

Verdicchio 2022

BACKGROUND

Created in 1949, in the Le Marche region of Italy, Fazi Battaglia is the premier shareholder of estate vineyards within the Castelli di Jesi DOC. These wines epitomize Italian style: fresh, elegant and distinctive. Their flagship amphora shaped bottle is an iconic symbol of the winery and territory.

TERROIR & VINTAGE NOTES

The winery is located in the village of Cupramontana, 30 miles from the coastal town of Ancona in the heart of the Le Marche wine region. With over 247 acres of estate vineyards in the heart of the Castelli di Jesi DOC, Fazi Battaglia has the appellation's largest acreage of Verdicchio plantings.

WINEMAKING & AGING

Produced in the Classico area of Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi. Made exclusively from Verdicchio grapes grown on the beautiful hillside vineyards owned by the winery. Grapes are hand harvested. The grapes are gently pressed, followed by cold maceration of the must. Fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks at 14–16°C, followed by 4 months of aging on the lees to add crispness.

TASTING NOTES

Straw yellow. Aromas of apple, pear, and aniseed. A rich palate with notes of almonds and a touch of minerality.
