THE ORGANIZATION

Lamar Hunt 1932-2006

Major League Soccer and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when MLS founding investor, and investor-operator of FC Dallas and Columbus Crew Lamar Hunt peacefully passed away at Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas, Texas at the age of 74.

Born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas, Hunt is recognized as one of the greatest sports visionaries in American history and a pioneer professional soccer in the United States. Hunt helped make pro football history in 1960 by founding and organizing the American Football League. Long known for his role in the development of football as founder of the Kansas City Chiefs, Hunt's contributions to pro soccer have also had a major impact on sports in the U.S.

The Hunt family stepped to the forefront of U.S. soccer in 1996 by becoming a charter investor in Major League Soccer, which was created with a unique single-entity operating structure, in which investors own an interest in the league in addition to individual teams. The Hunts were the original investor-operators of the charter teams from Columbus (Ohio) and Kansas City.

Hunt made his greatest contribution to soccer in this country in 1998-99, when he made pro soccer history by funding the construction of the first soccer-specific stadium in the United States as the Columbus Crew opened their revolutionary facility. The stadium broke ground on Aug. 14, 1998, and was finished in nine months and one day. Columbus Crew Stadium opened on May 15, 1999 and a sold-out, overflow crowd of 24,741 to watch the Crew defeat the New England Revolution 2-0.

The 1999 MLS season proved to be a historic one for Hunt, as he was awarded the National Soccer Hall of Fame Medal of Honor -- the second to receive the medal reserved for extraordinary individuals whose positive contributions to soccer at the national level affected the course of soccer history in the United States.

That year, he also saw the U.S. Open Cup Tournament renamed in his honor. The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, recognized as U.S. Soccer's National Championship, is an annual competition open to all amateur and professional soccer teams affiliated with U.S. Soccer. Dating back to 1914, the single-elimination tournament is the oldest annual team tournament in U.S. sports history.

Having taken over the operations of Dallas in 2003, Hunt's youngest son Dan joined the Hunt Sports Group to help make Texas soccer history by breaking ground on the team's sparkling new Pizza Hut Park on Feb. 18, 2004. The 20,500 seat, state-of-the-art soccer-specific stadium in Frisco became the first soccer stadium built through a coordination of both private and public funds. Hunt Sports Group, the City of Frisco, Collin County and the Frisco Independent School District partnered to build the facility that features 17 championship-quality soccer fields adjacent to the stadium. Through Hunt's visionary leadership, Pizza Hut Park has become the model for soccer-specific stadiums in the United States.

Since opening on Aug. 6, 2005 with a 2-2 draw between home-side FC Dallas and the MetroStars (now New York Red Bulls), the 117-acre facility has hosted nearly five million spectators and participants. Entering the 2006 season, Hunt-founded Crew Stadium and Pizza Hut Park were two of the three operating stadiums in Major League Soccer built specifically for soccer. The stadiums have hosted numerous high-profile events, including many memorable soccer games.

At the 2004 MLS Cup, Hunt was presented the Commissioner's Award by MLS Commissioner Don Garber for being one of the league's founding fathers as well as a man who has championed soccer in the United States for nearly 40 years.

As far back as 1982, Hunt was honored for his efforts to help establish pro soccer in America by being inducted into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame in Oneonta, N.Y. Hunt has also been inducted into both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the International Tennis Hall of Fame, as well as the sports halls of fame of both Missouri and Texas. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation, the major charitable arm of soccer in the United States, presented Hunt with the Foundation's Lifetime Achievement Award.

Clark K. Hunt Hunt Sports Group Chairman

A founding investor-operator of Major League Soccer, Clark Hunt remains one of the most innovative and influential members of the MLS Board of Governors. As chairman of the Hunt Sports Group, Hunt oversees the operations of the Hunt family's two MLS interests – the Columbus Crew and FC Dallas.

Son of the late American sports pioneer Lamar Hunt, Clark Hunt shares his father's passion for soccer and the family's vision for the sport's success in the United States. At Lamar's request, Clark engaged in the formative discussions for MLS lending his proven business acumen to the league's financial structure. Now in its 17th season, MLS has earned a stake in the landscape of professional sports and is well-positioned for future growth.

In 1999, Clark Hunt worked closely with his father to construct the first "soccer-specific stadium" in the United States in Columbus. Realizing the vision of Lamar Hunt, the debut of professional soccer at Columbus Crew Stadium on May 15, 1999, represented a pivotal moment in the history of MLS and solidified the long-term viability of soccer in the United States. Six years later, in 2005, Hunt Sports Group unveiled FC Dallas Stadium, a 145-acre soccer complex in Frisco, Texas, and the home of FC Dallas.

With its 17 tournament-grade fields, permanent event stage and first-class design, FC Dallas Stadium has now become the model for soccer-specific stadiums in North America. By the 2007 season, less than a decade after the inaugural match in Crew Stadium, more than half of all MLS teams had a soccer-specific stadium to call home – a credit to the vision of Lamar Hunt and leadership of the Hunt Sports Group.

As stadium construction, new investment, player development and a broadening fan base continue to shape the soccer marketplace in North America, Clark Hunt is intimately involved in the development and direction of MLS. Hunt currently serves as one of four members of the MLS Board of Governors appointed to Commissioner Don Garber's Executive Committee. He is also a member of the Competition Committee as well as the league's Labor and Philanthropy Committees.

In addition to his roles in MLS, Hunt is also a respected voice in the National Football League. Hunt is in his eighth year as Chairman of the Board of the Kansas City Chiefs, the storied franchise founded by his father. In 2006, Hunt was one of eight NFL owners to serve on the Commissioner Search Committee which recommended Commissioner Roger Goodell as the successor to then-Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. In 2007, Goodell appointed Hunt to the NFL's Digital Media and International Committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in 1987, earning a degree in business administration with a concentration in finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic honor, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally ranked soccer team, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a tri-captain his final season. He was recognized as one of the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004, and in 2005, he was appointed to the Cox School Executive Board of Trustees. Hunt currently serves on the SMU Board of Trustees.

Hunt and his wife, the former Tavia Shackles of Kansas City, are involved in numerous philanthropic efforts. In 2004, the Hunts were part of the grassroots effort behind the formation of Lift Up America – an organization that facilitates widespread compassion and giving through strategic partnerships with corporations and sports teams. Since that time, more than 30 teams have partnered with Lift Up America, and corporations like Cinemark Theaters, Interstate Batteries and Tyson Foods have helped the organization distribute millions of pounds of food and countless other services to people in need worldwide.

Clark Knobel Hunt was born on February 19, 1965 and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Dallas in 1983. The Hunts have three children – Gracelyn, Knobel and Ava.

John Wagner Hunt Sports Group President

John Wagner serves as President of Hunt Sports Group, which is the management company responsible for overseeing the Lamar Hunt family soccer investments.

As a representative of HSG, Wagner was involved with the creation of the public/private partnership with the City of Frisco, Frisco Independent School District and Collin County, for the development of FC Dallas Stadium. Wagner assists in establishing signature partnerships for FC Dallas, including business relationships with AEG Live, Dr Pepper, Texans Credit Union, North Texas Soccer, U.S. Youth Soccer and Frisco Independent School District Athletics.

A member of the Major League Soccer Board of Governors, Wagner also serves on the MLS Audit and Finance and the MLS Business Development Committees.

Wagner's previous 13 years of CPA experience in public accounting ended in 1996, after spending nine years with Coopers and Lybrand in Kansas City. He specialized in entrepreneurial business and family-owned business consulting, with an emphasis on federal and state tax issues.

During his years in public accounting, he also managed a joint venture between Hunt Sports Group and Coopers and Lybrand, wherein they provided consultation on matters of state income tax jurisdictions for the NFL, NBA, NHL and applicable players unions to develop uniformity and efficiency in the complex professional athletes non-resident income tax filings.

Wagner earned his Bachelor of Science Degree at the University of South Dakota and completed his MBA degree at the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1986. He resides in the Dallas area with his wife, Nancy, and their three children, Taylor, Amanda and Parker.

Daniel L. Hunt Hunt Sports Group Vice President

Daniel Hunt is entering his eighth year as Vice President of Hunt Sports Group – the parent company of the Hunt family's Major League Soccer interests, which include FC Dallas and the Columbus Crew. In addition to his role with HSG, Hunt also serves as a member of the MLS Board of Governors.

He has spent the last several years on the design, building, opening and operating of FC Dallas Stadium. The 35-year-old Dallas, Texas native works very closely with the teams' top executives in the continuing efforts to implement long-term solutions to help solidify the day-to-day operations of the franchise.

More recently, Hunt has taken on a greater role in overseeing the Hunt family's long-standing interest in the Kansas City Chiefs football franchise. Recently, his main focus has been on the renovation of Arrowhead Stadium, which was completed in July of 2010. He also represents the family at NFL meetings, along with his brother Clark Hunt.

In addition to his responsibilities with the family's sports franchises, Hunt serves as Vice President and General Partner of Hilltop Capital Development, a privately owned real estate and oil and gas investment enterprise. He began his business career as Vice President of New Business Development for Gemini Voice Solutions in New York City, a provider of voice-over internet protocol for home-to-home calling in the United States.

Hunt graduated from Southern Methodist University in 2000 earning a degree in Business Administration and was a member of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. Hunt was born on November 21, 1976 in Dallas, Texas and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Texas in 1996. Hunt married his long-time girlfriend, Toni Munoz on Saturday, February 18 in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

MLS GAME 1 | DAL 1-0-0

FRISCO, TX | FC DALLAS STADIUM

DAL: Hartman, Ihemelu, Pertuz, Benitez (John 85), Loyd, Villar (Warshaw 74), Shea, Jacobson, Hernandez, Perez, Castillo (Rodriguez 31).
NY: Meara, Solli, Holgersson, Keel, Miller, McCarty (Ballouchy 86), Lindpere (Palsson 77), Richards (Cooper 63), Tainio, Agudelo, Henry.

FCD opened the 2012 season with a strong start in a 2-1 victory over New York at FC Dallas Stadium. Defender Zach Loyd put FCD on the board early with a goal in 11th minute. After NY failed to clear a cross from Andrew Jacobson into the box, Loyd sent a left-footed shot past goalkeeper Ryan Meara. The goal came on an assist from Blas Perez, a Panamanian striker making his debut with FCD. Dallas had several scoring opportunities at the end of the half, finally going up two goals after Ricardo Villar lofted a shot over Meara after receiving a throw ball from Perez. The 61st minute goal gave Perez his second assist of the game. Former FCD standout Kenny Cooper came on for NY and provided the Red Bulls with its goal in the 78th minute. Cooper took in a lobbed pass from teammate Thierry Henry and sent a high chip over Kevin Hartman. The matchup concluded the teams' only match of the regular season, after NY sent FCD out of the MLS playoffs in 2011.

MLS GAME 2 | DAL 1-0-1

FRISCO, TX | FC DALLAS STADIUM

DAL: Hartman, Ihemelu, Pertuz, Benitez, Rodriguez, Loyd, Villar, Leyva (John 46), Jacobson, Hernandez, Perez.
POR: Perkins, Haney, Wallace, Palmer, Brunner, Alhassan, Jewsbury, Alexander (Marcelin 77), Chara, Boyd, Perla (Nagbe 45).

Blas Perez scored his first MLS goal but Portland substitute Darlington Nagbe kept FCD from celebrating three points in a 1-1 draw. Perez scored in the 22nd minute after a cross from Carlos Rodriguez found FCD academy product Bryan Leyva on the right side of the Timbers box. Leyva, making the first start of his career, put a hard shot on Timbers' keeper Troy Perkins that was brushed away only to find a wide-open Perez waiting to put in the rebound. Dallas provided plenty of pressure early on but after a choppy start, including early cautions to Rodney Wallace and Jack Jewsbury, the visitors came on strong to end the half. The Timbers pressed hard in the final 20 minutes of the opening stanza, getting a couple of good chances on Kevin Hartman's goal. A free kick by Timbers captain Jack Jewsbury in the 36th minute saw a header from Lovel Palmer hit the post. Hyndman brought on defender George John in place of Leyva at halftime. Portland nearly pulled away in the second half as Kris Boyd had two clear chances on Hartman's goal. One came outside of the penalty box forcing Hartman to punch it out. The second came off a giveaway by Dallas in the area with Boyd finding some space but his shot was saved once again by Hartman. Neither team was able to register any quality chances on goal in the final 20 minutes of the game, trading fouls and possession as the game ended level.

MARCH 25 VS. KANSAS CITY | L 2-1
MLS GAME 3 | DAL 1-1-1

KANSAS CITY, KS | LIVESTRONG SPORTING PARK

DAL: Hartman, Ihemelu, John, Loyd, Pertuz, Benitez, Hernandez, Jacobson, Leyva (Wiedeman 70), Villar (Warshaw 45, Perea 90), Perez.
KC: Nielsen, Besler, Collin, Myers, Slnovic, Convey (Peterson 93+), Espinoza, Kamara, Cesar, Zusi (Olum 91+), Sapong.

Kevin Hartman came up huge against his old club – once. It wasn't enough. Hartman saved Kei Kamara's penalty kick early in the second half, but Kamara got the last word when he scored in the 88th minute to give Sporting Kansas City a 2-1 victory over FCD in front of 15,161 at Livestrong Sporting Park on Sunday night. In the 25th minute, FCD made one of those fouls pay. They became the first team to score against KC this year when Ricardo Villar drove home a free kick, curling his shot over Jimmy Nielsen's wall and leaving the KC 'keeper rooted to his line after Myers was whistled for bringing down Blas Perez. Dallas seemed happy to take that 1-0 lead into the break, but it wasn't to be as Aurelien Collin equalized three-and-a-half minutes into first-half stoppage time. The goal came on a set piece after Roger Espinoza was fouled by Daniel Hernandez 35 yards out. Graham Zusi sent his free kick deep into the box, and Collin put his no-look header past Hartman for the 700th goal in Sporting's history. Pertuz almost stole three points for the Hoops in the 86th minute, but his shot from 25 yards sailed high. Two minutes later, Myers ran into the corner to corral Zusi's pass, then crossed to Kamara for the game-winner. Zusi had two assists for Sporting (3-0-0) to lead MLS with four in three games. Dallas, which got off only one shot on goal all night, dropped to 1-1-1.

MARCH 30 VS. D.C. UNITED | L 4-1
MLS GAME 4 | DAL 1-2-1

WASHINGTON D.C. | RFK STADIUM

DAL: Hartman, Benitez (Perea 76), Ihemelu, Loyd, Pertuz, Hernandez, Jacobson, Rodriguez (Leyva 69), Shea, Villar, Perez.
DC: Willis, Dudar, McDonald, Russell, Woolard, Cruz (Pontius 76), DeLeon, De Rosario (King 84), Kitchen, Santos, Salihi (Boskovic 67).

FCD fell victim to a second half surge by D.C. United, dropping a 4-1 result at RFK Stadium. A three-goal outburst in the second half proved the difference for United, spurred on by former FCD forward Maicon Santos and rookie Nick DeLeon. Meanwhile, FCD could not convert most of their scoring chances and dropped its second road decision in a row. Santos gave United their first lead of the season minutes later with a strike in the 28th minute. Receiving the ball from De Rosario, the striker quickly cut in on his left foot, and worked his way into shooting position 25 yards out. He then unleashed a rocket to the upper 90, leaving Kevin Hartman no chance. FCD fought back, and Blas Perez scored an equalizer in the last minutes of the first half. Joe Willis' clearance was chested back towards the United goal by Daniel Hernandez. Emiliano Dudar failed to deal with the ball, and Perez, who started the play in an offside position, was in on a goal. The Panamanian's finish was collected, as he slid the ball under Willis towards the far post. Santos wrapped up the scoring for United in the 73rd minute. Cruz started a quick counter from an FCD corner, and fed the ball to De Rosario down the right side. The 2011 MVP picked his cross, putting it on Santos' head at the far post. The Brazilian obliged, heading back against the grain for the 4-1 lead.

NE: Reis, Lechner, McCarthy, Soares, Tierney, Joseph, Nguyen, Rowe, Simms (Moreno 79), Guy (White 88), Sene (Cardenas 65).

Ugo Ihemelu headed in a scintillating goal deep into stoppage time to give FC Dallas a last-gasp 1-0 win over the New England Revolution at FCD Stadium. Zach Loyd placed a perfect ball from a free kick onto the left side of the box in the 95th minute. The FCD captain took advantage, rising to put the ball past Revis' keeper Matt Reis for the win. Dallas were energized by the return of forward Fabian Castillo after a three-game layoff. FCD's pressure kept the Revs on their toes throughout the game. In the 20th minute, Castillo gave his team a golden opportunity to score as he streaked down right side of the field and found Carlos Rodriguez in center of the box. The Panamanian midfielder dished out a pass to countryman Blas Pérez, but the FCD target man just missed the top right corner of the goal. FCD attempted a breakthrough in the 77th minute when rookie Matt Hedges headed in a Castillo corner. The 21-year-old was whistled for a foul on the play, dismissing the goal. Reis was summoned into action as the clock ticked down, tipping Brek Shea's deflection over the crossbar in the 87th minute. He then came off his line to head off Shea's cross to Castillo in the 91st minute. Reis could do nothing to stop Ihemelu's header, however.

Brek Shea broke away from the Montreal defense and sent the Impact packing with a scintillating game-winning goal in the 88th minute at FCC Stadium. Bernardo Corradi's first goal in MLS – from the penalty spot – had given Montreal the lead, but Blas Perez equalized in the 77th minute to set up Shea's winner. Just before halftime in the 45th minute, Castillo almost gave FCD the lead, however, Montreal goalkeeper Donovan Ricketts made a tremendous save. Montreal applied extreme pressure early in the second half paying-off when Davy Arnaud was fouled in the box by FCD defender Zach Loyd. Corradi converted on the penalty kick attempt placing the Impact at a stunning 1-0 lead. Angered by the foul call, FCD responded in a great way. In the 65th minute havoc ensued in the box after a throw-in, as both George John and Bobby Warshaw missed attempts to equalize both times. Moments later Fabian Castillo worked way in the box barely missing wide left; FCD holds firm in their defense. However, Ricketts had no chance 13 minutes from the time when Perez electrified the home crowd with a header to tie the game at 1-1. The goal came after George John's looping header hit the bar from a Daniel Hernandez free kick.

VANCOUVER, CANADA | BC PLACE STADIUM

DAL: Seitz, Loyd, Ihemelu, John, Warshaw (Hedges 90), Rodriguez, Shea, Hernandez, Guarda (Sealy 72), Castillo, Perez.
VAN: Cannon, DeMerit, Harvey, Bonjour, Young-Pyo, Davidson, Koffie, Watson, Salgado (Harris 73), Le Toux, Sanvezzo (Hassli 79).

FC Dallas remained winless on the road in 2012 as Camilo's 11th minute goal hands the visiting side their first shutout of the season. The match got off to a bumpy start for Dallas before a ball was even kicked, as starting goalkeeper Kevin Hartman had to be withdrawn from the starting lineup, with Chris Seitz replacing him. Brek Shea looked dangerous, winning a number of free kicks and having a couple of shots, but none were on target. The visitors' best early opportunity came after 38 minutes, when Blas Perez set Bruno Guarda up from close range. The Brazilian's shot had power, but was right at goalkeeper Joe Cannon, who stopped the shot before gathering the ball at the second attempt. On 75 minutes, Matt Watson got in behind FC Dallas captain Ugo Ihemelu, after Lee Young-Pyo found the rushing Englishman with an incisive pass. The midfielder in-turn found Camilo, but the Brazilian's effort was denied by Seitz with a fine reaction save. In the final minute Dallas defender Carlos Rodriguez — who appeared to be the last man back — dragged Sebastien Le Toux down. The French striker looked to be clean through but referee Edwin Jurisevic opted to give Rodriguez a yellow card rather than dismiss him.

Brek Shea drilled a penalty kick to give FC Dallas a 1-0 lead just before halftime, but Real Salt Lake's Emiliano Bonfigli answered back in 72nd minute as the clash between the two Western Conference rivals ended in a 1-1 tie at FC Dallas Stadium. Their best chance at scoring came in the 2nd minute when Paulo Junior created an opportunity for Alvaro Saborio, but the shot was saved by FCD goalkeeper Chris Seitz, who made his second start of the season in place of the injured Kevin Hartman. Without suspended striker Blas Perez, FCD came out in a 4-4-2 formation and relied heavily on Fabian Castillo and Scott Sealy. Castillo pressured the Salt Lake back line throughout the first half and had a chance to give FCD an early lead in the 19th minute but goalkeeper Nick Rimando made a nice save for Salt Lake. Just two minutes later Castillo had a golden opportunity from the center of the box, but Sealy was at the wrong place at the wrong time and blocked the shot.

Pat Noonan scored a dramatic stoppage-time equalizer as the LA Galaxy salvaged a draw against visiting FC Dallas, with the Western Conference rivals tying 1-1. FCD held a 1-0 lead in the second minute of stoppage time when Noonan slipped a ball into the left corner of the net. The goal canceled out Brek Shea's 61st-minute penalty kick. Early on, FCD seemed intent on testing Gaudette. Twice in the first minute the visitors had shots but neither attempt was on frame. Just four minutes into the second half, the Galaxy were awarded a penalty kick after Jair Benitez hauled Donovan down from behind inside the penalty area. However, Keane stepped up to take the penalty kick instead of Donovan. Keane sent his attempt wide, though, as the Galaxy failed to take advantage of the opportunity. The visitors took the lead the hour after being awarded a spot kick of their own. Gaudette took down Blas Perez inside the box and picked up a yellow card for his trouble. Shea stepped up and buried the attempt as Gaudette barely moved, and FCD went up 1-0. The Galaxy had several late opportunities, including a Beckham free kick from 20 yards out that sai, but were unable to get closer until Noonan's stoppage-time winner. After a few passes inside the penalty area, Noonan collected himself and placed the ball into the left corner of the goal.

Jaime Castrillon's 61st-minute header was all the Colorado Rapids needed to cruise to a 2-0 win against an FCD side reduced to nine men by two first-half red cards. Castrillon got on the end of a Brian Mullan cross to head the ball past FCD goalkeeper Kevin Hartman. Buoyed by their two-man advantage, the Rapids had been peppering Hartman's goal with shots before Castrillon made the breakthrough. FCD was forced to play with nine men for 55 minutes thanks to red cards to Daniel Hernandez and Blas Perez – both of which came within two minutes of one another in the first half. Hernandez was issued his first yellow card in the 25th minute for dissent. In the 34th minute, Hernandez failed to pull out of a late challenge on Rivero, sending the Argentinian to the turf and earning a second yellow and subsequent red card. Just minutes later, FCD was reduced to nine men when Perez was issued a straight red card for a reckless tackle on Rapids' defender Drew Moor. Rapids continued to pressure the nine-man FCD squad, and in the 65th minute Hill found himself in scoring position once again, but Hartman parried his volley out for a corner kick. Martin Rivero sealed the victory in the 74th minute. Dallas' best chance came in the 32nd minute, as Perez got on the end of a Hernandez corner kick but sent his header just wide of Matt Pickens' goal.

Fredy Montero scored two sensational goals in a matter of two minutes to extend Seattle's winning streak to five and give the Sounders a 2-0 road win over FC Dallas. The first of Montero's pair of scores came in the 68th minute when the Seattle striker received the ball on the right side of the box and outmaneuvered FCD defenders Hernán Pertuz and James Marcelin. Montero left both in a daze as he buried the ball in the back of the net to give Seattle a 1-0 lead. FCD tried to kill Seattle's momentum by bringing on a hobbling Brek Shea, but Montero quickly silenced the crowd with another scintillating goal, this time on a diving header that crushed any dreams of an FCD comeback. Montero put the Sounders in the driver's seat with a comfortable two-goal advantage. Without captain Ugo Ihemelu, FCD turned to rookie Matt Hedges, however, FCD failed to get anything going offensively. Perhaps their best chance at finding pay dirt came in the 39th minute when Seattle goalkeeper Bryan Meredith was forced to make an acrobatic save on Scott Sealy's header.

Both the Columbus Crew and FC Dallas snapped long scoreless streaks at Crew Stadium. Thanks to goals from Justin Meram and Sebastián Miranda, it was the home side that ran out winners, rallying past 10-man FCD to end a five-game winless streak. The visitors struck first thanks to Fabián Castillo's first goal of the season in the 22nd minute, ending a scoreless run for FCD that had reached 231 minutes. The Colombian speedster took a pass from Brek Shea along the line in front of the Crew bench. Castillo continued down the left side, cut toward the box, twisted Eric Gehrig with the dribble then bested. But the tenor of the match changed in the second half. FCD went down a man for a second time in three matches in the 63rd minute when Zach Loyd received a second caution for a foul on Meram. It took the Crew only four minutes to capitalize. Meram, who entered late in the first half after Ethan Finlay left injured, got the ball about 35 yards out after Eric Gehrig stripped the ball from Ruben Luna in the 67th minute. Five minutes later, Columbus completed their rally thanks to Miranda's snapped header from 20 yards out off a service by Nemanja Vukovic.

Panamanian countrymen Blas Pérez and Gabriel Gómez both scored their fourth goals of the year on sensational headers as FCD and the Philadelphia Union battled to a 1-1. FCD applied the pressure early and often. In the sixth minute, midfielder Andrew Jacobson pulled away from the Union defense and chipped a shot over Philadelphia goal-keeper Chase Harrison, who was just able to tip the ball and change its path. On the ensuing corner, Bryan Leyva directed the ball to the far post, which was headed into the six-yard box by George John. Seemingly out of nowhere, Pérez dove in and gave Dallas a quick 1-0 advantage. FCD continued its dominance in the first half, recording six shots on goal, including another near header by Pérez. Then, in the 73rd minute, teammate Keon Daniel sent a rocket in from outside the box that forced Kevin Hartman to make a tremendous save. FCD got its own chance in the 82nd minute. Pérez again got on the end of a ball, this time with his foot on a cross from Jair Benitez, but Harrison was there again to make the stop.

The Chicago Fire were able to win their first game against FCD with a 2-1 victory, but the win didn't come easily. It took a comeback, a penalty kick save, and a favorable call against a short-handed FCD team that had not won in seven games to break the streak with the 2-1 victory. FCD struck first in the 41st minute on a corner kick play, when rookie Matt Hedges headed home a rebound that Sean Johnson initially saved. Chicago answered four minutes later, when Sebastián Grazzini dribbled twice to his left and curled a left-footed shot just over the outstretched hand of Kevin Hartman from outside the penalty area. FCD had a golden opportunity to take back the lead in the 50th minute, when Dominic Oduro took down Bruno Guarda in the penalty area earning a penalty kick. However, Johnson brilliantly saved the ensuing Blas Perez kick, and in the 62nd minute, the Fire earned a penalty kick of their own. Hartman answered Johnson's save by saving Grazzini's kick, but Marco Pappa was there to finish the rebound.

SALT LAKE CITY, UT | RIO TINTO STADIUM

DAL: Hartman, John, Benitez, Loyd, Hedges, Marcelin (Top 82), Jackson, Leyva (Rodriguez 79), Jacobson, Hernandez, Perez.
RSL: Reynish, Tanaka, Beltran, Borchers, Grabavoy, Johnson, Alvarez, Gil (Steele 70), Espindola (Velasquez 90+), Saborio.

Real Salt Lake beat FCD 3-2, courtesy of a late game-winner from defender Nat Borchers. The scoring capped off a second-half frenzy that saw Alvaro Saborio get a brace for the hosts while Blas Perez and Matt Hedges found the back of the net for FCD. The game would finally open up in the 59th minute when substitute right back Terukazu Tanaka delivered a cross into the area that found Saborio ghosting across the six yard area. The Costa Rican was able to head it past Kevin Hartman for the 1-0 lead. Hedges crept into the area on a restart. He was in perfect position to pounce on a loose ball when RSL failed to clear a Zach Loyd chip, and his blast just cleared the line before keeper Kyle Reynish could parry it out. A minute later however, Saborio got his second goal of the match as he beat the FCD defense in the right channel after some neat build-up from Grabavoy and sub Johnny Steele. Saborio's 15-yard blast deflected off of Hedges and beat Hartman to the near post. But FCD showed determination and pulled level again in the 85th minute. This time it was Perez, who appeared to be well marked at the top of the area. Perez contrived space to turn and blast directly at Reynish, who watched in horror as the ball slipped through his fingers and into the net.

U.S. OPEN CUP THIRD ROUND | DAL 0-1-0

FRISCO, TX | FC DALLAS STADIUM

DAL: Seitz, Benitez, Hedges, John (Marcelin 41), Loyd (M. Hernandez 24), Jackson, Guarda, Jacobson, Leyva (Castillo 60), Sealy, Top.

FCD's regular-season woes carried into US Open Cup play, and as a result, they're out of the tournament. FCD lost two starting defenders in the first half and allowed a goal shortly thereafter in an eventual 2-0 loss to the USL PRO's Charlotte Eagles, in third round play of the tournament. The Eagles Nate Thornton sent in a cross to the right side of the box in the 43rd minute for Darryl Roberts, who headed the ball to the far left side of the net past a diving FCD keeper Chris Seitz. Thornton then shut the door in the fourth minute of extra time to seal the deal. FCD lost Zach Loyd in the 24th minute after a collision with an Eagle player. George John went down six minutes later after trying to compete for a header against a Charlotte forward Joseph Kabwe in the FCD defensive zone. John walked-off the field under his own power, but after being evaluated on the sideline he was subbed out in the 41st for James Marcelin. Despite the losses, FCD had some chances early, and dominated the majority of the second half, with a golden sequence that fell just short in the 68th when Scott Sealy's header rebounded off the post, followed by Matt Hedges putting one of the crossbar. But then Jackson was shown a straight red in the 78th minute for his challenge on Charlotte' keeper Clinton Irwin, forcing FCD to play out the final minutes of the match, down a man. FCD mounted a few challenges in the waning minutes, but it wasn't enough.

HOU: Hall, Ashe, Boswell, Cameron, Taylor, Carr (Clark 44), Davis, Moffat, Watson (Camargo 75), Bruin, Ching (Kandji 77).

On an Adam Moffat bomb, the Houston Dynamo laid claim to El Capitan for the second straight year with a 2-1 win over FCD in the seventh edition of the Texas Derby. In the 63rd minute FCD left back Jair Benitez elbowed Colin Clark to draw straight red from Jair Marrufo. That turned a chippy game feisty, and gave the Dynamo the advantage they needed to get back on the front foot. They got it with Moffat's goal, which he roofed after Kevin Hartman flapped at a Brad Davis corner kick. FCD nearly produced a grandstand finish despite playing with 10, forcing Dynamo' keeper Tally Hall into a series of big plays down the stretch. FCD defender Hernan Pertuz attempted clear of a Calen Carr cross found Bruin's knee and the deflection beat Hartman to the near post for the 1-0 lead. Largely through the play of Jackson and Fabian Castillo, they put Houston under pressure for the rest of the half and the start of the second. With Hall standing strong it looked like FCD would never find the equalizer, but it came in the 59th minute - and in appropriate fashion, with Jackson firing home a fortunate carom after some sterling build-up play. When they weren't fluffing clear chances, Houston were usually running into imposing Dallas rookie Matt Hedges, who steered the backline with Ugo Ihemelu and George John out. Hedges had perhaps has best game as a pro despite the scoreline.

Try as they might, there just wasn't a goal to be had at FCD Stadium. Defense was the name of the game on as FCD and Chivas USA played to a scoreless draw defined by a lack of chances and a few crucial saves. The deadlock set a new FCD franchise record winless streak at 11 games, while Chivas USA earned yet another respectable road result. With both Chivas USA and FCD even with just five first-half goals allowed this season, it wasn't a surprise that the teams went into the locker room scoreless. The best chance of the half fell to Chivas USA, which nearly took the lead in the 12th minute. Kevin Hartman could only parry Juan Agudelo's shot and the rebound fell to Alejandro Moreno, whose follow-up chance was deflected onto the bar and out for a corner kick. Jackson had a chance for the home team in the first half from well outside the area, but Dan Kennedy scrambled back in time to tip the Brazilian's shot wide of goal. Otherwise, both teams kept the other from finding chinks in either defense. FCD began to ratchet up the pressure as the game moved into the last 30 minutes, with Brek Shea nearly giving Dallas the lead twice in quick succession. A Daniel Hernandez corner found Shea at the far post, but his header was cleared off the line. A few minutes later, Shea's blast from an Andrew Jacobson cross was saved well by Kennedy.

TOR: Kocic, Morgan, Eckersley, Hall, Emory, Dunfield (de Guzman 81), Avila (Silva 68), Frings, Lambe, Koevermans (Soolsma 88), Johnson.

Toronto FC continued their revival under head coach Paul Mariner, extending their unbeaten streak to five games with a 1-1 draw against FCD at a sold out Dallas Stadium. The draw continued the home side's slump, extending their franchise-record winless streak to 12 games, now tied for the fifth-longest in MLS history. FCD jumped out to a dream start with their earliest goal of the season. In the fifth minute, a Daniel Hernandez corner was cleared to Jackson 35 yards from goal. The Brazilian sent a curling ball to Andrew Jacobson, whose smart header back across the box was in turn headed home by Zach Loyd for his second goal of the year. In what developed into a thoroughly entertaining first half, TFC equalized through Danny Koevermans in the 31st minute. A cross from Terry Dunfield was never effectively cleared with the ball eventually falling to former Dallas man Eric Avila. Avila shook Loyd and fired in a waist-high rocket that Koevermans flicked past Kevin Hartman and into the net for his ninth goal of the season. Dallas nearly took the lead back straight away in the 33rd minute, but TFC goalkeeper Milos Kocic was able to tip Fabian Castillo's stinging shot off the crossbar and away. The save was one of two Kocic had in the first half.

FCD completed their three-game homestand undefeated, but not exactly in the way they would have planned, playing San Jose to a scoreless draw on Saturday night at FC Dallas Stadium. With the draw, FCD stretched their winless streak to 13 games, tied for the fourth longest in MLS history. The Texan squad, however, can take heart in giving the Earthquakes their first road shutout of the season thanks to a pair of timely interferences by defender Hernán Pertúz and a huge late save from goalkeeper Kevin Hartman. With Ferreira back in the midfield, FCD enjoyed some good moments in what was a cagey first half as the Colombian playmaker sent hopeful balls up to lone striker Brek Shea. But it was San Jose who nearly found the net first. The Earthquakes looked to play through center forward Gordon, and his 36th-minute flick-on freed Wondolowski past Pertúz and in on goal. The MLS leading scorer was able to chip past an on-rushing Hartman, but Pertúz recovered to clear the ball off the line in a thrilling sequence. Neither side was able to find much of a foothold in the second half, but the game sprung to life in the last 20 minutes. San Jose midfielder Ramiro Corrales was shown two yellow cards in the span of four minutes for challenges on FCD left back Carlos Rodriguez. His ejection reduced the Earthquakes down to 10 men for the first time this season.

Fabian Castillo's 81st-minute goal handed FCD their first win in three months as the visitors beat Colorado 2-1 at Dick's Sporting Goods Park. Castillo followed up a Carlos Rodriguez header, drilling his effort top shelf and handing 4-9-7 Dallas their first win in 14 matches. Colorado hogged all the good chances early on, nearly breaking the deadlock several times in the game's first 20 minutes. Omar Cummings' 10th-minute open header just missed the post, and two minutes later, Jaime Castrillon's open volley right in front of goal missed high. Castrillon got the trifecta on 18 minutes, pushing a header just over the crossbar. Five minutes into the final 45 Rapids midfielder Martin Rivero found Conor Casey peeling off the FCD backline and the big forward expertly found an unmarked Cummings in all kinds of space down the right side. The Jamaican fired home for his fifth goal of the season, beating a cheating Hartman to the near post, giving the Rapids a 1-0 lead. Colorado maintained the pressure on Dallas, nearly scoring on Casey's shot in the 52nd minute and Rivero's 55th-minute effort, but against the run of play, the visitors leveled things at 1-1 shortly afterwards. Castillo's speed created room for his cross into the box, which found the substitute Rodriguez at the back post for the 60th-minute equalizer.

FCD came to California riding off their first road victory of the season, but San Jose used first-half goals from Marvin Chávez and Alan Gordon to put an end to that streak with a 2-1 victory. The Quakes survived a 94th-minute penalty-kick miss from defender Jair Benitez, who pushed his attempt just high and over the crossbar with a road point begging to be taken. Dallas (4-10-7) fell to 1-8-1 on the road this year, despite the debut of new Designated Player Julian de Guzman in midfield. That was thanks mostly to clinical finishing from Chávez and Gordon, who turned San Jose's only pair of shots on goal before intermission into back-breaking scores, and an inability by FCD's attack to punch any number of dangerous chances past the Quakes' defense until Hernán Pertuz's flying header in the 89th minute. Chávez exacted a wicked 12th-minute strike from the edge of the box, hammering a skidding cross-field pass from Shea Salinas into the far corner for his first Earthquakes goal. Gordon doubled the advantage in the 45th minute, capping a play that began with a bad pass and turnover by Benitez in his own third. The Quakes took advantage by working the ball to Sam Cronin, who looped a 35-yard pass to the far post, where a barely marked Gordon looped a header back the other way.

FCD with no wins at home in seven matches and Portland with no wins on the road all season made for an interesting matchup. FCD scored in a big way as they heaped more road misery on Portland in a 5-0 win. In the 16th minute David Ferreira sprayed a fantastic ball out to Jair Benitez. The Colombian, sent in a low, hard cross that Hanter Mosquera was unlucky to deflect past goalkeeper Troy Perkins to give FCD a 1-0 lead. FCD doubled their advantage soon after with another fantastic ball from Ferreira, this time to Zach Loyd on the right side. Midfielder Andrew Jacobson ran onto Loyd's lay-off and blasted a shot past Perkins from outside the box to give FCD their first two-goal lead in a first half this season. In the second half Ferreira kept up his man-of-the-match performance. Ferreira fed Jackson and the Brazilian midfielder beat two Timbers before sending in a shot that deflected off Fuffy Danso and into the Portland goal in the 48th minute. Sealy got into the act for FCD in the 69th minute, played through on goal by Jackson. The rout was complete in the 81st minute, when homegrown forward Ruben Luna scored a goal from a Jackson cross.

Playing without two of their three big stars, the LA Galaxy produced a fine defensive display and rode a second-half Mike Magee goal to a 1-0 win over FC Dallas. The Galaxy's central midfield duo of Marcelo Sarvas and Juninho hounded David Ferreira all evening, not allowing the Colombian to build on his two-assist performance last time out. In a cagey first half played in triple-digit temperatures, neither side was able to gain much of a foothold. Robbie Keane nearly gave LA the lead in the 35th minute, after latching onto a Magee through ball and rounding goalkeeper Kevin Hartman. But Colombian defender Hernan Pertuz slid in to clear the ball off the line. In the 62nd minute Keane controlled a bouncing ball at the top of the box and flicked it over a defender to Magee. The FCD defense chose to not close down the winger, expecting him to play a give-and-go with Keane. Instead, Magee curled a shot round a defender and into the lower corner.

The battle between the two teams at the bottom of the Western Conference ended in a stalemate as the Portland Timbers and FCD played to a 1-1 draw. A goal by FCD forward Scott Sealy in the 51st minute – beautifully assisted by midfielders Brek Shea and David Ferreira – had FCD in line for their second consecutive victory over Portland before a Zach Loyd red card and a late goal by Jack Jewsbury. After Julian de Guzman fluffed a perfect look two minutes into the second half, Ferreira, Shea, and Sealy combined to give the visitors the lead in the 51st minute. Shea snuck past a flat-footed Portland backline to get onto the end of Ferreira's perfectly weighted through ball. He then squared for Sealy, who had a simple tap-in for a goal. Less than 60 seconds later, however, FCD were down to 10 men when Loyd was sent off for dragging down Portland's Franck Songo'o, his second yellow of the game. The Timbers continued to press, and Jewsbury was in the right place at the right time to get onto the end of a Kevin Hartman punch-out, lacing a left-footed volley that evened the score in the 79th.

With the help of their Colombian contingent, FCD produced a thrilling come-from-behind 3-2 victory over a 10-man Colorado Rapids. Colorado took the lead in the 12th minute after Brian Mullan's first-time cross was smashed home by Jaime Castrillón. Despite FCD holding a 62 percent advantage in possession in the first half, Colorado nearly doubled their lead in the 34th minute. The home side found their equalizer in the 41st minute through Castillo. De Guzman played a ball to Castillo at the top of the box, blasting a low right-footed shot past Rapids goalkeeper Matt Pickens to level the score. FCD took the lead less than three minutes later when Castillo was fouled by Drew Moor. The FCD left back Jair Benitez found the back of the net, curling the free kick over the wall, past Pickens to give FCD a sensational 2-1 lead heading into the break. In the 49th minute, Ferreira received a pass from Castillo, slotting the ball past Pickens for his first goal since returning from his long injury layoff. The Rapids pulled a goal in the 55th minute in what quickly became a wild match. Colorado won a free kick about 30 yards from the goal and Larentowicz smashed a low drive that snuck through a crowded box and off the post.

In a first half that lacked much in the way of many real opportunities for either side, it was the final couple of minutes that brought the most action. Fabián Castillo opened the scoring in the 60th minute, receiving a flick on from David Ferreira before juking past a couple of Caps defenders and slotting a ball in off the post. Ten minutes later Ferreira made the play once again, outmuscling Andy O'Brien and beating Martin Bonjour on the dribble before setting Top up for the tap-in. The home side also had a chance in the 75th minute, as Jun Marques Davidson's shot was redirected by Camilo, but went just wide of the goal from close range. In the 84th minute, Alain Rochat won a header in the FCD area from a Robson free kick, but couldn't hit the target. Five minutes from time, a kerfuffle between Davidson and Ferreira following a Lee Young-Pyo foul resulted in all three players getting booked.

David Ferreira's clinical blast in the 94th minute gave FC Dallas a 2-1 win over Real Salt Lake. FCD struck first in the 61st minute against the run of play when Castillo took a ball down the left wing. After getting to the attacking third, he made a simple pass in to Ferreira, who knocked it one-time back to his fellow Colombian just inside the penalty area. With Tony Beltran trailing, Castillo took a tough-angle shot that hit the back-right corner of the net. Salt Lake began throwing numbers forward, and it finally paid off in the 76th minute of the game. Morales hit the ball toward the back post, and like he has done many times in his career, Saborio jumped high to get his head on the ball and send it into the back corner.

A defensive standoff was settled on a rare error at the back, with Jose Villarreal stripping fellow rookie Matt Hedges and feeding Juninho to start the LA Galaxy on a 2-0 win. Juninho provided a 66th-minute lead and Todd Duvivant added a second in the 84th as LA (12-11-4) climbed above .500 for the first time this season, pulling within three points of second-place Seattle and third-place Real Salt Lake in the Western Conference. Villarreal, who had come on in the 59th minute, took the ball away from Hedges about 15 yards outside the FCD box, raced past goalkeeper Kevin Hartman on the left side of the box, then rolled the ball into the goalmouth for Juninho to finish. Duvivant doubled the advantage after feeding Robbie Keane in the FCD box from the left flank. Duvivant raced forward as Keane played the ball wide to Michael Stephens, whose penetrating pass left Duvivant one-on-one with Hartman from the left. The game was mostly a tight defensive clash, with both teams' backlines in superb form – and Hedges enjoying a fine game until the giveaway.

Two players returning to the starting lineup after long injury layoffs provided goals for their teams as FC Dallas and Seattle Sounders FC played to a 1-1 draw. In the 20th minute, Zakuani received the ball on the left wing and proceeded to torch FCD right back Zach Loyd. His cross found Mauro Rosales at the back post and the Argentine tapped home his second goal of the season to give Seattle a 1-0 lead. Unsurprisingly in the 32nd minute, forward Blas Pérez, making his first start after 13 matches out due to injury, fired at goal, which turned into a pass to Jackson. Unmarked at the far post, Jackson easily slid the ball home for his third goal of the season. As the game, played in sweltering Dallas heat, wore into the second half, FCD began to push forward against a Seattle side that has never lost at FC Dallas Stadium. FCD had a golden chance to take the lead in the 68th minute when some fantastic combination play freed Jackson unmarked at the top of the box. The Brazilian took two touches before sending a low shot without much pace that Gspurning saved well to his right. FCD pushed hard for the equalizer through David Ferreira and Pérez, but they failed to create another chance as gilt-edged as Jackson's.

With six minutes of stoppage time just seconds away from expiring, Julian de Guzman chested down a corner kick from Fabián Castillo and lashed a volley past goalkeeper Brad Knighton to earn FC Dallas a vital 1-0 victory over Vancouver. The win pulls FCD within one point of the Whitecaps for the fifth and final playoff spot in the West. A Whitecaps team that led MLS with 405 fouls committed heading into the match, committed six in the first 15 minutes of the match and when Martin Bonjour pulled down Matt Hedges in the box on an FCD free kick in the 16th minute, referee Allen Chapman pointed to the spot. FCD captain David Ferreira stepped up to take the penalty kick, but Knighton, making his second straight start for the Whitecaps, brilliantly saved the Colombian's effort to keep the game scoreless. A stout FCD defense led by George John and Hedges kept Vancouver without a shot on goal through the first half. The last 10 minutes of the match turned into absolute pandemonium, FCD thought they had earned an equalizer as the clock struck 90 minutes with Blas Pérez turning in a cross from Castillo, but the assistant referee signaled an offside position keeping the game scoreless. With what was nearly the final kick of the match, it was de Guzman, chesting down a Whitecaps clearance and blasting a game-winner past Knighton to keep his team's season alive.

Blas Pérez scored in the 37th and 72nd minutes for FC Dallas, who lost an opportunity to tie Vancouver in the race for the fifth and final Western Conference playoff spot when Matt Hedges' 88th-minute goal didn't hold up. Alan Gordon put San Jose up in 24th minute, and Lenhart provided an 82nd-minute equalizer. In the 24th minute, Chris Wondolowski dummed the ball to Gordon, who easily finished past a helpless Kevin Hartman. Jackson continued to menace the Quakes, and his run through one attempted tackle, set up FCD's first goal by Blas Pérez. In the second half, Pérez knifed between Quakes center backs Victor Bernárdez and Jason Hernandez to head home David Ferreira's deft cross from the edge of the area and stake FCD to a 2-1 lead. Lenhart got San Jose even with a stabbing, 18-yard left-footed shot off a well-weighted layoff by Gordon. Hedges appeared to be the hero, slotting home the rebound after Pérez's redirection crashed off the post. Bernárdez made a twisting save off the line, but the ball fell to Hedges at four yards, and he found the empty net. Steven Lenhart bagged a late brace, in the 95th-minute, Lenhart headed home a ball flicked on by Gordon, from a cross by Justin Morrow, to keep San Jose's unbeaten streak at Buck Shaw Stadium intact.

FC Dallas squandered an opportunity to stay in close contention for an MLS Cup playoff spot by failing to protect a lead and settled for a 1-1 draw with Chivas USA. Jorge Villafaña scored a 69th-minute equalizer and Kevin Hartman was forced into three big saves in the final minutes as FCD was forced to settle for a point. Just eight minutes in, left back Jair Benitez sent a long ball to the top of Chivas' penalty area. Playmaker David Ferreira controlled it, had space and fired a shot on goal. Dan Kennedy dived and made the save, but left the rebound for Blas Pérez, who easily knocked it into an empty net for the game's first goal. Most of the rest of the first half was rather uneventful, but the hosts picked it up after the break. In the 69th minute, Nick LaBrocca played the ball out wide right to Miller Bolaños, who had been dangerous throughout the second half. The Ecuadorian midfielder then sent a ball across the goal area that Hartman appeared to get a piece of but not enough to stop its momentum. Unmarked, Villafaña knocked the ball into the back of the net.

Needing a result in the worst way, FC Dallas saw their playoff hopes disappear under a second-half onslaught from the Seattle Sounders. The Sounders took an early lead and then put FCD's playoff hopes to rest with a pair of second-half goals in a 3-1 victory. Brad Evans scored a first-half penalty, following it up with the eventual game-winner in the 60th minutes. Fredy Montero used some fancy ball-handling skills to set up the penalty in the 32nd minute. Taking a long pass from Marc Burch, Montero pinned his defender on his back and juggled the ball a couple times to set up a shot on his left foot. Before he could shoot, Hernan Pertuz dragged him and referee Baldomero Toledo immediately pointed to the spot, with Evans coolly finishing the penalty. FCD got a window of opportunity in the 41st minute when they were given a free kick 35 yards out. Ricardo Villar put in a dangerous ball to the far post that deflected back across the goal box. Perez was waiting for it, and he pounded it into the back of the net for his ninth goal of the season. The Sounders put the game away in the 79th minute when Mauro Rosales, only needed to tap in a ball that Fredy Montero had sent across the goalmouth.

FC Dallas looked to be cruising to their seventh home win of the season after second-half goals from Jackson and Fabián Castillo, however Chivas scored in the 90th and 94th minute to earn the Goats an improbable point in both teams' season finale. Winger Ryan Smith was a constant threat through the first stanza and found some space on the left side to send a cross in to the feet of Juan Agudelo. Smith took a good first touch but sent his shot wide from less than ten feet out as the clock struck 45 minutes. Blas Pérez was given a golden opportunity in the 48th minute when Castillo's ball found him unmarked in front of the goal, but his shot couldn't find the goal. The breakthrough finally came in the 73rd minute when David Ferreira sent a ball over the top to a streaking Jackson. The Brazilian took a slight touch before using his knee to chip the ball over an on-rushing Tim Melia. Castillo finally got his goal in the 80th minute beating Melia to the far post. Chivas showed late signs of life, however, as Courtois beat Hartman from the top of the box as the game moved into the 90th minute. Then in the third minute of stoppage time, Courtois crossed into the box for Agudelo to flick in for the equalizer.

About FC Dallas

FC Dallas became a charter member club of Major League Soccer on June 6, 1995, selected along with Kansas City and Colorado to give the league 10 teams for its initial year. Known originally as the Dallas Burn, the team's original colors (green and red) and logo (fire-breathing horse) were unveiled at a gala in New York City on October 17, 1995. That same day, MLS announced that Mexican-icon Hugo Sanchez was allocated to the team as its first player in team history.

Six months later, Dallas played its first MLS game, defeating the San Jose Clash in front of 27,779 fans at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas on April 14, 1996. In its second year, Dallas claimed its first major championship, winning the 1997 U.S. Open Cup title by defeating D.C. United 5-3 on penalty kicks after a scoreless game.

The team was a league-owned entity from its inception until the fall of 2003, when Lamar Hunt and his family took over the operating rights. Between 1996 and 2012, Dallas compiled a regular season record of 207-201-84 and qualified for the postseason on 12 occasions. In 2006 and once again in 2012, the club recorded its highest point total in franchise history by accumulating 52 points (Dallas earned the top seed in the Western Conference Playoffs for the first time ever in 2006).

The team changed its name to FC Dallas after the conclusion of the 2004 season. As part of the club's rebranding, new uniforms and a new logo were unveiled along with the name change. The logo features the name FC Dallas and the number 96, signifying the year the club played its inaugural game, above a drawing of a bull, signifying the kind of Texas cattle that were driven along North Texas trails throughout the 19th century. The logo features the club's new colors red, white and blue, (all of which can be found in the American flag and the state flag of Texas) with a hint of silver. After playing all of the team's home games at either the Cotton Bowl in Dallas or Dragon Stadium in Southlake, Texas for the first nine-and-a-half seasons of its existence, FC Dallas moved to its new home, FC Dallas Stadium, the third soccer-specific stadium in Major League Soccer, on August 6, 2005.

In 2006, FC Dallas formed exclusive partnerships with Mexican First Division club Tigres de la Universidad Autonoma de Nueva Leon (UANL) and Clube Atletico Paranaense of Brazil's Campeonato Brasileiro Serie A. These partnerships provide FC Dallas with an avenue to develop philosophies, practices, and training methods, as well as the opportunity to exchange players through loans. These partnerships have seen FCD play an annual home-and-away series against each club. FC Dallas won the inaugural Rio Grande Plate against Tigres in 2006, but the Mexican club claimed the plate in 2007 and 2008. Dallas retook the plate in dramatic fashion in 2011, besting Tigres in a penalty kick shootout. Atletico Paranaense won the inaugural USA-Brazil Challenge in 2007, but 2008 saw FCD claim the title.

In January 2008, FC Dallas was recognized as the 2007 Frisco Business of the Year, taking the top honor at the 24th Annual Frisco Chamber of Commerce Banquet Awards. Out of 1,300 businesses that qualified for the honor, 100 were nominated and presented in front of a nomination committee. Only four finalists were selected from the nominees, and the Frisco business leaders selection committee awarded FCD the winner.

2013 Competitions

The main goal for every team throughout the MLS regular season is to put itself in position to win the MLS Cup in November. However, along the way there are several other competitions that FC Dallas will also participate in – both international and domestic. These competitions are played during the regular season, which is why on some occasions, FCD will play against another MLS team but the results won't have an impact on the regular season standings. Below is the list of competitions for 2011.

Supporters' Shield

The Supporters' Shield is given to the team that finishes the regular season with the best record in the league (most points). In the past few years, the winner of the Supporters' Shield has represented the United States in the CONCACAF Champions Cup (now the CONCACAF Champions League), the longest running international club competition in the CONCACAF region and has crowned the champion club of the Confederation since its inception over four decades ago. FC Dallas qualified for the CONCACAF Champions League tournament in 2011 by advancing to MLS Cup in Toronto in 2010.

Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup

The U.S. Open Cup, which is recognized as U.S. Soccer's National Championship, is an annual competition open to all amateur and professional soccer teams affiliated with U.S. Soccer. The tournament has crowned a champion for 99 consecutive years dating back to 1914. Within the U.S. Open Cup framework, teams compete in one of the following four categories: professional outdoor Division I (Major League Soccer), Division II (NASL) or Division III (USL PRO); or Amateur Division (USL Premier Development League & U.S. Adult Soccer Association). FCD won the Open Cup in 1997 and has reached the final on two other occasions (2005 vs. LA, 2007 vs. NE).

Brimstone Cup

When FC Dallas and the Chicago Fire play, they play for more than the game at hand. In 2001, the team's fans joined to start the inaugural Brimstone Cup, which is handed to fans of the team that wins the season series. That year, the teams tied the season series with each team going 2-2. The fans decided goal-differential should not decide the winner of the cup, and instead left the winner to be determined by the playoff series or the U.S. Open Cup. The teams met in the 2001 playoffs, which the Fire won, in turn keeping the first-ever Brimstone Cup. After winning the series in 2002 (2-0), the teams tied the series in 2003 - Cup rules stipulate that if a team does not straight out win the series, the current holders retain the Cup. Dallas did not lose for 10 consecutive seasons beginning in 2004. FCD won 2-0 that year. In 2005, the teams split the series but Dallas won the U.S. Open Cup Semifinal matchup to keep the Cup. In 2006, FCD won both games in the series by a 3-2 score. In 2007, FCD defeated Chicago 2-1 at Toyota Park on May 17 and tied 1-1 at FC Dallas Stadium on Sept. 20, thus winning the series by the aggregate score of 3-2 and retaining the Brimstone Cup. FCD again claimed the cup in 2008, winning both games by a combined 5-1 score. The 2009 season saw FC Dallas retain the cup by going 1-1-0 against the Fire and in 2010, FC Dallas won the series 1-0-1 after defeating the Fire, 3-1 at FC Dallas Stadium. 2012 saw Dallas draw the Fire 1-1 in its season-opener, but traveled to Chicago and claimed the cup on the strength of a 2-1 road victory. Dallas fell 2-1 to the Fire in the teams' only meeting during the 2012, which was played in Chicago.

El Capitan – The Cannon

The 2006 and 2007 seasons saw the beginning of what promises to be a competitive rivalry between the two Texas MLS teams – FC Dallas and Houston Dynamo. Prior to the first-ever meeting, the teams agreed to play for something more than points in the standings during the four-game regular season series. The winner of the series would earn the right to keep a 19th century Mountain Howitzer cannon, recognizing the winning side as the best Major League Soccer team in the state of Texas during the year. Through an online poll, the fans of both teams voted to call the cannon "El Capitan."

Houston claimed the cannon during the first year, by winning the series 2-1-1. The teams met four times during regular season play in 2007, with Houston claiming the series 3-0-1. FCD and Houston met three times in 2008 with each game ending in a tie, forcing the second tiebreaker of away goals to decide the winner. FCD had the edge, outscoring Houston 4-2 on the road, which means "El Capitan" was in Dallas' possession for the 2009 season. However, the Dynamo reclaimed "El Capitan" that season. The teams battled twice early in the 2010 season, a draw at FC Dallas Stadium and a 1-0 win for Dallas in Houston's Robertson Stadium on May 5 - the first win for FC Dallas in Robertson Stadium sent the cannon back to Frisco. The Dynamo retook the cannon in the 2011 campaign, drawing Dallas 2-2 in Houston before earning a 1-0 victory in FC Dallas Stadium. Houston retained the cannon in 2012, defeating Dallas, 2-1 in BBVA Compass Stadium.
