April	23-24	Batter Up Earlybird Nations/Five Tool Qualifier
May	14-15	Swing for Spring
June	4-5	Littlest Heroes West Tournament
July	30-31	Last Chance Tournament
August	6-7	August Summer Sizzler

- All rules stated here are exceptions to the NFHS Rules Book. All other playing rules follow NFHS guidelines. Victory Park Ohio and Briggs Baseball LLC dba Fallbaseball.net reserve the right to modify rules prior to the start of and during the tournament, if any item is misrepresented in this document.
- The tournament director or his/her appointed representative (e.g.,umpires) shall be the sole judge as to the playing conditions of the fields and is responsible to make a decision for a called game and/or termination of play.
- Tournament age is players age as of April 30
- For the Nations Qualifiers, all teams are required to register Nations Baseball , validate their team insurance, and input your roster with players full names and birth dates, prior to their first game. Birth certificates must be available upon request unless pre-approved by Nations Baseball.
- Tournament Weather Hotline / Updates : (216) 732-2966
 - Teams will pay umpire fees at homeplate each game
 - Tournament will supply Game Baseballs for all events
- Awards will be presented to first and second place teams in each division. (13 per team)
- Teams shall be at the field 30 minutes before the scheduled game time.
 - If a team cannot field a team at the scheduled start time, they will forfeit. Forfeits do not apply when delay of arrival is due to travel with-in the Tournament
- There is no infield practice.
- Home team will be decided by coin flip in all pool play games. The higher seed will have their choice be the home team or visitor in all seeded games / semi finals and / finals.
- No protests are allowed.
- The infield fly rule shall be in effect for all age divisions.
- No “Slug Bunting” allowed

- Roster Batting will be allowed in all tournaments.
 - a. Teams can bat a 9-player lineup, a 10-player lineup using an additional hitter (AH), or roster bat all present uniformed players. The lineup must be declared before the start of the game and used the entire game.
 - b. If a team uses a lineup that contains 10 players, the player in the AH position, while not actually playing a defensive position, is treated as such for substitution purposes.
 - c. If a team chooses to roster bat, then all players other than the nine defensive position players are additional hitters and can move freely in defensive positions.
 - d. If a team is batting all present, uniformed players, with no eligible substitutes listed on the lineup card, and the number of players is 11 or more, that team is considered to be roster batting for the purposes of defensive substitutions and courtesy runners, unless the coach has specifically declared otherwise at the pregame plate conference. If additional players arrive after the game has started, those players are placed at the end of the batting order. If the coach declares at the pregame plate conference that he is not roster batting, the late players are listed on the lineup as eligible substitutes.
 - e. If a player is injured during a game, that player can be removed from the line-up without penalty provided the team is roster batting.
 - f. If a player is ejected during a game, that team will take an out in that spot in the line-up even if roster batting.

- The “Designated Hitter” Rule will be allowed in the 15u thru 18u Divisions ONLY.

An “Additional Hitter” Rule will be allowed. The “AH” Rule is optional in all age divisions.
 The “AH” is a 10th hitter placed anywhere in the line-up. The “AH” can be substituted for and the re-entry rule will apply. The “AH” is considered a defensive position and can play in the field.

- Speed-up rule: Teams may use a courtesy runner anytime for the pitcher and/or catcher. The runner must be a player from the bench, or if none available -- the last batted out.

THERE ARE NO PITCHING RULES FOR THESE EVENTS

Pitch Smart Guidelines are recommended for ALL tournaments:
