It Happened One Season

by Stephanie Laurens, Jacquie D'Alessandro, Candice Hern, and Mary Balogh
read by various readers

In this romantic quartet of stories, the readers got to pick the theme.

Praise for Stephanie Laurens:

"All I need is her name on the cover to make me buy the book!" —Linda Howard, New York Times bestselling author

Praise for Jacquie D'Alessandro:

"D'Allesandro's newest Regency-era romance is fresh, funny, and loaded with charm." —Publishers Weekly

Praise for Candice Hern:

"Candice Hern will make you laugh and cry...and then go back for more!" —Sabrina Jeffries, New York Times bestselling author

Praise for Mary Balogh:

"The writing is superb, with realistic dialogue, sexual tension, and a wonderful heart-wrenching story."

—Romance Reviews Today

Four stories, four authors, one theme: Stephanie Laurens, Mary Balogh, Jacquie D'Alessandro, and Candice Hern return to write four stories that will take place during the Regency social season. They will include three specific plot points submitted and voted on by the fans. An innovative anthology of four novellas with the same plot! But they are as differently fascinating as the four authors who write them.

Malcolm X

A Life of Reinvention
by Manning Marable
read by G. Valmont Thomas

Years in the making, this is the definitive biography of the legendary black activist who became a criminal, a minister, a leader, and an icon, all before being felled by assassins' bullets at age thirty-nine.

Charting his rise in the world of Black Nationalism and culminating in the never-before-told true story of his assassination, Malcolm X will stand as the definitive work on one of the most singular forces for social change, capturing with revelatory clarity a man who constantly strove, in the great American tradition, to remake himself anew.

Other Kingdoms

by Richard Matheson
 read by Bronson Pinchot

The first new Richard Matheson novel in ten years!

For over half a century, Richard Matheson has enthralled and terrified readers with timeless classics. Now the Grand Master returns with a bewitching tale of erotic suspense and enchantment.

Alex White, a young American soldier recently wounded in WWI, travels to a pastoral English village, seemingly the perfect spot to heal his wounded body and soul. But the neighboring woods are said to be haunted by malevolent spirits. Drawn to its mysteries, he finds love, danger, and wonders that will forever change his view of the world.

"The author who influenced me the most as a writer was Richard Matheson."
 —Stephen King

"Stylish and gripping, [Richard Matheson's] stories not only entertain but touch the mind and heart."
 —Dean Koontz

"Richard Matheson is worth our time, attention, and great affection."
 —Ray Bradbury

The Bone House

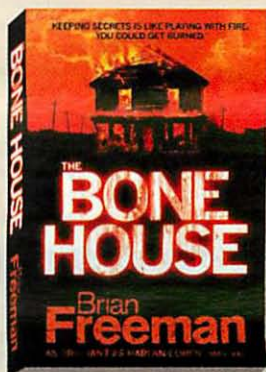

by Brian Freeman
 read by Joe Barrett

Praise for Brian Freeman:

"Brian Freeman is, quite simply, a first-rate storyteller."
 —Nelson DeMille, New York Times bestselling author

Accusations of a torrid affair with a student last year cost Mark Bradley his teaching job and made him and his wife, Hilary, outcasts in their remote island town. Now a teenage girl is found dead on a deserted beach, and again, Mark faces a hostile town convinced of his guilt. Hilary is determined to prove Mark is innocent, but only a quirky detective named Cab Bolton seems to believe her story. Hilary and Cab soon find that people in this community are willing to kill to keep their secrets hidden, and with each shocking revelation, even Hilary begins to wonder whether her husband is truly innocent.

BRIAN FREEMAN is an internationally bestselling author of psychological suspense novels, including Immoral, Stripped, and Stalked. His books have been sold in forty-six countries and seventeen languages and have appeared as main selections in the Literary Guild and the Book of the Month Club.

The New Adventures of Mickey Spillane's Mike Hammer, Vol. 3

"Encore for Murder"

by Max Allan Collins from a story by Mickey Spillane and Max Allan Collins produced by Carl Amari starring Stacy Keach as Mike Hammer with a full supporting cast, sound effects, and music

PI Mike Hammer is playing bodyguard to diva Rita Vance on the eve of her big Broadway comeback. But she's an old flame of Hammer's, and soon the actress is facing death threats and Hammer is the target of hit men. Then Rita disappears, and while the cops go down a false trail, Hammer seeks to make a rescue before Rita's curtain comes down.

Working from the plot for an unwritten novel found in the files of the late Mickey Spillane, Max Allan Collins (Road to Perdition) has fashioned a compelling noir thriller that is vintage Mike Hammer all the way.

The Most Dangerous Man in America

Rush Limbaugh's Assault on Reason by John K. Wilson read by William Hughes

This is a searing indictment of Rush Limbaugh's bankrupt ideology and how he has singlehandedly quashed American political debate.

With almost twenty million listeners on more than six hundred stations, Rush Limbaugh is the leading and most dangerous figure in the conservative movement today. John K. Wilson uses Rush's own words to show how Limbaugh's flagrant disregard for the truth and penchant for savage personal attacks have held the political arena hostage.

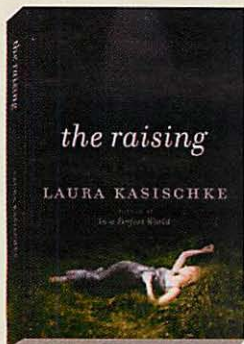

JOHN K. WILSON is the author of five previous books, including Newt Gingrich: Capitol Crimes and Misdemeanors, Barack Obama: This Improbable Quest, and Patriotic Correctness: Academic Freedom and Its Enemies. He is also the editor of Illinois Academe.

The Raising

A Novel
by Laura Kasischke
read by Renée Raudman

From critically acclaimed and nationally bestselling author Laura Kasischke comes a new novel that is part Stephen King, part Donna Tartt, and wholly unputdownable.

When a horrible, bloody accident claims the life of a beautiful young sorority girl, the people around her are affected in different ways, dealing with grief, stress, and guilt. And Shelly, the first person at the scene of the tragic accident, has something to say. The girl she saw that night was not bloody—and not dead.

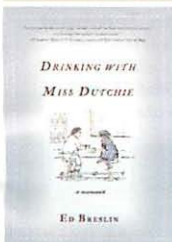

Praise for Laura Kasischke:

"It is not enough to say that Kasischke's language is 'poetic,' a word that has come to mean 'pretty.' Rather, her writing does what good poetry does—it shows us an alternate world and lulls us into living in it...The language catapults us into another plane of existence, one of façade and reflection."

The Silent Land

A Novel
by Graham Joyce
reader to be announced

Award-winning novelist and cult favorite Graham Joyce transports listeners to a mysterious world of isolation and fear with a hypnotically dark story, a daring and powerful novel about love, loss, and rebirth.

In the French Alps, a young couple is buried under a flash avalanche while skiing. They manage to dig their way out only to discover the world has been overtaken by an eerie and absolute silence. As the couple witnesses unsettling events neither can ignore, they must confront a frightening truth about the silent land they now inhabit.

GRAHAM JOYCE has won the O. Henry Award, British Fantasy Award, and World Fantasy Award. His books include How to Make Friends with Demons, Smoking Poppy, Indigo (a New York Times Notable Book of 2000), The Tooth Fairy (a Publishers Weekly Best Book of 1998), and Requiem, among others.

Quantum Man

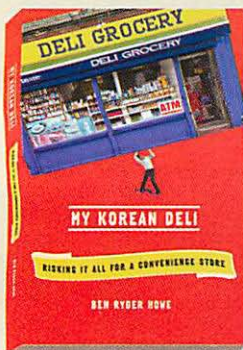

Richard Feynman's Life in Science
by Lawrence M. Krauss
read by Lawrence M. Krauss

An accessible reflection on the issues that drive physics today, Quantum Man captures the story of a man who was willing to break all the rules to tame a theory that broke all the rules.

Perhaps the greatest physicist of the second half of the twentieth century, Richard Feynman changed the way we think about quantum mechanics, the most perplexing of all physical theories. Here Krauss offers a unique scientific biography: a rollicking narrative coupled with clear and novel expositions of science at the limits.

My Korean Deli

Risking It All for a Convenience Store
by Ben Ryder Howe
read by Bronson Pinchot

Already optioned for film, this sweet and funny tale of a preppy editor buying a Brooklyn deli with his Korean in-laws is about family, culture clash, and the quest for authentic experiences.

This sweet, funny tale of a preppy editor buying a Brooklyn deli with his Korean in-laws is about family, culture clash, and the quest for authentic experiences. Owning the deli becomes a transformative experience for everyone as they struggle to salvage the original gift—and the family—while sorting out issues of values, work, and identity.

"My Korean Deli is about a Korean deli, as I expected. But it's also about love, culture clashes, family, money, and literature. Plus, it happens to be very funny and poignant. So buy a Slim Jim and a Vitamin Water and sit down to enjoy it."

Jane Eyre

Charlotte Brontë
read by Nadia May

Winner of the AudioFile Earphones Award

Jane Eyre, the plain yet spirited governess, was a new kind of heroine: one whose virtuous integrity, sharp intellect, and tireless perseverance broke through class barriers to win equal stature with the man she loved. This impassioned love story is still regarded as one of the finest novels in literature.

Brighton Rock

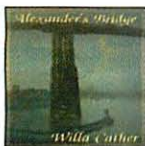

By Graham Greene
Read by Richard Brown

A gang war rages through the dark underworld of Brighton, England. Pinkie, a seventeen-year-old whose primary ambition is to lead a gang to rival that of the wealthy, established Colleoni, has killed a man. Believing in only divine retribution, he is unprepared for the earthly courage of Ida Arnold, who is determined to avenge a death.

"A superb storyteller: with a gift for provoking controversy."

The Mark of Zorro™

dramatized for audio by Yuri Rasovsky
based on a novel by Johnston McCully
starring Val Kilmer and a full cast

Wealthy young aristocrat Don Diego de la Vega presents himself as a fop, lacking vigor and strength. But this is merely a mask to conceal his alter ego—El Zorro, a cunning swordsman fearlessly seeking to avenge the helpless, aid the poor and oppressed, and punish cruel officials. Deemed an outlaw by California's corrupt governor, he is ever hunted by Capitán Ramón.

Val Kilmer is one of the most prolific actors of his generation. From his more recent work as a career military officer in David Mamet's Spartan, back through his work with Oliver Stone in The Doors and Michael Mann in Heat, to his early work in Top Gun, Kilmer has worked with many of film's most respected directors and actors. His latest films include Kill the Irishman, opposite Linda Cardellini and Christopher Walken, and Riddle, alongside Elisabeth Harnois and Diara Baird.
