THE ORGANIZATION

Lamar Hunt 1932-2006

Major League Soccer and the American sports community lost a true treasure on December 13, 2006 when MLS founding investor, and investor-operator of FC Dallas and Columbus Crew Lamar Hunt peacefully passed away at Presbyterian Hospital in Dallas, Texas at the age of 74.

Born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas, Hunt is recognized as one of the greatest sports visionaries in American history and a pioneer professional soccer in the United States. Hunt helped make pro football history in 1960 by founding and organizing the American Football League. Long known for his role in the development of football as founder of the Kansas City Chiefs, Hunt's contributions to pro soccer have also had a major impact on sports in the U.S.

The Hunt family stepped to the forefront of U.S. soccer in 1996 by becoming a charter investor in Major League Soccer, which was created with a unique single-entity operating structure, in which investors own an interest in the league in addition to individual teams. The Hunts were the original investor-operators of the charter teams from Columbus (Ohio) and Kansas City.

Hunt made his greatest contribution to soccer in this country in 1998-99, when he made pro soccer history by funding the construction of the first soccer-specific stadium in the United States as the Columbus Crew opened their revolutionary facility. The stadium broke ground on Aug. 14, 1998, and was finished in nine months and one day. Columbus Crew Stadium opened on May 15, 1999 and a sold-out, overflow crowd of 24,741 to watch the Crew defeat the New England Revolution 2-0.

The 1999 MLS season proved to be a historic one for Hunt, as he was awarded the National Soccer Hall of Fame Medal of Honor -- the second to receive the medal reserved for extraordinary individuals whose positive contributions to soccer at the national level affected the course of soccer history in the United States.

That year, he also saw the U.S. Open Cup Tournament renamed in his honor. The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, recognized as U.S. Soccer's National Championship, is an annual competition open to all amateur and professional soccer teams affiliated with U.S. Soccer. Dating back to 1914, the single-elimination tournament is the oldest annual team tournament in U.S. sports history.

Having taken over the operations of Dallas in 2003, Hunt's youngest son Dan joined the Hunt Sports Group to help make Texas soccer history by breaking ground on Toyota Stadium on Feb. 18, 2004. The 20,295 seat soccer-specific stadium in Frisco became the first soccer stadium built through a coordination of both private and public funds. Hunt Sports Group, the City of Frisco, Collin County and the Frisco Independent School District partnered to build the facility that features 17 championship-quality soccer fields adjacent to the stadium. Through Hunt's visionary leadership, Toyota Stadium has become the model for soccer-specific stadiums in the United States.

Since opening on Aug. 6, 2005 with a 2-2 draw between home-side FC Dallas and the New York Red Bulls, the 117-acre facility has hosted millions of spectators and participants. Entering the 2006 season, Hunt-founded Crew Stadium and Toyota Stadium were two of the three operating stadiums in Major League Soccer built specifically for soccer. The stadiums have hosted numerous high-profile events, including many memorable soccer games.

At the 2004 MLS Cup, Hunt was presented the Commissioner's Award by MLS Commissioner Don Garber for being one of the league's founding fathers as well as a man who has championed soccer in the United States for nearly 40 years.

As far back as 1982, Hunt was honored for his efforts to help establish pro soccer in America by being inducted into the U.S. Soccer Hall of Fame in Oneonta, N.Y. Hunt has also been inducted into both the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the International Tennis Hall of Fame, as well as the sports halls of fame of both Missouri and Texas. In 2005, the U.S. Soccer Foundation, the major charitable arm of soccer in the United States, presented Hunt with the Foundation's Lifetime Achievement Award.

Clark K. Hunt Hunt Sports Group Chairman

A founding investor-operator of Major League Soccer, Clark Hunt remains one of the most innovative and influential members of the MLS Board of Governors. As chairman of the Hunt Sports Group, Hunt oversees the operations of the Hunt family's two MLS interests – the Columbus Crew and FC Dallas.

Son of the late American sports pioneer Lamar Hunt, Clark Hunt shares his father's passion for soccer and the family's vision for the sport's success in the United States. At Lamar's request, Clark engaged in the formative discussions for MLS lending his proven business acumen to the league's financial structure. Now in its 20th season, MLS has earned a stake in the landscape of professional sports and is well-positioned for future growth.

In 1999, Clark Hunt worked closely with his father to construct the first "soccer-specific stadium" in the United States in Columbus. Realizing the vision of Lamar Hunt, the debut of professional soccer at Columbus Crew Stadium on May 15, 1999, represented a pivotal moment in the history of MLS and solidified the long-term viability of soccer in the United States. Six years later, in 2005, Hunt Sports Group unveiled FC Dallas Stadium, a 145-acre soccer complex in Frisco, Texas, and the home of FC Dallas.

With its 17 tournament-grade fields, permanent event stage and first-class design, FC Dallas Stadium has now become the model for soccer-specific stadiums in North America. By the 2007 season, less than a decade after the inaugural match in Crew Stadium, more than half of all MLS teams had a soccer-specific stadium to call home – a credit to the vision of Lamar Hunt and leadership of the Hunt Sports Group.

As stadium construction, new investment, player development and a broadening fan base continue to shape the soccer marketplace in North America, Clark Hunt is intimately involved in the development and direction of MLS. Hunt currently serves as one of four members of the MLS Board of Governors appointed to Commissioner Don Garber's Executive Committee. He is also a member of the Competition Committee as well as the league's Labor and Philanthropy Committees.

In addition to his roles in MLS, Hunt is also a respected voice in the National Football League. Hunt is in his eighth year as Chairman of the Board of the Kansas City Chiefs, the storied franchise founded by his father. In 2006, Hunt was one of eight NFL owners to serve on the Commissioner Search Committee which recommended Commissioner Roger Goodell as the successor to then-Commissioner Paul Tagliabue. In 2007, Goodell appointed Hunt to the NFL's Digital Media and International Committees, as well as the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in 1987, earning a degree in business administration with a concentration in finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic honor, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally ranked soccer team, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a tri-captain his final season. He was recognized as one of the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004, and in 2005, he was appointed to the Cox School Executive Board of Trustees. Hunt currently serves on the SMU Board of Trustees.

Hunt and his wife, the former Tavia Shackles of Kansas City, are involved in numerous philanthropic efforts. In 2004, the Hunts were part of the grassroots effort behind the formation of Lift Up America – an organization that facilitates widespread compassion and giving through strategic partnerships with corporations and sports teams. Since that time, more than 30 teams have partnered with Lift Up America, and corporations like Cinemark Theaters, Interstate Batteries and Tyson Foods have helped the organization distribute millions of pounds of food and countless other services to people in need worldwide.

Clark Knobel Hunt was born on February 19, 1965 and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Dallas in 1983. The Hunts have three children – Gracelyn, Knobel and Ava.

Daniel L. Hunt FC Dallas President

FC Dallas Chairman Clark Hunt announced that Dan Hunt has been appointed president of FC Dallas on Feb. 20, 2014. As president, Dan Hunt will direct all of the business operations of FC Dallas as well as FC Dallas Youth.

"It is truly a personal thrill to introduce my brother Dan as the next president of FC Dallas," Clark Hunt said. "In addition to his lifelong passion for the sport of soccer, Dan has been actively engaged in the operations of FCD and Major League Soccer for the last several years, and he did an outstanding job guiding the day-to-day operations of the club in 2013. I know he will continue to work very hard to make FC Dallas the best in MLS."

Dan Hunt has been involved in various aspects of the club for several years, beginning as a vice president for Hunt Sports Group and, most recently, as interim president of FCD since the end of the 2012 season. Hunt will also continue to play a lead role representing the club with FCD's corporate partners, the North Texas soccer community and FCD's supporters.

"Since being asked to lead the FC Dallas organization on an interim basis in November of 2012, I have considered it an absolute honor and privilege to work alongside a very talented group of co-workers," Dan Hunt said. "Today, to be asked by my brother Clark and my family to take over as president of the club is a moment I will truly treasure for the rest of my life, and I look forward to building on the tremendous legacy of my late father, Lamar, here in North Texas."

As president of FC Dallas, Dan Hunt joins Technical Director Fernando Clavijo and recently hired head coach Oscar Pareja as part of the leadership team that will report to Clark Hunt, who adds the club's CEO responsibilities to his role as chairman.
