

Gran Duque d'Alba Solera Grand Reserva

BACKGROUND

Gran Duque d'Alba Solera Gran Reserva is produced at the Williams & Humbert Bodega, in Jerez. The brand was first launched in 1945 and named for the Grand Duke of Alba, Fernando Ivarez de Toledo y Pimentel. It is one of the most famous & highly rated brandies from this historic region. It is aged for over 12 years in the Solera system in Sherry-infused Oak casks, and has complex aromas of oak, prune and sherry with hints of vanilla, caramel, chocolate, and orange. Best served at room temperature and makes for an excellent end to an enjoyable meal.

TASTING NOTES

Light mahogany with gold highlights. Complex aromas of oak, prune and sherry. Medium-dry, smooth and full-bodied. Velvety texture with with hints of vanilla, caramel, chocolate, and orange,

ORIGIN

Jerez, Spain

SIZES

750ml

TECHNICAL DETAILS

ABV: 40%, Closure: Cork

750ML

