Hello Jennifer,

Thank you for your email. I am always happy to talk library.

I am a longtime youth development program & community volunteer and homeschooling parent who settled down in Hall County after my husband left active-duty military service for the Georgia National Guard. I have been here for just under six years and have come to love my “adopted hometown” greatly. I am always interested in finding ways to serve and support the community that so warmly welcomed me and my family.

Serving on the library board interests me in particular because reading is one of my most cherished hobbies and promoting literacy and lifelong learning for folks of all ages is a great passion of mine. From the time I was a little girl all the way to now as I prepare to watch my daughter graduate high school, my many varied local libraries have been a partner in education for both me and my child, an excellent resource to help stretch my family’s budget, a wonderful way to learn about our new communities, and a place that has provided refuge and adventure throughout the challenges inherent to life. Libraries are a wonderful treasure for the communities they support and one I am interested in helping to promote and protect.

Thank you for getting in contact with me.

Sincerely,

Amy Brigham
