Your Comments***

To The Hall County Commissioners,

I am opposed to the application of a minor subdivision submitted by Charline Benifield, planned at 5461 Union Church Road intersecting with Oliver Road and intersecting with Copper Creek subdivision.

One of Chairman's Gibb's focus as a candidate was to ensure Hall's County's infrastructure was capable of handling present and future needs. In the past four years, Union Grove, Union Heights, Hunter's Creek and The Towns subdivisions along with eight $1 million plus homes have been built along Union Church Road, a 2-lane road. The road is in need of repair due to the increase of road traffic. In order to keep up with this increase in road traffic, Union Church Road needs to become a 4-lane road, and until completed, no further development should be approved.

Respectfully,

Donald Flowers
