The Seasons Board Skins Pack includes: - 2 new board skins for all 9 boards in Armello, Autumn and Spring. - 2 new environments: Autumn Forest and Spring Forest. - Atmosphere and weather effects (the more snow or rainfall, the more snowfalls or raindrops in the environment, for example): - Announcer text, visual and sound effects, like rain, snow, footsteps and more. - Adjustable ambient music and sound effects. - Specially designed ambient audio sfx. - 8 ambient audio tracks. - 350+ ambient sound effects. Please note: We've included all sound effects in this pack. Ambient sounds are now included as a separate download. - 3 ambient sound loops. - Optional character creator: - Voice mixing and voices for all 9 characters. - Timing effects, like time lapse, reversed, stretched and sped up. - High quality screenshots. - Support for Steam Cloud. Thank you for your support and I hope you enjoy the new packs!All sounds are not included. You need to download the separate sound pack and re-select the sound track you want in the audio settings of the game. This is a beautiful game, but I'm truly disgusted at how they make the snow effect sounds. It literally sounds like a quick start up of several thousand steam whistles. The sound effect you hear for the snowfall was done in an even more tasteless way. After two quick clicks that's done. It's even worse when snowfall for certain paths moves to the board and automatically starts to fall. I paid $30 for this game and to me this is nothing short of a rip off. Thank You. - 15/10 anxiously awaiting the release of the next season skin pack. This game has been so long coming for me as it has been a while since I've played the original game. nearly one year after it's initial release, it would appear to me that these paltry changes are in no way making up for the game's previous issues. before anyone tries to tell me that i'm just being a spoilsport, im well aware that there are things to be considered while you are making a game. as i've mentioned before, it's apparent

the developer's heart just isn't in the project, and if there is any kind of real commitment to making the game what it was promised, these changes would never

The year is 2106. A new era has arrived. A new era that threatens the future of mankind. The path of progress and peace has been broken. In the face of this new threat, mankind has had to abandon the surface of the planet and begin to colonize Mars. The new generation of space colonies, dubbed "Martian Cities", is used to purify the cosmic radiation on its route and protect the humans from the dangerous effects of space. Following these transportations, the Martians have to stand guard over the Earth for hundreds of years. These Martian colonies, are the true Guardians of mankind. Earth, Mars. Are you in or out? Over time, Mars has become "their" Mars. The humans of the new generation have taken Mars as their own, making it a place of cooperation and peaceful coexistence. However, the Martian authorities are fighting to keep this peace. The cities have become more closed to the outside world, and each Martian has been assigned a job, and directed to protect its fellow citizens. Some young Martians are growing in their own ways.

They hope to finally see the Earth again. They know the Earth has a dark side, but they want to live and fight together with the humans to show their hope and peace. If you are a Martian, choose the right path - fight for peace, or join with the humans to bring down the darkness. Features:
