5. It is within the scope of authority of the President or any Vice President to execute documentation in the name of and on behalf of the Company, and to do and perform, or cause to be done and performed, all acts and things as such individual shall deem necessary, advisable or appropriate including without limitation, any real property related filings, contracts, bonds, applications and agreements for utilities, subdivision performance agreements, development agreements and permits, any and all documents to acquire, finance, lease or convey real and personal property (including, without limitation, purchase and sale agreements, assignments, deeds, loans, guaranties, pledges, closing documents, affidavits, indemnities, amendments, certificates and other ancillary agreements and instruments), as well as any and all documents as may be required in connection with development, entitlement and construction relating to the Company, or appearance at hearings as the Company’s representative.

6. Pursuant to those certain Resolutions by Written Consent of the Board of Directors to delegate authority to appoint Authorized Agents and Signers appointing them as of the unmodified “Effective Date” of this Certificate, it is within the scope of authority of the above-named Authorized Agents in the Atlanta or Jacksonville Divisions, as indicated, to exercise the following authority (as applicable):

Authorized Agent - Closing: Authority to execute on behalf of the Company, documents related to and incidental to the sale of homes to homebuyers, including, but not limited to, purchase agreement amendments and related addenda, escrow instructions and FHA and VA certifications in connection with any of the Company's respective communities or properties, excluding, however, purchase agreements, deeds and any other documentation requiring recordation in the public records not otherwise already identified above.

Authorized Agent - Customer Service: Authority to execute on behalf of the Company, documents related to and incidental to responding to any inquiries and to enter into, execute, deliver and perform any and all further papers, documents, agreements, certificates and instruments that the Company deems necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection with any and all of the Company's past, current and future purchasing and vertical construction related warranty matters as more particularly set forth below with respect to the Company:

1. Purchase Orders ("PO's") for warranty related items only, exclusive of new construction.
2. Non-Disclosure Agreements ("NDA's"), subject to the approval of Legal in limited Warranty situations only.
3. Department Budget.
4. Department overhead.
5. Represent Company at Small Claims Court Hearings and approve Settlement Amounts, subject to the directive of Division Management.
6. Confidential Settlement and Release Agreements for customer services non-litigation matters with Management's prior approval.
7. Better Business Bureau responses.
8. Vertical post-closing permits, unrelated to common area improvements.
9. Vertical Construction, Remediation and Move-out Agreements, as well as amendments, exhibits and addenda, post-closing only and unrelated to common area improvements.
10. General purchasing and vertical construction-related correspondence, post-closing only and unrelated to common area improvements.
11. Any other documents not otherwise already reflected above, which are related and/or incidental to the purchase of supplies or engagement of services relating to home warranty and/or related residential lot improvements and unrelated to common area improvements or original construction.

Authorized Agent is specifically not authorized to execute the following documents on behalf of the Company: The Company's Vertical (including P.O.s) or Land Master Agreements or ancillary addendum or amendments thereto, post-closing Professional Services Agreements and/or proposals, home sales documents and contracts, leasebacks, Closing Disclosures and other settlement documents, deeds of conveyance, and title closing documents for real property conveyed or purchased by the Company; any document relating to the Company's purchasing and vertical construction matters outside of the respective Authorized Agent's Division; any document that is otherwise in conflict with the then current Purchasing Guidelines, Code of Ethics Policy, Finance Policy and/or Construction Policy at the time of its execution, as such documents may be amended from time to time and any document that is or will be recorded in the official records.

Authorized Agent - Finance: Authority to execute on behalf of the Company, documents related to and incidental to the sale of homes to homebuyers, including, but not limited to, purchase agreements, purchase agreement amendments and related addenda, escrow instructions, closing disclosures and FHA and VA certifications, serving as an authorized signer for a bank account, excluding, however, deeds, memorandum of leases and any other documentation requiring recordation not otherwise already identified above.

Authorized Agent - House Permits: Authority to execute the following documents on behalf of the respective Division: The Company Division's permits for the construction of homes and other vertical improvements for real property relating to the Authorized Agent's Division. Authorized Agent has full authority to represent the Company and to execute and deliver all required documents on behalf of the Company in connection with any hearing relating to the foregoing matters (including any related to code violations) for all state and local governmental agencies.

Authorized Agent is specifically not authorized to execute the following documents on behalf of the Company: The Company's Vertical Construction Agreements and home sales documents and contracts, leases, Closing Disclosures (or settlement statements, as applicable) and other settlement documents, deeds of conveyance, and title closing documents for real property conveyed, leased or purchased by the Company or any other documentation requiring recordation in the public records not otherwise already identified above applicable to the Company's Division.

Authorized Agent - Land Acquisition: Authority to execute any and all instruments and take all other action required on behalf of the Company related to and incidental to the Company's respective Division's land acquisition activities in the ordinary course of work, including but not limited to, development approval permits or development agreements (federal, state or local and including but not limited to FDEP and WMD permits and letters of authorizations), state or municipal filings, bonds and surety bonds for public improvement (including CFDs, CCDs and MUDs, if applicable to the jurisdiction in which the Company operates), financing documents not otherwise excluded in the paragraph below, municipal developer and zoning agreements, professional services and consulting agreements, property easements, site development contracts, subdivision performance and maintenance agreements, utility agreements, water management district agreements, subdivision plats, service maintenance agreements, subcontractor agreements and vendor contracts, as well as any type of real property, utility or infrastructure conveyance documents conveyed, leased or purchased by the Company, so long as any such above referenced document is required in the ordinary course of business for the entitlement, subdivision and development of real property within the responsibility of the Company's respective Division. Further, as Authorized Agent and without the need for any further written confirmation, such individual has full authority to represent the Company and to execute and deliver all required documents on behalf of the Company in connection with any hearing relating to the foregoing matters (including any related to code violations) for all state and local governmental agencies.

Authorized Agent is specifically not authorized to execute the following documents on behalf of the Company: Any documents not otherwise permitted by Taylor Morrison's Corporate Policies (including, but not limited to ICA, Finance and Sales) regarding Land Contracts Signing Authority, the Company's home sales documents and contracts (including amendments and addenda thereto), all contracts for the purchase or sale of land and all amendments and addenda to such contracts (collectively, "Land Contracts"), Closing Disclosures (or settlement statements, as applicable) and other settlement documents, homeowner's association documents (to be signed by officers of declarant or HOA Board member(s) only, as applicable), promissory notes, letters of credit, assignment agreements, deeds of conveyance, and title closing documents for real property conveyed or purchased by the Company or any other documentation requiring recordation in the public records not otherwise already identified above applicable to the Company's respective Division.

Authorized Agent - Land Development: Authority to execute on behalf of the Company any documents related to and incidental to the Company's respective Division's land development activities in the ordinary course of work, including but not limited to, development approval permits, development agreements (federal, state or local and including but not limited to FDEP and WMD permits and letters of authorizations), state or municipal filings, matters generally relating to stormwater, health & safety and environmental regulations at the federal, state or municipal level, bonds and surety bonds for public improvement (including CFDs, CCDs and MUDs, if applicable to the jurisdiction in which the Company operates), financing documents not otherwise excluded in the paragraph below, municipal developer and zoning agreements, professional services and consulting agreements, property easements, site development contracts, subdivision performance and maintenance agreements, utility agreements, water management district agreements, subdivision plats, service maintenance agreements, subcontractor agreements and vendor contracts, documents related to the construction of homes, as well as any type of real property, utility or infrastructure conveyance documents conveyed, leased or purchased by the Company, so long as any such above referenced document is required in the ordinary course of business for the entitlement, subdivision and development of real property within the responsibility of the Company's respective Division. Further, and without the need for any further written confirmation, such individual has full authority to represent the Company and to execute and deliver all required documents on behalf of the Company in connection with any hearing relating to the foregoing matters (including any related to code violations) for all state and local governmental agencies.

Authorized Agent is specifically not authorized to execute the following documents on behalf of the Company: Any documents not otherwise permitted by Taylor Morrison's Corporate Policies (including, but not limited to ICA, Finance and Sales) regarding Land Contract Signing Authority, the Company's home sales documents and contracts (including amendments and addenda thereto), Closing Disclosures (or settlement statements, as applicable) and other settlement documents, homeowner's association documents (to be signed by officers of declarant or HOA Board member(s) only, as applicable), promissory notes, letters of credit, assignment agreements, deeds of conveyance, title closing documents, land acquisition purchase and sale agreements (including amendments and addenda thereto) for real property conveyed, purchased or sold by the Company or any other documentation requiring recordation in the public records not otherwise already identified above applicable to the Company's respective Division.

Authorized Agent - Land Permits: Authority to execute the following documents on behalf of the respective Division: The Company Division's development approval permits or development agreements (federal, state or local and including but not limited to permits and letters of authorization). Authorized Agent has full authority to represent the Company and to execute and deliver all required documents on behalf of the Company in connection with any hearing relating to the foregoing matters (including any related to code violations) for all state and local governmental agencies.

Authorized Agent is specifically not authorized to execute the following documents on behalf of the Company: Any documents not otherwise permitted by Taylor Morrison's Corporate Policies (including, but not limited to ICA, Finance and Sales) regarding Land Contract Signing Authority, the Company's land acquisition purchase and sale agreements and home sales documents and contracts (including amendments and addenda thereto), leases, Closing Disclosures (or settlement statements, as applicable) and other settlement documents, homeowner's association documents (to be signed by officers of declarant or HOA Board member(s) only, as applicable), promissory notes, letters of credit, assignment agreements, deeds of conveyance, and title closing documents for real property conveyed, leased or purchased by the Company or any other documentation requiring recordation in the public records not otherwise already identified above applicable to the respective Authorized Agent's Division.

Authorized Agent - Sales: Authority to execute on behalf of the Company, documents related to and incidental to the sale of homes to homebuyers, including, but not limited to, purchase agreements, purchase agreement amendments and related addenda, escrow instructions, closing disclosures and FHA and VA certifications, excluding, however, deeds, memorandums of lease and any other documentation requiring recordation in the public records not otherwise already identified above.

7. Without the need for further confirmation, the foregoing may be relied upon as true and accurate by any regulatory authority, lender, Title Company or other third party.
