Dear Jennifer Rivera,

I recently received a copy of a notice regarding some concerns related to the Flowery Branch Winery and would like you to know how my friends and neighbors feel.

As a long-time resident of Flowery Branch, I am thrilled to have such a delightful winery in our community. It has become a cherished spot for my friends and me; we frequently visit to unwind, enjoy local music, and savor a glass of wine. We often express our gratitude for having such an incredible venue nearby that fosters relaxation and community connection.

the owner and their family have become dear friends and wonderful neighbors. They are exceptional people who contribute positively to our community.

I understand that some people don't like change, but a business like this so close to home is excellent for building community spirit.

It would be unfortunate if a single negative opinion overshadowed the overwhelmingly positive sentiments many of us have for this establishment. Supporting local businesses like this winery is important to me, as it enhances our community's quality of life.

I plan to attend the upcoming meeting to express my support for the Flowery Branch Winery and to highlight the value it brings to our neighborhood.

Warm regards,

Chris Flynn
