I am sending this email in regards to Flowery Branch Winery.. We have been going to this amazing little winery since just after they opened last year. The owners are wonderful people and make everyone that comes in the door feel like family. It is a family friendly, pet friendly venue, that even if you get there and you don't know anyone else, it won't be long until you have a new group of friends. Brad the owner works tirelessly making sure everyone is comfortable and welcome. He has made beautiful improvements to the winery to assure everyone has a good time. Outdoor patio, that is a relaxing place to just chill with a view of the vineyard and have a wonderful glass of wine with friends or sit by the fire pit on cool evenings with blankets provided. They also have some entertainment on the weekends that adds to the atmosphere. They close at 9 pm so this is not another late night loud bar. We have always felt this place was a diamond in the rough. Most people that come in are so surprised because they had no idea it was there until they saw posts on social media and decided to check it out. The tasting room is outfitted with big comfy chairs so people can sit with groups or in a quiet corner with their significant other. A great place to enjoy good friends, good wine and some good music.

Thank you for your time,

Susan Taylor
