NEW RESILIENCY THROUGH THE COMMUNITY RESULTS

In alignment with the state's adoption of student resiliency standards, the Consortium partnered with the Florida Department of Education to build student Resiliency Through the Community with local education foundation programs focused around 11 skills or characteristics.

Consortium members in 50 districts consulted their school mental health coordinators and school safety officers, assessed opportunities and gaps in services with community organizations and built their own organizational capacity as they embarked on developing local initiatives. Through September 2024, $21.3 million in one-time federal funds were leveraged to engage:

- ✓ 837,000 Students
- ✓ 67,275 Families
- ✓ 34,150 Teachers
- ✓ 350 Community Organizations

CONSORTIUM OF FLORIDA EDUCATION FOUNDATIONS

RESPONSIVE & RELEVANT TO FLORIDA EDUCATION PRIORITIES

Collectively, the Consortium's 60 local education foundation members raise $100 million annually and serve 99% of the state's K-12 students. These locally driven nonprofit organizations innovate learning, power student and teacher potential and celebrate success.
