METRO UNITED WAY ISSUES RFP FOR COVID-19 RELIEF FUNDS IN GREATER LOUISVILLE

RFP Open to Nonprofit Agencies in Oldham, Shelby, and Bullitt County

April 29, 2020 [Louisville, Ky.] – To aid in COVID-19 relief, Metro United Way (MUW), in partnership with the Oldham County Fiscal Court, the Shelby County Community Foundation, and Journey Christian Church, has issued a request for proposals to nonprofit agencies serving Oldham, Shelby, and Bullitt county. Relief funds will provide immediate financial aid to organizations and individuals on the frontlines of COVID-19 efforts, allowing them to survive and continue serving the community during these unprecedented times.

“The COVID-19 crisis has placed a burden on our agencies and jeopardized our families’ housing stability, food security, and access to pharmaceutical needs,” Metro United Way’s Director of Region Community Impact, Erica Price said. “The Oldham, Shelby, and Bullitt County Relief Funds were created to fight alongside each county’s agencies by providing emergency relief funding to those disproportionately impacted by the coronavirus pandemic and resulting economic hardship.”
