NELSON RODRÍGUEZ

PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER | THIRD YEAR

Chicago Fire Soccer Club announced on Sept. 20, 2015 the hiring of General Manager Nelson Rodríguez, who officially began his tenure on Oct. 19.

Using his deep experience in leading both the technical and business sides of soccer, as GM, Rodríguez oversees all sporting operations, including technical staff management, scouting, player personnel, player development systems and the Academy. Rodríguez joins the Fire most recently from U.S. Soccer, where he served as Managing Director of National Team Advisory Services. His U.S. Soccer post came after 14 years of experience working in various senior roles in Major League Soccer and Soccer United Marketing. His last position within MLS was as Executive Vice President of Competition, Technical and Game Operations, where he was responsible for all on-field competition.

Following his arrival to the club, Rodríguez directed the club's search for a head coach and soccer operations staff, ultimately naming Veljko Paunovic as the eighth head coach of the Men In Red on Nov. 24, 2015. Paunovic, who enjoyed a lengthy playing career in Europe's top leagues as well as Major League Soccer, came to the Fire after leading the Serbian U-23 National Team to the 2015 FIFA U-23 World Cup title.

During his tenure with MLS and SUM, Rodríguez held a variety of posts including serving as President of Chivas USA during the club's transitional year. At MLS Rodríguez initiated and supervised the League's technical committee, expanded the League's scouting and analytics capabilities and was also instrumental in the creation of the Professional Referees Organization ("PRO"). In addition, he supervised supporter relations, safety and security, team travel and the League's growing sports medicine initiatives.

In previous roles within MLS, Rodríguez served as Senior Vice President of Strategic Business Development where he worked closely with the Commissioner's Office in areas such as business planning, new business development and strategic alliances and also served as Senior Vice President of SUM International.

Before joining MLS in 2000, Rodríguez served as Director of Soccer Operations for the MetroStars from 1998-1999.

VELJKO PAUNOVIC

HEAD COACH | THIRD YEAR | TWITTER: @VPAUNOVIC

Veljko Paunovic was named the Chicago Fire Soccer Club's head coach on Nov. 24, 2015. He joined the Men in Red after leading Serbia to a FIFA U-20 World Cup championship in 2015. The young, rising star in the coaching ranks took over Serbia's U-18, U-19 and U-20 squads in August of 2012, one year after retiring from a 16-year playing career that spanned several top leagues, including one season in Major League Soccer.

Paunovic's Serbian squad was noted for its resiliency during the 2015 FIFA U-20 World Cup. They defeated Mali and Mexico 2-0 to finish atop Group D. Paunovic then navigated the knockout phase with four-consecutive extra-time wins. They opened with a 2-1 result against Hungary and then polished off the United States in penalty kicks before advancing to the final 2-1 over Mali. In the final, Serbia upset powerhouse Brazil 2-1 to earn the country its first world title at any level as an independent nation.

On Dec. 21, 2015, the Serbian Football Association honored Paunovic as Serbia's 2015 Coach of the Year.

In addition to his World Cup successes, Paunovic guided Serbia to third at the 2014 UEFA U-19 European Championship. His squad finished on top of both of its qualification groups to reach the final tournament. Serbia then drew with Ukraine and Germany and beat Bulgaria to reach the knockout round. Paunovic's team gave eventual runners-up Portugal a match, but ultimately bowed out in penalty kicks in the semifinals.

Quickly recognized as a dynamic leader and strong strategist, Paunovic was also brought on to work with the senior national team in 2015, assisting with their organization and communication across all levels.

Paunovic holds a UEFA PRO coaching license as well as a Sporting Director degree from the Royal Spanish Football Federation. He speaks six languages, including: English, Spanish, Serbian, Macedonian, Russian and German. Paunovic also spent nine months as a UEFA Champions League analyst for TVE in Spain.

As a player, Paunovic enjoyed a long, successful career with 11 teams in Serbia, Spain, Germany, Russia and the United States. He racked up 76 goals in 358 appearances over that time, and earned two caps with the Serbia and Montenegro national team.

A loan in 1998 led to another milestone moment, as Paunovic won the Spanish Super Cup with Mallorca, besting FC Barcelona 3-2 on aggregate. After seven more seasons in Spain, as well as stops in Hannover (Bundesliga) and Rubin Kazan (Russian Premier League, Paunovic ultimately returned to where it all began in 2008. He made nine appearances for Partizan to close the season, helping them to a league championship and Serbian Cup. Paunovic retired following the 2008 season, but returned in 2011 as a member of the Philadelphia Union.

In August of 2012, Mitrovic joined the Football Association of Serbia as the first assistant to the U-18, U-19 and U-20 youth sides.

A midfielder by trade, Mitrovic's professional career spanned 14 years and included stops in the top flight in Serbia, Hungary, Azerbaijan and Kazakhstan. Mitrovic holds a UEFA A license and serves as a UEFA Official Lecturer for both the A and B coaching licensing courses.

Gehrig joined head coach Veljko Paunovic's coaching staff on Feb. 15, 2016 after announcing his retirement from a professional playing career that spanned six seasons. The Harvey, Ill. born defender joined the Fire on Dec. 10, 2014 in a trade with Orlando City SC, who had acquired his rights in the MLS Expansion Draft. The 2015 Fire Defensive Player of the Year, Gehrig appeared in 30 games and tallied one assist in regular season matches for the Men in Red from 2015-16.

Gehrig began his professional career when he joined Columbus Crew SC as a Discovery Signing prior to the start of the 2011 season. Gehrig made his MLS debut on June 26 against the Colorado Rapids and started four of eight appearances in his rookie season.

Gehrig appeared in a total of 46 regular season matches for the Black & Gold, and also made two postseason appearances, starting the second leg of the Eastern Conference Semifinal against the New England Revolution in 2014.

A four-year standout at Loyola University Chicago, Gehrig was also a member of the Fire PDL squad that reached the PDL Championship game in 2009. Gehrig holds his USSF B license.
