Grave-Stones

By EDGAR DANIEL KRAMER

Two white stones in a garden,
Fragrant with roses and rue;
Two grave-stones in the stillness,
Ghosts in the dusk and the dew.

One for a brave young lover,
One for a fair sweet lass,
Side by side in the shadows,
Low in the dust and the grass.

Two grave-stones in a garden—
Lass, it is ever thus!
While we are clinging together,
Worms are dreaming of us.
