Subject: 2022 pricing and availability for Kubota products

On behalf of Kubota Tractor Corporation (KTC) and our United States Dealer organization, thank you for your trust in Kubota products and the people that build and support our exceptional machines.

KTC is facing historic and unprecedented supply chain disruptions and cost uncertainty. KTC has worked to mitigate these challenges however; global events and uncontrollable material costs have made it impossible to accurately anticipate when this point in time situation will normalize. For these reasons, in 2022, Kubota Tractor Corporation quotations for Sourcewell pricing will be estimates only. Final Sourcewell pricing will be based upon Sourcewell contract pricing at the time of final delivery to Sourcewell Members.

Regarding current Sourcewell Member open purchase orders for KTC products; Sourcewell Members, at their discretion, may cancel their open and current orders without any penalty or obligation. If Sourcewell members choose not to cancel current purchase orders, pricing for these orders will be determined at the point of final product delivery to Sourcewell Members.

KTC is collaborating with Sourcewell regarding these challenges. We look forward to returning to "business as usual" at a future point when the supply chain and cost escalation situation normalizes. Thank you for your Kubota business and thank you for your understanding of this current situation

Respectfully,

Thomas W. Burton – Director – National Accounts
