To whomever this may concern,

I am emailing you to express my support to The Ark. I have attended several events and absolutely love what The Ark stands for. I know they have hosted many different groups from all walks of life and they have shown so much care, love and understanding. So, I'm not real sure where the negativity comes from or why they even have to come to you to fight to continue to exist and do all the amazing things they do with this property. In the time I have spent at The Ark, I have seen nothing but respect for the people around their property. It has never been too loud, gone too long, or intruded on anyone's actual space, only theirs.

So, why the controversy? Why the negativity? I feel like there are just people out there that have nothing better to do or are bored and choose to be a thorn in someone's side.

The Ark is an absolutely, breathtaking piece of property. It is not run down, overgrown, or an eyesore that may bring the value of other properties down. On the contrary. This home and property is stunning.

I hope you are in favor of this wonderful facility and not give in to a handful of sad individuals who can't find something better to do with their time instead of wasting yours and everyone else's.

Thank you,
Donya James
