Reading:

Governor Glen, the Role of the Indians in the Rivalry Between France, Spain, and England (1761): <http://www.let.rug.nl/usa/documents/1751-1775/governor-glen-the-role-of-the-indians-in-the-rivalry-between-france-spain-and-england-1761.php>

After you have read the primary source listed above (as well as Chapter Four, and watched the video for this module), answer the following questions, based on what you know about the French and Indian War, as well as what you know about the English Colonies themselves:

1. Although it is not clearly stated in the text, whom do you think Governor Glen wrote this account for? Why? What evidence in the text makes you think this?

2. Although Governor Glen says this is an account of the various Indians and the French, do you think he had a more specific goal (or set of goals) in mind? Why? What evidence in the text makes you think this?

3. What reason(s) might Governor Glen had to fear the Indians, reasons that might not be entirely clear from this text but which you can logically infer from context?

4. Do you think Governor Glen feels at ease with the Indians? Why or why not? What evidence in the text makes you think this?

5. Do you think Governor Glen feels at ease with the French at this point? Why or why not? What evidence in the text makes you think this?
