WELCOME

Dear Media Member,

Thank you for your continued coverage of the New England Revolution.

The Communications and Digital Staffs have prepared the 2012 media guide to further assist you with your coverage of the team and Major League Soccer. Please note that while the information is current as of February 20, 2012, up-to-date information can be easily accessed at the team's official web site, revolutionsoccer.net. Additionally, the team's Twitter feed (@NERevolution) and Facebook page (facebook.com/nerrevolution) provide breaking news, video and features. Finally, for in-game coverage of all the Revs' teams (first-team, reserves and youth teams when available), follow the team's dedicated in-game Twitter feed: @NERevsLive.

Below you will find a brief summary of the departments' contacts and each staff member's areas of primary concentration to help expedite your requests. However, every member of the staff is available to help you with any request. Should you need anything further, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Thank you again and we're looking forward to working with you in 2012.

Sincerely,

Revolution Communications, Digital and Broadcasting Staffs

CLUB HISTORY

1995

On October 17, 1995, the New England Revolution was born. Behind the leadership of Investor/Operators Robert K. Kraft, Jonathan A. Kraft and the Kraft family, the Revolution was established as one of Major League Soccer's 10 original clubs with Foxboro Stadium as its home venue. U.S. internationals Alexi Lalas and Mike Burns - a Massachusetts native - were allocated to New England as the Revs' founding players.

1996

15-17 Overall

The Revolution began its inaugural campaign under head coach Frank Stapleton, fielding star players Burns, Lalas, Alberto Naveda, Welton, and, later in the season, Joe-Max Moore. The Revs' first MLS game was a 3-2 loss at Tampa Bay Mutiny on April 13, 1996, but New England came back a week later to earn its first victory, a 1-0 win over the MetroStars. The following weekend, the Revs prevailed in their first game at Foxboro Stadium, defeating eventual MLS Cup champion D.C. United, 2-1, in a shootout. The Revs missed out on the 1996 MLS playoffs, although Foxboro Stadium was the site of the inaugural MLS Cup.

15-17 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

Thomas Rongen replaced Stapleton, who resigned at the conclusion of the 1996 season, as head coach. Rongen led the Revolution to the club's first-ever berth in the MLS Cup Playoffs, where the team fell to defending MLS Cup champion D.C. United. New England also led the league in attendance, with 342,762 fans watching Revolution soccer in 1997. The team made some notable acquisitions during Rongen's first year, including goalkeeper Walter Zenga and forward Giuseppe Galderisi.

11-21 Overall

In 1998, the team struggled throughout the club's third campaign as stalwarts Moore and Burns missed a substantial portion of the season with the U.S. National Team at the World Cup in France. The Revolution dropped nine straight games between May and early July. In August, Rongen and his staff resigned and Zenga, the Revs' goalkeeper, took over as player/coach. New England went 3-3 down the stretch. Off-season acquisition Raul Diaz Arce scored 18 goals to go along with eight assists, while Moore added seven goals and 15 assists.

12-20 Overall

Prior to the season, the Revolution acquired former U.S. Men's National Team captain John Harkes, Giovanni Savarese and Dan Calichman to help boost the team's bid to return to the playoffs. Zenga continued as player/coach, and the team made several acquisitions in mid-season - including Mario Gori, Lionel Alvarez and Jeff Baicher - but the team was unable to come together and make a run into the postseason. For the second consecutive year, the Revs made a late-season coaching change as Zenga was relieved of his playing and coaching duties and replaced by Steve Nicol for the team's final two matches. For the second time in four years, Foxboro Stadium hosted MLS Cup.

13-13-6 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

Before the start of the 2000 campaign, Sunil Gulati, a longtime executive with Major League Soccer and U.S. Soccer, was named Managing Director of Kraft Soccer. Brian O'Donovan was appointed Chief Operating Officer and former U.S. National Team defender Fernando Clavijo was named head coach. MLS also moved to three four-team divisions and eliminated shootouts to decide games. The Revs finished second in the Eastern Conference and earned the club's second-ever MLS Cup Playoffs berth on the last day of the regular season, finishing with the best record in club history. Wlode Harris scored 15 goals while Imad Baba added nine goals and eight assists and Ted Chronopoulos had five goals. The Revs advanced to the MLS Cup Playoffs, but lost to the Chicago Fire.

7-14-6 Overall

U.S. Open Cup Final (Fullerton, Calif.)

Among the Revs' newcomers for 2001 were Jamaican midfielder Andy Williams, Caté, a Brazilian playmaker, and Jay Heaps - the 1999 MLS Rookie of the Year and Massachusetts product - who was acquired in a mid-season trade. The Revolution went winless in its first six games and despite several strong stretches during the season, the team failed to qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs. In the 2001 U.S. Open Cup, however, the Revolution advanced to the championship game against the LA Galaxy. On Oct. 27, in Fullerton, Calif., the Revs took an early 1-0 lead into the second half, but LA leveled the game and Danny Califf scored two minutes into extra time to clinch the title for the Galaxy.

12-14-2 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

MLS Cup 2002 (Foxborough, Mass.)

The Tampa Bay Mutiny and the Miami Fusion ceased operations during the off-season, and the Revs acquired Steve Ralston in the resulting Allocation Draft. New England also took Taylor Twellman with the second pick in the MLS SuperDraft and acquired goalkeeper Adin Brown. The Revs went 1-2-1 on their season-opening road trip, before defeating the Dallas Burn 2-0 on May 11 in the first event held at the newly-constructed, $325 million Gillette Stadium. Twellman tallied twice in the win - two of his club single-season record 23 goals that season. Clavijo was fired on May 23, replaced on an interim basis by assistant coach Steve Nicol. The Revs went 5-0-1 down the stretch, clinching a playoff berth on the final day of the season. New England then defeated the Chicago Fire in the MLS Cup Quarterfinals, the club's first playoff series victory, before earning a series victory over Columbus in the Eastern Conference Championship to advance to MLS Cup 2002 at Gillette Stadium. An MLS Cup Playoffs record crowd of 61,316 saw the Revs lose to the Galaxy on a golden goal in the 113th minute. After earning MLS Coach of the Year honors, the Revs named Nicol head coach of the team on Nov. 6.

2003

12-9-9 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

Eastern Conference Final

Joe-Max Moore returned after a three-year stint with Everton in England, and the Revs also added key newcomers Pat Noonan, Shalrie Joseph and Matt Reis to the fold. The Revs struggled in the middle portion of the season, going two months without a win, and New England found itself mired in fifth place in early September. But the Revs went 6-0-1 to close the season and clinched second place in the Eastern Conference. Twellman (15 goals) was sidelined for the playoffs with a fractured left foot, and Noonan led the team to a victory over the MetroStars in the Eastern Conference Semifinals. In the Eastern Conference Final, the Revs missed the chance to return to MLS Cup when Chicago's Chris Armas scored the golden goal in the 11th minute of overtime. The Revs were the highest scoring team in MLS (55 goals) in the regular season.

8-13-9 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

Eastern Conference Final

It was a rollercoaster season, with the Revs earning a 1-4-2 mark through April and May before stringing together a seven-game midsummer unbeaten run. Injuries to key players saw others like Andy Dorman and Matt Reis step up, but as September began, the Revs sat in last place. However, the Revs made another late-season push - going 3-2-0 down the stretch - and used a 2-1 home victory over Chicago on the last night of the season to clinch a playoff berth. New England defeated the Columbus Crew in the conference semifinals - helped by Reis's two penalty kick saves in Game Two of the series. The Revs then played D.C. in the Eastern Conference Final at RFK Stadium, a 3-3 thriller widely considered MLS' best match ever. New England lost to the eventual champions on penalty kicks after three times coming back from one-goal deficits, capped by Noonan's 85th minute equalizer. Also in 2004, Twellman scored his 42nd goal as a member of the Revolution to become the club's all-time leading goal scorer and Clint Dempsey earned MLS Rookie of the Year honors.

17-8 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

MLS Cup 2005 (Frisco, Texas)

The Revolution had its best regular season in club history, setting team records for wins (17) and points (59). The Revs also set records with their six-game winning streak that was part of the club-record 11-game unbeaten streak to open the season. In the MLS Cup Conference Semifinals the Revs again came from behind to defeat the MetroStars on aggregate to advance to the team's fourth Eastern Conference Championship in a row, where the Revs downed Chicago, 1-0, at home on a fourth-minute Dempsey goal. In MLS Cup 2005, the Revs fell to LA, 1-0, in double overtime. Despite the championship game loss, the team accumulated many individual accolades, including Twellman claiming MLS MVP honors, Dempsey, Shalrie Joseph and Twellman earning spots on the league's Best XI squad, and unheralded first-year defender Michael Parkhurst winning Rookie of the Year accolades.

12-8-12 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

MLS Cup 2006 (Frisco, Texas)

Although the Revs returned the majority of their roster from the record-setting 2005 season, a rash of injuries and international call-ups limited the Revs' early-season success. Dempsey (U.S.) and Avery John (Trinidad & Tobago) were both named to their countries' World Cup squads and missed seven weeks of MLS action. Nicol used a different starting 11 almost every game to contend with his personnel shortages, but in what had become an annual ritual, the Revs assembled another late-season run, going 5-0-2 to close the schedule and surge into the playoffs. The Revs defeated Chicago in the Eastern Conference Semifinal series, coming back from a two-goal aggregate deficit at home in Game Two to earn the series victory in penalty kicks. Against D.C. in the Eastern Conference Championship, the Revs downed United, 1-0, for the conference crown behind Twellman's fourth-minute strike to advance to MLS Cup at Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas, for the third time in club history. The Houston Dynamo, however, was crowned champion after winning on penalty kicks, 4-3, after the 1-1 stalemate following extra time, during which Twellman's 113th-minute go-ahead goal in extra time was negated by a Brian Ching tally just over a minute later.

14-8-8 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

U.S. Open Cup Champion

MLS Cup 2007 (Washington, D.C.)

The Revs resumed their place at or near the top of the Eastern Conference standings, finishing second after another consistent season under Nicol, the longest-tenured coach in MLS. Midyear, the team won its first-ever cup championship, winning the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup behind a 2-2 victory at FC Dallas on Oct. 3 as rookie Wells Thompson scored the game-winner in the second half. The team uncharacteristically entered the playoffs winless in their final three regular-season matches, but once again reached the MLS Cup championship match, defeating the New York Red Bulls in the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series (1-0 on aggregate) and Chicago, 1-0 in the Revs' record-setting sixth consecutive Eastern Conference Championship match. At MLS Cup 2007, New England and Houston played the first-ever rematch of the previous year's final, with the Dynamo repeating the 2006 result and taking a 2-1 victory at RFK Stadium in Washington. Twellman scored his league-leading third playoff goal in the first half, but Houston struck twice in the second to repeat as champions.

12-11-7 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

SuperLiga Champion

The Revolution reached the postseason for the seventh consecutive year with a third-place finish in the Eastern Conference, but an up-and-down campaign ended with a first-round playoff exit. Despite early-season injuries to Twellman and Ralston, the Revs soared to the top of the MLS standings with a 10-4-3 record through 17 games. During a month-long break from the league schedule in July, New England became the first MLS team to win SuperLiga, a feat that was capped by a remarkable victory over the Houston Dynamo in a penalty shootout in the competition's final on Aug. 5. However, fixture congestion and a rash of injuries slowed the Revolution late in the season, as the club went 2-7-4 during the final 13 games and slipped from first to third in the conference. For the fourth consecutive year, New England met the rival Chicago Fire in the playoffs – this time in the Eastern Conference Semifinals – but for the first time in that stretch, the Fire eliminated the Revs. A 3-0 aggregate loss in the two-game series ended the Revolution's season and snapped the club's record of six straight appearances in the conference final.

11-10-9 Overall

MLS Cup Playoffs

Once again, the Revolution reached the playoffs, pushing the league's longest active streak to eight straight seasons. With Twellman still out because of injury, the Revs recorded just two wins in the first nine games of the season. Twellman returned for two games, both of which the Revs won, but was the shelled for the rest of the season with effects from a concussion. New England advanced to the semifinals of SuperLiga 2009, falling to the Fire in the semifinals, and came out of the tournament hot, going 5-1-1 in the next seven league games to move up the East standings at the end of August. Despite winning just three games the rest of the season, the team advanced to the postseason on the heels of a 1-0 win on the road at Supporters Shield winner Columbus in the final game of the regular season. The Revs also extended their streak of meeting Chicago in the postseason, matching up against the Fire in the conference semifinals. After taking a 2-1 win at home in Game One, the Revs dropped a 2-0 decision on the road to bow out of the playoffs.

9-16-5 Overall

SuperLiga runner-up

Shaped by retirements and ravaged by injuries for much of the 2010 season, the Revolution missed the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2001. Without key players like Jay Heaps (retired after 2009 season), Steve Ralston (left squad after 2009 season, returned mid-season and retired immediately), Matt Reis (offseason shoulder and knee surgeries), Taylor Twellman (concussion), Edgaras Jankauskas (series of injuries) and team captain Shalrie Joseph (series of strains, personal matters) for extended periods of time, New England registered just three wins in the 13 games leading up to the league's World Cup break in June. SuperLiga again proved to be a bright spot for the Revs, who advanced to the final but ultimately dropped a 2-1 decision to Mexican side Monarcas Morelia. Serbian forward Marko Perovic, who signed with the Revolution in late March, was joined in New England by countryman Ilija Stolica in late July. The pair left their mark on the latter part of the season, registering a goal and/or assist in five of the nine regular-season games following SuperLiga. Going 3-4-2 during that stretch, the Revs settled into sixth place in the Eastern Conference and failed to qualify for the postseason.

5-16-13 Overall

The Revolution missed the MLS Cup Playoffs for the second year in a row following a season in which the squad's five-win total set a new club low. Shalrie Joseph continued to set the scoring pace for the team with a team-high eight goals, but it was newcomers Rajko Lekic (six goals, one assist), Benny Fellhaber (four goals, team-high seven assists) and the club's first-ever Homegrown player – 16-year old Diego Fagundez (two goals, one assist) – who made headlines after joining the team. Additionally, the team added its first-ever Designated Player in Argentine striker Milton Caraglio (three goals, two assists in 12 games). Despite positive contributions from the team's newer players, the Revs finished tied for last in MLS with 28 points, and last in the Eastern Conference. Following the season, head coach Steve Nicol parted ways with the team, ending his MLS-record 10-year run with the club as he departed with 301 games under his belt as head coach.

GILLETTE STADIUM

On May 11, 2002, Gillette Stadium opened its doors as the new home of the New England Revolution and has become one of the best home fields in all of Major League Soccer. With annual world-class soccer events staged at the facility, Gillette Stadium has also become the hub of soccer in the Northeast region.

Entering the 2012 season, the Revs have posted a 71-46-36 record (.582 winning percentage) in the confines of Gillette Stadium during the regular season, and a 9-1-4 postseason mark, including MLS Cup 2002 before 61,316 fans, an MLS Cup Playoffs attendance record.

The team's combined 80 home victories in the regular season and postseason since the beginning of the 2002 season are third in Major League Soccer, and the Revs' nine home playoff wins are second in the league behind LA (13).

On an international level, U.S. Soccer has enjoyed some of its greatest success on home turf at Gillette Stadium with the men's and women's national teams posting a combined 11-2-2 record at Gillette Stadium. On May 19, 2002, the U.S. Men's National Team played its final game on U.S. soil before the 2002 World Cup, facing European powerhouse, the Netherlands. On April 14, 2007, the U.S. women kicked off their final domestic tour before the 2007 Women's World Cup with a 5-0 victory over Mexico. Gillette Stadium has also hosted matches in the 2003, 2005, 2007 and 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cups with the U.S. men going undefeated (6-0-2) at the stadium in that span.

While the U.S. has seen great success in Foxborough – a 20-2-5 mark overall including matches at the former Foxboro Stadium – the facility has also hosted other world-class soccer events. On Sept. 12, 2007, the men's national teams of Brazil and Mexico played before a record crowd of 67,684 – the largest soccer crowd ever at the stadium and in New England. Other international powerhouses who have played at Gillette Stadium include Ireland and Bolivia.

Gillette Stadium has been the site of several memorable international club friendlies, including matches between European giants Barcelona and Juventus on Sunday, July 27, 2003; Chelsea and A.C. Milan on July 24, 2005; and A.C. Milan and Internazionale on July 26, 2009. Most recently, the Revolution took on Manchester United on July 14, 2011 before more than 50,000 fans from all over the world. Other international Gillette Stadium's predecessor - Foxboro Stadium - helped begin the tradition of world-class soccer in the region. Foxboro Stadium hosted 10 U.S. Men's National Team games, where the U.S. posted a 7-0-3 all-time record. The town of Foxborough, between Foxboro Stadium and Gillette Stadium, has also played host to men's and women's World Cup Qualifiers, 1994 FIFA World Cup matches, 1999 and 2003 FIFA Women's World Cup matches, international friendly matches and Women's Gold Cup games since 1991.

FieldTurf was laid at Gillette Stadium at the conclusion of the 2006 season. It was later replaced with FieldTurf's latest technology – the FieldTurf Duraspine PRO system – in the spring of 2010, making it the first facility in North America to install the new system. Gillette Stadium's surface is FIFA 2-Star rated, and was re-certified in September 2011.

A crowd of 67,684 watched as the men's national teams of Brazil and Mexico played at Gillette Stadium on Sept. 12, 2007. The attendance figure set a New England record for soccer, and eclipsed the previous stadium mark of 61,316 (MLS Cup 2002 on Oct. 20, 2002).

ROBERT K. KRAFT

Investor/Operator

Robert Kraft is the Founder, Chairman and CEO of The Kraft Group, based in Foxborough, Mass. The Kraft

Group is the holding company of the Kraft family's many businesses, with interests concentrated in six areas: manufacturing of paper and packaging, international distribution of forest products, sports and entertainment, real estate development, private equity investing and philanthropy.

Kraft is widely recognized as one of the most successful owners in professional sports. As Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution (Major League Soccer) and Chairman and CEO of the New England Patriots (National Football League), Kraft has helped change the culture of professional sports in New England by delivering a combined 10 conference titles and three league championships in the past 16 years. In addition to building two championship-driven franchises, Kraft has committed the resources necessary to create a world-class sports and entertainment complex with his privately-financed construction of Gillette Stadium, as well as the development of Patriot Place.

Kraft's long-standing support of soccer in the United States dates back to his efforts in the early 1990s to secure Foxborough as one of the nine host venues for the 1994 FIFA World Cup. The success of the 1994 World Cup ushered in a new era in New England sports and on June 6, 1995, the Kraft family became the founding Investor/Operator of the Revolution, joining Major League Soccer for its inaugural season in 1996. Since then, the Krafts have hosted the MLS Cup championship game in Foxborough three times, including the 2002 final between the Revolution and the Los Angeles Galaxy, which was played in front of the largest crowd in MLS Cup history (61,316).

The United States' Men's and Women's National soccer teams have also enjoyed tremendous support from the Kraft family and soccer fans throughout New England. In 2011, a crowd of 64,121 fans – a Men's National Team record in New England – were in the Gillette Stadium stands as the U.S. faced defending FIFA World Cup champion Spain.

Since 1990, Foxborough has hosted 30 international matches involving U.S. teams at Foxboro Stadium (1990-2001) and Gillette Stadium (2002-present). The U.S. teams have enjoyed remarkable success in those games, compiling a combined record of 22-2-6. In addition to hosting games in the 1994 Men's World Cup, Foxborough was a host city for both the 1999 Women's World Cup and the 2003 Women's World Cup. In 1999, more than 50,000 fans watched the U.S. women defeat North Korea, 3-0, in the Women's World Cup.

Kraft is a lifelong New England sports fan who began attending Boston Patriots games during their infancy in the 1960s. When the franchise moved to Foxborough in 1971, he purchased season tickets for his family, an account he maintained for the next 23 years before purchasing the team in 1994.

The Kraft family has built the Patriots into one of professional sports' model organizations. Since purchasing the team in 1994, the Patriots have won more games (212), including more playoff games (19), more conference championships (6) and more Super Bowls (3) than any other team in the NFL. The Patriots also own two records for the longest consecutive win streaks in NFL history with 21 straight victories (including playoff games) and 10 straight playoff wins. Since 2001, the Patriots' .761 regular season winning percentage is not just the highest in the NFL, but is the highest among any team in the five largest professional sports leagues in the U.S. (including MLB, MLS, NBA, NFL and NHL).

Kraft began his business career with the Rand-Whitney Group, Inc. of Worcester, Mass., a company that converted paper into packaging for various industries. He later acquired the company. In 1972, he founded International Forest Products, a trader of paper commodities that now does business in more than 90 countries. Together, Rand-Whitney and International Forest Products comprise one of the largest privately-owned paper and packaging companies in the United States. The Kraft Group's holdings include the Rand-Whitney Group, Rand-Whitney Containerboard, International Forest Products, the New England Patriots, the New England Revolution, Gillette Stadium, Patriot Place and a portfolio of more than 30 private equity investments.

A native of Brookline, Mass., Kraft attended public schools before matriculating to Columbia on an academic scholarship. Upon graduation, he received a fellowship to Harvard Business School, where he earned a master's degree in business administration.

Kraft serves on the board of directors for Viacom. He is also on the executive committee of the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, where he established the Robert K. Kraft Family Blood Donor Center. He is a trustee emeritus at Columbia and is a trustee of Boston College. He has also received honorary degrees from several colleges and universities. The Theodore Roosevelt Award, which is presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation with outstanding accomplishments, and his induction into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences are among two of the many esteemed honors and awards that he has received.

Over the past four decades, the Kraft family has been one of New England's most philanthropic families, donating over $100 million dollars in support of local charities and civic affairs. The Krafts recently pledged $20 million to Partners HealthCare to launch the Kraft Family National Center for Leadership and Training in Community Health, an initiative designed to improve access to quality healthcare at community health centers throughout New England. In Foxborough, a $1 million donation by the Krafts helped fund the Kraft Family Center at the local branch of the YMCA, which was part of an expansion project that tripled the size of the center.

JONATHAN A. KRAFT

Investor/Operator

Jonathan Kraft is the President of The Kraft Group, based in Foxborough, Mass.

The Kraft Group is the holding company of the Kraft family's many businesses, with interests concentrated in six areas: manufacturing of paper and packaging, international distribution of forest products, sports and entertainment, real estate development, private equity investing and philanthropy.

In its sports and entertainment division, The Kraft Group's holdings include the four-time conference champion New England Revolution and the three-time Super Bowl champion New England Patriots, as well as Gillette Stadium, the world-class venue that both franchises call home. Kraft oversees the operation of all three sports entities.

As an Investor/Operator of the New England Revolution, Kraft has guided the organization from its infancy to its present position as one of the most successful and respected teams in Major League Soccer. In 1995, Kraft was involved in securing the Revolution as one of Major League Soccer's founding clubs and was principally responsible for bringing the MLS's inaugural championship game to New England in 1996. Since then, the Krafts have hosted two more MLS Cup championship games in Foxborough, including the 2002 final between the Revolution and the Los Angeles Galaxy, which was played in front of the largest crowd in MLS Cup history.

As the President of the Patriots, Kraft has been the day-to-day driving force behind the rebuilding and rebranding of the franchise since 1994, bringing long-overdue stability to the once wayward organization. It has been a remarkable transformation, as the Patriots have evolved from worst to first in many categories, both on and off the field. Over the past 18 seasons, the Patriots have won more games (212) than any other franchise, including more Super Bowls (3) and conference championships (6). The Patriots also own two of the NFL's longest consecutive win streaks, winning 21 straight (including playoffs) over two seasons (2003-04) and 10 consecutive victories in the playoffs.

In 1999, Kraft developed the creative private-financing strategy to gain approval for the construction of Gillette

Stadium. Throughout the stadium initiative, no one was more involved in each phase of the project, including the planning, construction, opening and on-going operation and development of Gillette Stadium. Kraft worked closely with stadium designers to create a world-class sports and entertainment facility that would highlight features indigenous to New England. His team delivered on the promise of a fan-friendly facility, on time and under budget.

Kraft and the project team also drew praise for innovative environmental practices. In June of 2001, the Environmental Business Council presented The Kraft Group with the Environmental Award for Corporate Leadership. In May of 2002, The Kraft Group received New England's Environmental Merit Award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for the development and construction of Gillette Stadium. On May 11, 2002, the Krafts opened Gillette Stadium, now known as one of the world's premier sports and entertainment facilities, with a match between the New England Revolution and the Dallas Burn. One week later, the U.S. Men's National Team made its first appearance at Gillette Stadium. On Oct. 20, 2002, MLS Cup returned to Foxborough for the third time in seven years, with the Revolution vying for the league's top honors in front of an MLS Cup record crowd of 61,316 fans.

A Williams College graduate, Kraft also earned an MBA from Harvard Business School. He is on the board of directors for several organizations, including the Children's Hospital Trust and Pop Warner Little Scholars, Inc. He is also currently serving as a member of the Overseers' Committee to Visit Harvard Business School and as a member of the board of trustees at Massachusetts General Hospital, Williams College and the Belmont Hill School.

Kraft is active in youth athletics, coaching Pop Warner football, youth soccer and Little League baseball in the greater Boston area. In 2006, he was the recipient of the Warner Award, named after Glenn S. "Pop" Warner. The award is presented annually and is considered Pop Warner's highest honor.

Kraft and his wife, Patti, have three children.

BRIAN BILELLO
President

Brian Bilello is in his first season as President of the New England Revolution. After serving six seasons as the club's Chief Operating Officer, he was promoted to his current position in November 2011.

As President, Bilello oversees all aspects of the club's operations, including both the team's business activities and its soccer operations. In addition to establishing the club's strategic vision and plan and fostering its implementation across the organization, he reports directly to the Kraft Family and represents the club on the MLS Board of Governors.

As Chief Operating Officer, Bilello oversaw all aspects of the team's business operations, including sales, communications, marketing, broadcasting, special events and operations. Among his accomplishments during his tenure as COO, Bilello expanded all of the Revolution's business departments, oversaw the integration of the team's jersey sponsor – UnitedHealthcare – and launched a dedicated ticket sales service group that won the MLS Presidents Cup in 2011 for season-ticket holder renewal rates.

He was also a member of the former MLS Business Development Committee, which helped develop MLS' policies relating to the League's inclusive broadcasting packages (both national and regional), jersey sponsorships, stadium commerce and retail operations, among many other initiatives.

Prior to accepting the COO role with the Revolution, Bilello served the Revolution, Patriots and Gillette Stadium in a variety of operational and strategic roles. He joined the organization in 2003 as Director of Quality and Operational Control, where he worked to improve the fan experience across all areas of Gillette Stadium. He has also run both the concessions and retail operations, and has provided strategic advice to the Kraft Family on a number of issues related to their sports ventures, in particular, MLS and the Revolution. In addition to his role with the Revolution, Bilello previously worked on other aspects of The Kraft Group's operations, including the New England Patriots, Gillette Stadium, Patriot Place and other new business ventures.

Prior to working with The Kraft Sports Group, Bilello was a management consultant at Bain & Company in the company's San Francisco and Boston offices where he worked with clients in the retail, consumer products and entertainment industries.

An avid soccer player, Bilello played varsity soccer at MIT, where he studied engineering and economics. Before joining the organization's staff, Bilello was a Revolution season ticket holder.

Bilello lives in southern Massachusetts with his wife, Vanessa, and two young daughters, Samantha (7) and Madison (5), and continues to play organized soccer in his free time.

MICHAEL BURNS
General Manager

Michael Burns enters his eighth season with the New England Revolution, and his first as the team's General Manager. He was promoted to his new role in November 2011 after four seasons as the team's Vice President of Player Personnel.

As General Manager, Burns leads all aspects of the club's soccer operations, which now includes the coaching staff, player acquisitions and scouting, in addition to continuing his oversight of the youth development program and the team's operations and management.

The former Revs defender and team captain returned to the club at the start of the 2005 season as the Director of Soccer before earning a promotion to Vice President of Player Personnel in 2008.

A true New England soccer legend, Burns was born and raised in nearby Marlborough, and was the Massachusetts High School Player of the Year in 1987 following his senior season at Marlborough High School. After a standout career at Hartwick College (1988-91), Burns became a regular for the U.S. National Team, earning 75 caps and starting two games for the U.S. in the 1998 FIFA World Cup. He was also a member of the 1994 U.S. World Cup squad.

Burns was the first player in U.S. Soccer history to represent the United States at every level of FIFA-sanctioned tournaments: Under-16 World Cup (Canada 1987), Under-20 World Cup (Saudi Arabia 1989), Olympic Games (Barcelona 1992) and World Cup (United States 1994, France 1998).

Burns was allocated to the Revolution in 1995 at the inception of MLS and he played for – and captained – New England from 1996 to 2000, before finishing his playing career with the San Jose Earthquakes (2000) and the Kansas City Wizards (2001-02). Overall, he made 169 appearances, scoring three goals and adding 21 assists. Burns also played for Viborg in the Super League in Denmark in 1995 before joining MLS.

In addition to his day-to-day duties with the Revolution, Burns serves on U.S. Soccer's Referee Committee, MLS' Technical Committee, MLS' Combine Committee and MLS' working group on officiating. Prior to returning to the Revolution in a management capacity, Burns served on the MLS Disciplinary Committee, and was also a member of U.S. Soccer's Board of Directors and the U.S. Soccer Athlete Counsel.

Burns holds a USSF "A" coaching license. He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Club of MetroWest that includes Marlborough, Hudson and Framingham.

Burns lives in the suburbs west of Boston with his wife, Jen, and their three children: Kayla (12), Trevor (10) and Garrett (6).

JAY
Head Coach

Two years after stepping away from the playing field following his 11-year Major League Soccer career, legendary Revs defender Jay Heaps returned as the new head coach of the New England Revolution in November 2011. With his appointment, Heaps brings to the bench some of his hallmark qualities that fans and teammates appreciated during his playing days: spirit, energy, charisma, toughness, passion and tirelessness.

The sixth head coach in club history, Heaps is the second-youngest active head coach in MLS behind D.C. United's Ben Olsen. A Nashua, N.H., native and Longmeadow, Mass., product, he is the first former Revs player to take the club's reins and the first New England native to coach the club.

An 11-year Major League Soccer veteran and club legend, Heaps anchored the Revolution's defense from 2001 until his retirement at the close of the 2009 season. After his retirement, Heaps remained close to the club as an ambassador and color analyst on both its television and radio broadcasts, while working in the investment banking industry.

After entering MLS in 1999 and later earning MLS Rookie of the Year honors with the Miami Fusion, Heaps returned to his hometown club in June 2001. During the next nine seasons in New England, he cemented his legacy as not only a fan favorite, but also a driving leader on the field and in the locker room during the team's run of four MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005-07). He is one of three Revs players to start all four of the Revolution's MLS Cup appearances and he was also a member of the Revolution squads that won the 2007 U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 SuperLiga trophies.

When he closed the book on his playing career in 2009, Heaps left the Revolution as the club's all-time leader in games played (243), starts (238) and minutes played (21,619) and ranked fifth on the Revs' career assist chart (26) while scoring nine goals with the Revs. Heaps also holds the distinction of being the longest-tenured Revolution player, ever.

At the league level, Heaps was ranked eighth all-time in MLS in games played (314), fourth in starts (299) and third in minutes played (27,363) at the time of his retirement. He closed his playing career with 17 goals and 34 assists overall.

Defined throughout his career by a rugged determination and dedicated team-first mentality, Heaps made at least 27 regular-season appearances in each of his 11 professional seasons. Despite his physical playing style and unquestionably fearless nature, Heaps missed just three games because of injury during eight-and-a-half seasons with the Revolution, making him one of the most reliable players in MLS history. Heaps started every match for which he was available in the last five years of his career, anchoring one of the most consistent defenses in MLS during his time in the league.

Giving credence to the saying that many improve with age, Heaps had perhaps the best seasons of his career as a defender in his final professional years. Honored as the Revolution's defender of the year for the first time in 2009, Heaps was rewarded for his stellar play with a call-up to the U.S. National Team for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup. He went on to earn all four caps on his national team résumé during the tournament, including his international debut on July 11, 2009 against Haiti in front of his hometown crowd at Gillette Stadium. Heaps is also a former member of the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 National Teams.

Heaps played collegiately at Duke where he won the 1998 Missouri Athletic Club Award as national player of the year. He was a three-time finalist for the Hermann Trophy, a four-time first-team All-ACC selection and four-time all-region choice. He left Duke's program ranked third in career goals (45), fourth in career assists (37) and tied for second in career points (127). In addition to earning Soccer America's national freshman of the year honors in 1995, Heaps also played three-and-a-half years of basketball under legendary coach Mike Krzyzewski at Duke before leaving midway through his senior year to pursue his professional soccer career. He was named one of Duke's "Top 10 Devils of the Decade" by the Duke Chronicle.

In addition to earning his USSF "B" Coaching License in December 2011, Heaps accrued three years of collegiate coaching experience during his MLS playing days with the Revolution. In 2004, he was a volunteer assistant coach at Boston College under Ed Kelly as the Eagles went 13-5-2 and advanced to the Round of 16 in the NCAA Tournament. He followed that with a two-year stint (2005-06) at Northeastern under Brian Ainscough in the same capacity.

Heaps and his wife, Danielle, live southwest of Boston and have three children: John F. "Jack" Heaps IV (6), Olivia (5) and Jude (1). Heaps is a member of the Board of Directors of AmericaSCORES New England, and was the Revs' representative to the MLS Players Union when he was a player. In 2011, he was inducted into the New England Soccer Hall of Fame.

JAY MILLER
Assistant Coach

2012 REVS:
COACHES

Jay Miller is in his first season as Jay Heaps' primary assistant coach. Miller brings more than 30 years of coaching and player evaluation experience to Heaps' staff, most notably with U.S. Soccer's youth national team programs and at the collegiate levels at the University of Tampa and University of South Florida.

Miller began his professional coaching career 1978 at Tampa, where he led the Spartans to the 1981 Division II national championship and a runner-up finish in 1983. In 1987, Miller moved to the University of South Florida, where he remained through the 1993 season.

Throughout his collegiate coaching days, Miller served in various coaching capacities with U.S. Soccer and at international competitions, including the head coach for the U.S. Under-18 squad in 1981 and 1986; the head coach for the 1985 World University Games squad and assistant coach for the 1987 team; and assistant coach for the U.S. Under-23s in 1987.

In 1994, Miller moved to U.S. Soccer in a full-time capacity, serving as the head coach for the Under-17 National Team and assistant coach for the Under-20 squad. He held both positions through the end of the 1997 world championship cycles for both teams, before moving to the U.S. National Team where he served as a scout ahead of the 1998 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to coaching, Miller was active across several departments of U.S. Soccer, working as a National Coaching Coordinator until 2002; assisting with the FIFA Technical Reports for various international competitions (including the 1994 World Cup, 1996 Olympic Games and the Women's World Cup); and serving as the Chairman of the National Coaching Committee and the assistant director of the federation's soccer schools.

Miller moved away from full-time coaching in 1998, before returning in 2001 to the Atlanta Fire United Soccer Association in Atlanta, Ga., where he was the Executive Director of Coaches until 2010. In addition to his club responsibilities, Miller was the head coach of several age levels in the Region 3 Olympic Development Program beginning in 2005. In 2006, Miller co-founded the Red Bull National League, which was a national-level tournament for the country's top Under-17 teams.

In 2008, Miller began working with the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Soccer as a sports envoy for the game of soccer, traveling to Morocco (2008), Bolivia (2009) and most recently, Thailand (2010). Miller continues to serve as a national staff instructor for U.S. Soccer's coaching schools.

Miller earned both his undergraduate degree in health and physical education (1970) and master's of education (1978) from East Stroudsburg University.

Miller is married to his wife, Lauren, a former school teacher and budding novelist. The couple has two adult daughters, Tania and Jennifer, and three grandchildren, Nichole, Tyler and Gabriel. In his free time, Miller is an avid golfer.

REMI
ROY
Goalkeepers
Coach

Remi Roy is in his third season as the goalkeepers coach of the New England Revolution after joining the coaching staff in February of 2010.

During his time with the Revolution, Roy has mentored the Revs' three current keepers – Matt Reis, Bobby Shuttleworth and Tim Murray – as they've worked with an entirely new defensive structure and personnel each season. Additionally, Roy has helped Shuttleworth develop into one of the league's top back-up keepers in the last two seasons while Reis has endured several long-term injuries.

Roy joined the Revolution after 10 years as the assistant coach/goalkeepers coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at the University of Mobile (Ala.), his alma mater. During his tenure in Mobile, Roy was also a member of the Region III goalkeeping staff since 2003, and head coach for the Port City Futbol Club, where he also served as the academy's director. Additionally, Roy served as the Puerto Rico National Team's goalkeepers coach in its preparations for the 2010 FIFA World Cup.

In addition to his various coaching positions, Roy simultaneously spent five years as a player-coach in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Syracuse Salty Dogs (2003) and the Virginia Beach Mariners (2004-07).

Roy played collegiately at the University of Mobile from 1997-99. In his final season in 1999, Roy garnered all-conference, all-region and All-America honors. Roy also played five seasons in the Premier Development League (PDL).

Roy holds a USSF "A" License and Level I and II NSCAA Goalkeeping Licenses.

A native of Peter Rocher, New Brunswick, Canada, Roy lives south of Boston. He and his fiancé, Rawlins, were engaged this past offseason and are planning a December 2012 wedding.

NICK
DOWNING
Strength &
Conditioning Coach

Nick Downing is in his first season as the New England Revolution's strength and conditioning coach, a position that was created with the hiring of head coach Jay Heaps. This is Downing's second go-around with the club, having previously played for the Revs a decade ago.

In his current position, Downing is responsible for the players' speed, strength and endurance training, as well as their overall conditioning and fitness in conjunction with both the coaching and medical staffs.

As a player, Downing joined the Revolution in 2001 after the club drafted him in the second round of the MLS SuperDraft following a stand-out three-year career at Maryland, where he was a national player of the year finalist as a junior. He made 17 appearances with the Revs between 2001 and 2002, before he spent the 2003 season on loan to the Portland Timbers, then of the USL A-League (now USL PRO). In 2004, he played his final professional season with the Charleston Battery (USL A-League), before retiring at the end of the season.

Following his playing career, Downing transitioned into the fitness profession, earning certifications from the National Strength & Conditioning Association, USA Track & Field, Functional Movement Systems and Kettlebell Concepts.

He has worked in the metro Boston area since 2005 as a fitness professional, most recently at Pure Performance Training in Needham, Mass. His clientele has included professional soccer, hockey and football players, collegiate athletes, marathoners and tri-athletes. Downing specializes in sport-specific training, including soccer-specific skill development.

Downing is a former member of the U.S. Soccer youth national team program - playing on both the U.S. Under-17 and Under-20 teams - serving as current Revs assistant coach Jay Miller's captain at the 1997 FIFA Under-17 World Championship in Egypt. Before attending Maryland, Downing was the 1998 Gatorade national player of the year in boys' soccer.

Downing and his wife, Kelly, have two daughters, Lily (2) and Ella (infant) and live in the MetroWest part of the state.

NICK KROPELIN
Soccer Operations
Manager

Nick Kropelin is in his fifth year with the New England Revolution, and the second in his current role. He joined the team in a full-time capacity in April 2008 as the team's Soccer Operations Coordinator after interning with the club in 2007. He was promoted to Soccer Operations Manager in 2011.

In his current role as Soccer Operations Manager, Kropelin works with the technical staff and players on a daily basis in all areas of team operations and player administration. In addition to scheduling, planning and operationalizing the team's off-site preseason training, he oversees the team's travel, event scheduling, players' international transition, administrative issues and team equipment maintenance, and works closely with the coaching staff and players in the day-to-day operation of the team. Additionally, he is one of the players' resources in market for housing, transportation and relocation.

In addition to his traditional team administration duties, Kropelin also directs field-level game day operations, including the management of game and league officials, visiting teams and the game day volunteer program. His visiting team responsibilities include scheduling training sessions and coordinating travel, schedules and security.

In his first stint with the Revolution in 2007, Kropelin worked closely with the team's management to execute major soccer events at Gillette Stadium, including the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup and record-setting Brazil-Mexico match. Kropelin also assisted with the team's community involvement, helping facilitate new partnerships with charitable organizations. In 2008, he worked closely with MLS to launch Fútbolito in the Boston area, selling out the event in its first-ever stop in the Northeast.

A native of Jeffersonville, Vt., Kropelin graduated summa cum laude from New England College with a degree in sport and recreation management. He was captain of the school's soccer program and was the squad's starting goalkeeper for four years. He continues to play soccer and pursue physical fitness activities in his free time.

JASON
GOVE
Soccer Operations
Coordinator

Jason Gove is in his second season with the New England Revolution, having joined the club in a full-time capacity as the team's soccer operations coordinator in the spring of 2011. In his current position, Gove works with the soccer operations staff to assist the club's technical and administrative staffs in their day-to-day duties.

Gove assists the technical staff and players in the areas of team operations and player administration, specifically on matters relating to the reserve team. He handles the reserve team's travel and administrative issues and assists with the team's equipment duties. Additionally, he assists newly-rostered players with relocation logistics, including housing and transportation.

Besides his team administration duties, Gove also helps coordinate game day operations on the field level, assisting with the management of game and league officials, visiting teams and game day operations staff.

Gove originally joined the Revolution as a member of the team's game day operations staff in 2009, and later completed a full-time internship with the soccer operations group in 2010.

Gove began his full-time position with the Revolution while simultaneously completing his final two semesters of undergraduate coursework at Nichols College, where he earned his degree in sports management in December 2011.

Gove is single and lives in the MetroWest area of the state.

SEAN KUPIEC
Head Athletic
Trainer

Sean Kupiec, ATC, PES, is in his fifth season with the Revolution as the team's head athletic trainer. In addition to being a certified athletic trainer, Kupiec is also recognized as a performance enhancement specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Kupiec's responsibilities with the Revs include overseeing and directing all aspects of the team's medical care, players' rehabilitation and sports performance, both in-season and during the offseason. For his efforts with the Revs in his first season, Kupiec was selected as the head athletic trainer for the 2008 MLS All-Star Team that defeated the English Premier League's West Ham United.

Prior to joining the Revs, Kupiec spent the 2006 and 2007 National Football League seasons with the New England Patriots as the team's athletic training intern, where he worked closely with the Pats' athletic training and strength and conditioning staffs to maintain the health and fitness of the record-setting 2007 AFC Champions. With the Pats, he also coordinated the daily responsibilities for the season and training camp interns, compiled the team's daily injury and NFL reports, and administered the team's ImPACT testing, in addition to overseeing several game day procedures with opposing teams.

Before joining The Kraft Sports Group, Kupiec spent two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, where he worked with the school's wrestling and men's and women's track and field and cross country teams, and assisted with the football team's care. Kupiec also earned his master's in exercise and sports science in 2006 while at UNC.

A native of Utica, N.Y., Kupiec graduated from Springfield College in 2004 and currently lives in Southeastern Massachusetts. He was also a featured speaker at the 2008 National Athletic Trainers Association annual meeting.

EVAN
ALLEN
Assistant Athletic
Trainer

Evan Allen, ATC, LAT, is in his second season as the assistant athletic trainer for the New England Revolution. Allen joined the Revolution from the New England Patriots, where he was a full-season intern, in January 2011.

In his role with the Revolution, Allen assists in all aspects of the team's medical care, players' rehabilitation and sports performance, both in-season and during the offseason. Allen is also the primary athletic trainer for the club's reserve squad and youth development teams.

Before being hired full-time by the Revolution, Allen spent the 2010 National Football League season with the New England Patriots as a full-time athletic training intern. With the Pats, Allen had various practice and game day medical responsibilities, and also managed the team's daily reporting to the NFL.

Allen earned his undergraduate degree at Liberty University, where he also worked as a student athletic trainer for the football, cross country, men's basketball, baseball and track and field teams. After graduating in 2008, Allen enrolled in the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's graduate school to work towards a master's degree in exercise and sport science, with a focus on sports medicine. As a graduate assistant at Chapel Hill, Allen worked directly with the men's lacrosse team, while also teaching several undergraduate courses. During his time with the Tar Heel lacrosse team, Allen helped cover a pair of runs to the NCAA Tournament quarterfinals.

Allen, a Hillsdale, Mich. native, lives south of Boston. A Tar Heel basketball fanatic, Allen was named the most outstanding athletic training student during his senior year at Liberty University.

GLENN
O'CONNOR
Massage Therapist

Glenn O'Connor is in his 11th season with the Revolution as the team's massage therapist, having joined the club in 2002. In his current position, O'Connor works in conjunction with the Revolution's medical staff to provide a variety of massage and muscle release treatments to aid athletes' rehabilitation and recovery, both at home and on the road.

In addition to his duties with the Revolution, O'Connor sees private clients at Body and Beyond Massage Therapy in Hopkinton, Mass., where he specializes in deep tissue sports massage and provides injury assessment and treatment for both professional and serious amateur athletes.

A graduate of the Muscular Therapy Institute in Cambridge, Mass., O'Connor has taken advanced training in both NeuroMuscular Therapy American Version and Myofascial Release techniques. Nationally certified by the National Certification Board for Therapeutic Massage and Bodywork, he is also a certified personal trainer and corrective exercise specialist by the National Academy of Sports Medicine. Prior to embarking on a career in massage in the late 1990s, O'Connor worked in materials management for a variety of companies which specialized in computers, networking equipment and software, including Bolt Beranek Newman and Genuity.

A member of various running clubs and a former contributor to New England Runner Magazine, O'Connor has completed hundreds of running events, including eight marathons.

A native of Arlington, Mass., O'Connor now lives west of Boston with his wife, Kimberly, and their two daughters, Kerry and Meghan.

SCOTT EMMENS
Equipment Manager

Scott Emmens is in his first season as the equipment manager of the New England Revolution, having joined the team in the offseason. Emmens' responsibilities include ordering and maintaining the team's uniforms, practice gear and equipment, and overseeing the game day equipment staff that assists in both the Revs' and visitors' locker rooms and on the field. He also works closely with the technical staff on setting up and equipping training sessions both at home and on the road.

Emmens came to the Revolution with a background in retail and equipment management. He spent the 2010 season with the Chicago Red Stars, formerly of Women's Professional Soccer, as the team's equipment and practice facility manager before the team suspended operations at the conclusion of the season. He was responsible for maintaining the team's equipment and practice facility, while assisting with various aspects of the front office's operations.

Following his stint with the Red Stars, Emmens re-located to Seattle, where he gained experience in the retail industry, most recently at Schmetzer's Sporthaus, a successful chain of stores specializing in soccer-specific gear and merchandise in the Seattle area.

A Connective native, Emmens earned his undergraduate degree in sports management from Endicott College in 2009. During his college studies, Emmens worked as an on-site camp administrator with SoccerPlus Camps in Hartford, Conn., for both overnight and day camps, assisting with the sessions' operations.

How Acquired: Drafted by the Revolution in the third round (40th overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft

An athletic central defender who loves to attack the ball, Barnes has great anticipation and timing ... has good speed and is very strong on the ball ... solid in the air and a tireless worker ... a good distributor out of the back ... has the ability to create offensive chances with his long throw-ins ... drafted by the Revolution in the third round (40th overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft, he was signed on March 17, 2009, after impressing the coaching staff during preseason trips to Texas and North Carolina ... re-signed with MLS on March 19, 2010 ... became a "Big" through Big Brothers, Big Sisters in 2010, and is currently matched with a Boston-area "Little" ... Twitter account: @D_Barnes25.

2011: Made 28 regular-season appearances, including 22 starts. Played all three positions across the back during the season: made one start at right back (at LA on March 20), 14 starts at left back and seven starts and two substitute appearances at his natural center back spot. His start at left back at Houston (April 17) marked his first-ever start in a four-man backline on the left. Came on as a 22nd-minute substitute at D.C. (July 20) at center back, marking the first time in 2011 he played in the center. Was a second-half substitute in the friendly against Manchester United (July 13). Started at center back against Chivas USA (August 6), playing two straight matches there, before returning to left back for five straight matches (Aug. 17 vs. Houston through Sept. 16 at Portland). Started at center back in his final four appearances of the season: at Chicago (Sept. 25), against San Jose (Oct. 8) and Columbus (Oct. 15) and at Toronto (Oct. 22). Also made appearances in the MLS Reserve League, including five starts. Started reserve games at central defense vs. D.C. (March 26) and at Columbus (May 9), and at left back at D.C. (June 7), at New York (June 11) and vs. Philadelphia (July 18). Also started at right back in the team's MLS U.S. Open Cup Play-In match at D.C. (April 26).

2010: Made 21 appearances, including 20 starts. Missed the season opener at the LA Galaxy (March 27) with a right hip flexor strain. Made his season debut at D.C. (April 3), coming on in stoppage time. Returned to the starting lineup in central defense in San Jose (April 17). Injured his right foot in the second half against Columbus (May 8) and missed the next six league games with the injury. Returned to action against the LA Galaxy (July 10). Played sparingly in both the left and right back spots when the team moved to a 3-5-2 alignment late in several games. Started all five SuperLiga matches in the central defense. Conceded the penalty call in the final against Morelia (Sept. 1), which resulted in Morelia's first goal.

2009: Was the only field player in MLS to play every minute (2,700) of all 30 regular-season MLS matches, while he was one of just four players in the league - including three goalkeepers - to accomplish that feat. Also started all seven matches in the Revs' outside competitions (U.S. Open Cup, SuperLiga, MLS Cup Playoffs). Became just the second rookie in MLS history to play every minute of his first season, joining former Revs defender Michael Parkhurst (2005). Served as a central defender in both a four-man and three-man backline. Played as the lone central defender when the Revs used a 3-5-2 formation in five different matches. Did not commit his first foul until the ninth game of the season at Toronto FC (May 23). Was a critical part of the Revolution defense which earned three consecutive shutouts against Kansas City (July 11), Chivas USA (July 19) and Houston (July 25) en route to a club record 386-minute shutout streak, which was finally snapped against Toronto (Aug. 1). Started both Eastern Conference Semifinal Series matches against Chicago, and all four SuperLiga matches. Played the first half of the Revs' U.S. Open Cup match against the Harrisburg City Islanders (June 30).

COLLEGE: Made 76 appearances during a four-year career at national power Duke, primarily as a central defender ... earned All-ACC honors during his senior year, recording one goal in 18 games ... helped lead the Blue Devils to NCAA Tournament appearances in each of his four seasons, while he was also a key contributor to the Duke teams that won ACC Championships in his freshman and sophomore years ... was named to the Duke/Nike Classic all-Tournament team in 2008.

PERSONAL: Son of Bobby and Deborah Barnes ... has one brother, Brandon (28) ... majored in sociology with a certificate in markets and management at Duke ... played competitive basketball from age five all the way through high school, and still enjoys playing in his spare time ... lists Notorious B.I.G., Jay-Z, Lil Wayne and T.I. among his favorite musical artists ... favorite movies include NOTORIOUS, Remember the Titans, Wedding Crashers and Bad Boys II ... favorite athletes include Michael Jordan and Eddie Pope.

How Acquired: Selected by the Revolution in the second round (14th overall) of the 2002 MLS Super-Draft; Signed on Dec. 3, 2002

The Revolution's captain, Joseph is the whole package as a player and was recognized for his career of versatile and dominating performances by being named one of three finalists for the 2009 MLS Most Valuable Player ... as tenacious a ball-winner and tackler as there is in MLS ... controls the game both ways from his defensive midfield position and is the fulcrum of the Revolution system ... Joseph's superior passing touch and good decision making means that he is the trigger-point for the Revs' build-up play ... rarely loses an aerial duel ... a talismanic presence, vocal leader and respected communicator on the field and in the locker room ... one of the team's first-choice penalty-kick takers ... enters the 2012 season as the club's career leader in several categories - appearances (243, tied with Jay Heaps), starts (239), fouls committed (410), fouls suffered (398), penalty kick goals (12) - and second in several more: minutes played (21,386), shots (309), cautions (46) and game-winning assists (12) ... has started in the midfield in each of the Revs' last three appearances in MLS Cup (2005, 2006 & 2007) ... is an eight-time selection to the All-Star team and a four-time MLS All-Star First XI vote-getter (2006-09) ... a four-time Best XI performer in his career (2005, 2007, 2008, 2009) ... earned his U.S. citizenship in 2009 ... Twitter account: @ShalrieJoseph21.

2011: A 2011 MLS All-Star. Made 32 starts in the central midfield for the Revs. Scored a team-high eight goals, matching his previous career high from 2009, and recorded one assist. Four of his goals were from the penalty spot to tie for second in MLS in the category in 2011. Tied for eighth in MLS in fouls suffered with 54 in 32 games. Scored his first goal of the 2011 season in the third minute at LA (March 20), the second-earliest goal to start a season in team history. Converted a penalty-kick attempt against D.C. United (March 26) after assisting on

Zack Schilawski's earlier goal. Missed the Houston game (April 17) while serving a red-card suspension after he was ejected from the Real Salt Lake game (April 9). Knotted the score in the 72nd minute against Sporting Kansas City (April 23), flicking on Kenny Mansally's service from a set piece. His 49th-minute penalty kick against Vancouver (May 14) proved to be the game-winner. With the successful PK, Joseph moved into sole possession of first place on the Revs' career penalty kick chart, breaking his tie with former captain Steve Ralston. Played his 20,000th career minute with the club in the 54th minute against Real Salt Lake (July 4), becoming just the second Revolution player in club history to reach the 20,000-minute played mark with the club. Also scored his fifth goal of the year off Benny Feilhaber's free kick at RSL (July 4). Started and played the full 90 minutes in the friendly against Manchester United (July 13). Missed the Philadelphia game (July 17) while serving a yellow-card accumulation suspension. Converted a 90th-minute penalty-kick attempt at Colorado (July 23) to tie the game at 2-2, his third penalty-kick goal of the year. Buried a 69th-minute penalty-kick attempt against Chivas USA (August 6). Matched his single-season high with his eighth goal of the year against Dallas (Sept. 10). Tied Jay Heaps' club starts record with 238 starts on Oct. 15 against Columbus, and claimed the record outright with his 239th career start in the next game at Toronto (Oct. 22). Also tied Heaps' club appearances record (243) in the season finale at Toronto.

2010: A 2010 MLS All-Star. Made 22 starts, recording four goals and five assists. All four of his goals came in the last six matches of the season (Sept. 22-Oct. 16). Missed the first three games of the season with a right hip flexor strain before taking a leave of absence for personal reasons on April 24. Missed five league games while away from the team (April 24-May 20). Started the home opener against Toronto (April 10) and picked up an assist on Zack Schilawski's third goal of the game. Returned to the starting lineup on May 22 at Toronto to play 90 minutes. Picked up two assists, including the game-winning assist on Zack Schilawski's 80th-minute goal, against New York (May 29). Assisted Ilija Stolica's goal against Philly (Aug. 28), and then assisted on Chris Tierney's first-career goal on Sept. 4 against Seattle. Scored his first goal of the season – and 25th goal of his career – at Dallas (Sept. 22) from Tierney, snapping the team's 238-minute road scoreless streak. Converted his penalty-kick attempt – the team's first awarded PK of the season – on Sept. 25 against Columbus. Scored the go-ahead goal at Houston (Oct. 10) off Emmanuel Osei's overhead pass off a free kick. Corralled Tierney's pass out of the backfield and scored the game-winning goal in the first half against Kansas City (Oct. 16). Made four SuperLiga appearances at central midfield, all starts. Did not play against Monarcas Morelia (July 20) as a precaution as he was carrying a yellow card. Assisted on Kenny Mansally's 56th-minute goal and converted the first penalty kick of the Revs' shootout win in the semifinals against Puebla FC (Aug. 4).

2012 REVIEWS:

2009: One of three finalists for MLS Most Valuable Player. Earned MLS Best XI honors for the fourth-straight season. Voted 2009 Revolution Team MVP. Earned MLS All-Star honors for the sixth time, but was unable to play in the match because of a bone bruise in his knee. Made 27 regular-season appearances – including 24 starts – playing as both a central midfielder and forward. His eight goals and eight assists were both career highs, and he tied Kheli Dube for the team's goal-scoring lead, earning the team's Golden Boot award. His eight assists tied him for fifth in the league. Wore the captain's armband following the season-ending injury to Steve Ralston. Overall, appeared in 29 games, starting both MLS Cup Playoff matches, as well. Missed two games because of injury and one game because of suspension. Recorded either a goal or an assist in three straight games (assist at New York on March 28, assist against Dallas on April 4 and a goal at D.C. on April 17) early in the season. His goal against Chicago (May 9) snapped the Revs' 269-minute scoreless streak. Added a pair of assists in the 4-0 win against New York (June 7), setting up Jay Heaps' game-winning goal and Taylor Twellman's 100th-career goal. The games at LA (July 4) and against Kansas City (July 11) capped a five-game spell he missed – including three SuperLiga group play matches (June 21, June 24 and June 28) – with a bone bruise in his right knee, the same injury that required him to withdraw from the MLS All-Star Game later in the summer. Returned to the lineup on July 19 against Chivas USA, assisting on Kheli Dube's game-winning goal. Established a new career high with his sixth assist on Edgaras Jankauskas' game-tying goal against Toronto (Aug. 1). Scored the game-winning goal at Seattle (Aug. 20), matching his previous career high with his sixth goal of the season. Was shown a straight red card against Kansas City (Sept. 5) and was suspended for the 2-0 loss to Chivas USA (Sept. 13). Set a new career high for goals in a season (8) and earned MLS player of the week honors for Week 28 when he scored both Revs goals in the 2-1 win over Seattle (Sept. 26), including a penalty kick in the 51st minute and the game-winning header in the 87th minute. Played every minute of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series against Chicago, serving primarily as a central midfielder but also seeing time at forward. Scored the game-winning goal in the 75th minute of the Game 1 victory, battling through a crowd of defenders and finishing from close range for his first career postseason goal.

2008: An MLS All-Star. Started 27 regular-season matches, playing primarily as a defensive midfielder but also seeing limited action as a withdrawn forward and attacking midfielder. Recorded one goal and one assist. Collected his only assist of the 2008 season on Kheli Dube's game-winning goal in the sixth minute against San Jose (May 17). Had his penalty-kick attempt at Columbus (May 24) saved by William Hesmer, but Dube scored on the rebound. Missed his first match of the season on June 12 at Houston while with the Grenada National Team. Returned unexpectedly from international duty to start in the Revolution's 1-1 draw with New York (June 18) before departing for Costa Rica to meet up with Grenada for the second leg of its World Cup Qualifying series. Also missed the match at Real Salt Lake (June 21) while representing Grenada. Was red-carded in the 74th minute of the Aug. 9 match against Chicago and served a mandatory one-game suspension at San Jose

(Aug. 16). Served as the team's captain in Steve Ralston's absence on Aug. 30 against LA and scored his only goal of the season, tying the game in the 71st minute as the teams drew, 2-2. Started in the defensive midfield at Kansas City (Oct. 11), but was pushed into a more attacking role after Ralston left the game with an injury in the 17th minute. Started all five SuperLiga matches, scoring three goals to tie for first in the competition. All three of his goals were headers off set pieces served by Steve Ralston. Recorded the game-tying strike at Chivas USA (July 20), and scored the only goal in the semifinal win over Atlanta (July 30). In the final against Houston (Aug. 5), scored the game-tying goal in the 102nd minute and notched the team's second PK in penalty kicks of the 6-5 shootout victory. Started and captained the team in the U.S. Open Cup semifinals at D.C. United (Aug. 12). Started both matches in the CONCACAF Champions League qualifying round against Joe Public FC, and in the away leg in Trinidad, drew a penalty kick which Mauricio Castro converted for the Revs' lone goal in the series. Started both matches against Chicago in the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series of the MLS Cup Playoffs. Captained the team for the final four games of the year after Steve Ralston suffered a broken leg at Kansas City (Oct. 11).

2007: An MLS Best XI selection at season's end. Was an MLS All-Star "First XI" honoree and started against Celtic FC at Dick's Sporting Goods Park in July. Started all 27 games in which he played during the regular season, missing two games with injuries and one with a red-card suspension. Scored four goals on the season: three penalty kicks (April 14 vs. TFC, May 26 vs. KC and July 22 vs. HOU) and the game-winner at Houston on May 19. Also added five assists, four of them game-winning assists. Recorded his first assist in more than a year on May 12 at Los Angeles – on Taylor Twellman's game-winning goal in the 85th minute. Was shown a red card at D.C. on May 3 and sat out the game against Chicago on May 6. Sent Khano Smith in down the left for the game-winning goal in the 1-0 victory against Colorado on Sept. 29. Played a one-two with Steve Ralston against Columbus (Oct. 13), setting up Ralston's then game-tying goal in the 83rd minute. Started and played all 90 minutes in all four of the Revs' postseason games. Recorded two assists in postseason action, setting up the play that led to Taylor Twellman's game- and series-winning goal in Game 2 of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series against New York, and then setting up Twellman's go-ahead goal in the first half of MLS Cup 2007.

2006: An MLS All-Star "First XI" selection, but was unable to play in the league's all-star match against EPL champion Chelsea FC because of the Revs' rescheduled game at Chivas USA. Voted Revolution Best Defender by the New England soccer media. Scored three goals and added one assist while controlling the Revs' midfield. Notched two goals on May 6 in the Revs' 4-0 victory over Los Angeles at Gillette Stadium. Missed the final five games of the regular season after undergoing surgery to repair torn ligaments and nerves in his right hand, but returned to start the three postseason games for which he was available. Played all 120 minutes of MLS Cup 2006, converting his shot in the game-deciding penalty kicks.

2005: Elected to the league Best XI and All-Star teams. Voted Revolution Most Valuable Player by the New England soccer media. Considered by most observers to have been the MLS Select team's best player in the Trofeo Santiago Bernabeu match at Real Madrid on August 23. Added six goals to his usual tough-tackling, accurate-passing brand of play. Recorded his first-career two-goal game against the MetroStars at Giants Stadium on Sept. 17, also adding an assist in that game.

2004: In his sophomore season in MLS, Joseph staked a claim to being the premier contention midfielder in the league. Started and played in 23 regular season matches and all three Revs playoffs games, registering three regular-season assists. Missed two games in June to play in World Cup qualifying with Grenada. Also missed action because of a broken nose (two games) and a hip flexor/quadriceps injury (three games). Accumulated just four regular season yellow cards despite playing an aggressive style, a testament to his good timing and tackling technique. Was a 2004 Sierra Mist MLS All-Star.

2003: Joseph became a force in central midfield during his rookie year with the Revolution, appearing in 28 games and finishing second on the club in minutes played with 2,466. Made his MLS debut on April 19 against Columbus at Gillette Stadium when he came on for Daniel Hernandez at halftime. One week later he made his first start in Dallas and was a fixture in Steve Nicol's starting lineup from that point on, missing just one game. Finished the season with two goals and two assists for six points and his strong partnership with José Cancela in central midfield helped spur the Revs to a 6-0-1 record during the final two months of the regular season. Played briefly in goal against Chicago on July 19. Recorded his first-career MLS point (an assist) on May 17 in a 3-0 victory over Chicago at home, then scored his first career MLS goal on Sept. 28 against Columbus in a 3-2, overtime victory at home.

BEFORE MLS: Joseph was originally drafted by the Revolution in the second round (14th overall) of the 2002 MLS SuperDraft. Pursued playing opportunities with teams in Italy and Germany before returning to the United States, where he played for the New York Freedoms of the D3 Pro-League during the 2002 season. Scored seven goals and added one assist with the Freedoms.

Nationality	Gambia	Previous Club	Real de Banjul (GAM)
Status	Senior Roster (Perm. Resident)
How Acquired:	Signed by the Revolution to a developmental contract as a youth international on September 6, 2007

A young, dynamic player who has performed at both the youth and senior international levels ... a left-footed player, he can play as both a forward or a wide midfielder ... very fast and strong on the ball, with a very hard shot ... Is also adept at free kicks and corner kicks when needed ... along with teammate Sainey Nyassi, helped lead Gambia's Under-20 Team to the knockout rounds of the 2007 FIFA Under-20 World Cup and made his debut for the country's full senior national team in June 2008 ... started his career wearing #29, but switched to #7 before the start of the 2010 season ... having joined the team late in 2007, is one of the team's most senior members despite being just 23.

2011: Made 25 regular-season appearances, including nine starts. Recorded two assists. Missed the D.C. match (March 26) while away with Gambia for the March 29 friendly against Equatorial Guinea. Made his first start of the season against Real Salt Lake (April 9), lining up as one of the three forwards. Recorded his first assist of the season – and first since the end of the 2009 season – on Shalrie Joseph's game-tying goal against Kansas City (April 23). Missed the LA game (May 28) with a left foot contusion. Scored the Revs' lone goal in the friendly against Manchester United (July 13), redirecting a free kick by Benny Feilhaber. Suffered a foul in the 90th minute at Colorado (July 23) which led to the game-tying penalty kick goal for Shalrie Joseph. Entered as a 34th-minute substitute at Kansas City (July 30) replacing the injured Stephen McCarthy and played left wing, and then moved to left back in the final minutes of the game after A.J. Soares' red card. Assisted on Milton Caraglio's second goal against New York (August 20), recording his second assist on the season before picking up a red card, which made him ineligible the next match at Philadelphia (Sept. 7). Missed the match against San Jose (Oct. 8) while on international duty with Gambia. Made three appearances, all starts, in MLS Reserve League action, scoring two goals. Both reserve-league goals came at D.C. (June 7), one on a penalty kick and one on a free kick. Started and played the first half in the team's U.S. Open Cup Play-In round game at D.C. (April 26), recording one assist in the match.

2010: Made 21 MLS appearances, including eight starts, scoring three goals. Notched two goals in a two-minute span in the Revs' 2-0 victory at D.C. (April 3), earning MLS Player of the Week honors for Week 2.

Started his first game of the season at Seattle (June 5) and started his second game of the season against D.C. (Aug. 7), playing his first full game of 2010. Scored his third league goal of the season at Kansas City (Aug. 21). Missed the Sept. 4 match against Seattle and the Oct. 10 match at Houston while with the Gambia National Team at Africa Cup of Nations qualifiers against Namibia and Burkina Faso, respectively. Tied a club record for fouls suffered (10) in a game in the season finale at New York (Oct. 21), matching Clint Dempsey's 2005 mark. Started four SuperLiga matches, scoring one goal. Scored the team's goal in regulation, and then the game-winning goal in PKs of the SuperLiga semifinal win over Puebla (Aug. 4). Missed the final against Morelia (Sept. 1) after being called up to the Gambia National Team for its Africa Cup of Nations qualifier against Namibia (Sept. 4).

2009: Appeared in 25 regular-season MLS matches, starting 19 games. Overall, made 32 appearances, including action in the U.S. Open Cup, SuperLiga and MLS Cup Playoffs. Began the season at forward, but shifted to his natural and preferred left midfield position one-third of the way into the season. Recorded one goal and two assists. Notched the game-tying goal in the 90th minute of the 1-1 draw at New York (March 28), guiding a header inside the left post. Made his first appearance at left midfield against D.C. (May 30), assisting on Joseph's game-tying goal in the 55th minute, just 10 minutes after entering the game as a halftime substitute. Earned his first start at left midfield in the 4-0 win over New York (June 7) and began the next eight games at that position. Recorded his second assist of the season on Kheli Dube's 29th-minute goal in the 1-1 draw with Colorado (Oct. 3). Started the Revs' lone U.S. Open Cup match against the Harrisburg City Islanders (June 30), playing 45 minutes at left midfield. Started all four SuperLiga matches at left midfield, scoring two goals and adding two assists to tie for the team lead in scoring during the tournament. Scored the game-tying goal in the 60th minute of the 4-2 win over Santos Laguna (June 21), while he later assisted on Kheli Dube's 82nd-minute goal. Assisted on Dube's goal in first-half stoppage time of the 1-1 draw with Kansas City (June 24). Struck for the game-winning goal against Atlas (June 28). Started at left midfield in both matches of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series against Chicago in the MLS Cup Playoffs. Assisted on Emmanuel Osei's game-tying goal in first-half stoppage time of the Game 1 victory.

Also missed the Sept. 4 match against Seattle and the Oct. 10 match at Houston while with the Gambia National Team. Before missing the Sept. 4 match, Nyassi was the only Revs player to appear in every MLS match to that point in the season.

2009: Appeared in 28 matches - including 22 starts - in the MLS regular season, recording two goals and one assist. Overall, made 35 appearances, including action in the U.S. Open Cup, SuperLiga and MLS Cup Playoffs. Earned MLS goal of the week honors (Week 3) for his game-tying strike in the come-from-behind win over FC Dallas (April 4) in the home opener. Missed playing against his identical twin brother, Sanna, by just two minutes in the 1-0 win over Seattle (Aug. 20): Sainei started the match but was replaced in the 67th minute, while Sanna entered the match in the 69th minute. Earned his second career assist on Kheli Dube's 81st-minute goal in the 4-2 loss to Kansas City (Sept. 5) after coming on as a substitute. Scored his fourth career goal in the 1-1 draw with New York (Sept. 18). Suffered a mild concussion in the 2-1 win over Seattle (Sept. 26), but recovered to make a substitute appearance in the next match against Dallas (Sept. 30) and start against Colorado (Oct. 3). Appeared as a substitute in the Revs' lone match in the U.S. Open Cup – against the Harrisburg City Islanders (June 30). Started all four matches on the right wing in SuperLiga, but did not record a goal or an assist. Started both Eastern Conference Semifinal series matches against Chicago in the MLS Cup Playoffs (Nov. 1 and Nov. 7).

2008: Appeared in 25 regular-season games, making 19 starts on the right wing. Scored two goals and added one assist in MLS action. Overall, made 33 appearances with 27 starts. Earned his first career start in the season opener against Houston (March 29), and scored his first MLS goal in stoppage time on a spectacular individual run from midfield, earning him Sierra Mist Goal of the Week honors for Week 1. Notched the game-winning goal at Kansas City (April 9). Missed the match at FC Dallas (April 24) with a right adductor strain, then suffered a left quad strain while training and missed two more games: against Chicago (May 3) and at Chivas USA (May 11). Finally returned to the field as a second-half substitute against San Jose (May 17). Started as a withdrawn forward against D.C. (May 29) while countryman Kenny Mansally was with Gambia's national team, but later returned to his normal right wing position. Picked up an assist on Adam Cristman's goal against Dallas (June 6). Missed the game at Toronto (Aug. 23) while serving his yellow-card accumulation suspension and the match at Kansas City (Oct. 11) while representing Gambia. Started all five SuperLiga matches, and helped create Kheli Dube's game-winning goal against Santos Laguna (July 13), but was not credited with an assist. Started the away leg of the CONCACAF Champions League series against Joe Public FC in Trinidad (Aug. 26).

2007: The late-season signee made his MLS debut at D.C. on Sept. 9, playing the final eight minutes on the right wing. Made just the one MLS appearance with the first team, but made four appearances with the reserve side after his signing. Scored two goals - including his first goal - against the New York reserves on Sept. 22. Scored again in his next reserve game, this time at Chicago on Oct. 7. Made his first-ever Revs appearance as a substitute winger in the Revs' victory over the Carolina RailHawks in the U.S. Open Cup semifinals on Sept. 4 when he helped create Pat Noonan's game-winning goal in extra time that sent the Revs on to the finals.

How Acquired: Traded to the Revolution from Los Angeles in exchange for Alex Pineda Chacon and a 2004 conditional pick on Jan. 17, 2003.

Considered by many to be one of the top goalkeepers in the league ... brings an unmatched presence and intelligence to the position ... positionally sound, brave in traffic and excellent with the ball at his feet, Reis is also a strong organizer and communicator ... a fantastic shot-stopper, especially on penalty kicks, and among the top choices to take PKs when needed ... holds every New England career goalkeeping record, including games played in goal (215), games started in goal (214), minutes played in goal (19,272), goals against average (1.33), wins (80), saves (868), shutouts (55) and save percentage (.725) ... set the then-MLS record for consecutive minutes played (regular-season), 7,975, which he set from Sept. 3, 2005 to Aug. 16, 2008, which FC Dallas' Kevin Hartman has since surpassed ... became the first goalkeeper in Revolution history to start 150 matches for the club in the 2009 season opener against San Jose (March 21), while he became the seventh goalkeeper in MLS history to record 50 career shutouts in the 4-0 victory over New York later that season (June 7, 2009) ... has eight career postseason shutouts (seven with the Revs) to tie for fourth all-time in MLS ... nominated for 2007 and 2008 ESPY Awards for Best MLS Player ... voted to the 2007 and 2008 MLS All-Star Games as a "First XI" (top vote-getter) selection ... a four-time MLS All-Star and a four-time finalist for MLS goalkeeper of the year (2005-08).

2011: Voted the 2011 Revolution MVP by the fans. Co-winner of the team's Humanitarian of the Year award. Started 27 matches and posted a 1.59 goals against average with five shutouts. Also recorded one assist. Made five or more saves 13 times and finished the year ranked second in MLS in saves (111). Missed a total of seven games, six because of injury: April 6 at Vancouver and April 9 vs. Real Salt Lake with a right adductor strain; April 30 at Chivas USA with a left shoulder sprain; August 20 vs. New York while serving a red card suspension and the final three games of the year (Oct. 8 vs. San Jose, Oct. 15 vs. Columbus and Oct. 22 at Toronto) with a right hamstring strain. Recorded his first shutout of the season on May 7 - and first since Aug. 14, 2010 (1-0 win over Houston) - with a one-save effort over Colorado. Made six saves against Vancouver (May 14) to record his second consecutive shutout. Saw his 271-minute scoreless streak snapped at San Jose (May 21) by Ellis McLoughlin's 71st-minute goal. Posted his third shutout of the season with a three-save effort against Toronto (June 15), a match which was also his 200th appearance as a member of the Revs. His 200th career start with the Revs came one match later against Chicago (June 18), when he made five saves in a 1-1 draw. Faced 12 shots (second-most in MLS in 2011) and made a season-high nine saves (tied for second most in a single game in MLS in 2011) against Real Salt Lake (July 4). Started and made two saves - including a diving, one-handed sprawl to his left on Dimitar Berbatov - against Manchester United (July 13). Made six saves en route to his fourth shutout of the season in a 1-0 win at D.C. (July 20), snapping the team's nine-game winless streak in an effort the team dedicated to Myra Kraft, wife of Investor/Operator Robert Kraft, who passed away earlier that morning. Assisted Rajko Lekic on the Revs' only goal at Kansas City (July 30), his first assist since 2007. Made seven saves against Houston (Aug. 17) and received a 94th minute red-card for a fracas that happened just before the final whistle. Made seven saves against Philadelphia (Sept. 7) and followed it up with an eight-save performance and a shutout against Dallas (Sept. 10).

2010: Missed the first three-and-a-half months of the regular season recovering from off-season shoulder and knee surgeries, and had a stint on the disabled list (April 30-June 1) and then saw his season end prematurely when he underwent season-ending ankle surgery on Oct. 13. Made just 14 appearances, all starts, going 4-7-3 with a 1.79 goals against average and three shutouts. His 1,260 minutes played marked his lowest season total since his first season in New England (2002, 458 minutes). Made his first regular-season appearance of the year in the team's 1-0 loss to Chicago (June 27), making three saves. Picked up his first shutout and win of the season in the Revs 2-0 win over the LA Galaxy (July 10), making five saves. Made three saves in the Revs 1-1 draw with Philadelphia (July 31). Was in net when the club set a team-record 390-minute shutout streak in all competitions from July 2 - July 31. Picked up his second shutout of 2010 and made a season-high six saves in the Revs 1-0 win over D.C. (Aug. 7). Posted his third shutout in league games with another six-save performance against Houston (Aug. 14). Did not play against Philly (Aug. 28) because of lower back pain, but returned to the lineup on Sept. 4 against Seattle, making two saves in his 75th career win as a member of the Revolution. Did not play at Houston (Oct. 10) and underwent debridement surgery on his right ankle on Oct. 13, forcing him to miss the rest of the season. Made four SuperLiga appearances, all starts. Went 2-1-1 in the tournament. Posted a three-save shutout to earn the 1-0 win at Chicago (July 17) in group play, and recorded another shutout and made three saves in the win over Monarcas Morelia (July 20). Made four saves, converted a penalty kick and stopped a Puebla penalty kick attempt in the Revs 5-3 shutout win in the semifinal round. Made six saves in the final against Morelia (Sept. 1), allowing two goals in the loss.

2009: Made 24 regular-season starts, going 10-8-6 with a career-best 0.96 goals against average and eight shutouts. Overall, appeared in 30 matches, including SuperLiga and MLS Cup Playoffs. Led the league in both saves (114) and save percentage (.814), while his GAA (0.96) was fourth best in the league. Established a new club record shutout streak by going 386 consecutive minutes without allowing a goal from July 4 - Aug. 1, 2009. Missed six games because of injury, including four games (March 28 - April 25) with inflammation in his right knee, one game (May 16) with a concussion, and one game (Sept. 5) with a right leg contusion. Earned a four-save shutout in the season-opening, 1-0 win over the San Jose Earthquakes (March 21). Made three saves to earn his 50th career shutout in the 4-0 win over the New York Red Bulls (June 7). Made a career-high 11 saves in the 0-0 draw with Kansas City (July 11). Recorded another clean sheet with three saves in the 2-0 win over Chivas USA (July 19), while he earned his third straight shutout with an eight-save performance in the 1-0 win over Houston (July 25). Finally allowed a goal in the 34th minute of the 1-1 draw with Toronto FC (Aug. 1), ending the longest shutout streak in Revolution history at 386 minutes. Was not forced to make a save while earning a shutout in the 1-0 win over Seattle (Aug. 20). Made his 200th career start in the 2-1 win over San Jose (Aug. 29). Became the fifth player in Revolution history to play 15,000 minutes for the club in the 1-1 draw with New York (Sept. 18). Made four saves to earn a clean sheet in the 0-0 draw with Chicago (Oct. 17) after passing a late fitness test for a sprained left ankle. Stopped two shots to record his second consecutive shutout - and his eighth of the season - in the playoff-clinching, 1-0 win over Columbus (Oct. 25). Started all four matches in SuperLiga, going 2-1-1 with a 1.25 goals against average and one shutout. Played in both matches of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series against Chicago in the MLS Cup Playoffs, going 1-1-0 with a 1.50 goals against average. Earned his ninth career postseason victory (and his eighth with the Revs) in the 2-1 victory in Game 1 (Nov. 1). Matched his postseason career-high with 10 saves in the 2-0 loss in Game 2 (Nov. 7).

2008: Started 28 regular-season games, missing two in August with a right adductor (groin) injury - his first missed starts since 2005. Overall, made 36 appearances, including regular season, playoffs, CONCACAF Champions League and SuperLiga. Recorded six shutouts and posted a 1.38 goals against average. Became MLS' all-time leader in consecutive minutes played (regular-season games only) against Colorado (April 12), passing Houston's Pat Onstad (6,648 minutes) although that mark has since been passed by Kevin Hartman. Posted 10 saves in the 2-1 win against Dallas (June 6), including eight - which would have tied his previous season-high - in the second half. Earned a shutout in the 2-0 win at Houston (June 12), making five saves, including a stop on Stuart Holden's 82nd-minute penalty kick. Suffered a right adductor (groin) strain in the 4-0 loss at San Jose (Aug. 16) and was removed in the 55th minute, ending his consecutive minutes played streak at a then-record 7,975 minutes. Earned his 48th career shutout in the 4-0 win over Chivas USA (Sept. 11), making three saves. Started both of the Revs' MLS Cup Playoff matches against Chicago, posting a shutout in Game 1 of the team's semifinal series. Started all five of the team's SuperLiga 2008 matches. Finished first in the competition in shutouts (3), goals against average (0.56), save percentage (.848) and saves (28) en route to being named the State Farm Portero Supremo (Supreme Goalkeeper). Stopped back-to-back penalty kicks from Dwayne De Rosario and Brian Ching in the shootout as the Revs defeated Houston in penalties, 6-5, to claim the SuperLiga title (Aug. 5).

2007: Started all 30 games and played 90 minutes in every contest for 2,700 total minutes in the season - tied for the second-highest mark in MLS. His 14 wins were his second-highest career total and ranked him second in MLS, two shy of his career-best 16, which he registered in 2005 with the Revs. Posted 10 shutouts in the regular season, his third straight year reaching the 10-shutout mark. Made 120 saves, the second-highest season total in his career, to rank second in MLS. Made five or more saves 11 times during the season. Matched his single-game career high (regular-season) with nine saves at D.C. on May 3, including a diving save of the potential game-winning goal in the final minute of stoppage time. Recorded three shutouts in the postseason, blanking the Red Bulls in both games of the teams' Eastern Conference Semifinal Series (away on Oct. 28 and home on Nov. 3) and then Chicago in the Eastern Conference Championship on Nov. 8. Posted 10 saves in the Eastern Conference Championship against the Fire. Had an 0.50 goals against average with a league-high 24 saves in the postseason. Made his third consecutive start in the MLS Cup championship match. Started the MLS All-Star Game against Celtic FC, and played 45 minutes to back the squad to the 2-0 victory over the Scottish giants.

2006: Established himself as arguably MLS' top goalkeeper as he was voted 2006 Revolution Honda MVP. Backed the league's best defense, which allowed just 35 goals in 32 games for a team-record 1.09 goals against average. Led MLS in shutouts (10) and his 141 saves outpaced the next closest goalkeeper by 33, matching and setting New England records, respectively. One of two players in MLS to play every minute of every game, tying the MLS and Revolution records and setting new personal single-season marks in both categories. His 1.09 GAA was the best among all full-time MLS goalkeepers and established a new Revolution single-season club record. Stopped two of the three penalty-kick attempts against him during the season to further entrench his reputation as the league's best in PK situations. Made five or more saves 15 times during the season, including two games with eight. Went 5-0-2 with an 0.57 GAA in the final seven games of the regular season, leading the Revs annual charge into the postseason. Started all four postseason games, earning a 2-1-1 record and 0.64 GAA as he led the Revs to MLS Cup 2006 for the second consecutive season. Was voted to Soccer America's 2006 MLS Cup Playoffs Best XI and was the publication's top goalkeeper in MLS for the 2006 season.

2005: Reis' second season as the Revs number one goalkeeper was his best yet as a professional. Reis was named to the league All-Star team for the first time in his career and set all-time single-season club marks for wins, saves, shutouts, minutes played in goal and starts in goal. He was also the MLS Select Team's starting goalkeeper for the prestigious Trofeo Santiago Bernabeu match against Real Madrid on Aug. 23. Led MLS in saves with 115, and his 1.13 GAA was tied for second-best in MLS. Ranked second in MLS in wins with 16. His 10 shutouts in 2005 placed him third in MLS in that category. Posted a league-leading 384-minute shutout streak in six matches between April 23 and May 21. On Sept. 10 against Columbus, Reis set a new Revs all-time career mark for wins by a goalkeeper with 22. Also, by playing the full 90 minutes in goal, he took over the top spot for minutes played in goal with 4,817, and also broke the Revs' all-time club mark for saves by tallying his 207th stop. With his start at Colorado on Aug. 20, Reis recorded his 51st start, putting him tops for all-time Revs starts in goal. Voted the 2005 U.S. Soccer Revolution Humanitarian of the Year.

2004: Posted a 7-10-7 record with a 1.36 GAA and three shutouts. His 24 appearances and 23 starts were both career highs. Was a huge presence between the pipes in the MLS Cup Playoffs, saving two penalty kicks in Game 2 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals at Columbus, before saving one attempt and scoring on one of his own attempts in the penalty shootout at D.C. in the Eastern Conference Championship game. Voted the 2004 Revolution Defensive Player of the Year.

2003: Was traded from Los Angeles to the Revolution on Jan. 17, 2003, in exchange for Alex Pineda Chicon. Started all five games in which he appeared in his first season with the Revs, posting a 1.97 GAA.

2002: Played 11 games for the Galaxy, posting a 1.26 GAA. Started nine of the team's first 10 games of the season, going 4-3-2 in that span. Posted two shutouts and had a 3-0-2 record in overtime games. Won an MLS Cup championship with the Galaxy with a 1-0, overtime victory over the Revolution at Gillette Stadium.

2001: Posted an 8-3-4 record while making 16 appearances, including 15 starts. Started 15 of the team's first 20 games. Recorded a 1.41 GAA and added six shutouts. Made 52 saves. Again a member of an LA team that played in the league's championship game, MLS Cup 2001.

2000: Played six games, posting a 1.61 GAA in Los Angeles. Had a 2-3-1 record in his starts. Earned his first MLS overtime victory on Aug. 16 with a 1-0 victory against Colorado. The 1-0 victory against the Rapids was also his first career shutout, during which he made four saves. Made one postseason appearance for the Galaxy, seeing 51 minutes of action on Sept. 14, earning the win in LA's 1-0 victory at Tampa Bay.

1999: Saw the least action of any backup goalkeeper in MLS as starter Kevin Hartman played in all 32 MLS games, coming out for only 10 minutes in one game. Reis was the starting keeper in every U.S. Open Cup game the team played. A member of the Galaxy team that played in MLS Cup 1999.

A consistent and reliable performer in the midfield who joins the Revolution in 2012 after spending the first seven years of his MLS career with D.C. United ... a defense-first midfielder, Simms helped United win back-to-back Supporters Shields in 2006 and 2007, and the 2008 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup ... departed D.C. in fifth place on the club's career appearance chart (182) ... a solid presence in the locker room and in the community ... in his eight-year professional career, spanning his A-League and MLS seasons, has never been ejected from a game ...
Twitter account: @ClydeSimms19

2011: Started all 29 of his appearances, playing 2,404 minutes – third-most on United's roster. Claimed sole possession of fifth place on D.C.'s appearance chart on July 30 at San Jose, playing in his 170th career match for United. Finished the season with 182 regular-season appearances – nine games shy of fourth place on the club's appearance chart.

2010: Made 20 MLS appearances, including 18 starts, with his time limited because of a sports hernia injury. Became the sixth player in D.C. United history to appear in 150 matches for the club when he started against Columbus (Sept. 4).

2009: Started all 28 regular-season games in which he played, missing two games in early August following sports hernia surgery in late July. Served as United's captain on several occasions. Scored United's only goal in the 2-1 loss to Seattle in the championship match of the U.S. Open Cup.

2008: Started a career-high 30 matches, playing all but three minutes of the MLS season (2,697 minutes). Scored a career-high two goals and added two assists. Also played in all four of United's CONCACAF Champions Cup games, all four U.S. Open Cup games, all three SuperLiga games and four of six Champions League games for a season total of 45 appearances (43 starts). His 3,849 minutes in all competitions was the most-ever for a United player, barely eclipsing the mark set by goalkeeper Troy Perkins (3,847 minutes played) in 2007. Scored his two goals in back-to-back games: against New York on June 14 and against San Jose on June 22, both games at RFK Stadium. The only three minutes of the year in which he did not play came on Aug. 23 against Colorado when he came off in the 87th minute.

2007: Made 25 appearances (16 starts) while recording three assists. Assumed starting defensive midfielder duties midway through the season. United went 11-1-5 in MLS games in which he started. Picked up assists at Kansas City (July 4), at Dallas (Sept. 1) and against Toronto (Sept. 29). Also scored the game-winning goal against CD Guadalajara (Sept. 26) in a 2-1 victory in the first leg of Copa Nissan Sudamericana.

2006: Established himself as a United regular, making 24 appearances (14 starts). Scored one goal and added one assist. Scored his first MLS goal – the game-winning strike – against Chicago on June 21. Added an assist against Kansas City (June 24). The midfielder also started seven matches for D.C.'s reserves, registering one assist.

2005: Signed with D.C. United as a discovery player from the Richmond Kickers (USL1). Made 25 appearances (12 starts). Made his MLS debut at Chivas USA (April 2) as a substitute. Recorded his first MLS assist in United's 5-1 win over Real Salt Lake (August 31).

BEFORE MLS: Played one season with the Richmond Kickers of the then USL A-League in 2004 following a successful tryout. Made 26 appearances (24 starts) while scoring three goals, including two game-winners. Was the league's only rookie to garner A-League team of the week honors twice during the year: against Virginia Beach Mariners (May 31) and for scoring the game-winning goal against the Charleston Battery (June 12). His other two goals came against Atlanta (July 10), and against Montreal (Aug. 29, game-winning goal).

A versatile left-footed player, Tierney is an exceptional crosser of the ball, especially from deep on the flank ... a midfielder in college, he has seen his role expanded in each of his four professional seasons, adding left back, right back and central (defensive and attacking) midfield positions to his resume ... one of MLS' most versatile players, Tierney has played at least six positions in all competitions in each of the last two seasons, including a league-high seven different positions in 2010 ... one of the team's top choices on set pieces, especially free kicks ... a vocal leader, both on and off the field ... of his 11 career assists, five have been game-winning assists and he enters 2012 tied for seventh on the Revs' career game-winning assists list ... was signed to a developmental contract on June 3, 2008, after finishing his degree requirements and graduating from Virginia, and was elevated to the senior roster before the 2009 season ... stood out to the Revs' technical staff at the team's annual invitation-only tryout in late January 2008, before being drafted in the Supplemental Draft the following day ... also played under former Revolution assistant coach Paul Mariner as a youth player in the Boston Bolts youth program ... one of the team's player representatives to the MLS Players Union ... Twitter account: @ChrisTierney8.

2011: Made 27 regular-season appearances (tying a career-best), including 25 starts. Scored two goals and finished second on the team with four assists, again matching his best season effort. Both of his goals were free-kick goals. Made 13 MLS starts at left midfield and 12 MLS starts at left back, but played six different positions (in all competitions) in games this season: left back, right back, left midfield, center midfield, defensive center midfield and center back (USOC). Missed two games with injuries (June 26 at Seattle with a left foot contusion, and Aug. 20 vs. New York with a left foot sprain) and one through suspension. Started at left back against Colorado (May 7), and then moved into the defensive center midfield in the 75th minute while helping to post the team's first shutout of the season. Scored his first goal of the season on his first-career free-kick goal at San Jose (May 21). Recorded his first assist of the season at New York (June 10), on Zak Boggs' goal. Scored his second goal of the season on a long-range free kick at Real Salt Lake (July 4): played three positions in the game: started at left midfield, moved to left back at half-time, then to right back in the 86th minute. Started at left back and played the first half in the friendly against Manchester United (July 13). Recorded the game-winning assist on Stephen McCarthy's headed goal at D.C.

(July 20) to snap the team's record-tying nine-game winless streak. Was issued his first career straight red card at Colorado (July 23) and missed the match at Kansas City (July 30) while serving a mandatory one-game red-card suspension. Recorded a career-best two assists at Philadelphia (Sept. 7), his first multiple-assist effort of his career. Played left back in the final five games of the season starting Sept. 25 at Chicago. Picked up a second yellow card and subsequent red card in season finale at Toronto (Oct. 22). Made one appearance in the MLS Reserve League, captaining the team and picking up an assist on the team's lone goal against D.C. (March 26) while playing left wing and central midfield in the game. Started at left back and captained the team in the club's U.S. Open Cup Play-In round match at D.C. (April 26), finishing the game at center back.

2010: Made a career-high 27 MLS appearances (26 starts - 13 at left midfield, three at central midfield, seven at left back and three at right back), recording one goal and a career-high four assists, the second-highest total on the team. Led the club - and tied for seventh in MLS - in game-winning assists with three. His 2,238 minutes played were also second on the team. Played seven different positions - a league high in 2010 - during the season: left midfield, left back, right back, center back, central midfield, defense central midfield and attacking central midfield. Picked up the game-winning assist against D.C. United (April 3) in the 80th minute with a cross from the left corner to Kenny Mansally. Was a late scratch against FC Dallas (May 1) with a left knee sprain. Made first start of his career at central midfield against Chivas USA (May 5). Recorded his second game-winning assist of the season when Pat Phelan converted his free kick against D.C. (Aug. 7). Made his first MLS start at right back against Houston (Aug. 14), and then moved there from left midfield in the 40th minute against Philly (Aug. 28) after Cory Gibbs was ejected. Scored his first career MLS goal on Sept. 4, potting the game-tying goal against Seattle in the second half. His angled pass out of the backfield at Dallas (Sept. 22), connected with Shalrie Joseph for the team's first goal of the match. Lined up at right back to start against Real Salt Lake (Oct. 2), playing 74 minutes there before moving to left back in a three-man backline for the final 15 minutes. After playing left back at Houston (Oct. 10), returned to right back against Kansas City (Oct. 16), picking up the game-winning assist on Shalrie Joseph's first-half goal. Played center back in the team's U.S. Open Cup play-in match against New York (May 12). Made five appearances, including four starts, in 2009: Made 14 regular-season appearances - including 13 starts - splitting his time as a left-sided defender and left midfielder. Recorded two assists. Overall, made 19 appearances, including U.S. Open Cup and SuperLiga. Earned his first assist of the season at Toronto (May 23), setting up Shalrie Joseph's 12th-minute goal with a cross from the left wing. Was set to start at left back against LA (July 4), but suffered a left knee sprain in training the day before the game and was forced out of the lineup. Also missed the 0-0 draw with Kansas City (July 11) because of the injury, but returned to the starting lineup for the 2-0 win over Chivas USA (July 19) and assisted on Kheli Dube's game-winning goal in the 61st minute. Made his only substitute appearance of the season in the playoff-clinching, 1-0 win over Columbus (Oct. 25), entering the match in stoppage time. Started at left back and played the entire 120 minutes of the 2-1, extra-time loss to the Harrisburg City Islanders of USL-2 (June 30). Appeared in all four matches in SuperLiga and recorded one assist. Made his only start in the semifinal against Chicago (July 15) on the left side of defense and assisted on Edgaras Jankauskas' 44th-minute goal in the 2-1 loss. Appeared in all three matches in the group stage as a late substitute at left midfield.

2008: Made six regular-season appearances, including four starts at left back. Recorded one assist in MLS action. Overall, made 14 appearances, including regular season, U.S. Open Cup, SuperLiga, CONCACAF Champions League and MLS Cup Playoffs. Made his MLS and Revolution debut on June 21 at Real Salt Lake, entering in the 77th minute and slotting into a left midfield position. Earned his first MLS start on Aug. 9 against Chicago, playing on the left side of a four-man backline. Followed up with a start at Toronto (Aug. 23) at left back as he recorded his first-career MLS assist on Taylor Twellman's 35th-minute goal. Made three appearances, including two starts, in SuperLiga. Started at left back against Pachuca (July 16), marking his first professional start at Gillette Stadium, and against Houston (Aug. 5) in the final. Scored the Revs' fifth penalty kick in the 6-5 shootout victory in the final against the Dynamo. Was the only member of the Revs to play all 180 minutes in the two-leg series against Joe Public in the CONCACAF Champions League. Also made two starts at left midfield in the U.S. Open Cup, recording two assists - both against Richmond (July 1). Also scored the Revs' third penalty kick in the shootout victory over Crystal Palace Baltimore (July 8) in the quarterfinals. In addition to first-team action, made eight appearances with the Revs' reserve team, including seven starts. Scored one goal while playing central midfield, attacking midfield, left midfield and left back. Played in four reserve matches before signing with the team. Started Game 1 of the Eastern Conference Semifinal Series against Chicago, before suffering a sprained knee in training the following week and missing Game 2.

REVOLUTION
NEW ENGLAND

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT OVERVIEW

Now in its fourth year, the New England Revolution's youth development program immerses its player pool in a competitive, professional and challenging soccer environment. Not only is focus placed on developing players' technical and on-field skills, but the staff has also created a training system that places emphasis on maintaining educational excellence, players' personal development, and overall health and wellness to help develop whole and well-rounded players.

The Revolution fields Under-18 and Under-16 teams which compete in the Northeast Division of the prestigious U.S. Soccer Development Academy – which includes the top youth programs from around the country, as well as 15 other MLS clubs' youth development teams – and the annual Generation adidas U17 Cup for all of MLS' youth development programs.

In an effort to afford the region's players the opportunity to train and compete at an elite level, the Revolution's youth development program is fully-funded by the club. Qualified and talented players are accepted on the teams without regard to their financial situation. All player needs and expenses related to soccer activities - training, facilities, equipment, uniforms, travel associated with competitions - are provided by the Revolution.

The Revolution's youth technical staff, under the direction of General Manager Michael Burns, oversees all instruction and development of the teams' players. Bryan Scales, Director of Youth Development, runs the program with the assistance of his coaching staff.

The club's pool of players is encouraged, trained, and expected to exhibit a possession-oriented, dynamic style of attacking soccer. This style of play gives players the best possible opportunity to continue their careers at both the collegiate and professional levels.

STRUCTURE

Starting with the Revolution's locally-focused, commercial training programs, and on up through the youth teams, and ultimately to the professional component (the first team and reserve team) the Revolution is focused on developing young soccer players – both on and off the field – through a professional, challenging training environment and meaningful matches. Revolution youth players are identified through a variety of means, including through recommendations and referrals, scouting and even through the Revolution Academy training programs.

With the reemergence of the MLS Reserve League in 2011, youth players are able to play alongside first-team players in reserve matches, gaining valuable experience at the highest levels without jeopardizing their college eligibility. As many as five youth players can be called up to the reserve team for each game.

Under Major League's Soccer's Homegrown Player Initiative, league clubs are able to sign stand-out youth players to the first team without them being exposed to other clubs in the annual SuperDraft. In November 2010, Diego Fagundez became the team's first-ever Homegrown signing.

AMONG NATION'S BEST

Following the completion of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy's 2010-11 season, the Revolution received a 3.5-star rating for its end-of-year U.S. Soccer evaluation. Of the 78 clubs in the Development Academy, the Revolution was among only seven programs to receive a 3.5 mark – with only one club having scored higher at 4.0.

Clubs are annually graded on a five-star system in comparison to the top international developmental environments around the world. The evaluation criteria consist of seven key components: player development, style of play, training environment, administration, facilities, funding and respect. Tactical components are based on the U.S. Soccer Curriculum.

U.S. SOCCER DEVELOPMENT ACADEMY

DEVELOPING THE NEXT GENERATION

The U.S. Soccer Development Academy program is driven by the game and its players, coaches and referees. This game-centric approach allows for long-term development to occur through a deep understanding of what makes players successful around the world. As the sport of soccer grows in the United States, young players in our country need the proper environment to compete against the world's elite. The U.S. Soccer Development Academy program provides the optimum developmental environment for the nation's top youth soccer players, coaches and referees by emphasizing development through quality training and limited, meaningful competition.

MEANINGFUL TRAINING

Academy teams spend a greater amount of time focused on training to improve as individuals and as a team. The teams and players receive direct feedback and evaluations from national team staff and ProZone video analysis. To round out the complete training environment, Academy teams are tested in their physical capabilities using the SPARQ testing methodology and their hydration levels by Gatorade. They also receive a SPARQ training curriculum for soccer-specific fitness training and nutrition and hydration recommendations from Gatorade's Sports Science Institute. Each athlete then gains a greater understanding of how they compare physically against their peers and what they need to do to achieve their optimal performance levels.

COMPETITIVE ENVIRONMENT

The Academy program features teams from the top youth clubs from around the country. Each Academy team plays approximately 30 regular-season games to ensure all games are meaningful. Games are also played according to FIFA's Laws of the Game and officiated by a pool of the nation's top young referees in order to prepare players for the next level of competition. U.S. Soccer national team scouts regularly attend Academy games, so players are evaluated over the course of the season and in their natural positions allowing for better player assessment.

EARLY SUCCESS

As the program enters its fifth year, it has already dramatically impacted the player development process in the United States. Since inception, more than 300 players from Academy clubs have been included in U.S.

Youth National Teams, and 17 were a part of the U.S. rosters for the 2009 FIFA U-17 and U-20 World Cups. Several Academy players have attracted interest and signed with professional clubs both domestically and abroad. Virtually all college programs use the Academy program as a scouting vehicle and the program has received increased attention from professional scouts representing domestic and international clubs. Visit ussoccer.com for more information on the Academy and its teams.

GENERATION ADIDAS U-17 CUP

Every season, Major League Soccer hosts an annual youth development tournament for age-eligible players in its league clubs: the Generation adidas U17 Cup. The 2011 tournament, held at Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas, from July 25-31, featured squads from 16 MLS teams.

The Generation adidas Cup showcases the talent in the U17 development squads, and has been a launching platform of sorts for current MLS players Tristan Bowen (Chivas USA), Diego Fagundes (New England Revolution), Andy Najar (D.C. United), Bill Hamid (D.C.), Juan Agudelo (New York) and Bryan Leyva (FC Dallas). Each team plays a total of five games against other MLS youth teams during the event – three group games, followed by two games determined by previous results.

YOUTH TECHNICAL STAFF

BRYAN SCALES

DIRECTOR OF YOUTH
DEVELOPMENT &
HEAD COACH, UNDER-16s

Bryan Scales is currently in his third season with the New England Revolution, and enters the 2012 season in his second year as Director of Youth Development after being promoted in November 2010. In addition to directing the team's youth development program, Scales also serves as the head coach of the Under-16 squad, which has advanced to the playoffs of the prestigious U.S. Soccer Development Academy each of the last two seasons.

Scales oversees the entire youth development program, including day-to-day management of both the Revolution's Under-18 and Under-16 teams, which are now in their fourth season playing in the U.S. Soccer Development Academy. He also works directly with the Revolution's technical staff to create and implement the youth teams' coaching curriculum and training systems.

At the conclusion of the 2010-11 season – Scales' first as the program's director – U.S. Soccer rated the Revolution's youth development program among the top eight programs in the country as the club received a 3.5-star (out of five stars) rating in its end-of-year evaluation. Of the 78 clubs in the Development Academy, the Revolution was among only seven programs to receive a 3.5 mark – with only one club having scored higher at 4.0.

In 2010, Scales earned Eastern Conference coach of the year honors from U.S. Soccer after leading the U16 squad to the Northeast Division title and its first-ever appearance in the U.S. Soccer Development Academy playoffs.

Scales originally joined the Revolution's youth program in a part-time capacity as the head coach with the Under-16 program, but was promoted to Director of Youth Development in November 2010.

He came to the Revolution from UMass-Lowell, where he was the school's head men's soccer coach. He stepped down in October 2010 to accept the Revolution's Director of Youth Development position.

A product of Medway, Mass., Scales arrived at UMass-Lowell from Cornell, where he spent 15 years: four years as an assistant coach (1994-98), followed by a successful 11-year run as head coach (1998-2008). In 2001, Scales was a finalist for national coach of the year honors after leading the Big Red to a No. 22 ranking in the polls and winning the New York region's coach of the year.

Before moving to Cornell, Scales spent two years as an assistant at Harvard (1992-94) and one season as an assistant at Plattsburgh State (1991-92) after a stellar playing career at Hartwick College.

Scales has also been an assistant coach with the U.S. Boys (Under-15) National Team.

Scales holds Premier, Advanced National and National Diplomas from the NSCAA.

A 1991 graduate of Hartwick, Scales was a two-year starter in the midfield and defense and helped the Hawks to the 1987 and 1989 NCAA tournaments. A four-year letter winner, Scales received his bachelor's degree in political science.

Scales and his wife, Mindy, have three children: Aiden (11), Ciara (9) and Jack (7) and live in Nashua, N.H.

DEVEN APAJEE

PROGRAM COORDINATOR &
ASST. COACH, UNDER-18s

Deven Apajee is in his seventh year with the Revolution. His current role sees him have active and varied positions in the club's youth development program. In addition to his role as the assistant coach for the Under-18 squad, he also serves as Program Coordinator, where he handles all administrative matters for both the Under-18 and Under-16 teams.

In addition to his duties with the Revolution youth teams, Apajee is also the Director of the Revolution Academy, the team's commercial training program that runs throughout the year across New England. Under Apajee's direction, the Revolution's commercial youth development program has expanded into a year-round training and development program in communities from Maine to Rhode Island, and now includes a residential summer program.

An experienced youth coach and player development professional, Apajee began his coaching experience with Leyton Orient FC in England as the club's Football Development Officer. After coming to the United States, he worked with MLS Camps and then served as the Director of Youth Development for the Chicago Fire. At the youth level, Apajee is the Director of Coach Education & Player Development for Rhode Island's SuperLiga, the state's youth club league, and has coached at the Premier club level for many years.

Apajee possesses an engaging style that commands young players' attention. A native of London, England, Apajee holds USSF "B" and UEFA "B" coaching licenses.

He resides in Cranston, Rhode Island, with his wife, Dawn, and two children, Danny (15) and Jess (13). Danny is a member of the Revs' Under-16 squad.

JOHN FREDERICK

HEAD COACH, UNDER-18s

John Frederick is currently in his fourth season on the coaching staff of the New England Revolution's Youth Development Program, and in his second year as the head coach of the Under-18 team.

Before heading up the U18 program, Frederick was the assistant coach for the U16s, and helped lead the Revs to the top of the Northeast Division and into the U.S. Soccer Development Academy playoffs in 2009-10 – the team's first-ever playoff appearance. One year later, he was promoted to head coach of the Under-18s.

Formerly an assistant coach for the College of the Holy Cross men's soccer team, Frederick holds his USSF "B" coaching license. He has also earned his NSCAA Premier Diploma.

Frederick's previous coaching experience also includes time as an assistant coach with the Massachusetts Olympic Development Program Under-17 team, and head coach for Algonquin Regional High School. His Algonquin squads advanced to the state's title in 2004 and 2005, and the championship game in 2006. His 2008 squad also went undefeated in the regular season. For his efforts, Frederick earned 2005 Massachusetts Division I Coach of the Year honors. He also has prior coaching stints at Marlborough High School, and club coaching ties to the Tri-Valley Eagles and FC Puma.

A 1993 graduate of Vermont, Frederick and his wife, Amy, have three children: Leila (8), Tate (8) and Finn (3). They live in Hopkinton, Mass.

J.P. PEREIRA

ASST. COACH, UNDER-16s

Jonathan "J.P." Pereira is in his first season as an assistant coach with the New England Revolution's Under-16 team. Since joining the organization as an intern in the summer of 2011, Pereira has been a member of the Revolution Academy coaching staff for its summer and residential programs. In addition to his responsibilities as a Revolution Academy coach, he added responsibilities in the Youth Development Program as an assistant coach with the U16s in the fall.

Prior to joining the Revs' youth staff, Pereira had a four-year coaching stint with the Rhode Island Stingrays' summer camps and a one-season coaching stint with Under-14 boys and girls teams in Sudbury, Mass. He also spent two years as a summer fitness coach with LaSalle Academy in Providence, R.I.

A 2011 graduate of the University of Rhode Island, Pereira holds a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a specialization in exercise science and health fitness. The Barrington, R.I. native played four seasons at URI, earning Atlantic 10 All-Rookie honors in 2007, and was one of just five players to start each of the Rams' 18 games in 2010.

As a youth player, Pereira was a Region 1 selection and earned Rhode Island ODP player of the year honors in 2004 and 2005. Formerly a member of the Rhode Island Stingrays, he was also a Rhode Island all-state selection in 2005 and 2006.

GARY HALL

ASST. COACH, UNDER-16s

Gary Hall enters his second year as an assistant coach with the New England Revolution's Under-16 youth team. He is also the Program Development Manager for the Revolution Academy, the team's commercial training and development program, where he is responsible for implementing for a variety of programs, including the Regional Development Schools and summer residential program.

An experienced youth soccer coach, Hall began his career coaching for the Sunderland AFC Academy community programs. Hall moved to the U.S. in 2002 to coach for a U.S.-based British coaching company, and became a trainer for several youth soccer clubs and high schools in the southern New Hampshire area.

During his eight-year stint as Regional Director at the British coaching company, Hall ran year-round youth soccer development programs for players and coaches from the New England region. Also a coach at the Premier Club Level in the North East region, Hall coached teams through several state championships, and other regional and national tournaments.

A 2001 graduate of Newcastle College, Hall holds his UEFA "C" License and received a Goalkeeping Certification from the English Football Association. A former Darlington F.C. Professional Academy youth player, Hall played at the Semi-Professional Level in the North East Regional Leagues of England.

He currently resides in Warwick, R.I., with his wife, Dana, and their daughter, Lillian.

KARL SPRATT

GOALKEEPERS COACH

Karl Spratt is in his third season as the goalkeepers coach for the New England Revolution's Youth Development Program after joining the club in November 2009. During Spratt's time with the organization, both the Under-16s and Under-18s successfully advanced to the U.S. Soccer Development Academy's playoffs for the first time ever in 2010, while the U16s made a second-consecutive appearance in playoffs in 2011.

Spratt's previous work experience includes coaching stints with a variety of English club academy programs, including Sunderland AFC and Darlington FC. He also spent time as the goalkeepers coach with the College of Holy Cross, University of Massachusetts Lowell, and various universities in the Northeast England.

A graduate of the University of Sunderland, Spratt holds a bachelor's degree in sport and exercise development and his FA goalkeeping licenses. He has also earned the NSCAA's National Goalkeeping Diploma.

A native of Newcastle, England, Spratt spent time as a player with Manchester United's youth academy, while he was also part of an England National Team developmental squad at the Under-18 level. In addition to his work with the Revolution, Spratt is a full-time Regional Soccer Director with Challenger Sports.

MLS PLAYER RULES AND REGULATIONS

I. MLS ROSTER COMPOSITION

A Major League Soccer club's first team roster is comprised of up to 30 players. All 30 players are eligible for selection to each 18-player game-day squad during the regular season and playoffs.

Salary & Budget

- o Players occupying roster spots 1-20 count against the club's 2012 salary budget of $2,810,000, and are referred to collectively as the club's Salary Budget Players.
 - Roster spots 19 and 20 are not required to be filled, and teams may spread their salary budget across only 18 Salary Budget Players. A minimum salary budget charge will be imputed against a team's salary budget for each unfilled senior roster slot below 18.
 - The maximum budget charge for a single player is $350,000.*
 - A Designated Player over the age of 23 counts as $350,000 against the club's salary budget, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $175,000.
 - A Designated Player 20 years old or younger (referred to as Young Designated Players or Young DPs) counts as $150,000 against the club's salary budget
 - A Designated Player 21-23 years old counts as $200,000 against the club's salary budget.
 - The budget charge for the midseason signing of a Young DP is $150,000 and this amount cannot be lowered with allocation funds.
 - Clubs will not have to buy the third DP roster slot to accommodate a Young Designated Player whereas clubs are normally required to buy that slot for a one-time fee of $250,000.
 - Clubs are responsible for all amounts above the budget charge for all Designated Players.
- * See section entitled Allocation Money below, under Player Acquisition Mechanisms, for details on buying down a player's budget charge.
-  Age of player is determined by year (not date) of birth.
- o Players occupying roster spots 21-30 do not count against the club's salary budget, and are referred to collectively as the club's Off-Budget Players (maximum of 10 per team).
 - All Generation adidas players are Off-Budget players.
 - Players occupying roster spots 1-24 will earn at least $44,000 in 2012.
 - Players occupying roster spots 25-30 will earn at least $33,750 in 2012.
 - Clubs may elect to leave up to two of these roster spots (25-30) vacant and use $35,000 for each empty spot as allocation money.
 - Clubs may sign up to two Homegrown Players contracts above the minimum salary and similar to Generation adidas player contract amounts.

Age Designations

- o Any player making $33,750 must be under the age 25 (does not turn 25 or older in 2012).

Domestic/International

- o In 2012, a total of 152 international slots are divided among the 19 clubs. Each club began with eight international slots, which are tradable. There is no limit on the number of international slots on each club's roster.
 - The remaining roster slots must belong to domestic players. For clubs based in the United States, a domestic player is either a U.S. citizen, a permanent resident (green card holder) or the holder of other special status (e.g., refugee or asylum status).
- o The three MLS clubs based in Canada – Montreal Impact, Toronto FC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC – began with eight international slots, but their domestic slots may be filled with either Canadian or U.S. domestic players.
 - MLS clubs based in Canada are required to have a minimum of three Canadian domestic players on their rosters.
 - Players with the legal right to work in Canada are considered Canadian domestic players (i.e., Canadian citizen, permanent resident, part of a protected class).

NOTE: The terms Homegrown and Generation adidas are used to describe mechanisms by which players are acquired. They are not roster designations. All players' roster slots are determined by their compensation and/or age as outlined above.

II. PLAYER ACQUISITION MECHANISMS

MLS teams may acquire players and add them to their rosters via the following mechanisms:

(A) ALLOCATION RANKING

The allocation ranking is the mechanism used to determine which MLS club has first priority to acquire a U.S. National Team player who signs with MLS after playing abroad, or a former MLS player who returns to the League after having gone to a club abroad for a transfer fee. The allocation rankings may also be used in the event two or more clubs file a request for the same player on the same day when the discovery period opens in December. The allocations will be ranked in reverse order of finish for the 2011 season, taking playoff performance into account.

Once the club uses its allocation ranking to acquire a player, it drops to the bottom of the list. A ranking can be traded, provided that part of the compensation received in return is the other club's ranking. At all times, each club is assigned one ranking. The rankings reset at the end of each MLS League season.

Allocation Money

Allocation money is a resource available to clubs in addition to their respective salary budgets.

A club may receive allocation money for:

- (1) failure to qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs;
- (2) the transfer of a player to a club outside of MLS for value;
- (3) expansion status;
- (4) qualification for the CONCACAF Champions League;
- (5) trading in up to two Off-Budget roster spots;
- (6) funds from purchased third designated player roster spots.

Each year the MLS Competition Committee determines the allocation amount to be made available to each club. Allocation money can be traded by clubs. Allocation money does not count against a club's salary budget and can be used:

- To sign players new to MLS (that is, a player who did not play in MLS during the previous season).
- To re-sign an existing MLS player, subject to League approval.
- To "buy-down" a player's salary budget charge below the League maximum of $350,000.
- In connection with the exercise of an option to purchase a player's rights or the extension of a player's contract for the second year provided the player was new to MLS in the immediately prior year.

NOTE: To protect the interests of MLS and its clubs during discussions with prospective players or clubs in other leagues, amounts of allocation money held by each club will not be shared publicly.

(B) DESIGNATED PLAYER

The Designated Player Rule allows clubs to acquire up to three players whose salaries exceed their budget charges, with the club bearing financial responsibility for the amount of compensation above each player's budget charge. Designated Player slots may be used to acquire players new to MLS or to retain current MLS players, subject to League approval.

In 2012, a Designated Player over the age of 23 will carry a salary budget charge of $350,000, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $175,000.

A Designated Player 20 years old or younger counts as $150,000 against the club's salary budget and a Designated Player 21-23 years old counts as $200,000 against the club's salary budget.

Clubs have the option of "buying down" the budget charge of a Designated Player with allocation money. The reduced charge may not be less than $150,000.

The budget charge for the midseason signing of a young Designated Player (23 years old and younger) is $150,000 and this amount cannot be lowered with allocation funds.

Each club has two Designated Player slots and clubs are allowed to "purchase" a third Designated Player slot for a one-time fee of $250,000 that will be dispersed in the form of allocation money to all clubs that do not have three Designated Players. Clubs will not have to buy the third DP roster slot to accommodate Designated Players 23 years old and younger.

Designated Player slots are not tradable.

 Age of player is determined by year (not date) of birth.

(C) SUPERDRAFT

The 2012 MLS SuperDraft, held Jan. 12 in Kansas City, Mo., consisted of two rounds of 19 picks for a total of 38 player selections. A supplemental draft was held Jan. 17 via teleconference and consisted of four rounds of 19 picks.

The majority of draft prospects are NCAA college seniors who have exhausted their college eligibility. Generation adidas players and non-collegiate international players are also eligible for selection in the SuperDraft and supplemental draft. Clubs may nominate players for the League's draft-eligible list, and only players from that list may be selected.

Generation adidas is a joint program between MLS and adidas that is dedicated to developing exceptional domestic talent in a professional environment. Each year, a handful of top domestic underclassmen and youth national team players are signed to the league and placed in the SuperDraft through this program. Generation adidas players also receive an educational stipend.

Draft Order: The Montreal Impact held the first overall selection in the 2012 MLS SuperDraft as expansion clubs are always given the top spot in the SuperDraft and the Supplemental Draft. The next eight selections went to clubs that did not qualify for the 2011 MLS Cup Playoffs beginning with the club with fewest regular season points (3 points per win, one point per tie). The remaining ten positions were ranked by fewest regular season points among the teams that were eliminated in the same round of the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Unless claimed on waivers, a player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign with the League, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to the player.

(D) TRADES

Players, SuperDraft and Supplemental draft picks, allocation money, allocation rankings, and international player slots may all be exchanged in trades approved by the MLS League Office, provided all of the necessary rules regarding roster and salary budget compliance are met and the trade is completed during a valid trading period. No trades may occur after the Roster Freeze Deadline of September 15, 2012 at 5 p.m. ET.

(E) DISCOVERY SIGNINGS

Clubs may make discovery claims on players not yet under MLS contract who are not subject to the allocation ranking or lottery mechanisms.

Each club has the opportunity to make six discovery signings per season (expansion teams may make 10 discovery signings in their inaugural season). A club may have up to 10 discovery claims on unsigned players at any time and may remove or add players at any time. The last day for discovery player signings is September 15, 2012 – coinciding with the roster freeze date and trade deadline.

The six discovery signings can be used to fill senior roster spots only. If multiple clubs claim the same player using a discovery, the club that filed the claim first will have first rights to the player. Discovery claims expire following each season. If the League and player are unable to reach an agreement during the season, the club that first filed the discovery retains the right of first refusal in the event the player is later signed by the League.

NOTE: To protect interests of MLS clubs in scouting and negotiations with prospective players, the League office will not publicize the names of players on club discovery lists, nor specify if a discovery claim has been filed on a particular player.

(F) HOMEGROWN PLAYER SIGNINGS

A club may sign a player to his first professional contract without subjecting him to the MLS SuperDraft if the player has trained for at least one year in the club's youth development program and has met the League's Homegrown Player criteria. Players joining MLS through this mechanism are known as Homegrown Players.

There is no limit to the number of Homegrown Players a club may sign in a given year.

(G) RE-ENTRY PROCESS

The 2012 Re-Entry Process will commence after MLS Cup. The priority order for the Re-Entry Draft is reverse order of finish in 2012, taking into account playoff performance.

Available to all teams in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry draft will be:

1. Players who are at least 23 years old and have a minimum of three years experience in MLS whose options were not exercised by their clubs (available at option salary for 2013).
2. Players who are at least 25 years old with a minimum of four years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them at their previous salary (available for at least their 2012 salary).
3. Players who are at least 30 years old with a minimum of eight years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them (available for at least 105% of their 2012 salary).

Players who are not selected in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry Draft will be made available in Stage 2. Clubs selecting players in Stage 2 will negotiate a new salary with the player.

Players who remain unselected after Stage 2 will be available to any MLS club on a first come, first serve basis.

(H) WAIVERS

A team may place a player on waivers at any time during the regular season at which point he is made available to all other teams. The waiver claiming period shall commence on the first business day after the League delivers notice to teams and shall expire at 5 p.m. EST on the second business day after the Waiver Period Commencement Date. The claiming period is 48 hours.

The Waiver Draft order is determined via points per game once all teams have played at least three MLS League games. If the waiver takes place prior to all teams playing in at least three League games, priority shall be granted based upon the prior year's performance, taking playoff performance first, with teams eliminated from playoff contention at the same stage separated according to their point totals through the end of the regular season. New expansion teams shall be at the bottom of the waiver order.

Once a team selects a player off waivers, that club is automatically moved to the bottom of the priority list for subsequent waiver selections in a given season, regardless of its points-per-game total. Players who may be placed on the MLS waiver wire are as follows:

- (i) A player waived by an MLS team in the current season;
- (ii) A player who completed his college eligibility within the past season, who was not made available in the SuperDraft or Supplemental Draft;
- (iii) A player who has remaining college eligibility (and was not made available in the SuperDraft or Supplemental Draft), but the League at its discretion and after taking into account exceptional circumstances determines the player may be offered an MLS contract;
- (iv) A player who has played in MLS previously where his last MLS team does not wish to exercise their right of first refusal, except in the case of returning U.S. National Team players as stated above.
- (v) A player who was drafted in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft, and who after a trial with the club is not offered a contract by the first Monday of June.

(I) LOTTERY

Some players shall be assigned to MLS teams via the weighted Lottery process. Any team assigned a player through the lottery in any particular season shall not be assigned another lottery player that season unless and until all teams have received a lottery player or have agreed to waive their option to participate in a Lottery. The players made available through lotteries include:

- (i) Generation adidas players signed after the MLS SuperDraft;
- (ii) Draft eligible players to whom an MLS contract was offered but who failed to sign with the League prior to the Draft.

The weighted lottery takes into consideration each team's performance over its last 34 regular season games and the most recent postseason. The team with the worst record over its last 34 regular season games (dating back to previous season if necessary and taking playoff performance into account) will have the greatest probability of winning the lottery. Teams are not required to participate in a lottery. Players are assigned via the lottery system in order to prevent a player from potentially influencing his destination club with a strategic holdout.

(J) EXTREME HARDSHIP CALL-UPS

Teams may add players to their roster in cases of "extreme hardship" as follows: (1) a club with three goalkeepers on its 30-man roster, but has less than two available goalkeepers or (2) a team has less than 15 available players. Extreme hardship call-ups are made on a game-by-game basis.

(K) SEASON-ENDING INJURY REPLACEMENTS (Season-Ending Injury List)

A team with a player lost to a season-ending injury can place the player on the Season Ending Injury List and replace that player on its roster, while remaining responsible for the full amount of the injured player's salary. A player can be placed on the season-ending injury list once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). International player limits still apply at the time a season-ending replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

(L) SHORT-TERM INJURY REPLACEMENTS

A player who has a short-term injury can be placed on the Disabled List once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). The team will remain responsible for the full amount of the injured player's salary on the salary budget. Note: the injured player will have to sit out a minimum of six MLS League matches before he can rejoin the team's roster.

International player limits still apply at the time a short-term replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

NOTE: No changes may be made to a team's active full roster during the period beginning on September 16, 2012 (day after Roster Freeze Date) through the day after MLS Cup. Nevertheless, a team may obtain players in accordance with the extreme hardship rules and procedures to replace players who are injured or otherwise legitimately unavailable after the Roster Freeze Date. Any other replacements after the Roster Freeze Date may only be made in exceptional circumstances in the League's sole and absolute discretion.

(III.) METHODS OF RELEASING PLAYERS

(A) WAIVERS

Teams may waive players based on performance at any time during the MLS season. Players with guaranteed contracts will continue to have their salary budget charge applied to the team salary budget, subject to any settlement. Players on semi-guaranteed contracts can be waived prior to July 1 of any year and free up the corresponding budget space. If a player on a semi-guaranteed contract is waived after July 1, his salary budget charge will count against the team's salary budget and the team waiving the player will not receive a replacement except under the normal player acquisition mechanisms. Any settlement amount will be charged to the team's salary budget.

(B) TRANSFERS AND LOANS

An MLS player may be transferred or loaned at any time to a team outside the League (subject to that team's Federation's transfer window), subject to the consent of the player.

The registration windows – the dates between which MLS may request the transfer certificate of a player under contract in another country – are as follows:

January 21 – April 15 (Primary Window)
June 27 – July 27 (Secondary Window)

(C) CONTRACT EXPIRATION

When a player's contract expires, the player does not count against the roster or budget of the team in question. Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the rights to the player indefinitely following the expiration of a contract only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

(D) BUYOUT OF GUARANTEED CONTRACT

Teams may have the ability to buyout one guaranteed player as follows:

- A Team may buy out one (1) guaranteed player (including a DP's) contract during the off-season and free up the corresponding budget space. Such a buyout is at the particular MLS Team's own expense.
- A Team may not free up budget space with a buyout of a player's salary budget charge during the season. Such a buyout will be conducted by the League and count on a Club's budget in a manner consistent with current MLS guidelines.

(IV.) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Right of first refusal grants one MLS club the first opportunity to add a player to its roster in the event that the player signs with MLS. Holding a right of first refusal applies only within MLS and does not indicate holding of the player's International Transfer Certificate.

OUT OF CONTRACT PLAYERS / OPTIONS NOT PICKED UP: Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the right of first refusal to the player indefinitely only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

DRAFTED BUT NOT SIGNED: A player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign, or who as of the first Monday in June is not offered a contract after a trial and clears waivers, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 immediately following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to sign the player.

PLAYER TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE MLS: If a team receives allocation money as a result of a player's transfer, the team does not retain a right of first refusal.

MLS RULES OF COMPETITION

STRUCTURE: The 19 MLS teams are divided into two conferences:

Eastern Conference – Chicago Fire, Columbus Crew, D.C. United, Houston Dynamo, Sporting Kansas City, Montreal Impact, New England Revolution, New York Red Bulls, Philadelphia Union, Toronto FC.

Western Conference – Chivas USA, Colorado Rapids, FC Dallas, LA Galaxy, Portland Timbers, Real Salt Lake, San Jose Earthquakes, Seattle Sounders FC, Vancouver Whitecaps FC.

SCHEDULE: Each team plays a 34-game regular season schedule; 17 home games, 17 away games.

Western Conference – 24 in-conference + 10 out-of-conference games:

- Western Conference teams will play each West opponent three times (24 games):
 - West teams will play four conference opponents twice at home and once away
 - They will play the other four conference opponents once at home and twice away.
 - The home and away games will be reversed in 2013.
- Western Conference teams will play each East opponent once each (10 games):
 - Five of these will be at home and five will be away.
 - The East opponents each team faces at home and away will be reversed in 2013.

Eastern Conference – 25 in-conference + 9 out-of-conference games:

- Eastern Conference teams will play 25 games against other East teams:
 - East teams will play seven conference opponents three times each (21 games) and
 - Two conference opponents twice each (four games).
- Eastern Conference teams will play each West opponent once each (9 games):
 - Some will play four at home and five away while others will play five at home and four away.

The West opponents each team faces at home and away will be reversed in 2013.

POINT SYSTEM: Teams will receive three points for a win, one point for a tie and zero points for a loss.

REFEREES: All referees in MLS are either USSF (United States Soccer Federation) or CSA (Canadian Soccer Association) National Referees. All MLS games played in the US will be assigned by USSF and all games played in Canada will be assigned by CSA.

GAME CLOCK: The official game time for all Major League Soccer games will be managed on the field by the referee. If necessary, the referee may also allot extra time (a.k.a. "stoppage time") at the end of each period (first half, second half, and if applicable, first overtime period and second overtime period during playoff matches) to allow for injuries, time-wasting or other disturbances.

The stadium clock will display the time from 0:00 to 45:00 and from 45:00 to 90:00 (plus stoppage time where applicable in each half). For statistical purposes, the minutes for goals, substitutions, yellow cards, etc., will be listed from the first minute until the 90th minute. A goal scored at 15 minutes 10 seconds will be listed as having been scored in the 16th minute. Events occurring during stoppage time will follow the international norm by being demarcated with a "+" sign and the extra minutes. For example, a goal scored three minutes into first half stoppage time will be officially identified as happening at "48+".

GAME DAY ROSTERS: Each team can nominate 18 players for a game day roster. Teams are allowed three substitutions per game.

CAUTIONS AND SUSPENSIONS: A player will be suspended for one game upon receiving his fifth yellow card – regardless of the nature of the infraction that resulted in his being awarded a yellow card. A second suspension of one game would result after the awarding of an additional three cards, as would a third suspension after the awarding of card number eleven. With the "Good Behavior" incentive, it is possible for a player to have a caution expunged. If a player goes three games without receiving a yellow card, after an initial warning, the player will have one yellow card expunged. A player may take advantage of the "Good Behavior" incentive only once throughout the season.

MLS CUP PLAYOFFS: FORMAT

WHO QUALIFIES: Ten (10) teams, the top five in points from each conference at the end of the regular season, qualify for the 2012 MLS Cup Playoffs.

The fourth and fifth place teams in each conference will play a single knockout game, the winner of which will advance to the Conference Semifinals and face the first place team in the conference.

The four Conference Semifinals will be decided by two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. If the aggregate score is tied after 180 minutes of play, two 15-minute extra time periods will be played in their entirety, followed by penalty kicks, if necessary.

The two Conference Championships will be decided by a two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. If the aggregate score is tied after 180 minutes of play, two 15-minute extra time periods will be played in their entirety, followed by penalty kicks, if necessary.

MLS Cup will be a single championship match hosted by the higher seed. If the score is tied after 90 minutes of play, two 15-minute extra time periods will be played in their entirety, followed by penalty kicks, if necessary.

TEAM-STANDINGS TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The team awarded the highest position in the MLS standings will be the team with the greatest number of points (three points for a win, one point for a tie, zero points for a loss). In the event that two teams finish the regular season with an equal number of points, the following system will be used to break the tie:

- 1) The highest position shall be awarded to the team with the better win/loss record in current regular season games against all other teams equal in points. (head-to-head competition)
- 2) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position shall be awarded to the team with the greater goal difference against all other teams during the regular season. (goal differential)
- 3) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position shall be awarded to the team scoring the greatest number of total goals against all other teams during the regular season. (total goals)
- 4) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the procedures described in this section shall be applied only to games played on the road by each team against all other teams during the regular season. (road 1-3)
- 5) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the procedures described in this section shall be applied only to games played at home by each team against all other teams during the regular season. (home 1-3)
- 6) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position shall be awarded to the team with the fewest team disciplinary points in the League Fair Play table during the regular season.
- 7) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position in the standings shall be determined by the toss of a coin.
- 8) The first tiebreaker in a three-way tie is also head-to-head, but it is determined via points-per-game versus the other two teams. If two teams are tied in points-per-game head-to-head, the next tie breaker is goal difference.

NOTE: If two teams remain tied after another teams with the same number of points advances during any step, the tie breaker reverts to step 1 of the two-team format.

2012 REVOLUTION MEDIA POLICIES

The New England Revolution is pleased to assist you in your coverage of the team. As an organization, Kraft Sports Group - the New England Patriots and New England Revolution - has specific media policies of which you should be aware as you prepare to cover the team.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

All media who have been issued credentials - season, day-of-game or training - and who are granted access to the team, are expected to follow the guidelines set forth in this document, as well as the instructions of the Revolution staff, stadium employees and security, or risk limitation of access or revocation of credentials.

Media access is issued with the purpose of providing access to interviews and written, audio and visual accounts of the team, as appropriate. No member of the media should use this access for autographs, personal photographs or commercial requests. Doing so will automatically result in the permanent revocation of credentials to cover the New England Revolution.

At all times, those granted media access must abide by the conditions set forth on the back of their MLS and/or Revolution credentials.

MEDIA SERVICES

Press Releases and Alerts: Requests to be added to the Revolution's media distribution lists should be emailed to media@revolutionssoccer.net.

Media Guides: Digital media guides will once again be made available to regular and national media in 2012. A full PDF version of the media guide will be available on revolutionssoccer.net.

Official Web Site: revolutionssoccer.net is the official web site of the New England Revolution. All content posted on the site by the team may be republished in its entirety by media outlets, with credit cited as "New England Revolution." Note that user-generated content, including user comments, photos and videos, MAY NOT be republished without explicit permission.

Video: Media are welcome to share and embed videos that appear on revolutionssoccer.net.

B-roll & Interviews: With sufficient notice, the Revolution Communications staff will usually be able to provide footage and interviews by request. To request b-roll or pre-taped interviews, please e-mail media@revolutionssoccer.net to inquire about availability.

Twitter: twitter.com/NERevolution (username: @NERevolution) is the official Twitter account of the New England Revolution. Media are welcome to re-tweet Revolution content, including play-by-play accounts, using the "RT @NERevolution" or "via @NERevolution" tags. Beginning in 2012, the Revolution will utilize a separate account (@NERevLive) for in-game updates from MLS, non-league, reserve and youth team matches. Major game milestones will only be re-tweeted by @NERevolution.

Current Photos: For immediate and self-service access to action and candid photos of the current team, please access the team's Flickr account at www.flickr.com/photos/NERevolution/. Search the team's Photostream for images of the player(s) you need, and then download high-resolution images by clicking on the Actions button in the upper left corner on the image you chose. Select View all Sizes, and once you've selected the size you'd like, you can download that size photo directly to your computer. All photo credit for these images should be "New England Revolution".

Head Shots & Photo Archive: The Communications staff maintains a database of headshots from all members of the active roster, including coaches and staff, and has a growing archive that includes players from the last five seasons and most higher-profile players from the team's history. The team also has a growing archive of action shots, which is available for use by members of the media with proper photo credit. Please email media@revolutionssoccer.net for any photo requests that are not available through the team's Flickr account.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY AT TRAINING SESSIONS

The Revolution conducts media access at every training session at which the first team and/or starters are on the training field. Most of the Revolution's training sessions are open in their entirety to media. However, on certain days, only the latter portions of training will be open to media. Please refer to the team's Weekly Update (usually issued on Mondays) for the team's media availability that week, or contact the Revolution Communications staff for any updates.

In your coverage of daily sessions, we ask for your cooperation in observing the following practice policies. Failure to do so could result in the revocation of media credentials.

1. Please do not report on match strategy deployed at training. This includes describing specific formations, personnel groupings, set pieces and combinations.
2. Please do not quote, paraphrase or report the comments made by coaches, staff or players during a training session.

GENERAL SECURITY POLICIES

Because of security procedures in place at Gillette Stadium, any member of the media who wishes to attend a training session at the stadium's practice fields or on the main stadium field MUST inform the Revolution Communications staff before the close of business the day before you wish to come. All media who have alerted the staff of their scheduled attendance will have their names left at Security Command for check-in. We cannot guarantee admittance to the stadium grounds if we are not aware that you are planning to come to training.

CHECKING IN AT GILLETTE STADIUM

All members of the media who attend any Revolution training session at Gillette Stadium must check in at Security Command, located at the south end of the stadium (through the doors under the red awning), unless otherwise indicated. All members of the media who have RSVP'd with the Revs Communications staff will be on a list at the check-in window. Please have proper forms of ID available, which can include MLS and/or Revolution season credentials. On days when only the latter stages of training are open to media, media are asked to arrive promptly at access time. A member of the Revolution Communications staff will meet media and bring them out to the training field at the designated time.

GAME DAY CREDENTIALS

Media members who are not issued season credentials must apply for game day credentials to the Revolution Communications staff no later than 5 p.m. on Thursdays for weekend matches and 5 p.m. on Mondays for weekday matches. All requests will be reviewed and media will be notified if they have been approved for credentials no later than 24 hours before kickoff. Parking passes will also be sent at that time.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Media Will Call is located at the south end of the stadium at Security Command (through the doors under the red awning). This is for press and photo credentials only. Every member of the media is required to show ID upon checking in, and will also be asked to initial the sign-in sheet upon arrival.

MEDIA PARKING

For the majority of the season, all media are to park in Lot 6 for both training and games unless otherwise directed. To enter the stadium, please use the North Entrance (P1) off Rt. 1 and stop at the security gatehouse at the entrance to Gillette Stadium. You will be directed to the proper lot from there. Parking passes are required for games.

PLAYER AND STAFF INTERVIEWS

All interviews for Revolution players, coaches, executives and staff must be coordinated through the Communications office. Contacting the player directly could result in the revocation of credentials.

Training: Unless weather conditions preclude it, all player and staff interviews will be conducted on the side of the practice field at the conclusion of the training session. Generally, head coach Jay Heaps will be available first, followed by the players after they have completed their stretching and cool down.

Any interview requests that will require additional time with a player or coach should be made well in advance so that we can make the appropriate arrangements and ensure the subject is available when needed.

Game days: Per MLS policy, teams are to be made available to media up to 60 minutes before advertised kickoff of an MLS regular-season match. Players, however, can decline interviews at this time. Any violations of this policy for home or road teams should be reported to MLS Communications.

Following the final whistle of the game, teams are afforded a 15-minute cooling off period in their locker rooms. Following that time, Jay Heaps will conduct a press conference in the production studio, and the team's locker room will be opened to the media. (Please note that the Revs' locker room will not be opened before the press conference begins.) Visiting teams may have different postgame policies so media is advised to check with visiting team PR officials for their protocols. Per MLS policies, all locker rooms must be opened 15 minutes after the final whistle. Any violations of this policy for home or road teams should be reported to MLS Communications.

STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS

Training: Still photographers are allowed to shoot each practice during the entirety of media availability. All photographers must remain off the playing field and should stay behind the sideline and end line markings of the field.

In some instances - such as practice on set pieces, corner kicks and penalty kicks - a member of the Revolution Communications staff will ask all TV photographers to stop shooting for a brief period.

Game days: All still photographers must wear the photo bib that is issued to them at media will call. Failure to wear the bib while out on the field could result in dismissal from the stadium.

Photographers should set up in the Media Work Room, located at the north end of the stadium service tunnel. A light meal and beverages are provided in this room before the game. During Patriots Training Camp (late July- mid-August), all photographers must set up in the Blue Level Press Box and no photographers will be allowed in the Media Work Room.

GAMEDAY PHOTOGRAPHER POLICIES

Only photographers who are shooting for an accredited media outlet or wire service will be credentialed for games. Freelance photographers will not be credentialed per organizational policy. Photographers should meet at the midfield sideline prior to the game in order to shoot starting lineups and team photos. At the conclusion of those opportunities, all photographers must adhere to the following photographer guidelines:

1. General photographers are allowed to shoot the game from the end line only.
2. No photographer is allowed to shoot directly behind the goal, and all photographers must be off to either side of the goal stanchions.
3. Photographers must remain at one end of the field for the duration of the half, and are only allowed to switch ends at halftime.
4. No one with a PHOTO credential is allowed in the technical (bench) area at any time, including warm-ups.

VIDEO PHOTOGRAPHERS

Video cameras will be allowed to shoot training during the entirety of media availability, following the same rules above for Still Photographers.

At games, local ENG and news crews are allowed to shoot the first 15 minutes of each half. At the 15:00 and 60:00 marks of the game, all video cameras must be turned off.

FILING AT THE STADIUM ON NON-GAME DAYS

If you need to work and file from Gillette Stadium on a non-game day, please inform a member of the Communications staff in advance of your arrival so the appropriate arrangements can be made. We cannot guarantee available space if we do not know ahead of time.

TELEVISION AND RADIO

TELEVISION

Now in the third year of the broadcast agreement, Comcast Sports Net is the regional television home of the New England Revolution, with every match on CSN broadcast in 1080i high definition. The relationship continues the Revolution's proud tradition of having every MLS match televised during the course of the club's 17-season history.

In addition to the Revs' matches on CSN, three Revs games will be televised on national broadcast partner NBC Sports (NBC and NBC Sports Network): March 31 at LA Galaxy, April 28 at New York and July 29 at Philadelphia. Additionally, Spanish language broadcast partner Univision (which also includes the Galavisión and Telefuturo networks), will broadcast the July 8 match against the New York Red Bulls. ESPN/ABC Sports is also a national broadcast partner of Major League Soccer.

Again this season, Kraft Sports Productions will produce all non-nationally televised Revolution games under the guidance of Executive Producer Matt Smith, KSP Director Dave Mondillo and Brad Feldman, the Revolution's Supervising Producer. Jeff Strauss and Jim Daddona are the broadcast's primary producers. In addition to Daddona's directorial work when he's not producing, Bob Frattaroli and Shawn Jensen share directorial duties.

RADIO

The Revolution is also committed to the best in live game radio coverage. For the third season, the Revolution have partnered with 98.5 The Sports Hub, which is the primary carrier for Revs radio. 98.5 The Sports Hub is an exciting, fast-paced FM Sports radio station with a distinct rock edge to it. In less than three years, 98.5 The Sports Hub has changed the entire Boston radio landscape. It's the perfect place to hear all of the Rev's play-by-play action.

All 34 Revolution regular-season games will again be broadcast on radio and on the web. Kevin Collins produces all Revolution radio and webcasting content, including the weekly show, "The Far Post Podcast," on revolutionsoccer.net.

Brad Feldman - Play-by-Play

Brad Feldman is entering his 12th season as a Revolution broadcaster, having called almost 400 matches involving the club. This season marks his eighth as the primary play-by-play announcer for the team's broadcasts, both on television and on radio. He is also the Supervising Producer for all Revolution telecasts, heading each match broadcast – including content, operations and production.

Feldman joined the Revs organization in 2001 as a TV and radio announcer. He broadcast all four of the Revs' MLS Cup appearances and was an announcer for the club's 2007 U.S. Open Cup and SuperLiga 2008 championship-winning matches. Feldman's resume includes play-by-play commentary for top European competitions on ESPN International and Setanta Sports and announcing MLS, USL and college matches on FOX Soccer. He began his MLS broadcasting career as a sideline reporter for the Kansas City Wizards telecasts in 1999. Feldman is a frequent guest on New England and national radio and TV talk programs on the subject of soccer.

Jeff Causey - Color Analyst

Jeff Causey is in his first season with the Revolution and will provide color commentary for a majority of the 31 matches produced by KSP this season. Causey joined the Revolution in 1997, and made 89 appearances in goal during his six-year stint with the club. In 2000, he started a career-high 21 of the 22 matches in which he played, posting a 1.55 goals against average with three shutouts while stopping 4-of-5 penalty kicks he faced. In New England, Causey went 34-44-8 in goal with a 1.80 career goals against average. He began his MLS career in 1996 with D.C. United, helping the club win the inaugural MLS Cup and the 1996 U.S. Open Cup.

Following his retirement from soccer at the end of the 2002 season, Causey entered coaching full-time and joined the staff at Maryland in 2002. He then returned to Boston and served as an assistant coach with the Boston Breakers of WUSA under current U.S. Women's National Team head coach Pia Sundhage in 2003. Before his MLS career, he was on Bruce Arena's coaching staff at his alma mater, Virginia, in 1995. As a player for the Cavaliers from 1990-93, Causey helped win three NCAA championship and earned All-America honors in 1993 as a senior. He was also Principle of Jeff Causey Soccer from 1995 to 2004, and he holds a USSF "B" License. Causey is currently an Assistant Vice President at Citizens Investment Services.

Damon "D.A." Amendolara - Sideline Reporter

Damon "D.A." Amendolara, the popular host of the market-leading "The D.A. Show" on 98.5 The Sports Hub (6-11 p.m.), enters his third season as the sideline reporter for the Revs' home broadcasts. He joined the club's broadcast team in 2010, months after arriving in Boston in 2009. Before landing at The Sports Hub, Amendolara hosted a nighttime sports show at Miami's WQAM from 2007 to 2009.

While he was the morning host at 610 Sports in Kansas City from 2003 to 2007, he was active with the then-Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting Kansas City) of MLS. Amendolara began his career as the studio host for the then-USL's Rochester Rhinos, after graduating from Syracuse University in 2001. Amendolara is also a frequent guest on CSN's "Sunday SportsNite" show, hosts a weekly segment on Boston's Fox-25 News and contributes to the NFL Network.

PATRIOT PLACE

Patriot Place is New England's most unique shopping, dining and entertainment destination. Covering more than one million square feet surrounding Gillette Stadium including the North and South Marketplaces, Patriot Place has become the place in the region to shop, dine and enjoy.

Shop...

The South Marketplace offers the very best of national retailer giants such as Bed Bath & Beyond, Staples, Off Broadway Shoe Warehouse, Sleepy's and Christmas Tree Shops. Bass Pro Shops, the world's largest and most exciting outdoor recreation retailer anchors the South Marketplace and is the only one located in the Northeast. With more than 150,000 square feet of museum quality wildlife displays, aquariums stocked with native fish species and acres of premium outdoor lifestyle merchandise, Bass Pro Shops at Patriot Place is an unforgettable experience - as close to the Great Outdoors as you can get indoors!

The North Marketplace is the place to find all your favorite retailers like Old Navy, GameStop, Reebok, Victoria's Secret, Express, Patriots ProShop, Aeropostale, Eastern Mountain Sports, Life is good, Olympia Sports and many more! Additionally, Charming Charlie, a fashion accessory boutique that has been delighting women of all ages since 2004, is the first to open in Massachusetts. Through a unique blend of fun, style, color and affordability, Charming Charlie helps shoppers pull together their look through the key finishing touches - earrings, necklaces, bracelets, handbags, scarves, belts ... in a fun, boutique environment.

Dine...

When the day turns to night at Patriot Place, you will find a wide array of exquisite dining and entertainment venues throughout Patriot

Place. If you're looking for a quick bite to eat, look no further than Qdoba, Dunkin' Donuts, Baskin Robbins and Five Guys Burgers & Fries. From casual to upscale, our sit-down restaurants include CBS Scene, Red Robin, Bar Louie, Skipjack's, Tavolino, Tastings Wine Bar & Bistro, Davio's, Twenty8, Studio 3, Blue Fin Lounge and Olive Garden. If that wasn't enough, the first Toby Keith's I Love This Bar & Grill in New England opened in 2011. Named after Keith's hit single "I Love This Bar," the 19,000-square-foot restaurant seats 400, features "Toby," a mechanical bull, free live music and home-cooked Southern style fare including pulled-pork sandwiches, fried bologna sandwiches, meatloaf and Southern-fried Twinkies.

Enjoy...

Patriot Place's one-of-a-kind entertainment options are abound throughout the North & South Marketplaces. Treat yourself at Spa Epoche® or at the Green Tangerine Salon. Take a stroll through the Nature Trail and Ocean Spray Cranberry Bog. Bring the kids to jump on the tumble track at Kidville. Join the huddle, kick a field goal or snap a photo with all three of the Lombardi Trophies at The Hall at Patriot Place Presented by Raytheon. Lean back in a luxurious leather seat in the Lux Level at Showcase Cinema de Lux or attend a concert at Showcase Live. Take the adventure of a lifetime and become an international spy at Espionage, dodging lasers and cracking safes, or 20,000 Leagues, where Captain Nemo and his incredible Nautilus may be more than science fiction. And coming in 2012 is Trader Joe's, the unique, neighborhood grocery store with foods and beverages ranging from the everyday to the exotic.
