting, and razor-sharp suspense. Other #1 bestsellers followed: Patriot Games, Cardinal of the Kremlin, Clear and Present Danger, The Sum of All Fears, Without Remorse, Debt of Honor, Executive Orders, Rainbow Six, The Bear and The Dragon, Red Rabbit and Teeth of the Tiger.

Clancy is extremely well-known for his deep admiration and respect for our men and women in uniform, whom he holds in the highest esteem. On November 8, 2010, he announced the "Send a Message to an American Hero" program, to encourage the American public to show their support by sending messages of gratitude to veterans and active duty soldiers who are recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, the nation's largest military medical facility, and clinical center of gravity of American military medicine.

His non-fiction works include Into the Storm: A Study in Command with General Fred Franks, Jr. (Ret.), and Submarine, Armored Cav, Fighter Wing, Marine and Airborne. He has also written four books in an extraordinary nonfiction series that looks deep into the art of war through the eyes of America's outstanding military commanders.

JOHN P. ANGELOS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Now in his 18th season with the Orioles, John Angelos is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the club. In addition, Angelos has been involved since the early stages in the planning, development, and launch and operation of the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN), the regional sports television network owned in partnership by the Orioles and the Washington Nationals, and he has been responsible since 2005 for the day-to-day operations of the twenty-four hour, year-round sports and entertainment television network.

During the past decade, Angelos has worked to enhance many facets of the club's business operations. In addition to overseeing general business operations, ranging from sales and marketing to venue operations and customer service to broadcasting, Angelos has in particular focused upon expanding the reach, activation, and revenue potential of the Orioles various television, radio, mobile, and internet multimedia platforms. In 2010, Angelos was recognized by Sports Business Journal as one of ten top "decision-makers" in the United States with respect to the growth of online streaming of sports content for his vision and understanding of the economics of sports marketing and content distribution.

Angelos expanded the Orioles radio broadcasting platform by developing the Orioles Radio Network, the franchise's in-house network that brought the club comprehensive control of all aspects of its network radio affiliate distribution, programming development, sponsorship and media sales, and marketing and development of the Orioles brand on the radio platform. The network brought dramatic new pre-game and post-game shows, in-game features, an overall increase in delivery of exclusive team content to listeners and fans, and delivered access to Orioles games on radio to millions of fans residing in previously unreached areas. Since the launch, the club has more than tripled the distribution of the Orioles Radio Network, which is now broadcast on over 40 affiliated stations reaching millions of listeners in seven Mid-Atlantic states.

Angelos played a pivotal role in planning, launching, and overseeing the daily operations of the Mid-Atlantic Sports Network (MASN). From the early stages, by virtue of his work with the Orioles in-house television operations up to and through the planning stages for the club's future regional sports network, Angelos focused upon enhancing the club's outreach to fans and sponsors along its television platform by improving and adding new programming and content, increasing affiliate distribution, and growing sales revenue opportunities. In 2005 and 2006, Angelos was instrumental in executing the launch of MASN as a twenty-four hour per day, year-round television network that would soon lead the regional sports television industry on numerous fronts, including game production, technology, marketing, sales, and distribution. By 2006, as COO of MASN, he spearheaded efforts to, for the very first time in the region, bring fans and viewers in the Mid-Atlantic one-hundred percent of the baseball game schedule of both the Orioles and the Nationals on the network. He later led the charge to make every game carried on the network available to baseball fans in the high-definition (HD) television format, with MASN ultimately becoming the leading regional sports network in the country in telecasting over 300 live MLB games in the high-definition format. Under Angelos' supervision, the network created originally produced, high quality pre-game shows, post-game shows, magazine format shows, and a variety of live and pre-packaged special programming and brought this level of high quality programming to the region's sports viewers for the very first time. MASN is currently the dominant regional sports network in the Mid-Atlantic states, carried on 25 cable and satellite providers throughout Washington, D.C., Maryland, Virginia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and North Carolina, and is one of the foremost regional networks in the country, televising over 300 live MLB games, over 500 live professional and college games combined, and over 700 live MASN produced sports shows each year covering the MLB, NFL, and NCAA among other valued sports properties.

During his tenure, MASN has recruited and signed a high-profile, nationally recognized and award-winning talent team for MASN game and show telecasts and has added production enhancements at the regional sports network level that have typically been only experienced by viewers of national sports networks. Angelos oversaw the implementation of "super-slo motion" cameras, unique remote angle cameras, in-game player and manager interviews, live game day remote studio coverage at Oriole Park and Nationals Park for every home game, live in-game remote-venue and studio updates, and the integration of MASN's "Live 360-Degree" use of talent and content interchangeably across both MASN's multiple television, internet, and mobile platforms and the respective clubs' radio and in-venue platforms. Angelos also oversaw the management team responsible for the creation and content development of the MASNsports.com website, the creation of numerous strategic multimedia content sharing and co-marketing partnerships, and the development of the network's launch marketing campaign, on-air look and feel, and a compendium of MASN's on-air and off-air creative advertising and media marketing and promotional campaigns that were designed to launch the network, drive tune-in audience, and establish brand value and fan affinity for the new network, its two MLB teams, and the game of baseball as a whole. Since 2008, MASN has received 31 awards for creative and promotional excellence, including 24 Addy Awards, 6 Emmys, and the American Marketing Association's prestigious Award of Excellence.

In 2010, Angelos concluded a seven-year project that he managed on behalf of club ownership to bring the Orioles and its fans a permanent Spring Training home in a modern, state of the art training facility in Sarasota, Florida. During the past seven years, Angelos represented the club in numerous jurisdictions before both the House of Representatives and Senate bodies in the Florida State Legislature as well as before various County Commissions throughout the State and in discussions with numerous groups of business leaders, Chambers of Commerce, tourism representatives and hotel associations, and community charitable and non-profit groups. Angelos lobbied and negotiated directly with State, County, and local officials in executing and concluding the successful effort and authored a unique multi-dimensional public-private partnership proposal that called upon the State of Florida, Sarasota County, and the team to create an unprecedented partnership surrounding the Orioles Spring Training and Recreational Sports Complex, a pioneering partnership that would provide a state of the art scouting and player development facility for the team, year round economic activity and corporate citizenry and other benefits for the local community, and hundreds of millions of dollars in new economic impact through tourism incubation for the benefit of the economy of both the Greater Sarasota community and the State of Florida. Angelos' proposal and stewardship of the project from inception to its successful conclusion culminated in a comprehensive agreement that both secured the team's Spring Training home in Florida for many years to come for the benefit of local residents and secured $31.2 million in public funding and a new athletic development facility for the benefit of the team and its many fans.

Angelos joined the Orioles organization in January, 1994 and oversaw the reorganization of the Sales, Ticketing, Ballpark Operations, and Customer Service departments of the company with the goal of providing optimal personal and professional service to its fans. In the role of Executive Vice President of the club since 1999, Angelos' responsibilities expanded to include all Marketing and Promotion, Corporate Partner and Ticket Sales, Broadcasting, Event Operations, and General Business Operations of the franchise. As part of his early broadcasting development role, Angelos participated in instituting and further developing Orioles Television, the in-house television production, sales, and distribution arm of the Orioles franchise that would later evolve into the full time regional sports television network MASN in 2005.

After graduating from the Gilman School in Baltimore, Maryland, Angelos received a B.A. in Political Science from Duke University and then earned a law degree (J.D.) from the University of Baltimore School of Law. Angelos is a member of the Board of Directors of the Maryland Million and of the Board of the Greektown CDC and is an active supporter of various charitable and non-profit efforts.

ROBERT AMES

VICE PRESIDENT ADMINISTRATION/CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bob Ames is in his 18th year with the Orioles. He joined the Orioles in April 1994 after an eight-year stint with Waverly, Inc. in Baltimore. Prior to that he worked for the U.S. Government in their Chemical Research and Development Center. He was promoted to Orioles Vice President in January 1999.

With the Orioles, Ames is responsible for administration, accounting, information systems, human resources, purchasing, concessions, retail sales, ticket sales and fan services, corporate sponsorship and sales, insurance and special projects. He serves as a trustee for the Major League Baseball Minor League Health and Welfare Plan.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Ames served as Treasurer of Waverly, Inc. While with Waverly he managed taxes, accounts receivable and credit and collections, as well as the treasury departments.

A native Baltimorean, Ames received Bachelor of Science degree in Microbiology and an additional Bachelor of Science degree in Journalism/Public Relations (magna cum laude) from the University of Maryland in 1980. In 1987, he earned his Masters Degree in Finance from the University of Baltimore. Ames is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs, the American Institute of CPAs, and the Society for Human Resources Management.

Ames resides in Churchville, MD, with his wife Linda, their three daughters Emily (currently a registered nurse with the University of Maryland Hospital), Lyndsay, Kaitlin, and their son, Benjamin. He is active in his church, Real Life Community Church, and currently serves as a Trustee on the church board.

LOU KOUSOURIS

VICE PRESIDENT/SPECIAL LIAISON TO THE CHAIRMAN

Lou Kousouris joined the Orioles in February 1994. Now in his 18th season with the team, he was promoted to Vice President prior to the 1999 season. Kousouris has worked for Peter Angelos since 1981 in the real estate and hospitality industries.

After attending the Boys Latin School, Lou received a Bachelor's degree in Sociology from C.W. Post College in Greenvale, NY, where he played football and lacrosse. After graduation, he coached both of those sports on the high school and college levels. In addition, Kousouris coached youth lacrosse in Baltimore for more than 10 years.

Kousouris is very active in the community, serving as chairman of the Boys & Girls Clubs of The Salvation Army and sitting on the Board of Directors for Camp Puh'tok, a camp for underprivileged children located in Monkton, MD. He also has served as chairman of the The Salvation Army's Advisory Board for the Baltimore Area Command and has helped raise over $4 million annually for Camp Puh'tok. In 2005, he was honored with The Salvation Army's "Others" award, joining a select few individuals nationally in recognition of his service and fund-raising support to the organization.

In November 1998, Kousouris was instrumental in coordinating the 1958 Baltimore Colts Anniversary Banquet. Proceeds from the event benefited the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease) research. He continues to assist the American Cancer Society, the Maryland Food Bank and numerous local non-profit organizations and schools in their fund-raising efforts.

A Baltimore native, Kousouris resides in Timonium, MD with his wife Pat. They have two children: Louis III, a West Point graduate and Army veteran who lives in Baltimore and works for a commercial real estate company; and Alexandra, a graduate of the University of Georgia and of the University of Baltimore School of Law who is the Director of Camp Puh'tok, a 501(c)(3) summer camp for children in northern Baltimore County.

JANET MARIE SMITH

VICE PRESIDENT, PLANNING AND DEVLEOPMENT

Renowned architect and urban planner Janet Marie Smith rejoined the Orioles as Vice President of Planning and Development in September 2009. In her current role, Smith oversees renovations at the Orioles' new spring training facility in Sarasota, Florida as well as upgrades and enhancements at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

Smith previously worked for the Orioles from 1989-94 as Vice President of Planning and Development during the design and construction of Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Camden Yards immediately became the standard-bearer for a new wave of retro ballparks that have been built in subsequent years. Smith played an instrumental role in the design of the ballpark, creating a state-of-the-art, yet unique, facility that blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking inspiration from baseball parks built in the early 20th century.

Prior to rejoining the Orioles, Smith had served as Senior Vice President of Planning and Development for the Boston Red Sox since 2002, overseeing preservation of and improvements at historic Fenway Park and the surrounding neighborhood. Janet Marie also worked as Senior Advisor of Planning and Design with Baltimore-based Struever Bros. Eccles & Rouse on the design of many of their development and rehab projects from Nashville, Tennessee to Providence, Rhode Island. She was part of the THINK team, one of the final two teams in the competition for the World Trade Center site in New York City in 2002. In the late '90s, Smith held the position of President of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development, a division of Turner Broadcasting System, and was the Vice President of Planning and Development for the Atlanta Braves. Her work in Atlanta helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field, home of the Braves, and she also oversaw the development of the Philips Arena, home of the NBA Atlanta Hawks and NHL Atlanta Thrashers.

Before working in sports, Smith worked on urban development projects including Pershing Square in Los Angeles and Battery Park City in New York City, where she served as Coordinator of Architecture and Design.

Smith holds a Masters degree in Urban Planning from City College of New York and a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Mississippi State University. She is an associate member of the Urban Land Institute, American Institute of Architects, and the American Planning Association. She also serves on the Board of Directors for Berklee College of Music in Boston and the Board of Overseers for the Boston Architectural College.

A native of Jackson, Mississippi, Smith resides in Baltimore with her husband, Bart Harvey, and their three children.

ANDY MacPHAIL

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

A member of one of baseball's most honored and respected families, Andy MacPhail returned to his childhood hometown of Baltimore on June 20, 2007, when he was named President of Baseball Operations for the Orioles. He oversees all aspects of major league, minor league and scouting operations for the ballclub.

MacPhail, whose father and grandfather both are members of Baseball's Hall of Fame, had assisted Major League Baseball with a variety of projects for several months before he joined the Orioles organization. He spent the previous 12 years through the 2006 season as president and chief executive officer of the Chicago Cubs. Prior to joining the Cubs, he served as executive vice president and general manager of the Minnesota Twins for nine seasons.

MacPhail joined the Cubs in September 1994. Chicago reached the playoffs twice during his tenure, which also included a two-year stint as general manager, from July 2000 to July 2002. Prior to his arrival, the Cubs had reached the postseason only twice in the previous 50 seasons. In 2003, Chicago also won their first postseason series since 1908. As part of his duties with the Cubs, MacPhail oversaw the modernization and expansion of historic Wrigley Field. The Cubs had never drawn more than 2.4 million fans per year before MacPhail's arrival, but drew over 3 million fans in each of his final three seasons with the club.

In MacPhail's nine seasons as the Twins' general manager, Minnesota won two World Series championships, in 1987 and 1991. When he was named the Twins' GM in 1985 at age 32, he was the youngest person to hold that position in the majors. He was honored by The Sporting News as its 1991 Major League Executive of the Year and also earned United Press International's American League Executive of the Year award after building a team that went from last place to World Champions in one season.

MacPhail began his professional career in 1976 as business manager for the Cubs' Bradenton affiliate in the Rookie-level Gulf Coast League. The following year he moved to Chicago as an assistant in the Cubs' park operations department. He joined the player development department a year later and eventually became assistant director of player development and scouting before leaving the Cubs in 1982 to become assistant general manager of the Houston Astros.

He joined the Minnesota organization in August 1985 as vice president of player personnel and was promoted to executive vice president/general manager in November 1986.

MacPhail spent eight years growing up in the Baltimore area, while his father, Lee MacPhail, was general manager of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. Lee spent 45 years as a baseball executive and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. As GM of the Orioles, he oversaw the team's rise from second division to contender in the early 1960s. He also served as general manager of the New York Yankees, spent 10 seasons as the American League president and served as president of baseball's Player Relations Committee.

Andy's grandfather, Larry MacPhail, was also elected to the Hall of Fame, in 1978. During his executive career, Larry helped pioneer night baseball as owner of the Cincinnati Reds in 1935, won a National League championship as owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941 and won the World Series as owner of the New York Yankees in 1947.

Andy became the third member of the family to win The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award when he was honored in 1991; Larry earned the honors in 1939 and Lee was named in 1966.

MacPhail also served on MLB's negotiating committees during the 2002 and 2006 seasons, helping to work out new collective bargaining agreements with the MLB Players Association. Those were the first two agreements reached without a work stoppage in more than 30 years of labor negotiations between MLB and the players' union.

MacPhail is also one of five MLB executives on the 12-member committee to elect executives to Baseball's Hall of Fame. This past off-season, he was one of 14 baseball veterans named to MLB's newly-created Special Committee for On-Field Matters to review and examine all on-field related issues.

Born in Bronxville, NY on April 5, 1953, MacPhail is a 1976 graduate of Dickinson College. He and his wife, Lark, live in Baltimore with their two sons, William and Andrew.

JOE JORDAN

DIRECTOR, AMATEUR SCOUTING

Joe Jordan is in his seventh season as the Orioles' Director of Scouting. His first six drafts have been widely praised in baseball circles, helping to provide the Orioles' farm system with both deep and highly rated classes of both pitching and position talent. The club's 2008 and 2007 first-round draft picks, left-handed pitcher Brian Matusz and catcher Matt Wieters, play integral roles with the major league club.

Jordan, 49, was named to his current position on November 16, 2004, joining the Orioles after eight seasons with the Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. He spent the 2003-04 seasons as National Crosschecker for the Marlins before coming to the Orioles. He began his scouting career in 1997 as an area scout for the Expos before being named Midwest Supervisor in 2001. He moved into the same capacity with Florida when most of Montreal's front office staff moved to the Florida organization in 2002, and was named National Crosschecker a year later.

Selected as a catcher in the 19th round of the 1985 draft by San Francisco, Jordan batted .213 in 33 games for Everett, the Giants' Class A team in the short-season Northwest League, in 1985. He was injured the following spring and was released at the end of spring training. He returned to his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, received his degree in 1987 and spent three years as an assistant baseball coach for the Sooners, 1988-90.

Jordan spent seven years in the financial investment business before returning to baseball as a scout for the Expos in 1997.

Joe and his wife, Kim, have been married for 26 years. They live in Blanchard, OK, with their daughter, Alexandra, 17.

MATT KLENTAK

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Matt Klentak enters his fourth season as Director of Baseball Operations with the Orioles, having been named to the position on March 4, 2008. In this role, he assists Andy MacPhail in all phases of baseball operations including scouting, player development, contract negotiations and the overall construction of the Major League roster.

Before joining the Orioles, Klentak spent four years working in Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department. While there, he interacted with the baseball operations departments of all 30 teams, providing advice and interpretations on the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and Major League Rules, serving as a key administrator in both the Salary Arbitration Support Program and the Rule 4 Draft Support Program, providing economic and baseball analyses for Owners Meetings, GM Meetings and Scouting/Farm Director Meetings and serving as the primary contact for Club personnel regarding Major League contract terms, language and data maintenance in MLB's IT systems.

Klentak also was a key member of the MLB Collective Bargaining team that successfully negotiated a second consecutive CBA without a work stoppage in 2006. It was on this team that Klentak and MacPhail first worked together.

Prior to joining the Commissioner's Office, Klentak spent the 2003 season in the Baseball Operations department of the Colorado Rockies. While there, he gained experience in video and advance scouting, coordinated the inflow of all amateur scouting reports and authored several baseball/financial analyses throughout the season.

Born and raised in Medfield, MA, Klentak graduated in 2002 with a degree in Economics from Dartmouth College, where he was a four-year baseball letterman, three-year starting shortstop and team captain his senior year. The Big Green won two Ivy League Red Rolfe Division championships (2000 and 2001) during his playing days.

Klentak and his wife, Lauren, reside in Baltimore.

LEE MacPHAIL IV

DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

No stranger to the Orioles front office, Lee MacPhail brings a wealth of experience and pedigree to his position as Director of Professional Scouting. The 2011 season marks the fourth year of his second stint with the club and his 14th overall season with Baltimore. In his current role, MacPhail oversees Professional Scouting, Advance Scouting and Major League Video Coaching. In addition to his administrative duties, MacPhail has a full slate of professional assignments during the season, including special assignments.

Named to the position on October 30, 2007, MacPhail began his professional baseball career while still in high school as an intern in the Orioles' public relations office. He spent 10 years with the Orioles, 1986-95, eventually serving as assistant director of player development and scouting.

He spent the 1996 season as assistant to the general manager for the Texas Rangers, working mostly in amateur and professional scouting. Following the season, he was named Director of Scouting for Cleveland, a position he held for two years during which he coordinated drafts in which the Indians netted six big league players, including 2007 Cy Young Award winner C.C. Sabathia.

MacPhail, 41, was an area scout for the Minnesota Twins for 3 1/2 years (1999-2002) before spending five years in professional scouting and administrative capacities for the Montreal/Washington franchise, from 2002-06. He served as director of professional scouting for the team in Montreal before taking on duties as director of baseball administration and special assignment scout when the Expos relocated to Washington. He spent the 2007 season with the Twins as a professional scout prior to rejoining the Orioles.

Lee is the 4th generation in a family with deep roots in baseball. Both his great-grandfather, Larry MacPhail, and his grandfather, Lee MacPhail Jr., are members of Baseball's Hall of Fame. Larry was owner of the Cincinnati Reds, Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees in the 1930s & 40s. Lee Jr. was general manager of the Orioles (1958-65) and Yankees (1966-73) and served as president of the American League from 1974-83. His father, Lee III, was general manager of the Reading Phillies when he was killed in an automobile accident in 1969. His uncle, Andy MacPhail, is the Orioles' President of Baseball Operations.

Born in Baltimore and raised in the Hunt Valley area in Baltimore County, MacPhail attended Friends School. He graduated cum laude from Lafayette College in 1991. He is married to the former Kristin Grant, whose brother, Brad Grant, currently is scouting director for the Cleveland Indians. Lee and Kristin currently reside in Shaker Heights, OH, with their four children -- daughters Ellie and Olivia and sons Quinn (Lee V) and Jake.

DAVID STOCKSTILL

DIRECTOR, INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

David Stockstill, a member of the Orioles' minor league staff for 16 years, was named as the club's Director of International Operations in April 2010 after serving as the club's Director of Player Development since November 2004. David oversees all the club's international operations, including scouting in the Far East, Latin America and beyond. He also oversees player development in the Dominican Republic.

Stockstill, 53, had served as a roving hitting instructor, manager, field coordinator and hitting coordinator for the Orioles' minor league department since 1994 before being named Director of Minor League Operations in November 2004. His title was changed to Director of Player Development in 2008. In his final two years before being named to the top farm system post, Stockstill held the dual role as the organization's Minor League Field and Hitting Coordinator, overseeing on-field instruction throughout the Orioles' farm system.

Stockstill played professionally for 16 years after signing with the Chicago Cubs as a free agent in 1978. He played eight seasons between the Cubs, Rangers, Giants and Expos farm systems, including three seasons at AAA Oklahoma City, before moving to the Mexican League in 1986. He hit .283 with 27 homers and a league-leading 101 RBI with Class A Wausaw in 1979, capturing Midwest League MVP honors. He finished his career by playing eight seasons in Mexico, including the last 1 1/2 years as a player-manager for Union Laguna, and finished with a .342 career batting average, third on the Mexican League's all-time list.

In 1994, Stockstill joined the Orioles' organization as a roving hitting instructor, a position he held through 2001. The next year, he was named Minor League Field Coordinator before taking over as manager at AA Bowie for the second half of the 2002 season and leading the Baysox to a 26-26 record.

Stockstill was born and still resides in Hurley, MO, outside of Springfield. He was an all-state baseball and basketball player at Hurley HS and is a graduate of John Brown University in Arkansas, where he was a two-time NAIA All-America. At John Brown, he played for former major league outfielder and former O's minor league hitting coordinator Wally Moon.

David's brother, John, serves as the Orioles' Director of Player Development.

JOHN STOCKSTILL

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

John Stockstill, in his sixth year with the Orioles, was named the club's Director of Player Development on April 5, 2010 after serving as the team's Director of International Scouting for the last several years. Stockstill oversees all aspects of the Orioles' player development system.

Stockstill initially joined the Orioles in December 2005 to oversee the club's major league and professional scouting, but with the creation of the Orioles' academy in the Dominican Republic and a renewed emphasis on scouting outside the United States, he shifted his focus to the club's international scouting in the Far East, Latin America and beyond. These efforts paid dividends in the signing of the club's first Japanese player, Koji Uehara, to a two-year contract in January 2009.

Prior to joining the Orioles organization, Stockstill had spent his entire professional baseball career – as minor league player, scout and front office executive – with the Chicago Cubs. He had been Director of Scouting for the Cubs since September 1, 2000, after serving as Chicago's coordinator of scouting and national crosschecker since October 1998.

Stockstill was a 10th round pick in the 1978 draft and played four seasons in the Cubs' farm system, finishing with Class A Davenport in the Midwest League in 1981. He returned to college and received his B.S. degree in communications at Drury University in Springfield, MO, and served as an assistant basketball coach there before moving to Benedictine College in Kansas as an assistant basketball coach. He became Benedictine's baseball coach in 1986 and also rejoined the Cubs as an associate scout a year later. He became a part-time scout for the Cubs in 1989 before becoming a full-time area scout in 1989 and Midwest scouting supervisor four years later. He held that position for four years before being named scouting coordinator in 1998.

John and his wife, Ann, have one son, Jackson, (9). They reside in White Hall, MD.

BRIAN GRAHAM

COORDINATOR, MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTION

Brian begins his 30th year in professional baseball and his fourth season with the Orioles Minor League system. As Coordinator of Instruction, Brian will oversee the teaching and instructional process for the six minor league affiliates.

Prior to joining the Orioles, Brian spent six seasons as the Director of Player Development for the Pittsburgh Pirates. During that six year period, the Pirates minor league system registered the second highest total of home grown players to reach the major league level, they finished with the fourth best overall winning percentage of all 30 major league organizations, and were honored as the 2002 Topps Baseball "Organization of the Year". Brian also served as the interim General Manager for the Pittsburgh Pirates in September of 2007.

Before joining the Pirates, Brian was a major league coach with the American League Central Division Champion Cleveland Indians for two seasons (1998-1999) and with the Baltimore Orioles in 2000. Graham spent the 2001 season as the Field Coordinator for the Florida Marlins.

In nine seasons as a minor league manager with the Cleveland Indians organization, Graham's teams finished above .500 every year, compiling a 704-491 (.589) record. Graham managed eight consecutive playoff teams and was a staff member on 10 consecutive playoff teams (eight as a manager and two as a major league coach). He was named the Carolina League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1991, the "Best Managerial Prospect" by Eastern League Managers/Baseball America magazine in 1993, and Minor League Manager-of-the-Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996. Brian also managed in the Dominican Republic Winter League for Aguilas (1991) and was a coach (1993) and a manager (1994) in the Arizona Fall League.

Originally selected by the Oakland A's in the fourth round of the 1982 June draft, the former second baseman played five seasons in the minor leagues with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland. Brian played both football and baseball at UCLA and was a member of the 1978 Fiesta Bowl team. He was a first team all PAC-10 infielder in 1982, and finished his collegiate career as UCLA's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. Graham was elected to the UCLA Baseball Hall-of-Fame in 1996, inducted into the Buffalo Bisons Hall of Fame in 2008, and inducted into the Granite Hills High School Hall of Fame in 2009.

Brian was born 4/9/60 in San Diego, CA. Brian graduated from Granite Hills High School in 1978 and attended UCLA for four years before receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in Behavioral Science from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Cranberry Township, PA, with his wife Karen and three children; son Jack (18) and daughters Kelsey (16) and Kendall (8).

IN MEMORIAM

ERNIE TYLER

April 30, 1924- February 10, 2011

The Orioles lost a member of their family on February 10 when longtime umpires attendant Ernie Tyler passed away at the age of 86. Tyler worked 51 seasons for the club, including a streak of 3,819 consecutive home games as umpires attendant at Memorial Stadium and Oriole Park from Opening Day 1960 through July 27, 2007.

A graduate of Baltimore's Mt. St. Joseph High School, where he played in the same football backfield with former Orioles and Mets General Manager Frank Cashen, Ernie spent his career with the Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. He began as a part-time usher at Memorial Stadium during the Orioles' first season in 1954, then became a full-time usher in 1958 before becoming the umpires attendant in 1960, assisting the umpires before, during and after Orioles games. One of Ernie's daily responsibilities was rubbing the game baseballs with mud, a meticulous process he took pride in explaining to visitors.

Ernie's commitment to his job was evident in his string of 3,769 consecutive regular season, 40 post-season, nine exhibition and one All-Star Game worked over 48 years from 1960 through 2007. The streak ended only because Cal Ripken Jr. requested that Ernie be his guest at his Baseball Hall of Fame induction ceremonies in Cooperstown, New York. Ernie returned to his post immediately after the Hall of Fame weekend, working for three more seasons with the club before his death.

In 2004, Ernie was named winner of the Herb Armstrong Award, presented by the Oriole Advocates' Hall of Fame Committee to non-uniformed personnel who have distinguished themselves in service to the Orioles.

Ernie and his wife, Juliane, were married 64 years. In addition to his wife, Ernie is survived by 11 children – Theresa, Regina, Phil, Jim, Ernie Jr., Mary, Judy, Michael, Fred, Chris and Michelle. Nine Tylers, including Ernie, Juliane and seven of the children, worked for the Orioles at one time. His sons Jim and Fred currently serve as the home and visiting clubhouse managers, respectively.

ORIOLES REACH

ORIOLES REACH IN THE COMMUNITY

For more than 50 years, the Baltimore Orioles have worked hard to give back to the local community, becoming involved in a variety of area programs and initiatives. Through OriolesREACH, the team seeks opportunities to reach out to our neighbors and help our fans improve their daily lives. In addition to partnering with existing charities and organizations, the Orioles have also established a collection of initiatives under the current ownership group. Here is a brief summary of some of the efforts that took place in 2010 both in the community and at Oriole Park.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CHARITABLE FOUNDATION & BALTIMORE ORIOLES LIMITED PARTNERSHIP

The Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. support many civic and charitable organizations with the goal of enriching the lives of fans in the community. Since the ownership group headed by Peter Angelos purchased the team, the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Baltimore Orioles, Inc. have donated over $10 million to support various organizations in the Orioles community.

AT THE BALLPARK

JACKIE ROBINSON DAY

In recognition of the 63rd anniversary of Jackie Robinson's milestone introduction as the first African-American player in Major League Baseball on April 15, all Orioles players and coaches wore Robinson's famous number 42 for their game in Oakland against the Athletics. Each jersey was then autographed, authenticated and made available for auction on Orioles.com. The auction raised more than $8,000 for the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation and the Jackie Robinson Foundation. In a pre-game ceremony on April 27, the Orioles celebrated Jackie Robinson Day at Camden Yards by recognizing Jackie Robinson Foundation scholar Fana Aragaw, one of over 1,300 people who are able to attend college thanks to the Jackie Robinson Foundation, Major League Baseball and the Orioles.

FIELD TRIP DAY

For the third consecutive season, OriolesREACH partnered with MASN and WJZ-TV to host Field Trip Day at Oriole Park. On May 13, more than 7,000 students from local elementary and middle schools gathered at Camden Yards to learn about the weather from WJZ-TV's First Warning Weather Team of Bob Turk, Bernadette Woods and Tim Williams. Orioles Head Groundskeeper Nicole Sherry also explained to the students how these weather patterns affect the playing field at Oriole Park, as well as impact the game itself. The students learned about the jet stream, clouds, winter weather, lightning, tornadoes and hurricanes prior to that afternoon's game.

ORIOLES REACH FOOD DRIVE

The Oriole Wives, Oriole Advocates, MASN and WJZ-TV teamed up to host the 24th Annual OriolesREACH Food Drive at Camden Yards in June to benefit the Maryland Food Bank. Representatives were stationed at each entry gate to collect non-perishable food items and cash donations for the Maryland Food Bank and their work with local soup kitchens, food pantries and emergency shelters throughout Central Maryland. For fans unable to attend, a "virtual food drive" was also held online to add to the efforts. Between the two drives, more than 2,200 pounds of food were collected along with cash contributions of $20,000.

O'S HONOR 1970 WORLD CHAMPIONS

A Birdland celebration 40 years in the making, the Orioles honored the 1970 World Championship team with special pre-game ceremonies before their game against the Nationals on June 26. More than 20 members of the team were on hand, including Hall of Famers Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson, Jim Palmer and Earl Weaver. Players and coaches were also honored at a private luncheon for fans before the game, while several players signed at autograph stations around Oriole Park. During the game, the Orioles wore special 1970 throwback uniforms. Uniforms from the game, as well as the pre-game alumni ceremonies, were auctioned online at orioles.com, with more than $50,000 raised for the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation.

MICHELLE OBAMA KICKS OFF "LET'S MOVE!" INITIATIVE AT CAMDEN YARDS

First Lady Michelle Obama held a press conference at Oriole Park on July 20 to announce her "Let's Move!" initiative, a partnership between the White House, Major League Baseball and the Major League Baseball Players Association. After the announcement, players from both the Orioles and Rays held a clinic for 50 young baseball players from the Baltimore RBI League and local Boys and Girls Clubs. That evening, the First Lady joined representatives from the Boys and Girls Clubs and the RBI League to throw out the ceremonial first pitch.

CARDBOARD TO LEATHER COLLECTION

On September 18, OriolesREACH once again teamed with the Oriole Advocates for the Cardboard to Leather Collection presented by Legg Mason. Fans donated new or gently used baseball and softball equipment at the game to underprivileged children in Central America and bid on Orioles memorabilia at a silent auction to benefit the cause. Legg Mason also donated $20,000 to the collection and held separate equipment drives at their corporate offices, and the Baseball Tomorrow Fund awarded a grant of $5,000 to the Oriole Advocate Charitable Foundation for the purchase of new equipment. The grant was given in the name of Oriole Luke Scott in honor of his commitment to youth baseball and softball in Venezuela. The collection resulted in over 2,200 items of equipment and over $5,000 in cash donations.

IBEW-NECA ORIOLES REACH GAMEDAY EXPERIENCE PROGRAM

Each season, the Orioles and OriolesREACH invite more than 12,000 children from disadvantaged areas in the region to experience the magic of Orioles Baseball as part of the IBEW-NECA OriolesREACH Gameday Experience Program. By partnering with various local non-profit and youth groups, OriolesREACH is able to provide children with free game tickets, concessions vouchers, Orioles t-shirts, caps and transportation to and from the game. Numerous Orioles players have taken part in the program, including Adam Jones, Felix Pie, Michael Gonzalez, Brian Matusz, and Jeremy Guthrie. More than 60,000 children have participated since the program's inception.

CARE FIRST AND THE ORIOLES TEAM UP TO HELP CHILDREN

As part of the K's for Kids Program, each time an Orioles pitcher recorded a strikeout in 2010, CareFirst BlueCross/BlueShield donated $25 to the SEED School of Maryland, resulting in over $25,000 for the cause.

SAVES FOR SHOCK TRAUMA

UMMS teamed up with Kelly & Associates Insurance Group to donate $1,000 to the R Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center for each Orioles save during the 2010 season. In a pre-game ceremony on September 19, Kelly & Associates presented a check for $31,000 to Shock Trauma.

SWINGS FOR SCHOLARS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

In partnership with Legg Mason Global Asset management, the Orioles unveiled a new scholarship program in 2010 called Swings for Scholars. The program provides full community college scholarships to qualified graduates of Baltimore City Schools and support their efforts to pursue education beyond high school. Each time Nick Markakis recorded a hit, Legg Mason Charitable Foundation, Inc. made a $200 contribution to the program, raising $37,400.

SHANNON'S FUND

In 2008, the Orioles and OriolesREACH established Shannon's Fund, a $50,000 endowment at the University of Maryland Medical Center to provide financial assistance to hospital patients and their families. Created in memory of Shannon Obaker – the team's Director of Community Outreach who bravely fought cancer for over a year before passing away in January 2007 at age 29 – Shannon's Fund is administered by the University of Maryland Medical Center. Funds will be donated to patients and their family members as need arises to assist with the general expenses associated with the treatment process, including hospital parking, alternate housing, food costs and household bills.

DAY AT THE BALLPARK

The Orioles hosted more than 35,000 youth at Camden Yards in 2010 through their 56th annual Safety Patrol Day (10,000), two Little League Days (16,720), Youth Sports Day (1,000), Day Camper Day (5,000), Buddies Night (1,500) and Scouts Night (1,000).

ORIOLES ALUMNI AUTOGRAPH SERIES

In 2010, the Orioles continued the Orioles Alumni Autograph Series. Before every Monday and Thursday home game, fans met some of their favorite former Orioles at Camden Yards. The former players signed autographs and shared memories at the MASN Booth on Eutaw Street for an hour before each game. Some of the players who participated last year included Paul Blair, Mike Boddicker, Mike Bordick, Don Buford, Al Bumbry, Andy Etchebarren, Chris Hoiles, Bill Hunter, Tippy Martinez, Ben McDonald, Scott McGregor, Joe Orsulak, and Larry Sheets.

HIGH FIVE FUNDRAISING PROGRAM

The OriolesREACH High Five Fundraising Program continues to help local non-profit groups, civic organizations, school and youth groups raise money for their efforts. Since its inception in 2005, the High Five Program has helped to raise well over $850,000 for these groups.

IN THE COMMUNITY

ORIOLES FANFEST

In January 2011, Orioles FanFest returned to the Baltimore Convention Center. A day-long celebration of baseball, FanFest featured autograph signings by current and former Orioles players and coaches, question and answer forums and clinics, exhibits and interactive games. Over 10,500 people attended the event, and more than $56,000 was raised for children's charities through OriolesREACH through the sale of autograph session vouchers.

BALTIMORE CITY YOUTH CLINIC AT CARROLL PARK

On June 12, the Orioles hosted their annual youth baseball clinic at Carroll Park with more than 300 pre-registered Baltimore City youngsters. Adam Jones offered instruction along with former Orioles Paul Blair, Al Bumbry, and Rick Krivda. The Orioles also provided tickets to that night's game for all children who participated.

LEARNING WITH THE ORIOLES

In 2010, OriolesREACH once again teamed up with Baltimore City Public Schools and T. Rowe Price to support "Learning with the Orioles," a comprehensive summer learning program teaching math, reading, science and social studies skills to nearly 14,000 students at 80 city public elementary and middle schools. The program blends skills from each academic discipline for each grade level with facts and games related to the Orioles and baseball. It represents a new style of curriculum for City Schools, one that integrates several different academic subjects into a program that is educational, fun and includes enrichment activities, including a visit to Camden Yards at the end of the summer session. More than 5,000 City Schools students also received free tickets to attend the July 22 Orioles game at Camden Yards.

ADAM JONES AT Y OF CENTRAL MARYLAND

Gold Glove outfielder Adam Jones visited the Y of Central Maryland in Druid Hill for two special events last season. On April 30, Adam participated in a community block party for Druid Hill residents, Y volunteers and community and business leaders that celebrated the completion of the Druid Hill Family Center's revitalization project and community clean up. Then, on August 19, Adam visited the Druid Hill Y Center and the children involved in the New Horizons program. New Horizons is an eight-week program held each summer at the Druid Hill Family Center Y that offers life-skills and job training for approximately 65 homeless teens from Baltimore City. This unique program exposes homeless teens to opportunities and role models that may otherwise not be present in their lives.

AMERICAN RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

Last season, OriolesREACH once again teamed up with the University of Maryland Medical Center to host a series of American Red Cross Blood Drives. Participants received exclusive gifts such as a Jim Palmer t-shirt, Matt Wieters bobblehead, Oriole Park VIP experiences, as well as free tickets to an Orioles game.

REVIVING BASEBALL IN INNER CITY (RBI) LEAGUE

Funded by the Baltimore Orioles Charitable Foundation, the Reviving Baseball in the Inner City (RBI) League was established to help Baltimore City kids build self esteem while learning baseball skills in a fun and safe environment. In addition to sponsoring the summer-long league for more than 300 area teenagers, Orioles players including center fielder Adam Jones visited games during the summer to offer their support. The Orioles also hosted the championship games at Oriole Park for both the Junior and Senior divisions, and honored the league champions with special pre-game ceremonies on August 5.

T. ROWE PRICE SUMMER READING PROGRAM

Last year, the Orioles once again partnered with Maryland Public Libraries to present their annual Summer Reading Program, presented by T. Rowe Price, to local participants at more than 180 Maryland public library branches. The program was designed to encourage and reward area youth who commit to reading throughout the summer. Beginning in June, children from elementary school through high school were able to register at any Maryland Public Library and receive a Reading Log that guided them through the Summer Reading Program. Kids who completed the Reading Log received prizes including Orioles game tickets. All told, more than 150,000 students participated in the Summer Reading Program.

RIGHT SIDE FOUNDATION

In May 2009, Orioles right fielder Nick Markakis, and his wife, Christina, established The Right Side Foundation, a non-profit charity for distressed and disadvantaged youth in Maryland. The Foundation provides activities and initiatives for children, including "Fun for 21," a program that selects 21 children from different community groups to participate in monthly trips ranging from museum visits and Orioles games to outside activities. The Foundation also held its second annual 5K Run and 1-Mile Walk at Patterson Park in August and took a deserving Baltimore City family on a Christmas shopping spree at a local Target store in December.

USO-METRO'S "OPERATION BACK TO SCHOOL"

Last August, Orioles Jake Fox and Brad Bergesen attended the USO-Metro's "Operation Back to School" at Fort Meade. The day featured military children participating in a variety of activities that corresponded with their subjects in school. Fox and Bergesen encouraged the children during the physical education portion of the day, helping them with a fun obstacle course.

BRIAN'S BASEBALL BASH

Last August, OriolesREACH and Brian Roberts hosted the Fifth Annual Brian's Baseball Bash, a fundraising event for the University of Maryland Hospital for Children's Pediatric Cardiopulmonary and Child Life Programs. The special evening for fans at Dave and Busters in the Arundel Mills Mall included silent and live auctions of sports memorabilia to help the children at UMHC. Through the hard work of Brian and the OriolesREACH team, and the generosity of Orioles fans, more than $500,000 has been raised since the first Bash in 2006. In addition, the Orioles have donated more than $50,000 to provide tickets for patients and their families. Throughout the season, Brian makes regular visits to UMHC to visit with patients and offer his support.

KID'S HOLIDAY PARTY

This past December, Mark Reynolds, Nick Markakis, Jake Arrieta, Koji Uehara Brian Roberts and Buck Showalter joined former Orioles Al Bumbry, Dave Johnson, Scott McGregor, and Larry Sheets to host the 32nd annual OriolesREACH Holiday Party for Kids. Over 80 second through fourth graders from Samuel F.B. Morse School in Baltimore enjoyed games and lunch at Dave & Busters in the Arundel Mills Mall. McGregor reprised his role as Santa Claus and distributed gifts, including a brand-new baseball glove, to each child.

PLAYER AND MASCOT APPEARANCES

One of the best examples of the Orioles reaching out into the community is when Orioles players themselves appear all over town. Current and former Oriole players made over 150 appearances in the community in 2010 and the Oriole Bird flew to more than 200 destinations in the past year.

DONATIONS

The Orioles donate memorabilia items to charitable, non-profit organizations for fundraising activities. Through these contributions the Orioles helped hundreds of non-profit organizations raise money for their causes in 2010.

MANAGER & COACHES

BUCK SHOWALTER 26

MANAGER

Full Name: William Nathaniel "Buck" Showalter III
Born: May 23, 1956
Opening Day 2011 Age: 54
Birthplace/Residence: Born in DeFuniak Springs, FL…Resides in Dallas, TX
Contract Status: Signed through 2013
M.L. Service: 2011 will be his 18th season in professional baseball as a manager, his 13th in the majors and his second with the Orioles.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Showalter was hired as the 19th manager in Orioles history on July 29, 2010 and took the helm on August 2, directing the club to a 34-23 finish, the second-best record in the AL over the last 57 games behind Minnesota's 35-22 finish. Showalter became the first manager since 1900 to take over a team on August 1 or later and win more games the rest of the way (34) than the club won before he took over (32). He is also the first manager in major league history to win seven of his first eight games after taking over a team in midseason that was 20 or more games under .500.

In his managerial career, Showalter has a 916-856 record in 12 seasons as manager of the New York Yankees (313-268; 1992-95), Arizona Diamondbacks (250-236; 1998-2000), Texas Rangers (319-329; 2003-2006) and Baltimore Orioles (34-23, 2010-current). A two-time Manager of the Year (1994 and 2004), Showalter's 916 wins entering 2011 are seventh-most among active major league managers and 63rd all-time. He recorded his 900th career win on September 4, 2010 against Tampa Bay.

Showalter spent the first 19 years of his professional baseball career in the New York Yankees organization, culminating in a four-year stint as manager from 1992-95. In 1994 Showalter earned AL Manager of the Year honors, guiding New York to a 70-43 record before the strike ended the season prematurely. The next season, he led the Yankees to their first playoff berth in 14 years and managed the American League All-Star team. He was the youngest manager in the major leagues in each of his four seasons in New York.

In November 1995, Showalter joined the Arizona Diamondbacks, 28 months before the expansion franchise began play, and helped shape the new team's major league operations. In 1999, he guided the Diamondbacks to a 100-win season and the NL West division title, an improvement of 35 victories over the previous season, the most in major league history.

Showalter joined the Texas Rangers prior to the 2003 season and, in 2004, led the club to an 18-win improvement over the previous year, earning his second Manager of the Year honor.

Showalter's managerial career began in 1985 with the Oneonta Yankees. He managed for five seasons in the Yankees minor league system, earning Eastern League Minor League Manager of the Year honors in 1989, prior to joining the major league coaching staff in 1990.

Texas: Ranks fourth on the Rangers all-time manager's win list with 319…Only Bobby Valentine (581), Johnny Oates (506) and Ron Washington (331) have more wins as the Rangers skipper…Named the BBWAA's American League Manager of the Year in 2004 after guiding the Rangers to an 89-73 record, leading a team that was not eliminated from playoff contention until the final week of the season…Piloted the club to a third place finish in the AL West, just 3.0 games behind division champion Anaheim…Club's 89 victories marked an 18-win improvement over its 2003 finish, matching the third-largest increase between two seasons in Rangers history…Named the 2004 The Sporting News AL Co-Manager of the Year, winning that award for the second time (also 1994)…Tied with the Twins' Ron Gardenhire for The Sporting News award in 2004…Was appointed as the 16th full time manager in club history on October 11, 2002, signing a 4-year contract.

Arizona: Guided the Diamondbacks to a 250-236 (.514) record from 1998-2000, the franchise's first three seasons in the National League…2000: Arizona led the NL West for first four months before finishing third at 85-77, 12 games behind San Francisco…1999: Guided the Diamondbacks to the NL West title with a 100-62 record, 14 games ahead of San Francisco…Marked the first time that an expansion team had ever won a division title in as few as two years…Increase of 35 victories from 1998 represented the biggest improvement in major league history…Diamondbacks won 51 of final 68 games…Arizona lost in four games to the New York Mets in the NL Division Series…1998: In its inaugural season, Arizona was 65-97, the fourth most wins ever for an expansion club in its first year…Won seven consecutive contests, August 28-September 4, tying the 1961 Los Angeles Angels for longest winning streak ever for an expansion team…Joined the Arizona organization as its first manager on November 15, 1995, 28 months before the NL expansion club began play…During that period was instrumental in the formation of Arizona's major league operation and was heavily involved in the scouting of major and minor league talent.

New York Yankees: Had a 313-268 record (.539) in four seasons as New York's manager…At that time was the longest consecutive tenure for a Yankees skipper since Ralph Houk managed from 1966-73…Was the major leagues' youngest manager in each of his four seasons at New York…1995: Yankees earned their first postseason appearance since 1981, winning the AL Wild Card with a 78-66 record, second in the East, seven games behind Boston…New York won nine of final 10 games to earn playoff berth…Won first two games of AL Division Series versus Seattle before dropping final three contests in the Kingdome…Managed the AL squad in the July 11 All-Star Game at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington, losing to the NL, 3-2…1994: Guided Yankees to 70-43 record, a .619 winning percentage that ranked as second best in the majors at time of players' strike on August 12…Had a 6.5 game lead in AL East, biggest advantage of any division…Won his 200th game as a Yankee on June 13 in Baltimore at the age of 38, second youngest New York skipper to reach that milestone behind Clark Griffith at age 35 in 1905…Selected as the AL Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and The Sporting News…1993: New York finished second in AL East at 88-74, 7 games behind Toronto and a 13-game improvement from 1992…Finished second in AL BBWAA Manager of the Year balloting behind Chicago's Gene Lamont…1992: Appointed as the 30th Yankees manager on October 29, 1991 at age 35, the club's youngest skipper since Roger Peckinpaugh (23) in 1914…New York went 76-86, a 5-game improvement from 1991 and had second best start in team history at 6-0…Served as a coach for Tom Kelly in the All-Star Game at San Diego, the first Yankee manager to achieve that distinction since Houk in 1970.

New York Organization: Spent the first 19 seasons of his pro career in the Yankees organization…Was on New York's major league coaching staff for two seasons, serving as team's "eye in the sky coach" for the first half of 1990 and as third base coach from June 6, 1990 through 1991…Compiled a 360-207 record in five seasons as a minor league manager from 1985-1989 with four first place finishes…Had a 14-4 record in postseason play, winning league championships at Oneonta (New York-Penn) in 1985, Fort Lauderdale (Florida State) in 1987, and Albany-Colonie (Eastern) in 1989…Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1989 as Albany-Colonie won 92 games, most for a Yankee farm club since 1980…Oneonta established New York-Penn League records for victories in both 1985 (55) and 1986 (59)…Served as third base coach at Fort Lauderdale in 1984.

PLAYING CAREER

A fifth-round selection by the Yankees in the 1977 draft, he spent seven seasons as first baseman-outfielder in Yankees minor league system from 1977-83 with a career .294 average…Led Southern League in hits (152) at Nashville in 1982…Was a teammate of Don Mattingly at Nashville in 1981…Also topped SL in hits (178, a league record that still stands) and finished second in average (.324) in 1980, when Nashville won a league record 97 games…Teammates that year included future major leaguers Steve Balboni, Tom Filer, Andy McGaffigan, Willie McGee, Rafael Santana and Pat Tabler.

GOING, GOING, GONE

In 1986, Orioles pitchers Scott McGregor, Ken Dixon and Mike Boddicker became the first trio of teammates to give up at least 30 home runs in a season. McGregor allowed 35, Dixon 33 and Boddicker 30. It has been done 4 times since, the last coming in 2003 by Seattle's Ryan Franklin, Freddy Garcia and Gil Meche.

ELROD HENDRICKS (1940-2005)

No one logged more time in an Orioles uniform than Elrod Hendricks. For 37 seasons, Ellie opened the year in an Orioles jersey as a player or coach, 16 more years than Brooks Robinson or Cal Ripken. He spent 45 years on the field in organized baseball, the last 28 of them as the Orioles' bullpen coach. Elrod served as a catcher for the Orioles from 1968 until he was traded to the Cubs during the 1972 season, and again from 1973 until he was traded to the Yankees during the 1976 campaign. He was named the bullpen coach following the 1977 season but was activated in each of his first two seasons as a coach.

RICHARD BANCELLS MS, ATC

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: November 11, 1955
Richie is in his 24th season as the Orioles' head Athletic Trainer, his 28th year with the big league club and his 35th in the Orioles organization. Only the third head Athletic Trainer in the 57 seasons since the Orioles moved from St. Louis in 1954, he has the longest tenure of anyone to work as an Athletic Trainer in the Orioles organization. In 2008, he surpassed the tenure of his predecessor, the late Ralph Salvon, as head trainer for the major league team.

Richie joined the Orioles organization in 1977 as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Miami Orioles (Class A, Florida State League). He served as head Athletic Trainer for the Bluefield Orioles (Appalachian Rookie League) in 1978-79 before moving up to AAA Rochester in 1980. He served four years as the Red Wings' Athletic Trainer/Road Secretary (1980-83). During that time, he also assisted Salvon during the Orioles' spring training camp in Miami, FL. He became Ralph's assistant trainer in 1984, serving four years before becoming head trainer in 1988, as Salvon took over the assistant title before his untimely passing in July of that year.

Richie was elected in December 2007 to a two-year term as president of the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) and is currently serving a second term as president. He previously served as a board member and treasurer for the organization, as well as secretary of PBATS' Executive Committee. He also currently sits on Major League Baseball's Medical Advisory Committee and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine.

Bancells has also been selected as the Athletic Trainer for the American League team in two All-Star games, in 1993 at Camden Yards and in 2004 at Houston's Minute Maid Park. In November 2002, he served as Athletic Trainer for the Major League Baseball All-Stars' post-season exhibition tour in Japan. In the winter of '96, Richie was invited to Japan to speak to a group of Japanese athletic trainers and physicians.

In 2008, Bancells was inducted into the Maryland Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame.

In 2005, the Orioles created the Ralph Salvon-Richie Bancells Award for Excellence in the Field of Emergency Medical Service, to be given to local area medical professionals who think and act quickly and demonstrate excellence in the wake of an emergency medical situation. Richie was honored as the first recipient for his actions in diagnosing and promptly treating a stroke suffered by Orioles coach Elrod Hendricks, minutes before the team was to board a flight home from Tampa Bay earlier in the 2005 season.

A native of Key West, FL, Richie graduated from Miami's Biscayne College (now St. Thomas University) in 1978. He earned an M.S. degree in physical education from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY, in 1981 and was honored by EKU as a distinguished alumnus (along with Assistant Athletic Trainer Brian Ebel) in 1999. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

Richie and his wife, the former Carol Corcoran, were married June 10, 1978. They have three children: Christopher (30), Andrea (25) and Timothy (19), and a grandson, Ryan (son of Christopher), who turns seven months old on Opening Day of the 2011 season. Carol earned a degree in theology and education from Biscayne College. In his spare time, Richie enjoys fishing. The Bancells live in Parkton, MD.

BRIAN EBEL MBA, ATC

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Born: December 26, 1965
Brian is in his 15th season as the Orioles' Assistant Athletic Trainer. He was named to his current position on October 30, 1996. This is Brian's 27th season as part of the Oriole organization's training staff.

The Eastern Kentucky University graduate began his athletic training career in Bluefield in 1985 at the age of 19, serving as the head athletic trainer for the Orioles' rookie league farm club during summer breaks from college. He moved up to Class A Erie in 1988 and then served three seasons as Athletic Trainer of the Orioles' then AA affiliate in Hagerstown before being promoted to the post of minor league medical coordinator, where he served from 1992 through the 1996 season.

Prior to being named to his current position, Brian assisted the Orioles' spring training camp for four seasons and was also the Athletic Trainer for the Scottsdale Scorpions of the Arizona Fall League in 1994 and the St. Petersburg Pelicans of the Senior Professional Baseball Association in 1989 and '90.

Ebel is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association and is an active member of the American College of Sports Medicine and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS). He served on the board of PBATS from 1999-2005 as the American League Assistant Athletic Trainer Representative. Ebel received scholarships for academic excellence from PBATS in 1985 and Eastern Kentucky University in 1986. In 1999, he was honored (along with Head Athletic Trainer Richie Bancells) by EKU as a distinguished alumnus.

In 2008, Brian was named to Major League Baseball's steering committee for Electronic Medical Records. He has been a member of MLB's Medical Advisory Board since May 2003 and in 2010 was appointed to serve on MLB's Injury Surveillance System (ISS) committee. He served on the Board of Directors for the United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland (UCP) from 2003-2010.

Ebel holds an MBA degree in Medical Services Management from The Johns Hopkins University. In the winter of 2004, he served as an Administrative Resident in the Department of Medicine at the Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center in addition to his Orioles duties. He also served as Athletic Trainer for the American League at the 2007 All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He has authored or co-authored research papers and book chapters on shoulder and elbow injuries as it relates to the throwing motion by professional athletes, and has lectured on elbow rehabilitation. Brian has a United States patent pending for an orthopedic device for the foot to aid in the treatment of Plantar Fasciitis and heel pain.

The Wilmington, OH native grew up in Versailles, IN. He and his wife, the former Nancy Swanson, were married on October 26, 1991. The have two sons, Brady (17) and Brett (14), and live in Towson, MD. Brian's hobbies include playing golf and playing the drums.

RONNIE DECK

BULLPEN CATCHER

Born: October 24, 1977
Deck returns for his fourth season as the Orioles' bullpen catcher. Prior to joining the Orioles, he served as hitting coach for the 2007 Frontier League champion Windy City ThunderBolts and was an assistant coach at Oglethorpe University and assistant coach and sports information coordinator at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, CO in 2006.

A 1998 graduate of Oklahoma Christian University, where he was a GTE All-Academic All-America and All-Sooner Athletic Conference catcher, Deck played seven seasons of pro ball, including two seasons in the Tampa Bay organization (2002-03), spending time at Princeton and Hudson Valley in the New-York Penn League, Class-A Charleston and Bakersfield and AA Orlando. He also played five years in independent leagues.

JOSEPH (JOE) HOGARTY

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Born: November 28, 1977
Joe is in his second season as the Orioles' major league strength and conditioning coach and his eighth in the Baltimore organization. Prior to joining the major league staff, he spent the previous two seasons as the Orioles' Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator, where he was responsible for implementing data to further develop programs and procedures in accordance with injury prevention and performance enhancement.

Joe spent four years (2004-2007) as the strength and conditioning coach with the Orioles' AAA affiliates at Norfolk and Ottawa while assisting the Major League staff in spring training in Fort Lauderdale, FL. Prior to joining the Baltimore Orioles, Joe served as an Athletic Trainer and Strength and Conditioning intern for the Boston Red Sox in 2003. While working outside the baseball calendar, Joe has spent time in sports medicine roles at Northeastern University (MA) and at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, NY.

Hogarty is a 2001 graduate of Bridgewater State College (MA) with a degree in Physical Education (Athletic Training Education Program).

Hogarty holds certifications with the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA).

His uncle, William Hogarty, was a former draft pick of the Washington Senators (1955).

JIM TYLER

ORIOLES CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Born: July 4, 1948
Jim Tyler begins his 50th year working for the Orioles. He became the home team's equipment and clubhouse manager in 1979 after serving seven years as the visiting clubhouse manager. He began working for the Orioles in 1962 as a clubhouse boy.

Born and raised in Baltimore, he is a graduate of Baltimore City College High School, located across the street from Memorial Stadium, where the Orioles played for 39 years. Jim is one of 11 children, including a twin brother, Phil, who has also worked for the Orioles in the past.

In addition to keeping the Orioles clubhouse in order, Jim also runs the Orioles clubhouse during spring training. In past years, he served the club's minor league training bases and winter instructional league teams.

Jim has two children, Lauren (30) and Joshua (29). He and his wife, Bethany, live in Glen Arm, MD.

FRED TYLER

VISITING CLUHOUSE MANAGER

Born: September 20, 1960
Fred Tyler has been in charge of the visitors' clubhouse since 1984. He began working around the clubhouse in his teens, assisting his brother, Jim. In addition to assisting with the equipment and clubhouse needs during spring training, Fred accompanies the Orioles on some of their road trips during the season in place of his brother.

Fred played baseball at Bel Air (MD) HS, Harford CC and Towson University. As a senior at Bel Air High, Fred was named the All-Harford County shortstop, while the All-Harford County pitcher that year was an Aberdeen HS right-handed pitcher named Cal Ripken, Jr.

Fred and Debbie Duffy live in Arnold, MD with their son, Sean Duffy Tyler, 24.

KEVIN BUCK

TEAM TRAVEL COORDINATOR

Born: October 28, 1981
Kevin enters his third year of handling team travel arrangements and accommodations. Buck began traveling with the club in 2009 and handles all aspects of team travel and ticketing for road games.

Kevin joined the Orioles in 2003 as a part-time employee in the Sales and Fan Services department. In 2005, he became a full-time New Sales Representative and worked with Season Plan Holders and group events for two years before taking a position as Market Research Manager in 2007. In 2009, Kevin was named Coordinator of Team Travel to assist legendary Orioles' Traveling Secretary Phil Itzoe, and spent the season handling the Orioles' travel and ticket needs.

A native of Cockeysville, MD, Kevin has spent the majority of his life in the Baltimore area. A lifetime Orioles fan, he grew up playing baseball in the Cockeysville area and attended Dulaney High School before graduating in 1999 and enrolling at the University of Richmond. He graduated from UR with a degree in Marketing and Communications in 2003, and immediately began work with the Orioles.

Kevin resides in Baltimore, MD, with his fiancé, Cassandra.

NICOLE SHERRY

HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER

Born: October 29, 1977
Nicole Sherry begins her fifth season as the Orioles' head groundskeeper. She returned to the Orioles organization in 2007 after a three-year absence, becoming just the second woman ever to serve as Head Groundskeeper with a major league team. Nicole and Heather Nabozny, who has been with the Detroit Tigers since 1999, are the only female head groundskeepers in Major League Baseball. According to the Sports Turf Managers Association, there have been approximately 10 women who have held the position of head groundskeeper in the history of professional baseball.

After serving as the Orioles' assistant head groundskeeper from 2001 through 2003, Sherry spent three seasons (2004-2006) as the head groundskeeper for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, AA affiliate of the New York Yankees. She was the first female head groundskeeper in Eastern League history when she was named to that post in February 2004, and twice was runner-up for the EL's top groundskeeping award. In 2006, the Thunder honored her with a bobblehead, depicting her riding a tractor.

A native of New Castle, DE, Sherry graduated from the University of Delaware with a degree in agriculture. She worked for several golf courses in Delaware and with the University of Delaware's Research and Education Center, testing new herbicides, prior to joining the Orioles in 2001 as assistant head groundskeeper. Nicole resides in Baltimore.

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE: The Dominican Republic celebrated a national holiday following the 2004 season in honor of his MVP award…Was honored by the Make-A-Wish Foundation for his work with granting wishes for children with terminal illnesses…Teamed up with David Ortiz and Bartolo Colon to donate $50,000 each to the Hurricane Katrina relief effort in September 2005…Involved with Padres Contra El Cancer, a support group for Latino children with cancer and their families…His family business, 'Los Hermanos Guerrero' (The Guerrero Brothers), provides several job opportunities in his hometown of 12,000 in the Dominican Republic: a cement-block factory, a propane distributorship, a supermarket, livestock and vegetable farms, a seafood distributor and a women's clothing store…While with the Angels instituted "Vlad's Pad" at Angel Stadium in which he donated over 100 tickets for every Angels home game to local charities and youth groups…With Montreal, hosted 30 under-privileged kids every Sunday the team played at Olympic Stadium, providing them with free lunch and VIP tickets.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

- Played in the postseason for the sixth time in the last seven years (missed in 2006)
- Played in his 8th, 9th and 10th postseason series as he helped the Rangers to the World Series (now has played in 6 ALDS, 3 ALCS and a World Series)
- Served as Rangers' primary designated hitter, batting .300 (178-593) with 29 home runs and 115 RBI in 152 games for Texas
- Ranked among AL leaders in RBI (4th), total bases (9th, 294), home runs (T9th), hits (13th, 178), and slugging (13th, .496)
- Batted .306 (160-523) with 25 home runs and 106 RBI in 129 games as a designated hitter in 2010…Had highest average and most RBI of any DH in 2010, 2nd-most home runs
- Became just the 5th different player over the last nine seasons (2002-10) with at least 29 homers and 115 RBI at the age of 35-or-older, joining Gary Sheffield (2004-05), Vinny Castilla (2004), Manny Ramirez (2008), and Carlos Delgado (2008)
- Set a franchise record with four straight multi-hit games to open his Rangers career, the 2nd longest streak by any Texas batter at the start of any season (five by Pete O'Brien in 1988)
- At the end of June, ranked among A.L. leaders in average (5th, .339), slugging (5th, .580), and total bases (6th, 164)
- Beginning July 1, hit .265 (82-310) over final 79 games to finish at .300 as he combined for a .240 (49-204) average in July and August, but then hit .323 (31-96) in September
- Recorded a season-high 13-game hit streak May 30-June 17, one of 3 hit streaks of at least 10 games
- His 29 homers tied him for 9th in the AL and marked his 12th career season of 25-or-more home runs as he joined Alex Rodriguez (14), Jim Thome (14), Manny Ramirez (13), and Carlos Delgado (12) as the only active players with 12 or more 25+ homer seasons
- Hit just 9 homers in his final 71 games, including span of one HR in 34 games July 10-Aug. 21
- Became the 32nd player to homer against all 30 MLB franchises with his long ball on May 18 vs. LAA
- Hit a pair of grand slams, May 4 at Oakland and June 30 at LA of Anaheim
- Had 3 multi-homer games, (May 6 vs. Kansas City, May 25 at Kansas City and June 30 at LA of Anaheim)
- Now has 42 career multi-homer games, 5th-most among active players behind only Alex Rodriguez (58), Manny Ramirez (54), Carlos Delgado (49), and Jim Thome (46)
- Homered in 3 straight plate appearances spanning 4 total pitches May 6-7 vs. Kansas City
- Hit a pair of go-ahead homers, both in the 6th inning or later, on May 6 vs. KC, marking the first time a Texas batter had pulled that trick since Juan Gonzalez on July 28, 1992 at Boston (solo HR in 6th and 10th for a 2-1 Texas win)
- Is one of just four active players with 10-or-more 100-RBI seasons, joining Alex Rodriguez (14), Manny Ramirez (12), and Albert Pujols (10)
- Is one of 16 players in the modern era with 10 seasons of 100+ RBI (since RBI were tracked in 1920)…Is the first player in major league history to compile at least nine 100-RBI seasons, then post a season of 50-RBI-or-less, and return with another season of at least 100 RBI
- Had an A.L.-best 32 go-ahead RBI, 2nd-most in majors (Joey Votto-38) and led the majors with career-high 52 two-out RBI this season

- Was Texas' Player of the Month in May as he batted .330 (36-109) with 10 home runs, 31 RBI (led majors), and 18 runs scored over 27 games
- May marked the first time in his career that he had at least 10 home runs and 30 RBI in the same month and it marked the 7th time a Rangers player had at least 10 HR and 30 RBI in a month, first since Mark Teixeira in July 2004
- Played just 18 games in the field (16 starts, 15 in RF and one in LF) and threw out Cody Ross trying to stretch a single into a double June 17 at Florida (his only previous ML action in LF had come in two All-Star games (2000, 2006), as only other regular season games anywhere other than right were single games in center field in both 1996 and 1997 with Montreal
- Selected to his 9th career All-Star team this season, his 6th as an elected starter, by receiving 3,926,103 votes to outdistance the Angels' Hideki Matsui by over two million votes in the designated hitter fan balloting
- In a three-game series June 29-July 1 in Anaheim, his first visit to the Big A since leaving the Angels, went 6-for-11 with 3 HR, a double, and 8 RBI and the Rangers' lone win in that series was Guerrero's 4-for-4, 2-HR, 5-RBI effort

OH, WHAT A RELIEF

Dave McNally holds the all-time Orioles record for most consecutive victories by a pitcher (17), when he did it, September 22, 1968-August 3, 1969, with all victories coming as a starter. The club record for consecutive wins by a reliever (10) is shared by Wes Stock (September 10, 1962-April 29, 1964) and Sammy Stewart (July 20, 1983-April 30, 1984). Stewart added a victory as a starter, giving him an overall 11-game streak.

THE BABE RUTH BIRTHPLACE & MUSEUM

On February 6, 1895, George Herman "Babe" Ruth was born at 216 Emory Street in a Baltimore rowhouse located "just a long fly ball" from Oriole Park at Camden Yards. The Birthplace is one of the top baseball museums in the country, featuring an extensive collection of Ruthian artifacts and mementos, as well as serving as the official museum of the Baltimore Orioles and the archives of the Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas.

The Museum showcases different aspects of baseball in exhibits throughout the year. The Museum also hosts appearances by past, present and future Orioles and other Major League stars, as well as nationally known authors of sports publications for lectures and book signings.

Striving to exhibit its growing collection, the Museum opened Sports Legends at Camden Yards in May, 2005 in Camden Station, adjacent to Oriole Park. Orioles owner Peter Angelos donated $1,000,000 to make the Camden Station project a reality. The historic train station features many displays on the Orioles and Ruth, a full-size theatre, virtual reality exhibits and hands-on learning areas for children, including a discovery room, classrooms and much more. The Museum continues to maintain the current Babe Ruth Birthplace on Emory Street, with shuttle bus service between the sites.

1- Selected by the Orioles in the 6th round of the 2007 First Year Player Draft

MAKING THE LAST ONE COUNT

Ted Williams wasn't the only major leaguer to hit a home run in his last major league at-bat when he went deep off the Orioles' Jack Fisher on September 28, 1960 at Fenway Park. Two former O's are among 37 players who have homered in their farewell plate appearance. On September 30, 1956, Joe Frazier (who later managed the New York Mets) homered at Washington off Senators pitcher Ted Abernathy in his final big league plate appearance. On August 2, 1994, Jeff Tackett went deep at Minnesota off Twins hurler Mike Trombley in his last at-bat.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

- Finished the season tied for fourth in the AL with 45 doubles and became third player in ML history with four straight 43-double seasons, joining Joe Medwick (1935-39) and Tris Speaker (1920-23), both of whom are in the Hall of Fame
- Is the first player in Orioles history with four consecutive 40-double seasons and the 19th outfielder since 1900 with four or more seasons of 40 doubles or more in his career…The streak of four consecutive years ties him for third-most among outfielders since 1900 behind Medwick (7 seasons from 1933-39), Harry Heilmann (5 seasons from 1923-27) and Tris Speaker (four seasons from 1920-23)…Among players that began their careers after World War II, only five outfielders have as many or more 40+ double seasons as Markakis: Bobby Abreu (6), Magglio Ordonez (4), Luis Gonzalez (4), Garret Anderson (4) and Larry Walker (4)
- Batted .361 against left-handed pitching, the highest average in MLB for a left-handed hitter
- Was 12th in the AL in walks (73) and 13th in on-base percentage (.370)
- Hit safely in a season-high 11 games from September 4-15, batting .370 (17-46)…Tied his career-high with four hits on August 6 vs. Chicago White Sox
- Collected 200th career double on August 16 vs. Seattle
- Hit safely in 18 of 20 games from May 11-June 2, batting .316 (24-76)

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall-of-Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 on his way to deliver food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the National Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pregame ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Carlos Delgado, John Smoltz, Edgar Martinez, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith and Cal Ripken Jr.

In 2010, Jeremy Guthrie was the Orioles' Clemente Award winner. Guthrie has been active with many different organizations since he joined the Orioles in 2007, including Baltimore's Helping Up Mission, a program that serves the spiritual and physical needs of poor and homeless men. He also gives motivational speeches to groups in Baltimore and Sarasota, visits wounded soldiers and participates in the Orioles annual Holiday Party for underprivileged kids.

- Was named IL Pitcher of the Week for the week ending May 1 after his nine-inning no-hitter against Gwinnett
- Was recalled by Baltimore May 29 and was 0-3 with a 8.40 ERA (15.0IP, 14ER) in four starts before being optioned back to Norfolk June 24
- Was named to the 2010 International League All-Star team, but did not participate in the game due to his promotion to Baltimore
- Went 3-0 with a 1.74 ERA (20.2IP, 4ER) in three starts for Norfolk June 24-July 5
- Was recalled by Baltimore July 10 and beat Cliff Lee (making his first start for Rangers) by allowing an unearned run in 7.1 innings of work on two hits and did not allow a hit until there was one out in the seventh inning (was the first time an Oriole starter had gone as many as 7.1 innings and allowed two or fewer hits since Chris Waters on August 5, 2008 at LAA (8.0IP, 1H))
- The July 10 win snapped a career-high five game losing streak
- Lost his next start for Baltimore (July 19) following the July 10 outing and was optioned back to Norfolk
- Was 3-3 with a 4.50 ERA (42.0IP, 21ER) in eight starts for the Tides from July 24-August 31 before being recalled by the Orioles again on September 5
- Went 1-1 with a 1-1 with a 4.18 ERA (28.0IP, 13ER) in five September starts for the Birds
- Allowed nine home runs, six of which were solo shots and three of which were to the leadoff batter in an inning…In his career, he has allowed 24 home runs, with 18 of them being solo shots and nine coming off the bat of a leadoff batter of an inning…Only Alex Rodriguez (three-run), Kelly Shoppach (three-run), Evan Longoria (two-run), Alex Rios (two-run), Vernon Wells (two-run) and Jose Bautista (two-run) have taken Tillman deep with men on base
- Walked 31 and struck out 31 in 11 starts for the Orioles
- Finished the minor league campaign tied for 4th in the International League with a 3.34 ERA and ranked in the top 10 in the IL in wins (T-5th, 11), complete games (T-1st, 2), shutouts (1st, 2) and WHIP (T-9th, 1.24) at the time of his final promotion to Baltimore September 5
- Became the first Tides pitcher to toss two nine inning shutouts in the same season since Brian Bohanon accomplished the feat during the 1997 season...and Norfolk had not had a pitcher toss two shutouts (either seven innings or nine innings) in the same year since Dicky Gonzalez tossed two seven inning shutouts during the 2001 season

2010 IN REVIEW

YEAR IN REVIEW–ORIOLES IN 2010

FINISHING STRONG: The Orioles won 34 games from the start of August through the end of the season (17-11 in August and 17-13 in September/October)…The 34 wins were the most from August 1 through the end of a season since the 1996 season when they won 35 (19-11 in August and 16-11 in September)…August and September of 1996 marks the last time the Orioles posted winning months in both of those months in the same season…The Orioles won 34 games after suffering their 73rd loss to tie the all-time record (held by 1997 Phillies) for wins by a club after their 73rd defeat…The Orioles won four of their last five games and 17 of their last 27 games.

BUCK'S BIRDS: The Orioles became the first team in major league history to have three men manage 50 or more games…Buck Showalter became the first manager since 1900 to take over a team in August or later and win more games the rest of the way (34) than the team had won before he arrived (32)…The O's went 34-23 and 11-6-1 in their 18 series under Showalter after winning just four of their first 34 series before he joined the club August 3rd…The O's went 14-13 against the AL East under Showalter after going 10-35 before Showalter's arrival…When Showalter took over on August 3, the Orioles were 32-73…Showalter became the first manager in major league history to win at least seven of his first eight games after taking over a team in midseason that was at least 20 games under .500…The O's replaced manager Dave Trembley with interim manager Juan Samuel on June 4…Trembley was 15-39 at the time of the change…Samuel went 17-34 in 51 games before Showalter took over as manager on August 3 and went 34-23.

AWARDS: Luke Scott was named winner of the Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media…Buck Showalter earned the honor of Favorite New Oriole from the Orioles Advocates.

ALL-STAR: Ty Wigginton represented the Orioles at the 2010 All-Star Game in Anaheim…It was Wigginton's first career All-Star selection…At the time of his selection, he was the only player in the major leagues to homer while playing three different infield positions (11 as 2B, two as 3B and one as 1B).

WELCOME TO THE SHOW: Five Orioles made their major league debuts in 2010: RHP Jake Arrieta, INF Josh Bell, INF Rhyne Hughes, RHP Frank Mata and INF Brandon Snyder…The Orioles have used 885 players in franchise history…Sixteen players made their Oriole debuts in 2010…In addition to the five above, Garrett Atkins, Jake Fox, Armando Gabino, Michael Gonzalez, Julio Lugo, Kevin Millwood, Will Ohman, Troy Patton, Rick VandenHurk, Pedro Viola and Craig Tatum made their Oriole debuts in 2010.

GOING OUT WITH A BANG: In their last trip through the starting rotation, Brad Bergesen, Kevin Millwood, Chris Tillman, Jeremy Guthrie and Brian Matusz combined to go 4-1 with a 1.29 ERA (35.0IP, 5ER).

FOR STARTERS: In the last 57 games of 2010, Orioles starters made 36 Quality Starts and posted a 3.16 ERA (359.1IP, 126ER)…Orioles starters made 80 Quality Starts in 2010, after making 58 during the 2009 season…In 105 games prior to Buck Showalter taking over as manager on August 2, Orioles pitchers posted a 5.18 ERA (925.0IP, 532ER), highest in the AL…In the 57 games after August 2, Birds hurlers pitched to a 3.54 ERA (511.1IP, 201ER)…

O'S STARTERS BEGINNING AUGUST 3 WHEN SHOWALTER BECAME MANAGER:

SAVE IT: The Orioles became the third team since the save became an official statistic in 1969 to have their first four wins of the year saved by a different pitcher (no team has ever had five players save their first five wins)…The Birds had saves by Mike Gonzalez, Jim Johnson, Cla Meredith and Alfredo Simon…The other two clubs were the 2000 Colorado Rockies and the 1991 San Diego Padres…Meredith (April 25) and Simon (April 27) each recorded their first major league save in consecutive games…The last time two Orioles pitchers recorded their first save in back-to-back games was May 7-8, 1977 (Mike Flanagan and Scott McGregor)…Meredith's save came after 271 career relief appearances without a save, which was the longest active streak in the majors at that time.

YOU CAN'T SPELL KOJI WITHOUT THE 'K': Koji Uehara has struck out 44 batters since issuing his last walk (July 16), a span of 32 appearances and 34.0 innings pitched…It is the longest stretch of strikeouts between walks in the AL since Pedro Martinez fanned 49 batters in between walks in 2000 (tied for the sixth-longest streak in the majors since 1920)…Among relievers with 30.0 innings pitched, Uehara led the AL and was third in the majors in strikeout-to-walk ratio at 11.0 (Tampa Bay's Joaquin Benoit was second in the AL at 6.82)…Uehara finished 2nd in the AL (behind Chicago's Matt Thornton-12.02) and 10th in the majors in strikeouts per nine innings (11.25)…His 1.02 walks per nine innings led the AL, ahead of Benoit (1.63) and New York's Mariano Rivera (1.65)…Uehara set a franchise record by not walking a batter in 32 consecutive appearances (34.0 innings) and did not allow any of the 13 runners he inherited to score…He retired the first batter faced in 37 of his 43 games…After not allowing a HR in 28 games (30.0IP) prior to September, Uehara allowed five homers in 15 September games (14.0IP)… The September 17 homer by Alex Rodriguez was the first by a right-handed batter against Uehara since Florida's Dan Uggla on June 29, 2009…Uehara became the 7th Japanese-born pitcher to record a double digit save season, joining Kaz Sasaki (4), Takashi Saito (3), Akinori Otsuka, Shingo Takatsu, Shigetoshi Hasegawa and Hideki Irabu…Sasaki is the all-time leader among Japanese born pitchers (129).

THE RIFLEMEN: The Orioles outfield combined for 35 assists on the year, good for third in the AL after leading the AL in 2009 with 36…The O's gunned down 15 runners at the plate, eight at third base, six at second base and doubled six runners off first base…Adam Jones' 12 outfield assists led the club and finished tied for second in the AL…Jones' 12 assists were the most by a major league centerfielder.

CLOSE CALLS: The O's were 29-21 in one-run games (12-5 under Buck Showalter), including a 22-6 record in one-run games at Camden Yards…The 29 one-run wins were tied for third in the AL (and MLB) behind Minnesota (31) and Texas (30)…The Birds were 11-21 in games decided by two runs…82 of the 162 games were decided by one or two runs…In 2009, 72 of the 162 games were decided by one or two runs, with the O's going 29-43 in those games (17-22 in one-run games and 12-21 in two-run games).

TIMELY HITTING: Through August 2, the Orioles were last in the AL in batting average with runners in scoring position (.217)…After August 3, the Orioles led the AL in average with RISP at .300 (138-460).

NEED SOME HELP: The Orioles had 58 games where they scored zero or one run while their starter was in the game…The O's did not score while their starter was in the game 22 times and scored one run while their starter was in the game 36 times.

LATE INNING WOES: The Orioles allowed 186 of 785 runs in the 8th inning or later (23.7% of total runs allowed)…By comparison, the other 29 clubs in the majors allowed 19.6 percent of their runs in the eighth inning or later (4,020 of 20,503).

WORKING OVERTIME: The Orioles were 13-4 in extra inning games (10-1 at home, 3-3 on the road)…The 13 extra inning wins led the majors…The O's won their last 10 extra inning home games (only loss was April 13 against Tampa Bay) and went 7-2 against AL East opponents in extra frames.

CONGRATULATIONS: LH Brian Matusz was named AL Rookie of the Month for August…In six August starts, Matusz was 4-1 with a 2.43 ERA (37.0IP, 10ER)…Luke Scott was named American League Player of the Week for the week of July 19-25 after batting .481 (13-27) with three doubles, four home runs, six runs scored, eight RBI, five multi-hit games and a 1.037 slugging percentage…It was Scott's third career Player of the Week award (also May 25-31, 2009 and July 15-21, 2008).

NEXT MAN IN: The Orioles used nine different starting pitchers in 2010 (Jake Arrieta, Brad Bergesen, Jeremy Guthrie, Mark Hendrickson, David Hernandez, Brian Matusz, Kevin Millwood, Chris Tillman and Rick VandenHurk) after using 12 different pitchers to start games in 2009.

THE EAST WAS A BEAST: The Orioles went 24-48 against AL East, splitting 18 games with Boston, going 7-11 against the Rays, 5-13 against the Yankees and 3-15 against Toronto.

INTERLEAGUE WRAP-UP: The Orioles went 7-11 in Interleague Play after going 11-7 in 2009…The Birds are now 108-138 all-time in Interleague Play…The O's are 60-64 against the NL at Oriole Park…At the plate in 2010, Brad Bergesen had the only hit by an O's pitcher (May 22)…The Orioles had three hitters in the top 20 in average against the NL as Nick Markakis was tied for 14th (.353), Adam Jones was 18th at .348 and Miguel Tejada was 19th with a .346 average.

A CASE OF THE MONDAYS: After beginning the year 0-8 on Mondays (0-3 at home and 0-5 on the road), the Birds won their last six Monday contests (3-0 at home and 3-0 on the road).

SEPTEMBER SURGE: The Orioles won four consecutive series from September 3-15, the first time since August 3-15, 2004 (3-0 vs. SEA, 4-0 vs. TEX, 2-1 at LAA and 2-1 at TOR) they had accomplished the feat.

ROAD WARRIORS: The Orioles won five straight road games from August 27-September 7, marking the first time they had won five straight on the road since September 30, 2005-April 11, 2006.

AUGUST REBOUND: At 17-11 in August, the Orioles posted their first winning month since going 15-12 in June of 2008 (minimum five games)…Only the Minnesota Twins (18-10) had a better record in August among AL clubs…The last time the O's won as many as 17 games in a month was September 2004 (18-10)…The last winning month of August for the O's came in 1997 (18-10)…The Orioles walked just 64 batters in August, the fewest in the AL (10 fewer than second place Oakland)…The Birds' 3.38 ERA in August was third-best in the AL behind Oakland (2.83) and Seattle (3.36).

HISTORIC SERIES: The Orioles allowed just three runs over four games August 27-31 (one run scored on a Brad Bergesen balk)…Orioles starters recorded a 0.75 ERA (36.0IP, 3ER) in those four games and held the Angels to one run in three games, marking the second time in Orioles history that they held an opponent to one or no runs in a three-game road series (also May 30-June 1, 1975 at California).

BELL'S BOMBS: Josh Bell hit his first two big league homers August 21…The last O's rookie to have a multi-homer game was Michael Aubrey on October 2, 2009 vs. Toronto…Bell's five RBI that day set a career-high (had a total of four entering the game)…Bell became the fourth O's rookie to hit his first MLB home run as part of a multi-home run game, joining Jim Fuller (September 25, 1973), Curt Blefary (April 17, 1965) and Boog Powell (May 2, 1962).

WHAT A RUN: Orioles starters went 8.0 or more innings in three straight games (August 17-19) for the first time since May 3-6, 2005 (Daniel Cabrera and Erik Bedard against Toronto and Sidney Ponson against Kansas City)…It was only the second time in the 2000's the Orioles accomplished the feat.

THESE GUYS ARE GOOD: Orioles opponents made 101 Quality Starts against the O's in 2010, including a franchise record-tying 13 straight from May 26-June 9…In those 101 Quality Starts, opponents posted a 2.00 ERA (712.2IP, 158ER).

WITH THE THIRD PICK…: The Orioles selected SS Manny Machado of Miami's Brito Private HS with the third overall pick in the 2010 First Year Player Draft…As a senior, Machado, 17, batted .639 (55-86) with 12 home runs and 56 RBI, adding 43 runs scored, 27 doubles and 17 stolen bases…In the summer of 2009, he helped lead USA Baseball's 18 & Under team to a gold medal in Venezuela in the Pan American Junior Championship…His selection marks the first time that the Orioles have drafted a shortstop in the first round since Rich Dauer (Univ. Southern California) was taken in 1974…Machado became the third high school shortstop selected by the Orioles in the first round, joining Bobby Grich (1967) and Junior Kennedy (1968).

ROUGH START: The Orioles' 2-16 start was their worst since 1988, when they began the year 0-21, a major league record…The Birds went 4-16 in their first 20 games to avoid becoming the 4th team since 1900 to fail to record three wins in their first 20 games of the year…Both the 1907 Brooklyn Dodgers and 2003 Detroit Tigers started the year 2-18…The Orioles were 17 games under .500 at the 45-game point in the season for the third time in franchise history (also 1955 and 1988)…The Orioles' Opening Day walk-off loss was the first in team history…According to Elias, in 1914, the St. Louis Browns, who later became the Orioles, lost on Opening Day in 13 innings at Detroit.

SPRING TRAINING REPORT: The Orioles drew over 100,000 fans for the first time in franchise history in the Grapefruit League…The Birds went 12-17-1 during the exhibition schedule, including a 6-9 record at Ed Smith Stadium…Nolan Reimold's .283 average led the club among players with 50 or more at-bats, despite starting the spring going 0-for-22 (went 15-31 after that)…Adam Jones' five home runs led the club and his 12 RBI tied him with Luke Scott for the team lead…Brad Bergesen led the team with three wins, while Brian Matusz allowed fewer combined hits (19) and walks (3) than innings pitched (24.1)…Non-roster invitee Will Ohman made the club by allowing just two hits and four walks in 8.2 innings (11 games).

*Tie games: The Orioles have played 12 tie games; all except one were in Baltimore (one each in '03, '01, '96, 82, and eight others between '55 and '64). Most were Baltimore curfew related. Those curfews, which prohibited starting an inning after 11:50 p.m. six days a week and required the immediate suspension of play at 11:50 p.m. on Saturdays, are no longer in effect…Tie games were played against: Chicago White Sox-4, New York Yankees-3, Kansas City A's-2, Milwaukee-1, Oakland-1, Texas-1.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES

The Oriole Advocates, Inc is a unique non-profit organization, dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. Founded in July of 1960, the Advocates are celebrating their 50th year of "Promoting and Stimulating Interest in Baseball". Membership comprises some 75 men and women, drawn from a broad cross-section in the Baltimore area.

Through the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial donations to worthy causes, primarily to baseball-oriented youth organizations; have played a key role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace at 216 Emory Street and its conversion into the Babe Ruth/Orioles Museum; and established the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1977.

The organization has also served as an essential right arm to the Orioles Public Relations, Community Relations and Marketing Departments. In that connection, the Advocates initiated the popular Junior Orioles program (now the Dugout Club) back in 1963 and administered it for 25 years. Membership rose from 75 youngsters the first year to a record 20,000 in 1977. The Oriole Advocates don't get paid for anything they do, instead serving as volunteers that constantly demonstrate the importance of competence and dedication whenever there is a job to be done.

2011 Oriole Advocates officers: President-Bob Harden...First Vice President-Jim Menendez...Second Vice President-Bill Moon...Secretary-Carol Avery...Treasurer-Rich Barnhart...Immediate Past President-Ann Peters

ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS

The Baltimore Orioles Designated Hitters were established in the fall of 1979 as a volunteer sales force and designed primarily to keep baseball in Baltimore by increasing season ticket sales. The Designated Hitters (DHs) became an instrumental part of the Orioles' organizational drive to put fans in the stands. Today, DHs work within the regional corporate community as well as small businesses, non-profit organizations, schools, local government and individual customers to sell them on the Orioles. The DH staff members participate out of passion for their hometown team and represent the Orioles as a strong volunteer sales support staff dedicated to the continuing success of the Orioles' organization. For more information about the DHs, call 410-547-6071 or e-mail dh@orioles.com.

ORIOLES DRAFT NOTES

The 2011 First Year Player Draft will be held June 6. The Orioles will have the 4th pick in the first round of the draft. The First Year Player Draft began in 1965. The first player chosen in that first draft to reach the major leagues with the Orioles was sixth round selection Bill Dillman, a RHP from Wake Forest University. The most dazzling 1-2 picks in Orioles history came out of the 1967 draft when the Birds selected Bobby Grich No. 1 and Don Baylor No. 2. The Orioles selected a record four players in the first round of the 1999 draft as compensation for free agents lost the previous year.

DID YOU KNOW?

-Former Orioles pitcher Scott McGregor, now a pitching coach in the Orioles minor league system, is one of only 18 first-round draft picks ever to win 20 games in a season. A first-round pick of the Yankees in 1972 (12th overall pick), he won 20 games for the Orioles in 1980. In addition to McGregor, first-round picks who were 20-game winners at least once in their careers include Kevin Brown, Chris Carpenter, Roger Clemens, Joe Coleman, Dwight Gooden, Bill Gullickson, Roy Halladay, Rick Helling, Jack McDowell, Matt Morris, Mark Mulder, Mike Mussina, C.C. Sabathia, Rick Sutcliffe, Adam Wainwright, Bob Welch and Barry Zito.

-Former Orioles pitcher Milt Pappas is one of 12 pitchers in major league history to hit a solo home run and win a game 1-0. He did it April 18, 1962, homering in the fifth inning to beat the Yankees' Bill Stafford at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore.

-Orioles RHP Moe Drabowsky struck out 11 Dodgers in relief in Game 1 of the 1966 World Series, to become the only reliever to fan more than nine batters in a World Series game. Harvey Haddix has the Orioles' regular season record for strikeouts by a reliever, also with 11, on June 15, 1964 vs. Chicago.

-The 1998 Orioles were the only team in history to field a batting order that featured four players with 300 career home runs: Joe Carter (387 at the time), Cal Ripken (384), Harold Baines (348) and Rafael Palmeiro (314).

-Al Bumbry is one of 20 American League players to hit three triples in one game. He did it September 22, 1973 at Milwaukee.

-Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally won at least 20 games each for the Orioles from 1969 through 1971, the only teammates to do that three straight seasons since 1951.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Two sets of brothers and five father-son combinations have played for the Orioles. The brother combos are the Ripkens, Cal (1981-2001) and Bill (1987-92 and 1996); and catcher Dick Brown (1963-65) and his brother Larry (1973), an infielder. The father-son duos are third baseman Bob Kennedy (1954-55) and his son, catcher terry (1987-88); outfielders Don Buford (1968-72) and his son Damon (1993-95); pitchers John O'Donoghue Sr. (1968) and John Jr. (1993); outfielders Dave May (1967-70) and his son, Derrick (1999); and outfielders Tim Raines Sr. and his son Tim (2001). THE ORIOLES 20-20 CLUB

Four different Orioles have hit at least 20 home runs and stolen at least 20 bases in the same season. Brady Anderson (three times) is the only player to do it more than once:

1969 Paul Blair (26 HR, 20 SB)
1975 Don Baylor (25 HR, 32 SB)
1976 Reggie Jackson (27 HR, 28 SB)
1992 Brady Anderson (21 HR, 53 SB)
1996 Brady Anderson (50 HR, 21 SB)
1999 Brady Anderson (24 SB, 36 SB)

EUTAW STREET HOME RUNS

Of the 52 home runs hit onto the Eutaw St. promenade since Camden Yards opened in 1992, 21 of them have been hit by Orioles, including five by Rafael Palmeiro (four as an Oriole), four by Luke Scott, three by Brady Anderson and Jason Giambi (most by an opposing player). A single season-high eight homers landed on Eutaw St. in 2008, including Luke Scott's blast on July 19, the only walk-off Eutaw St. HR in park history.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

THRU THE YEARS: The O's have out-slammed their opponents, 228-190, in their 57-year history (including post-season)...They have a 132-81 advantage in Baltimore, including a 50-38 edge at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. ORIOLES AMONG MAJORS LEADERS SINCE 1980: The Orioles have belted 141 grand slams starting in 1980, sixth in the majors over the last 31 years behind Boston (156), New York (AL) (154), Seattle (147), Cleveland (143) and Chicago (AL) (143). THREE IN ONE GAME: The Orioles and Texas combined to hit a major league-record three grand slams on August 6, 1986 in the Rangers' 13-11 win at Memorial Stadium. Jim Dwyer and Larry Sheets hit fourth inning grand slams for the Orioles, only the fifth time in history one club has hit two grand slams in an inning. Toby Harrah hit Texas' grand slam. Houston and the Chicago Cubs tied the record on June 3, 1987. TWO IN ONE GAME: Only 10 major leaguers have hit two grand slams in the same game and it has been done by an Oriole three times. Chris Hoiles hit a pair of grand slams on August 14, 1998 at Cleveland, connecting in the third and eighth innings. Jim Gentile and Frank Robinson previously did it for the O's, and are among four players who have done it in consecutive at bats. Gentile hit slams in the first and second innings at Minnesota on May 9, 1961. Robinson did it in the fifth and sixth innings at Washington on June 26, 1970. GENTILE HIT 5 IN 1961: Gentile set an American League record and tied the major league record then held by the Cubs' Ernie Banks when he hit five bases loaded homers in '61. The Yankees' Don Mattingly broke the mark with six grand slams in 1987 and Cleveland's Travis Hafner matched that record in 2006. POST-SEASON SLAMMING PITCHERS: Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally are the only two major league pitchers to hit grand slams in post-season play, and both did it in 1970 with the Orioles. Cuellar connected in ALCS Game 1 off the Twins' Jim Perry (at Minnesota). McNally hit his in World Series Game 3 off the Reds' Wayne Granger at Memorial Stadium. Cuellar's slam was the first in LCS history. OPPONENTS: The 2006 Orioles allowed a major-league leading and club record 12 grand slams…The previous club record was nine allowed in 2000…The 1978 and 1993 Orioles allowed grand slams in 3 consecutive games, tying the major league record set by the 1901 Reds...The 1978 O's allowed slams in three straight games, April 7-9, at Milwaukee...The 1993 O's did it August 10-12, all at Detroit...Edgar Martinez, Alex Rodriguez and Jim Thome are the only players with three grand slams against the O's...14 players have hit two, including six active players (Ken Griffey Jr., Travis Hafner, Mike Lowell, Hanley Ramirez, Manny Ramirez and Gary Sheffield)…Oakland's Carlos Reyes in 1996 became the 14th opposing pitcher to give up two grand slams against the Orioles and the third to throw them in the same season, joining Chicago's Terry Forster (1976) and Jack Harshman (1955). GOPHER PITCHERS: Milt Pappas gave up six bases loaded homers as an Oriole, most by any O's hurler...Pappas gave up nine overall in his career, tying Jerry Reuss (1969-90) and Ned Garver (1948-61) for second highest career grand slams allowed in major league history behind Mike Jackson, who allowed 10...Dave McNally, Scott McGregor, Alan Mills, and Jesse Orosco are next among Oriole pitchers, allowing four apiece (Armando Benitez also allowed four grand slams, including one in post-season play)...Jim Palmer never allowed a slam in 558 games spanning nearly 4,000 innings.

INSIDE THE PARK HOME RUNS

On August 22, 1993, Texas Rangers (and former Orioles) outfielder Butch Davis circled the bases for an inside-the-park home run off Arthur Rhodes at Oriole Park. It was the first ever hit in the new park and first by a visiting player in Baltimore since August 17, 1960 when Washington's Lenny Green hit one off Jack Fisher.

On July 21, 2004, David Newhan hit one off Boston's Pedro Martinez at Fenway ParkIt was the first by an Oriole since Phil Bradley accomplished the feat June 8, 1990 at Memorial Stadium against the New York Yankees.

When Bradley circled the bases, it was the Orioles' first inside-the-park home run since Al Bumbry did it against the Chicago White Sox on August 21, 1976 at Comiskey Park.

The Orioles allowed two inside-the-park home runs in 2003. Detroit's Shane Halter performed the feat May 6 at Camden Yards off Pat Hentgen, who was victimized again September 13 at Toronto by Greg Myers.

On May 22, 2010, at Washington, Adam Jones hit an inside-the-park home run off Craig Stammen (Nyjer Morgan got a glove on the ball keeping it in the park, but thought it went over. Jones circled bases as Morgan reacted in disbelief that he hadn't caught it).

NOTES ON 20-GAME WINNERS

Although they have not had one in the past 26 seasons, Oriole pitchers have produced 24 20-win seasons including 23 in the past 43 years (starting in '68), more than any other major league club. The A's (17), Yankees (16), White Sox (12), Braves (12), Cardinals (12), Red Sox (12), Twins (11) and Dodgers (10) are the only other teams with more than nine in that time. From 1968 thru 1980, a span of 13 years, at least one Oriole pitcher accumulated 20 or more victories to set a major league record. The old standard was 12 by the New York Giants from 1903 to 1914, a mark single-handedly assured by Christy Mathewson, who won 20+ in each of those years. "In 1971, four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat was a quartet from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban ""Red"" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21, and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland. " The four Orioles all won their 20th games within six days: Dave McNally was the first on September 21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Mike Cuellar (September 24 -first game-clinched division title), Pat Dobson (September 24 -2nd game), and Jim Palmer (September 26). Steve Stone was the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to a team record 25 victories in 1980. Three other Orioles hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (August 25) and Cuellar (August 27) in 1971 and Palmer (August 20) in 1975. The first Oriole to win 20, and the only one in the club's first 14 seasons in Baltimore (1954 thru 1967), was lefthander Steve Barber in 1963.

TRIPLE PLAYS

The Orioles have executed 12 triple plays and hit into 16 in 57 seasons.

The most recent triple play, and arguably most bizarre, took place on September 1, 2000 at Cleveland. In the second inning, with Sandy Alomar, Jr. at the plate, Travis Fryman at second base and Wil Cordero at first base, SS Melvin Mora allowed Alomar's short fly to left to bounce in front of him. The Cleveland runners, thinking the infield fly rule had been called, did not run and Alomar headed to the dugout. Mora picked up the ball and threw to 2B Jerry Hairston, who tagged Fryman and stepped on second to force Cordero. After realizing Alomar had not reached first base, Sidney Ponson flipped the ball to Jeff Conine at first to retire Alomar. After some discussion by the umires and the ejection of Charlie Manuel, the play stood and the inning ended.

The Orioles' previous triple play, and their most recent one at home, came August 25, 1992 against California. With Tim Salmon at third and Chad Curtis at first, Gary Gaetti lined to 3B Leo Gomez who stepped on third to retire Salmon and threw to 1B Randy Milligann to complete the triple play. It is the only triple play turned by the Orioles at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

The Orioles have hit into two triple plays at Oriole Park. The most recent triple play was April 3,1996 against Kansas City, when DH Bobby Bonilla grounded into a 5-4-3-2 triple play. With Roberto Alomar at third base and Rafael Palmeiro at first, 3B Joe Randa gloved Bonilla's grounder and threw to 2B Bip Roberts to force Palmeiro. As Roberts threw to first to double up Bonilla, Alomar streaked towards the plate and was thrown out by 1B Bob Hamelin, who threw to C Sal Fasano.

GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

The Gold Glove Award was initiated in 1957 by the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company in cooperation with The Sporting News to acknowledge individual defensive excellenceby a vote of managers and coaches in each league. Selection is based on a player's overall defensive ability, not just on fielding percentage.

Gold Glove totals by each team: Cardinals 74, Yankees 63, ORIOLES 59, Reds 50, Braves 44.5, Pirates 44, Phillies 43.5, Twins 42, Giants, Mariners and Tigers 38, Dodgers 37.5, Cubs, White Sox and Red Sox 37, Senators/Rangers and Angels 34, Indians 30, Blue Jays and Expos/Nationals 22, Padres and Astros 21, Athletics 20, Mets 19, Royals 17, Rockies 11, Brewers 9, Marlins 6.5, Diamondbacks and Rays 4

A total of 12 Orioles have won multiple Gold Gloves, led by Brooks Robinson, who is tied with pitcher Jim Kaat for second place all-time with 16 Gold Gloves. Greg Maddux is first all-time with 18 Gold Gloves. Other Oriole multiple winners include: Paul Blair and Mark Belanger (eight each), Jim Palmer, Bobby Grich and Mike Mussina (four each), Davey Johnson and Eddie Murray (three each). Roberto Alomar, Luis Aparicio, Rafael Palmeiro and Cal Ripken Jr. (two each). Alomar won a total of 10 Gold Gloves in his career, Aparicio 9, Mussina 7 and Palmeiro 3.

ALL-STAR NOTES

In 2010, UTL Ty Wigginton made his first career All-Star appearance, playing third base for one inning in Anaheim. He did not have a plate appearance... In 2009, CF Adam Jones was selected to his first All-Star team…Jones was 0-1 with a sacrifice fly and the game-winning RBI in the game which was held in St. Louis…Jones flew out to the warning track in both plate appearances and at 23 years old, was the third-youngest player with a game-winning RBI in the eighth inning or later of an All-Star Game, behind Ted Williams (1941) and Hank Blalock (2003) each of whom did it at age 22…Jones was the youngest Oriole to make the AL squad since Mike Mussina (also 23) in 1992 and the youngest O's position player to make the squad since Cal Ripken Jr. (22) in 1983…Jones was the first Orioles outfielder to appear in the Midsummer Classic since Melvin Mora in 2003. LHP George Sherrill, who had spent all or parts of five years in independent baseball, was named to the 2008 All-Star team and pitched 2.1 scoreless innngs in the game which was held in the old Yankee Stadium…After having 28 saves at the break, Sherrill became the first pitcher since 1987 to work more than two innings in an All-Star Game. DOUBLE-PLAY DUOS: In 2005, 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada became the first Orioles teammates to start in the All-Star Game since 2B Roberto Alomar and 3B Cal Ripken each started in 1998. They were the third 2B-SS tandem from the same team to start for the AL since fan balloting returned in 1970, joining New York's Willie Randolph and Bucky Dent in 1981 along with Alomar and Ripken in 1996. THREE IN A ROW: Shortstop Miguel Tejada was named to his 3rd straight All-Star team in 2006, becoming the 12th player in club history to make the team in at least 3 straight seasons…He joined Cal Ripken (1983-2001), Brooks Robinson (1960-74), Eddie Murray (1981-86), Boog Powell (1968-71), Frank Robinson (1969-72), Gus Triandos (1957-59), Jim Gentile (1960-62), Davey Johnson (1968-70), Jim Palmer (1970-72), Mike Mussina (1992-94) and Roberto Alomar (1996-98). "CAL'S FINALE: 3B Cal Ripken, playing in his final All-Star Game, homered on the first pitch he saw in the 3rd inning and went on to win his second All-Star MVP Award in the 2001 All-Star Game at Seattle's Safeco Field...Ripken, the lone Oriole selected to play in the game, led off the inning and turned on the first pitch from Los Angeles' Chan Ho Park to give the American League a 1-0 lead it would not relinquish...It was the 19th time Ripken was either elected or selected to the AL All-Star squad, breaking Brooks Robinson's AL mark; he technically started at shortstop after Texas' Alex Rodriguez "pushed" him to the position and played third base himself in the first inning...Cal also won MVP honors in the 1991 game, homering at Toronto...With the 2001 home run, he became the oldest player to homer in an All Star Game and the only Oriole to homer twice in All-Star play." ALL-STAR STARTS/APPEARANCES: With the 2005 selections of 2B Brian Roberts and SS Miguel Tejada, 12 different Orioles have been elected starters since fan voting was reinstituted in 1969...Cal Ripken was elected to start 18 years, 17 of those by fan vote...He was unable to play because of injury in 2000...Other Orioles elected to starting berths are Brooks Robinson (4 times); Roberto Alomar (3 times); Boog Powell & Frank Robinson (2 each); and Bobby Grich, Ken Singleton, Eddie Murray, Terry Kennedy, Brady Anderson, Brian Roberts and Miguel Tejada (1 each). ORIOLES ALL-STAR MVPs: The Orioles have had five different players who have earned All-Star MVP honors...In 2001, Cal Ripken became only the fourth player and the first American Leaguer to win two All-Star Game MVP Awards when he took the honors in Seattle… He joined Willie Mays, Steve Garvey and Gary Carter as the only 2-time winners…Cal also won the MVP Award in 1991 at Toronto's SkyDome, going 2-for-3 with a 3-run homer off former teammate Dennis Martinez and a single off Cy Young-winner Tom Glavine to lead the AL to a 4-2 win...Cal became only the 3rd AL shortstop to hit an All-Star Game homer, joining Lou Boudreau ('42) and Dick McAuliffe ('65)...In the home run hitting contest the day before the All-Star Game, Cal hit an incredible 12 homers in 22 swings to help the AL to a 20-7 pasting of the NL...Frank Robinson's 4th-inning homer at Detroit in the 1971 game put the AL ahead to stay and earned him MVP honors...It was the AL's first All-Star victory since 1962 and its last until 1983...Roberto Alomar earned the 1998 All-Star MVP award at Denver's Coors Field with a 3-for-4 performance including a HR and a stolen base in the American League's 13-8 win... Alomar, Ripken and Rafael Palmeiro combined for 6 hits, the most by teammates since seven Reds had 7 hits in 1976...In 2005, Miguel Tejada won MVP honors with a home run, 2 RBI and a hand in 2 double plays to lead the AL to a 7-5 win at Detroit...Brooks Robinson won the trophy in St. Louis in 1966, going 3-for-4 with a triple at the plate and 8-for-8 fielding...He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored...Billy O'Dell hurled 3 perfect innings to save the AL's 4-3 win in the 1958 All-Star Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium and was named the game's "unofficial" MVP…The official All-Star MVP Award was created in 1962. HOME RUN DERBY: A last-minute replacement to the 2004 Home Run Derby at Minute Maid Park in Houston, Miguel Tejada set records for home runs in one round (15) and overall (27) to win the contest...He was the second Oriole to win the derby, joining Cal Ripken, who hit 12 homers at Toronto's SkyDome in 1991...Tejada also took part in the 2006 Home Run Derby in Detroit after decling to participate in the 2005 contest, instead bowing to David Ortiz to represent the Dominican Republic in the revised United States vs. the World format. ORIOLES ALL-STAR HOMERS: Miguel Tejada's home run in the 2005 game at Detroit was the 7th overall by an Oriole in an All-Star Game...Cal Ripken also hit two home runs in All-Star games, in 1991 (7/9 at Toronto off Dennis Martinez, two on) and 2001 (7/10 at Seattle off Chan Ho Park, none on)...The others were by Brooks Robinson (7/11/67 at Anaheim off Fergie Jenkins, none on); Frank Robinson (7/13/71 at Detroit off Dock Ellis, one on); Ken Singleton (8/9/81 at Cleveland off Tom Seaver, none on); and Roberto Alomar (7/7/98 at Colorado off Trevor Hoffman, none on). BALTIMORE AS ALL-STAR HOST: The Orioles have played host to two All-Star Games...The 25th Midsummer Classic was held at Memorial Stadium in 1958, and the 64th All-Star Game was held at Camden Yards in 1993...On July 8, 1958, Orioles pitcher Billy O'Dell retired the final 9 batters as the AL posted a 4-3 win before 48,829 fans at Memorial Stadium...The Orioles' Gus Triandos was the starting catcher, and 11 future Hall of Famers saw action in the game...In its 2nd year of existence, Oriole Park at Camden Yards played host to baseball's first-ever All-Star Week, including the AL's 9-3 win on July 13, 1993...The game drew 48,147 fans...Cal Ripken was the only Oriole to appear in the game, going 0-for-3...Pitcher Mike Mussina was selected to the team but did not get into the game...FanFest, the baseball theme park that is now a part of All-Star Week, drew 111,883 visitors during the five-day celebration...Perhaps the most lasting memories from All-Star Week '93 came on Monday, July 12, at the annual Gatorade All-Star Workout...Juan Gonzalez crushed a ball off the facing of the upper deck in left field, and Ken Griffey Jr. became the first player to hit the B&O Warehouse during the home run hitting contest.

POSTSEASON NOTES

The Orioles last advanced to post season play in '97, reaching for the 2nd straight season, the only time they've made back-to-back post season appearances since 1973-74...For the 2nd straight year, the Orioles won their Division Series before losing in the American League Championship Series...In 1997 they beat the Seattle Mariners, 3-1, in the Division Series before losing to the Cleveland Indians, 4-2 in the ALCS...In 1996 they topped the Cleveland Indians, 3-1, in the Division Series and fell to the New York Yankees, 4-1, in the ALCS.

DIVISION SERIES: The Orioles have appeared in two Division Series, winning both...They are 6-2 overall (.750)...The O's are 3-1 at home and 3-1 on the road. ALCS: The Orioles have appeared in 9 LCS, going 5-4...They are 21-16 (.568)...The O's are 10-9 at home and 11-6 on the road...Only the New York Yankees (39 wins), Atlanta Braves (27 wins), Oakland A's (23 wins), and St. Louis Cardinals (22 wins) have won more games in League Championship Series play...The O's won the first 10 ALCS games they played (including the first 9 ever played)...They swept the Twins twice ('69-'70) and the A's ('71) in the first 3 ALCS, then won Game 1 against Oakland in '73 before losing the 2nd game that year. WORLD SERIES: Baltimore has gone 3-3 in its 6 World Series, but has a .576 pct. in championship games (19-14)...The Birds are 10-7 at home and 9-7 away. POST SEASON TOTAL: The O's have gone to the post season in 10 different seasons and are 46-32 (.590)...They are 23-17 at home and 23-15 on the road...Since their inception in 1954, the Orioles have the 2nd best postseason record of any team...They also have a 2.69 ERA in postseason play, the 2nd lowest of any team. ATTENDANCE: The Orioles played 30 post season games at Memorial Stadium, drawing a total of 1,422,209 fans (average 47,407)...In their 10 post season games at Oriole Park at Camden Yards in '96 & '97, the Orioles drew 488,079 fans (average 48,808)...The largest crowd for a post-season game in Baltimore was 54,458 for Game 4 (the final game) vs. the Dodgers in '66...That also is the largest crowd for any Orioles home game...The largest home LCS crowd was 52,787 for Game 1 vs. the Angels in '79.

BASEBALL IN BALTIMORE

1872 – The Lord Baltimores, the city's first professional team, begin play in the National Association. In their inaugural game on April 18 in Washington, they beat the Olympics, 16-0. In their home opener on April 22, before 3,500 fans at Newington Park (on Pennsylvania Ave. below Baker Street), they beat the New York Mutuals, 14-9. The team folded in its third season as a rival franchise, the Maryland Base Ball Club, turned from amateur to pro and took its place in the league through 1874. By 1875 the National Association itself had folded.
1882 – A newly formed Lord Baltimores team makes its debut in the American Association, a new rival to the National League. A year later, the franchise moves to newly built Oriole Park (on the southwest corner of what is now Greenmount Ave. and 25th Street) and adopts the name "Orioles," the first time that Maryland's state bird would be used as a nickname in association with Baltimore's professional baseball team.
1884 – Two more Baltimore teams are formed. One, also named the Orioles, plays in the new Union Association; by mid-season they transferred to Lancaster, PA, and the league folded after one season. The other, the Monumentals, becomes a charter member of the Eastern Association, which would become today's International League, but the team breaks up after a mere 13 games.
1892 – Baltimore joins the National League. Games are played at Union Park, a 12,000-seat stadium at the northeast corner of Barclay and 25th streets.
1894-96 – With innovative Ned Hanlon as manager, the scrappy Orioles win three straight National League pennants, led by future Hall of Famers John McGraw, Dan Brouthers, Joe Kelley, Willie Keeler and Hughie Jennings.
1899 – With most of their star players having been sold to Brooklyn, the Orioles finish their eighth season before folding. There would be no professional team in Baltimore as the new century dawned.

1901 – A new Baltimore Orioles team joins the upstart American League, with John McGraw as manager and an overflow crowd of 10,371 at Opening Day. The Orioles play two seasons in Baltimore before relocating to New York as the Highlanders – eventually to become the New York Yankees.
1903 – A minor league team using the name Baltimore Orioles joins the Eastern League. They are in existence for nine seasons, playing at American League Park, at York Road and 29th Street. The team wins the league pennant in 1908 under second-year manager Jack Dunn.
1912 – The minor league Orioles join the International League. They would be part of the league for the next 42 seasons until major league baseball returned.
1914 – A second Baltimore team, the Terrapins (named for an edible type of turtle common to the state of Maryland), enters the newly formed Federal League. The league would fold after just two seasons. The team plays at Terrapin Park, built on the west side of Greenmount Ave. between 29th and 30th streets; two years later, Jack Dunn buys the ballpark and renames it Oriole Park.
1914 – Jack Dunn, owner, general manager and manager of the International League Orioles, signs 19-year-old George Herman Ruth out of a Baltimore orphanage. Oriole players kid Dunn about his "babe," and a nickname is born. By July, Babe Ruth was sold to the Boston Red Sox.
1919-1925 – The Orioles, led by Dunn, win a record seven straight International League titles. For five of those years, 1920-24, future Hall of Famer Lefty Grove leads the pitching staff, going 108-36.
1920s-40s – The city fields two teams in the Negro Leagues -- the Elite Giants and the Black Sox. Second baseman James "Junior" Gilliam and Hall of Fame catcher Roy Campanella played two different stints for the Elite Giants on their way to major league careers with the Brooklyn Dodgers' "Boys of Summer."
1944 – After winning the International League title, the Orioles beat Louisville of the American Association to win the Junior World Series. It wasn't easy, however; a fire in the early morning hours of July 4 destroyed Oriole Park, leading the team to use Municipal Stadium, a football facility on 33rd Street. One game of the Junior World Series drew 52,833 paid fans, outdrawing each of World Series games in St. Louis between the Browns and Cardinals and attracting interest from teams in the major leagues and professional football.
1953 – The Orioles, owned by Jack Dunn III, play their final season in the International League. After two votes fail, on September 29, American League owners approve the sale of the financially struggling St. Louis Browns franchise to a Baltimore-based consortium led by attorney Clarence W. Miles and brewery owner Jerold C. Hoffberger.

BACK IN THE MAJORS

1954 – Playing in renovated Municipal Stadium – now called Memorial Stadium -- Baltimore returns to the major leagues and the Orioles return to the American League after 52 years. After splitting two games in Detroit to begin the season, the Orioles return to Baltimore by train – arriving, ironically, at Camden Station, just a few yards from the current ballpark – and a lengthy parade through the streets prior to their home opener on April 15. They beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, but go on to a 54-100 season.
November 18, 1954 – In a trade that took two weeks to complete, the Orioles and Yankees swap 18 players as new manager/general manager Paul Richards lays the groundwork for the coming years. The Orioles get 11 players, including catcher Gus Triandos, outfielder Gene Woodling and Willie Miranda, first in a long line of outstanding defensive shortstops.
1955 – Brooks Robinson is signed; he makes his major league debut on September 17 but does not establish himself as the regular third baseman and future Hall of Famer until 1958.
July 8, 1958 – Memorial Stadium hosts its first and only All-Star Game. The Orioles' Billy O'Dell retires the last nine batters to preserve a 4-3 win for the American League.
September 20, 1958 – Knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm hurls the first no-hitter in Orioles history, beating the Yankees 1-0 at Memorial Stadium. Two years later, Manager Paul Richards will introduce the "big mitt" designed to help catchers cut down on passed balls and wild pitches from Wilhelm's knuckleball.
May 9, 1961 – Jim Gentile becomes the first player in major league history to hit grand slams in consecutive at bats in a 13-5 win at Minnesota.
September 18, 1963 – Steve Barber becomes the first 20-game winner in club history, beating the Angels, 3-1, in California. He is the first of the Orioles' 20-game winners; they have had 23 more over the last 40 years, more than any other team.
June, 1965 – Jerry Hoffberger, whose family was among the original group of owners of the Orioles when it moved to Baltimore, takes control of the ballclub as majority owner. He will lead the club for 14 years, during which the Orioles go to the postseason six times.
December 9, 1965 – The Orioles make arguably the greatest trade in franchise history, acquiring former All-Star outfielder Frank Robinson from the Cincinnati Reds for Milt Pappas and two players acquired earlier in the week, Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson. New GM Harry Dalton completes the trade, which was begun a month earlier by his predecessor, Lee MacPhail Jr.
May 8, 1966 – Frank Robinson hits the only fair ball ever to leave Memorial Stadium, a shot over the left field bleachers measured at 465 ft. The Orioles later commemorate the event with a flag at the top of the bleachers where the ball left the park, simply saying "HERE."
September 22, 1966 – 20-year-old Jim Palmer pitches a complete game as the Orioles clinch their first American League pennant with a 6-1 win at Kansas City. Palmer will win 268 games and three Cy Young Awards in a 19-year career with the Orioles on his way to the Hall of Fame.
1966 – "Would You Believe 4 Straight?" The Orioles stun the baseball world by sweeping the favored Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series. Frank Robinson wins the American League triple crown (.316-49-122). Frank, Brooks Robinson and Boog Powell finish 1-2-3 in the American League MVP voting.
1968 – Longtime minor league manager Earl Weaver is added to the coaching staff at the beginning of the season and, on July 11, is named manager of the Orioles. He goes on to post a 1,480-1,060 record in 17 seasons before being elected to the Hall of Fame.
1969-71 – Pitching, three-run homers, and defense stamp Weaver's Orioles, as they capture three straight American League East titles, a trio of AL pennants, and the 1970 World Series. Brooks Robinson earns the nickname "Hoover" from future teammate Lee May after showing off his defensive skills in the '70 series triumph over the Reds.
1973-74 – The Orioles win back-to-back AL East titles, giving them five division titles in six years. However, they are beaten by Oakland in the AL Championship Series both years.
June 15, 1976 – Hank Peters, in his first year as Orioles general manager, begins to remake the club with a 10-player trade with New York. Future Orioles Hall of Fame members Scott McGregor, Tippy Martinez and Rick Dempsey come from the Yankees; catcher Elrod Hendricks, who later will be traded and return twice more, is among those sent to New York.
September 18, 1977 – Memorial Stadium is filled with 51,798 fans on "Thanks, Brooks Day," celebrating the end of the third baseman's 23-year career, all with the Orioles.
June 22, 1979 – Doug DeCinces' two-out, two-run homer in the bottom of the 9th caps a monumental comeback against Detroit and gives birth to "Orioles Magic."
1979 – The Orioles win the AL pennant for the 5th time and take a 3-1 lead over Pittsburgh in the World Series. But the Pirates' "fam-i-lee" comes back to win the last three games and the World Championship.

November 1, 1979 – American League owners approve the August sale of the Orioles to Washington attorney Edward Bennett Williams. The purchase ends both local and public ownership of the club.
August 10, 1981 – Cal Ripken Jr. makes his major league debut, scoring the winning run as a 12th-inning pinch-runner vs. Kansas City at Memorial Stadium.
1981 – The Orioles' 59-46 record is the best in the American League, but not good enough for the playoffs. Following a mid-year strike, baseball decides to play the season in two halves and the Orioles finish second to New York and Milwaukee in the two halves.
October 1-3, 1982 – The Orioles, three games behind Milwaukee with 4 games to play heading into a final weekend series with the Brewers, take the first three games at Memorial Stadium to forge a tie for first. But the Brewers spoil the comeback with a 10-2 win in the season finale. Earl Weaver, who two months earlier had announced his retirement at the end of the season, is saluted by 51,462 fans in an emotional celebration and farewell following the game.
1983 – The Orioles lose the first game of the AL Championship Series before coming back to beat the Chicago White Sox three straight games. They lose the World Series opener to the Philadelphia Phillies before coming back to win four straight for their third World Championship. Cal Ripken is named AL MVP (.318-27-102) in a close race over teammate Eddie Murray (.306-33-111).
1988 – The Orioles lose a major league record 21 games to start the season.
May 2, 1988 – Returning home to Memorial Stadium with a 1-23 record, the Orioles play before 50,402 fans on a Monday night. In a dramatic pre-game announcement, Governor William Donald Schaefer announces that Orioles owner Edward Bennett Williams and the Maryland Stadium Authority have agreed on a 15-year lease for a new ballpark to be constructed at Camden Yards for the 1992 season.
December 1988 – Investor Eli S. Jacobs buys the Orioles from the estate of Edward Bennett Williams, who had passed away in August.
1989 – "Why Not?" is the rallying cry of the young Orioles, who improbably lead the AL East into September. They eventually lose at Toronto on the next-to-last day of the season, giving the Blue Jays the division crown.
October 6, 1991 – After 38 years, the Memorial Stadium era ends as the Orioles play their last game on 33rd Street. Cal Ripken Jr. – who would add his second MVP Award to the All-Star Game MVP trophy he won in mid-season – hits into a game-ending double play, but the 7-1 loss to Detroit does not diminish an emotional "Field of Dreams" celebration afterward as more than 100 former Orioles return in uniform to take their old positions one last time before 50,700 fans.
April 6, 1992 – Oriole Park at Camden Yards ushers in a new era of "retro ballparks" and the Orioles beat the Indians, 2-0 on Rick Sutcliffe's complete game. The ballpark, on the western edge of downtown, helps revitalize the neighborhood and earns wide acclaim for its architectural design and fan-friendly features.

July 13, 1993 – Oriole Park hosts the city's second All-Star Game, following a week-long "All-Star Fan Fest," the first of its kind.
August 2, 1993 – Baltimore attorney Peter Angelos leads a group of investors – most of whom are Baltimoreans – in buying the Orioles at auction from Eli S. Jacobs. American League owners approve the sale on October 4.
September 6, 1995 – The Iron Man tops the Iron Horse: Cal Ripken Jr. surpasses a record once thought unbeatable, playing in his 2,131st consecutive game to pass Lou Gehrig's all-time record. Ripken's homer in the game helps beat the Angels, 4-2.
1995 – The Orioles draw 3,098,475 fans in the strike-shortened season to lead the American League in attendance for the first time in their history. They will go on to lead the league in attendance for four straight years.
September 6, 1996 – Future Hall of Famer Eddie Murray, who returned to the club in a mid-season trade with Cleveland, hits his 500th career home run into the right field seats at Camden Yards.
1996 – A major league-record 10 different Orioles hit at least 10 home runs during the season as the Orioles break New York's 35-year-old mark for home runs by a team. The Orioles advance to the playoffs as the "wild card" team, finishing 2nd in the AL East. They beat Cleveland in the AL Division Series before the Yankees – with help from 12-year-old Jeffrey Maier – end the Orioles postseason hopes in the ALCS.
1997 – The Orioles go wire-to-wire to win the AL East. They beat Seattle in the Division Series before falling in six games to Cleveland in the ALCS.
September 20, 1998 – Cal Ripken Jr. ends his consecutive game streak at 2,632, sitting out the Orioles' final home game of the season at Camden Yards vs. the New York Yankees. Ryan Minor starts in his place at third base.
April 15, 2000 – Cal Ripken Jr. singles at Minnesota's Metrodome off Hector Carrasco for his 3,000th career hit, the first Oriole and 24th player to reach that milestone. He is one of eight players with 3,000 hits and 400 home runs.
October 6, 2001 – Having announced in May his plans to retire at season's end, Cal Ripken plays his last game as an Oriole before 48,807 fans at Camden Yards. His 21-year career will result in a first-ballot election to the Hall of Fame with the 3rd highest vote percentage in history.
July 31, 2006 – The Mid-Atlantic Sports Network, a regional television channel owned primarily by the Orioles, begins 24-hour programming. The network is the rightsholder for both Orioles and Washington Nationals games.
November 12, 2008 – The Orioles unveil their new road uniform with a script "Baltimore" across the chest. The Orioles' road uniform had featured a script "Orioles" across the chest since 1973.

MODERN ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

In 2007, Cal Ripken Jr. became the 12th modern Oriole to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and the 6th whose official plaque shows him wearing an Orioles hat, joining Eddie Murray, Jim Palmer, Brooks Robinson, Frank Robinson and Earl Weaver. All except Weaver – selected as a manager by the Veterans Committee – were elected in their first year of eligibility. (See "Orioles Retired Numbers" for biographies and statistics.)

Ripken received 98.53% of the vote total (537 of 545 ballots cast) by eligible members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. His total of 98.53 percent was the third highest in the history of the Hall of Fame, behind only Tom Seaver (98.84% in 1992) and Nolan Ryan (98.79%, 1999). Also elected along with Ripken was former San Diego Padres outfielder Tony Gwynn, with 97.6 percent of the votes. They are the 42nd and 43rd players elected in their first year of eligibility and the 46th and 47th electees to spend their entire career with one team.

The 14 modern Orioles in the Hall of Fame include 12 players, a manager and two executives:

Robin Roberts ('76, 87%)	George Kell ('83, VCS+)	Jim Palmer ('90, 93%)	Lee MacPhail ('98, VCS+)
Frank Robinson ('82, 89%)	Luis Aparicio ('84, 85%)	Reggie Jackson ('93, 94%)	Eddie Murray ('03, 85%)
Brooks Robinson ('83, 92%)	Hoyt Wilhelm ('85, 84%)	Earl Weaver ('96, VCS+)	Cal Ripken Jr. ('07, 98%)
Whitey Herzog ('10, 81%)	Roberto Alomar ('11, 90%)	Pat Gillick ('11, VCS+)

+Veterans' Committee Selection

In addition to Ripken, Robinsons, Palmer, Murray and Jackson also were elected in their first year of eligibility.

Dick Williams, who had three different tenures as a player with the Orioles in the late '50s and early '60s, was named as a 2008 inductee to the Hall of Fame as a manager. Williams, an outfielder-first baseman as a player, managed 21 years in the majors with 6 different teams, winning two World Championships and four league titles.

Whitey Herzog, who played for the Orioles in 1961-62 as an outfielder, was inducted in to the Hall of Fame in 2010. Herzog won a World Championship (1982), three National League pennants and six division championships as a manager. His all-time managerial record was 1,281-1,125. He received 14 of 16 possible votes by the Veterans Committee.

Pat Gillick, who played for the Orioles as a minor leaguer and later served as General Manager of the Orioles from 1995-1998, was elected by the Veterans Committee and will be inducted into the Hall of Fame in July of 2011.

OLD ORIOLES IN BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Along with the 12 modern-day Orioles electees, 16 others who played and/or managed for the Orioles during the early days of Baltimore's rich baseball heritage also are enshrined at Cooperstown, including six members of the 1890s juggernaut:

Frank (Home Run) Baker (3b)	William Candy Cummings (rhp)	Hughie Jennings (ss)	Joe (Iron Man) McGinnity (rhp)
Charles (Chief) Bender (rhp)	Robert M. (Lefty) Grove (lhp)	Wee Willie Keeler (of)	John McGraw (mgr, 3b)
Roger Bresnahan (c)	Edward (Ned) Hanlon (mgr)	Joe Kelley (of-if)	Wilbert Robinson (mgr, c)
Dan Brouthers (1b)	Rogers Hornsby (2b)	Rube Marquard (lhp)	George Herman (Babe) Ruth (of)

3 More: There are 3 additional Hall of Famers who have represented the Orioles, though not as players: George Weiss, who immortalized himself as a general manager of the Yankees, served part of his apprenticeship as an International League Orioles GM; Luke Appling, a legendary hitter/shortstop for the White Sox, who coached one year for the Orioles, in 1963; and Burleigh Grimes, the famed spitball pitcher who won 270 games in the majors, who scouted for the Orioles from 1960 through 1971.
Media Members, Too: The Hall of Fame has also honored three members of the media with longtime ties to Baltimore. In 1993, beloved Orioles broadcaster Chuck Thompson received the Ford C. Frick Award, presented by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for major contributions to the game of baseball. In 1998, Sam Lacy, longtime sports editor of the Baltimore Afro-American newspaper, became the first local writer selected for the J.G. Taylor Spink Award, honoring sportswriters "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing." And last year, former Orioles broadcaster Jon Miller was enshrined as the Ford C. Frick Award winner.

Native Marylanders in the Hall: Ripken, born in Havre de Grace and raised in Aberdeen, MD, is one of eight native Marylanders in the Hall of Fame and one of four who once played for the Orioles…The other former Orioles – all of whom played for the International League O's – were Home Run Baker (Trappe), Lefty Grove (Lonaconing) and Babe Ruth (Baltimore)…The four native Marylanders who never played for the Orioles who are enshrined in Cooperstown: Jimmie Foxx (Sudlersville), Judy Johnson (Snow Hill), Al Kaline (Baltimore) and Vic Willis (Elkton).

NOTABLE ORIOLES ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

Among the Oriole items on display in the Hall of Fame's Museum are: the spikes worn by Felix Pie during his cycle on August 14, 2009 against Los Angeles, the jersey worn by Brian Roberts when he hit his 56th double of the 2009 season, which set a major league record by a switch-hitter, the glove from Mike Bordick's major league-record consecutive errorless games streak in 2002; the jersey worn by Cal Ripken Jr. in his final major league game, Oct. 6, 2001; a jersey worn by Scott Erickson in Cuba, the first major leaguer to pitch on Cuban soil in 40 years on March 28, 1999; a base used by Roberto Alomar in the 1998 All-Star Game, when he was named MVP; the Lineup card from Ripken's 2,130th consecutive game (Sept. 5, 1995) to tie Lou Gehrig's record; the bat used by Eddie Murray to hit 2 home runs in Game 5 of the 1983 World Series; a Frank Robinson jersey; a glove used by Brooks Robinson in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP; the unique short-billed batting helmet worn by Brooks; and balls from no-hitters pitched by Hoyt Wilhelm (Sept. 2, 1958) and Jim Palmer (Aug. 13, 1969).

HALL OF FAME GAME

The Orioles made their 6th scheduled appearance in the annual Hall of Fame Game at Cooperstown's Doubleday Field on May 14, 2007. The Orioles are 3-2 in Hall of Fame Games, with one game postponed by rain. The results:

1961	Los Angeles Dodgers 6, Orioles 2	1990	Orioles vs. Montreal Expos, rained out
1967	Orioles 3, Cincinnati Reds 0	1998	Orioles 7, Toronto Blue Jays 1
1983	St. Louis Cardinals 4, Orioles 1	2007	Orioles 13, Toronto Blue Jays 7

THE ORIOLES HALL OF FAME

The Orioles Hall of Fame was conceived in 1977 by the Oriole Advocates at the suggestion of two former presidents, Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both of whom have since passed away. The Advocates continue to administer the annual elections under the direction of their Hall of Fame Committee.

Candidates may be elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame through two channels: the regular vote by a panel of some 80 people, comprising sportswriters, broadcasters, Oriole Advocates and Orioles personnel; or by a vote of the veterans committee, a group of 25 senior representatives from the sports media, Oriole Advocates and the Orioles front office.

Procedures for election to the Orioles Hall of Fame are based on those used by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, requiring mention on 75% of ballots cast. All candidates must have served a minimum of three full seasons with the Orioles. To be eligible for regular election, a player, manager or coach must have been active in that capacity within the last 15 years, but ceased serving in the position for which he was nominated for at least one year. For consideration by the veterans committee, formed in 1989, a candidate must have ceased serving in the capacity of consideration for at least 15 years.

In 2010, former Orioles pitching coach Ray Miller and former manager Johnny Oates were inducted into the Orioles Hall of Fame. Miller's pitching staffs won the 1979 American League Championship and the 1983 World Series and five Orioles pitchers won at least 20 games under his tutelage – Mike Boddicker (20) in 1984, Scott McGregor (20) and Steve Stone (25) in 1980, Mike Flanagan (23) in 1979 and Jim Palmer (21) in 1978. Miller also served as manager for the Orioles during the 1998 and 1999 seasons, compiling a 157-167 record. Oates was inducted as a manager by the Veteran's Committee. A catcher, Oates made his major league debut with the Orioles on September 17, 1970. He also played for the Birds in 1972, appearing in a total of 90 games over the two seasons. It is for his work as a manager, however, that Oates is best remembered by Baltimore fans. Oates was named manager of the Orioles midway through the 1991 season and was named The Sporting News Manager of the Year in 1993. His .519 winning percentage is 5th-highest all-time among Orioles managers. The Orioles Hall of Fame now has 48 former players, coaches and managers.

HERB ARMSTRONG AWARD WINNER

In 1995, the Oriole Advocates established the Herb Armstrong Award to honor non-uniformed personnel who have represented the Orioles for at least five years and made a significant contribution to the ballclub, the community or the sport of baseball. The award is named after the beloved former educator, professional baseball player, manager and longtime official for both the Orioles' International League and American League clubs who dedicated nearly 70 years of his life to the people of Baltimore, his adopted hometown. Winners are selected by the Orioles Hall of Fame Veterans Committee and honored during the Orioles Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies.

In 2010, the Herb Armstrong Award was presented to Coordinator of Bluefield Operations Len Johnston. Johnston has been with the Orioles for 34 seasons in numerous capacities. Johnston initially joined the Orioles as manager at Miami in 1976 and in addition to managing has served as a coach, scout, scouting supervisor, field coordinator and cross-checker in the Baltimore minor league system. He spent 19 seasons as minor league camp coordinator and in 2010 oversaw the club's Bluefield operations. In 2006, Johnston was named winner of the Cal Ripken Sr. Player Development Award, presented to the minor league staff member who exemplifies the qualities of the late Oriole who is regarded as the architect of "The Oriole Way." A graduate of Western Michigan University, where he played football and baseball and was elected into the school's Hall of Fame, Johnston signed with the Chicago White Sox and spent his last 12 seasons in Triple-A. He began his managerial career in 1967 in the Washington Senators minor league system and also managed and scouted for the Cleveland Indians for five years before joining the Orioles.

WILD BILL HAGY AWARD

On August 20, 2007, the Orioles lost one of their most passionate fans with the passing of William G. "Wild Bill" Hagy. Leading cheers from "The Roar from 34" at Memorial Stadium, "Wild Bill" became a Baltimore institution, contorting his body to spell out "O-R-I-O-L-E-S" from the upper deck – and sometimes coming down to lead the crowd in cheers from atop the dugout.

Upon his passing, the Orioles and the Oriole Advocates announced the creation of an award to honor the team's top fans, to be named The Wild Bill Hagy Award. The award will expand the Orioles Hall of Fame categories to include fans who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment in support of the team in the tradition of Wild Bill, who rooted for the club year in and year out.

Appropriately, Hagy was named the first recipient of the award. He will be remembered on a plaque displayed with the other honorees at the Sports Legends Museum, adjacent to Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

MOST VALUABLE ORIOLES

Luke Scott was voted winner of the 2010 Louis M. Hatter Most Valuable Oriole Award by members of the local media who cover the team on a regular basis. He led the team with 27 home runs and has hit 20 or more in three straight seasons with the Orioles, tallying 75 homers over the span. Scott also led the club with a .902 on-base plus slugging percentage and a .535 slugging percentage. He earned AL Player of the Week honors for the week of July 19-25, his third career Player of the Week award.

The MVO Award was initiated when the Orioles returned to the majors in 1954. A decade ago it was renamed in memory of Hatter, the distinguished and lovable "dean" of Baltimore baseball writers who covered the Orioles for The Sun for 27 years. The award winner is selected through a vote of writers and broadcasters who cover the O's on a regular basis. There have been four ties, and no award was given in 1994. Nine players -- Eddie Murray (7), Brooks Robinson (4), Cal Ripken (4), Frank Robinson (3), Ken Singleton (3), Rafael Palmeiro (3), Boog Powell (2), Brian Roberts (2) and Miguel Tejada (2) have won the award more than once.

EARL WEAVER—4

Inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown in August 1996, Earl currently ranks 20th in victories and his .583 winning percentage (1,480-1,060) over 17 seasons—all in Baltimore—ranks 8th on the all-time list of those who managed 10 or more seasons in the majors.

Earl was a minor league 2nd baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown St. Louis Cardinals organization. He began his managing career in the minors in 1956 and joined the Orioles organization a year later. He came up to the Orioles as first base coach in 1968 and was named manager on July 11 of that year. From 1969 through 1982, he won 6 AL East titles, 4 AL pennants and one World Series, beating the Cincinnati Reds in 1970. Earl's Orioles won 100 games or more 5 times, and he earned Manager of the Year honors 3 times.

He retired following the 1982 season, which ended one game shy of another AL East title when the Orioles lost to the Milwaukee Brewers on the final day of the season. He came back to manage in mid-1985 for 1 1/2 years before retiring for good. The only time in his 17 seasons as manager that he posted a losing record was his last, in 1986.

Earl and his wife, Marianna, live in Pembroke Pines, FL. He has a son and 2 daughters from a previous marriage, as well as a stepdaughter.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
BROOKS ROBINSON—5

"Mr. Oriole" spent 23 seasons with the Orioles and started 20 consecutive opening day games. He won the AL Most Valuable Player Award in 1964 and holds the record form most Gold Gloves by a non-pitcher with 16. His election to baseball's Hall of Fame (in his first year of eligibility in 1983) was cemented with his performance against the Cincinnati Reds in the 1970 World Series, when he was named MVP and earned the nickname "Hoover" (as in vacuum cleaners) for his play in the field.

Brooks played in 18 All-Star games. He trails only Cal Ripken among the Orioles' all-time leaders in games, at-bats, hits, doubles, RBI, runs, total bases and extra-base hits. In addition to his AL MVP Award in '64 and his World Series MVP Award in '70, he was the All-Star Game MVP in 1966 and was voted the Most Valuable Oriole in '60, '62, '64 and co-winner in '71 with Frank Robinson. He also earned the Commissioner's Trophy (now the Roberto Clemente Award) for exemplifying the game of baseball in 1972 and the Joe Cronin Award for significant achievement by an AL player in 1977.

Brooks holds 10 major league fielding records and 3 American League records for third basemen, including highest lifetime fielding percentage (.971). He is 12th on the all-time list of games played, 4th in the AL and 5th in games played with one franchise.

A native of Little Rock, AR, Brooks and his wife, Connie, have four children. They split their time living in the northern Baltimore suburbs and in Southern California.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
CAL RIPKEN JR.—8

Baseball's all-time Iron Man, Cal spent his entire 21-year career with the Orioles and was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in 2007 in his first year of eligibility. He is one of only eight players in history with both 400 HR and 3,000 hits, along with Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Eddie Murray, Stan Musial, Rafael Palmeiro, Dave Winfield & Carl Yastrzemski. In 2001, his final season, he was elected to his 19th All-Star berth, breaking the AL record for most times as an All-Star – a record previously held by Brooks Robinson. He earned two All-Star Game MVP Awards (1991 and 2001), an MVP (1983) and AL Rookie of the Year (1982) honors, two Gold Gloves and eight Silver Slugger awards, all at shortstop. And he still owns five Major League or American League fielding records for shortstops. Cal was named Most Valuable Oriole four times, twice sharing the award with Eddie Murray.

Ripken will be most remembered for topping the said-to-be-unbreakable record for consecutive games played set by Lou Gehrig, passing Gehrig's mark of 2,130 games on September 6, 1995. Cal went on to play in 2,632 consecutive games before sitting on September 20, 1998.

Following the 1999 season, he was named as one of two shortstops (with Ernie Banks) on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team, selected by fans and an expert panel. Extremely active in community endeavors, he won the Roberto Clemente Award and the initial Bart Giamatti Caring Award among many other honors.

Cal and his wife, Kelly, live in Reisterstown, MD with their children, Rachel and Ryan. He is active in youth baseball projects and is co-owner of the Aberdeen IronBirds, an Orioles minor league affiliate, in addition to raising funds for the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation to benefit youth programs.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
FRANK ROBINSON—20

Frank's achievements during his 21 seasons as a player rank him among the top players of all-time in 10 categories. He hit 586 home runs, 6th on the all-time list.He spent 19 seasons with the Orioles as a player, coach ('79-'80 and '85-'87), manager ('88-'91) and assistant general manager ('91-'95).

The trade that brought Frank from Cincinnati to Baltimore turned the Orioles from contenders to World Champions in 1966. He won the Triple Crown (.316 average, 49 homers, 122 RBI) and was both the AL and World Series MVP in his first season with the Orioles. In all, the Orioles went to the World Series 4 times in his 6 seasons as a player with them. When he was traded to the Dodgers after the '71 season, he became the first to have his number retired by the Orioles.

Frank was NL Rookie of the Year with the Reds in 1956 and is the only player to win MVP honors in both leagues ('61 NL, '66 AL). He played in 11 All-Star games and was MVP of the 1971 classic. While still an active player, he became the first black manager in major league history with the Cleveland Indians in 1975. In addition to the Indians ('75-'77), he managed the San Francisco Giants ('81-'84), the Orioles ('88-'89) and the Montreal Expos—Washington Nationals ('02-'06).

Frank was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible in 1982. He lives with his wife, Barbara, in Bel Air, CA. They have two children.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
JIM PALMER—22

The greatest pitcher in Orioles history, Jim won 268 games in a 19-year career, all of it with Baltimore. He won three Cy Young Awards in a 4-year span ('73, '75, '76) and his 2.86 ERA is 4th on the all-time list among pitchers with 3,000 or more innings pitched.

Jim won 20 games in a season eight times, one of only six who pitched exclusively in the 20th century to accomplish the feat. He put that string together in a 9-year stretch, 1970-78, during which he went 176-97 with a 2.54 ERA.

In 1966, at age 20, he became the youngest pitcher ever to throw a World Series shutout, and in 1983 he became the only hurler to have won a World Series game in each of three decades. He was the winning pitcher in the Orioles' first four pennant-clinching games and was 8-3 in 17 post-season appearances. He was a six-time All-Star and was the AL's starting pitcher four times.

Jim was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame on the first ballot in January 1990. He is in his 17th season as an analyst on Orioles televised games, and has also worked for ABC-TV and ESPN.

Jim lives in Baltimore and Palm Beach, FL. He has two daughters, Jamie Michelle and Kelly Christina.

ORIOLES RETIRED NUMBERS
EDDIE MURRAY—33

Eddie played 12 1/2 of his 21 seasons with the Orioles and was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility in 2003. He spent his first 12 years with the Orioles and rejoined the team in 1996, becoming the 15th player to reach the 500-home run plateau. Eddie, Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, and Rafael Palmeiro are the only players with 500 homers and 3,000 hits.

A model of consistency, he drove in at least 75 runs in each of his first 20 major league seasons, a feat unmatched. He has more RBI than any switch-hitter in history and ranks 8th all-time in RBI. Eddie was named to 8 All-Star teams, 7 as an Oriole, and batted .300 or better 7 times, including 5 times as an Oriole. He won the Orioles' triple crown 5 times, leading the club in average, homers and RBI. He played at least 150 games in 16 seasons, tied with Cal Ripken for second most in history behind Pete Rose.

Eddie broke in as the AL Rookie of the Year in 1977. He was named Most Valuable Oriole 7 times (twice sharing the award with Cal). A 3-time Gold Glove winner, he holds the major league record for games played and career assists by a first baseman.

Like Frank Robinson before him, Eddie's Oriole number was retired when he was traded to the Los Angeles Dodgers. He also played for the Mets, Indians and Angels, and was an Orioles coach for four seasons, 1998-2001. He also served as hitting coach for the Cleveland Indians and Los Angeles Dodgers. Eddie has two daughters, Jordan and Jessica, and lives in his hometown of Los Angeles.

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS

ORIOLE PARK AT CAMDEN YARDS
THE HISTORY

Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the beautiful baseball-only facility in downtown Baltimore, became the official home of the Orioles on April 6, 1992. The construction of the park was completed in essentially 33 months from the time razing previous structures on the 85-acre parcel began June 28, 1989 in the area known as Camden Yards.

The one-time railroad center is 12 minutes west by foot from the City's Inner Harbor and only 2 blocks from the birthplace of baseball's most legendary hero, George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Ruth's father operated Ruth's Cafe on the ground floor of the family residence located at Conway Street & Little Paca, now center field at Oriole Park. The ballpark seats 45,971 and the project cost was approximately $110 million. It was designed by the Kansas City architectural firm of Helmuth, Obata & Kassabaum (HOK) with direction and input from the Orioles and the State of Maryland, which owns and operates the facility through its agency, the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA).

Working under contract to HOK were the urban design firm of RTKL, the landscape architecture firm of Wallace, Roberts and Todd, and the engineering firms of Bliss and Nyitray; Rummel, Klepper and Kahl; and Kidde Consultants, Inc. Working under contract to the Orioles were the interior design firm of Forte Design and the graphic design firm of David Ashton and Associates.

Oriole Park is state-of-the-art, yet unique, traditional and intimate in design. It blends with the urban context of downtown Baltimore while taking its image from baseball parks built in the early 20th century. Steel, rather than concrete trusses, an arched brick facade, a sun roof over the gentle slope of the upper deck, an asymmetrical playing field, and natural grass turf are just some of the features that tie it to those magnificent big league ballparks built in the early 1900's. Ebbets Field (Brooklyn), Shibe Park (Philadelphia), Fenway Park (Boston), Crosley Field (Cincinnati), Forbes Field (Pittsburgh), Wrigley Field (Chicago), and The Polo Grounds (New York) were among the ballparks that served as powerful influences in the design of Oriole Park.

THE PLAYING FIELD

The field is 16' below street level and is comprised of a sophisticated irrigation and drainage system below natural grass turf. It is designed to reduce the frequency of rainouts by shortening the length of baseball's most exasperating feature, the rain delay. The field's system makes it possible to get the field ready for play within a half hour after the end of a heavy rainstorm. The drainage system automatically removes as much as 75,000 gallons of rainwater from the field in an hour. Following the 2000 season, the ballpark's infield and outfield were completely rebuilt, replacing the dirt, sand rootzone mix, sod and drainage. The drainage system was modernized by utilizing an inlaid piping system topped by a fabric mesh and gravel to better protect both the pipes and the playing surface. Following the 2005 season, all new irrigation heads were installed and in 2007, the warning track around the field was replaced. In 2008, the sod was replaced with a sand-based blend of Kentucky bluegrass that is genetically darker in color and more durable than the version previously used at Oriole Park, giving the field a more vibrant green color.

DIMENSIONS

For Camden Yards' first nine seasons, outfield dimensions were 333 feet to left field, 364 feet to left center, 400 feet to center, 373 feet to right center and 318 feet to right. Prior to the 2001 season, in conjunction with extensive renovations to the ballpark's playing surface and drainage system, the Orioles reconfigured the ballpark with outfield dimensions that were up to 7 feet larger than those used since Camden Yards opened in 1992. However, it was found that the new dimensions did not significantly improve sight lines for fans, as had been anticipated, and adversely affected the viewing angle of the batter's eye wall.

As a result, the ballpark was returned to its original dimensions before the 2002 season. The changes included moving home plate approximately seven feet closer to the outfield, to its original spot 59 feet from the backstop. In addition, the entire field was shifted several degrees to the first base side and both the left field and right field foul poles were repositioned to their original locations. The foul line measurements decreased from 320 feet to 318 feet in right field and from 337 to 333 feet in left field. The center field distance decreased from 406 to 400 feet and the deepest part of the ballpark, in left center field, decreased from 417 to 410 feet.

The shorter distance to the right field corner than down the left field line is compensated by a 25' high wall, which extends 100' from the right field line toward center. The fence in the rest of the park is only 7' high.

THE WAREHOUSE

Located beyond right field, the B&O Warehouse is 439 feet from home plate. Built between 1898-1905, the warehouse is the longest building on the East Coast at 1016' (but only 51' wide). It has been preserved and now provides unique office space for the Orioles as well as home for the banquet facilities, the ballpark's central kitchen and space for ballpark operations. The Orioles' main ticket office operates out of the north end of the Warehouse.

The ballpark and warehouse are separated by a 60' wide promenade, an extension of Eutaw Street.

Open daily, Eutaw St. is home to plaques dedicated to members of the Orioles Hall of Fame, and the Mid-Atlantic Baseball Scouts Hall of Fame, as well as monuments to the players whose numbers have been retired by the Orioles. Ballpark tours depart regularly from the Baseball Store on Eutaw Street.

MEMORIAL WALL

On Veteran's Day 2002, ground was broken at the south end of the Eutaw Street warehouse for a memorial wall to honor residents of Maryland who were killed in all of our nation's wars. Designed by Baltimore-based CS&D Architects, the memorial was created to replace the one razed at Memorial Stadium earlier in the year. The 11-foot-tall, curving black granite wall features the well-known phrase from the Memorial Stadium facade, spelled out in the original stainless steel lettering: "Time Will Not Dim the Glory of Their Deeds." In other links to the old stadium, an urn from East 33rd Street containing soil from all foreign American military cemeteries is displayed under glass, and a plaque explains the significance of Memorial Stadium in Baltimore history. A bench allows visitors the opportunity to rest and reflect at any time during the day or evening, and the memorial is illuminated at night.

SPORTS LEGENDS AT CAMDEN YARDS

In May 2005, the Babe Ruth Museum opened its expansion project, Sports Legends at Camden Yards, in the historic Camden Station building at the north end of the warehouse. Covering 22,000 square feet and showcasing more than 10,000 artifacts, Sports Legends is an interactive, innovative tour of Maryland's sports heritage. The space includes exhibits on the Orioles, Baltimore Colts and Johnny Unitas, along with an in-depth look at the history of the Negro Leagues in Baltimore. Other exhibits include Maryland college sports, the Baltimore Ravens, and the Maryland Athletic Hall of Fame.

Opened in 1856, Camden Station had been unused since the 1980's prior to the renovations. In its heyday, the station was the grand passenger terminus of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the country's first commercial railroad. In 1954, the brand-new Baltimore Orioles franchise arrived at Camden Station from a season-opening series in Detroit for their first home game at Memorial Stadium.

Abraham Lincoln passed through the station on several occasions, once en route to his inauguration in 1861, and also on his way to deliver the Gettysburg Address. Lincoln's funeral car also stopped there on its way to Springfield, Illinois, for his burial. As part of the renovations, the Gentlemen's Waiting Room will be restored to its Civil War splendor and will interpret Lincoln's passages through Camden Station, the Civil War, and Camden Station's role in America's transportation history.

ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

Major improvements and upgrades have been made to the entire Oriole Park entertainment system within the past several years. Prior to the 2008 season, the Orioles and the Maryland Stadium Authority contracted with Mitsubishi to purchase a new video system for Oriole Park at Camden Yards, replacing the Sony JumboTRON video board and Daktronics matrix and out-of-town boards used since the park opened in 1992. This state of the art equipment includes a Mitsubishi DiamondVision LED video board and LED scoreboard in center field, an LED out of town scoreboard display in right field, and LED "ribbon" boards along the club level and upper deck fascia.

The new DiamondVision LED video board sits atop the LED scoreboard, reversing the placement of the previous system. The LED out of town scoreboard in right field features statistical information in addition to game scores. The narrow auxiliary matrix boards along the club level and upper deck were replaced with LED ribbon boards, providing better definition, brighter images and wider viewing angles. ScorePAD Sports, Inc.'s state-of-the-art STADIUMnet scoring system provides extensive statistical information on each player to help keep fans informed.

In order to preserve the traditional feel of Oriole Park while providing fans with the most modern technology, the Orioles hired an expert design team to work with the Maryland Stadium Authority to deliver major technological upgrades while preserving the ballpark's historic aesthetic.

Phase two of the ballpark improvements were completed prior to the 2009 season and included major control room upgrades, new HD televisions throughout the ballpark and improvements in the coverage and quality of the ballpark sound system. The ballpark entertainment control room replacement allows the entertainment system to transmit a high-definition (HD) signal to the main and auxiliary video boards and further enhance the fan experience at Oriole Park.

The 2009 sound system renovations included 530 new speakers in all, replacing those that had been in place since Oriole Park opened. To improve coverage and consistency of sound throughout the seating area, a number of additional loudspeaker positions were created. New speakers are located in the Upper and Lower Deck seating bowl, Club Level, Main Concourse, centerfield bleacher area and scoreboard. The new system employs digital signal processing (DSP) that is significantly more advanced than what was previously used and allows a much greater level of control. The result is a substantially more uniform listening experience throughout the seating area.

FOUL POLES

When the Orioles moved to Camden Yards for the 1992 season, they brought with them the right field foul pole that had been used for 37 seasons at Memorial Stadium. The foul pole was affixed atop the tall wall in right field in the Flag Court. Prior to the 2001 season, the Orioles replaced the original Camden Yards left field foul pole with the left field pole that had been used throughout their stay at Memorial Stadium. At 70 feet high, the new/old foul pole is 20 feet shorter than the previously used pole and requires a more modest support structure, which allows more fans in seats in the lower, club and upper deck levels to have an unobstructed view of the field. The foul poles were returned to their original positions when the ballpark was reconfigured to its original dimensions after the 2001 season.

SEATING

This past off-season, the Maryland Stadium Authority completed final phase of the replacement of the seats in the Oriole Park seating bowl as part of their deferred maintenance program. After the 2009 season, all seats in the lower level from foul pole to foul pole were replaced, along with necessary repairs to the concrete in this area. The work concluded this past winter, as MSA repaired concrete and replaced seats in the lower level outfield, the club level and the upper deck.

At the request of the Orioles, the Club Level and upper deck at Camden Yards have been furnished with wider seats that will be more comfortable for fans. Sightlines for fans on both of those levels will be improved, as new, less intrusive railings enhance the view of those sitting in the first few rows of both levels, as well as fans sitting in and around upper deck equal access and companion seats.

Other ballpark improvements include the installation of drink rails in portions of the club level seating bowl down the left field and right field lines, as well as the addition of bistro tables facing the field on the left field club level, thus creating a "viewing deck". Both locations are ideal for individuals as well as small and large groups.

Every aisle seat in the park has an extra feature: a reproduction of the 100-year old logo used by the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890's, a National League team that won consecutive pennants in 1894-95-96.

The lower deck comprises some 18,000 box seats between the foul poles. Behind the lower boxes there are some 6,800 terrace box seats. Prior to the 2004 season, 72 field level seats were installed behind home plate. Seats in the lower stand are generally closer to the field. From the front row of seats to first and third bases, for example, the distance is 45'. From home plate to the screen measures 47'.

The Mezzanine, or Club Level, stretches from the right field foul pole ground to left-center field and is accessible by escalators, elevators, stairs, and ramps. There is waiter service available at the seats and behind the seating area on the club level concourse is a climate-controlled lounge with private dining and bar areas.

Also on the Club Level are 66 luxury suites, each containing 10 to 14 seats. These suites are leased on a yearly basis. There are a number of suites that are available for rent on an individual game basis, several of which hold 10-18 people, and three larger party suites that can accommodate groups of up to 60 people.

The Upper Deck contains 25 rows of seats (the first 12 are boxes, the last 13 reserved seats) and has a gentle slope of 31 degrees (Memorial Stadium, like many parks, was 33 degrees). A sun roof was constructed to cover half of the upper deck seating area.

Some 1,887 Eutaw Street Bleacher seats, among the most popular in the park, are located in right-center field. There are also standing room only tickets that go on sale two hours before game time. The SRO areas are found on the right field flag court and just above the visitor's bullpen in left field.

With the installation of wider seats in the Club Level and upper deck, total seating capacity in the ballpark is decreased from 48,290 to 45,438 for 2011 and beyond. More than 400 seats are available to fans with disabilities in the equal access areas (EA), which are located throughout the ballpark.

ACCESSIBILITY/PARKING

Camden Yards is easily reached via rail, bus and subway lines as well as 4 major highways (I-95, I-83, I-70 and the Baltimore-Washington Parkway). The MARC train and light rail trains both have stops directly on site. About 4,000 parking spaces are located south of the park on-site and numerous spaces are located in garages and lots within walking distance of the ballpark.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE TO ORIOLE PARK

Since Oriole Park at Camden Yards opened in 1992, many exciting improvements have been made to help enhance the "Oriole Park Experience"…

• Drink rails were installed in portions of the club level seating bowl down the left field and right field lines, and the addition of bistro tables facing the field on the left field club level, created a viewing deck in this area.
• Concrete and seats throughout the ballpark were replaced the past two off-seasons as part of the Maryland Stadium Authority's deferred maintenance program. Cushions were added to the lower level seats between the bases.
• Prior to 2010, all the rows in the entire ballpark were switched from letters to numbers, to more clearly designate the number of rows from the field or the front of the club and upper levels.
• The Home Plate Plaza Lobby, Home Plate Lounge and Upper and Lower Press Levels were renovated during the 2009 off-season.
• Within the past two years, the entire ballpark entertainment system, including the audio, video and scoreboards, were upgraded or replaced.
• Seats in sections 16-58 were replaced prior to 2004 with chairs with higher backs and padding. Cupholders were also installed to the 6,200 new seats.
• Two rows of seats were added at field level behind home plate prior to the 2004 season, a total of 72 seats. Also, ten seats were added to section 16 and 14 seats were added to section 58 at that time.
• Also prior to the 2004 season, the concrete wall behind home plate was replaced with brick, in keeping with the Camden Yards aesthetic. Two 7.5' rotational signs were also added to the wall.
• Prior to and during the early part of the 2000 season, the entrance area to the Homeplate Elevator Lobby was redesigned to provide a new floor covering, new wall finishes and redesigned elevators.
• The first floor lobby of the Warehouse at 333 W. Camden Street was redesigned from floor to ceiling to provide improved traffic flow and to accentuate the original structural and architectural elements of the Warehouse.
• The fourth floor lobby of the Warehouse also was refinished and improved to create a fresher, more enjoyable experience for those using party facilities and club level ticket holders who use this entrance to the ballpark.
• Expanding on improvements made during the 1999 season, the ticket reader system used at the turnstiles was upgraded. The ticket entrances were enlarged and the reader system itself was expanded to allow more types of tickets to be fed through the turnstile readers, providing fans a smoother, quicker entry to the ballpark.
• In an on-going project that began in early 1999, the Orioles offices located in the B & O Warehouse have undergone major renovations in order to give the offices a warmer look. In addition to redesigned office space, new artwork and artifacts are displayed in the lobby and in the glass entry doors.
• Prior to the 1999 season, an Upper Deck Fan Assistance Center was constructed in the Homeplate Elevator Lobby.
• Homestead Gardens, based in Davidsonville, MD, entered into a partnership with the Orioles starting in 1998 to help beautify Oriole Park and its surrounding grounds with flowers and plants.
• Prior to the 1999 season, the warning track surrounding the playing field was painted a shade of brown to more closely match the color of the infield dirt and to complement the colors of the B&O Warehouse.
• Work was completed on repainting the entire steel "superstructure" of the ballpark. The work was begun prior to the 2000 season and completed during the year.
• The Club Level and Suites have undergone a complete refurbishing, including new furniture, wallpaper and carpeting. The alcove lounges on the Club Level have been named and decorated in themes, providing greater ambiance for fans and making it easier to meet friends at a designated area, such as the "All-Star Lounge," "Hall of Fame Lounge" and "MVPs Lounge." Photos and records of each Oriole team beginning in 1954 adorn the corridors. Orioles Hall of Fame banners have been hung outside the party suites in the left field area of the Club Level.
• Smoking was banned from the seating bowl in 1993.

Plaques and other displays around the ballpark honor various athletic accomplishments…

• Orioles Hall of Fame: Located at the north end of the warehouse on the wall at the base of the scoreboard, plaques honor the members inducted annually and are similar in appearance to those enshrined in Cooperstown. They feature the Oriole Hall of Famer's likeness and a brief description of his accomplishments.
• Orioles' Retired Numbers: 4-foot monuments, located at the north end of the warehouse in front of the Orioles ticket windows, honor the uniform numbers worn by Earl Weaver (4), Brooks Robinson (5), Cal Ripken Jr. (8), Frank Robinson (20), Jim Palmer (22) and Eddie Murray (33).
• Mid-Atlantic Scouts Hall of Fame: As a tribute to baseball scouts over the years, the plaques are mounted on a wall on Eutaw Street.
• Cal Ripken Seat: To honor Cal's 278th career homer, surpassing Ernie Banks' major league record for home runs by a shortstop, the Orioles marked the spot where the ball landed (Section 86, Row FF, Seat 10) with a red seat. The homer came on July 15, 1993 off Scott Erickson, then with Minnesota.
• Eddie Murray Seat: To honor Eddie's 500th career home run, hit on September 6, 1996 off Detroit's Felipe Lira, the Orioles installed an orange seat in the right field bleachers where the ball landed (Section 96, Row D, Seat 23).

• Eutaw Street Home Runs: Brass baseball plates are embedded into the Eutaw Street sidewalk marking the spots where home runs cleared the right field fence wall. These plates contain the home run hitter's name, his team's logo, the distance the ball traveled, and the date the home run was hit.

• Plaques in the Oriole Park press box have been erected honoring three individuals: the late Rex Barney, Orioles public address announcer for more than 25 years; the late Vernon Joiner, longtime head of the club's famed press box attendants crew; and Bob Brown, the Orioles' public relations director for more than 25 years.

• In ceremonies prior to Cal Ripken, Jr.'s final game on October 6, 2001, the Orioles unveiled a plaque in the first base dugout dedicated to Cal Ripken, Sr. It is inscribed: "Cal Ripken Sr. Dedicated to a lifelong Oriole of thirty-six years, and one of the game's greatest teachers. Coach, manager and devoted mentor to countless young Orioles, "Senior" dedicated his life to baseball and passed on his respect of the game to everyone he coached. He preached "perfect practice, makes perfect" and stressed the importance of being prepared, learning the "Right way" and playing to the best of one's ability every inning of every game. We will always remember his devotion to the Orioles, his love of the game, and his many lessons…"

• Relief pitcher Jesse Orosco made his 1,072nd career appearance on August 17, 1999 to pass Dennis Eckersley for the Major League record for most games pitched. In honor of his accomplishment, the Orioles installed a plaque with Orosco's uniform number, 47, above the bench in their bullpen.

• In honor of Earl Weaver's induction into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, a silver "4" and plaque identifying Weaver's years as manager was added to the Orioles' dugout wall in July 1996, near where the manager traditionally stands.

BALLPARK TOURS

Oriole Park at Camden Yards tours continue to be a popular attraction for thousands of visitors to Baltimore. In 2010, over 32,000 people toured the ballpark facility. Fans touring the facility visit the suite level, media levels and dugout. Private tours, reserved in advance, are available year-round. Public tours are available between mid-February and mid-December. For tickets and schedule information, visit www.orioles.com or call 410-547-6234 or 888-848-BIRD (2473).

BALTIMORE'S ORIOLE

America's early colonists noticed a bird whose male bore the black and orange colors of Lord Baltimore, Maryland's founder. It was called a Baltimore oriole until the 1960s, when it was observed to interbreed with a bird called Bullock's oriole. The American Ornithologists' Union declared both would be considered a single species: Northern oriole. But later studies showed that, while the two birds sometimes interbreed, the offspring rarely pass along their genes. In 1994, the Baltimore oriole recovered its status as a species.

ATTENDANCE

ATTENDANCE MILESTONES: The Orioles celebrated two attendance milestones in 2008. The first came on August 19, 2008, as the O's welcomed their 50 millionth fan at Oriole Park at Camden Yards. Opened in 1992, Camden Yards is the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball. In 17 seasons, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has hosted the third-most fans in baseball, trailing only Dodger Stadium and Yankee Stadium.
Less than a week later, on August 23, 2008, the 100 millionth fan in franchise history entered the gates at Camden Yards. In 56 seasons and 4,131 regular season dates between Memorial Stadium and Camden Yards, 102,243,555 fans have watched the Orioles play in Baltimore.

The Orioles have drawn a total of 54,130,986 fans in 1,495 dates in 19 seasons at Oriole Park, surpassing the total attendance they drew from 1954 through 1991 at Memorial Stadium. In 38 seasons at the old ballpark on 33rd Street, the club drew 49,845,588 in 2,716 dates, an average of 18,353 fans per game. The Birds have averaged 36,208 fans per game in 1,495 dates at Camden Yards.

2010: The Orioles drew 1,733,019 fans to Camden Yards, in 80 home dates, an average of 21,663 fans per game. The Orioles had two sellouts in 2010, including two of the top-20 single attendance dates in park history: 48,891 on April 9 (15th) and 48,775 on September 18 (19th). The Orioles have drawn 40,000 or more fans on 775 of 1,495 regular season dates at Oriole Park (52%), including 5 of 80 home dates in 2010.

LARGEST 3-DATE CROWD: The August 10-12, 2007 series against the Boston Red Sox shattered the attendance record for a three-date series at Oriole Park at Camden Yards by more than 2,000 fans. A total of 146,786 fans attended the three games, topping the previous mark of 146,784 set August 21-23, 1998 vs. Cleveland.

AMONG THE MAJOR LEAGUE LEADERS: The Orioles had never led the AL in total or average attendance until 1995, then did it for five consecutive years. The team has drawn 3 million or more fans in nine of the 17 non-strike shortened seasons at Oriole Park at Camden Yards.

"QUICKEST TO" MILESTONES
3 million—66 home dates ('93, '97 & '98)
2 million—43 home dates ('94)
1 million—22 home dates ('94)

SMALLEST CROWDS: The smallest crowd for a game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards was 9,129 on April 12, 2010 against the Tampa Bay Rays. The smallest crowd ever for an Orioles home game was on August 17, 1972, when only 655 fans attended an afternoon make-up game against the Chicago White Sox at Memorial Stadium.

* Major League Record

50 MILLIONTH/100 MILLIONTH

The Orioles reached two major attendance milestones during the 2008 season. On August 19, the team welcomed Kevin Gracie, a law school student from Ellicott City, as the designated 50 millionth person to attend a game at Camden Yards. Oriole Park became the quickest ballpark to achieve the 50 million fan milestone in the history of baseball.

Four days later, on August 23, the 100 millionth person in franchise history was welcomed at Oriole Park. Velma Greene, a middle school teacher from Harpers Ferry, West Virginia, was designated as the milestone fan.

Since it ushered in a new era of ballpark design in 1992, Oriole Park at Camden Yards has been the standard-bearer for sports facilities in the United States, welcoming individuals from all 50 states and over 100 countries. The city of Baltimore and the entire state of Maryland have derived significant economic impact totaling in the billions of dollars from the nearly 54 million fans who have attended Orioles games over the last 19 seasons, as well as from the millions more who have participated in festivals, meetings, tours and community events that have been held at the ballpark.

Coordinator, Baseball Information

CONTACT INFORMATION

The general line for the Public Relations Department is 410-547-6150. During home games, the PR department can be reached in the press box at 410-547-6257. The PR department fax number is 410-547-6272.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for full season or single-game credentials must go through the MLB Credentialing System. Media members who do not have an account on the MLB system should contact the Public Relations Department at 410-547-6150 to establish an account. Credential requests for individual games must be submitted at least 24 hours in advance of the requested game. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies and at the Orioles' sole discretion, and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will result in confiscation of the credential and ejection from Oriole Park. Those approved for credentials may pick them up at Home Plate Plaza, located between Gates D & E, beginning four hours before game time.

BALLPARK & PRESS LEVEL ACCESS

Media must access the ballpark via Home Plate Plaza, which is located on the southwestern side of Oriole Park between Gates D & E. Home Plate Plaza opens four hours before game time. Media should be prepared to show identification to obtain their credentials. The press box is located on Level Two (Lower Press) and is to be used by print and non-rightsholder electronic outlets. Home and visiting radio and television broadcast from Level Three (Upper Press). Wireless Internet access is available on both levels. Login information to access the Internet from the press level is available in the lower press box.

PARKING

Limited parking for media is available in Lots A and B/C off of Lee Street. TV trucks may park in the ENG Lot next to Lot A. A hang tag or daily pass is required for access to each of these lots. Media without a parking pass must contact the Public Relations Department for a daily pass. Due to limited availability not all requests can be fulfilled.

PRESS DINING ROOM

Media with season, MLB, BBWAA or single-game credentials are invited to eat in the Press Dining Room on the Upper Press Level. Food service will begin two hours before the start of that day's game and continue until one hour after the game begins, at a cost of $10.00 per meal. Light refreshments and beverages are available in the Dining Room through the seventh inning. Due to space limitations, only credentialed media and club employees with game-time duties may eat in the Dining Room. We are unable to accommodate friends and family members.

FIELD ACCESS

Credentialed media may access the field at Camden Yards by taking the Home Plate Plaza elevators to the Basement Level and walking through the "Umpires' Tunnel" between the home and visiting clubhouses. The field area is open to media from the time Home Plate Plaza opens until 45 minutes before game time. Media are asked to remain on the warning track and between the two dugouts at all times.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Only media with MLB or team-issued credentials have access to the clubhouses. Those with an Orioles-issued daily credential must have a "Clubhouse" sticker to access the area. Video cameras are permitted in the Orioles clubhouse prior to and after the game, but are restricted to "tight" interview shots. The clubhouses will open for media access 3 ½ hours before game time and close 1 hour prior to the start of the game. Both clubhouses will open within 10 minutes after the final out of each game. The trainer's area, players' lounge, batting cages, kitchen and shower areas are off-limits to media at all times. Media are not permitted to use cell phones in the clubhouse.

INTERVIEW ROOM

Orioles Manager Buck Showalter will be available to media in a group session before and after every home game. Pre-game interviews will take place either in the Orioles dugout, or in case of inclement weather, in the Auxiliary Clubhouse off the Umpires' Tunnel. Showalter's post-game media availability will be held in the Auxiliary Clubhouse.

O'S PUBLIC RELATIONS ON TWITTER

Media members may receive updates from the Orioles public relations department via Twitter. Visit @OriolesPR to subscribe.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are not permitted the field at any time during the game. Camera wells are located at each end of the home and visitors dugouts. Camera positions will be designated by the Orioles' Public Relations department or Team Photographer. No still photographers are allowed in either clubhouse without the consent of the Public Relations department of each team.

NO AUTOGRAPHS

Autograph seeking is strictly prohibited for credential media members. Any member of the media who requests an autograph will have his/her credential and press access revoked.

ORIOLES TELEVISION & RADIO

TELEVISION

Announcers: Gary Thorne, Jim Palmer, Mike Flanagan and Jim Hunter

MASN, the television home of the Baltimore Orioles, is an independent regional sports network that televises every available Orioles game. The network is owned by the Orioles and Washington Nationals, and gives fans unmatched access to the action on the field and inside the game.

Before every game, MASN televises the Orioles exclusive pregame show, O's Xtra, with insights and analysis about the upcoming matchup.

After each game, MASN televises the O's Xtra postgame show, with highlights, player interviews and the Manager's press conference.

Beginning with the 2008 season, the award-winning network began broadcasting select Orioles games in high definition. In 2010, MASN began televising every Orioles game in high-definition on its two HD channels, MASN HD and MASN2 HD and will do so again in 2011. All of MASN's cable, satellite and fiber optic distributors carry MASN and MASN2 on a consistent channel throughout the season and most distributors also carry MASN HD and MASN2 HD. (Visit www.masnsports.com for local listings).

In addition, many weekend MASN-produced Orioles games are simulcast on MASN's over-the-air partner, WJZ-TV, Channel 13 in Baltimore.

MASN carries 300 NCAA Division I football, basketball and lacrosse games, featuring local colleges and top-ranked programs, as well as other exciting regional sports programming.

MASN's exclusive television territory covers over seven million households in all or parts of six states and the District of Columbia, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania to Charlotte, North Carolina. The network is carried by most cable and satellite providers in the mid-Atlantic region. For more information, visit www.masnsports.com.

GARY THORNE

Gary Thorne is one of the most recognizable voices in sports broadcasting, having covered Major League Baseball, the National Hockey League, the Olympics, NCAA basketball, football and hockey during his illustrious 46-year broadcasting career. This year marks his 26th season of play by play coverage of MLB and his fifth on Orioles' MASN broadcasts.

Thorne has broadcast nine World Series, 14 All-Star Games for MLB International TV and 12 NHL seasons, including Stanley Cup playoffs and finals for ABC/ESPN. He broadcast New York Mets games on radio and TV for 13 seasons, including the 1986 World Series. This season is his 21st year of MLB coverage on ESPN.

In addition to his on-air work, Thorne is president of the Baseball Assistance Team (BAT), which provides assistance to members of baseball's family who are in need. He also hosts both the BAT and Major League Baseball Players Association annual dinners.

Thorne has covered three Olympics with CBS and NBC and has received four Emmys, one for his Orioles coverage on MASN in 2009, two for his work with Mets TV and one for his work broadcasting New Jersey Devils hockey. In 2011, he will host Hall of Fame induction day ceremonies at Cooperstown for the third time.

Thorne's first appearance on ESPN was in July 1988 for the inaugural Triple-A All-Star Game. He served as the original host and moderator in 1988 for "The Sports Reporters," the network's Sunday morning roundtable program.

In 1989, Thorne served as the voice of the Chicago White Sox on WFLD-TV and teamed with Hall of Fame second baseman Joe Morgan on ABC's Thursday night MLB telecasts. He also broadcast games for the Baseball Network.

Thorne has also done play-by-play on SportsChannel America's National Hockey League telecasts (1988-92) and New Jersey Devils telecasts on SportsChannel New York (1987-92). Prior to that, he was the play-by-play commentator and director of broadcasting for the Maine Guides (1984), a Triple-A ball club which he co-owned from 1984-88. He also covered University of Maine hockey games for WBGW-AM and WABI-TV and radio from 1977-86.

Thorne is a 1970 graduate of the University of Maine with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. He graduated from the University of Maine School of Law in 1973 and received a doctorate in law in 1976 from the Georgetown University Law Center. He is a former assistant district attorney in Bangor, Maine, member of the Army JAG Corps and was admitted to the Bar of the United States Supreme Court in March 1977.

JIM PALMER

The winningest pitcher in Orioles history, Hall-of-Famer Jim Palmer returns for his 19th season as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He previously had done some play-by-play and analyst work on Oriole broadcasts on Home Team Sports and on WMAR-TV. Jim's biography and pitching record can be found on page 365.

MIKE FLANAGAN

Orioles Hall of Famer Mike Flanagan returned to the MASN broadcast booth as a color analyst last season. He has spent over a quarter-century with the Baltimore Orioles organization as a player, coach, instructor and broadcaster, all but five years since he was originally selected by the team in the 7th round of the 1973 draft. Professionals in the game have long been impressed with his insight and skills as an evaluator of talent and of people.

"Flanny" compiled a 167-143 record and a 3.90 ERA in 18 major league seasons with the Orioles and Toronto Blue Jays, including a 141-116 mark over 15 seasons with the O's. He won the American League Cy Young Award in 1979, when he went 23-9 with a 3.08 ERA and 5 shutouts. He was a member of two American League championship teams with the Orioles, in 1979 and 1983, as well as their 1983 World Championship team.

Flanagan was drafted and signed by former Orioles scout John Stokoe in 1973 and made his major league debut in 1975. In 1983, when the Orioles won the World Series Championship, he went 12-4 during the regular season despite missing nearly three months with ligament damage in his left knee. From 1977 through 1983 he made more starts (223) than any pitcher in the American League and was third in wins (109) over that time.

In 1987, he was traded to Toronto and pitched for the Blue Jays for 3 1/2 years, helping them win the American League East in 1989. A starter his entire career, he returned to the Orioles as a free agent in 1991, this time as a reliever, and made 63 appearances out of the bullpen. On October 6, 1991, in the last game played at Memorial Stadium, Flanny entered in relief with one out in the 9th inning and, to the overwhelming delight of 50,700 sentimental fans, struck out Detroit's Dave Bergman and Travis Fryman to become the last Oriole to throw a pitch at the 33rd Street ballpark. He finished his career in 1992, pitching for the Orioles in their first season at Camden Yards.

Flanagan was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1994 in his first year of eligibility. He ranks 3rd in club history in games pitched (450), innings pitched (2317.2) and starts (328), 4th in strikeouts (1297) and complete games (98), 5th in victories (141) and 7th in shutouts (17).

Mike served as Orioles pitching coach in 1995, then spent two years as an analyst on Orioles television broadcasts. He returned to the field in 1998 as pitching coach before heading back to the broadcast booth, where he remained for four seasons before being named Vice President for Baseball Operations prior to the 2003 season. In October 2005, Flanagan was named Executive Vice President for Baseball Operations. He is the first former Cy Young Award winner ever to assume a general manager-level position in baseball.

Flanagan, born December 16, 1951, is a native of Manchester, NH, and is a third-generation pro baseball player. Both his grandfather, Ed Sr., and his father, Ed Jr., played in the Boston Red Sox organization. Mike attended the University of Massachusetts, where he played baseball and freshman basketball. While at UMass, he faced Julius "Dr. J" Erving and Rick Pitino in a frosh-varsity basketball game.

Mike and his wife, Alex, reside in Sparks, MD. He has three daughters: Kerry, Kathryn and Kendall.

JIM HUNTER

Veteran broadcaster Jim Hunter is in his 15th year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. Jim enters his 8th season in the TV Booth on MASN. He is the host of "O's Xtra," MASN's Orioles pre-game and post game shows and will also call play by play of O's games on MASN. He also has called play by play of MASN's coverage of college football and college basketball. Hunter was originally named as the Orioles' radio announcer on February 5, 1997 and brings to the booth 33 years of diversified broadcasting experience that ranges from Major League Baseball to the NFL to the Olympic Games.

Hunter, 52, came to Baltimore from CBS Radio Sports, where he had been since 1982. He had been a member of the network's MLB "Game of the Week" announcing team since 1986. He broadcast the American League Championship Series, teaming with Hall of Famer Johnny Bench from 1990-92, and with the Orioles' first radio voice, Ernie Harwell, in 1993. In 1995, he called the National League Division Series and the NLCS, teaming with Jerry Coleman. In addition, Hunter hosted "Inside Pitch," the CBS Radio Sunday Night Baseball pre-game show.

During the off-season, Jim makes several appearances in the community on behalf of the ballclub as well as helping various charities. He's been an active part of the Johns Hopkins Pediatric Oncology Friends Committee, which annually raises money for cancer research for children.

When Jim began his career at the CBS Radio Network in '82, he served as the Saturday evening anchor of Sports Central USA. He was later assigned to host SportsBreak, a daily feature heard on CBS Radio from 1984-87. It was in 1987 that Jim was named full weekend anchor of Sports Central USA.

Jim's experience is varied and all-inclusive. In 1992 from Albertville, France and again in 1994 from Lillehammer, Norway, Hunter served as a studio anchor for CBS Radio's network coverage of the Winter Olympic Games. Also, he was the host for the NFL Preview and NFL pre-game and halftime reports. Jim has covered 12 Super Bowls. He began his broadcasting career in 1978 at WJLK Radio in Asbury Park, NJ.

A native of New Jersey, Hunter is a 1973 graduate of St. Benedict School and a 1977 graduate of St. John Vianney High School in Holmdel, NJ. He was inducted into his high school's athletic Hall of Fame for football and baseball in 1994. He attended Brookdale Community College and is a 1982 graduate of Seton Hall University in South Orange, NJ with a BA in Communication Arts.

His peers have recognized Hunter for his accomplishments on several occasions. In 2002, he was named Maryland Sportscaster of the Year by The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. He also received the prestigious Radio/TV Media Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in 1998.

Hunter resides in Fallston, MD with his wife Bonnie. They have three children. Jimmy (26) and Jeff (24) are graduates of Fallston HS and York College, PA. They are musicians in the band Second Self. Allie (20) is a graduate of Fallston High School where she was a member of back to back state championship field hockey teams. She is a sophomore at George Mason University. They also have two faithful dogs, Bobby and Sadie.

RICK DEMPSEY

Former Orioles catcher and 1983 World Series MVP Rick Dempsey is in his fifth year as a member of the Orioles broadcast team. He teams with Jim Hunter to host the "O's Xtra" pre- and post-game shows on MASN, and will also serve as an analyst on a selection of game broadcasts.

This season marks Dempsey's 44th year working in professional baseball. He played for 24 major league seasons with six teams, including 11 1/2 with the Orioles. Dempsey is tied for 8th all-time in seasons played and is one of only three catchers, along with Tim McCarver and Carlton Fisk, to play in four decades. He played on three World Series teams and won two championships, including 1983 when he was named the World Series MVP in the Orioles' 4-games-to-1 triumph over Philadelphia.

Rick batted .233 with 96 home runs and 471 RBI in his career, which began with the Minnesota Twins in 1969. He was traded to the New York Yankees in 1973 and, in 1976, to the Orioles as part of a 10-player swap that also brought the O's Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor…He became the Orioles' regular catcher in 1977 and for 10 years was the Orioles' primary backstop, catching a club-record 1,222 games. After leaving the Orioles, Dempsey played for Cleveland (1987), Los Angeles (1988-90) and Milwaukee (1991) before returning to the Orioles for his final season in '92. He had a .988 career fielding percentage.

Dempsey began his post-playing career as a manager in the Los Angeles Dodgers and New York Mets' farm systems, compiling a winning record in three of five seasons. He was a member of the Dodgers' major league coaching staff from 1999-2000 before returning to the Orioles as an analyst for Comcast SportsNet in 2001. From 2002-2006, he served as a first base coach, third base coach and bullpen coach on the Orioles coaching staff.

Rick and his wife, Joani, live in Westlake Village, a suburb of Los Angeles. They have two sons, John, who was a catcher in the St. Louis Cardinals farm system, and Christian. Rick's younger brother Pat was a minor league catcher for several teams, including the Orioles. His nephew, Gregg Zaun, is a catcher with the San Diego Padres. The son of an actor, Rick entertained crowds as a player during rain delays with his impersonations of Babe Ruth. He was elected to the Orioles Hall of Fame in 1997.

RADIO

Announcers: Joe Angel and Fred Manfra

The Orioles return to their longtime flagship, 1090 AM WBAL Radio, in 2011. This season marks the 42nd year since Baltimore returned to the major leagues 57 years ago that WBAL Radio has originated Orioles broadcasts. Orioles games were most recently heard on WBAL Radio in 2006. The station first broadcast O's games in 1957, the club's fourth season.

WBAL Radio will broadcast the entire 162-game regular season schedule, as well as 16 spring training games. The station will also air 30 minute pre- and post-game shows; a daily Manager's Report; "On Deck," a program that leads into the pre-game show; and an off-season Hot Stove Show.

This is the 11th year of the Orioles' partnership with WTEM (980 AM) to broadcast all games in the Washington, D.C. and Northern Virginia metropolitan area. Last year the Orioles entered a multi-year partnership with WSBA radio to serve as their affiliate in York, PA. In all, there are over 40 stations on the Orioles Radio Network, covering five states and the District of Columbia. In addition, members of the military stationed overseas have the opportunity to listen to Orioles games on the American Forces Radio Network.

JOE ANGEL

Veteran baseball broadcaster Joe Angel will team with Fred Manfra for his 8th straight season as the "Voice of the Orioles" on radio.

A native of Colombia, South America, Joe has broadcast Major League Baseball for 33 years, including 10 seasons with the Orioles, 1988-90, 1992 and 2004-10. He also has worked for the San Francisco Giants, Oakland A's, Minnesota Twins and New York Yankees and was the original voice of the Florida Marlins. Joe also broadcast games on ESPN national telecasts during the 2001 season.

Joe, 63, was born in Bogotá, Colombia. His family immigrated to Chicago seven years later before moving to San Francisco when Joe was 15. He attended Galileo High School in San Francisco, where he played baseball and football and was the quarterback of a team that featured O.J. Simpson as running back.

He worked in television and radio for many years in the Bay Area, including five years of Stanford University football and four years of University of San Francisco basketball.

Angel got his start in Major League Baseball in 1976, when he spent three years doing Giants games on KSFO radio. He also spent two years as the television play-by-play voice for the Oakland A's. He spent three seasons with the Minnesota Twins on WCOO radio, 1984-86, and joined the Orioles radio team for three years in 1988. Joe spent one year doing New York Yankees broadcasts in 1991 before returning to the Orioles, then left again to become the first voice of the Florida Marlins. He did play-by-play on Marlins broadcasts for eight years, 1993-2000, including their 1997 championship season. He then did play-by-play for ESPN regional telecasts before returning to the Bay Area to do Giants games on radio and television for two seasons, where he often teamed with his former Orioles broadcast partner, Jon Miller.

In his nearly 34 years of radio work with Major League Baseball, Joe has broadcast two World Series, 30 postseason games and six no-hitters. His signature calls of "In the WIN Column," "Wave it bye bye" and "Hasta la vista pelota" are well-known to Orioles fans.

Joe and his wife, Antoinette, make their home in Weston, FL, and have three grown children: Tony, Natalie and Jonathan.

FRED MANFRA

It appeared inevitable that Fred Manfra's career plans would lead him to broadcasting Orioles games on the radio. One of his athletic highlights is hitting a double off the left field wall at Memorial Stadium in an American Legion game, and under his photo in the Patterson High School (class of '64) yearbook it says, "Fred's...future plans are in...Radio-T.V. work."

The Baltimore native returns for his 19th season as radio voice of the Orioles. The award-winning sportscaster came back to Charm City in 1993 after doing 22 sports shows every weekend since 1981 on more than 500 stations for the ABC Radio Information Network. Manfra worked for ABC Radio for 15 years, hosting weekend sports programs, along with a number of other assignments for the network.

When he moved into the Orioles broadcast booth in '93, it wasn't the first time he'd been heard doing O's games. In 1991, he did a series at Memorial Stadium and before that, in the late '70s, he periodically filled in on games for WBAL Radio. His baseball experience also included a stint with the Detroit Tigers on cable television in 1980.

Baseball is only one of many sports Manfra has announced. His resume includes some of the most prestigious events in the business, including NBA Finals and NBA All-Star Games (1985-91), 1984 Olympic men's and women's basketball and 1988 Olympic ice hockey, NHL Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Game (1991), the Breeder's Cup (2000-2002) and Eclipse Award-winning broadcasts of horse racing's Triple Crown races (Kentucky Derby, Preakness at Pimlico and the Belmont Stakes) from 1982 through 2006.

His Olympic assignments have been varied and have taken him around the globe, including Sarajevo, Yugoslavia and Los Angeles (in 1984); Calgary and Seoul, South Korea (in 1988); Albertville, France and Barcelona, Spain (1992); and Lillehammer, Norway in February, 1994. His assignments have included men's and women's basketball in 1984 and ice hockey in 1988, as well as anchoring the Opening and Closing Ceremonies and other play-by-play and hourly updates.

Fred began his radio career in the early '70s at KREL in Corona, CA. He moved eastward with stops in Ventura, CA (KBBQ-FM/KBBY-FM); Davenport, IA (KSTT-AM); Milwaukee (WRIT-AM) and Detroit (WWJ-AM) in addition to AP Radio Network Sports in Washington, D.C., before settling in the New York area with ABC Network Radio.

He has done college football and basketball for the University of Iowa (1975) and the University of Michigan (1979-80), as well as USFL and Arena football, New York Knicks basketball, boxing and wrestling. He also had done voice work for Madison Square Garden and for professional football team highlights films and the Sports Year in Review for ABC Radio Network (1983-1998). Along the way, he has received numerous awards for his live action and studio reports. In 1996, Fred was inducted into the Patterson High School Hall of Fame, the same year Orioles owner Peter Angelos was also honored by the school.

Fred and his wife, Marlene, live in Fallston, MD and are active in local charity work. Fred is on the advisory board of the Salvation Army of Baltimore and the board of the Albert Close Foundation in Harford County, and Marlene is on the board of the National Kidney Foundation of Maryland and is also involved with Stella Maris hospice center. They have two adult daughters—Michelle, who lives in Massachusetts and works at Children's Hospital Boston; and Stephanie, who resides in Miami, FL and works with the Alliance for a Healthier Generation.

FORD C. FRICK WINNERS

In addition to longtime Orioles voice Chuck Thompson, four other broadcasters have won the Ford C. Frick Award: Ernie Harwell ('54-'59), Herb Carneal ('57-'61), Bob Murphy ('60-'61) and Jon Miller ('83-'96).

The Orioles will hold spring training in Sarasota for the second year. Ed Smith Stadium underwent a significant renovation prior to the 2011 season. Last year, their first in Sarasota, the O's drew 102,219 fans to Ed Smith Stadium, the first time in franchise history the club had drawn more than 100,000 fans for spring training and a 39% increase from 2009, when the team played their final spring in Fort Lauderdale. This figure was the largest increase in Major League Baseball last spring.
