Publicity Report: Facebook is busy as usual.

Sponsorship Report: Banner is done and was displayed at the last event. Andrew will be bringing it to Ascutney.

Auto Cross Report:

- Auto X #1 – Had 68 participants with 9 runs each at a 39 second average.
- Auto X #2 – 75 participants with 6 runs each at a 50 second average. Live timing has been a huge hit.
- School #1 – Was fun with 27 registered but 2 didn't show up. Completion certificates were awarded.
- Trailer – Work is still in progress storage cabinets have been acquired.

Hill climb Report:

- 44 registered for this weekend with more to possibly show up at the mountain. Majoring people are all in place. Trophies, key chains, and dash plaques are ready. Saturday lunch will be deli platters. Sunday lunch will be a barbeque. Extra entry form are needed.

Motorsports Museum: A meeting was held at Ray Bouisseneau's race shop. The museum has a 90 year lease on the location. For twenty-five thousand dollars as a donation to the museum you can be a person using a shovel for the ground breaking event. The ground breaking event will be on the Nascar

Cup weekend in September but real ground breaking and construction will begin next year. The building will be ten thousand square feet and will be available for meetings and similar events. March of next year Paul Giblin will be putting on a gala event with live/silent auctions open to everyone. Paul will keep people posted. June 14th is the Gypsy motorcycle tour and will be led by a motorcycle race winner how is now 91 years old and he will be riding the same triumph that he won on.

FTP/Website Issue: The SCCNH website is now fixed, safe and back up.

Old Business:

- Owl's Head Tour – Still set for 7:30am July 12th at the Applebees parking lot in Concord.
- Mass Tuning Event – Andrew Mercer is setting up a list of volunteers; still need some more. The event will be Saturday June 27th. It will be a quarter mile course with autocross elements set up going down and back up the track.
- July meeting is still Ray Bouisseneau's race shop but it will not be a cookout. You may still bring something to drink and his doors open at 6 with the meeting at 7.

New Business:

- Gunstock car cruises are Monday evenings in June. Charlie Parsons will send out an e-mail to inform people of this.
- Possible future meeting location called area 23 at the Smokestack Building in Concord.

Meeting: Brought to a close at 7:58pm. Moved by George Young and seconded by Gary Brundrett.
