WESTERN CONFERENCE

MLS

JOHN THORRRINGTON

EVP OF SOCCER OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

Originally named LAFC's first EVP of Soccer Operations and General Manager on December 8th, 2015, Thorrrington led LAFC to immediate on field success in its first season, as LAFC broke the all-time MLS record in points (57) for an expansion team, clinched the third spot in the Western Conference and made the semi-finals of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. LAFC also became the first team in its inaugural season to win seven away matches (since the League instituted ties in 2000). In his first year at the helm, Thorrrington built a winner from scratch, acquiring the first Designated Player in Club history Carlos Vela (MLS All-Star Captain) and explosive young Designated Player Diego Rossi. Thorrrington put together a roster that featured an MLS-high four players that appeared on their countries final and provisional rosters for the 2018 World Cup (Vela, Marco Urena, Omar Gaber, Laurent Ciman). Born in Johannesburg, South Africa and raised in Palos Verdes Estates, California, Thorrrington enjoyed a 17-year playing career that included spells in England, Germany, and Major League Soccer. Thorrrington spent time with European clubs Manchester United FC, Bayer Leverkusen, and Huddersfield Town before embarking on a career in Major League Soccer with the Chicago Fire, Vancouver Whitecaps, and DC United. Thorrrington's international career included four caps for the U.S. Mens National Team.

WILL KUNTZ

VICE PRESIDENT OF SOCCER OPERATIONS AND ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

In his second season, Will Kuntz was originally named LAFC's first Vice President of Soccer Operations and Assistant General Manager on Jan. 27, 2017. Kuntz joined the Club from the Major League Soccer League Office, where he served as Director of Player Relations, playing an active role in franchise salary budget management, the development of strategic league initiatives, and the negotiation of the 2015 MLS Collective Bargaining Agreement.

With LAFC, Kuntz works closely with General Manager and EVP of Soccer Operations John Thorrrington to build and assemble LAFC's roster of players, coordinates the club's scouting and data analysis and manages the salary budget.

Before joining MLS, Kuntz spent 10 years with the New York Yankees organization, rising from summer intern to Manager of Pro Scouting for the team, and was a part of the 2009 World Series Champions.

A Brooklyn, New York native, Kuntz attended Williams College and was a member of the Ephs 2002 National Championship basketball team. Kuntz also holds a JD from Fordham Law School.

BOB BRADLEY

HEAD COACH

One of the top managers in American soccer, Bob Bradley helped lead LAFC to one of the most successful inaugural seasons in league history. The winningest active head coach in MLS with 140 all-time victories, Bradley enters his 11th MLS season with the fourth-most wins in MLS history and one of just five active MLS coaches to win an MLS Cup.

A two-time MLS Coach of the Year, Bradley coached his 300th career match in a 1-1 tie vs. New England on Sept. 15, becoming just the eighth MLS coach to reach the milestone.

Playing an exciting, attacking style, LAFC ranked second in MLS with 68 goals, fourth with 64 assists, second in shots on goal (204) and fourth in goal differential (+16) in its first season as the Club broke the all-time record in points (57) for an expansion team, secured the third spot in the Western Conference and qualified for the semi-finals of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. LAFC also became the first team in its inaugural season to win seven away matches (since the League instituted ties in 2000).

A New Jersey native, Bradley is one of the all-time great winners in U.S. Soccer history, owning a 43-12-25 record as the head coach of the U.S. National Team from 2006-2011. Bradley led the U.S. to the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup title and a berth in the 2010 World Cup, where they won their group. His 43 wins ranks third all-time among U.S. Soccer head coaches.

Bradley became the first American to coach in the English Premier League in 2016 when he took over at Swansea City. Prior to his time in England, Bradley coached Stabæk Football in Norway (2014) and Le Havre AC in the French Second Division (2015). Bradley also served as the head coach for the Egyptian National Team from 2011 – 2013.

Prior to LAFC, Bradley brought his teams to the MLS Cup Playoffs in each of his first nine seasons as a head coach. As the first head coach in Chicago Fire history, Bradley led the expansion team to the 1998 MLS Cup Championship and U.S. Open Cup title and won his first MLS Coach of the Year award. He also guided the Fire to runner-up finishes in the 2000 and 2003 MLS Cup and the 2003 Supporters Shield. Bradley won his second U.S. Open Cup title with Chicago in 2000. Bradley served as the head coach for the New York/New Jersey Metrostars from 2003-2005 and Chivas USA in 2006 where he was named the MLS Coach of the Year for elevating the second-year team into the Playoffs for the first time, orchestrating the club's turnaround from the league's worst record in 2005. That performance once again earned Bradley MLS Coach of the year honors.

A 1980 graduate of Princeton University (where he led the Tigers in scoring his senior year while completing his B.A. in History), Bradley assumed his first head coaching job at age 22, leading the Ohio University men's soccer program (1981) while finishing his M.A. in Sports Administration at the school. Hired in 1983 by Bruce Arena to serve as his assistant at Virginia University (1983-1984), in 1984 Bradley returned to Princeton, where in twelve seasons (1984-1995) he led his alma mater to two Ivy League titles (1988, 1993) and Princeton's only NCAA Final Four berth to date (1993).

MIKE SORBER

DIRECTOR OF SOCCER OPERATIONS

Mike Sorber came to LAFC in 2018 from the Philadelphia Union where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons. The former U.S. National Team player and MLS stand-out was the first American to be named a Mexican League All-Star with UNAM Pumas in 1995. Sorber previously worked with Bradley as an assistant with the U.S. Men's National Team between 2007-2011. Other coaching stints include a stop with his alma mater, Saint Louis University (2001-2007) and the Montreal Impact (2011-2013). As a player, Sorber spent time in MLS with Kansas City, MetroStars and the Chicago Fire and was inducted into the St. Louis Soccer Hall of Fame in 2017.

ANTE RAZOV

ASSISTANT COACH

Razov previously spent time as an assistant coach with the L.A. Galaxy and Seattle Sounders FC before joining Bob Bradley's staff for LAFC's inaugural season in 2018.

A 14-year MLS veteran, Razov was a crucial member of Bradley's 1998 Chicago Fire MLS Cup team and owns three Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles (1998, 2000 and 2003). Bradley also coached Razov with the MetroStars and Chivas USA in 2006. He was a member of the MLS Best XI in 2003 and ranks fifth all-time in MLS scoring with 114 goals. A Southern California native, Razov earned 25 caps and scored six goals for the U.S. National Team.

KENNY ARENA

ASSISTANT COACH

Arena joined LAFC in 2018 from the U.S. Men's National Team where he spent time as an assistant coach. He reunited with Bradley after his brief stint playing with the Metro Stars in 2003. Prior to his time with the National Team, Arena spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the LA Galaxy (2014-2016). He has extensive experience in the NCAA, serving as the head coach of Florida International University Men's team in 2012, as an assistant at UCLA under Jorge Salcedo and George Mason University. As a player, he was originally drafted by the MetroStars in the fourth round of the 2003 MLS SuperDraft and spent three seasons in MLS before beginning his coaching career.

ZAK ABDEL

ASSISTANT COACH

Abdel brings over 16 years of coaching experience to LAFC, including time as a goalkeeper coach with the Canadian National Team (2017), Egyptian National Team (2011-2013), USMNT (2008-2011), Chivas USA (2006-2007), US Under-20's (2005) and the L.A. Galaxy (1998-2004). Abdel has been a consistent member of Bradley's coaching staff since 2006. A native of Mehalla, Egypt, Abdel began his coaching career in Southern California, serving as head coach for the L.A. Salsa (1994), Cal State Fullerton (1996-1997), Orange County Zodiac and Orange County Blue Stars (1997). Abdel enjoyed a 16-year professional career playing for Mehalla of the Egyptian First Division, winning two championships. He was also a member of the Egyptian Youth National Team program.

LAFC PERFORMANCE CENTER

Completed in April 2018, the training site and practice facility designed by Gensler Sports and located on the campus of California State University, Los Angeles, features a natural grass practice field exactly mirroring that of Banc of California Stadium, as well as locker rooms, sports medicine facilities and office space for LAFC coaches and staff. The project was completely financed by LAFC. The two-story training facility incorporates the campus' industrial and modernist design style. Hunt Construction Group served as the construction management company on the project.

Principal Building/Practice Field Features

- 30,000 sq. ft.
- Locker room, Sports medicine facilities, Weight room, Strength and Conditioning Space, Player lounge
- The design celebrates the unique character and climate of Los Angeles. Indoor / outdoor connectivity are at the root of the design.
- Every space that faces the practice pitch maximizes opportunities for players to live, work and play in the optimum Los Angeles climate.
- Natural grass practice field that mirrors Banc of California field, Latitude 36 (hybrid Bermuda), only hybrid grass in Southern California (this turf is usually used in the East Coast)
- Areas traditionally thought of as "inside spaces," such as Hydrotherapy and the Players' Lounge, have been designed as outdoor spaces to optimize their usage.
- 95,550 sq. ft. of turf
- Mowed daily and painted once a week

ABOUT ACADEMY

With a focus on developing world class players and people, LAFC's Academy provides a professional pathway for elite players with the potential to become a Homegrown player for LAFC. Originally launched with a single U12 age group in 2016, LAFC's Academy is a fully funded program that not only allows greater access to the game, but is guided by a collection of globally successful coaches and leaders. LAFC's Academy has grown to four age groups (U12-U15), with the U17 group preparing to launch for the 2019-2020 season. Although still young in its existence, the Academy has already made its presence felt on the national and international stages, with multiple players reaching already representing their countries, and a CONCACAF championship to its name. As the development of the LAFC Academy continues, its players continue to work hard to proudly represent Los Angeles on and off the field.

ACADEMY HIGHLIGHTS

- August 23, 2018 LAFC Academy became the first American side to win the U13 Concacaf Champions League, defeating Mexico's Juniors Tampico 2-0 in the final in Toluca, Mexico
- October 18, 2018 TopDrawerSoccer.com ranked the LAFC Academy No. 1 in the nation in U13, U14, and U15 age groups.
- November 9, 2018 U13 and U14 Academy teams took part in the U.S. Development Academy 2018 Regional Showcase in Oceanside, Calif., with the likes of other MLS academy teams and a few non-MLS sides, going undefeated across all age groups, including three wins out of four against MLS teams.
- November 12, 2018 21 LAFC Academy players across two age groups selected to take part in the U.S. Youth National Team Identification Center in Carson.

ACADEMY STAFF

TODD SALDAÑA

LAFC ACADEMY DIRECTOR

LAFC Academy Director Todd Saldaña is responsible for overseeing all technical aspects of the Academy, and provides a direct link for the Academy to the first team. Saldaña has played an integral part in the progress of soccer in Southern California and the greater US, having scouted, coached, and developed players who have gone on to play in MLS and for US National Teams.

Saldaña joins LAFC from the United States Soccer Federation, where he worked both as the Technical Advisor for the Southwest region and as a scout for the US Men's National Team under former Head Coach Juergen Klinsmann. He has also spent significant time with youth academies abroad, including FC Barcelona, Villareal, and Valencia.

Born and raised in Redondo Beach, California, Saldaña began his professional career when drafted by the Los Angeles Aztecs at the age of 18 where he played with the legendary Johann Cruyff.

He holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" license.

ENRIQUE DURAN

DIRECTOR OF COACHING/ACADEMY COACH

A native of Cataluña, Spain, Duran brings his expertise in global youth development to LAFC. He oversees the creation of the Academy's training methodology, balancing in both individual and team developmental concepts. Duran also is responsible for the development of the coaching staff in the Academy. Enrique spent 10 years with FC Barcelona leading projects in Spain, South Africa and Saudi Arabia.

He holds a UEFA 'A' License.

TONY VIGIL

ACADEMY MANAGER

Academy Manager, Tony Vigil, is responsible for overseeing all operational aspects of the Academy. Originally from Lancaster, CA, Vigil combines his knowledge of youth player development with valuable corporate experience. With experience on both the technical and business side of the game, Vigil provides a valuable link between the Academy and all departments within the Club.

Vigil earned his M.A. in Organizational Leadership, and also holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" license.

JOE PEHANICH

ACADEMY COACH

An LA native, Pehanich is charged with coaching the U12 age group. He brings a strong understanding of the Los Angeles youth soccer landscape to the LAFC Academy, and furthers both the player identification and developmental processes at the younger age groups.

He currently holds the USSF "A" license.

MARIUS RUS

ACADEMY COACH

Originally from Romania, Rus coaches in the Academy's U12 age group. Rus adds an important layer to the player identification and developmental aspects for the Academy.

He currently holds the USSF "B" license.

CRISTIANO SCAPOLLO

ACADEMY COACH, '04S

Originally from Italy, Scapolo has over 15 years of professional playing experience in Italy's prestigious Serie 'A' with prestigious clubs such as Napoli, Bologna, Inter Milan and Roma. Most recently, he was a Scout for US Youth and Men's National teams, as well as the Technical Director at Real SoCal-SCV in Santa Clarita.

He holds the UEFA B Coaching license and the USSF B license.

FABIAN SANDOVAL

ACADEMY COACH

Born in Compton, California, Sandoval coaches the U13 age group and helps identify potential Academy players. He brings valuable experience as both a former collegiate and professional player and coach. With strong ties to the LA community and knowledge of the youth soccer landscape across the region, Sandoval adds an important layer to player identification and talent development inside the LAFC Academy.

NEIL THOMPSON

HEAD GOALKEEPER COACH

Originally from England, Thompson has professional experience playing with the likes of Hull City, as well as experience in the UEFA Cup. Since moving to the US, he has made his coaching mark at the Academy, Collegiate and National team levels. Most recently, Thompson was an assistant coach at Division I Loyola University, as well as the Goalkeeping Director at Sockers FC in the US Development Academy. Thompson has also been selected by US Soccer for various training centers and youth national team camps.

2018 SEASON

WESTERN CONFERENCE

MLS

MEDIA GUIDE

2019 SEASON

MAKE HISTORY.

It's simple. Two words that encapsulate the LAFC ethos.

It's both a demonstrative demand and a monolith of the Club's culture. From the first team to the Academy and across all departments, it's expected and celebrated.

In the Club's inaugural season in MLS, it was a phrase that emerged time and time again as the team's exploits on the field made headlines. LAFC's season may have come to an end in the Knockout Round of the MLS Cup playoffs but the numbers speak for themselves.

The superlatives to LAFC's season came early and often in 2018. Beginning the MLS campaign with six matches away from home, the Black & Gold won its opening two matches by a combined score of 6-1. The six points out the gate put LAFC on its way to a record number of points (12) by an MLS team to start a season on the road.

By the time LAFC returned home to open Banc of California Stadium with a 1-0 victory in the dying seconds of a sold-out match with the Seattle Sounders, the team was in the midst of a six-match unbeaten run. A win against Minnesota United and draws against FC Dallas and NYCFC brought LAFC's points-total through 10 matches to 20, a record total for an expansion team to start the season. LAFC's 22 goals in that time frame, also an MLS record for an expansion team, became an early sign of the exciting style of play Bob Bradley four short months his side had been together.

The start to the summer brought more notoriety albeit with nervy times on the horizon. The start of the 2018 World Cup in Russia resulted in five LAFC players being named to the provisional squads of their respective national teams – the most of any team in MLS.

While many expected LAFC to falter with so many key players away, the team went on another unbeaten run. Six matches unbeaten with the likes of Carlos Vela, Marco Ureña, and Laurent Ciman away for varying amounts of time during the World Cup proved depth was not the concern critics initially expected it to be.

Adama Diomande announced his arrival to MLS during that time with a record seven goals in his first five matches. While halfway across the world in Russia, Vela became only the second non-American MLS player to score in a World Cup when he slotted home a penalty in Mexico's 2-1 win over South Korea.

The return of LAFC's World Cup stars coincided with its quest for the Club's first trophy in the U.S. Open Cup. Although LAFC came up short to the Houston Dynamo in penalties in the semifinal round, the Black & Gold became only the third expansion team to come within one match of the final in its first season. Along the way, fans inside Banc of California Stadium set an Open Cup record for attendance (17,898) in the midweek 3-2 quarterfinal win over the Portland Timbers.

The disappointment of the Open Cup behind them, Bradley's team renewed its focus on the run-in to the MLS season.

Another six-match unbeaten run was punctuated by a 4-2 win at the defending MLS Cup champions Toronto FC. The win was LAFC's sixth away from home, a total besting the 2015 Orlando City team for most by an expansion team in its inaugural season. LAFC would end 2018 with a total of seven wins away from home. Just two teams in the Western Conference finished with more.

That seventh away win of LAFC's season came with added significance. A 3-0 defeat of the Colorado Rapids secured the Club's place in the 2018 MLS Cup playoffs. LAFC became only the fifth expansion team in MLS history to guarantee postseason play in its first season. And with three matches remaining, LAFC had yet another chapter to rewrite in the MLS history books.

A win over the Houston Dynamo catapulted LAFC past Atlanta United's 2017 points total of 55 and level with the 1998 Chicago Fire for the most points by an MLS team in its expansion season. Earning a point in the final regular-season home match of 2018, LAFC set the new standard for a first-year team in MLS with 57 points.

Best start to an inaugural season, most points by an expansion team, playoffs in its first season, and a whole host of individual accolades, LAFC set the bar high in its first season.

* up to the 2004 season, the Scoring Champion was determined by total points, with a goal counting two points and assists counting as one. Beginning in 2005, the title was renamed the Golden Boot, and awarded to the leading goalscorer in the season. In case of a tie, the winner will be decided by the player with the most assists; if still tied, the winner will be the player with fewer minutes played.
