Hello Commissioners,
I hope this message finds you well.

I'm writing as a concerned resident of the Mountain View neighborhood to express my deep concern about the Special Use Permit request to establish a group home with over 30 beds for recovering addicts at 4337 Mountain View Rd, Oakwood, Ga.

While I recognize and respect the importance of providing support for those in recovery, I fear that the scale of this proposed facility will disrupt the safety and character of our community. The sheer number of residents, combined with the vehicles and traffic it will create, raises concern for many of us.

I kindly ask that you take these concerns into account and vote NO on this request. I trust you will make a decision that balances compassion and the well-being of all residents.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Blessings,

Coby Spielmann
