THE CLUB

CLUB HISTORY

1996 / 16-16-0

MLS CUP CHAMPIONS, U.S. OPEN CUP CHAMPIONS

The club's inaugural season in 1996 proved to be a fruitful one for the Black-and-Red. After a slow start in league play, United found the right balance and went into the postseason as the team to beat. They proved to be just that, defeating the Los Angeles Galaxy 3-2 in overtime via a golden goal header by defender Eddie Pope to capture the first MLS Cup title on Oct. 20. One trophy was not enough for the Black-and-Red that fall, as three days later, United shut out the Rochester Raging Rhinos of the A-League (now the USL First Division) 3-0 to win the U.S. Open Cup, the country's oldest soccer tournament. The Black-and-Red became the first club to capture America's version of the "double."

1997 / 21-11-0

MLS CUP CHAMPIONS, SUPPORTERS' SHIELD WINNERS

The team's second season was another banner year for United, as the team rolled through the regular season with a league-best record of 21-11. D.C. went a perfect 5-0 in the MLS Cup Playoffs, which culminated in a 2-1 victory over the Colorado Rapids in MLS Cup '97 in front of a record—and boisterous—home crowd of 57,431 at RFK Stadium.

1998 / 24-8-0

CONCACAF CHAMPIONS' CUP WINNERS, INTERAMERICAN CUP WINNERS

United failed to capture domestic honors for the first time in their short history, losing to the Chicago Fire 2-0 in MLS Cup '98. Though United would be disappointed on the home front, their previous success gave them the opportunity to seek honors on a larger stage. After reaching the semifinals of the CONCACAF Champions' Cup in 1997, the Black-and-Red made it one step further to the finals in 1998, where they faced Mexican 'supercampeon' Toluca. A dramatic 1-0 victory at RFK Stadium not only gave the Black-and-Red their first international trophy, but also the chance for a second by earning a berth to the 1998 InterAmerican Cup. Legendary Brazilian side Vasco da Gama was South America's representative, and they proved formidable, winning the first leg of the championship at RFK Stadium by a 1-0 score. However, United shocked the Brazilian team, and much of the soccer world, by winning the away leg at Lockhart Stadium in Ft. Lauderdale by a 2-1 margin. Thanks to a pair of road goals, United won the fixture and came away with the InterAmerican Cup trophy and the title "Champion of the Americas." That contest proved to be a fitting farewell for head coach Bruce Arena, who left the District of Columbia to conquer further international battles as the head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team.

MLS CUP CHAMPIONS, SUPPORTERS' SHIELD WINNERS

The 1999 season featured a new coach, as former Tampa Bay Mutiny and New England Revolution Head Coach Thomas Rongen took over on the United sideline. The club produced the same successful results their supporters now demanded, as the squad earned a second Supporters' Shield for the league's best regular season record (23-9) and once again represented the Eastern Conference in the MLS Cup. Just as in 1996, MLS Cup '99 featured the Black-and-Red and the Galaxy in Foxborough, but this time dramatics were not necessary as a pair of first-half goals gave United a 2-0 victory and their third Alan I. Rothenberg Trophy in four seasons.

For the first time in club history, United failed to qualify for postseason competition or capture any sort of silverware. The team managed a record of just 2-9-1 to start the season and never recovered from their early struggles, finishing last in the Eastern Division. The team's midseason 3-1 win over Newcastle United at RFK Stadium was one of the positives in a difficult campaign. Another bright spot during the 2000 campaign was the debut of 16-year-old midfielder Bobby Convey, who at the time of his first game—March 25 against the Los Angeles Galaxy—was the youngest player to play in an MLS game.

2001 / 8-16-2

United supporters suffered another difficult year as the club finished last in the Eastern Division and missed out on the playoffs in consecutive seasons. For the second year in a row, United had a player debut as the youngest in league history when Santino Quaranta came on as a substitute against the New England Revolution on May 9. The 16-year-old also became the youngest player to be named as a Player of the Week and an MLS All-Star.

After two disappointing seasons, United named former Miami Fusion skipper Ray Hudson as the club's third head coach on Jan. 8. Hudson and his new club's push for the postseason lasted until the final match of the schedule, but the Black-and-Red missed out on the MLS Cup Playoffs for a third straight season. 2002 did have some bright spots, however, with a trio of club and league firsts. Domestically, United hosted the 2002 MLS All-Star Game at RFK Stadium for the first time and also won the inaugural Atlantic Cup trophy in their yearly season series with New York. Internationally, the Black-and-Red became the first MLS side to travel to England when they defeated Tottenham Hotspur 1-0 in a tribute match at the famed White Hart Lane in October.

2003 / 10-11-9

Following a third unsuccessful campaign, the club used the time before the start of the 2003 season to make drastic changes to the squad. U.S. National Team star Earnie Stewart was allocated to the club, bringing the veteran home from Holland, where he enjoyed unparalleled success for an American expatriate. Richie Williams, Eddie Pope and Jaime Moreno all headed north to join the New York MetroStars, while defender Mike Petke made the reverse journey to join the Black-and-Red. Former Indiana University standout and MLS All-Star Dema Kovalenko was also brought in to shake things up in the midfield, while his Fire teammate and Bulgarian legend Hristo Stoichkov was added as a player/coach. Though United struggled early in the season to pick up points, the off-season moves did pay off, as the club posted a regular season record of 10-11-9, sending the club back to the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since winning the Cup in 1999. However, United fell to the Chicago Fire in the first round of the postseason, ending a run for the team's fourth MLS Cup. MLS Humanitarian of the Year: Ben Olsen

2004 / 11-10-9MLS CUP CHAMPIONS

The beginning of 2004 was an exciting time for the Black-and-Red, as head coach Peter Nowak and teen phenom Freddy Adu both joined the club in January. Nowak became the fourth coach in team history, while Freddy was the first overall selection in the MLS SuperDraft. Jaime Moreno returned to D.C. following a one-year stint with the New York MetroStars. After a 5-5-5 start during the first part of the MLS regular season, United began to buy into Coach Nowak's hardworking, aggressive and team-oriented strategy and finished the regular season with an 11-10-9 record. In the final game of the regular season, the team registered a thrilling 3-2 victory over the MetroStars that vaulted them past New York and into second place in the Eastern Conference standings. United carried their hot streak into the playoffs, eliminating the MetroStars in the first round and the New England Revolution in the Eastern Conference championship on the way to their fifth MLS Cup championship game.

In 2005, after a mediocre start to the season, United rebounded and finished second in the Eastern Conference with a record of 16-10-6. The 16 wins were the most since 1999, when the team won 23 games. Jaime Moreno again led the Black-and-Red offensively, tallying 16 goals – tied for his career best. The team also played in the CONCACAF Champions' Cup, Copa Nissan Sudamericana and an international friendly against the reigning English Premier League Champion, Chelsea FC. The club's MLS season ended with a disappointing loss in the first round of MLS Cup Playoffs to the Chicago Fire.

2006 / 15-7-10SUPPORTERS' SHIELD WINNERS

D.C. United reasserted themselves as the best team in Major League Soccer in 2006, bringing home their third Supporters' Shield trophy with a 15-7-10 record. United started off the season in spectacular form – going unbeaten from May 1 to July 29 – for a team-best 14 straight matches. Christian Gómez led the league's most potent offense, chalking up 12 goals and 11 assists on his way to the MLS MVP award. Other highlights for the year included a 4-0 victory over Scotland's Celtic FC and an impressive 1-1 draw against the famed Real Madrid of Spain. The club's MLS season ended with a 1-0 loss in the Eastern Conference championship to the visiting New England Revolution.

2007 / 16-7-7SUPPORTERS' SHIELD WINNERS

Tom Soehn became the fifth head coach in United history after Peter Nowak left to become an assistant coach with the U.S. Men's National Team. Soehn, who had served as an assistant under Nowak since 2004, got off to a slow start, beginning the season 0-3. The Black-and-Red, however, rebounded and for the second consecutive season had the most potent attack in MLS. United won their fourth Supporters' Shield, becoming the first team in league history to win the award in back-to-back years. The addition of Brazilians Luciano Emilio and Fred, along with veterans Jaime Moreno, Christian Gómez and Ben Olsen helped the team score 56 regular season goals. In August, Moreno scored his 109th career regular season goal, breaking the MLS record. He finished the season with 112 career goals. The campaign also featured the club's participation in the CONCACAF Champions' Cup, the inaugural SuperLiga and Copa Nissan Sudamericana.

2008 / 11-15-4LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP CHAMPIONS

Though United added their 12th major piece of silverware to the trophy case, the campaign was largely a disappointment as D.C. missed out on the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2002. After a terrible 2-7 start in league play, the team found their groove through the middle part of the year, going 8-3-1 from May 4 until Aug. 23. Unfortunately, injuries decimated Tom Soehn's side and the team's record down the stretch was a dismal 1-5-3. Being forced to play the most games in club history – an astonishing 47 fixtures, complicated matters. The team fell short in international competitions as well, failing to capture hardware in the CONCACAF Champions' Cup, SuperLiga and CONCACAF Champions League. The lone bright spot was the team's second Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup championship, which was captured after a 2-1 win over the Charleston Battery of United Soccer League's First Division.

Despite the fact that United made significant changes to the 2008 team, the Black-and-Red found themselves at the end of the 2009 campaign without hardware and, for the second year in a row, out of the playoffs. The team drew a league-record 13 matches as D.C. put together a 9-8-13 record. The club began the season well and were in first place in the Eastern Conference at the midpoint of the season with a record of 5-2-8. As the summer wore on and the games piled up, D.C. did not get the results they needed, managing a record of just 4-6-5 in the second half of the year. United also fell short in non-league competition. An impressive run in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup ended with a deflating 2-1 loss to the expansion Seattle Sounders FC at RFK Stadium. The team showed vast improvement in CONCACAF Champions League play, finishing the group stage with a 3-2-1 record, but failed to advance to the next round. The play of rookies Chris Pontius and Rodney Wallace, along with newcomers Dejan Jakovic, Julius James and Josh Wicks, in particular, gave United fans hope the team would soon reestablish themselves atop Major League Soccer.

2010 / 6-20-4

Steadying the ship in United's most tumultuous season, Ben Olsen took over as interim head coach from Curt Onalfo on Aug. 7 at New England. The Black-and-Red showed improvement under Olsen, winning 2-0 over the Philadelphia Union on Aug. 22 and beating eventual MLS Cup champions Colorado Rapids 1-0 on the road on Oct. 1. United also reached the semifinal round of the 2010 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, falling in extra time to the Columbus Crew. The lasting image of the 2010 campaign was of club captain and 15-year MLS veteran Jaime Moreno taking his lap of honor around RFK Stadium on Oct. 23 in his final match for D.C. United against Toronto FC. Moreno retired as MLS's all-time leading goal scorer with 133 goals. MLS Rookie of the Year: Andy Najar

2011 / 9-13-12

United made big strides in 2011, staying in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season. The mid-season acquisition of Dwayne De Rosario provided D.C. the playmaker they'd been lacking as the Canadian tallied 13 goals and seven assists in 17 games en route to the league's scoring title and MVP award. Through 25 games, United had the best record of all Eastern Conference teams, but injuries to Chris Pontius and Dejan Jakovic hampered the Black-and-Red's success, who went 1-6-2 to finish the season. The year also included friendlies against reigning Dutch champion AFC Ajax and England's Everton FC. MLS Most Valuable Player: Dwayne De Rosario
MLS Top Goalscorer: Dwayne De Rosario

2012 / 17-10-7

After a disappointing end to the 2011 campaign and the fourth straight season without making the postseason, Head Coach Ben Olsen and the technical staff made the difficult decision to part ways with several club veterans. Santino Quaranta (10 seasons in D.C.), Clyde Simms (7 seasons), Devon McTavish (6 seasons), and Marc Burch (5 seasons) all departed as United rebuilt. The club went undefeated at home dating back to opening night and had two players named to the MLS All-Star Game roster (Pontius, De Rosario), while Olsen was named the game's coach. After 2011 MLS MVP Dwayne De Rosario went down with an injury while on Canadian National Team duty, the season looked likely to end on a sour note, but United went undefeated in their next seven games to lock up their first playoff berth in five years along with the number two seed in the 2014 MLS Cup Playoffs.

2013 / 3-24-7

LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP CHAMPIONS

Out of a season full of difficulty, injuries, bad luck and disappointment, D.C. United completed a stirring run in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, capturing the title for the third time. United opened the competition with a penalty shootout win over its USL Pro affiliate, the Richmond Kickers, before beating Philadelphia, New England and Chicago en route to the final on the road at Real Salt Lake. Lewis Neal's goal was the difference at Rio Tinto Stadium, where the Black-and-Red stunned the hosts, 1-0. The trophy celebration brought relief as United set an MLS record for fewest victories in a season. Perry Kitchen, who made 31 appearances (all starts), was named the team's most valuable player.

With a rebuilt roster full of new faces and a maturing group of young players under the stewardship of General Manager Dave Kasper and Head Coach Ben Olsen, D.C. United completed the biggest single season turnaround in MLS history, finishing the season 45 points higher from their finish in 2013. The Black-and-Red's defense was one of the toughest in MLS, led by team captain Bobby Boswell manning the backline and GK Bill Hamid, who went on to win MLS Goalkeeper of the Year. Boswell was a finalist for Defender of the Year in his first year back in D.C. after a six-season absence alongside Rookie of the Year finalist Steven Birnbaum, and Fabián Espíndola was an outside contender for MLS MVP. United captured first place in the Eastern Conference and posted a perfect 4-0-0 record in CONCACAF Champions League group play to qualify for the quarterfinals of the competition in early 2015.
MLS Goalkeeper of the Year: Bill Hamid
MLS Coach of the Year: Ben Olsen

2015 / 15-13-6

En route to their 12th postseason appearance in 20 seasons, D.C. United set the pace early in the regular season. With three 1-0 victories in their first four matches, the Black-and-Red took over first place in early April and held it until mid-September, meanwhile establishing a new club record of 20 straight matches at home without a defeat. United utilized 29 different starting lineups in 34 matches, had a goal or assist from 18 different players, came from behind to win eight times and won 11 one-goal matches. The Black-and-Red went 3-0-1 in the group stage of the Scotiabank CONCACAF Champions League.

2016 / 11-10-13

2016 was a year of two halves for the Black-and-Red. While second-year goalkeeper Travis Worra filled in admirably for Homegrown goalkeeper Bill Hamid early on, starting 12 of the first 13 matches, Ben Olsen's side started slowly, not winning consecutive matches until late in the season. Loan acquisition Luciano Acosta proved to be a solid contributor in midfield, leading the team in assists and winning MLS Goal of the Month for his chip against the New England Revolution on April 23. After United acquired winger Lloyd Sam and forward Patrick Mullins in July, the Black-and-Red were the most dominant offensive force in Major League Soccer, scoring more goals than any other side over the final 15 matches of the regular season. And while the first-round loss to the Montreal Impact was disappointing, the future looks bright; the Black-and-Red ended the year scoring multiple goals in ten consecutive matches.

MLS EXPERIENCE

2016: D.C. United's captain surpassed numerous milestones in 2016 en route to his fifth straight season of at least 30 appearances. Boswell became only the third player in MLS history to start 350 regular season matches on Oct. 16, behind Steve Ralston and Kyle Beckerman. Earlier in the year, the center back also hit the 350 appearances mark and surpassed 30,000 minutes played on 6/18 against his former team, the Houston Dynamo. He scored his first goal of the season (and the club's 1,000th of all-time) in dramatic fashion, heading in the game-tying goal against the Chicago Fire on 9/16.

2015: Boswell continued to be the steadiest presence on the Black-and-Red back line, starting 33 of 34 regular season games, leading the team and third in MLS in minutes played (2,795). He made his 300th MLS appearance against Sporting Kansas City on May 9, and during the season became fifth all-time among field players in MLS starts and minutes played. Boswell scored the game-tying goal in a 2-1 win at Vancouver on April 25 and in a 4-0 win over Chicago on Oct. 18.

2014: Boswell returned to D.C., where he began his MLS career, after six seasons in Houston. Boswell was named team captain and the team's Defender of the Year, selected to the MLS All-Star Game, named to the MLS Best XI and as a finalist for MLS Defender of the Year. He finished with one goal and three assists, starting a career-high 34 games – one of only three field players in MLS to start every regular season match – for a Black-and-Red defense that finished tied for first in goals against average (1.09) and allowed the fewest goals at home in MLS en route to the top seed in the Eastern Conference in the 2014 MLS Cup Playoffs.

2013: (Houston) Boswell made the MLS Team of the Week (Weeks 1, 10). Besides a two game suspension in mid-May, he played every game of the 2013 season. He earned his first assist of the season on a play to Giles Barnes in a 1-0 victory over the LA Galaxy on May 5. In CONCACAF Champions League play, he scored the closing goal on a header in a 2-0 win vs. W Connection on Sept. 25. In the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, he played 90 minutes in 3-0 loss at FC Dallas on June 12 and played 90 minutes in 2-0 Open Cup win over FC Tucson on May 29.

2012: (Houston) Boswell led Dynamo field players with a career-high in regular season minutes (2,930). He set career-highs in games played (33) and games started (33). Boswell played full time in 37 consecutive MLS matches (3,380 consecutive minutes, including playoffs) before exiting Houston's 1-0 win in the 74th minute with a stomach virus on Sept. 6. He made his 200th MLS appearance vs. D.C. United on May 12. He made his 150th Dynamo appearance in all competitions in a 2-0 loss at Seattle on March 23, becoming the fifth Dynamo to reach 150. In the MLS Playoffs, he played 90 minutes in all six games. In the Open Cup, he started and played 75 minutes in a 1-0 third round loss to San Antonio. In CONCACAF Champions League play, he played 90 minutes in both legs of a 3-1 aggregate series quarterfinal loss to Santos Laguna on March 5 and March 13. He started and played 90 minutes in a 3-1 win at C.D. FAS.

2011: (Houston) Boswell scored a career-high five goals, tied for the team lead, and added one assist in 28 appearances at center back (27 starts). He scored in consecutive games on Aug. 17 and Aug. 20 to earn MLS Player of the Week honors from the website Soccer By Lives. In the MLS Playoffs, Boswell and the Dynamo reached the MLS Cup Final with three consecutive wins, including back-to-back shutouts. In Open Cup play, Boswell wore the captain's armband and played all 120 minutes in a 1-0 overtime loss vs. KC on April 6. The Dynamo were eliminated in the qualifying round. In MLS Reserve League play, Boswell made his first reserve appearance and played all 90 minutes in 3-2 loss vs. Dallas on May 29.

2010: (Houston) Boswell started in 26 of 30 league games at center back, including nine starts as captain. He was named the Dynamo Defender of the Year for the second time in three seasons. He made back-to-back diving stops inside the six-yard box in a 4-3 loss at Kansas City on Sept. 22, earning him the Dynamo's Save of the Year. He played the final 21 minutes of a 4-0 Dynamo Charities Cup win vs. Aguila on June 19.

2009: (Houston) Boswell started 29 of 30 games at center back for the Dynamo. His play helped Houston tie for the league's lowest goals-against total. In the MLS Playoffs, Boswell played all 330 minutes of three playoff games. In 2008-09 CONCACAF Champions League play, Boswell scored the first goal of Dynamo's 2009 season with a header in the first leg of the quarterfinal vs. Atlante on Feb. 24. In '09-'10 Champions League play, Boswell appeared in five games, making three starts. In the Open Cup, Boswell wore the captain's armband for the first time and marshaled the back line to a 2-0 shutout win at Austin on July 1. He again served as captain and scored a goal in a 4-0 quarterfinal win at Charleston on July 7.

2008: (Houston) Boswell was acquired in the offseason from D.C. United. He became the Dynamo's most consistent performer at center back, earning Dynamo Defender of the Year, Fans' Choice Award winner, and Iron Man of the Year honors. Boswell led the team with 43 starts in 43 games played. He scored his first Dynamo goal, and first goal since May 27, 2006, on a game-winning header in a 2-1 win at Chicago on May 17. He made his 100th career MLS start on Aug. 31 against Chicago. In the MLS Playoffs, he played all 180 minutes of the series vs. New York. In Champions' Cup competition, he played every minute of the first three games, but was suspended for the semifinal second leg at Deportivo Saprissa on April 9. He also played every minute of the SuperLiga tournament. In CONCACAF Champions' League play, he started and played 90 minutes in four of six games.

2007: Boswell saw time in 23 games with D.C. United. He was an instrumental part of a defense that gave up the third-fewest goals in MLS (34).

2006: Boswell was named the MLS Defender of the Year, an MLS All-Star, and to the MLS Best XI team. Boswell continued to build off of his tremendous rookie season, establishing himself as a permanent and critical member of the D.C. United backline. Boswell anchored one of the best defenses in the league. United allowed only 38 goals in 2006, the second fewest in MLS. Boswell started each of the 30 games played in and chipped in a goal and an assist.

2005: Boswell earned a developmental contract with D.C. United as an undrafted free agent during pre-season. He quickly became a starter once the season began, making 26 starts while being upgraded to a senior roster spot. Boswell scored three goals, including two game-winners, and added one assist. ACQUIRED
Selected in the first round (7th overall) of the 2012 MLS SuperDraft.

MLS EXPERIENCE
2016: DeLeon proved to be immensely valuable to Ben Olsen and his staff in his versatility, playing in central midfield, wide midfield and outside back throughout the season. He started both matches in the 2015-16 Scotiabank CONCACAF Champions League and made 32 appearances in the regular season (27 starts). DeLeon scored his only goal of the season in United's 6-2 victory over Chicago on 8/27.

2015: DeLeon was a reliable and influential piece in the midfield once again, with the ability to produce both offensive bursts and stalwart defensive efforts. He finished 2015 with two goals and matched his career-high with five assists in 29 regular season appearances (25 starts). He logged the game-winning assist in a 1-0 win over Los Angeles on Mar. 28 as well as assists in a 3-1 win over Chicago on June 3 and a 2-1 against New England on June 21. He also scored in overtime in a 3-1 win over Pittsburgh in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. DeLeon made his 100th regular season appearance and start during the season. DeLeon played a full 90 minutes in each of D.C. United's three matches in the Audi 2015 MLS Cup Playoffs and had an assist on the team's game-winning goal against New England in the Knockout Round.

United's Eastern Conference semifinal series against New York.

2013: DeLeon's sophomore year got off to a slower start. After suffering a hamstring strain against the Columbus Crew at RFK Stadium on March 23, the talented midfielder was sidelined for 6 1/2 weeks. He quickly regained his fitness and worked his way back into the starting lineup, trying to help a struggling Black-and-Red offense. DeLeon netted his first goal of the year in the U.S. Open Cup semifinal round against the Chicago Fire at Toyota Park on Aug. 7. His first strike helped United to a 2-0 victory over the home side. His first MLS tally came on Aug. 31 against the New York Red Bulls at Red Bull Arena; DeLeon evened the score, but the Black-and-Red would go on to lose 2-1. On Oct. 12, the dynamic attacker hit a rocket against the Philadelphia Union, ultimately earning D.C. United Goal of the Year.

2012: DeLeon's rookie campaign earned him MLS Rookie of the Year runner-up, United's fourth finalist for the award in as many seasons. DeLeon made an immediate impact in his inaugural professional campaign, scoring his first MLS goal 13 minutes into his first appearance on March 18, 2012 in a 3-1 loss to the LA Galaxy. DeLeon went on to tally six strikes in his first season, breaking D.C. United's rookie goal-scoring record previously held by Santino Quaranta (2001), Freddy Adu (2004) and Andy Najar (2010). He also added four assists in his freshman season. During the Black-and-Red's first playoff run since 2007, DeLeon notched two additional goals, including the match-winner (and series-clincher) in the 88th minute against the New York Red Bulls in Leg 2 of the Eastern Conference semifinals.

H. 6' 3" | W. 225 | POS. GK | DOB 11.25.90 | @billhamid28

ACQUIRED

Hamid became United's first Homegrown Player when he signed on Sept. 2, 2009.

MLS EXPERIENCE

2016: After suffering an injury in January that forced him to miss the first 12 matches of the year, Hamid returned to the field on May 27 against Sporting Kansas City, when United won their first road match of the year. Hamid recorded seven saves in a match twice, against NYCFC on Oct. 16 and against RSL on July 1. United's first Homegrown Player was nominated for Phillips 66 Save of the Week 12 times, winning once. He finished the season with 68 saves, five shutouts and a goals against average of 1.25.

2015: The 2014 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year continued to set the standard at his position in 2015, ranking at or near the top all season in goals allowed per game, saves, save percentage, and shutouts. Hamid opened the year with three shutouts in the first four matches. He also recorded a clean sheet against Columbus on May 2 and then in back-to-back matches against Chicago on June 24 and Toronto on June 27. Hamid matched his career-high with eight saves at Portland on May 27 and at Montreal on Aug. 8. He tallied his eighth shutout of the year in United's 4-0 win over Chicago on Oct. 18. In May, Hamid and D.C. United agreed to a multi-year contract extension, and he was also named to the U.S. Men's National Team roster for matches against Mexico in April and Costa Rica in October.

2014: Hamid, D.C. United's first Homegrown signing, had his best MLS season in 2014. Hamid was named an MLS All-Star, MLS Goalkeeper of the Year and selected to the MLS Best XI. The accolades came after Hamid finished first in saves percentage (75.3), second in shutouts (10), third in goals against average (1.13), and tied for fourth in wins (14) and saves (110). He was the only goalkeeper to finish the MLS regular season in the top three in saves percentage, shutouts and goals against average. Hamid set career highs in games played and started (30), minutes played (2,700) shutouts, saves and wins. He became the first Homegrown goalkeeper to win the league's top goalkeeping award and to be selected to the MLS All-Star Team. He also became the first MLS Homegrown player to reach 100 MLS regular season games.

2013: Hamid had another solid season in the net, appearing and starting in 25 games while registering four shutouts. Hamid was a member of the 2013 U.S. Men's National Team that won gold at the 2013 CONCACAF Gold Cup. The Homegrown product appeared on the 18-man roster against Canada on Jan. 29. Hamid also made the roster for the game against Germany. The game was played on his home grounds, RFK Stadium, on June 2. While wearing Black-and-Red, the talented, young keeper earned multiple honors, including Save of the Week in Week 1, Player of the Week in Week 3 and Team of the Week for Week 12. Hamid was also selected to the EA Sports FIFA 13 Ultimate Team of the Week after his stellar performance against the New York Red Bulls on March 16.

2012: After losing his No. 1 GK position coming back from Olympic qualifying with the U-23 U.S. Men's squad, Hamid would reclaim his starting status on May 5. Hamid went on to feature in 23 of United's 24 remaining regular-season games. Hamid set career highs in shutouts (eight), goals against average (1.03), saves (88) and wins (13). Additionally, Hamid's saves percentage (77.9%) was best amongst all goalkeepers in MLS (minimum of 30 saves) and a club single-season record. In the final regular-season match, Hamid tied his career high of saves in a single game (eight) in a critical 1-1 draw against the Chicago Fire. The draw allowed United to capture the No. 2 playoff seed in the Eastern Conference.

2011: Solidifying his position as United's first-choice goalkeeper, Hamid rebounded strongly from offseason shoulder surgery by starting 28 league games for the Black-and-Red. In 2,392 minutes of action, Hamid compiled an overall MLS record of 7-9-10. On the season, he tallied 77 saves and a 1.39 goals-against-average mark. He earned his first shutout of the season on April 16 at Toronto FC in a 3-0 win; he compiled seven clean sheets overall. The United Academy product was rewarded for his continued success with a spot on Jürgen Klinsmann's U.S. Men's National Team throughout the year.

2010: Hamid became the youngest goalkeeper in MLS history to win a League contest with a 2-1 win against Kansas City on May 5. Hamid beat the previous record held by former New York netminder and USMNT standout Tim Howard. The 19-year-old was 3-5-0 in eight games for United, posting one shutout and 20 saves en route to a 1.25 goals-against-average mark. He underwent successful season-ending surgery to repair a torn labrum in his right shoulder.

2009: Hamid made United history on Sept. 2 by becoming the first D.C. United Academy player to sign with the first team. As the first player to come up through the club's youth system, Hamid was only available for non-League games during the 2009 season. He did not see any playing time.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

2011: Following the completion of his second MLS campaign, Hamid trained with West Bromwich Albion of the Barclays Premier League. The young goalkeeper was with the West Midlands club for 10 days in late October and early November before returning stateside.

2009: During the summer, Hamid was the first choice in goal for the U-17/18 Academy team that compiled a 20-4-5 record and was a finalist in the U.S. Soccer Development Academy National Playoffs.

2008: In May, Hamid traveled to Madrid, Spain with the Black-and-Red youth to take part in the U-17 Club World Cup. That same year, the U.S. Soccer Development Academy named him to the U-17/18 Mid-Atlantic Starting XI.

2007: After joining the D.C. United Academy in January, he later backstopped the team that won the U-17 MLS SUM Cup in 2007.

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

2012: Hamid earned his first cap with the full U.S. Men's National Team, earning a clean sheet in the team's 1-0 win over Venezuela in Glendale, Arizona on Jan. 21.

2011: Hamid was rewarded for his success in MLS with his first senior call-up to the U.S. Men's National Team on Aug. 10 for a friendly with Mexico. Hamid went on to become Jürgen Klinsmann's de facto backup for starting goalkeeper Tim Howard throughout the year. In total, Hamid was on the bench for five U.S. friendlies in 2011. He also tied a franchise record for assists in a game on 9/24 with three. The left back scored his first goal of the year against Philadelphia on 8/06.

2015: In his third MLS season, Kemp became one of D.C. United's most dangerous options playing out of the back. Kemp's lethal left foot kept him among the team's assist leaders all season. He recorded assists against Houston on April 11, Orlando City on May 13, at New England on May 23, at home versus Philadelphia on May 30, and at Colorado on Sept. 12. He had both a goal and an assist in a 6-4 win over Real Salt Lake, scoring the MLS Goal of the Week.

2014: In his second MLS season, Kemp made 13 appearances (12 starts). He earned his first two career MLS assists in a 4-2 win at home over the Colorado Rapids on Aug. 17. COLLEGE EXPERIENCE

2012: During his senior year, Kemp received Second Team All-ACC honors and started 10 games as a captain. Kemp suffered an injury during the season. 2011: Kemp played an integral part of a tough Maryland defense that allowed a stingy 1.05 goals per game and earned eight shutouts. The junior received Second Team All-ACC honors and made an impact offensively with one goal and four assists.

2010: As a sophomore, Kemp started in all 23 games at left back. He scored his first collegiate goal on a full volley in the 88th minute in the third round of the NCAA Tournament against Penn State. The goal secured a 1-0 victory for Maryland and a spot in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Kemp was a key component in 15 shutouts on the year, tying the Maryland record for clean sheets in a season.

2009: Kemp earned an All-ACC Freshman Team selection, a Soccer America All-Freshman First Team selection, and was named a TopDrawerSoccer.com All-Rookie Second Team honoree.
