NELSON RODRÍGUEZ

GENERAL MANAGER | FIRST YEAR

Chicago Fire Soccer Club announced on Sept. 20, 2015 the hiring of General Manager Nelson Rodríguez, who officially began his tenure on Oct. 19.

Using his deep experience in leading both the technical and business sides of soccer, as GM, Rodríguez oversees all sporting operations, including technical staff management, scouting, player personnel, player development systems and the Academy. Rodríguez joins the Fire most recently from U.S. Soccer, where he served as Managing Director of National Team Advisory Services. His U.S. Soccer post came after 14 years of experience working in various senior roles in Major League Soccer and Soccer United Marketing. His last position within MLS was as Executive Vice President of Competition, Technical and Game Operations, where he was responsible for all on-field competition.

Following his arrival to the club, Rodríguez directed the club's search for a head coach and soccer operations staff, ultimately naming Veljko Paunovic as the eighth head coach of the Men In Red on Nov. 24, 2015. Paunovic, who enjoyed a lengthy playing career in Europe's top leagues as well as Major League Soccer, came to the Fire after leading the Serbian U-23 National Team to the 2015 FIFA U-23 World Cup title.

During his tenure with MLS and SUM, Rodríguez held a variety of posts including serving as President of Chivas USA during the club's transitional year. At MLS Rodríguez initiated and supervised the League's technical committee, expanded the League's scouting and analytics capabilities and was also instrumental in the creation of the Professional Referees Organization ("PRO"). In addition, he supervised supporter relations, safety and security, team travel and the League's growing sports medicine initiatives.

In previous roles within MLS, Rodríguez served as Senior Vice President of Strategic Business Development where he worked closely with the Commissioner's Office in areas such as business planning, new business development and strategic alliances and also served as Senior Vice President of SUM International.

Before joining MLS in 2000, Rodríguez served as Director of Soccer Operations for the MetroStars from 1998-1999.

VELJKO PAUNOVIC

HEAD COACH | FIRST YEAR | TWITTER: @VPAUNOVIC

Veljko Paunovic was named the Chicago Fire Soccer Club's head coach on Nov. 24, 2015. He joined the Men in Red after leading Serbia to a FIFA U-20 World Cup championship in 2015. The young, rising star in the coaching ranks took over Serbia's U-18, U-19 and U-20 squads in August of 2012, one year after retiring from a 16-year playing career that spanned several top leagues, including one season in Major League Soccer.

Paunovic's Serbian squad was noted for its resiliency during the 2015 FIFA U-20 World Cup. They defeated Mali and Mexico 2-0 to finish atop Group D. Paunovic then navigated the knockout phase with four-consecutive extra-time wins. They opened with a 2-1 result against Hungary and then polished off the United States in penalty kicks before advancing to the final 2-1 over Mali. In the final, Serbia upset powerhouse Brazil 2-1 to earn the country its first world title at any level as an independent nation.

On Dec. 21, 2015, the Serbian Football Association honored Paunovic as Serbia's 2015 Coach of the Year.

In addition to his World Cup successes, Paunovic guided Serbia to third at the 2014 UEFA U-19 European Championship. His squad finished on top of both of its qualification groups to reach the final tournament. Serbia then drew with Ukraine and Germany and beat Bulgaria to reach the knockout round. Paunovic's team gave eventual runners-up Portugal a match, but ultimately bowed out in penalty kicks in the semifinals.

Quickly recognized as a dynamic leader and strong strategist, Paunovic was also brought on to work with the senior national team in 2015, assisting with their organization and communication across all levels.

Paunovic holds a UEFA PRO coaching license as well as a Sporting Director degree from the Royal Spanish Football Federation. He speaks six languages, including: English, Spanish, Serbian, Macedonian, Russian and German. Paunovic also spent nine months as a UEFA Champions League analyst for TVE in Spain.

As a player, Paunovic enjoyed a long, successful career with 11 teams in Serbia, Spain, Germany, Russia and the United States. He racked up 76 goals in 358 appearances over that time, and earned two caps with the Serbia and Montenegro national team.

A loan in 1998 led to another milestone moment, as Paunovic won the Spanish Super Cup with Mallorca, besting FC Barcelona 3-2 on aggregate. After seven more seasons in Spain, as well as stops in Hannover (Bundesliga) and Rubin Kazan (Russian Premier League, Paunovic ultimately returned to where it all began in 2008. He made nine appearances for Partizan to close the season, helping them to a league championship and Serbian Cup. Paunovic retired following the 2008 season, but returned in 2011 as a member of the Philadelphia Union.

MARKO MITROVIC

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST YEAR | TWITTER: @4MITROVIC

Marko Mitrovic was introduced as Chicago Fire assistant coach on January 24, 2016.

Mitrovic most recently served as an assistant coach under Fire head coach Veljko Paunovic as Serbia were crowned 2015 FIFA Under-20 World Cup champions. He began his coaching career in June 2010, serving as the first assistant for FK Banat in the Serbian First Division. In 2013, Mitrovic took over as the head coach of the Red Star Belgrade Under-16 side and led them to first place in their division for the 2013-14 season. In August of 2012, Mitrovic joined the Football Association of Serbia as the first assistant to the U-18, U-19 and U-20 youth sides.

A midfielder by trade, Mitrovic's professional career spanned 14 years and included stops in the top flight in Serbia, Hungary, Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan. Mitrovic holds a UEFA A license and serves as a UEFA Official Lecturer for both the A and B coaching licensing courses.

LOGAN PAUSE

ASSISTANT COACH | FIRST YEAR

Logan Pause was introduced in his new role as assistant coach on January 24, 2016.

Following his retirement in 2014, Pause served one year as club Vice President, supporting commercial initiatives in corporate and ticket sales, working as an ambassador for community programming and developing relationships with supporters and fans. On the soccer front, he oversaw a wide range of responsibility, primarily with Academy and affiliated teams.

Pause finished his career second to only C.J. Brown in competitive appearances with 337 for the Men in Red between 2003-2014. A veteran presence in the latter stages of his career, Pause served as Fire captain for three years from 2011-13.

Pause holds a Bachelors degree in Economics from the University of North Carolina, a Masters in Sports Administration from Northwestern University and a USSF "B" Coaching License. He currently resides in Chicago with his wife Vaneesha and their two daughters.

ALEKSANDAR SARIC

GOALKEEPER COACH | FIRST YEAR | TWITTER: @SARKE29

Saric was named the club's goalkeeper coach on January 24, 2016.

Saric also served with Paunovic on the Serbian U-20 coaching staff. Under Saric's tutelage, Serbia earned three shutouts and conceded just four goals in seven games in their title run. Saric's coaching career includes stints with FC Arema of the Indonesian Super League, Dunajska Streda of the Slovakian Premier League, SC Varzim of the Portuguese Segunda Liga and Austria's SC Austria Lustenau. Saric's 24-year professional playing career began in 1986 with FK Crvena Zvezda of the Serbian SuperLiga and included stops in Germany, Portugal, Israel, Romania, Austria and Slovakia.

Saric holds his UEFA A coaching license and is also a licensed goalkeeper coach by the Spanish and Austrian football federations.

JORDAN WEBB

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH | FIRST YEAR

Webb was named the club's strength and conditioning coach on January 24, 2016.

Webb joins the Fire from EXOS, where he served as a performance specialist and analyst for two years. Familiar with soccer, Webb played collegiate soccer at Missouri Valley College, holds a USSF D license and previously worked with both US Soccer Federation and Seattle Sounders FC. He also has previous professional sports experience working with the Cleveland Browns and Oklahoma City Thunder.

PLAYOFFS: Appeared in all four of the Galaxy's postseason matches. Played the final 14 minutes as the Galaxy defeated the Houston Dynamo 3-1 to capture their second consecutive MLS Cup.

2011 (LA GALAXY): Played in 33 games in all competitions in his second season with the Galaxy, tallying one assist while winning his first MLS Cup. His lone assist came in the regular season finale at Houston, setting up Jack McBean's late goal. One of Bruce Arena's first options off the bench, Stephens started 12 regular season games as well as two games in each the Open Cup and the Champions League. Made his postseason debut as a second half substitute in the second leg of the Western Conference Semifinal Series against New York. He was in the 18-man squad for 44 of the 46 games that the Galaxy played in all competitions.

2010 (LA GALAXY): An instant hit after being selected by the Galaxy in the first round of the 2010 MLS SuperDraft, Stephens led all MLS rookies with eight assists while also adding a goal in 25 games. He scored the first goal of his professional career early in the 2-0 win at Columbus on 5/29. He tied a club record with three assists in LA's 4-1 win vs. Houston on 6/5. That was one of two multi-assist games for Stephens, who set up two of his team's three goals in the 3-1 win vs. Philadelphia on 5/1. The Galaxy were 5-0-0 when he had an assist, with seven of his eight assists coming at The Home Depot Center, having tallied one in the 4-0 win at Seattle on 5/8, one in the 3-1 win vs. Seattle on 7/4 and one in the 2-1 win at Chivas USA on 10/3. His eight assists were the most by a Galaxy rookie since Clint Mathis had 10 in 1998 and were the most by an LA player other than David Beckham or Landon Donovan since Cobi Jones had eight in 2003. The only Galaxy player to play in the first 22 games of the year, he was in the 18-man squad for 28 of the club's 30 regular season games, while also making one appearance in the CONCACAF Champions League. He made his MLS debut as a second half substitute in the season opening win over New England and then was booked for the first time just a minute after entering his first Honda SuperClasico against Chivas USA on 4/1.
