Jay Sugarman
Chairman

With an eye toward investing, Chairman Jay Sugarman surveyed the American professional sports landscape. After much research and discovery, he saw a great future of growth and opportunity in Major League Soccer and set out on the course to pursue ownership in MLS in 2005, a quest that ultimately led to Philadelphia.

On February 28, 2008, MLS Commissioner Don Garber awarded the League's 16th team to Keystone Sports and Entertainment LLC. Guided by Sugarman's attention to detail and financial commitment, ownership began to put the elements and people in place to create an extraordinary soccer club and entertainment company for supporters throughout the Greater Philadelphia Region and beyond. Sugarman is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of iStar Financial (NYSE:SFI), a leading provider of custom-tailored capital to high-end private and corporate owners of real estate in the United States. Through its European, AutoStar and TimberStar platforms, iStar invests globally and in the leveraged finance markets, through its affiliate, Oak Hill Advisors.

Prior to forming iStar Financial and its predecessors, Sugarman managed private investment funds on behalf of the Burden family, a branch of the Vanderbilts and the Ziff family. Sugarman graduated summa cum laude degree from Princeton University, where he was nominated for valedictorian and received the Paul Volcker Award in Economics. He received his M.B.A. with highest distinction from Harvard Business School, graduating as a Baker Scholar and was recipient of the school's academic prizes for both finance and marketing.

Nick Sakiewicz
CEO & Operating Partner

A native of Passaic, New Jersey, Nick Sakiewicz (pronounced Suh-kev-itch) grew up playing on pitches and playgrounds of that North Jersey working class town. A first generation American, he acquired his soccer education playing in the diverse ethnic clubs throughout the northeast. Now, 16 years after joining Major League Soccer as a founding executive, Sakiewicz is the CEO & Operating Partner of Keystone Sports and Entertainment LLC. It is his passion that drives the organization. It is his insight and expertise that created the environment that enabled the club to build PPL Park, a picturesque, soccer-specific stadium on the banks of the Delaware River in Chester, Pa., at a time when elsewhere, other entrepreneurs were delaying and even shutting down projects.

Prior to helping to create Keystone Sport and Entertainment LLC, Sakiewicz enjoyed a diverse and successful business career, in manufacturing, retail, real estate and financial services, in addition to sports management. In the years immediately preceding the formation of the parent company of Philadelphia Union, he was the President of AEG New York. As such, Sakiewicz was responsible for operating AEG's sports, entertainment and real estate assets, including the development and construction of Red Bull Arena, a new, state-of-the-art stadium and mixed use development in Harrison, New Jersey. Among his successes with AEG was his role in the record-setting $100-million sale of the New York/New Jersey MetroStars to Red Bull Energy Drink Company of Austria.

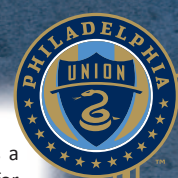

Earlier, Sakiewicz had been the President and General Manager of the MetroStars, serving in that capacity for five seasons from 2000—2005. The year before he took over, the club won just seven games during the 1999 season. After a complete overhaul of the organization and in his first season, the MetroStars went 17-12-3 en route to capturing the MLS Eastern Division title. In 2001, another winning season put the club into the playoffs in consecutive seasons for the first time in their history. Following the 2002 season, Sakiewicz hired fellow New Jersey native and current U.S. Men's National Team Head Coach Bob Bradley from the Chicago Fire. Under Bradley, the MetroStars reached the finals of the 2003 U.S. Open Cup and returned to the MLS playoffs in 2003 and 2004, making it four out of five seasons under the leadership of Sakiewicz that they participated in the post-season. On the business side, Sakiewicz built the MetroStars "Red and Black" brand and AEG New York into one of the most successful Major League Soccer organizations, consistently ranking the team in the top 3 in ticket and sponsorship sales. During his tenure there, the club increased corporate sponsorship revenues more than 500% and grew attendance every season—two extraordinary feats, despite not owning its own stadium.

A two-time MLS Executive of the Year, Sakiewicz garnered his first award in 1999 as President and General Manager of the League-owned Tampa Bay Mutiny. In his three-plus seasons in Tampa, he led the Mutiny on a steady path of growth in both season ticket and sponsorship sales and helped the Mutiny secure a new multi-year lease with Raymond James Stadium. Sakiewicz has had a successful history and proven track record in recognizing, signing and developing young talent. Among those whose careers he has touched, are: Tim Howard (Everton), Clint Mathis (retired), Steve Ralston (retired) and Eddie Gaven (Columbus Crew) as well as savvy big-name international veterans under the tight player salary controls of MLS such as Tab Ramos (USA), Carlos Valderamma (Colombia), Youri Djorkaeff (France), Adolfo Valencia (Colombia), Lothar Matheus (Germany) and Amado Guevara (Honduras).

As a collegiate goalkeeper at the University of New Haven, he earned NCAA All-American honors in 1981 and All-New England honors each season from 1980-83. He is a member of the UNH Hall of Fame and still holds every major goalkeeping record at the school. He was part of the player pool for the 1980 Olympic Team, but the team was never selected by the coach and Philadelphia soccer icon Walt Chyzowych, after President Carter decided to boycott the '80 games in Moscow. Sakiewicz went on to play professionally with

F.C. Nantes in the French First Division as a developmental player. In 1983, he played for legendary coach Dr. Joe Machnik with the New York Arrows of the Major Indoor Soccer League. The following season, he was back in Europe, playing for F.C. Belenenses of the Portuguese First Division. After recovering from a serious leg injury he later played one more season for the Tampa Bay Rowdies in the APSL during the 1989 season, and then retired from professional soccer.

Dave Rowan
Executive Vice President & CRO

Dave Rowan joined Philadelphia Union as Executive Vice President and Chief Revenue Officer in October 2010, bringing more than 26 years of experience in the sports industry. Along with a comprehensive knowledge, Rowan also brings an abundance of local roots, having worked with both the Philadelphia Eagles and the Philadelphia Phillies in the past.

After graduating from Penn State in 1984, Rowan began his career as General Manager of the Clearwater Phillies, later working as an accountant executive in Corporate Sales for the Major League franchise.

While serving as the Vice President of Corporate Sales for the Eagles, Rowan played a major role in closing one of the largest stadium naming rights deals in NFL history with Lincoln Financial Group, as well as the largest deal for a team practice facility with NovaCare. His department continued to thrive during the inaugural season of Lincoln Financial Field, establishing the Eagles as one of the top revenue producing teams in the NFL.

He has also been the Director of Sales for the Spectator Management Group where his responsibility consisted of all sales activities of the Flyers and Spectrum properties, as well as the 11 building in the Southeastern region of the country, including the Louisiana Superdome and Jacksonville Gator Bowl. Rowan spent three seasons as the Director of Corporate Sales for the Jacksonville Jaguars, where he helped to develop the corporate sales plan for the team in its first year of existence.

Rowan and his wife, Celeste, have four children, Courtney, Drew, Maggie and Kylie.

David Debusschere
Executive Vice President & CFO

Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer David Debusschere joined Keystone Sports and Entertainment in June, 2008 and immediately immersed himself in the development of PPL Park, the club's soccer-specific stadium on the banks of the Delaware River in Chester, Pa. Working in tandem with CEO and Operating Partner Nick Sakiewicz, Debusschere managed all relationships with key political, banking and construction partners relating to the PPL Park construction project and following the opening of PPL Park in June of 2010, is now responsible for ongoing stadium operations. In addition, Debusschere oversees Keystone Sports and Entertainment's operating budget and all financial, treasury, accounting, insurance, human resource and IT related matters.

A Certified Public Accountant and Certified Treasury Professional, Debusschere has amassed more than a decade of vast and varied financial expertise prior to joining Keystone Sports and Entertainment. He began his career as an auditor and business advisor at PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP where he achieved the role of Manager and was most recently an Assistant Vice President at Philadelphia Insurance Companies, where his broad range of responsibilities covered budgeting and finance, treasury, SEC reporting and accounting.

Raised in Saskatchewan, Canada, Debusschere attended Colgate University on an ice hockey scholarship and was named a District 1 Academic All-American while achieving a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. During the time period following his graduation from Colgate, he completed his MBA at Saint Joseph's University with a concentration in Finance.

Debusschere and his wife Kira, have two sons, Jackson (7) and Tyler (5).

Peter Nowak
Team Manager

Peter Nowak's storied soccer journey began in Pabianice, a small town in Poland, at a time closed behind the Iron Curtain. He left home at the age of 15 to pursue his soccer dreams, which have led him to Philadelphia. Now is his second season as Philadelphia Union's Team Manager, Nowak is responsible for all facets of the club's training and on-field performance as well as for establishing a similar program for all related youth and minor league partners and affiliates.

After working to refine his playing skills in Turkey and Switzerland, Nowak moved to Germany to become a member of Dynamo Dresden. It was his next stop, however, where Nowak really hit his stride. In 1994, he signed with the Bundesliga, first with FC Kaiserslautern and later 1860 Munich, where he played until 1998. During the 1995-96 season, Nowak was voted the Bundesliga's Best Playmaker, as well as the Polish Player of the Year.

In 1998, Nowak moved to the United States and joined the Chicago Fire for the team's inaugural MLS season. He promptly established himself as one of the best players in the League, leading the Fire to a MLS Cup ('98) and two US Open Cups ('98, '00). Nowak patrolled the Fire midfield for 114 league games, registering 26 goals and 48 assists. He played with Chicago for five seasons and retired in 2003. Nowak worked in the Fire front office for one season, before moving back to coaching in 2004 when he was hired as head coach of D.C. United. In his first season in D.C., he guided a side that had finished no better than fourth in the Eastern Conference the previous four seasons, to a MLS Cup Championship, with a 3-2 victory over the Kansas City Wizards. With the victory, Nowak became and still remains, the only man in League history to win a MLS Cup as both a player and a head coach. Additionally, he became the first head coach in all major American sports in the last half-century to win a championship within two years of retiring as a player.

In 2005, as part of its 10th anniversary celebration, Major League Soccer named Nowak to its All-Time Best XI, a selection of the best 11 players in the history of the League. In three years with United, Nowak led the club to a record of 42-27-25, while winning the Supporters' Shield for best regular season record in 2006, with a 15-7-10 mark.

During his illustrious playing career, Nowak served as the captain of the Polish National Team for three years, playing in 24 games and scoring three goals. In 2005, Polish President Aleksander Kwansniewski rewarded Nowak for his contributions made to his homeland, bestowing the prestigious Cavalier Cross of Merit of the Republic of Poland.

That international experience no doubt helped as he moved on to become an assistant to United States Men's National Team Head Coach Bob Bradley, who had been his coach in Chicago. Nowak also served as head coach of the U-23 National Team, where together with Bradley, they coached over 70 players and orchestrated the USA's championship run to a title in the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup.

John Hackworth Coach

After two years with the United States Men's National Team, Coach John Hackworth reunited with Team Manager Peter Nowak last season and has been key in creating a style and level of commitment for all who wear Philadelphia Union colors, from youth partners on up through the first team.

Hackworth spent two years alongside Nowak as an assistant to Head Coach Bob Bradley, and helped guide the USMNT to a first place finish in group play in World Cup Qualifying and a second place finish in the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup. In addition to his position with the USMNT, Hackworth also served as the Development Academy Technical Director in U.S. Soccer's player development initiative that launched in 2007.

Prior to joining the USMNT staff, he spent more than six years with the U.S. Under-17 Residency Program in Bradenton, Fla. Hackworth served as head coach of the 2005 and 2007 World Cup teams, leading the squad to a fifth place finish in the 2005 U-17 World Cup and winning CONCACAF qualifying in both '05 and '07. While in Bradenton, he was instrumental in helping the maturation of some of the best young professionals, including Michael Bradley, Jonathan Spector, Jozy Altidore, Freddy Adu and current Philadelphia Union members Kyle Nakazawa, Sheanon Williams, Amobi Okugo, Jack McInerney, Zac MacMath, Michael Farfan and Gabriel Farfan. In 2008, Hackworth was recognized for his contribution to the game of soccer, earning the United States Olympic Committee Developmental Coach of the Year Award.

Hackworth was a top level college coach for nine years, spending four as the head coach at the University of South Florida and five years as the top assistant at Wake Forest. During his tenure at USF, he helped the Bulls to a 47-32-2 (.592) record and two NCAA Tournament appearances (1998 and 2001). In 1998, Hackworth's squad won the Conference USA Tournament championship and a share of the C-USA regular season title. For his efforts, Hackworth was tabbed the league's Coach of the Year.

Born and raised in Dunedin, Fla., Hackworth graduated from Wake Forest in 1992, helping his coach and Philadelphia soccer icon Walt Chyzowych lead the club to a No. 3 ranking nationally in 1991 and 1992. He went on to play professionally for the Carolina Dynamo of the A-League in 1997, a team that finished as national runners-up.

Hackworth and his wife, Tricia, have three sons, Morgan (14), Keaton (13) and Larsen (10).

Rob Vartughian Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coordinator

Perhaps no one has had more success in the country at grooming some of the nation's top goalkeepers than Assistant Coach/Goalkeeper Coordinator Rob Vartughian. In seven seasons with the University of Maryland men's soccer team, he helped the Terps to seven straight NCAA tournament appearances, four College Cups, two NCAA national championships and a pair of ACC Championships. Vartughian has known nothing but success on the collegiate level and is expected to continue his impressive run as an assistant coach with Philadelphia Union.

In his time with Maryland, the versatile Vartughian has guided the careers of young goalkeepers with great success, including the Union's 2011 MLS SuperDraft First Round selection Zac MacMath and former Union 'keeper Chris Seitz. Both MacMath and Seitz made crucial saves to lead the Terps to a NCAA Championship in their respective freshman seasons.

Vartughian was instrumental in not only working with the keepers, but was heavily involved with all aspects of the program. His efforts helped land recruiting classes that were annually considered among the best in the country. Recognized as one of the nation's top assistant coaches, he was an integral part of the player development of over 25 MLS Superdraft picks.

In addition to his duties with the Terps, Vartughian has been a goalkeeper coach at the national level and involved with several of the national teams. He served as the goalkeeper coach for the United States U-23 Olympic team that traveled to Japan in preparation for the 2008 Olympic in Beijing. Since 2008, he has served as an assistant coach with the U-15 National Team in various camps. Vartughian also serves as a scout for the U.S. Soccer Development Academy and in 2006 was head coach of the Maryland Boys (1990's) ODP team that captured a national championship.

Prior to his work at College Park, Md., Vartughian worked as an assistant at Penn, where, as both the men's and women's goalkeeping instructor, his keepers earned All-American and All-Ivy Player of the Year accolades. During his tenure, both the Quakers' men's and women's teams went on to win Ivy League titles in 2001 and 2002.

Vartughian's playing career is just as impressive as his coaching career. He played for St. Bonaventure University from 1996-99, graduating with a degree in accounting and finance before heading to Wake Forest in 2000 to begin graduate work in education. During his three seasons with the Bonnies, he set records for shutouts in a single season and career goals-against average. He finished his career as the starting goalkeeper at Wake, where he made 72 saves on the year. Raised in North Brunswick, N.J., Vartughian played for both the Major Indoor Soccer League's Philadelphia Kixx and the A-League's Hampton Roads Mariners and Charleston Battery. He spent 2001 with the South Jersey Barons Division III United Soccer League team.

Vartughian and his wife Jess have one daughter, Karter.

Diego Gutierrez

Head of Scouting and Player Development

Diego Gutierrez joined Philadelphia Union's technical staff in August of 2010 as the Head of Scouting and Player Development. Gutierrez, a former Major League Soccer player, brings an extensive pool of domestic and international contacts that will help the club identify talent worldwide and will also assist Team Manager Peter Nowak with player acquisitions and roster management. Gutierrez made an immediate impact after joining the Union, helping to sign two Colombian players, Frayd Mondragon and Carlos Valdes. Gutierrez said that he had many long conversations late into nights with Mondragon and Valdes trying to lure them to Philadelphia.

The Colombian midfielder is quite familiar with the MLS, having spent his entire professional career in the League with the Chicago Fire and Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting KC). Taken by the Fire in the 1997 Expansion Draft, Gutierrez has won a total of four U.S. Open Cups, three conference titles, and one MLS Cup, a feat that he accomplished alongside then teammate Nowak in 1998. In 256 regular season appearances, he has amassed 12 goals and 49 assists. For him accomplishments, Soccer America named Gutierrez among the decade's best in both the 1990's and 2000's. Upon retirement in 2008, Gutierrez was the recipient of the MLS' Commissioner's Award, the League's highest honor.

After becoming a United States citizen in 2000, Gutierrez received his first and only cap with the U.S. National Team against South Korea on December 9, 2001.

Gutierrez was the recipient of the 2010 Jerry Yeagley Award for Exceptional Personal Achievement by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America, which recognizes a current or former collegiate soccer player who has achieved extraordinary accomplishments and has demonstrated the qualities of sportsmanship, integrity and strong work ethic.

Off the field, Gutierrez has a rich philanthropic and humanitarian background, supporting over half a dozen organizations on national, regional, and local levels. He serves as a national spokesperson for the Nothing But Nets malaria campaign, is a current member of the U.S. Soccer Foundation's Player Advisory Council and served on the Presidential Council for Fitness and Sport, appointed by the White House, until May 2010. In September of 2009, Gutierrez became just the second soccer player (Pele being the other) to be inducted into the World Humanitarian Hall of Fame. He was also named the 2007 U.S. Soccer Federation/MLS Humanitarian of the year.

Gutierrez and his wife Gina have three children, Mia (13), Lina (12), and Javi (7)

Josh Gros

Team Coordinator

Josh Gros knows what it takes to win a Major League Soccer Championship. A four-year starter for D.C. United, Gros and Team Manager Peter Nowak led the Black and Red to the 2004 MLS Cup in their first season. Now in his second season as Team Coordinator, Gros' primary responsibilities involve many areas of team operations and administration.

Gros was drafted in the fourth round of the 2004 MLS SuperDraft and was immediately inserted into the starting line-up, becoming the club's first draft pick to log more than 2,000 minutes. Known for his tireless work ethic, Gros logged over 9,000 minutes in 110 games, resulting in nine goals and 14 assists. In 2006, he was named a MLS All-Star and helped the team to a 1-0 win over English Premier League Team Chelsea. Gros earned a cap with the U.S. Men's National Team in a 2-0 victory over archrival Mexico on February 7, 2007. Just when it seemed that Gros was destined for a long and successful career, a series of concussions forced him into early retirement at the end of the 2007 season.

Raised in Mechanicsburg, Pa., Gros played college soccer for Rutgers University where he totaled 22 goals and 16 assists as a four-year starter. Voted the 2004 BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year, he had a breakout senior season, leading the Conference in points, goals, points per game and goals per game with 16 goals and five assists. Gros garnered First Team All-BIG EAST honors and was named the 2003-2004 Rutgers Student Athlete of the Year, as well as a BIG EAST Scholar-Athlete.

Prior to returning to MLS, Gros spent 18 months working as a civil engineer for VIKI, Inc., in Virginia. He continued to stay involved in soccer, however, serving as an assistant coach with the Northern Virginia Royals of the USL Premier Development League.

Tim Cook
Equipment Coordinator

Equipment Coordinator Tim Cook enters his second season with Philadelphia Union after spending three years with the United States

Paul Rushing
Head Athletic Trainer

Paul Rushing enters his second season with Philadelphia Union after spending five years as a certified athletic trainer for ATHLETICO, INC. Rushing was assigned to the U.S. U-17

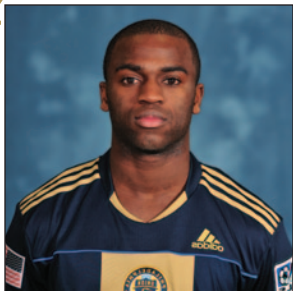

Men's Senior National Team. Having worked with some of the nation's best players and coaches throughout all levels of U.S. Soccer, including Clint Dempsey, Landon Donovan, Tim Howard and Philadelphia Union's own Peter Nowak and John Hackworth, Cook brings a world of experience to the City of Brotherly Love.

Raised in Sacramento, Calif., Cook graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a degree in kinesiology in 2007. Immediately after graduation, he took a job with U.S. Soccer and outfitted the USMNT through the CONCACAF World Cup qualifying round. The national team enjoyed one of its most successful stretches in history during Cook's tenure, winning silver medals in both the Confederations Cup and the Gold Cup last year.

Residency Program in Bradenton, Fla., where he previously worked with Coach John Hackworth and Union players Kyle Nakazawa, Jack McInerney, Amobi Okugo, Sheanon Williams, Michael Farfan and Zac MacMath.

Prior to his work with the U-17's, Rushing spent three years at the IMG/Bollettieri Sports Academies, where he worked with closely with both the men's and women's soccer programs. Certified in First Aid and CPR, he also served as a personal trainer, creating and monitoring customized diet and weight training programs.

A graduate of Western Illinois University, Rushing served in the United States Navy as a Second Class Petty Officer and earned numerous service medals during his eight-year service.

UNION/YSC DEVELOPMENT MODEL

"The Path to PPL Park"

Since the club's inception, identifying and nurturing gifted young athletes has been a fundamental building block of Philadelphia Union's overall plan. In the fall of 2009, the club selected YSC Academy to provide an extraordinary development program for players 8-12 years old at its facility in Wayne, Pa. and satellite sites throughout the Delaware Valley. For Philadelphia Union CEO & Operating Partner Nick Sakiewicz, it was imperative to create a program and work with a partner that would satisfy the needs of these young people in this critical phase of their soccer development. YSC Academy Founder Richie Graham is someone whose culture and philosophy mirrored that of Philadelphia Union.

As the second year of the partnership begins, a four phase development model is now in place to put young athletes on "the Path to PPL Park." The first three phases are elements of the Union Academy which provides free training and competition opportunities for elite youth players under a "club-neutral" format. This unique program enables gifted players and youth clubs everywhere to receive guidance and skill development under the watchful eye of world class coaches like Team Manager Peter Nowak and Coach John Hackworth of Philadelphia Union, along with YSC Director Iain Munro. The program focuses on providing a strong start to a child's soccer education and appreciation of the game.

FIRST TEAM

Step I in the Union Academy is the YSC Union Juniors program (ages 8-12), followed by the Union Juniors Academy (ages 13-14), and culminating with the Union Youth Academy (ages 15-18). The most innovative of the three elements of the Union/YSC Model is Step III. The Union Youth Academy is a Youth Development Affiliation (YDA) program that gives elite players at YDA clubs a direct and authentic link to the professional game and their clubs valuable oversight and guidance from Union/YSC Technical Staff.

The goal is for these players to take what they learn, back to their Eastern Pennsylvania Youth Soccer Association (EPYSA) and Delaware Youth Soccer Association (DYSA) clubs and school teams and put it all into action. In this way, these hungry young athletes will connect to the pros and envision themselves as professionals, aspiring to play for Philadelphia Union.

Ultimately, the fourth and final step of the progression is a spot on Philadelphia Union's First or Reserve Teams and/or one of their professional affiliate partners, Harrisburg City Islanders (USL-PRO) or Reading United (PDL).

TEAM AFFILIATIONS

In late December of 2009, Reading United AC (formerly the Reading Rage) became Philadelphia Union's exclusive minor league affiliate in the USL's Premier Development League. Along with Philadelphia Union providing coaching and clinical support, the Union/YSC Development Program is also a part of this relationship. Collectively, it ushers in a new era of growth and soccer development throughout Berks County. On June 23, 2010, the Union and Reading United AC played a friendly which the Union won 0-2.

On March 1st, 2010, the Harrisburg City Islanders joined the growing Philadelphia Union family. Harrisburg's partnership with the club, established them as the exclusive USL Second Division affiliate of Philadelphia Union. Like the arrangement with Reading United, player development is the primary component of the partnership with the City Islanders. The idea being to create a culture through training and competing with a commitment to playing attacking and attractive football for supporters to enjoy at all levels. The Union and the City Islanders played to a 1-1 draw in a friendly match on July 27, 2010.

Philadelphia Union 2, AC Reading 0 June 23, 2010 – Don Thomas Stadium

Tuning up for PPL Park's grand opening this Sunday, the Philadelphia Union earned a 2-0 win at Don Thomas Stadium against affiliate club Reading United AC on a hot Wednesday evening. After an Eric Schoenle own goal put Philadelphia up 1-0 in the 34th minute, Nick Zimmerman netted the Union's second goal in the 59th minute on an assist from Roger Torres.

Forward Sebastien Le Toux nearly helped the Union take an early lead in the eighth minute, but his darting run through the right side of the area and subsequent shot were stifled by Reading goalkeeper Jeremy Vuolo.

The Union had their chances throughout the first half, but utilized some help from Reading's defense to get on the board. After Le Toux found Andrew Jacobson along the right touchline, Jacobson's service into the box deflected off of Schoenle into the net, giving Philadelphia a 1-0 advantage.

The Union gained some breathing room after a combination between Mwanga and Torres near the top of the box led to a left-footed strike from Zimmerman that put Philadelphia up 2-0.

Perhaps the most exciting play of the match was one that didn't lead to a goal. In the 62nd minute off a Reading corner, J.T. Noone, who joined the Union on Wednesday from the Harrisburg City Islanders, found Mwanga in Philadelphia's territory. Mwanga proceeded to beat three defenders while diagonally cutting across the field before unleashing a shot with two defenders on his back. Mwanga wasn't able to convert, but the vast potential he has shown while scoring three stoppage time goals this season was yet again on full display.

The Union were able to spread significant minutes across their roster against Reading, something that will serve them well coming out of MLS' World Cup break. With PPL Park opening its doors on Sunday, June 27, Philadelphia will look to use the momentum of a brand new stadium and home crowd to begin turning their season around against Seattle Sounders FC.

Philadelphia Union 1, Celtic FC 0
July 14, 2010 – PPL Park

The Philadelphia Union rode a first-half goal from Sebastien Le Toux and a shutout for backup goalkeepers Brad Knighton and Brian Perk on Wednesday to a 1-0 win over legendary Scottish side Celtic FC at PPL Park.

The international friendly was the first in a stretch that will include a tilt against Manchester United later this month for the Union, who got the game-winner from their French phenom in the 23rd minute.

Debutant Eduardo Coudet, who has been on trial with the club, took the ball at the top of the box and slid a masterful pass to Le Toux at the penalty spot. Onside, Le Toux dribbled around Celtic goalkeeper and former MLS SuperDraft pick Dominic Cervi before placing the ball in the far corner.

The goal was a result of a strong opening for the Union, who nearly scored off the foot of rookie Danny Mwanga in the sixth minute, and threatened again when the 18 year-old hammered a half-volley into Cervi's chest off a corner kick just a minute later.

Celtic responded after Le Toux's goal and controlled the match for the remainder of the half, but they mustered little after the break against the Union's subs and were unable to put the ball past a very steady Perk. Amobi Okugo and Toni Stahl got solid looks for the Union coaching staff, and Jack McInerney impressed with creativity off the bench and lifted a shot from distance just over the crossbar in the second half.

Celtic did have a spurt of chances in the dying minutes of the match, but weren't able to put the ball past a very steady Perk. The young keeper saved two shots from in close, making himself one of the match's stars with the late show.

Scoring Summary

PHI – Sebastien Le Toux (Eduardo Coudet) 23'

Philadelphia Union 0, Manchester United 1

July 21, 2010 - Lincoln Financial Field

In the second match of Manchester United's U.S. tour, a 76th minute goal from Gabriel Obertan against Philadelphia Union's second team gave the Red Devils a 1-0 win over the home side at Lincoln Financial Field. The Union put forth a valiant effort in defeat, controlling much of the match in the first half, but were ultimately unable to find the back of the net.

Manchester United had the first scoring opportunity of the night, but Obertan missed the net on a one-touch volley off of a Danny Welbeck cross from the endline.

In the 11th minute, the Union nearly struck early after Danny Mwanga's cross from the right flank found Alejandro Moreno in the middle of the box 14 yards out, but the striker's attempt lacked pace and was saved easily by United goalkeeper Tomasz Kuszczak.

In the 17th minute, Eduardo Coudet's cross into the box for a streaking Sebastien Le Toux was nearly deflected on net from a very dangerous position, but the Union's leading scorer wasn't able to get enough contact to redirect the ball with authority.

The Union continued to control possession for much of the first half, with two good chances coming 10 minutes before the break. After Le Toux squared at the top of the box and had his shot deflected in the 33rd minute, the Frenchman created a scoring opportunity for Moreno just a minute later. Le Toux chested the ball down to Moreno, who had a crack from the edge of the area, but his attempt was also deflected.

Manchester United had a golden opportunity to take the lead in the 36th minute when Welbeck found the ball at his feet from 12 yards out, but the striker's blast on net was stopped by a diving Brad Knighton to keep the score level at 0-0.

In the 42nd minute, the Union came inches away from taking the lead. Off a two-on-one rush, Mwanga slid a ball through to Le Toux in the box to the left of the net, but Le Toux's low, angled shot narrowly missed the far post. After the break, Manchester United nearly struck in the 49th minute after Obertan crossed for Macheda in the area, but the ball sailed just over the midfielder's head.

Two minutes later, Jack McInerney came inches away from giving the Union a go-ahead goal after a through ball from Mwanga, but the 17-year-old phenom's low strike just missed the far post, the second time the Union suffered a similar fate.

In the 69th minute, Kyle Nakazawa struck a powerful free kick from 40 yards out that found its way through traffic and nearly into the goal, but Kuszczak was able to block it just in time. Orozco Fiscal had an opportunity off the rebound, but the bouncing ball was just out of the defender's reach.

Manchester United would find their go-ahead, and ultimately game-winning, goal in the 76th minute after a giveaway by Amobi Okugo in the midfield. Welbeck collected the loose ball, dribbled to the edge of the area and found a streaking Obertan, who took one touch and calmly passed goalkeeper Brian Perk with his right foot to put the Red Devils up 1-0. United nearly took a 2-0 lead minutes later, but Dimitar Berbatov's spinning blast from 12 yards out hit the crossbar, keeping the score 1-0 in favor of the visiting side.

The Union had one final chance to equalize in the 89th minute when Nick Zimmerman slid a cross through the box to an onrushing Andrew Jacobson, but the midfielder's diving attempt popped over the net.

Despite the loss, Philadelphia impressively outplayed the visitors for large stretches, but their inability to finish ultimately cost them a chance to pull off a monumental upset.

Scoring Summary:

Man Utd -- Gabriel Obertan (Danny Welbeck) 76'

Philadelphia Union 1, Harrisburg City Islanders 1 July 27, 2010 – Skyline Sports Complex

Danny Mwanga's tally in the 30th minute gave Philadelphia Union the lead but an own goal just a minute later proved to be the Union's downfall as the club produced a 1-1 draw against USL-2 affiliate Harrisburg City Islanders on Tuesday night.

Philadelphia Union trialist and Harrisburg native J.T. Noone saw significant playing time as a member of both the Islander and Union squads, starting first for the home team and later changing to the Union blue and gold for the second half of the match.

The Islanders wasted no time putting the Union defense to the test, rattling off three scoring chances in the first 12 minutes of the match. The Union's first real chance to get on the board came in the 15th minute off of a shot by Nick Zimmerman but Harrisburg's Tomer Chencinski made a diving save to preserve the stalemate. The Union seemed to pick up their offense over the course of the next 15 minutes resulting in the visitor's first tally. A series of passes beginning with midfielder Andrew Jacobson and a deflection by Jordan Harvey set up a Union corner in the 29th minute. Fred's service into the box was headed by Danny Mwanga into the lower left hand side of the goal to put Philadelphia up 1-0 in the 30th minute.

The Islanders would not be down for long, however, as miscommunication between Chris Seitz and Harvey resulted in a Union own goal, tying the game at one just a minute later.

Philadelphia continued to push for the remainder of the half but could not seem to break through the Islander defense and took a 1-1 result into the break.

Kyle Nakazawa returned to the Philadelphia line-up in the second half after almost a month long absence and made an immediate impact, nearly putting the Union ahead in the opening seconds of the stanza. Nakazawa drew a foul and his ensuing free kick nearly snuck into the upper left hand corner of the goal but Chencinski was there to punch it away.

Chencinski denied subsequent shots by McInerney and Nakazawa allowing his side to continue to pressure the Union defense over the course of the next 25 minutes. Brad Knighton came up big during that stretch but the Islanders weren't finished yet. Brian Ombiji made a run down the right side of the field in the 90th minute and sent the ball into the box just past the reach of Knighton. Luckily for the Union, no one was able to get a touch on it and time expired with the 1-1 result.

Philadelphia Union -- Chris Seitz (Brad Knighton 46'); Michael Orozco Fiscal, Danny Califf, Cristian Arrieta (Toni Stahl 46'), Jordan Harvey; Stefani Miglioranza (Kyle Nakazawa 46'), Eduardo Coudet (J.T. Noone 61'), Fred (Jack McInerney 46'), Andrew Jacobson (Amobi Okugo 46'); Danny Mwanga, Nick Zimmerman

Unused Substitutes: Shea Salinas

Harrisburg City Islanders -- Tomer Chencinski, Geoff Bloes (Anthony Di Biase 63'), Dustin Bixler (Tyler Ruthven 46'), Jerrett Thayer, Anthony Calvano (Nate Jafta 63'), Jason Pelletier (Dominic Oppong 46') J.T. Noone (Moloi 30'), Kai Kasiguran (Vince Petrasso 63'), David Schofield (Ryan Zabinski 46'), Jason Hotchkin (Brian Ombiji 46'), Sheanon Williams (Tishan Hanley 63')

Unused Substitutes: Thomas Booth, Danny Cepero

Philadelphia Union 1, Chivas de Guadalajara 0 September 1, 2010 – PPL Park

Philadelphia Union earned their second consecutive win at PPL Park against a high-profile international opponent, edging Chivas de Guadalajara 1-0 Wednesday night. Second-half substitute Jack McInerney scored the match's lone goal, with Justin Mapp registering an assist to duplicate the combination that helped Philadelphia equalize in New England Saturday.

Both sides came out with plenty of pace and physicality, but Guadalajara created the majority of the scoring chances through the first 20 minutes. Omar Bravo nearly capitalized on a giveaway in the back just three minutes in, but Kansas City's Designated Player on loan to Chivas unleashed a scissor kick that fell just over the crossbar. Chivas had another golden opportunity to strike first, but goalkeeper Brad Knighton stood in the way of a go-ahead tally for the visitors. Miguel Ponce took advantage of space outside of the area to unleash a blast from distance in the 20th minute, but the Union backup was able to leave his feet and get just enough of a touch to punch the attempt over the bar.

Philadelphia's first promising scoring chance came in the 27th minute when Nick Zimmerman sent a low cross into the box from the right corner, but goalkeeper Luis Michel stepped off his line to smother the service. While both sides went into the break scoreless, the deadlock didn't last long. Philadelphia substituted their entire starting lineup other than Knighton and defender Michael Orozco Fiscal, and the changes immediately paid dividends.

In the 48th minute, Mapp took advantage of space in the middle of the pitch, dribbling through the heart of Chivas' midfield and sliding a through ball to a streaking McInerney. The Union rookie calmly ran onto the ball and slotted the go-ahead tally past substitute keeper Sergio Arias for a 1-0 lead.

Chivas was gifted a golden opportunity to equalize in the 70th minute when Knighton was caught off his line, but Michel Vasquez's lob missed the net wide left.

Guadalajara continued applying pressure in Philadelphia's territory during the ensuing five minutes, but a string of three acrobatic saves from Knighton to stop long-distance rifles preserved the home side's 1-0 advantage.

The Union were able to hold onto the lead despite continued late pressure from Guadalajara, managing to come out on top despite the absences of leading scorer Sebastien Le Toux and starting striker Alejandro Moreno, both of whom were being rested.

Scoring Summary:

PHI – Jack McInerney (Justin Mapp) 48'

2011 MLS Player Rules and Regulations SUMMARY

I. MLS ROSTER COMPOSITION

A Major League Soccer club's first team roster is comprised of up to 30 players. All 30 players are eligible for selection to each 18-player game-day squad during the regular season and playoffs.

Salary & Budget:

- Players occupying roster spots 1-20 count against the club's 2011 salary budget of $2,675,000, and are referred to collectively as the club's Salary Budget Players.
 - Roster spots 19 and 20 are not required to be filled, and teams may spread their salary budget across only 18 Salary Budget Players. A minimum salary budget charge will be imputed against a team's salary budget for each unfilled senior roster slot below 18.
 - The maximum budget charge for a single player is $335,000.*
 - A Designated Player counts $335,000 against the club's salary budget, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $167,500.

 See section entitled Allocation Money below, under Player Acquisition Mechanisms, for details on buying down a player's budget charge.*
- Players occupying roster spots 21-30 do not count against the club's salary budget, and are referred to collectively as the club's Off-Budget Players (maximum of 10 per team).
 - All Generation adidas players are Off-Budget players.
- Players occupying roster spots 1-24 will earn at least $42,000 in 2011.
- Players occupying roster spots 25-30 will earn at least $32,600 in 2011.
 - Clubs may elect to leave up to two of these roster spots (25-30) vacant and use $35,000 for each empty spot as allocation money.

- Clubs may sign up to two Home Grown Players to Generation adidas contracts.

Age Designations:

- Any player making $32,600 must be under the age 25 (does not turn 25 or older in 2011).

Domestic/International:

- In 2011, a total of 144 international slots are divided among the 18 clubs. Each club began with eight international slots, which are tradable. There is no limit on the number of international slots on each club's roster.
 - The remaining roster slots must belong to domestic players. For clubs based in the United States, a domestic player is either a U.S. citizen, a permanent resident (green card holder) or the holder of other special status (e.g., refugee or asylum status).
- The two MLS clubs based in Canada – Toronto FC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC – began with eight international slots, but their domestic slots may be filled with either Canadian or U.S. domestic players.
 - MLS clubs based in Canada are required to have a minimum of three Canadian domestic players on their rosters.
 - Players with the legal right to work in Canada are considered Canadian domestic players (i.e., Canadian citizen, permanent resident, part of a protected class).

NOTE: The terms Home Grown and Generation adidas are used to describe mechanisms by which players are acquired. They are not roster designations. All players' roster slots are determined by their compensation and/or age as outlined above.

II. PLAYER ACQUISITION MECHANISMS

MLS teams may acquire players and add them to their rosters via the following mechanisms:

(A) ALLOCATION RANKING

The allocation ranking is the mechanism used to determine which MLS club has first priority to acquire a U.S. National Team player who signs with MLS after playing abroad, or a former MLS player who returns to the League after having gone to a club abroad for a transfer fee. The allocation rankings may also be used in the event two or more clubs file a request for the same player on the same day. The allocations will be ranked in reverse order of finish for the 2010 season, taking playoff performance into account.

Once the club uses its allocation ranking to acquire a player, it drops to the bottom of the list. A ranking can be traded, provided that part of the compensation received in return is another club's ranking. At all times, each club is assigned one ranking. The rankings reset at the end of each MLS League season.

Allocation Money

Allocation money is a resource available to clubs in addition to their respective salary budgets.

A club may receive allocation money for:

- (1) failure to qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs;
- (2) the transfer of a player to a club out side of MLS for value;
- (3) expansion status;
- (4) qualification for the CONCACAF Champions League;

Each year the MLS Competition Committee determines the allocation amount to be made available to each club. Allocation money can be traded by clubs. Allocation money does not count against a club's salary budget and can be used:

- To sign players new to MLS (that is, a player who did not play in MLS during the previous season).

- To re-sign an existing MLS player, subject to League approval.
- To "buy-down" a player's salary budget charge below the League maximum of $335,000.
- In connection with the exercise of an option to purchase a player's rights or the extension of a player's contract for the second year provided the player was new to MLS in the immediately prior year.

NOTE: To protect the interests of MLS and its clubs during discussions with prospective players or clubs in other leagues, amounts of allocation money held by each club will not be shared publicly. (Similarly, most clubs in other countries do not announce the amount of money they plan to spend during a given transfer window.)

(B) DESIGNATED PLAYER

The Designated Player Rule allows clubs to acquire up to three players whose salaries exceed their budget charges, with the club bearing financial responsibility for the amount of compensation above each player's budget charge. Designated Player slots may be used to acquire players new to MLS or to retain current MLS players, subject to League approval.

In 2011, a Designated Player's salary budget charge will be $335,000, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $167,500.

Each club has two Designated Player slots, and clubs are allowed to "purchase" a third Designated Player slot for a one-time fee of $250,000 that will be dispersed in the form of allocation money to all clubs that do not have three Designated Players.

Designated Player slots are not tradable.

Clubs have the option of "buying down" the budget charge of a Designated Player with allocation money. The reduced charge may not be less than $150,000.

(C) SUPERDRAFT

The 2011 MLS SuperDraft, held Jan. 13 in Baltimore, Md., consisted of three rounds of 18 picks for a total of 54 player selections. A supplemental draft was held Jan. 18 via teleconference and consisted of three rounds.

The majority of draft prospects are NCAA college seniors who have exhausted their college eligibility. Generation adidas players and non-collegiate international players are also eligible for selection in the SuperDraft and supplemental draft. Clubs may nominate players for the League's draft-eligible list, and only players from that list may be selected.

Generation adidas is a joint program between MLS and adidas that is dedicated to developing exceptional domestic talent in a professional environment. Each year, a handful of top domestic underclassmen and youth national team players are signed to the league and placed in the SuperDraft through this program. Generation adidas players also receive an educational stipend.

Draft Order: Through the Expansion Priority Draft, Vancouver Whitecaps FC earned the first selection in the 2011 MLS SuperDraft while the Portland Timbers selected second. The next six selections went to clubs that did not qualify for the 2010 MLS Cup Playoffs beginning with the club with fewest regular season points (3 points per win, one point per tie). The remaining eight positions were ranked by fewest regular season points among the teams that were eliminated in the same round of the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Unless claimed on waivers, a player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign with the League, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to the player.

(D) TRADES

Players, SuperDraft and supplemental draft picks, allocation money, allocation rankings, and international player slots may all be exchanged in trades approved by the MLS League Office, provided all of the necessary rules regarding roster and salary budget compliance are met and the trade is completed during a valid trading period. No trades may occur after the Roster Freeze Deadline of September 15, 2011 at 5 p.m. ET.

(E) DISCOVERY SIGNINGS

Clubs may make discovery claims on players not yet under MLS contract who are not subject to the allocation ranking or lottery mechanisms.

Each club has the opportunity to make six discovery signings per season (expansion teams may make 10 discovery signings in their inaugural season). A club may have up to 10 discovery claims on unsigned players at any time and may remove or add players at any time. The last day for discovery player signings is September 15, 2011 – coinciding with the roster freeze date and trade deadline.

The six discovery signings can be used to fill senior roster spots only. If multiple clubs claim the same player using a discovery, the club that filed the claim first will have first rights to the player. Discovery claims expire following each season. If the League and player are unable to reach an agreement during the season, the club that first filed the discovery retains the right of first refusal in the event the player is later signed by the League.

Note: To protect interests of MLS clubs in scouting and negotiations with prospective players, the League office will not publicize the names of players on club discovery lists, nor specify if a discovery claim has been filed on a particular player.

(F) HOME GROWN PLAYER SIGNINGS

A club may sign a player to his first professional contract without subjecting him to the MLS SuperDraft if the player has trained for at least one year in the club's youth development program and has met League criteria. Players joining MLS through this mechanism are known as Home Grown Players.

There is no limit to the number of Home Grown Players a club may sign in a given year.

(G) RE-ENTRY PROCESS

The 2011 Re-Entry Process will commence after MLS Cup. The priority order for the Re-Entry Draft is reverse order of finish in 2011, taking into account playoff performance.

Available to all teams in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry draft will be:

1. Players who are at least 23 years old and have a minimum of three years experience in MLS whose options were not exercised by their clubs (available at option salary for 2012).
2. Players who are at least 25 years old with a minimum of four years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them at their previous salary (available for at least their 2011 salary).
3. Players who are at least 30 years old with a minimum of eight years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them (available for at least 105% of their 2011 salary).

Players who are not selected in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry Draft will be made available in Stage 2. Clubs selecting players in Stage 2 will negotiate a new salary with the player.

Players who remain unselected after Stage 2 will be available to any MLS club on a first come, first serve basis.

(H) WAIVERS

A team may place a player on waivers at any time during the regular season at which point he is made available to all other teams. The waiver claiming period shall commence on the first business day after the League delivers notice to teams and shall expire at 5 p.m. EST on the second business day after the Waiver Period Commencement Date. The claiming period is 48 hours.

The Waiver Draft order is determined via points per game once all teams have played at least three MLS League games. If the waiver takes place prior to all teams playing in at least three League games, priority shall be granted based upon the prior year's performance, taking play-off performance first, with teams eliminated from playoff contention at the same stage separated according to their point totals through the end of the regular season. New expansion teams shall be at the bottom of the waiver order.

Once a team selects a player off waivers, that club is automatically moved to the bottom of the priority list for subsequent waiver selections in a given season, regardless of its points-per-game total. Players who may be placed on the MLS waiver wire are as follows:

A player waived by an MLS team in the current season;

A player who completed his college eligibility within the past season, who was not made available in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft;

A player who has remaining college eligibility (and was not made available in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft), but the League at its discretion and after taking into account exceptional circumstances determines the player may be offered an MLS contract;

A player who has played in MLS previously where his last MLS team does not wish to exercise their right of first refusal, except in the case of returning U.S. National Team players as stated above.

A player who was drafted in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft, and who after a trial with the club is not offered a contract by the first Monday of June.

(I) LOTTERY

Some players shall be assigned to MLS teams via the weighted Lottery process. Any team assigned a player through the lottery in any particular season shall not be assigned another lottery player that season unless and until all teams have received a lottery player or have agreed to waive their option to participate in a Lottery. The players made available through lotteries include:

Generation adidas players signed after the MLS SuperDraft;

Draft eligible players to whom an MLS contract was offered but who failed to sign with the League prior to the Draft.

The weighted lottery takes into consideration each team's performance over its last 30 regular season games and the most recent postseason. The team with the worst record over its last 30 regular season games (dating back to previous season if necessary and taking playoff performance into account) will have the greatest probability of winning the lottery. Teams are not required to participate in a lottery. Players are assigned via the lottery system in order to prevent a player from potentially influencing his destination club with a strategic holdout.

(J) EXTREME HARDSHIP CALL-UPS

Teams may add players to their roster in cases of "extreme hardship" as follows: (1) a club with three goalkeepers on its 30-man roster, but has less than two available goalkeepers or (2) a team has less than 15 available players. Extreme hardship call-ups are made on a game-by-game basis.

(K) SEASON-ENDING INJURY REPLACEMENTS

A team with a player lost to a season-ending injury can replace that player on its roster, while remaining responsible for the full amount of the injured player's salary. A player can be placed on the season-ending injury list once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). International player limits still apply at the time a season-ending replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

(L) SHORT-TERM INJURY REPLACEMENTS

A team with a player who has a short-term injury can replace that player on its roster, while remaining responsible for the full amount of the injured player's salary. A player can be placed on the short-term injured reserve list once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). Note that the injured player will have to sit out a minimum of six MLS League matches before he can rejoin the team's roster. International player limits still apply at the time a short-term replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

NOTE: No changes may be made to a team's active full roster during the period beginning on September 16, 2011 (day after Roster Freeze Date) through the day after MLS Cup. Nevertheless, a team may obtain players in accordance with the extreme hardship rules and procedures to replace players who are injured or otherwise legitimately unavailable after the Roster Freeze Date. Any other replacements after the Roster Freeze Date may only be made in exceptional circumstances in the League's sole and absolute discretion.

(III.) METHODS OF RELEASING PLAYERS

(A) WAIVERS

Teams may waive players based on performance at any time during the MLS season. Players with guaranteed contracts will continue to have their salary budget charge applied to the team salary budget, subject to any settlement. Players on semi-guaranteed contracts can be waived prior to July 1 of any year and free up the corresponding budget space. If a player on a semi-guaranteed contract is waived after July 1, his salary budget charge will count against the team's salary budget and the team waiving the player will not receive a replacement except under the normal player acquisition mechanisms. Any settlement amount will be charged to the team's salary budget.

(B) TRANSFERS AND LOANS

An MLS player may be transferred or loaned at any time to a team outside the League (subject to that team's Federation's transfer window), subject to the consent of the player.

The registration windows – the dates between which MLS may request the transfer certificate of a player under contract in another country – are as follows:

January 21 – April 15 (Primary Window)
July 15 – August 14 (Secondary Window)

(C) CONTRACT EXPIRATION

When a player's contract expires, the player does not count against the roster or budget of the team in question. Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the rights to the player indefinitely following the expiration of a contract only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

(D) BUYOUT OF GUARANTEED CONTRACT

Teams may have the ability to buyout one guaranteed player as follows:

A Team may buy out one (1) guaranteed player (including a DP's) contract during the off-season and free up the corresponding budget space. Such a buyout is at the particular MLS Team's own expense.

A Team may not free up budget space with a buyout of a player's salary budget charge during the season. Such a buyout will be conducted by the League and count on a Club's budget in a manner consistent with current MLS guidelines.

(IV.) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Right of first refusal grants one MLS club the first opportunity to add a player to its roster in the event that the player signs with MLS. Holding a right of first refusal applies only within MLS and does not indicate holding of the player's International Transfer Certificate.

OUT OF CONTRACT PLAYERS / OPTIONS NOT PICKED UP:

Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the right of first refusal to the player indefinitely only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

DRAFTED BUT NOT SIGNED: A player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign, or who as of the first Monday in June is not offered a contract after a trial and clears waivers, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 immediately following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to sign the player.

PLAYER TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE MLS: If a team receives allocation money as a result of a player's transfer, the team does not retain a right of first refusal.

The inaugural season of Philadelphia Union has come and gone and the SoB's were with the club every step of the way. As the finishing touches were being put on PPL Park, the Union played most of their matches from late March to late June on the road. There were, however, two home matches played at Lincoln Financial Field, home of the Philadelphia Eagles, on April 10 vs. D.C. United and May 15 against FC Dallas. The SoB's were out in full force for both matches, eager to see the team they lobbied so diligently for finally take the field. The turnout was tremendous, but it was only the beginning of something much bigger.

On June 27, the Sons of Ben descended on the Chester waterfront for the first-ever match at PPL Park, a showdown against the 2009 expansion Seattle Sounders FC. Songs and chants filled the parking lots hours before the match, and followed the supporters into the stadium as they took their rightful place at the east end of the stadium. They dubbed their home "The River End," and it developed a unique character all its own.

Watching a match from The River End is an ongoing commitment of support. SoB's spend the entirety of the match standing, singing and chanting for the club. Often times, the chants and songs have a personalized theme, with some being dedicated to their beloved players and others aimed at the opposing team.

But the support extends far beyond game day. The Sons of Ben were the largest supporters group at the 2011 MLS SuperDraft in Baltimore, Md. They packed Fado Irish Pub & Restaurant for the announcement of the signing of Faryd Mondragon and Carlos Valdes. They even attended preseason practice sessions at YSC Sports Complex in Wayne, Pa. before the club headed to warmer weather. As the second season for Philadelphia Union approaches, the Sons of Ben are ready to embark on another journey with hopes for a playoff berth. Although they are an independent and separate entity, they have become an invaluable member of the Philadelphia Union family. The technical staff and the players embraced the enthusiasm that came from The River End last season, and expect nothing less in 2011.

Major Molly's Army

Major Molly's Army, a team of energetic and passionate women, serve as promotional ambassadors for the club. Named for Revolutionary War heroine, Molly Pitcher, the Major Mollies can be seen at all Philadelphia Union home games and events and are available for appearances upon request.

As legend has it, during the Revolutionary War at the Battle of Monmouth, Mary Ludwig proved to be a true heroine by bringing pitchers of water to Continental Soldiers dying of heat and thirst, earning her the nickname "Molly Pitcher".

When Molly's husband died during the battle, the passionate patriot joined the men on the front lines, taking up arms and manning her husband's cannon. After the battle, General George Washington, and future president, rewarded the courageous woman by naming her a non-commissioned officer, after which she was referred to by soldiers as "Sergeant Molly" or "Major Molly".

Fans should watch out for The Molly Cam at all Union home games for a chance to be featured on Philadelphia Union's website. Major Mollies will look to be capturing fans enjoying the pre-game festivities, marching into the stadium and rooting on the Union during the match.

Philadelphia Union in the Community

Soccer is universally known as “the beautiful game.” An integral part of that beauty is the power the sport has to create and reinforce community. Philadelphia Union have made a sincere commitment to the value of community and recognize that their unique position as a Major League Soccer franchise allows the club to serve as a catalyst for social responsibility. With the help of players, coaches and front office staff, the Union have already begun to make a difference on the field, in the classroom and in the City of Chester.

Before the inaugural season even began, Philadelphia Union formed a collaborative relationship with the William Trippley Youth Development Foundation (WTYDF) and their soccer program, Chester City United. WTYDF aims to serve at-risk youth in the city of Chester through both academic and athletic channels. For the Union, there could not have been a better fit. Today, more than 400 children participate in Chester City United playing soccer year round. With the help of WTYDF and Philadelphia Union, the children are able to train at Villanova University, Swarthmore College, and various indoor facilities to hone their skills. Soon they will have a full-sized field of their own right here in Chester, Pa. thanks to Pepsi and MLS.

In 2010, Pepsi launched the Pepsi Refresh Project, a promotion that is aimed at fostering social goodwill through innovative ideas. As part of that promotion, Pepsi asked all 16 MLS clubs to develop an idea for a contest that the fans would then vote on to determine the winner of a $50,000 grant. Philadelphia Union proposed a full-sized natural grass field for the more than 1,500 aspiring soccer players in the Chester Upland School District and Chester City United. On September 21, 2010, Pepsi announced that the Union won the $50,000 grant, garnering nearly 150,000 fan votes.

As the season came to an end, so too did the favorable weather that helped make the first season so enjoyable. Even though the team was done playing games, the club was still hard at work because the commitment to community service has no offseason. During the final three home games of the year, the Union collected more than 350 coats for donation to City Team Ministries Homeless Shelter, The Bernardine Center and the St. Katherine of Drexel Food Cupboard and Closet. Along with the Southeastern Pennsylvania Soccer Hall of Fame and the Sons of Ben, the Union were able to drop off more than 750 coats total at location on December 8, 2010.

The giving continued on December 12 with the 2010 Toyota Tundra Food Drive. Members of the Union front office joined other well-known sports and media figures to unload more than 20,000 pounds of non-perishable food items collected over a two-week donation period to benefit Philabundance.

Looking forward to the 2011 season, the Philadelphia Union hope to build on the foundation laid last year. The emphasis on community service will only grow stronger as we continue to be advocates for change and progress in the Chester community and the Greater Philadelphia Area.

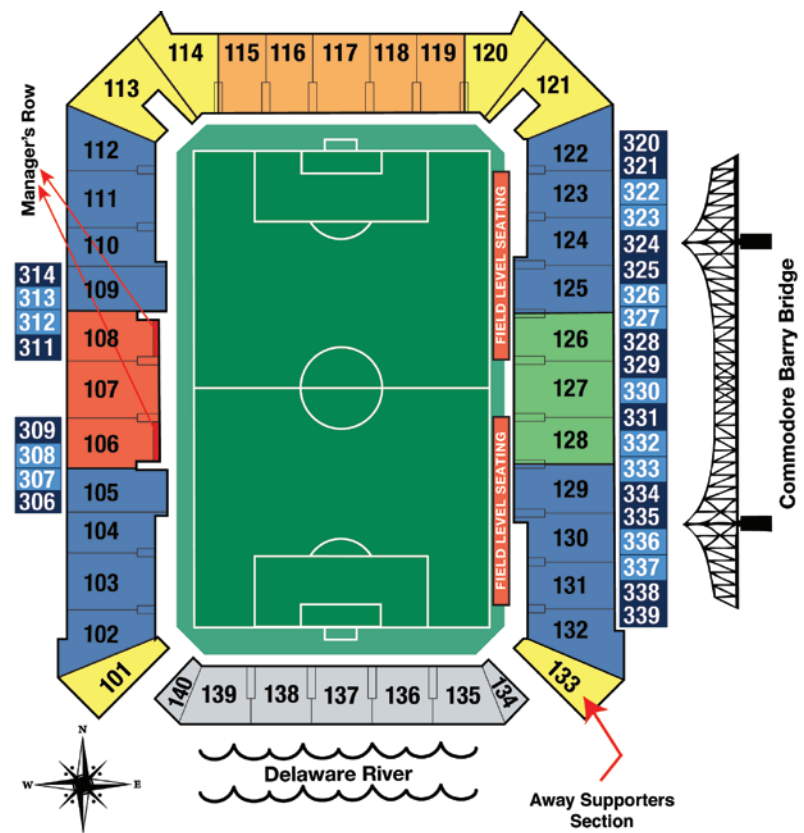

PPL Park

PPL Park, a state-of-the-art 18,500-seat Major League Soccer stadium, serves as Philadelphia Union's home. The catalyst for a spectacular $500 million waterfront revitalization project, PPL Park is expected to "KickStart Chester" by bringing renewed life and vitality to a historic location in need of a spark. Public support from the State of Pennsylvania, Delaware County and the City of Chester reinforced private support for the mixed-use development, which is helping to drive a "renaissance on the river" in Chester. The stadium is located just five miles south of the Philadelphia International Airport at the southwest corner of the base of the Commodore Barry Bridge, with easy access to major roadways such as I-95, I-476, US-322 and PA-291. Additionally, the Northeast Corridor Amtrak, Conrail and SEPTA rail lines run two train platforms within a short distance from the site.

A multipurpose facility that has features 29 luxury suites, a full-service club restaurant and a built-in concert stage, PPL Park is the ideal destination for any type of event. An expansive grass and promenade area surrounds the building and is perfect for tailgating and outdoor music festivals. The natural grass surface that covers the 120 x 75 yard field is suitable for both soccer and football. The sideline roofs were designed to protect fans from the elements without obstructing the scenic view of the Commodore Barry Bridge and the Delaware River from their seats.

PPL Park has been recognized on multiple occasions since opening its doors on June 27, 2010, winning awards from Mid Atlantic Construction Magazine for "Best Sports/Recreation Project of the Year" and the Delaware County Planning Commission for outstanding land projects in the County.

Broadcast Information

Philadelphia Union has partnered with local television leaders 6abc and Comcast SportsNet to broadcast live all those Union matches that are not broadcast nationally. 6abc in HD (6.1) will air seven of the Union's 34 matches this season and can be seen on Comcast Digital channel 231, DirectTV Channel 6, DishTV Channel 8150 and Verizon Fios channel 514. The remaining 19 matches scheduled for lo-

JP Dellacamera - Play-By-Play

JP Dellacamera, a long-time commentator of ABC and ESPN's Major League Soccer broadcasts, enters his second season as Philadelphia Union's play-by-play commentator.

Recognized as one of the leading authorities on international soccer in the United States, Dellacamera has called six FIFA World Cups for a variety of networks and the last four FIFA Women's World Cups. Originally from Waltham, Mass., his extensive soccer experience includes working some of the most cal broadcast will be seen on either Comcast SportsNet or the Comcast Network (formerly CN8), depending on schedules. Please check your local listings for CSN or TCN.

Comcast SportNet will also air a weekly half hour show, titled "The State of the Union."

Calling the matches will be long-time MLS and ESPN play-by-play commentator JP Dellacamera and former MLS player and current MLS analyst Taylor Twellman. Philadelphia soccer icon Bob Rigby will serve as sideline reporter as well as make appearances on "The State of the Union."

famous soccer leagues and tournaments in the world, including UEFA Champions League finals and the 1999 Women's World Cup, which was the most watched soccer telecast in U.S. television history. Dellacamera has also called games for Major League Soccer's Columbus Crew and New York Red Bulls.

Dellacamera's lengthy broadcasting career also includes work in college basketball and the NHL. For the past five seasons, he has served as the TV play-by-play voice of the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers on Turner Sports and Fox Sports Network affiliates.

He will continue to be the lead voice on the networks' MLS national broadcasts in addition to his duties with Philadelphia Union.

Bob Rigby - Sideline

Considered to be among the most talented goalkeepers to take the pitch for the United States, Philadelphia soccer legend Bob Rigby will lend his expertise to Philadelphia Union this season as the club's sideline reporter.

The first ever American born soccer player to be featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated, Rigby was an All-American at East Stroudsburg University and was the top pick in the North American Soccer League's (NASL) 1973 draft. He led the Philadelphia Atoms to a League title in his first season behind his impressive 0.62 goals against average and went on to play He went on to play 12 seasons in the NASL with many of soccer's elite, including Pele, George Best and Eusebio.

Rigby played on the U.S. Men's National Team and traveled to the 1972 Summer Olympics, although he did not appear in any matches.

He played in his with game the National Team on November 3, 1973 against Haiti and went on to earn a total of six caps with USMNT.

After retiring from professional soccer, Rigby went on to teach and coach soccer at Ridley High School in Folsom, Pa. He later earned his master's in counseling psychology at Chestnut Hill College and returned to Ridley as the district's crisis counselor. Rigby implemented a program designed to help students suffering from substance abuse, mental health and/or domestic abuse problems.

Rigby is also an accomplished motivational speaker in the Philadelphia area, visiting schools, youth clubs and associations and educating children on how to become more well rounded athletes.

Taylor Twellman - Color

Former Major League Soccer and U.S. Men's National Team forward Taylor Twellman joins Philadelphia Union as a color analyst for the club's second season.

Twellman launched his broadcast career last season, covering several matches for ESPN as well as the World Cup for Comcast SportsNet New England. In addition to his duties with the Union, Twellman will also serve as an in-studio host for ESPN's MLS Game of the Week broadcasts.

Twellman, born in Minneapolis, Minn. and raised in St. Louis, Mo., retired from Major League Soccer in 2010 after nine seasons with the New England Revolution. The 2005 MLS Most Valuable Player scored 101 career goals in 174 career appearances since joining MLS in 2002. He was also a two-time MLS Best XI performer (2002, 2005) and a five-time MLS All-Star. As a rookie, Twellman scored 23 goals and added six assists in 28 games and was runner-up for MLS MVP and the first MLS scoring champion in team history while leading the squad to its first-ever MLS Cup appearance – and the team's first of four Cup showings in the next six seasons.

Twellman is one of three Revs players to start all four of the Revolution's MLS Cup appearances (2002, 2005, 2006 and 2007) and won the 2007 U.S. Open Cup and the 2008 Super-Liga titles. He closed out his playing career as the club's all-time leader in 11 categories, including goals (101), game-winning goals (28), hat tricks (3), multiple-goal games (16) and goals per game average (0.58). At the league level, Twellman finished his career ranked sixth in goals, tied for fourth in game-winning goals, tied for sixth in multiple-goal games and tied for sixth in career postseason goals with six.

Limited to just two appearances in his last two seasons, Twellman was unable to play at all in 2010 because of his ongoing medical concerns stemming from an on-field collision while scoring a goal in a game against the LA Galaxy on Aug. 30, 2008. He had one last memorable performance on June 7, 2009 when he became the fastest player in MLS history to score 100 career goals with a 57th-minute header. He added his 101st career goal seven minutes later, marking the final goal of his career in what proved to be his last appearance.

Prior to MLS, he played two seasons with TSV 1860 Munich in Germany where he made more than 40 appearances with the club's reserve side.

Twellman played collegiately for two seasons at the University of Maryland, scoring 28 goals and adding 17 assists in 43 games with the Terrapins before beginning his professional career. He claimed Soccer America's national freshman of the year honors and was named an All-American by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America as a sophomore.

On an international level, Twellman earned 30 caps with the U.S. Men's National Team between 2002 and 2008, scoring six goals. He was an alternate to the U.S.' 2006 FIFA World Cup squad, and was a member of the U.S.' winning 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup team. He scored both his first and last international goals at Gillette Stadium, recording his first goal against Panama in a World Cup qualifier on Oct. 12, 2005, and netting his final goal against El Salvador on June 12, 2007 in the CONCACAF Gold Cup. He is also a former member of the U.S. Under-20 National Team, with which he earned the Bronze Boot for finishing third overall in goal scoring at the 1999 FIFA Under-20 World Championship, recording four goals in four games.

Philadelphia Union Brand Narrative

Union of the Thirteen Colonies formed the foundation upon which the United States of America was created

Circle representing unity

As the first capital city of the Union, Philadelphia is the anchor of our region.

'Philadelphia Flag' Blue

Rattlesnake from Ben Franklin's political cartoons, featured in multiple editions of the Pennsylvania Gazette during the 1750's. The rattlesnake was intended to emphasize the necessity of colonial unity and serve as a reminder of the danger of disunity. The rattlesnake gained enormous popularity and evolved into a primary symbol of the American Revolution.

Media Policy

CREDENTIALS

Season media credentials will be issued to established newspapers, magazines, television, radio stations and websites making reasonable requests. To qualify, an outlet must cover 15 of the club's home games. Because of limited space, it is impossible to grant freelance photographers access unless assigned to shoot for a specific story or project.

ROAD CREDENTIALS

Members of the Philadelphia Union's media traveling to road games should submit requests for credentials to the Communications Department no later than five (5) business days prior to the road game.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Members of the media needing credentials at the game must pick up passes at the Media Will Call gate at PPL Park. Each person must pick up his or her own credentials and present corresponding photo identification. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to the scheduled kickoff. All media must enter through the press gate entrance located near the west side of the stadium. Media credentials will not be honored at any other entrance. All credentials are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will result in ejection from PPL Park and confiscation of the credentials.

BROADCAST

In making requests for broadcast credentials, please specify requirements for spotters and/or statisticians. These services must be arranged in advance and once they are made the statisticians must be compensated by the media outlets requesting them whether used or not. Broadcast locations are located on the PPL Park press level.

PARKING

A limited number of parking passes are available for working media. Members of the media seeking parking passes are advised to make their requests as early as possible. Please note that Philadelphia Union will not be able to accommodate all requests.

A limited number of TV news trucks will be allowed to park along the Southeast quadrant of PPL Park. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with a member of Global Spectrum's staff.

PRESS BOX

The press box at PPL Park is located along the west side of the stadium on the third floor. The press box will open three hours before kickoff. Admittance is limited to working media members with valid credentials and is intended for the purpose of providing a work place for writers, reporters, broadcasters and game personnel. It is imperative that even season pass holders notify the Communications Department of their intention to cover a game in order to receive press box seating. Family members and guests will not be accommodated in the press box. Abuse of press box press privileges will result in forfeiture of a press pass.

TELEPHONE/WIRELESS ACCESS

Several pool phones are placed throughout the press box. Remember, pool phones are to be shared. Courtesy hard lines are available in the photo room. PPL Park offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press box. The access is free of charge and works with all WI-FI enabled computer equipment.

GAME NOTES/STATISTICS

Game notes and statistics will be available in the press box. Statistics will be distributed to each seat at halftime and following the game. Periodic announcements will also be made during the game.

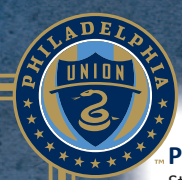

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Following the conclusion of the game, a post-game news conference will be held in the news conference room next to the locker rooms on the field level. At the end of the news conference, the locker room will be open to media. Philadelphia Union and visitor locker rooms are located near the south end of the stadium on the field level. Your cooperation and professional courtesy is asked in maintaining a proper working atmosphere for postgame interviews. Absolutely no autographs are allowed during media access periods.

Media cell phones- No media may use a cell phone at any time inside the locker room. Media members may carry their cell phones into the locker room but may not use them to place or take calls or to take photos.

FIELD ACCESS

Only working newspaper, magazine and network TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press Box Passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by Philadelphia Union.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Still photographers holding proper credentials may position themselves along either endline at field level. Immediately prior to each match, photographers who wish to shoot the traditional pre-game team photo will be escorted on cue to the midfield sideline by photo marshals. Photographers will be instructed to walk only on the sidelines—never on the field of play—en route to these temporary sideline positions. Once team photos have been taken, photographers will be directed to quickly return to their endline photo positions. During the match, photographers are advised that they have restricted freedom of movement. At no time during the game can photographers shoot from directly behind the goal. Also, movement from one end of the field to the other is allowed only at halftime on the sideline opposite the team benches. Still photographers DO NOT have access to the locker room at any time.

MEALS

Food and beverages are available to working members of the media in the Media Dining Room on the press level.

DURING THE WEEK

Training Access

During the regular season, training sessions typically run three hours and usually begin at 10 a.m. Training times can, and frequently do, vary. Members of the media who intend to cover training sessions on a regular basis should call the Philadelphia Union Communications Department to obtain the latest training schedule information and arrange interviews. Training sessions will, in general, be open to the media for a specified amount of time, but they may be closed at the discretion of the Technical Staff. No media members are allowed into the locker room before, during or after training sessions.

Interviews

Interviews that require advance preparations or special accommodations by a Philadelphia Union player or staff member should be made by calling or e-mailing Philadelphia Union Communications Department.
