Hello,

I would like to send a positive remark about my experiences at The Ark on Lake Lanier.

I host transformational healing women's retreats all over the world and for three years in a row (and counting) I have been able to host retreat experiences at The Ark. This space is so special and Holy. Between the spacious home, land, and lake there is plenty of room to spread out for quiet and play time. It feels like a private sanctuary.

I personally, am so grateful for this space and the impact it holds. It is a gathering space for so many different types of groups. It is a special place for sure.

Thank you,
Vaughn Pierro
