

If you were to give the writer advice about how to make their paragraph more connected and coherent, what would you tell them?

Choose one topic and stick to it

Coherence

if they could compare and contrast if that's what they want to do

Support the topic sentence.

Add some connectors to improve sentence structure

Use conjunctions if possible

Stick to the idea

Stay in the parameters of your topic sentence.

If you were to give the writer advice about how to make their paragraph more connected and coherent, what would you tell them?

To focus more on the topic sentence and make it more like a thesis statement that overarches the rest of the paragraph so everything relates back to it..

Don't talk about topics that stray from your topic sentence.

Awareness about the topic

Dont get overwhelmed while writing the paragraph

Modify your topic sentence if you want to add more on your summer.

Keep your focus , stop going back and forth into the past and present or future too! Use words that guide the thinking of the reader, have a flow in the writing

Please be little bit less confused and be clear
CORRECT SEQUENCE
ALSO TO BE USED

Should be in the boundary

If you were to give the writer advice about how to make their paragraph more connected and coherent, what would you tell them?

Use connecters and stay to the main topic

Make a writing process plan beforehand to avoid being so messy lol
