UNDER THE SNOW

By Richard Le Gallienne

THE snow and the rain
Are falling together,
And there on my window pane
The frost makes pictures out of my sighs—
As I look for those everlasting eyes—
That I shall not see again,
April or winter weather.

Yet the snowdrop whispers under the snow:
"I, too, am dwelling beneath the ground,
But in spring you shall see me blow
Like a long-lost jewel found;
And thy two bright sleeping eyes
Shall wake as they were before,
And thy long-lost face shall rise
Through the soft green graveyard floor.
There is much music under the ground,"
Said the snowdrop under the snow.
