Hi,

I will be attending the meeting tomorrow night regarding The Ark as I have full faith in the person who owns and runs it as an incredibly unique and special place to bring not only fun, but solace and peace to groups of people (whether church or corporate, family or friends).

I have personally attended a few of their functions and found them incredibly fun and we purposefully kept the noise level down as yes, it is located amongst neighbors. This is always taken into consideration.

This place has specifically been built and renovated to bring joy - and Jeff Hilton is a master at this very thing.

I've known him as a neighbor - and I really hope that he can continue to offer this service to the community and beyond.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best,
Kim Carter
