AUGUST 2001

Everyone needs a little more Chocolat!

*Lovers of the book and movie won't be able to resist coming back for one more taste and those who haven't yet nibbled on Chocolat
will find the audiobook
the perfect opportunity to try some.*

CHOCOLAT by Joanne Harris		ISBN: 1-55358-606-9
DHA-6607	Unabridged • 6 Cassettes	$29.99 US/34.99 CDN
CHOCOLAT by Joanne Harris		ISBN: 1-55358-607-7

Audiobook to tie in with the movie's release on VHS and DVD.

When Vianne Rocher arrives with her young daughter in the small French town of Lansquenet she immediately attracts attention. Taking over a former bakery, she opens a chocolate shop and begins to tempt the townspeople with her confections. Her actions raise the ire of the town priest who objects to her selling chocolate during Lent. The people of Lansquenet soon find themselves aligned with one or the other as Vianne's celebration of life, love, food and chocolat clashes with Father Reynaud's attempt to control the town.

The story uses the voices of both Father Reynaud and Vianne in first person narrative with humor, rich descriptives and intrigue.

Lovers of the book and movie won't be able to resist coming back for one more taste and those who haven't yet nibbled on Chocolat will find the audiobook the perfect opportunity to try some.

Investing in a home is probably the biggest investment you'll ever make. That's why it is so important to make the right choice with each home you buy.

Whether you are a first time buyer or upgrading to a new home, this audiobook will help you:

- Analyze housing options - detached houses, condos, co-ops, manufactured homes
- Determine what you can afford
- Work effectively with a broker
- Find the best mortgage deal
- Negotiate the best possible price
- Ensure that settlement goes smoothly

Utilizing the full support of the Kiplinger.com website, this production will successfully maneuver you through the biggest investment of your life.

DHA-6595 | Cassette • 90 Minutes$7.99 US/9.99 CDN*KIPLINGER'S GUIDE TO INVESTMENT SMARTS: Stocks & Bonds by Ted MillerISBN: 0-88646-595-8
UPC: 0 57943 45958 7

You want a home of your own, an education for your kids, a comfortable retirement someday and a little fun along the way. These are the routine standard-issue dreams we all seem to have. To achieve them, we must become investors. Saving is the start but it isn't enough because you can't possibly earn enough interest to get you where you want to go - you need to be able to make sound, knowledgeable investments.

Utilizing the full support of the Kiplinger.com website, this investment primer will show you how to:

- Set goals that excite you
- Control your risks
- Get the investment habit
- Diversify the smart way
- Get time on your side

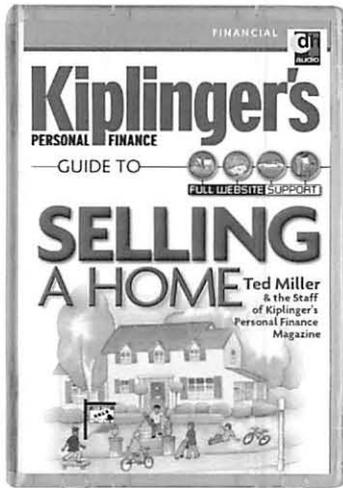

The result? An investment plan that you control, instead of one that controls you.

DHA-6597 | Cassette • 90 Minutes$7.99 US/9.99 CDN*KIPLINGER'S GUIDE TO BUILDING YOUR FAMILY'S FINANCIAL STRENGTH: Budgeting, Banking, Savings & Credit by Ted MillerISBN: 0-88646-597-4
UPC: 0 57943 45974 7

Take a financial inventory and build a picture of where you are now. Take a hard look at how you are spending. Make some judgments about it: Where is your money going and where could it go? What is your debt tolerance level and where are you in relation to it? Sinking in the mire? We'll help you make a plan to get you back treading, and after that, swimming, into a strong financial future.

Utilizing the full support of the Kiplinger.com website, you'll learn how to:

- Figure out how much you have and how much you owe
- Determine your personal bottom line
- Avoid (or eliminate) excessive debt and use credit wisely

Selling a home is probably one of the biggest personal financial transactions you will make. And, thanks to new tax rules, the profit you make will likely be a major contribution to your retirement nest egg.

Kiplinger's Guide To Selling a Home provides all the information you need to protect your investment by helping you make the right choices, in good markets and bad.

Utilizing the full support of Kiplinger.com, this production will successfully maneuver you through the process.

You will learn how to:

- Prepare your home for sale the smart way.
- Select and work with an agent or broker – or handle the sale yourself.
- Set a fair asking price for your home
- Move your property faster, no matter what the market is like.

DHA-6596 | Cassette • 90 Minutes$7.99 US/9.99 CDN*KIPLINGER'S GUIDE TO FINANCING COLLEGE

by Kristin Davis

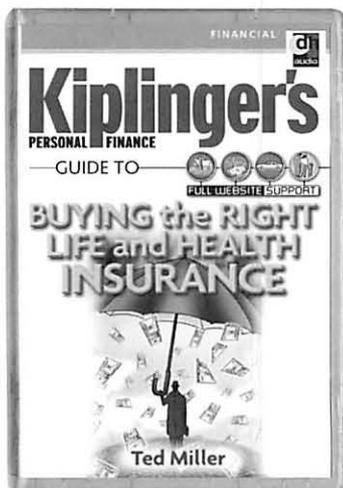

ISBN: 0-88646-596-6

UPC: 0 57943 45966 2

What are the two scariest words you can say to the parents of a teenager? College tuition.

With the same $120,000 plus some parents will pay to put a student through the country's most selective private colleges, you could buy a 50-foot sailboat, a pair of Mercedes-Benzes or a vacation home at the shore. The purpose of this audiobook is to take the scare out of these numbers. It is true that by the time children reach their teen years, most parents have only a token amount saved toward the college bills. But it is also true that parents who want to finance their kids' college education - even at the country's priciest schools - usually find a way. And you can, too. Even if your kids are in high school and you don't have the first dollar saved, we'll show you how to marshal your resources - making the most of your cash flow and assets, and getting as much as you can in financial aid, scholarships and student loans.

With full support from the Kiplinger.com website, we will guide you through the planning and implementation of this exciting life step.
