ELISE BROACH

Read by Jeremy Davidson

The critically acclaimed bestseller—now available at a special price

Marvin lives with his family under the kitchen sink in the Pompadays' apartment. He is very much a beetle. James lives with his family in New York City. He is very much an eleven-year-old boy. After James gets a pen and ink set for his birthday, Marvin surprises him by creating an elaborate miniature drawing. Then James ends up with all the credit, and is expected to do it again. Before they know it, the unlikely friends are caught up in an art heist that could lead them to a long-lost drawing by Albrecht Dürer. Of course, James can't go through with the plan without Marvin's help. But can a boy take a beetle to a museum and let him recreate a master work of art without anyone knowing about it? Even more important, can he bring the beetle safely back home?

ELISE BROACH is the author of the ALA Notable Book Shake and Desert Crossing. She holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in history from Yale University. She lives with her family in Easton, Connecticut.

JEREMY DAVIDSON is currently appearing on the television series Army Wives. He has appeared extensively onstage, most recently opposite John Goodman and Brenda Fricker in the Geffen Playhouse production of Cat on a Hot Tin Roof.

"Jeremy Davidson brings an eager, animated voice to Elise Broach's Masterpiece...The many voices and range of moods, from ruefulness to elation, ably convey the perplexities and ingenuities that arise when a boy and a bug team up to take on the world."

—The Washington Post

"Actor Jeremy Davidson uses his versatile voice and excellent timing to deliver a superb reading... It's compelling listening."

—Sacramento Bee

"Brilliantly crafted by Elise Broach, the audio version of this title is an engaging romp for middle-grade listeners who may discover there's more than meets the eye, when you read with your ears."

RAZORLAND

ANN AGUIRRE

Read by Emily Bauer

Welcome to the apocalypse

New York City has been decimated by war and plague, and most of civilization has migrated to underground enclaves, where life expectancy is no more than the early 20s. When Deuce turns 15, she takes on her role as a Huntress, and is paired with Fade, a teenage Hunter who lived Topside as a young boy. When she and Fade discover that the neighboring enclave has been decimated by the tunnel monsters—or Freaks—who seem to be growing more organized, the elders refuse to listen to warnings. And when Deuce and Fade are exiled from the enclave, the girl born in darkness must survive in daylight, in the ruins of a city whose population has dwindled to a few dangerous gangs. As the two are guided by Fade's long-ago memories, they face dangers, and feelings, unlike any they've ever known.

ANN AGUIRRE has been a clown, a clerk, a savior of stray kittens, and a voice actress, not necessarily in that order. She lives in New Mexico with her husband and two children. She writes romantic science fiction and urban fantasy under her own name. As Ava Gray, she writes high-octane romances. This is her first novel for young adults.

It is the summer of 1868, and Sherlock Holmes is fourteen. On break from boarding school, he is staying with eccentric strangers—his uncle and aunt—in their vast house in Hampshire. So begins Sherlock's true education in detection, as he discovers the dastardly crimes of a brilliantly sinister villain of exquisitely malign intent.

ANDREW LANE has written numerous spin-off novels based on the BBC sci-fi television series Doctor Who, as well as definitive guides to Babylon 5 and the Wallace and Grommit films, and is the author of The Bond Files: An Unofficial Guide to the World's Greatest Secret Agent. # DOCTOR De SOTO

WILLIAM STEIG

Read by Stanley Tucci

NEWBERY

From the incomparable William Steig, a story that proves even a fox can be out-foxed by a clever mouse. Read by award-winning actor Stanley Tucci.

"Doctor De Soto, the dentist, did very good work." With the aid of his able assistant, Mrs. De Soto, he copes with the toothaches of animals large and small. His expertise is so great that his fortunate patients never feel any pain.

Since he's a mouse, Doctor De Soto refuses to treat "dangerous" animals—that is, animals who have a taste for mice. But one day a fox shows up and begs for relief from the tooth that's killing him. How can the kindhearted De Sotos turn him away? But how can they make sure that the fox doesn't give in to his baser instincts once his tooth is fixed? Those clever De Sotos will find a way.

WILLIAM STEIG carved out dual careers as both a highly respected and entertaining cartoonist and an award-winning, bestselling author of children's picture books and novels. He won the prestigious Caldecott Medal for Sylvester and the Magic Pebble, the Caldecott Honor for The Amazing Bone, the Christopher Award for Dominic, and the Newbery Honor for both Abel's Island and Doctor DeSoto.

"[As] quick-witted Doctor De Soto, mouse dentist...he has full insight into the wicked fox's nature... Both Tucci and Streep distill their fine acting ability to pure voice, enhancing this classic collection."

THE CRICKET IN TIMES SQUARE

GEORGE SELDEN

Read by Tony Shalhoub

Before there was Despereaux there was Tucker Mouse and Chester Cricket, two of the most beloved characters in children's literature!

Tucker is a streetwise city mouse. He thought he'd seen it all. But he's never met a cricket before, which really isn't surprising, because, along with his friend Harry Cat, Tucker lives in the very heart of New York City—the Times Square subway station. Chester Cricket never intended to leave his Connecticut meadow. He'd be there still if he hadn't followed the entrancing aroma of liverwurst right into someone's picnic basket. Now, like any tourist in the city, he wants to look around. And he could not have found two better guides—and friends—than Tucker and Harry.
