Kennecott Utah Copper jobs in our community could nearly fill Rio Tinto stadium

Rio Tinto's Kennecott Utah Copper employs 2,000 people. Another 400 employees work at the Rio Tinto Regional Center in South Jordan and other local offices supporting Rio Tinto's operations around the globe. We are geologists, accountants, engineers, environmental scientists, operators and craftsmen. We are your neighbors, friends and coaches.

Rio Tinto is also responsible for an additional 14,800* indirect local jobs. In fact, our operation contributes $900 million* to the Utah economy through jobs, taxes, fees, and purchases from 1,000 Utah area businesses. We're proud to contribute to Utah's success. The Bingham Canyon Mine has been in operation since 1903 and we are looking at ways to extend our operation for decades to come. To learn more about our plan for the future, visit www.kennecott.com.

CONCACAF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE

Real Salt Lake's MLS Cup 2009 crown not only put the Utah side on top of the domestic soccer landscape, but it also opened up the door for international glory, as the title automatically qualified RSL for the 2010/11 edition of the CONCACAF Champions League. The regional tournament includes the best teams from North America, Central America, and the Caribbean, and will be the Claret-and-Cobalt's first foray into an international competition. The stakes could get even bigger, as the winner of the tournament will be awarded a spot in the FIFA Club World Cup in Tokyo, Japan, from December 8-18, 2011.

Real Salt Lake – the first-ever MLS team to win its CONCACAF Champions League group (and only the 3rd non-Mexican side to do so) – kicks off its 2011 season nearly a whole month prior to its MLS brethren, with the "Championship Stage" of the 2010/11 CCL tourney embarking on Feb. 22 and March 1 in a two-leg Quarterfinal Series. The draw was kind to RSL, however, as instead of squaring off against a Mexican or Central American side in the midst of its regular league campaign, RSL drew a team that also will be just four weeks into its preseason training, fellow MLS side Columbus Crew.

Following a 0-0 draw in Leg 1 at Crew Stadium, Real Salt Lake cruised to a 4-1 victory in the 2nd leg to become the first-ever MLS side to advance to the CCL Semifinals. MF Javier Morales and RSL Original Andy Williams combined for three goals and three assists while FW Alvaro Saborio scored his seventh goal in as many CCL games for RSL, which extended its vaulted home undefeated streak to 34 games in all competitions at Rio Tinto Stadium.

Costa Rica's Deportivo Saprissa claimed the final spot in the CONCACAF Champions League's Semifinal Round on March 3, 2011, courtesy of a 2-1 win at Honduran champion CD Olimpia in San Pedro Sula. The result, which gave Saprissa a 3-1 aggregate series win, sets up a "Final Four" showdown against Real Salt Lake on March 15, with the opening leg slated for Rio Tinto Stadium in Sandy (8:00 p.m. MT kickoff). The series will take a three-week break before resuming with the second and decisive leg in San Jose, Costa Rica on Tuesday, April 5 (8:00 p.m. MT kickoff, LIVE on FOX Soccer, Galavision and CONCACAF.tv).

On the opposite side of the draw is an all-Mexican Primera Division affair, as RSL's Group A nemesis Cruz Azul will square off against Monterrey. The results of the draw assured a Mexican team of reaching the final for a third straight year, which will host the first leg of the championship series April 19-21, w/ second leg to be played April 26-28 at a Central American or U.S. site. RSL was the 2nd highest-scoring team in 2010/11 CCL Group Stage, with 17 goals in six games (2.83/game), behind only Santos Laguna, the Mexican team that won the Crew's Group B.

Despite the early start, Real Salt Lake enters 2011 with unprecedented continuity, having lost just one player who saw significant minutes in 2010 (Robbie Findley) and replacing him with former Dallas and San Jose stalwart Arturo Alvarez. Additionally, RSL locked down the rights to Saborio, Nick Rimando, Nat Borchers, Will Johnson and Paulo Junior to long-term deals in a busy offseason for RSL General Manager Garth Lagerwey, meeting the club's goal of keeping this core group of players together in Claret-and-Cobalt.

The 2010/11 CONCACAF Champions League marks the 45th edition of the regional competition that dates back to 1962, and the third year of its revamped 24-team format that begins with 16 teams pairing off for a home-and-away Preliminary Round. Those eight winners will join eight automatic qualifiers in the Group Stage, comprised of four pools of four teams that will play each other both at home and on the road for a total of six games. The top two point-earning teams in each pool then advance to the Championship Round, with the quarterfinals, semifinals and final all contested across home and away legs. The away goal rule is in effect for the Preliminary and Championship Rounds; should that not separate the teams, a 30-minute overtime will be played in its entirety at the conclusion of the second leg, and kicks from the penalty spot will decide a winner if the opponents remain tied following the overtime period.

The field for the tournament began to fill last September, when Seattle Sounders FC beat D.C. United 2-1 to win the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and claim the first berth in the 24-team field. The Columbus Crew earned consecutive bids to the tournament thanks to its second straight MLS Supporters' Shield honor as the League's regular season champion, and Real Salt Lake and the Los Angeles Galaxy filled out the USA's four-team contingent by making it to MLS Cup 2009. RSL and Columbus, as the MLS Cup Champion and Supporters' Shield winner, were both automatically placed into the competition's Group Stage. A fifth MLS side, Toronto FC, qualified by virtue of its Canadian Nutrilite Championship title in 2010.

DEPTH KEY TO MLS, CCL SUCCESS: RSL saw 16 different players score in three competitions (MLS, CCL, Open Cup) last year, while a total of 23 players started games and saw full-blown action in 2010, with rookies MF Collen Warner and DF Chris Schuler and 2nd-year player Jean Alexandre making their CONCACAF debuts on Sept. 22 in Panama. All told, in 2010 RSL used two 'keepers (Rimando, Reynish), seven defenders (Borchers, Olave, Wingert, Russell, Beltran, Schuler, McKenzie), eight midfielders (Beckerman, Morales, Johnson, Williams, Grabavoy, Alexandre, Gonzalez, Warner) and five forwards (Saborio, Findley, Espindola, Campos, Paulo Junior).

SERIES NOTES - RSL V. SAPRISSA

* This will not mark the first meeting for these two sides, as RSL welcomed Saprissa to Salt Lake City for an international friendly back on July 23, 2008. In that match at Rice-Eccles Stadium, Saprissa notched a pair of goals midway through the second half to build a lead, and DF Chris Wingert's 90th minute tally could only cut the final margin in half as the visitors took a 2-1 result.

* Real Salt Lake might want to harken back to that contest, despite the result, as the lightning-fast, astroturf-like surface at Saprissa's home ground of Estadio Ricardo Saprissa closely resembles the field RSL played on for four seasons at Rice-Eccles Stadium from 2005-2008. Seven current members of RSL will be able to draw from that experience, having participated in the 2008 friendly (Captain Kyle Beckerman, DF Nat Borchers, FW Fabian Espindola, MF Javier Morales, DF Jamison Olave, GK Kyle Reynish & Wingert; an eighth current player, GK Nick Rimando, dressed but did not play that night)

* Both teams have a player that has suited up for the opposite side. Real Salt Lake FW Alvaro Saborio began his career with Saprissa, bagging an incredible 95 goals across 149 appearances for "the Purple Monster" from 2001-06. Saborio helped Saprissa to the 2005 CONCACAF Champions Cup title, the team's third to go along with the 1993 & 1995 regional crowns (Saborio tied three others with as the leading scorer in the 2005 FIFA Club World Cup, including English standout Peter Crouch). Saprissa DF Douglas Sequeira might not be able to give much of a scouting report on his former side, as all but one member of the RSL roster - MF Andy Williams - has turned over since he made 18 appearances in Claret-and-Cobalt back in 2006. Also, Saborio and Sequeira were teammates on the Costa Rican 2006 FIFA World Cup side in Germany that Summer.

* While Real Salt Lake is the first MLS club to qualify for the Semifinal Round in CONCACAF Champions League play, Saprissa is no stranger to going deep into regional competition, having made seven finals appearances during the CONCACAF Champions Cup era. The last time Saprissa made it to the Semifinal Round was in 2008, when it knocked off the Houston Dynamo 3-0 on aggregate before losing to Pachuca in the Finals (2-3 on agg.).

SABORIO RIDING HIGH IN CCL PLAY: The 2010 MLS Newcomer of the Year was Costa Rican international Saborio, recognized for his 12 MLS goals and four assists last season. No less important was the CONCACAF veteran's CCL contribution, leading RSL to its 4-1-1 group record with six goals in five games. "Sabo" finished the year with nine goals in his last 12 games in all competitions — including five on penalty kicks — leading RSL to a 10-1-2 record in either MLS or CCL when Saborio scores, the lone loss coming in bizarre fashion during his two-goal performance in Mexico City against Cruz Azul on Aug. 25. RSL ended the 2010 campaign with a nearly perfect 7-0-2 mark in MLS games that saw "Sabo" find the back of the net.

MORE MLS, CCL HISTORY FOR SABORIO?: Sabo's seven CONCACAF goals through March 1 trails only Los Cementeros FW Javier Orozco's 11 goals in eight games (Cruz Azul had to play in the preliminary round of the 2010/11 CCL tourney, downing Panamanian club San Francisco 9-2 on aggregate). Among all-time MLS goalscorers in either CONCACAF Champions Cup (1997-2008) or League (2008-present), Saborio is just a hat trick shy from surpassing former D.C. United striker Luciano Emilio's all-time top spot, despite playing significantly fewer games ... The list:

Top MLS Goalscorers in CCC/CCL
Player	Goals
1 Emilio, Luciano (DC)	9
2 Gomez, Christian (DC)	8
3 Saborio, Alvaro (RSL)	7
4 Lassiter, Roy (DC)	6

RSL'S INTERNATIONAL HISTORY: All-time, RSL has posted a 12-5-5 mark in international contests, with a positive goal differential (40 goals for / 28 goals against). In meaningful competition, RSL is now 5-1-2 (21 GF / 12 GA) ... In the Jason Kreis era, RSL is now 9-2-2 vs. visiting international squads (does NOT include league matches vs. Canadian opponents, and DOES include Crew CCL game on 3/1/11).

RSL VISION

THE RSL VISION

Belief. Passion. Desire. Determination. Commitment. Sacrifice.

Words once written by current Real Salt Lake Head Coach Jason Kreis describing the organization's core values in an open letter to the community, these are the tenets by which RSL players, fans, front office and ownership conduct themselves each day. The utmost adherence to these values allowed RSL to win Major League Soccer's 14th Cup title in 2009, just the team's fifth season, despite long odds and a plethora of cynics, naysayers and non-believers along the way.

The 2011 title defense last year came to a sudden and shocking end at the hands of upstart rival FC Dallas, the team to hand RSL two of its three rare losses between May 1 and November 6 (Cruz Azul was the other). An air of "unfinished business" permeates the locker room, driving the club's CONCACAF Champions League ambitions in 2011. Other silverware in the offing this year would be MLS Cup, Supporters Shield, U.S. Open Cup and perhaps - as some are dreaming - the FIFA Club World Cup.

Despite an 11-12-7 regular season record, and the necessary combination of several dozen scenarios, RSL won six of its final seven games en route to capturing MLS Cup 2009, embracing its "Team is the Star" philosophy to vanquish not one, not two, but a trio of designated players - Guillermo Barros Schelotto, Cuauhtemoc Blanco and David Beckham - as well as the Columbus Crew, Chicago Fire and Los Angeles Galaxy sides which surrounded them.

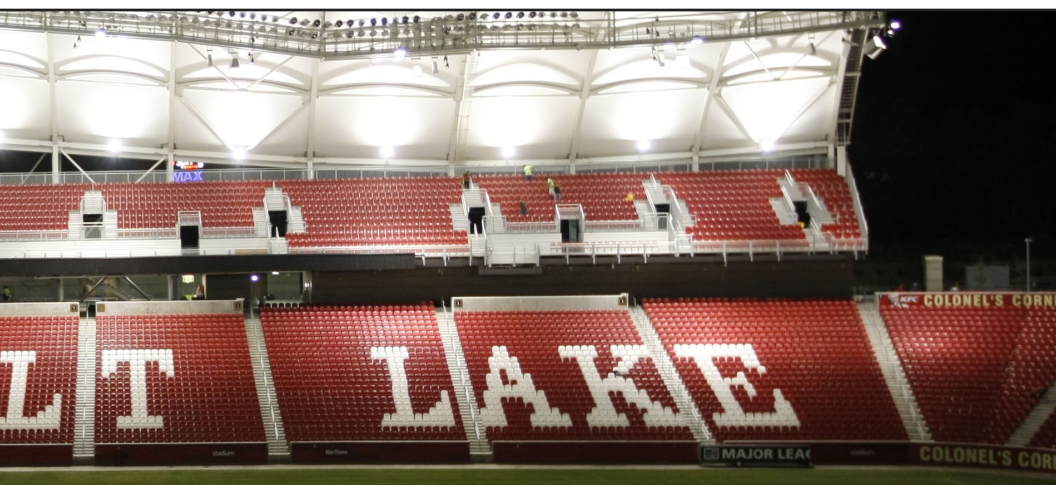

"Audentis Fortuna Juvat" - Latin for Fortune Favors the Bold - was Kreis' mantra in May, 2007 when he abruptly traded his captain's armband for the head coaching reins of Real Salt Lake. In the 40+ months since that time, Kreis became the youngest MLS head coach to win a title, guided RSL to become the first-ever MLS team (and just the 3rd non-Mexican side) to win a CONCACAF Champions League group. Meanwhile, the RSL organization, inspired by its fans, has established a dominant home-field advantage, with just three home losses in any competition between the 2008/10 seasons.

In 2008, the value of unselfishly placing the collective ahead of the individual was also embraced by those workers, engineers, architects, and visionary partners that brought Rio Tinto Stadium from concept to reality. Exhibited by everyone from the Real Salt Lake locker room to the Rio Tinto Stadium front office, these are the values upon which organizational success is built, those demanded from every individual responsible for executing ownership's vision for world-class sports and entertainment on the Wasatch Front. Nothing but the utmost adherence to these tenets is tolerated.

The early expansion years marked by turnover and transition, Real Salt Lake has now reached unprecedented heights with its Playoff runs in 2008/09 and extensive domestic and international success throughout 2010, achieving a multitude of organizational milestones signifying the growth, permanence and promise of the franchise. Remaining committed to building an organization that will consistently compete for championships, on and off the field of play, President Bill Manning embraces the principle that the Team truly is the Star, recognizing that players, fans, staff, management and the community at large compose the team. Only through the team concept in all facets of the organization, working together as one, can Real Salt Lake achieve glory, honor and success.

On the field, General Manager Garth Lagerwey, Coach Kreis and the technical staff accomplished the goal of deepening the roster to create competition at every one of the 11 positions, instilling a collective focus on heightening the intensity at each practice, at each game, in every way. The massive overhaul four years ago has now fostered the ability for Real Salt Lake to become a more cohesive unit, to think and react at a quicker speed of play, to pressure the opponent, to compete as one entity. From this, competitive success is ensured, evident from the team's late-season runs in 2008/09 and its wire-to-wire success in multiple competitions in 2010/11.

Now Real Salt Lake is focused on carrying the MLS flag internationally, hoping to extend the window of success for the franchise and establishing a budding soccer dynasty right here on the Wasatch Front.

It is no coincidence that the organization's recent success was fostered by the advent and opening of Rio Tinto Stadium, the state-of-the-art sports and entertainment facility in Utah, providing a stunning new home for world-class events, one with breathtaking views of both the Oquirrh and Wasatch Mountain ranges. With its vast, natural grass pitch, its intimate proximity allowing 20,000+ spectators to exert themselves as the 12th man, it is the sweeping canopy roofs on the east and west sides to keep elements out, atmosphere in, serving as iconic beacons for the community gathering place.

Located in Sandy, Utah, at the heart of the Wasatch Front, Rio Tinto Stadium opened its arms to the world in 2009, during its first full season of operation, serving as the host of the 2009 MLS All-Star Game, a dramatic, penalty-kick decided event vs. England's Everton FC (and a foreboding of things to come!). Major League Soccer's midseason showcase was a perfect example of the Stadium as a new class of venue in the Intermountain West, attracting events that would not otherwise visit Utah, bolstering the state's reputation as an international sports and entertainment destination. Both the MLS All-Star Game and the U.S. Men's National Team's World Cup Qualifier against El Salvador in Sept. 2009 were televised worldwide to more than 140 countries via the ESPN family of networks, bringing significant media attention to the State of Utah, positively impacting tourism efforts.

While "The Beautiful Game" and its premier events have an established home at Rio Tinto Stadium, in 2010, none other than Sir Paul McCartney graced the venue in his first-ever performance in the State of Utah, expanding the Stadium's horizon as concert performances are concerned, as legendary rockers the Eagles and country music icon Kenny Chesney did in 2009. Aesthetically and acoustically, Rio Tinto Stadium will fulfill its promise to become one of the most desirable outdoor attractions in the United States, its capacity rising to nearly 27,000 for concerts and other events, the diversity of which creates numerous job opportunities on both permanent and seasonal bases. In March, 2008, the Stadium was recognized by Forbes as one of "10 New Super-Stadiums" in development worldwide.

Making A Mark

Since its inception, Real Salt Lake continually strives to establish new and everlasting traditions in the Utah sports landscape and break new ground in virtually every aspect of its business. In addition to developing the team's Independence Day and Pioneer Day soccer/fire-works traditions, RSL accomplishments include: in the establishment of new MLS standards for season-ticket renewal rates; exhibiting the truest home-field advantage in U.S. Men's National Team history; forming a groundbreaking partnership with Real Madrid, RSL's namesake and the world's foremost sports brand; and becoming the first American major-league sports team to feature a corporate sponsor – Utah-based XanGo – emblazoned across its jersey front.

That distinctive Real Salt Lake jersey was worn by a quartet of American soccer luminaries during the team's first three seasons. Head Coach Jason Kreis, the team's charter captain and first-ever player, was the first American-born Major League Soccer MVP in 1999 and retired to seize the RSL coaching reins as MLS' All-Time leading scorer. U.S. Soccer icon Clint Mathis – re-acquired mid-Summer 2008 – was the team's first allocation, bringing his Mohawk to the Wasatch Front in 2005. Teenage phenom Freddy Adu utilized RSL in 2007 as a springboard to Europe. Legendary U.S. defender Eddie Pope, regarded worldwide as the finest American defender ever, retired after the 2007 season as Real Salt Lake's all-time leader in games started (69) and minutes played (5,930), as well as RSL's lone All-Star selection (2005, 2007).

Real Salt Lake's first-ever home game featured a dramatic, 81st-minute header by former U.S. Olympic Captain Brian Dunseth to give RSL a 1-0 victory over Rocky Mountain Cup rivals Colorado Rapids, sending 25,000+ fans into pandemonium. The June 4, 2005 visit by the U.S. Men's National Team for a World Cup Qualifying match against Costa Rica raised the bar for fan intensity, the United States' 3-0 win witnessed by more than 40,000 fans. That turnout and support demonstrated to the American soccer community that the savvy, pro-U.S. crowd could impress even those who thought they had seen it all, including then-U.S. manager Bruce Arena and superstar Landon Donovan, each of whom left Rice-Eccles that day glowing about the National Team's newest home. That historic occasion set the stage for future visits by international opponents from Spain, England, Argentina, Chile, Mexico, China, Fiji, Costa Rica and Jamaica, highlighted by the August 12, 2006 visit by Real Madrid.

The late-Summer 2006 trip by Real Madrid to Utah, which included a week in Salt Lake for high-altitude training, a pair of games vs. MLS sides D.C. United (involving a day trip to Seattle) and RSL, a visit to the Governor's Mansion and the ceremonial groundbreaking of what is now Rio Tinto Stadium in Sandy, again served notice to the world about the burgeoning soccer culture in the Rocky Mountains. International superstars such as David Beckham, Roberto Carlos, Raul, Fabio Cannavaro, Ruud van Nistelrooy and manager Fabio Capello – all legends of the highest world soccer standards, thriving on the World Cup and European stages – were ebullient in their praise of RSL fans and the passion, excitement and emotion exhibited just two years into the club's existence. Van Nistelrooy's first-half penalty kick and Robinho's second-half brilliance were overshadowed by the flashbulbs glimmering throughout Rice-Eccles when David Beckham entered the game, as Madrid downed its namesake, 2-0, in the most-attended professional sporting event in Utah since the 2002 Winter Olympics.

The team's former Rice-Eccles home was the site of several individual milestones during its three-plus MLS seasons in Utah, as Captain Jason Kreis became the first-ever MLS player to score 100 career goals, something only four players have now ever accomplished. Fan favorite Andy Williams, the lone iRSL Original remaining in 2011, scored the 5,000th goal in MLS history midway through the inaugural 2005 campaign, also the team's first score in Rice-Eccles north end. Former goalkeeper Scott Garlick became just the third MLS netminder to accrue 100 career wins, a feat accomplished in 2006 during his lone season with the club.

Major League Soccer Arrives

The dramatic arrival of a second major-league organization further establishes Utah as a progressive, growing climate for top-level sports and all types of innovative entertainment. The state has been home to the Utah Jazz of the NBA since 1979. During the Jazz's tenure, Salt Lake City has played host to multiple NBA playoff series (including two NBA Finals) as well as an NBA All-Star Game. Utah was also the host of the enormously successful 2002 Olympic Winter Games, which brought positive attention from sponsors, athletes and media around the world.

"MLS expansion to Salt Lake City reminds me of the early days of the American Football League," said the late MLS Investor-Operator Lamar Hunt, the only man inducted into three major sports Halls of Fame (soccer, football and tennis.) "The inclusion of Salt Lake City is a very important step for Major League Soccer. It's a city of great vitality and achievement from a sports and entertainment standpoint. The Utah Jazz have been among the leaders in attendance of the NBA year after year, and no one will ever forget the grandeur of the Salt Lake Winter Olympics."

Utah's unique demographics make it particularly appealing to MLS. Boasting a significant soccer fan base, Utah has the highest per-capita participation in organized youth soccer, the third-fastest growing Hispanic and Latino population in the U.S., as well as a significant Eastern European population. Beyond just the sports entertainment value, Salt Lake's MLS team brings significant socio-economic benefits to the region.

"Soccer is a great sport, a great unifier," said SCP Worldwide Founder and Chairman Dave Checketts, Real Salt Lake's founder and co-owner, a visionary sports entrepreneur and a native Utahn. It provides affordable, exciting family entertainment. The excitement will surely continue to build here, and we're going to have a lot of fun watching this team grow. We're very happy about this opportunity and truly believe that this city is well-positioned to not only support a Major League Soccer team, but to serve as the bellwether in every aspect for the sport in this country. Utah is the right market, with the right fan base, with the Wasatch Front believing in all of the things that Major League Soccer represents: players as role models, players that are connected to the community, a team that cares about the community, and a League that is committed to growing the sport of soccer in this country with great integrity."

While the team's dedication to the community is unparalleled, its entrenchment in Utah and ability to lead the sport took a massive step forward with the opening of its Rio Tinto Stadium home last Fall in Sandy, just 15 minutes from downtown Salt Lake City. Nestled in the heart of the Wasatch Front, virtually equidistant between Ogden in the North and Provo in the South, the team's new location is perfectly placed in the population center of the nearly 2.75 million people residing in the Salt Lake Valley.

MLS Thrives In Utah

In July of 2004, Checketts and Major League Soccer Commissioner Don Garber announced that the dream of bringing world-class soccer to the great state of Utah had come to fruition. The mission was simple: create an internationally-recognized soccer brand, one which would become the flagship franchise of a growing American soccer league.

The addition of Checketts and SCP Worldwide completed a one-year period where Major League Soccer doubled its investor base, as CD Chivas USA owner Jorge Vergara and Colorado Rapids owner Stan Kroenke joined longtime visionaries Phil Anschutz, Lamar Hunt and Robert Kraft. July 14, 2004 was the fateful day when Utah was officially awarded the 12th MLS franchise. In attendance were many of Utah's top government, youth soccer, business and community leaders.

"I believe that Major League Soccer is the sports league of the future, and I am excited that Utah has a chance to be a part of it," said Checketts at the historic event, attended by many of Utah's top government, youth soccer, business and community leaders. "Salt Lake's success on the international stage with the Olympics was a major part of what went into making this decision for the league. I can assure you, we fought long and hard to bring this team to Utah. We faced serious competition from other cities who desperately wanted an MLS franchise. We are thrilled that we were successful in showing the MLS that Salt Lake was the right place for the League's next team. I am excited at the prospect of leading this team to much success here in my home state, just as we were fortunate enough to do with the Jazz for so many years."

"In less than one year, we've attracted three new investors who share in the passionate, collective and inspirational vision for American soccer as our existing team owners," said Commissioner Garber, whose League celebrated its 10th Season in 2005, the same year as Real Salt Lake's inaugural season. "We're very pleased to welcome a new visionary to the MLS family. A man who has proven to be one of the most successful executives in professional sports, a man who has had countless opportunities to get involved in many different sports, a man who stepped up and said, 'I choose to be involved in soccer.' That man is Dave Checketts, and we're very, very pleased to welcome him to the family."

"Soccer is the number one sport in the world," stated Checketts. "It is growing rapidly in this country and this is a League filled with dedicated ownership and talented management. These are people who are committed to soccer. These are people that I have been familiar with in the NHL, NBA and the NFL. I have complete confidence in the leadership of MLS and I am excited to be their partner."

Just seven years later, Real Salt Lake has established itself as a leader in its community, a developer of young soccer talent on the field and one of Major League Soccer's business leaders. Real Salt Lake has both uncovered and cultivated a vibrant soccer culture in the InterMountain West, one which has demonstrated a surprising level of acumen and savvy regarding the international nature of the sport, and one whose loyalty and dedication to the RSL shield inspires the organization.

Since Day One, RSL has set its collective sights on employing talented players of the highest character and deeply committed administrators, each of whom have served as solid community citizens, singularly focused on fulfilling that covenant with RSL fans of a winning, world-class organization, providing inspiration and aspiration to soccer followers around the globe.

Youth Development

In the Spring of 2007, Real Salt Lake announced its foray into the recent MLS Youth Development Initiative, introducing four elite youth teams at the U-16 and U-17 age groups. Real Salt Lake has two bases for this initial step, with the RSL Utah and RSL Arizona clubs entering teams in both age groups out of the Salt Lake City and Phoenix areas, respectively. In the Summer of 2008, RSL's U-17 team – composed of players from both states – captured the SUM U-17 Cup, earning a prestigious trip to Madrid, Spain, for the Junior Club World Cup, also known as the Trofeo Quixote Sub-17.

These teams take the field wearing the RSL badge in a manner aimed to inspire the very best players in this region to pursue soccer as the sport of choice for elite athletes. RSL continues to work alongside clubs in Utah and Arizona to ensure that these programs give players opportunities under the RSL umbrella without encroaching upon existing commitments to their clubs, high schools, state ODP programs, or collegiate aspirations. Instead, the RSL Youth Development Initiative facilitates the identification and cultivation of emerging soccer talent in a professional environment.

Coming Together As A Team

In Real Salt Lake's last 110 games since mid-August, 2007 – the equivalent of three-and-a-half seasons – the team has posted a record of 45-32-33, easily its most successful stretch ever. During that time, not coincidentally just months after Jason Kreis assumed the coaching reins and the arrival of Garth Lagerwey, Real Salt Lake turned the corner from an expansion team struggling to find its way on the field to a competitive, cohesive unit.

While 41 players came and went from the RSL roster between May, 2007 and August, 2008 – a turnover rate not seen since the circa-1996 New England and New York rosters – the foundation is now set with a core of both proven and emerging players, youth and experience hailing from all corners of the globe. Every single player currently on the roster was either acquired or saw his contract extended by the current regime.

The team's creative, attacking playmaker, Argentine Javier Morales, captured 2008 Team MVP honors and emerged a darkhorse for league-wide consideration. Signed with RSL through the 2012 season, Morales forms the 'spine' of the team along with imposing Colombian defender Jamison Olave, who also inked a long-term contract through 2012. Also locked up long-term is MLS Cup 2009 Most Valuable Player Nick Rimando, whose legend grows between the pipes with every penalty-kick save. Other core players signed long-term are outside back Chris Wingert and forward Fabian Espindola, centerback Nat Borchers and midfield engine Will Johnson.

The midfield area between Morales and Olave is patrolled the team's emotional leader and Captain Kyle Beckerman, who has brought bite, tenacity and a 'Braveheart' mentality to the pitch and the locker room. Beckerman's history in the volatile Rocky Mountain Cup with Colorado is spotless, the former Rapid undefeated in the season series, helping RSL to capture its first-ever and only hardware in the 2007, 2008, 2009 and now 2010 editions of the fan-created competition. As with numerous other members of the "core" roster, Beckerman is locked up long-term with the Claret-and-Cobalt.

Royal Name, Royal Aspirations

One word – Real [pronounced RAY-al] – celebrates the international elegance and multi-cultural distinction of Utah's second major-league professional sports organization.

"Internationally, the Real brand signifies soccer at its highest level – soccer with excitement, tradition and flair," says Checketts. "The name symbolizes dignity, history and, quite literally, royalty. It is our daily mission to establish those attributes for our team."

The presence of the sport of soccer on the international stage inspired the team's unique nomenclature. Real Salt Lake aims to think and act globally in its vision, with the bilingual name demonstrating passion and respect for soccer's heritage and reflecting its lofty aspirations for competitive excellence and crowning achievements in the community.

"The name, colors and shield of Real Salt Lake represent soccer's spirit as a unifying sport, as well as the state of Utah's rapidly expanding diversity," said Checketts. "Real Salt Lake will lead what MLS Commissioner Don Garber calls 'the New America' and will serve as a tremendous source of pride not only across the Wasatch Front, but also for fans around the world who recognize our aspirations for a competitive, family-oriented organization. As we continue to grow as a league, the RSL tradition will define our path and our core values will resonate across the global sports marketplace."

On May 3, 2007, upon his introduction, Real Salt Lake's second head coach, Jason Kreis, uttered the latin phrase "Audentis Fortuna Juvat" – "Fortune Favors the Bold." Kreis certainly believes in the power of this concept to his core, introducing bold changes during his first nine months at the helm, expecting the moves to bring imminent fortune.

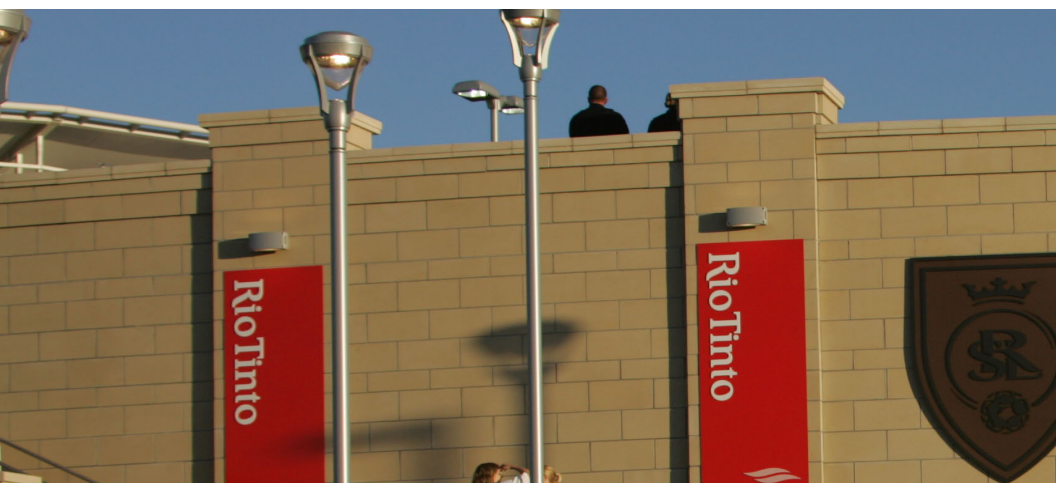

In Kreis' words, "Real Salt Lake fans are the best in MLS, and have been since day one. That RSL fans share the same values – Belief, Passion, Desire, Determination, Commitment and Sacrifice – motivates every player, coach, and administrator in the RSL organization to forge ahead and redouble efforts to achieve our lofty goals."

Real Salt Lake's goals are lofty, its aspirations regal. Each and every day, in every endeavor, RSL seeks to serve the Salt Lake Valley, Utah and the Intermountain West as a visionary community citizen, intent on delivering on its commitment to build and develop a winning, world-class organization, one which will not only stand shoulder-to-shoulder with the world's most recognizable and revered sports brands, but one which is dynamic, diverse, family-oriented, ambitious, community-based and internationally-minded.

The 2011 Major League Soccer season in Utah is upon us, and the organization from the ownership, to the players, fans and staff are elated to embark on what promises to be a fantastic and rewarding journey. RSL believes that the fan experience with Real Salt Lake will be nothing short of thrilling, combining a competitive team on the field with an electric atmosphere off it. That goal is the common thread that binds Real Salt Lake and the Utah soccer community not only again this season, but for many successful decades to come.

RIO TINTO STADIUM

Rio Tinto Stadium Project Overview • www.RioTintoStadium.com

Real Salt Lake (RSL), Utah's Major League Soccer (MLS) team, opened its new Stadium in October, 2008, in Sandy, Utah, 15 minutes from downtown Salt Lake City. Designed as a world-class sports and entertainment venue, the Stadium seats 20,000 people for various sports, including MLS games, with capacity potentially rising up to 27,000 for concerts and other events.

Rio Tinto Stadium serves as the cornerstone for surrounding development, possibly including a hotel, a broadcast studio, and other mixed-use projects such as housing, office space, and retail. However, this additional development was not included in the first phase of the project and did not receive any of the public funding earmarked for the infrastructure of the Stadium site.

The Stadium also hosts exhibition matches (e.g. RSL vs. Real Madrid or World Cup Qualifiers), youth and college sporting events, community festivals, concerts, and a range of other entertainment-oriented events.

5. Club Seats: Nearly 85% of our 900 Club Seats are sold;
6. Hospitality: 100 Lions Club, "Club Real" presented by Budweiser, the Spanish Steps below Kennecott Plaza, and the East Lawn "Carnival Real" areas

A Private-Public Partnership

Real Salt Lake invested more than $72.5 million of private funds in the overall project, including the contribution of $7.5 million to the creation of youth soccer fields in Salt Lake County. The majority of the team's investment went towards the actual construction costs for the Stadium itself, on top of the nearly $35 million previously invested in establishing Utah's second "major league" sports franchise.

In the 2007 session of the Utah Legislature, both the House of Representatives and the Senate passed HB38, a bill that invests $35 million in public funds (derived from a Transient Room Tax, or TRT) to assist with land, infrastructure, parking and other needs in the stadium area. In addition to the funds allocated by the state legislature, Sandy City committed $10 million in Redevelopment Agency funds to assist with the project. Preliminary approval of the Community Development Area needed for these funds received unanimous support from the Sandy City Council.

Former Utah Governor Jon M. Huntsman Jr. championed the bill, and it passed by more than a two-thirds majority of those voting in both houses. The new law received broad bipartisan support from both Democrats and Republicans, with support from Senate President John Valentine, House Speaker Greg Curtis, Majority Leader Dave Clark, and Minority Leader Ralph Becker (now the Mayor of Salt Lake City). The bill also had the backing of former Salt Lake City Mayor Rocky Anderson, current Sandy Mayor Tom Dolan, and the Salt Lake County Council. The project received resounding support from the public when a referendum movement seeking to put the bill to a public vote fell 80,000 votes short, collecting only 14% of the 92,000 signatures necessary.

History Of Public Funding

Many other major sports facilities in Utah have received significant public support. All of the Olympic venues, Franklin Covey Field, and the E Center were almost 100% funded by taxpayer dollars. The current home of the Utah Jazz (NBA), Energy Solutions Arena (formerly the Delta Center), received $27 million of public funding in 1989 (more than $45 million in today's dollars) via property taxes from Salt Lake City's Redevelopment Agency for land, infrastructure, and parking. This model is essentially the same as the one used for the Rio Tinto Stadium.

Virtually every sports stadium built around the country requires some form of public investment to make the project possible. The primary reason for public investment is that private investors do not realize a return on land, roads, sewer lines, and other public infrastructure needed for these projects. Even non-sports projects, such as the Newspaper Agency Corporation's West Valley City facility, and the Gateway shopping / office complex, enjoyed significant public support for infrastructure needs. In all cases, public investment was necessary to bring these projects to fruition.

Stadium/Arena	Location	Public Funding	% of Public Funds (in today's dollars)
Rio Tinto Stadium	Sandy	$45 million	38%
Energy Solutions	Salt Lake City	$45 million	29%
E Center	West Valley City	$57 million	100%
Franklin Covey	Salt Lake City	$28 million	93%
Toyota Park	Bridgeview, IL	$100 million	100%
BMO Field	Toronto, Canada	$55 million	75%
Nationals Ballpark	Washington, D.C.	$658 million	100%

Transient Room Tax (TRT)

The Transient Room Tax (TRT) is a tax on visitors and tourists, charged when a person stays in a Salt Lake County hotel room. Utah law mandates that these taxes be spent on tourism promotion, convention facilities, or sports and recreation facilities (Utah Code Title 17, Chapter 31, Section 2). These taxes can not be used for any other purpose. Out-of-state visitors generate 92% of these taxes, and 98% are generated by residents from outside of Salt Lake County. As such, the TRT taxes are not coming out of the pockets of County residents.

Before the passage of HB38, which facilitates the stadium project, portions of the TRT tax were set to expire in 2011 and 2015. If they had expired, Salt Lake County would have received fewer TRT dollars. However, passing HB 38 now extends those taxes on visitors so that Salt Lake County government can use those funds on projects to benefit residents. This means that over the minimum projected life of the stadium (30 years), Salt Lake County could receive in excess of $220 million in new revenue that it would not have seen if HB38 had not passed. This money benefits all county residents.

RIO TINTO STADIUM

Sandy's Redevelopment Agency Funding

Sandy City has committed to create a Community Development Area (CDA) around the stadium project. This CDA allows Sandy to reinvest new property taxes generated in the area to help with the project. So, property taxes currently paid on the property in the CDA continue to go to various government agencies. However, any new property taxes generated in the CDA as the result of increased property values from the stadium project, above and beyond the base level, can be used to help the development. Essentially, this means that the tax generated by increased property values in the area could go to help the project over a set period of time. After that time, usually 15-25 years, all the taxes generated in the area go to government for public purposes.

Source of Funds	Amount	% of Project
RSL Private Investment	$72.5 million	62%
Transient Room Tax (TRT)	$35 million	30%
Sandy CDA Funds	$10 million	8%

Taxpayers In Sandy

Because the CDA can only use new tax increment, current property taxes cannot be used for the project. This means that anyone who is paying taxes in Sandy now will not be paying to assist the stadium project. Only new property values created in the CDA can be used. Anyone who currently pays property tax in Sandy can rest assured that his/her property taxes won't be raised or used to pay for the stadium infrastructure.

The Land And Infrastructure

Government will own infrastructure and land paid for with public funds. So, in the highly unlikely event that Real Salt Lake were to go out of business, the state of Utah would own valuable property and assets that protect its investment.

Economic Impact

1. National/International Media Attention: Soccer matches played in the Stadium are routinely broadcast around the world. Likewise, news articles about the events appear in numerous newspapers, magazines, and on-line media outlets. One estimate places the dollar value of this exposure for the state of Utah at approximately $95 million per year.
2. Out-of-State Visitors: Real Salt Lake has been the catalyst for the two greatest international events in Utah since the 2002 Olympic Winter Games.
 - The Real Madrid exhibition in August 2006 sold 45,000 tickets across 48 states and 13 countries, with an estimated economic impact of $15 million coming from out-of-state visitors.
 - In June of 2005, the USA World Cup Qualifier against Costa Rica attracted 42,500 fans in similar fashion with a $12.8 million economic impact from visitors outside of Utah.These two events alone have brought nearly $28 million to the Utah economy. With at least one such event per year, the dollars brought to Utah over the life of the stadium will be significant.
3. Out-of-State Investment: In addition to the direct economic impact of the stadium, the project will be magnet for as much as $500 million in out-of-state investment to develop the area around the stadium, including a hotel, a broadcast studio, and mixed-used development with housing, offices and retail stores.
4. Property Values: Evidence from around the country indicates that stadiums have a positive impact on real estate values. Often, but not always, new stadiums spur economic development in the vicinity. Higher property values bring economic security to residents and more tax dollars to government to provide services to its constituents.
 - AT&T Park in San Francisco had a significant effect on property values in the area – with condo prices 15-44% greater than units around the city, and rental prices averaging a 1%-10.8% difference. Commercial real estate prices increased from $1.50 - $2.00 per square foot to $3.00-$400. (Bay Area Economics Study prepared for the San Jose Redevelopment Agency, November 2006)
 - Denver's "LoDo" (the lower downtown neighborhood) near Coors Field has a 6% vacancy rate versus Denver's overall metro rate of 14.9%. There has been over $1 billion in residential development since 1999 in downtown St. Louis near the new Busch Stadium. In addition, there is a 63% population growth rate projected in the area surrounding the Cardinals' new home.
5. New Jobs: According to the Economic Development Corporation of Utah, more than 100 well-paying jobs are directly plugged into the Utah economy stemming from the day-to-day operations of Real Salt Lake Stadium. EDCU also predicts the stadium will generate 75 additional jobs within local businesses. Construction of Rio Tinto Stadium created upwards of 300 jobs for people within the Sandy community and the Greater Salt Lake area. Construction of Pizza Hut Park in Frisco, Texas created more than 500 full-time positions. Downtown St. Louis has added over 80 high quality independent retail, restaurants, and galleries in the past 4 years alone, creating a variety of new jobs for area residents.

Community Impact

1. Unity and Community Building: Soccer, universally recognized as the world's most popular sport, has demonstrated a capability of unifying Utah's diverse population behind a common passion. Indeed, it provides a family-friendly atmosphere that will allow for clean entertainment and also a place where a community can come together and take pride in hosting a successful major league franchise. With the introduction of the Stadium, fans enjoy an enhanced soccer experience on a field that is designed for the sport. The Stadium also serves as a venue for year-round events, of all sizes and with limitless themes.
2. Utah's Reputation as a World-Class Destination: As demonstrated with the Olympics, sports contain the power to enhance and reinforce a community's national and international reputation. By bringing in world-renowned performers and international sporting icons on tour, as well as the out-of-town journalists, coaches, players, and fans that follow, the Stadium showcases Utah's reputation as a world-class place to live, work and play, while at the same time augment Utah's business and tourism industries.
3. Charitable Giving: As a part of the Stadium agreement, Real Salt Lake has distributes 500 tickets to each home game to under-privileged children free of charge. RSL will also continue its support of more than 12 different charities throughout Utah, primarily those under the United Way of Salt Lake umbrella.
4. New Revenues for Education: The Stadium itself will generate $24 million over the next 30 years in new property tax revenues exclusively for the Canyons School District. The surrounding developments could bring as much as $130 million to the District over 30 years.
5. Continued Revenue Stream: Due to a reversal of the proposed "sunset" in 2011 and 2015 of a portion of the Transient Room Tax in order to provide infrastructure for the stadium project, tourists will continue to pay taxes that fund projects in Salt Lake County. Without this tax extension, the county would have lost as much as $220 million over the next 30 years.
6. Better Public Infrastructure: The infrastructure paid for by public funds has broad benefits beyond the Stadium. For example, the stadium will provide much needed parking for the South Towne Expo Center, which is adjacent to the stadium block.

Founder, SCP Worldwide

Co-Owner & Chairman, RSL/Rio Tinto Stadium

Visionary sports entrepreneur Dave Checketts founded SCP Worldwide (SCP) in September 2001. One of the most heralded sports, media and entertainment executives currently serves as Chairman of this fast growing company.

Under his direction and leadership, SCP has acquired an impressive stable of assets. In October 2008, SCP opened Rio Tinto Stadium in Sandy, Utah, a state-of-the-art mid-sized facility that serves as the permanent home of Real Salt Lake of Major League Soccer, a team formed by SCP in June 2004 as the 15-team league's twelfth entry. In June 2006, the company acquired the St. Louis Blues of the National Hockey League, as well as its Scottrade Center home and St. Louis' historic Kiel Opera House. In addition, SCP owns sports-talk radio station ESPN 700 Sports, also in Salt Lake City, has a controlling interest in Running Subway, an entertainment production company, and in 2008 acquired Tupelo-Honey Productions, a heralded media production company.

The 54-year old Mr. Checketts created his sports media company after a successful ten-year career at Madison Square Garden (MSG). As President and Chief Executive Officer for seven years, Mr. Checketts oversaw all operations of one of the most powerful sports and entertainment companies globally, including the "World's Most Famous Arena" and its three sports franchises, the New York Knickerbockers of the NBA, the New York Rangers of the NHL, and the New York Liberty of the WNBA – along with the award-winning MSG Network and FOX Sports Network. In 1997, while at his post, Mr. Checketts took on the ambitious acquisition and comprehensive restoration of New York's historic Radio City Music Hall. Although MSG, under his leadership, was awarded with many accomplishments such as being named Arena of the Year for six straight years, the achievement he takes most pride in is the establishment of the MSG "Cheering for Children" foundation, which created after-school programs for thousands of New York City school children.

Mr. Checketts began his career at Madison Square Garden as President of the New York Knicks in March 1991. In the four seasons he served as President, the team finished twice in first place, made it to the Eastern Conference Finals twice and captured the Eastern Conference Champion Title in 1994. During this time, the team set records in attendance, ratings and revenues, including setting the all-time sellout streak of 460 games at The Garden. Forbes named the Knicks the most valuable franchise in the NBA.

In his role as Governor of the Knicks (NBA), Rangers (NHL) and Liberty (WNBA), Mr. Checketts was instrumental in all three leagues' development and mission. For the NBA, he was part of both the Planning Committee and the Labor Relations Committee, which included being a lead negotiator in the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) in 1999. For the WNBA, he was one of the founding partners and served on the League's Operating Committee.

Prior to joining the Knicks, Mr. Checketts spent one year as General Manager of NBA International, working with NBA Commissioner David Stern on building a presence for the league in broadcasting and licensing around the world.

In 1983, Mr. Checketts was named President and General Manager of the Utah Jazz. At 28 years old, he became the youngest chief executive in the history of the NBA. During his six-year tenure, the team captured two Midwest Division titles and enjoyed a multi-million dollar economic turnaround.

Mr. Checketts matriculated as an undergraduate at the University of Utah and earned his MBA from Brigham Young University (BYU) in 1981, where he graduated with top honors. Upon completion of his studies, he joined the Boston-based consulting firm, Bain & Company. Mr. Checketts serves on the Board of Directors of JetBlue Airways, International Management Group (IMG) and Republic Mortgage. He plays an active role with each company, serving as the Chairman, Compensation Committee for JetBlue.

He resides in Connecticut with his wife Deb. They have six children and four grandchildren.

Co-Owner & Vice Chairman, RSL/Rio Tinto Stadium

On November 18, 2009, just four days prior to the crowning achievement of the organization's first five seasons, Utah entrepreneur and real estate developer Dell Loy Hansen purchased a co-ownership stake in SCP Worldwide's Utah sports properties – Real Salt Lake of Major League Soccer (MLS), Rio Tinto Stadium and ESPN700 Sports Talk Radio.

Mr. Hansen serves as Vice Chairman and Alternate Governor for Real Salt Lake and works closely with SCP Worldwide and the RSL management team regarding the direction and strategy of each business unit, as well as the potential real estate development around Rio Tinto Stadium.

"We are delighted to have Dell Loy and his family joining ours," said Mr. Checketts, who founded Real Salt Lake as Major League Soccer's 12th team in July, 2004. "Many other MLS franchises have been fortunate to have added significant partners to their ownership groups in recent years, but what makes this stand out from the others are Dell Loy's strong local roots and knowledge of the marketplace. For someone with his stature to make a bold statement of support like this speaks volumes to the inroads we have made in this community. His partnership helps fortify the enterprise and sets us up for long-term success and growth. I look forward to working closely with Dell Loy and look forward to growing these businesses and deepening their reach into the community together."

Mr. Hansen, President of Wasatch Property Management, Inc., is a lifelong Utah resident with deep roots in Cache Valley, in the northern part of the state. His passion to build youth athletic facilities led to the creation of the Sports Academy in North Logan in 1995. Many truly outstanding swimmers, soccer and tennis players have developed their skills at Sports Academy. "Personal success" is at the root of the Academy experience and reflects Mr. Hansen's core values.

Under former Utah Governor Michael Leavitt, Mr. Hansen served nine years on the State's Board of the Department of Business and Economic Development, including two of those years as Chairman. During that time he came to appreciate the great business opportunities that exist in Utah.

"I was proud to serve Governor Leavitt in growing our economy," said Mr. Hansen on that November day at Rio Tinto Stadium, upon his introduction as co-owner. "Today, the chance to participate in professional soccer with my family is good for my children and our investment allows a more competitive team to play for Utah."

Mr. Hansen founded Wasatch Property Management, Inc. in 1988 and has served as the company's President since its inception, with corporate headquarters located in Logan, Utah. Wasatch currently employs approximately 600 employees, managing 52 multi-family residential communities with approximately 12,000 apartment units, 5 condominium developments, and 20 commercial buildings with 2.4 million of rental square footage throughout the western United States. Wasatch and its affiliated investor-owned entities maintain a real estate portfolio in excess of $1.2 Billion.

Mr. Hansen is also an owner in eight venture companies, with approximately 900 employees located across Utah, Idaho and California. The companies range from a recycling and waste disposal company in Sacramento, California; several sports clubs throughout Utah and Idaho, a plastic injection & molding company, wood milling company and a golf course in Utah. These companies reported Revenue of approximately $60 Million in 2008 with projected Revenues in excess of $64 Million in 2009.

Throughout his pioneering business development career, Mr. Hansen has served on many State and local boards, including:

- Chairman of the Governor's Office of Economic Development for the State Of Utah (9 yrs.)
- Audit Chairman for the Division of Health & Human Services
- State of Utah's Judicial Nominating Committee (5 yrs.)
- State of Utah's Industrial Assistance Fund (9 yrs.)
- Transportation Alliance ($4.8 billion transportation infrastructure)
- Downtown Development for Salt Lake City
- Western Governor's University

Mr. Hansen has also been actively involved in various state and local charitable organizations, contributing over $10 million dollars to numerous organizations, including:

- Utah Symphony & Opera
- Cache Education Foundation
- Utah State University Hansen Scholars
- The Oquirrh Institute (Institute for State Studies)
- Cache Valley Center for the Arts & Cache Valley Ballet
- Ellen Eccles Theater & Bullen Center
- Friends of the North Logan Library
- George S. Eccles Ice Arena
- The Dell Loy & Lynnette Hansen Charitable Support Trust
- Sunshine Terrace Retirement Center
- Cache Children's Choir
- Salt Lake Advocacy & Community Training

President

Bill Manning was named President of Real Salt Lake and what would become Rio Tinto Stadium in April, 2008, and is responsible for all team and venue operations, in the business, competitive and event realms. Manning also oversees the strategic direction of a third property, ESPN 700 Sports Radio.

During Mr. Manning's first three years in Utah, RSL has brought the state of Utah its first major-league professional sports championship in nearly 40 years; successfully opened one of America's premier sports and entertainment venues, Rio Tinto Stadium; and emerged as such an economic engine on the Wasatch Front that last year it was named only the third-ever honoree of the Salt Lake Chamber's "President's Award" in the business leader's 107-year history.

Under Manning's guidance, Real Salt Lake has vaulted into the League's elite in virtually every business metric, including sponsorship revenue, ticket sales revenue, merchandising and media coverage. The grandeur and permanence of Rio Tinto Stadium along with the rapidly accelerating profile for the sport of soccer have given Manning a platform upon which mutually beneficial, "win-win" partnerships are created with fans and sponsors across the Wasatch.

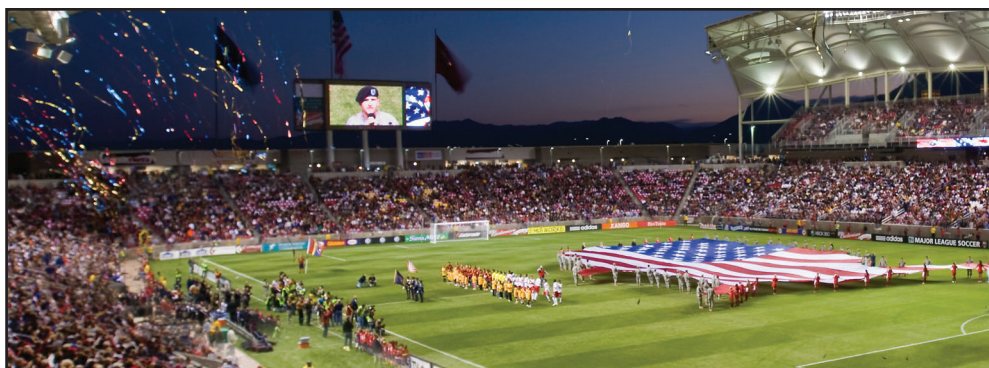

Mr. Manning, 45, brings a wealth of experience on the field and in the sports business, where he has enjoyed a successful 18-year career including executive positions in the NFL, NBA & MLS, intimately involved in either the establishment, growth or emergence of a trio of new venues: Lincoln Financial Field (home to the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles), Toyota Center (NBA Houston Rockets) and Rio Tinto Stadium (MLS Real Salt Lake).

Prior to his relocation to Utah, Mr. Manning served four years as Vice President of Sales & Service for the Philadelphia Eagles of the NFL, where he was responsible for all corporate sponsorships and premium seating. Under his leadership, the Eagles saw a 50% increase in corporate sponsorship from the 2004 to 2007 seasons, and in August 2007, Forbes cited the Eagles as the fastest-growing brand in the NFL using a value formula that included sponsorships and ticket sales. In June 2006, Mr. Manning was selected to represent the Eagles at the prestigious NFL Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

A native of Massapequa, New York (Long Island), Mr. Manning received national recognition as a college player and was selected to play in the 1986 Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America East-West All-Star Game. As a sophomore at the University of Bridgeport, he helped the Purple Knights to a NCAA quarterfinal berth, and as a senior in 1986 he led his team to a final four appearance while earning first-team All-America honors. Mr. Manning continued his playing career after college and won a U.S. Open Cup with the Brooklyn Italians in 1991, and played professionally in the United Soccer Leagues (USL) with the Penn-Jersey Spirit (1991), Valley Golden Eagles (1993) and New York Fever (1994-95). While with the Fever, Mr. Manning began advancing his coaching education and eventually completed his U.S. Soccer National "A" License in March 2001.

Mr. Manning began his sports management career by joining the front office of the Continental Indoor Soccer League during its inaugural season in 1993. A year later, he returned home to play with the New York Fever and become more involved as an administrator doing double duty as Director of Marketing & Operations. In 1996, Mr. Manning was hired as Vice President & General Manager of the Long Island Rough Riders, where he helped lead the Rough Riders to consecutive final four appearances in 1996 and 1997. During Mr. Manning's tenure in Long Island, the club was honored twice by Soccer Business International as the recipient of the publication's Marketing Excellence Award for best overall marketing in the USL.

After the 1997 season, Mr. Manning left Long Island for the Minnesota Thunder to become President & General Manager, and immediately made an impact as Minnesota advanced to the 1998 USL First Division championship match after a sub .500 finish the previous season. The following year, Mr. Manning was named USL Executive of the Year after Minnesota won the 1999 championship and, spearheaded by his impressive corporate sponsorship campaign, developed the second-highest revenue base in the league. Bolstered by Mr. Manning's key off and in-season acquisitions, the Thunder capped a 24-2-8 season with a 2-1 championship victory over the defending champion Rochester Raging Rhinos. While with the Thunder, Mr. Manning earned national acclaim as one of Soccer Business International magazine's individuals "To Watch" in 2000. Mr. Manning was also named to Minneapolis-based CityBusiness magazine's 1999 40 Under 40 list, which recognized the next generation of Twin Cities business and community leaders, and also was selected as one of "100 People to Watch" by Mpls St. Paul Magazine.

Mr. Manning's first entry into Major League Soccer came in February, 2000 when he was named President & General Manager of the Tampa Bay Mutiny. On the business side, the team achieved a 35% increase in corporate sponsorship and with a focus on customer service, helped the Mutiny nearly double their season ticket renewal rate. After a promising first season on the field, which saw Mr. Manning named 2000 MLS Executive of the Year by the Washington Post, the 2001 campaign turned out to be the worst in Manning's career as the Mutiny, a league-owned team, were contracted prior to the 2002 season. At a career crossroads, Mr. Manning ventured away from soccer to the NBA, where he joined the Houston Rockets as Director of Corporate Partnerships. In Houston, Manning helped generate nearly $10M in new cash sponsorships prior to the opening of the state-of-the-art Toyota Center in November 2003.

Mr. Manning received his BS (1987) and MBA (1989) from the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut. He has been inducted into the Berner High School Hall of Fame with the class of 1987 and more recently into the University of Bridgeport Hall of Fame with the class of 2006. Since his arrival in Salt Lake City, Manning has been appointed to the Board of Directors of both the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce and the United Way of Salt Lake, and sits on the Executive Board for the Utah Sports Commission.

Bill and his wife Jennifer reside in Sandy and are the parents of two boys, 11-year old John and 8-year old Will.

General Manager & Senior Vice President, Soccer Operations

Trained as an attorney, Garth Lagerwey oversees all aspects of the soccer team's off-field business, conducting Real Salt Lake's personnel acquisitions, managing the team's salary and operations budgets and cultivating the reserve team and youth development programs.

Named Real Salt Lake's second General Manager on September 19, 2007, the former MLS goalkeeper has worked tirelessly, along with Head Coach Jason Kreis and team President Bill Manning, to transform both the team and management cultures of the organization, overseeing one of the most remarkable competitive turnarounds in modern American sports. When Mr. Lagerwey, 37, joined the Real Salt Lake technical staff, he gave RSL the unique distinction in MLS circles as the lone entity among the League's now 18 teams where the GM and entire coaching staff boast MLS playing experience.

Under his direction over the last three-plus years in Utah, RSL has evolved from league laughingstock in 2007 to MLS Cup Champions just two seasons later. While the team's title defense last year was not rewarded with hardware, the paucity of five losses in eight months across MLS and CCL play was a testament to a masterfully-constructed roster with an unusual amount of depth.

In a total of 40 games last year across three competitions [MLS league play, CONCACAF Champions League and Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup], RSL saw an amazing level of contribution throughout the entire roster, as 16 different players scored at least one goal and a total of 23 players started games and logged significant minutes. Entering the 2011 pursuit of both MLS and CCL glory, every single player on the roster was either acquired or re-signed during the Lagerwey/Kreis era.

Currently built for international success, Lagerwey and RSL spent the 2010-11 offseason locking up the team's core to long-term deals. After acquiring the permanent rights to last year's leading scorer, Costa Rican sensation Álvaro Saborío, RSL extended the loan of young striker Paulo Junior and signed a trio of veterans - GK Nick Rimando, DF Nat Borchers and MF Will Johnson to long-term extensions, ensuring continuity for the next several seasons. Captain Kyle Beckerman, maestro Javier Morales, attacker Fabian Espíndola and staunch defender Jamison Olave had also signed extensions during the previous year.

As the locker room has matured, both the day-to-day and long-term philosophies implemented by Lagerwey and the team staff have also grown and evolved. Initially, the massive roster overhaul completed by Mr. Lagerwey, Kreis and the coaching staff was rewarded in 2008 as RSL secured its first-ever MLS Cup playoff berth, advancing to the Western Conference Final.

His second season saw the evolution of a competitive core built around "The Team is the Star" mantra, borne out in Real Salt Lake's victorious trip to MLS Cup 2009, the state of Utah's first major-league professional sport championship in nearly forty years.

In developing the Real Salt Lake "player archetype," Mr. Lagerwey has successfully brought European-based American players back to Major League Soccer (i.e. Borchers, Johnson, Clint Mathis and Robbie Russell); added young yet experienced South or Central American professionals (Saborio, Paulo Junior and Nelson Gonzalez enter the 2011 season with high expectations), and traded for or claimed off waivers RSL standouts Ned Grabavoy, Arturo Alvarez and Rauwshan McKenzie. Various drafts have also deepened the RSL core of players, as Luis Gil, Cody Arnoux and Tim Melia could benefit from the return of the reserve division in 2011, halting the massive roster turnover that marked the club's first three seasons following its 2005 expansion.

Mr. Lagerwey joined the RSL front office from the law firm of Latham & Watkins, LLC, where he served as an associate in the Corporate Department of the firm's Washington, D.C. office. A graduate of both Duke University (BA, 1994) and Georgetown University Law School (JD, 2004), Mr. Lagerwey's experience in the practice's Sports, Media & Entertainment; Investment & Strategic Ventures; and Mergers & Acquisitions divisions included assistance in a client's acquisition of a minority portion of the SCP Worldwide's St. Louis Blues (NHL); the buying and selling of companies in a variety of fields; and extensive fund formation and management of the investment funds for the Carlyle Group, with emphasis in the energy sector.

Latham & Watkins, LLC, also spawned such soccer business luminaries as Alan I. Rothenberg, the founder of Major League Soccer for whom the championship trophy is named, MLS President Mark Abbott, the League's first employee and author of the single-entity business plan, and former MLS Deputy Commissioner Ivan Gazidis, now Chief Executive of legendary English soccer power Arsenal.

Intimately involved in Major League Soccer circles since the League's inception in 1996, Mr. Lagerwey spent his five-year career as an MLS goalkeeper for the Kansas City Wizards (1996), the Dallas Burn (1997-98), and Miami Fusion FC (1999-2000). Mr. Lagerwey's career during the League's early days allowed him to cross paths with a handful of current RSL players and coaches, including Andy Williams, Nick Rimando, Kyle Beckerman, Jeff Cassar and Jason Kreis, alongside whom Lagerwey also spent his four-year collegiate career at Duke University.

Mr. Lagerwey's sharp wit and knowledge of American soccer at all levels made him a natural fit in the media realm, getting his start by filling in as a guest writer for Sports Illustrated and SI.com writer Grant Wahl's weekly soccer column. Lagerwey traded his pen for a microphone upon retirement and served as a color analyst for D.C. United's television broadcasts on Comcast Sportsnet during parts of seven MLS seasons (2001-07), in addition to being an analyst for XM Satellite Radio's World Cup 2006 daily show and seeing spot duty on New England Revolution TV and radio broadcasts.

The Elmhurst, Ill., native resides in Salt Lake City, with wife Hilary.

Chief Financial Officer

Gary Reimer brings more than 30 years of experience in financial and commercial management to Real Salt Lake and Rio Tinto Stadium, where he is responsible for all financial operations, including reporting, budgeting, business planning, operational reviews, investment analysis and transactional support. Mr. Reimer also works in concert with SCP Worldwide in developing numerous financial models for the team, ESPN 700 Sports Radio and Rio Tinto Stadium.

Prior to launching his practice as the owner and principal of The CFO Advantage, a company that provides CFO services to businesses in need of financial leadership, Mr. Reimer was a senior financial executive with the Rudolf Wild Group of Companies, a privately owned multinational German firm in the flavor ingredients and consumer beverage industries for 15 years. From 1992 through 2000, Mr. Reimer was the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer for Wild's North American group, which included operations in the U.S., Canada, and Mexico, playing a key role in the start up and development of Wild's business in North America, including the acquisition of several companies.

From 1994 through 1996 Mr. Reimer served as the acting COO, overseeing the integration of the key company that became Wild's North American headquarters. Mr. Reimer was also President of Rudolf Wild of America, a Wild subsidiary responsible for managing its brand license and major supply contracts with the Capri Sun business unit of Kraft Foods, Inc. Capri Sun became one of Kraft's fastest growing and very successful brands. Mr. Reimer was responsible for the very successful double-digit growth of the juice brand, leading to the company's acquisition by Kraft in 1991. Mr. Reimer also played an essential role in Wild's global M&A activities in Germany, France, the U.K. and Brazil.

Mr. Reimer started his career with the "Big Eight" public accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand (1977 through 1980), where he earned his certification as a CPA. In 1977, Mr. Reimer earned his MBA in Finance and Accounting at UCLA's Graduate School of Management (now known as the Anderson School of Management), a leading graduate business and management program. He earned his BA in 1975 from Duke University with a double major in English and Economics.

Living in Salt Lake City, Mr. Reimer has participated as a guest speaker on numerous occasions in the University of Utah's executive education program. He is also the former President of BOOT (Buy Our Own Technology, Inc.), an independent not-for-profit fundraising organization for Indian Hills Elementary School. He is married with three daughters.

Senior Vice President, Business Operations

General Manager, ESPN 700

John Kimball is one of a handful of remaining "RSL Originals," entering his seventh year with Real Salt Lake after transferring from a former sister company, SportsWest Productions, where he had been the Regional Sales Manager since 2003. Mr. Kimball, originally the Senior Director of Corporate Partnerships for Real Salt Lake, currently supervises all corporate sponsorship and ticketing sales, marketing, operations, and business aspects for the club and its state-of-the-art home, Rio Tinto Stadium. Since Real Salt Lake's inception, Kimball has recruited several of the Utah community's innovative companies to invest in Major League Soccer's Utah side, and guided numerous national brands to activate their interests in concert with RSL's athletic, corporate and community initiatives.

Kimball's team has seen outstanding growth from RSL's inaugural season to present, more than tripling overall revenue of sponsor commitments from 2006 to present with a 50% annual compound increase, and establishing the Utah side as a league leader in both sponsor and ticket revenue. During 2007 and 2008, Mr. Kimball simultaneously served as the General Manager of KALL 700 Sports AM radio station, successfully negotiating long-term deals for the station's carriage University of Utah football and basketball games, as well as local and national sponsorship contracts.

Last year marked Kimball's return to the helm of ESPN 700, integrating the sales staffs for the team, stadium and station, utilizing Real Salt Lake's MLS Cup title and ESPN 700's ESPN Radio affiliation to usher in a new era of Utah sports marketing. The growth of ESPN 700 continues in 2011, with the highly-rated mix of national ESPN properties, the highly-acclaimed Dan Patrick Show and local stars "Bill & Spence" delivering the InterMountain West's most compelling sports radio offerings.

Prior to his appointment as Senior Director of Corporate Sponsorship at RSL's launch, Mr. Kimball marketed and negotiated regional media and merchandising contracts for the Mountain West Conference (MWC), Western Athletic Conference (WAC), and the Big Sky football and basketball conferences for SportsWest Productions. Mr. Kimball also formed the Synergy Media Group, where he designed and executed marketing strategies for local and national clients.

Previously, Mr. Kimball served as a sales manager of KSL News Radio 1160 for its national, regional and local sales from 1993 to 2003. While at KSL, he was also the sales manager of Television and Radio Sports Marketing and sold contracts for NFL Football, the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympic Winter Games, NCAA Basketball, and Major League Baseball (MLB). Kimball also supervised KSL's sports marketing relationships with Brigham Young University (BYU) Football and Basketball.

Rio Tinto Stadium General Manager

Michael J. Steele became the Rio Tinto Stadium General Manager in Summer, 2008, after working nearly two years as the Stadium's Project Manager with ICON Venue Group. Mr. Steele brings 13 years of venue and construction management experience to the Stadium. In his capacity as the Stadium's General Manager, Mr. Steele focuses on the entirety of operational and programming aspects for the state-of-the-art 25,000-capacity sports and entertainment venue.

During his Rio Tinto Stadium career, Steele has managed the needs for the building's primary tenant, Real Salt Lake of Major League Soccer, as well as coordinated the details and logistics surrounding shows by The Eagles, Kenny Chesney and last year's enormously successful visit by Sir Paul McCartney. Under Steele's leadership, the venue has become a favorite of USA Rugby, which has held national team matches here, in addition to both college and high school championship tournaments. The increasingly popular Snocross tour named the building its 2010 "Venue of the Year," while Monster Trucks, high school and college football, and various other events have been attracted to Utah due to the venue's ability to host in a world-class fashion.

Prior to joining ICON, Mr. Steele served in a similar position as the Director of Operations for the Madison Square Garden Training Center in Tarrytown, New York, since July 2002. He opened the building from the construction process and was responsible for the punch list, FF&E, and team transitioning. Once the facility was complete, he was responsible for a $2 million operating budget, all venue maintenance, capital improvements, construction, and venue-related services.

From 2000 to 2002, Mr. Steele was the Operations Manager and Ice Rink Manager for the Mullins Center at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. During that time, he handled all day-to-day operational issues in the complex with a staff of 300 and an operating budget of $1 million.

Mr. Steele gained Utah-based experience from 1997 to 2000 while serving as Director of Event Services for the E Center in West Valley City, Utah. He was part of the grand opening team and worked on the punch list, hired new staff, and implemented a new training program. Once the building was operational, he was responsible for staff and planning for the venue's first 200+ shows. In addition to his experience at the E Center, Mr. Steele has experience as Event Coordinator for the Hartford Civic Center and Sector Coordinator for the Boxing Venue for the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games.

Mr. Steele, who studied Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst from 1989 to 1994, his wife Niki, and children Shaylie, Megan and Heather reside in South Jordan, Utah.

2009 CHAMPIONS

Head Coach

"Audentis Fortuna Juvat" (Fortune favors the bold)

Kreis, an American soccer icon and Major League Soccer pioneer, embarks on the 2011 MLS season with "unfinished business" driving this year's CONCACAF Champions League and Major League Soccer ambitions. After becoming the youngest Championship-winning manager in MLS' 15-year history when his 2009 Real Salt Lake team won six of its final seven regular-season and postseason games, including a dramatic penalty-kick win over a star-studded Los Angeles team in MLS Cup 2009, last year's squad dropped just five games across eight months in all competitions, yet were sent home unceremoniously in the first round of the 2010 MLS Cup Playoffs by finalist FC Dallas.

While RSL did not repeat – something that has happened just twice in the 15 years of MLS – Kreis' organization and leadership, drive and determination inspired Real Salt Lake (15-4-11, 56 points, Supporters' Shield runners-up) to a nearly unprecedented run, amassing 64 points in 30 games combined – the equivalent of an MLS season – from May 1 to Oct. 19 in both MLS and CCL play, a points haul equal to the 3rd-best run EVER by an MLS team (Los Angeles – 70 pts – Sept. 7, 1997 to Aug. 8, 1998; Los Angeles – 66 pts – June 28, 2009 to June 26, 2010).

Kreis led the 2010 RSL side to become the first-ever MLS team (and one of just 3 non-Mexican teams) to win a CONCACAF group, posting a 4-1-1 mark and advancing to the quarterfinal stage in 2011. The former striker's side was also the 2nd highest-scoring team in CONCACAF, with 17 goals in 6 games (2.83 goals/game). In MLS play, the following milestones established new league standards, as the 2010 RSL squad set all-time MLS marks in the following categories: fewest goals allowed (20), overall goal differential (+25), total home points (37), fewest home losses (0) and fewest home goals allowed (7). In addition to those league records, last year's edition set franchise-high records in wins (15), goals (45), scoring output (1.50/game), points (56), shutouts (15), road points (19) and road goal differential (+1).

In 2009, RSL finished the regular season with an 11-12-5 mark, earning the final MLS Cup Playoff spot on the last day of the season with a complete and dominating 3-0 win over rival Colorado. Just as in the year before, RSL played its best when the pressure was highest, reeling off four consecutive postseason wins to bring the State of Utah its first major league professional title in nearly 40 years.

Kreis became the second head coach in Real Salt Lake history on May 3, 2007, when RSL Owner Dave Checketts tabbed the team's Captain, its first-ever player and (at the time) the League's all-time leading scorer to seize the reins of Utah's Division I professional soccer team. The Duke University product was the eleventh ex-MLS player (not including interim stints) to take over a League side, and is currently one of eight head coaches in the League to make the switch from an MLS pitch to the sideline.

Intense and passionate, Mr. Kreis went 6-13-7 (25 points) during the partial 2007 season, enduring an expectedly steep learning curve before steadying his squad to a 4-4-3 finish down the stretch, a sign of things to come. In his first full season at the helm in 2008, Kreis led Real Salt Lake to its first-ever playoff berth on the heels of a 10-10-10 (40 points) regular season, a turnaround for which Kreis was rewarded with a contract extension that will keep him on the Rio Tinto Stadium sideline at least through the 2011 MLS season.

The 2008 campaign reflected the results of an extensive team overhaul, which saw the team mold 21 new faces – added since the final half of the 2007 season – into a competitive unit. The landmark 2008 season under Kreis' direction saw Real Salt Lake open the state-of-the-art Rio Tinto Stadium, dramatically qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs in the final minute of the year and defeat the higher-seeded Chivas USA in the West Semifinals before ultimately bowing to the New York Red Bulls one step shy of MLS Cup, all resulting in the most successful and competitive campaign in Real Salt Lake's four-season history both on and off the field, prior to the Cup win one year later.

At the time of his hire, Mr. Kreis became the youngest active head coach in MLS at 34 years and 127 days of age. Kreis works closely with former Blue Devil and Dallas Burn teammate and current RSL General Manager Lagerwey regarding player acquisitions, scouting, the MLS Draft and all player personnel-related matters. The Kreis-Lagerwey partnership has resulted in the implementation of a culture where players, staff and fans work as one for the RSL shield, epitomizing a "Team is the Star" attitude. Kreis, Lagerwey and the team's coaching staff – Jeff Cassar, Robin Fraser and Miles Joseph – compose the lone technical staff among MLS' 16 teams comprised entirely of ex-MLS players. This distinction means that the RSL brain-trust now boasts cumulative MLS experience of 71,242 total minutes, covering 902 games and including 126 goals and 22 shutouts (the equivalent of nearly 30 complete seasons of service). The RSL staff has the unparalleled ability to tap into personal experience as it guides, assists and develops current RSL players.

"Jason fits the profile of every great leader I have worked with throughout my career," said a prescient Checketts back in May, 2007. "He is a hard-working, dedicated over-achiever who refuses to accept anything less than maximum effort from everyone around him. And while we have made great strides thus far under his leadership, I know we are bound for unprecedented heights, and I know that Jason is the right person to help guide our team's ascent."

Kreis abruptly retired with 108 career goals to his credit, becoming just the eighth person in the history of the five major U.S. sports leagues to serve as a head coach while holding his league's career scoring record (and only the third athlete in the post-World War II era). The first MLS player to break the century mark in goals scored, Mr. Kreis' 108 total goals scored still ranks fourth behind Jaime Moreno (131), Jeff Cunningham (121) and Ante Razov (114) heading into the 2010 season.

The native of Omaha, Neb., was the first American-born player in MLS history to earn MVP honors (Kreis remains one of just three U.S.-born MVPs in 14 MLS seasons), capturing the 1999 award after leading the Dallas Burn in goals (18) and assists (15), a stellar campaign which marked the first "15-15" season in League annals. Coming through in the clutch is a Kreis trademark, with an astounding 31 of his 108 career goals game-winners. The Duke graduate ranks among the top 10 MLS career leaders in games (305 – 10th), starts (282), minutes (25,242 – 7th), shots (818 – 2nd) and shots on goal (370).

Kreis became the first player in Real Salt Lake history on November 17, 2004, when the 12-year MLS veteran was acquired from FC Dallas in exchange for future considerations. He has the unique distinction of scoring the first-ever goals in two MLS team histories, finding the back of the net for both RSL and Dallas. Interestingly, career strikes #1 and #100 share a common opponent – the Kansas City Wizards, also the victim of Kreis' lone career MLS hat trick. Until the heroics of former Kreis protégé Robbie Findley in the 2008 home opener, Kreis was the lone RSL player ever to notch three goals in one game, albeit in a 4-6 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup loss at Minnesota in 2005.

Kreis, an avid woodworker, oenophile and golfer with a voracious appetite for reading, resides in Park City, Utah, with his wife, Kimberly, and two sons.

Assistant Coach

Former Major League Soccer goalkeeper Jeff Cassar was added to the Real Salt Lake technical staff on May 24, 2007, exactly three weeks after his former teammate Jason Kreis assumed the head coaching duties for Real Salt Lake.

Under Cassar and the entire RSL Technical Staff, goalkeeping and defensive performances at Real Salt Lake have established new standards for Major League Soccer. The 2010 season was a record-setting campaign, as the RSL goalkeeping contingent of Nick Rimando and Kyle Reynish allowed just 20 goals across 30 league games – surpassing the previous low of 23 (Houston, 2007) – and RSL conceded only 7 goals at home in 15 regular-season matches. Rimando was recognized as an MLS All-Star for his work with Cassar, and was one of three finalists for 2010 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year. Reynish shone well for a young player in his limited Open Cup, regular-season and CONCACAF action spelling Rimando, a testament to the manner in which Cassar's experience deftly guides netminders at various career stages.

Mr. Cassar, 37, has been involved in Major League Soccer since the league's inception in 1996, spending 11 seasons between the posts for three squads from 1996-2006 before retiring to become FC Dallas's goalkeeper coach in January 2007. During his career with Dallas (1996-97, 2003-06), Miami Fusion FC (1998-2001), and the MetroStars (2002), Cassar made 79 appearances (76 starts), posting a 1.76 goals against average, a 28-36-10 record, and recording 13 shutouts. Prior to his entry into the college and professional ranks, the Michigan native appeared numerous times for the U.S. U-18, U-20, and Olympic National Team programs.

Mr. Cassar also appeared in five MLS Cup Playoff contests while with the Fusion and helped a pair of squads – the 2000 Fusion and 2005 FC Dallas teams – reach the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Final. In addition to his MLS experience, Mr. Cassar also spent time with English sides Ipswich Town and Bolton Wanderers following the 2002 season before returning to Dallas in the summer of 2003.

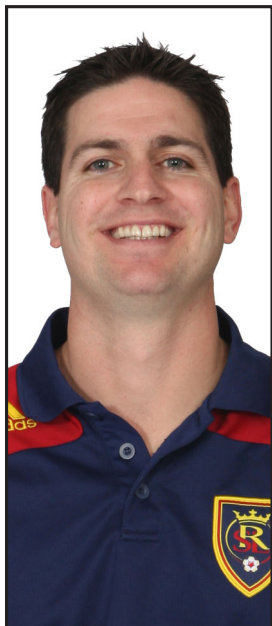

In addition to sharing Florida International University alumnus status with another prominent Utah sporting personality, Utah Jazz guard Raja Bell, Mr. Cassar is also intimately linked to several Real Salt Lake performers, both past and present. On top of his Kreis connections, Mr. Cassar competed for playing time in Miami with current RSL General Manager Garth Lagerwey as well as current RSL goalkeeper Nick Rimando. During his second stint with Dallas, Mr. Cassar would become teammates with former RSL netminders D.J. Countess and later, Scott Garlick.

Mr. Cassar resides with his wife, Jennifer, in Sandy, UT, and has three children – daughters Sloan and Dylan and son Luke.

Assistant Coach

No longer the newest member of the Real Salt Lake technical staff, Miles Joseph marked his first professional year as an MLS coach with a number of milestones, as Real Salt Lake enjoyed a history-making campaign in 2010. Fans saw an RSL team set innumerable team records and set various League marks under the tutelage of Joseph and the RSL Technical Staff, including a new mark for goal difference (+25) in the non-shootout era. RSL also extended its home unbeaten run to 25 regular-season games and counting in 2010, becoming just the second MLS team to ever go a full season without losing at home.

Mr. Joseph, a native of Clifton Park, N.Y., played in six MLS seasons from 1996-2001 for the (NY/NJ) MetroStars, Columbus Crew and Dallas Burn. Joseph scored 12 career goals in 125 total games for the teams, and was a teammate of current RSL Head Coach Jason Kreis during the 2001 campaign in Dallas.

Joseph earned All-America honors at Clemson University – where he was named to the Atlantic Coast Conference 50th Anniversary Team – before being drafted with the 12th overall pick in the 1996 MLS College Draft by the MetroStars. A standout on the United States U-18 and U-20 Men's National Teams, Joseph was selected for the roster of the U.S. team at the 1993 U-20 World Cup held in Australia, scoring a goal in the 6-0 victory over Turkey. The U.S. went 1-1-1 in group play, qualifying for the second round where it fell to Brazil.

In 1996, U.S. coach Bruce Arena named Joseph to that year's U.S. Men's Olympic Team, participating in the Atlanta Summer Games. Once again, the team went 1-1-1, but this time failed to make the second round. Joseph earned his first cap with the full U.S. National Team when he came on for Cobi Jones in the 89th minute of a 3-1 win over El Salvador on August 30, 1996. In addition to having been coached by National Soccer Hall of Fame manager Arena, Joseph has also gained knowledge and experience while playing for international luminaries Fabio Capello (the current England National Team coach oversaw Joseph's trial with AC Milan in 1997), Carlos Quieroz (current Portugal National Team Coach), Carlos Alberto Parreira (former Brazil National Team Coach) and Bora Milutinovic (Bora coached five different National Teams), each of whom managed the MetroStars during Joseph's MLS career.

Since 2003, Joseph, 36, had been the Technical Director and Director of Coaching for the Players Soccer Academy. Joseph also concurrently served as Executive Director of NY Elite FC, located in his hometown of Clifton Park, N.Y., a club that is presently composed of 25 elite boys and girls teams. Prior to those positions, Joseph served as an Assistant Coach on the Siena College women's program. During his Shenendehowa High School career, Joseph won three N.Y. state championships, and was named the Gatorade H.S. Player of the Year while earning All-America honors.

Joseph and his, wife LeeAnn, live in Park City with their children, son Noah and daughter Julia.

Assistant Coach

Another former Major League Soccer standout, defender C.J. Brown, was added to the Real Salt Lake technical staff on January 18, 2011, filling the vacancy left when Robin Fraser assumed the head coaching duties at Chivas USA.

Brown's addition to the Real Salt Lake staff allows the 2009 MLS Cup championship side to keep its distinction as the lone Technical Staff across the now 18-team League comprised solely of MLS alumni, joining RSL GM Garth Lagerwey, Head Coach Jason Kreis, and fellow assistant coaches Jeff Cassar and Miles Joseph. The five-man RSL braintrust now boasts cumulative MLS playing experience (regular season and playoffs) of 74,811 total minutes – spanning 923 games across 47 seasons – and eight domestic championships (one MLS Cup and seven Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cups), giving the staff the unparalleled ability to tap into personal experience as it guides, assists and develops the current RSL roster.

Brown, 35, retired from the playing field last October after 13 seasons as one of the most respected and consistent center backs in MLS history, compiling nearly 300 regular season appearances as a member of the Chicago Fire from 1998-2010. Known as one of the League's most dependable and cerebral defenders, his 296 games played (T-13th); 290 starts (T-7th); and 25,738 minutes played (8th) all rank towards the top of the MLS record books – and are indeed atop the Fire's career charts.

The last remaining "Fire Original" from the team's 1998 inaugural campaign also played an integral part in all five of the Chicago's domestic championships, as Brown helped lead the "Men in Red" to the 1998 MLS Cup and four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles (1998, 2000 2003, and 2006), in addition to a spot in the 2003 MLS Cup final. The 2001 MLS All-Star would also finish his career among the League's top 10 with 35 MLS Cup Playoff starts (T-5th) in as many appearances (T-7th).

Upon finishing his collegiate career at San Jose State, the Bay Area native stayed close to home to begin his road to a professional career with the USISL's San Francisco Bay Seals, playing the first two of his three years with the side as an amateur. A run to the U.S. Open Cup Semifinals in 1997 by the Bay Seals would serve as Brown's coming out party to MLS, and the then-expansion Fire would take the talented center back with the first selection in the 1998 Supplemental Draft. In addition to his standout MLS career, Brown would catch the attention of the U.S. National Team program, making 15 "caps" for the Red, White & Blue's senior squad between 1998 and 2003.

Brown is no stranger to the coaching ranks, with stints as the Assistant Director of Coaching for the Chicago Fire Juniors and the Director of Coaching for the Elmhurst (ILL.) Elite youth clubs counting among the several youth coaching positions he held since beginning his professional career in 1998. Brown has already acquired his National "B" License for coaching from the United States Soccer Federation and is planning on beginning to work towards the USSF "A" License in the next 12-18 months.

The Hayward, Calif., native will bring his family in tow to the Wasatch Front, consisting of his wife, Kim – whom he married one day after winning the U.S. Open Cup title in October 2000 – and two daughters, Canessa (7) and Kali (6).

MEDICAL STAFF

Head Team Physician

Orthopedic Surgeon Fellowship trained in Sports Medicine, Knee and Shoulder Surgery, Board Certified in Orthopedic Surgery by the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgery. Dr. Andrew Cooper moved back to Salt Lake City in 2005 after completing a fellowship in Sports Medicine, Knee and Shoulder Surgery at the Steadman Hawkins Clinic in Denver Colorado. While in fellowship Dr. Cooper was involved with the care of high school, collegiate and professional athletes including the Denver Broncos and Colorado Rockies. Currently he is the head team physician for the Real Salt Lake MLS soccer team, the Utah Blaze of the Arena Football League, and Westminster College. Dr. Cooper is also the Medical Director of the Sports Medicine Center of Utah and the Solitude ski patrol and Medical Clinic. In addition he has worked closely with Ballet West, US Ski and Snowboard teams, US Soccer U-17 national team and US Rugby.

Dr. Cooper grew up in Salt Lake City graduating from Skyline High School and receiving a BS in Biology at the University of Utah. After college he attended the Medical University of South Carolina in Charleston, SC graduating in the top of his class and earning multiple academic scholarships and awards including membership in AOA. He then completed an Orthopedic Surgery Residency at the University of Kansas Medical Center in Kansas City, KS followed by a fellowship in Sports Medicine at the Steadman Hawkins Clinic in Denver, CO.

While in residency and fellowship, Dr. Cooper was active in research including arthroscopic treatment for degenerative knee disorders, arthroscopic repair of rotator cuff tears, postoperative pain management following ACL reconstruction and a new technique for the treatment of shoulder separations and AC reconstruction. Today, he continues to pursue research interest in sports medicine and arthroscopic techniques.

When not treating athletes and spending time with his family, Dr. Cooper has competed in over 50 triathlons including 6 Ironmans, multiple marathons qualifying for Boston in 2001 and 2008. He is also an avid outdoorsman enjoying skiing, hunting, fishing, and backpacking in the remote wilderness.

Dr. Joseph Albano
Head Team Physician

Dr. Albano received his medical degree from SUNY Health Science Center in Syracuse, New York. Following medical school, he completed a general surgery internship at Wright-Patterson AFB/Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio, as well as a family practice residency at the University of Utah and a sports medicine fellowship at Michigan State University. Dr. Albano's particular interest is in non-surgical treatment of some common tendon, cartilage and nerve problems, such as lateral epicondylitis, plantar fasciitis, patellar tendinosis, achilles tendinosis, rotator cuff tears, arthritis, and carpal and cubital tunnel syndromes. To assist in the diagnosis, musculoskeletal ultrasound is often used. For the treatment, various Regenerative Medicine applications may be employed, including Platelet Rich Plasma, which has been successful for many patients over the past two years. He has taught at national courses on the use of musculoskeletal ultrasound for diagnostic and needle-guided purposes, and also for the use of Platelet Rich Plasma.

Dr. Albano likes to participate in numerous athletic pursuits including ultra marathons, hockey, skiing, cycling and chasing his 2 boys. He really enjoys helping athletes get back to the activities they enjoy.

Strength and Contitioning Coach

Dan Barlow returns for his fourth season in 2010 as the team's Strength and Conditioning Coach, joining the club prior to the 2007 campaign and transforming RSL into one of the fittest clubs in MLS. His decade of expertise includes the development of training and conditioning programs for professional athletes and teams in addition to designing college, corporate, and in-home fitness facilities. Prior to his consultation services, Mr. Barlow spent three years as a Strength and Conditioning Coach at the Univ. of Maryland, where he worked with a wide variety of athletes, and three years as the Terrapins' Graduate Assistant for Fitness.

Mr. Barlow earned his Masters degree in Exercise Physiology at the Univ. of Maryland, one of the Nation's Top 10 Kinesiology programs. He also holds a Bachelors degree in Psychology from Bethany College. Barlow and his wife, Laura, live in Cottonwood Heights, Utah.

TECHNICAL STAFF

Elliot Fall
Team Administrator

Elliot Fall assumes new duties in 2010 for Real Salt Lake, becoming the squad's Team Administrator after working in the RSL. Elliot Fall oversees logistics surrounding the team, including training and travel schedule, road accommodations and various front office interactions for the technical staff and players. These duties continue in 2011 for Fall, his second campaign as the squad's Team Administrator after working in the RSL Communications department in 2008 and 2009. A native of Salt Lake City, the garrulous Fall attended both Judge Memorial High School and the University of Utah. Bringing a veritable cornucopia of talents to his job every day, Fall's enthusiastic attitude and willingness to do whatever it takes for the team make him an invaluable asset to both Real Salt Lake and Rio Tinto Stadium.

Fall is single and resides in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Tyson Pace
Head Athletic Trainer

Tyson Pace was recently named Real Salt Lake's Head Athletic Trainer after two full-time seasons as the squad's Assistant Athletic Trainer via partnership with Utah Sports Med. After working with the squad on a part-time basis throughout 2008, the bilingual Pace was quickly embraced inside the locker room as a key figure regarding the team's daily fitness, weight-training and rest and recovery routines, in an effort to keep each player in optimal shape to perform at their very best throughout the grueling MLS season.

Mr. Pace received his Bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from the University of Utah, and continued his studies at the U of U to receive a Master's degree in Sports Psychology. Prior to his stint with Real Salt Lake, Pace spent five years as a Certified Athletic Trainer at the NCAA Division I level with the Utes football and baseball programs. Pace and his wife Amy reside in Clearfield, UT, with their two daughters, Taya and Shaylee.

Kevin Christen
Assistant Athletic Trainer

Kevin Christen joins Real Salt Lake as a new staff member in 2011, where he will work closely with players, doctors, coaches and other medical staff to provide all the medical care and rehabilitation services they require. The South Jordan, UT, native joined RSL from United States Speedskating where he worked as Head Athletic Trainer for the National Short Track Team. Christen also worked with various teams and institutions through Sports Med Utah including Odyssey Dance Company and surrounding dance companies. Certified as an ATC in 2008, Christen earned a Masters in Sports Medicine from University of Utah where he worked with the University of Utah Baseball Team. Mr. Christen was married in September of 2002 to his wife Brooke and the couple currently resides in South Jordan, Utah, with their two daughters Ella Grace (3) and Lola Faith (3 months).

Mike Fratto
Massage Therapist

Mike Fratto has worked with Real Salt Lake since the 2006 season as the team's massage therapist, graduating from the Professional Massage Therapy Program at the Salt Lake Campus of the Utah College of Massage Therapy Family of Schools in June of 1999. Mike came to UCMT after having sustained an injury to his back while training for a soccer team. Knowing that he would no longer be able to play at the same level previous to his injury, Mike decided to focus his energy on the healing aspect of massage and sports injury and enrolled in the program. Upon graduating, Mike began his career in the massage industry working with the NORBA Mountain Bike Racing Team that summer. By the fall of that same year he had a position with the Utah Blitz, RSL's predecessor.

Mike Rigby

Equipment Manager

Rigby joined Real Salt Lake last year to assist former Equipment Manager Kevin Harter with the onslaught of extra games necessitated by the team's 2009 success. The Salt Lake-born Mr. Rigby was raised on the Wasatch Front, professing a lifelong love of professional sports in the United States. His determination, work ethic and willingness to learn have made for a smooth transition into the RSL locker room.

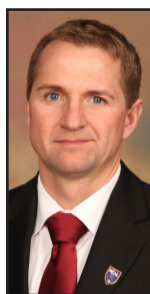

Rigby, a 2009 graduate of Copper Hills High School, spent three seasons working with the AFL Utah Blaze and one with the Utah Valley Thunder, positions which primed him for his interest in professional sports as a career.

Greg Maas

RSL U-17 Head Coach / Utah Youth Soccer Association Technical Director

Greg Maas enters his fifth season as the RSL U-17 Head Coach, having previously led the group composed of Utah, Arizona and Florida teens to the 2008 MLS U-17 SUM Cup Championship, as well as a 3rd-place finish in 2009. A former collegiate standout at the University of Portland, Maas serves concurrently as the Technical Director for the Utah Youth Soccer Association (UYSA), where he is responsible for player development, coaching education, and the technical direction of the state association. Coach Maas holds his USSF "A" License, USSF National Youth License, and his NSCAA International Premier Diploma. At the University of Portland, Maas played under one of the most respected coaches in US Soccer history - the late Clive Charles. Maas was the first professional goalkeeper to come out of the University of Portland, and enjoyed a professional career with FC Portland of the Western Soccer League (WSL) and the Portland Timbers of the APSL. He and his wife, Angie, have two boys - Cody and Zach. Born in Portland, Maas and his family currently reside in Draper, Utah.

Rob Karas

RSL Director of Youth Camps

Rob Karas enters his third season as RSL's Director of Youth Camps, which offer professional-level instruction across the state of Utah to boys and girls of all ages. Karas develops the curriculum for nearly a dozen state-wide camps each year, as well as a 3v3 tourney and other grassroots soccer initiatives. Formerly the Director of Coaching for Jackson Hole Youth Soccer from 2005-2008, Karas also served as the Wyoming State Technical Director in 2007-08.

Throughout his coaching career, Karas has spent several weeks in Europe studying the methods employed by such world-renowned teams as Ajax (Holland), Barcelona (Spain), Chelsea (England), PSV Eindhoven (Holland) and Chievo Verona (Italy). Before earning his USSF "A" license and an International Premier License from the NSCAA, Karas was a two-time all-Utah honoree from Taylorsville High School, and Karas also enjoyed a professional playing career for several years, playing outdoor for the Utah Blitz and on the indoor CISL and NPSL circuits with Arizona, Canton, Chicago, Baton Rouge and Utah.

2011 STORIES TO WATCH

While 2008 was the season that Real Salt Lake turned the corner on the field and matched the off-field success the club has known since its inception, the 2009 RSL season – the team's first full campaign at Rio Tinto Stadium, Major League Soccer's jewel venue and the United States' finest midsize stadium – set the bar even higher for the entire organization. With unfinished business the rallying cry after the 2010 record-setting campaign yielded no silverware, the 2011 RSL organization aspires to chart new territory for MLS squads and American soccer in the CONCACAF Champions League. As always, Supporters Shield, MLS Cup and the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup offer annual opportunity for hard-ware and championship glory.

Former Captain and current Head Coach Jason Kreis and General Manager Garth Lagerwey continue to press a iTeam is the Star! mantra in the locker room, where the ever-growing core of MLS veterans – Captain Kyle Beckerman, MLS Cup 2009 MVP Nick Rimando and 2010 MLS Best XI players Javier Morales, Nat Borchers and Jamison Olave – lead RSL. Last year's MLS Newcomer of the Year Alvaro Saborio demonstrated both consistency and clutch production in both MLS and CCL play in 2010, with established MLS veterans Andy Williams, Ned Grabavoy and Chris Wingert providing service and bringing poise and versatility to every possible situation. In addition to Morales and Olave, a trio of other South American standouts – Fabian Espindola, Nelson Gonzalez and Paulo Junior – deliver international flair on the attack. A slew of American expatriates – Borchers, Robbie Russell, Will Johnson – returned from Europe three seasons ago to bolster the roster and provide constant leadership, no doubt inspiring young talents such as Tony Beltran, Jean Alexandre, Collen Warner and Chris Schuler. How will newcomer Arturo Alvarez – an established threat for El Salvador's National Team who has seen MLS success with Dallas and San Jose – fare with his new team?

Following a 4-1 aggregate win over fellow MLS rival Columbus Crew in CONCACAF Champions League QuarterFinal action in late Feb/early March – securing history for MLS – the Claret & Cobalt host Alvaro Saborio's former Saprissa team at Rio Tinto Stadium on March 15 on Fox Soccer Channel. For the second consecutive season, RSL will open its MLS slate on the road at San Jose against the Earthquakes before returning home one week later to host the Los Angeles Galaxy and its star-studded lineup on March 26.

After heading to Costa Rica on April 5 for the CCL Semi, RSL will play 13 of its next 20 MLS games at home, where the team enters March 15 with a 34-game unbeaten run in all competitions. Included in that run are the traditional Independence Day (July 4 vs Houston) and Pioneer Day (San Jose Earthquakes) games, as well as 3 of the team's five national TV appearances on either ESPN2, Fox Soccer Channel or Telefuturo. RSL improved dramatically on the road in 2010, boasting a 4-4-7 record and conceding just 13 goals in those 15 away matches. Jason Kreis' team will need that resilience again this year, as nine of the final 13 games come on the road, during the critical Supporters Shield stretch as teams position themselves for the MLS Cup Playoffs.

While Rio Tinto Stadium became the seventh Major League Soccer sports and entertainment venue to open since Columbus Crew Stadium in 1999 – joining The Home Depot Center, 2003 (Carson, Calif.); Pizza Hut Park, 2005 (Frisco, Tex.); Toyota Park, 2006 (Bridgeview, Ill.); Dick's Sporting Goods Park (Commerce City, Col.) and BMO Field (Toronto) in 2007, Red Bull Arena (New York) and PPL Park (Philadelphia) in 2010, Sporting Kansas City inducts its new venue this season. Expansion clubs Portland Timbers and Vancouver Whitecaps FC each feature remodeled stadia for the 2011 season.

Stories to watch this year include:

- * Can RSL represent MLS and American soccer in the FIFA Club World Cup?
- * To do so, it would have to end MLS / USA futility in Central America & Mexico
- * What lessons might have been learned in 4-5 loss at Cruz Azul last August?
- * Alvaro Saborio vs Douglas Sequeira – players facing former teams
- * What can RSL take from 1-2 loss to Saprissa back in July 2008 at Rice-Eccles?

Rio Tinto Stadium

- * 34 games and counting – how long can RSL extend unbeaten streak?
- * Developing and defending home-field advantage in intimate building at altitude
- * Use as a competitive recruiting and retention tool for Coach Kreis

Competitive Roster Core

- * Most of roster locked up long-term; how long is window open?
- * Only one new face in 2011 (Alvarez); only three of 24 players lost (Findley, Horst, Campos)
- * Gold Cup 2011 – RSL potential and experience (Saborio, Johnson, Alexandre, Alvarez; which USA players?)
- * Beckerman's flawless Rocky Mountain Cup record – 6 years running
- * RSL's Ilron Meni – Borchers, Johnson, Rimando, Wingert (playing tons of minutes)
- * Andy Williams – RSL's lone remaining original still providing the intangibles

Other Competitions

- * Can new coach C.J. Brown provide Open Cup road map?

Maturation of RSL Technical Staff

- * Lagerwey's unique illegal approach to identifying players
- * Kreis / Lagerwey development of iRSL Ethos!
- * Technological advances in Scouting and Player Identification
- * RSL coaches bring on-field experience to guide, tutor today's player; a combined 30 MLS seasons

BORN: August 24, 1986 in Verrettes, Haiti

HOMETOWN: Delray Beach, Florida

CITIZENSHIP: Haiti (U.S. green card holder)

COLLEGE: Lynn University

MLS EXPERIENCE: 3rd Season (2009)

LAST CLUB: Lynn University (2008)

ACQUIRED: Selected in the first round (12th overall) of the 2009 MLS SuperDraft on 1/15/09

The learning curve for Jean Alexandre continues to arc very much upward after a 2010 campaign in which the physical midfielder was one of Jason Kreis' most used players off the substitutes' bench. The education of the budding Haitian international was quickly accelerated last May, when he followed a starting nod for les Grenadiers at Argentina in one of the powerhouse's final World Cup tune-ups with several appearances for Real Salt Lake in place of injured captain Kyle Beckerman. While his minutes in League play would dry up as the season progressed, he proved a key cog in the team's run to the top of the CONCACAF Champions League's Group A table, appearing in the final three matches, including a strong 90 minutes in the group-clinching 3-1 win over Cruz Azul in late October.

With the RSL Technical Staff's definition of growth hinging on third-year players being fully productive members of the squad, some might consider 2011 a make-or-break year for the 2009 MLS Super Draft first round selection. No one would likely agree with that assessment more than mature Alexandre, whose quiet confidence, incredible physical abilities and growing poise on the ball should allow him to be a regular contributor for the Claret-and-Cobalt across all competitions this season. But Alexandre's growth off the field might prove to be an even more important endeavor, as the 2010 RSL Humanitarian of the Year recipient is working to expand the academy he operates alongside his father in his birthplace of Verrettes, Haiti, allowing potentially hundreds more children in the impoverished nation educational opportunities and quality soccer training.

MLS CAREER

Logged 868 minutes in 21 appearances (8 starts) in Cup and League competition ... Total includes 112 minutes (3 GP/1 GS) in CONCACAF Champions League action and 240 minutes (2 GP/2 GS) in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play ... Started on 4/14 @ SJ in RSL's U.S. Open Cup qualifying opener and went the full 120 minutes in the 3-3 draw, from which RSL advanced 5-3 in PK's ... Played 68 minutes on 5/15 for RSL Reserves v. Mexican U-21's before being wrongfully ejected from the 1-1 draw at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Logged a then-career-high 66 minutes in MLS play on 5/22 @ CHV, entering the 2-1 road win in place of an injured Kyle Beckerman ... Would start at the deep midfield position in three of RSL's next four contests [5/29 v. KC, 6/02 @ DC (USOC) & 6/05 @ DC] ... 90-minute performance on 5/29 v. KC (4-1 W) marked his first full match in MLS play ... Played all 120 minutes of the U.S. Open Cup qualifying match on 6/02 @ DC [1-2 L (OT)]

... Started and played 66 minutes on 6/19 v. Puntarenas FC (CRC) in an international friendly in Sandy (2-0 W) ... Three League starts in the second half of the season came on 7/17 @ DAL (1-2 L), 8/11 @ PHI (1-1 T), & 9/25 v. COL (1-1 T) ... Made his second career postseason appearance on 10/31 @ DAL, playing the final 17 minutes in a 1-2 defeat in Leg One of the Western Conf. Semifinal Series.

Made four League appearances, all off the bench, for a total of 99 minutes ... Selected by RSL in the first round (12th overall) in the 2009 MLS SuperDraft out of Lynn University ... Made his MLS debut 3/28 @ SEA, playing final 2 minutes of RSL's 0-2 loss ... Second appearance for RSL came a week later on 4/02 v. CLB (5 min) ... Appeared in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifying action on 4/28 @ SEA, entering in the 66th minute of the 1-4 defeat ... Played an impactful 45 minutes on 8/29 @ KC, his hard-nosed play helping close out a 1-0 victory at CommunityAmerica Ballpark that marked one of RSL's two road wins in regular season play ... Entered 9/12 v. CHI contest in 15th minute in place of an injured Clint Mathis and registered a then-career-high 47 minutes in the 1-1 draw at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Made his MLS postseason debut on 11/05 @ CLB (1 min.), helping close out the Eastern Conference Semifinal-clinching 3-2 win at Crew Stadium ... Made 9 appearances – all starts – and added 4G & 1A while on loan to USL-1 side Austin Aztex throughout the '09 campaign ... Scored the USL Goal of the Week on 6/12 @ Puerto Rico on a 35-yard rocket during Aztex's 1-4 loss ... Tallied a goal and assist in 88 minutes of play for Aztex on 8/16 v. Minnesota in a 2-2 draw, helping him earn a spot on the USL-1 Team of the Week ... Scored lone goal for Austin on 10/07 in their 1-0 exhibition win over Mexican first division side Monterrey ... Also played 90 minutes on 10/14 in exhibitions against reserve team for Premiership's Stoke City and on 10/20 v. Football League Championship side Sheffield Wednesday during Austin's week-long tour of England.

COLLEGE

Scored 34 goals (including 10 game-winners) and added 16 assists during his 69-game career at Lynn University, helping the Fighting Knights to four consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament appearances ... 2008: Despite moving to center forward only because of a need at the position, recorded the greatest offensive season for a Lynn men's soccer player since the program joined the NCAA, registering 23 goals and seven assists for 53 points ... Led Division II in points per game (2.79) and finished second in goals per game (1.21), numbers that garnered him Daktronics First-Team and NSCAA Third-Team All-American accolades ... Also became the first player in school history to be named both the Sunshine State Conference Player and Offensive Player of the Year in the same season ... Helped the Fighting Knights to an 18-2 mark and the Sunshine State Conference regular season and tournament titles ... 2007: Started each of the Knights' 19 games as a junior, scoring three goals and adding two assists while earning First-Team All-SSC honors from his preferred central midfield spot ... Made his offensive contributions count, with two of his three goals counting as game-winners and both of his assists coming on match-winning tallies ... 2006: Registered a pair of goals and assists in 14 games (11 starts) ... 2005: Made an immediate impact as a freshman, starting 14 of 17 games in which he appeared while notching six goals and five helpers ... Came on as a substitute in NCAA National Semifinals against Fort Lewis, scoring a goal in a loss against the eventual national champion.

HAITIAN NATIONAL TEAM

Has made five career appearances for the Haitian National Team ... His fifth "cap" came on 5/05/10 in les Grenadiers' 0-4 loss at Argentina in an international friendly in Buenos Aires ... Named to the Haitian squad for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup ... Started in his lone Gold Cup appearance of Haiti's four games in the tournament, playing 61 minutes on 7/04/09 v. Honduras in Seattle before leaving due to a back injury that removed him from consideration for the rest of the tournament ... Made his first three appearances for Haiti during the summer of 2008, playing in a friendly against Honduras and a pair of exhibitions against Trinidad & Tobago.

CLUB / HIGH SCHOOL

Played for the Ventura County Fusion of the United Soccer Leagues (USL) Premier Development League (PDL) during the summer of 2008 ... Played in only four games for the Fusion before leaving the Southern California-based side to make his first appearances for the Haitian National Team ... Was a four-year letter-winner in soccer at Atlantic High School in Delray Beach, FL ... Selected to Palm Beach Post First-Team All-Area and Sun-Sentinel First-Team All-County squads ... Voted Atlantic's MVP for the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

PERSONAL

Caught RSL's attention after an impressive performance with Lynn University during a preseason contest in 2008 ... Holds a United States green card, thus does not count against RSL's international player allotment ... Son of Jean and Dieumene Alexandre ... Along with his father in 2009, started the Jean Alexandre Football Academy, an education and training academy in his birthplace of Verrettes, Haiti ... Supported the "Shoes for Haiti" donation drive in late 2010/early 2011 that resulted in 1,500 pairs of shoes being collected, which will go towards expanding the reach of his academy to younger age groups for both boys and girls ... Helped RSL coordinate shipment of soccer equipment and clothing to children at the academy following the devastating earthquake that rocked Haiti in January 2010 ... Moved to South Florida with his family at the age of nine ... Majored in Sports and Recreation Management at Lynn after becoming the first Haitian player to sign a soccer scholarship at the school ... An impressive all-around athlete, Alexandre won a district championship and was a state finalist in the triple jump.

POR: Selected with Timbers' 10th pick (19th overall selection) in the 2010 MLS
Expansion Draft on 11/24/10

While it may sound strange, especially to Portland and Vancouver supporters, one could argue that it was Real Salt Lake that came out the winner of the MLS Expansion Draft last November, thanks in large part to the addition of eight-year MLS veteran Arturo Alvarez. The RSL braintrust took advantage of what was described as a "30-second window of opportunity" towards the end of the draft to claim Alvarez, agreeing to a trade with Portland that sent a second round 2011 MLS SuperDraft pick to the Timbers in exchange for the El Salvadoran international. In the process, Real Salt Lake not only picked up a valuable cog for its already League-pacing offense, but it brought on board a long-sought after player that had been a consistent thorn in the side of the Claret-and-Cobalt through the years.

Described as possessing a "disruptive presence ... in a good way" by RSL General Manager Garth Lagerwey, the 25-year-old Alvarez brings confident 1-v-1 abilities and a wicked left-footed strike to the team, all but rounding out the Utah side's potent offensive attack. Whether he lines up on the left side of RSL's patented midfield diamond or forms a potent strike-force partnership with Álvaro Saborío, the sky is the limit for Alvarez, who will look to bring glory to both club and country in 2011 after helping El Salvador's National Team qualify for this summer's CONCACAF Gold Cup in January.

contract rights on 2/11/11 via a special Player Lottery

A young striker with a distinguished college career at Wake Forest University, Cody Arnoux joins Real Salt Lake after the Utah side won a special MLS lottery for his rights after the ex-Everton FC reserves player signed with the League in early February. The 22-year-old forward was a hot commodity after his three standout years with the Demon Deacons, who he led to an NCAA College Cup crown during his 2007 sophomore season in Winston-Salem. Breaking into Real Salt Lake's crowded forward corps will be made an even more difficult task for the promising talent, as his timeline for return from a knee injury suffered last November will keep him off the field until late Spring.

PROFESSIONAL / SEMI-PRO CAREER

LAST CLUB: Colorado Rapids (2007)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Via trade from Colorado Rapids on 7/16/07 in exchange for MF Mehdi Ballouchy.

COL: Selected with the 11th overall pick in the 2002 MLS Dispersal Draft from Miami Fusion FC on 2/11/02. MIA: Signed with Miami Fusion FC on 6/29/00 after joining the Nike/U.S. Project-40 Program.

Regarded as one of the most energetic and durable players to ever step on an MLS field, RSL captain Kyle Beckerman had to agonize through an ordeal in 2010 which he hadn't had to deal with since his rookie campaign in 2000 – a prolonged injury. But after missing two months in the middle of the team's record-setting campaign last year due to a left foot strain, the League's premier holding midfielder would be voted to the MLS All-Star Team's First XI team and grind through the second half of the season to lead RSL's push to an unprecedented finish in CONCACAF Champions League group play, its run to the longest home undefeated streak in League annals, the best regular season record in club history, and a near-capturing of the Supporters Shield title.

Beckerman could have taken advantage of potential U.S. National Team call-ups for an international friendly in South Africa and the team's annual January camp this offseason, but opted to rest his foot and his engine for RSL's early-season push in the CCL's knockout phase rather than attempt to improve his standing on Bob Bradley's radar screen for this summer's Gold Cup. Putting club over country for the mean time will only endear the fiery captain to his RSL teammates even more, not that his gritty, pace-setting performances game-in and game-out since his arrival on the Wasatch Front midway through the 2007 season haven't been enough. The team's heart-and-soul appears refreshed and revived for his 12th League campaign, during which he'll look to build upon his 240 regular season appearances (39th all-time among field players) and 214 starts (37th).

MLS CAREER

Notched three goals and three assists while logging 2,511 minutes across 30 appearances (28 starts) in all competitions ... Injury reduced Beckerman to 21 starts and 22 appearances in regular season play, the respectable tallies still marking the durable midfielder's lowest numbers in those categories since 2002 ... Despite early-season absence, was voted to his first MLS All-Star First XI honor, marking his fourth straight All-Star recognition (removed himself from match roster vs. Manchester United to continue rehabbing injury) ... Managed to move into RSL's career top 5 with 92 games played (5th); 90 starts (T-3rd); 8,036 minutes (4th); 134 shots (4th), 104 fouls suffered (3rd); and 4 GWA (T-4th) ... Would start in five of RSL's six CONCACAF Champions League appearances, missing only the group stage finale on 10/19 v. Cruz Azul (caution accumulation suspension) ... Notched first point of season on 4/01 @ HOU, helping spring Javier Morales on RSL's go-ahead goal (17') in an eventual 1-2 loss ... Logged 51 min. on 4/14 @ SJ in RSL's Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifying opener, entering in time to participate in a wild finish in the 3-3 draw (OT) and helping RSL advance by burying the squad's 2nd spot kick during its 5-3 PK victory ... Notched first goal of the season in MLS play three days later on 4/17 @ LA in the first of two MLS Cup 2009 rematches (1-2 L) ... Scored GWG on 5/08 v. PHI, his 27' tally setting up a convincing 3-0 win ... Just five days later on 5/13 v. HOU, notched GWA on Robbie Findley's opening salvo just 3 minutes into a 3-1 win over the bitter Western Conference rival ... Had been only RSL field player to play every minute of its first 8 MLS matches, a streak that ended on 5/22 @ CHV when he suffered a strained left foot (exited in 24th minute) ... That injury forced him to miss eight contests (7 MLS games and 6/02 @ DC Open Cup qualifier) between 5/29 v. KC and his 7/24 v. CHV return (RSL went 4-2-2 and bowed out of U.S. Open Cup qualifying in his absence) ... Chipped ball from midfield on 9/04 v. NY would be finished by Fabian Espindola, the 4th minute tally marking all the scoring in a 1-0 win that equaled the longest home undefeated streak in League play at 22 games ... Notched vital equalizer to bring RSL back from early deficit on 9/15 v. TOR in CCL play, heading home Andy Williams' corner kick in 20th minute of an eventual 4-1 win ... Would play all 180 minutes across RSL's Western Conference Semifinal Series v. DAL, making his 18th and 19th postseason appearances during the 2-3 aggregate series defeat.

Starting all 25 of his regular season appearances for RSL, contributions went well beyond his three goals and pair of assists on the season ... Also notched an assist while playing all 420 minutes in RSL's four MLS Cup Playoff contests, captaining his squad to its first MLS Cup appearance and title ... Became the youngest player in MLS history to appear in 200 regular season games on 5/06 v. LA (27 yrs, 13 days) ... His RSL record 55-game starting streak was snapped 6/06 v. COL due to suspension (caution accumulation) ... Snapped 11-game goalless streak with his 44' tally on 6/27 v. TOR in a 3-0 win ... Missed RSL's contests on 7/18 @ CLB & 7/24 v. FCD while representing the USA during 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup ... MLS All-Star nod in July was Beckerman's third career (and consecutive) selection, but his first as a member of the 18-man active roster (Commissioner's Pick w/ Javier Morales) ... Became the first RSL player to start in an MLS All-Star Game on 7/29 at Rio Tinto Stadium, playing the first 45 min. in the League's 3-4 PK loss to Everton FC (1-1 in regulation) ... Helped RSL make a quick comeback bid on 11/05 @ CLB in Leg Two of the Eastern Conf. Semifinal Series, his clever 37th minute chip to Morales paying off in a goal that evened up the series at two goals apiece and opened RSL's account in the 3-2 victory (4-2 aggregate) ... MLS Cup 2009 at Seattle's Qwest

Field on 11/22 v. LA marked first appearance in League's title game after making three previous Conference Finals ('05 & '06 with Rapids, '08 with RSL) ... Garnered match MVP consideration with a standout 120 minutes against the Galaxy, helping to will the Utah side on to a 5-4 triumph in penalty kicks after coming back to register a 1-1 draw after regulation and overtime.

Was a stalwart during his first full season with Real Salt Lake, starting all 38 MLS regular season, MLS Cup Playoff, U.S. Open Cup and international friendly contests for the team ... One of 12 players across MLS to start all 30 games for his club ... Named to the 2008 MLS All-Star inactive list, receiving his second consecutive official All-Star nod ... Donned the captain's armband for every RSL contest since the team's 3rd League match of the season on 4/12 v. DC ... Notched first career multi-goal game in League play in the 4/12 contest v. DC, his two goals helping RSL to a 4-0 win ... Registered his second brace of 2008 later that month on 4/30 v. SJ, scoring two first half goals (21' & 33') in a 4-0 win in U.S. Open Cup qualifying play ... Hit GWG on 5/10 v. FCD, his 73' poke ending the scoring in a 2-1 win ... Broke a 13-game streak without an assist on 9/27 @ SJ, his helper on Movsisyan's 49' equalizer starting RSL's second-half comeback in a 3-2 road win ... Capped the season by playing all 270 minutes across RSL's first-ever postseason appearance, a three-game run that ended in the Western Conference Final v. NY on 10/15.

2007 (COL/RSL)

Notched three goals and assists while splitting time nearly evenly between COL and RSL ... Named to the 2007 MLS All-Star inactive list, marking his first official All-Star nod ... Finished his half-season stint with RSL with two goals and one assist in 15 games (14 starts) ... Played 13 games, all starts, for the Rapids, scoring a goal and two assists before being acquired via trade by RSL on 7/16 in exchange for MF Mehdi Ballouchy ... Scored first goal of 2007 season against his current team on 4/30 @ RSL, his 75th minute tally marking the insurance goal in a 2-0 COL win ... Made last of his 145 appearances in a Rapids uniform on 7/08 v. NY ... Made his RSL debut on 7/21 v. Everton FC (ENG) in a 2-0 friendly victory ... Also started and played the first half on 7/24 v. Boca Juniors (ARG) in a 1-1 draw ... Made first League appearance for RSL on 7/28 v. NE and drew PK chance that led to RSL's lone goal in a 1-2 loss ... First goal in an RSL uniform came on a stunning right-footed effort from distance on 9/12 @ DC ... Broke an 18-game streak without an assist on 10/06 v. CHV by helping on Findley's 63rd minute tally.

Enjoyed a breakout offensive campaign in 2006 with seven goals and four assists in 31 games ... Earned share of the 2006 Rapids Golden Boot Award (w/ Nicolas Hernandez) ... Five of his seven tallies were tallied on the road ... Played all 300 minutes of Colorado's three MLS Cup Playoff contests and registered two assists, with both coming on 10/28 @ FCD in the Rapids' must-win Game 2 of the Western Conference Semifinal Series (3-2 OT win).

After making fewer starts in 2010 than the previous season, at first glance it may appear as though the progress of Tony Beltran took a step backwards last year, when in reality nothing could be further from the truth. In fact, it was more a seamless transition from his breakout last half of 2009, the 23-year-old performing as part of the team's "three-headed monster" at wingback and doing his fair share to contribute to the Utah side's record-breaking mark of just 20 goals allowed in MLS regular season play.

While his staunch 1-v-1 defending continued to be rock solid, the cerebral and supremely fit Beltran has also provided more consistency when jumping into the attack, his flying runs up either flank ending with dangerous service into the area more often than during his previous two seasons of play. It can't be long until Beltran sheds the status of one of the most underrated outside defenders in Major League Soccer, but until then the RSL braintrust will be more than happy to unleash the mature-beyond-his-years winger upon opponents that may underestimate the UCLA product's considerable talent and tenacity.

MLS CAREER

Collected a pair of assists in 2,065 minutes across 24 appearances (22 starts) in all competitions ... His cerebral style and ability to recover was evident, as he committed just 12 fouls and was cautioned only once in 1,493 minutes of regular season action ... Contributed to the 3rd and 4th longest shutout streaks in MLS history: a 567-minute run (5/29 v. KC - 7/17 @ DAL) and a 568-minute stretch (8/11 @ PHI - 9/25 v. COL) ... Started and went the full 120 min. in RSL's Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifier on 4/14 @ SJ, a wild 3-3 draw that RSL advanced from via a 5-3 triumph in penalties ... Followed that match by making first appearances in regular season play as a starter in four consecutive contests (4/17 @ LA - 5/08 v. PHI) ... His helper in a 2-1 victory on 5/01 v. TOR (Williams - 42') broke a two-year, 38-game streak without a point in regular season play (last assist on 4/26/08 @ DC in 2nd career match) and marked his first career game-winning assist ... Played 90 minutes and wore the captain's armband on 5/15 in RSL's 1-1 draw with the Mexican U-21 National Team in an international friendly ... One of three RSL'ers to log all 210 minutes in sweltering conditions during U.S. Open Cup qualifying (6/02) and MLS regular season (6/05) affairs @ DC (Borchers & Johnson) ... Starting with 8/11 @ PHI match, went full 90 minutes in nine of team's final 11 regular season contests, sitting out of only 9/04 v. NY and 10/22 @ COL affairs (4-0-5 record, 3 goals allowed, 6 shutouts in those contests) ... Made three appearances in CONCACAF Champions League play, beginning on 9/15 v. TOR when he played 62 minutes in place of an injured Robbie Russell in a 4-1 triumph at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Would get starting nods in pivotal CCL wins on 9/22 @ Arabe Unido (3-2 W) and 10/19 v. Cruz Azul (3-1 W) ... Assisted on Paulo Jr.'s second tally of the night on 10/19 v. Cruz Azul, the game-winning helper allowing RSL to become the first MLS team to finish atop its group in nine such attempts ... Made second career playoff appearance on 11/06 v. DAL, going the full 90 minutes in a 1-1 draw in Sandy that ended RSL's season abruptly following the two-legged Western Conference Semifinals (2-3 aggregate loss).

Started 21 of his 23 MLS appearances during an impressive sophomore season for RSL ... After beginning season by starting five of RSL's first 11 games, finished by featuring in the first XI in 16 of last 19 contests ... RSL went 8-6-7 in games which Beltran started ... Went full 90 min. on 4/28 @ SEA in a 1-4 loss in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifying play ... Started six straight games from 6/06 v. COL through 7/18 @ CLB, which coincided with the squad's five-match undefeated streak (2-0-3) leading into the Crew contest ... Ended up playing 80 min. off the bench in RSL's next contest, a wild 4-2 win on 7/24 v. DAL, in place of an injured Robbie Russell ... Also logged 90 minutes on 7/11 v. Club America (MEX) in the 2009 edition of the XanGo Cup, a 1-0 victory to RSL ... Started 10 of RSL's final 12 regular season games, missing matches on 8/29 @ KC (coach's decision/schedule congestion) and 9/19 @ HOU (caution accumulation) ... One of two RSL players (w/ Wingert) to go the distance on 10/07 v. CD Guadalajara in the contentious 1-1 friendly draw ... Starting nod and 79-minute effort in a 1-0 win on 10/31 v. CLB in Leg One of the Eastern Conf. Semifinal Series marked his MLS Cup Playoffs debut ... Injury (R hip flexor strain) removed him from consideration for Leg Two on 11/05 @ CLB ... Returned to make gameday roster for East Championship on 11/14 @ CHI and MLS Cup on 11/22 v. LA at Seattle's Qwest Field.

The UCLA product started in 10 of 15 appearances during his rookie campaign and contributed one assist along the way ... Selected by RSL 3rd overall in the 2008 MLS SuperDraft on 1/18/08 in Baltimore ... Made his official MLS debut on 4/12 v. DC, playing 7 minutes in reserve in RSL's 4-0 win ... Recorded first MLS assist two weeks later on 4/26 @ DC, his deflection off a corner kick leading to Talley's 77' finish in a 1-4 defeat ... Started and played all 90 minutes on 4/30 v. SJ in helping RSL to a 4-0 U.S. Open Cup qualifier win ... Earned his first MLS start four days later via a 74-minute effort on 5/03 v. LA (2-2 T) ... That start marked the first of nine consecutive first XI nods in League play in which the rookie was available for selection ... Left RSL camp for two weeks in late May to join U.S. Under-23 squad that competed in the Toulon International Tournament in France, missing only the 5/24 @ FCD match in the process ... Re-joined squad in mid-June and played final 29 minutes of RSL's 0-2 L @ CLB on 5/27 in U.S. Open Cup qualifying action ... Played final 45 minutes of RSL's 1-4 L v. Santos Laguna (MEX) in XanGo Cup 2008 ... A lingering adductor strain suffered in mid-August forced Beltran to undergo sports hernia surgery on 9/17 in Munich, Germany ... Played 1 minute in his return to first-team soccer for RSL on 10/04 @ NE after missing previous seven League matches due to injury.

COLLEGE

Played three years of collegiate soccer, beginning his career at St. John's (NY) before transferring closer to home for two more years with national powerhouse UCLA ... Started in 45 of his 56 collegiate contests, scoring twice and adding six assists ... 2007: Started in all 21 contests – and played all but four minutes of the season – for UCLA, notching a pair of assists from the right fullback and defensive midfielder positions ... Earned All-Pac 10 First-Team honor ... 6 NAT BORCHERS DEFENDER

WEIGHT: 173

BORN: April 13, 1981 in Tucson, AZ

HOMETOWN: Pueblo, CO

CITIZENSHIP: United States

COLLEGE: University of Denver

MLS EXPERIENCE: : 7th Season (2003-05, 2008-10)

LAST CLUB: Odd Grenland (Norwegian Tippeligaen) (2007)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Won MLS contract rights via Player Allocation Lottery on 2/14/08. COL: Signed to Developmental Roster on 3/18/03

In sports, it seems commonplace that long overdue recognition will come to an individual only when a record is in jeopardy. In the case of Nat Borchers, the record – RSL's smashing of the League's single-season goals allowed mark – might have been of the team variety, but the individual accolades would finally come his way nonetheless, as the cerebral centerback garnered his first MLS Best XI nod and finished second only to teammate Jamison Olave in the voting for the 2010 MLS Defender of the Year honor.

When a defender finishes second in the normally goal-scorer dominated Player of the Month voting as Borchers did last September, well, you know people are starting to take notice ... people like U.S. National Team boss Bob Bradley, who called Borchers into the Senior side for its friendly at South Africa in November, marking his first U.S. MNT action since 2005. However, Borchers has long had the attention of the Real Salt Lake locker room, proven by the Colorado native being voted by his teammates as the team's 2010 Defender of the Year and serving as the go-to-guy to don the captain's armband during Kyle Beckerman's prolonged absence due to injury in the middle of the season.

While Borchers has been known as Real Salt Lake's "Ironman" since arriving in 2008 – a title he upheld last year after playing all but 27 of the squad's 2,700 regular season minutes – he just might have picked up another nickname during the campaign ... "Mr. Clutch." All three of his goals in 2010 would be huge in different ways: his header with just minutes left in extra time at San Jose in April allowing RSL the chance to advance in U.S. Open Cup qualifying via penalty kicks, his backwards header on Sept. 25 against Colorado in stoppage time continuing RSL's record home undefeated run with a draw and securing a third straight playoff berth, and another backwards header a week later at New England giving the Utahans the chance to win their first match on an artificial surface and placing the squad atop the race for the Supporters Shield title with just three games remaining.

MLS CAREER

Named to his first MLS "Best XI" team and voted Real Salt Lake's Defender of the Year at season's end, while finishing second in the MLS Defender of the Year race, behind only teammate Jamison Olave ... Key reason Real Salt Lake smashed the MLS record for fewest goals allowed in a season, the Utah side allowing only 20 goals in its 30 contests ... Started and appeared in all but one of RSL's 40 regular season and Cup contests, totaling three goals and an assist (3,543 mins.) ... Left off travel roster for longest road trip of the year – the 9/22 contest @ Árabe Unido – so that he could rest ... Donned captain's armband when not worn by regular Kyle Beckerman ... Contributed to every minute of the 3rd and 4th longest shutout streaks in MLS history: a 567-minute run (5/29 v. KC – 7/17 @ DAL) and a 568-minute stretch (8/11 @ PHI – 9/25 v. COL) ... “Ironman” finished 5th in MLS with 2,673 minutes played ... One of nine field players across MLS to appear in all 30 regular season affairs and one of only four to start every match ... Played all but 27 minutes of the regular season (head injury in 2nd half on 3/27 @ SJ) ... His 118’ header on 4/14 @ SJ in RSL’s U.S. Open Cup qualifying opener knotted the wild match at 3-3 (RSL advanced 5-3 in PKs) ... Broke 41-game streak without a goal on 9/25 v. COL, the stoppage-time header (93+) tying the match at 1-1 and rescuing the squad’s record home unbeaten run (improved to 24 games) ... Made it a scoring streak a week later on 10/02 @ NE, another backwards header (68’) starting the scoring for RSL in a 2-1 road win ... Notched 2nd career postseason assist on 11/06 v. DAL (Leg Two), his helper on Robbie Findley’s 80th minute tally ultimately not enough to advance RSL from its Western Conference Semifinal Series (2-3 on agg).

Backline anchor earned Real Salt Lake’s Most Valuable Player honor ... Only player to start all 30 matches (one goal) and one of two to appear in every game ... One of only five field players to start every game for his squad and ranked 6th in minutes played with 2,679 (3rd among field players), missing only the final 21 minutes on 5/06 v. LA (R ankle sprain) ... Followed suit in the postseason, notching all 420 playoff minutes en route to his and Real Salt Lake’s first title ... Snapped 76-game goal-less streak in MLS play with 51’ insurance goal on 6/13 @ LA in a 2-0 road triumph ... MLS Cup 2009 on 11/22 v. LA marked his first title game appearance after making playoffs on four previous occasions ... Logged all 120 minutes in the triumph in Seattle, helping RSL notch a 1-1 comeback draw that led to a 5-4 victory in penalties.

2008 (RSL)

Started 29 of 30 contests in his first season in Salt Lake, contributing one assist ... Acquired on 2/14 via a Player Allocation Lottery after spending two seasons in Norway with Odd Grenland ... Made RSL debut – and first MLS appearance since 2005 – with a 90-minute performance on 3/29 v. CHI in a 1-1 draw ... Recorded first MLS assist in more than three years on 4/12 v. DC, his header helping Beckerman notch RSL’s 3rd goal in a 4-0 triumph ... Played in 100th MLS regular season match on 7/12 v. CLB and made his 100th regular season start on 7/19 @ CHI ... Missed first minutes of 2008 season on 10/18 v. DAL (cervical strain) ... Prior to that match, was only RSL field player to log all 2,520 minutes through its first 28 contests ... Capped the season by playing all 270 minutes across RSL’s first-ever postseason appearance, a three-game run that ended in the Western Conference Final v. NY on 10/15.

Started in all 31 appearances for the Rapids, notching one assist ... Lone helper of the season came in season opener on 4/02 @ KC ... For second year in a row, only missed game of the season was due to a red card suspension.

2004 (COL)

Started and played in all but one Rapids' 30 contests, notching two goals and an assist ... Tallied first career MLS goal and assist on 6/30 @ MET, his 78' score evening the match and his assist in the 89' lifting the Rapids to a 3-2 win ... Registered first career GWG on 9/04 v. DAL, his 85' tally making the difference in a 2-1 triumph ... Played all 180 minutes in the Rapids' Western Conference Semifinal Series against Los Angeles ... For the second year in a row was involved in the lone goal for the Rapids in postseason play, this time garnering his first-ever postseason assist in COL's 1-0 victory in Game One.

2003 (COL)

Went from undrafted preseason camp invitee to Developmental Player to full-time starter in his rookie season, contributing almost immediately by starting in 22 of his 23 League appearances ... Made MLS debut on 5/23 @ CHI as a member of the starting XI ... Played the full 90 minutes in both of the Rapids' Western Conference Semifinal Series contests against KC ... Figured in COL's lone playoff tally in Game One in Denver, his first career postseason goal helping the Rapids earn a 1-1 draw.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB CAREER

2006-07: Odd Grenland – Norwegian Tippeligaen (First Division): Made over 50 appearances in his two seasons with Odd Grenland after joining the Norwegian squad following the 2005 MLS season ... Scored three goals out of the back in his two seasons of play in Norway's top-flight.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAMS

Senior Team: Made his third "cap" for the full U.S. Men's National Team on 11/17/10 @ South Africa, playing the final 23 minutes of the USA's 1-0 win in the Nelson Mandela Challenge in Cape Town ... Previous two U.S. MNT appearances came in 2005, beginning with his debut on 3/09/05 v. Colombia (4 mins.) in the USA's 3-0 friendly victory in Fullerton, Calif. ... Made his first starting appearance for the Stars-and-Stripes 10 days later against Honduras in Albuquerque, helping the USA to a 1-0 win ... Under-23s: Represented U.S. Under-23 MNT six times, including four starting nods in CONCACAF qualifying in Guadalajara, Mexico, for the 2004 Summer Olympic Games.

COLLEGE

Was a stalwart for the University of Denver, notching nine goals and eight assists while not missing a single one of the Pioneers' 72 games from 1999-2002 ... Was a three-time Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) All-League selection, including first-team nods as a junior and senior ... Also named to the Academic All-MPSF Team on two occasions ... Named the MPSF Player of the Year in 2002 following a standout senior campaign, during which he scored six goals and made six assists while starting in each of the Pioneers' 21 contests.

CLUB/HIGH SCHOOL

Was a member of the Colorado Rapids' USL Premier Development League's affiliate, the Boulder Rapids Reserves ... In 2002, was a key component of the Rapids Reserves side that won the PDL's Central Conference title and appeared in the PDL National Championship Game, in which it fell 2-1 to the Cape Cod Crusaders ... Three-sport star at East High School in Pueblo, CO, (soccer, basketball & track) was a member of the Club Colorado Select team, a First-Team All-State honoree, and the 1998 South Central Conference MVP as a senior.

PERSONAL

Earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Accounting while at the University of Denver ... As a Colorado native, is an avid follower of the Denver Broncos and Colorado Avalanche.

You'd be hard-pressed to find a player across Major League Soccer that puts his passion on display more than Fabian Espíndola, the fiery Argentine striker that has won over the RSL faithful every bit as much as he has drawn the ire of the opposition. Inspiring to some, antagonistic to others, one thing everyone can agree on is that the energetic 25-year-old can produce, his eight goals in 2010 marking his best and most consistent haul in Claret-and-Cobalt since joining the squad midway through 2007, when Kreis recognized his raw talent and brought him into the fold as part of the club's massive roster overhaul that season (alongside fellow Argentine Javier Morales).

One of just a handful of naturally left-footed commodities in the RSL line-up, Espíndola will be called upon to combine with and take some of the scoring burden off of target-man Álvaro Saborío even more so than in 2010. It is easy to lose track of the fact that 2011 will mark Espíndola's fifth season with Real Salt Lake; however, his place in the RSL record books will be etched in stone for quite some time, with the striker placing number four with a bullet on the club's career scoring chart and also ranking in the top seven in game-winning goals, game-winning assists, shots, and shots on goal. With Espíndola's contract extending through the end of the 2013 MLS campaign, RSL fans will have many more goals from one of their favorites to look forward to, while opposing defenders will have to deal with a lot more bags of ice and bruised egos in their future.

MLS CAREER

Logged 1,945 minutes of action in 29 games (23 starts) across regular season and Cup competition, scoring eight goals and adding a pair of assists along the way ... His six goals in League play were the third most on RSL in 2010 and his highest goal haul in four seasons with the squad, while his 22 appearances and 19 starts in MLS play were also career highs ... 16 goals in Claret-and-Cobalt rank him 4th on the team's career goal scoring chart, just one behind his coach, Jason Kreis, and two behind Jeff Cunningham ... Also places T-3rd in game-winning goals (5), T-4th in game-winning assists (4), 5th all-time in shots (122) and 7th in shots on goal (61) ... Began season in fine fashion on 3/27 @ SJ, first setting up Javier Morales' GWG in the 14th minute before bagging one of his own in the 27th minute of RSL's thorough 3-0 win ... Performance marked his second 1G/1A game with RSL (8/26/09 v. CHV) ... Played the final 40 min. in RSL's USOC qualifier on 4/14 @ SJ, helping the Utahans fight to the finish for a 3-3 OT draw that it advanced from 5-3 in PKs ... Emergence from bench on 5/22 @ CHV proved a master stroke, as his 89' tally gave RSL a huge 2-1 road win at The Home Depot Center ... Followed that a week later by opening the scoring on 5/29 v. KC (31') in a 4-1 win that exacted revenge for RSL's previous home loss more than a year earlier ... Opened another scoring onslaught v. NE on 7/02, his 27' goal opening the flood gates in a 5-0 triumph, marking the second largest winning margin and goal-scoring output in club history ... Enjoyed impressive four-game run in MLS play in late summer, notching an equalizing goal (17') in a 1-1 draw on 8/11 @ PHI, a GWA three days later on 8/14 v. CLB (Morales - 11') in a 2-0 triumph, and the GWG on 9/04 v. NY (4') in a contest that equaled the all-time MLS home undefeated streak record at 22 games ... In the middle of that stretch, participated in one of the most memorable games in CCL history on 8/25 @ Cruz Azul, scoring a goal in the 64th minute that put RSL up 3-1 at the Estadio Azul in an eventual 4-5 defeat ... Started both contests in RSL's Western Conf. Semifinal Series vs. FC Dallas, jolting the series to life with a sudden blast from the edge of the area just five minutes into an eventual 1-2 defeat in Leg One on 10/30 at Pizza Hut Park.

Returned to Real Salt Lake in May and went on to notch three goals and assists in 23 games (17 starts) for his new/old side ... Officially rejoined RSL on 5/04 (his 24th birthday) after leaving the previous offseason to join Venezuelan side Deportivo Anzoátegui ... Made eventful return to RSL two days later on 5/06 v. LA, aiding in the 2-2 tie by drawing the stoppage-time PK that was converted by Johnson ... Scored on 6/20 @ HOU, marking his first goal in Claret-and-Cobalt since the previous August ... Played the entire second half of the 2009 XanGo Cup on 7/11 v. Club América, helping the squad to a 1-0 triumph ... Multi-point game on 8/26 v. CHV - 1G/1A that paced a 4-0 win - marked his second such performance in a RSL uniform ... Started in 17 of RSL's last 19 regular season contests up top [Missed 8/29 @ KC (coach's decision) & 7/18 @ CLB (red card on 7/03 v. SJ)] ... Scored insurance tally on 10/14 v. NY, his 90' goal securing a 2-0 victory and vital three points for the then-playoff hopefuls ... Started in both RSL wins in its Eastern Conference Semifinal Series against the defending champion Columbus Crew (65 min. on 10/31 @ RSL, 64 min. on 11/05 @ CLB) ... Was hauled down inside area by Hejduk at the end of the first half in Leg Two, the resulting conversion by Findley (47+) standing as the series-clinching tally (4-2 agg. win) ... Came off the bench on 11/14 @ CHI in the Eastern Conf. Championship, logging the final 48 minutes in the nail-biting 0-0 draw that RSL advanced out of via a 5-4 PK win (missed RSL's 6th attempt in shootout) ... Also appeared off the bench on 11/22 v. LA in MLS Cup 2009, his energy providing a spark that helped RSL continue to push through to the end of the 1-1 draw, which was followed by RSL's 5-4 PK triumph.

Produced in limited minutes while hobbled by numerous injuries, scoring five goals in just 642 minutes across his 12 appearances (8 starts) ... Opened scoring ledger for the season on 4/12 v. DC, notching RSL's second (19') in a 4-0 rout at Rice-Eccles ... Scored again in next appearance on 5/03 v. LA, tallying just six minutes in to give RSL a lead in the eventual 2-2 draw ... Goal off the bench on 5/24 @ DAL in 69th minute gave RSL a short-lived lead in a disappointing 1-2 loss at Pizza Hut Park ... L knee sprain suffered on 5/31 v. SJ led to two-month hiatus from play ... Returned to play on 8/16 @ HOU, coming off the bench at the half to play 45 min. in a 3-4 defeat ... Returned to starting line-up with a vengeance on 8/29 v. COL, scoring both goals in RSL's 2-0 Rocky Mountain Cup win, a performance that led to his first career MLS Player of the Week honor ... Saw regular season end prematurely a week later on 9/06 @ LA, suffering a severely sprained ankle after celebrating an apparent goal just nine minutes into the contest ... Returned in time to be available for MLS Cup Playoffs, coming in off the bench in the Western Conf. Semifinal Series against Chivas USA in the first leg on 11/01 @ RSL (6 min.) – the team's first ever postseason contest (1-0 W) – and a week later on 11/08 @ CHV in the away leg (2-2 T).

Joined Real Salt Lake as a Senior International after signing with the club on 8/17/07 ... Made his MLS debut on 8/18 v. CHI with a 32-minute substitute appearance in a 2-0 defeat ... Scored first goal, the game-winner, in just his second start on 8/29 v. KC ... Notched first assist in MLS play on 9/29 @ NY, his laid-off ball in the 75th minute resulting in a Kyle Beckerman goal ... Served a one-game suspension 9/19 v. LA for a red card (received on 9/15 @ TOR).

There needed to be no further proof that Real Salt Lake had gone from League doormat to a destination club in the matter of a couple of short years than when the squad landed coveted U.S. Youth National Team playmaker Luis Gil in February 2010. The exciting midfielder had put Real Salt Lake on his short list of MLS destinations, and the Utah side was happy to oblige the budding talent, trading some future considerations to Kansas City for the then 16-year-old's services.

So what exactly was Real Salt Lake's master plan to develop the talented youngster in his rookie season? A slightly different approach than other MLS players tagged as "phenoms" in the past – zero expectations. So much so the team's Technical Staff practically shouted from the rooftops that slow and steady would be the course in grooming the Southern California native.

While the same line is being towed by the RSL brass in 2011, Gil will certainly expect more out of himself after learning the rigors of the day-in, day-out grind of the professional ranks with RSL, logging some meaningful game action and entering the thick of a playoff race while on loan to Division 2 outfit AC St. Louis, and ending last season on a high note – a 45-minute starting nod against Cruz Azul in the CCL Group A finale in October in which he displayed flashes of the promise and brilliance that had "superclubs" such as Arsenal and Real Madrid and the Mexican Football Federation showing interest. With the luxury of having the deepest midfield in all of MLS, Real Salt Lake will preach patience with Gil for at least one more year, but the extremely mature youngster might just have some more growing pains to go through in that department ... which could be the only thing that reminds you he is, after all, 17 years old.

MLS CAREER

Did not play in regular season action, but logged 75 combined minutes in one appearance each in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and CONCACAF Champions League play ... Acquired via trade from KC on 2/23 in exchange for a 2011 conditional SuperDraft pick, an international player slot (one season) and future transfer fee considerations ... Made first 18-man roster for RSL's Open Cup qualifier on 4/14 @ SJ, but did not see any action ... Left RSL camp to train with U.S. U-18 MNT at The Home Depot Center from 4/25-5/02 ... Started and played 62 minutes, his first in an RSL uniform, in RSL's 1-1 friendly draw with the Mexican U-21 Nat'l Team on 5/15 ... Joined the U.S. U-18s for the Lisbon International Tournament from May 21-31 ... Met his RSL teammates in the Nation's Capital just in time to make his official first-team debut in Open Cup qualifying play on 6/02 @ DC, logging the two added extra time periods in the 1-2 OT defeat ... Played final 24 minutes in RSL's 2-0 exhibition win over Puntarenas F.C. (Costa Rica) on 6/19 ... Would spend three months with AC St. Louis (USFF D-2 Pro League) on loan from July-Sept, during which he scored once across nine appearances (five starts) and totaled 445 minutes of action ... Made St. Louis debut on 8/14 v. Portland, playing final 14 minutes in a 0-1 defeat ... Made his first professional goal on 9/18 v. Austin count, the 93rd minute strike counting as the game-winner (2-1 W) ... Returned to RSL following USSF D-2 season in early October ... Started and played first 45 minutes of RSL's 3-1 home win over Cruz Azul on 10/19, helping the Utah side become the first MLS team to win a CCL Group Stage in nine such tries.

U.S. YOUTH NATIONAL TEAMS

Has represented the United States on 38 occasions, scoring six goals ... U.S. Under-20's: Four appearances and one goal since entering U-20 player pool as part of 36-player camp in mid-December 2009 ... Made U-20 debut with 90-minute effort in opening game of Copa Chivas tournament in Guadalajara v. Pachuca on 1/22/10, scoring the USA's lone goal in a 1-3 defeat ... Also made appearances on 1/23 v. Brazil (1-1 T), 1/24 v. Tigres (0-1 L), and 1/26 v. Atlas (1-1 T) ... U.S. Under 18's: In February 2011, jumped from RSL's preseason camp to the U.S. U-18 camp, both based in Phoenix, the U-18 portion from Feb. 12-20 ... Joined the U-18s for the Lisbon International Tournament in Portugal from May 21-31, 2010 ... Captained the U.S. U-18's during the tournament in a 0-1 L v. Norway on 5/27 ... After entering at half, helped set up game's lone goal in the USA's 1-0 win on 5/28 v. Romania (Victor Chavez, 74') ... U.S. Under 17's: Made 32 appearances (5 goals) for the U.S. U-17s after joining the Residency Program in Bradenton, Fla. for the Spring 2008 semester ... Made 18 appearances in 2009, scoring 4G & 4A en route to being named U.S. Soccer's Young Male Athlete of the Year ... Registered one assist while serving in the playmaking role in each of the USA's four contests at the FIFA U-17 World Cup in Nigeria ... Was the youngest member of the United States squad at the tournament ... Assisted on Nick Palodichuk's goal in Round of 16 match against Italy on 11/04/09, a 1-2 loss that bounced the USA from the competition ... Went full 90 minutes in Group Stage matches on 10/26/09 v. Spain (1-2 L), 10/29/09 v. Malawi (1-0 W), and 11/01/09 v. UAE (1-0 W) ... Performance in Nigeria garnered attention from such European giants as Arsenal and Real Madrid.

When Real Salt Lake took what was essentially a low-risk gamble on Nelson González late in the 2009 campaign, the team's fanbase might not have had many opportunities to see him on the field, but the RSL Technical Staff had seen more than enough to be convinced the chance was well worth it. After seeing action only in a friendly late in 2009, González would be pressed into action early in 2010 with mixed results, the lack of consistency often times overshadowed by a fierce competitiveness that would prove to rattle the opposition. A hamstring injury would slow down the young Argentine in early summer, but he would return in time to be a valuable contributor in CONCACAF Champions League play, starting three of the team's first four matches in the tournament en route to the pinnacle of Group A.

The exciting left-footed player possesses the technical pedigree found in so many like him from Argentina, but he also possesses a tenacity and hunger beyond his 5'6" frame that allows him to survive quite well in the sometimes rough and tumble world of MLS. While González's versatility could allow him to provide some cover at left fullback, look for him to line up on the left side of the team's tight diamond midfield formation once again.

MLS CAREER

In his first full season with the Utah side, notched two goals and two assists in 17 games (seven starts), totaling 617 minutes of play ... Started three of his four appearances in CONCACAF Champions League play (226 minutes), in which he tallied one helper ... Made his MLS debut on 4/01 @ HOU, coming off the bench for the final 15 minutes of the 1-2 defeat ... Made his home MLS debut on 4/10 a memorable one, entering at the half and capping his night by placing a 94th minute corner kick into the path of Álvaro Saborío, who nodded home in the dying seconds to give RSL a share of the spoils via a 2-2 draw ... Four days later, started and played 61 min. in RSL's U.S. Open Cup qualifier on 4/14 @ SJ, his goal at the hour mark giving RSL a 2-0 cushion in what ended as a wild 3-3 draw and eventual 5-3 triumph in PKs ... First MLS start came three days later on 4/17 @ LA, his tenacious 64 minutes in midfield not enough to overturn an eventual 1-2 defeat in the MLS Cup '09 rematch at The Home Depot Center ... Played 90 minutes and assisted on lone RSL goal (Campos - 57') in 1-1 draw on 5/15 at Rio Tinto Stadium v. Mexican U-21 National Team ... A strained left hamstring would keep him out of the mix for a handful of games across May and June ... Saw his loan deal extended through end of 2011 MLS season on 7/12/10 by RSL/MLS/ Quilmes ... Struck a beauty of a goal in stoppage time on 7/31 v. DC to open his scoring MLS scoring account (93+), working a series of short passes with Andy Williams in midfield before springing free and chipping the ‘keeper from the corner of the area, icing away a 3-0 win ... Registered a career-high 72 minutes via a starting role on 8/11 @ PHI (1-1 T) ... Made CONCACAF debut on 8/18 v. Árabe Unido with a 32-minute stint off the bench, helping RSL capture a 2-1 victory in a bizarre contest at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Would get starting nods in following three CCL contests on 8/25 @ Cruz Azul (45 min., 4-5 L), 9/15 v. TOR (68 min., 4-1 W), and 9/22 @ Árabe Unido (81 min., 3-2 W) ... Recorded first point in CCL play in the away affair in Panama, helping on Saborío's 36' tally that gave RSL a lead it would not relinquish ... Final start in League play came on 9/09 @ SEA, when he logged 65 minutes in the scoreless stalemate in RSL's return to Qwest Field.

Did not see time for Real Salt Lake in MLS play after joining the squad officially on 8/13 via a loan deal from Argentine Second Division squad Quilmes Atlético Club ... Made his debut on RSL's 18-man gameday roster on 8/23 @ NE ... Made RSL debut by starting and playing 45 minutes on 10/07 v. Chivas de Guadalajara in a hotly-contested international club friendly at Rio Tinto Stadium (1-1 T).

INTERNATIONAL CLUB CAREER

2007-2009: Quilmes Atlético Club – Argentina Primera Nacional B (Second Division): The young Argentine spent his first two professional seasons with Quilmes in Argentina's second division, making his debut on May 3, 2008, with his lone appearance of the team's 2007/08 season before playing in nine contests (one start) for El Cervecer in their 2008/09 campaign.

ACQUIRED: RSL: Selected in the 2009 MLS Xavier Draft on 3/03/09. SJ: Selected in the 2007 MLS Expansion Draft on 11/21/07. CLB: Acquired from LA via trade along with Joseph Ngwenya on 5/12/06 in exchange for Kyle Martino and John Wolynec. LA: Selected in the second round (14th overall) of the 2004 MLS SuperDraft on 1/16/04

It's fitting that Real Salt Lake found a "diamond in the rough" in Ned Grabavoy just prior to the 2009 campaign, as the midfielder has turned into a rough-and-tumble, box-to-box performer in the team's diamond midfield across his first two seasons in Sandy. While Grabavoy has certainly kept his knack for maintaining possession in tight spaces and shown off his accurate passing ability, the veteran performer has also stepped it up defensively, the gritty midfielder seeming to relish in tracking back with gusto and marking up more and more during his tenure in Claret-and-Cobalt, shedding his previous image as solely an attacking threat.

While the term is vague, Grabavoy seems to be the prototype of a player that possesses "intangibles," with things like going full bore in practice every day, showing the willingness to get stuck in on tackles, being more vocal on the field, and getting in the face of the opposition to stick up for a teammate coming to the forefront more and more as he enters his ninth season of play in MLS. Of course, when you win championships at the high school, collegiate, and professional levels, you tend to learn the little things it takes to win, and Grabavoy has certainly developed those attributes in spades.

MLS CAREER

Played 2,035 minutes across 32 League and Cup appearances (22 starts), notching three goals and three assists ... Scored all three goals in regular season play, tying a career-high (2007 w/ CLB) ... One of three players to appear in all six CONCACAF Champions League Group A contests, coming off the bench in five of the matches ... R MCL sprain suffered on 4/10 v SEA forced him to miss four League contests, a number that would surely be higher were it not for revolutionary PRP therapy, which replaces plasma from patient's own blood to area of injury, accelerating recovery time ... Finished off scoring on 5/29 v. KC, his first goal in an RSL uniform (92+') resulting in the final 4-1 scoreline and snapping a 61-game goal-less streak in MLS play dating back to 2007 ... Lone appearance in U.S. Open Cup play came via starting role on 6/02 @ DC (63 min.) in the eventual 1-2 OT loss ... Scored just minutes after coming off the bench on 7/24 v. CHV, his 66' tally opening the scoring in a 1-1 draw on Pioneer Day ... The first-time, left-footed volley from 25 yards out was easily voted the MLS Goal of the Week for Week 17 ... Notched first assist of season and broke 18-game snap without a helper in MLS play a week later on 7/31 v. DC, helping on Álvaro Saborío's 13th minute GWG in the 3-0 triumph ... Notched assist in CCL play on 9/15 v. TOR, helping Paulo Jr. score in his RSL debut and RSL to a 4-1 victory ... Made only CCL start on 9/22 @ Árabe Unido, notching another assist on Will Johnson's GWG (43') and going the distance in helping RSL capture a crucial 3-2 away win ... Broke stalemate in the match-up of record MLS streaks on 10/16 v. DAL, rising to head home in the 59' of a 2-0 win ... Started both Western Conference Semifinal Series contests vs. FC Dallas, going the distance on 10/30 @ DAL in the opener and playing 73 minutes in Leg Two on 11/06 in Sandy (2-3 agg. defeat).

Lone player selected in MLS' 2009 preseason Waiver Draft on 3/03 ... Made valuable contributions in his first season in Utah, seeing action in 20 regular season contests and playing key roles in RSL's triumphs in the Eastern Conference Championship and MLS Cup 2009 ... Made RSL debut with 15-minute substitute appearance on 4/02 v. CLB, helping to close out a 4-1 win over one of his former squads ... Notched first assist w/ RSL in historic 6-0 win on 4/25 v. NE (Escalada, 81') ... Three days later on 4/28 @ SEA, went the full 90 minutes in RSL's 1-4 loss in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifying action ... Missed 9/12 v. CHI contest due to a red card issued on 8/29 @ KC – his first-ever ejection coming in his 112th MLS contest ... Missed Leg #1 of East Semifinal Series on 10/31 v. CLB (illness) but was on 18-man roster for second leg on 11/05 @ CLB ... Played the most productive minute in RSL history in the Eastern Conf. Championship on 11/14 @ CHI, entering the 0-0 draw in stoppage time of 2nd OT (123+'), making him eligible to convert the spot kick (7th Rd.) that clinched RSL's 5-4 win in penalties and a spot in MLS Cup 2009 ... Had more time to impact that game on 11/22 v. LA at Seattle's Qwest Field, entering at the half and playing a game-changing 75 minutes, helping RSL come from behind to force a 1-1 draw at the end of regulation and added extra time ... Stepped up in penalties for a second straight weekend, slamming home his fourth round attempt in RSL's eventual 5-4, seven-round PK victory ... The triumph made Grabavoy one of only two RSL players to capture a second MLS Cup title (w/ Rimando), his first coming with LA in 2005.

2008 (SJ)

Started 21 of 24 games for San Jose, recording four assists to tie for second on the team in that category ... Played 85 minutes in 'Quakes debut on 4/03 @ LA, pairing with Ramiro Corrales in central midfield ... Notched first assist of year on 4/19 @ COL, setting up Kei Kamara's goal ... Entered as a sub in U.S. Open Cup play on 4/30 @ RSL, playing 27 minutes in a 0-4 defeat ... Assisted Ryan Johnson's 89th minute goal on 5/10 v. CLB ... Started at forward on 5/17 @ NE ... Recorded assist on Kamara's goal on 5/22 v. HOU ... Set career-season high of four assists on 5/31 @ RSL ... Missed six weeks of action across July and August due to sports hernia surgery, returning to the field on 8/23 @ CHV ... Registered one assist in three games for the SJ Reserves.

2007 (CLB)

Notched career highs in games played (26), starts (24), goals (3) and assists (3) in his only full season with Columbus ... Scored Crew's first goal of the year on 4/19 v. NE in a 2-2 tie ... Scored second goal of the season on 5/12 v. CHV in a 1-1 tie ... Notched two assists in 3-3 tie on 6/16 @ NE, marking his first career multi-assist effort ... Scored third goal of season against his former team on 6/23 @ LA.

2006 (LA/CLB)

Appeared in 17 games between Los Angeles (7 GP/2 GS, 0G/0A) and Columbus (10 GP/3 GS, 1G/1A) ... Part of a trade on 5/12 that sent he and Joseph Ngwenya from the Galaxy to The Crew in exchange for Kyle Martino and John Wolyniec ... Made a memorable Crew debut in front of his new fans by scoring the GWG on 5/13 v. COL ... Notched lone assist of the season on 10/07 @ CHI.

2005 (LA)

Appeared in 12 games for the Galaxy's first team during its MLS Cup-winning campaign, nine of them starts, while registering three assists ... Was a key contributor during the MLS Cup Playoffs, starting all four postseason affairs for LA and scoring once ... His 67' goal on 10/29 @ SJ in Game 2 of the Western Conf. Semifinal Series essentially dashed the 'Quakes hopes of advancement, securing a 1-1 draw for the second leg and ending the scoring in a 4-2 overall series result that moved the Galaxy into the Western Conference Final ... Started and played 66 min. on 11/13 v. NE in MLS Cup 2005, an eventual 1-0 overtime triumph.

ACQUIRED: RSL: Via trade with Chicago Fire on 8/22/08 in exchange for Real Salt Lake's natural 2009 fourth round selection and a conditional second round pick in the 2011 MLS SuperDraft. CHI: Signed to a Senior roster contract on 2/17/05

To say that Will Johnson's contributions to his club more often than not won't be found on the scoresheet is quite the understatement, as the young midfielder has made his mark as a smart decision-maker with possibly the most tireless engine in all of Major League Soccer. After beginning his career in more attacking positions – a role which he still fills with the Canadian National Team, which he will join for this June's CONCACAF Gold Cup – Johnson has become the consummate box-to-box midfielder on the left side of RSL's diamond, displaying tenacity normally reserved for players with twice his experience and maturity well beyond his 24 years of age.

His previous two-and-a-half seasons on the Wasatch Front were more than enough evidence to convince the RSL Technical Staff that he should be a core building block moving forward, which resulted in an offseason contract extension that will keep Johnson in Claret-and-Cobalt through the 2014 season. It's a commitment fitting for a player that seems to take not being on the field for every minute of every game as a personal affront, his passion for the game and his team worn on his sleeves at all times. That being said, perhaps his importance to Real Salt Lake can be summed up by the fact that no other player started all six games or logged more minutes during the Group Stage of the CONCACAF Champions League – the tournament the Utah side is hanging its hat on – than Johnson, a trend that should continue when the squad enters the competition's knockout phase this spring.

MLS CAREER

Appeared in 38 of team's 40 matches across League and Cup competitions (33 starts), logging an impressive 3,016 minutes while scoring five goals and adding an assist along the way ... Placed 3rd on squad with 28 regular season appearances and 5th with 24 starts ... Was only RSL player to start all six contests and logged a team-high 480 minutes in CONCACAF Champions League Group Stage action, helping RSL to become the first MLS team to finish atop its group in nine tries ... His three CCL goals were T-2nd (w/ Paulo Jr.), behind only Saborio's six-goal haul ... Notched his only goal in MLS action on 4/10 v. SEA, scoring the first goal of the season at Rio Tinto Stadium with a textbook diving header 53 minutes into the eventual 2-2 draw ... Put in a sturdy 120 min. four days later in RSL's Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifier on 4/14 @ SJ, helping the Utah side push through a wild 3-3 draw before notching the opening spot kick during its 5-3 PK triumph ... Trip to Argentina for Canada's 5/24 friendly caused him to miss RSL's 5/22 trip to Chivas, marking his first missed contest of the 2010 campaign ... Went full 120 minutes on 6/02 @ DC, his PK in the 80th minute forcing the U.S. Open Cup qualifier to added extra time (1-2 L) ... Started and played full 90 minutes of RSL's "instant classic" 4-5 loss @ Cruz Azul on 8/25, his 92+’ equalizer nearly giving the Utahans a rare draw for an MLS side south of the border ... Opened and closed the scoring on 9/22 @ Árabe Unido, his 10th and 43rd minute tallies lifting RSL to a vital 3-2 victory in Panama City ... Showed off his versatility on 10/19 v. Cruz Azul, logging an effective 90 minutes at fullback due to a personnel shortage and helping a largely reserve RSL side to a historic 3-1 win over the Mexican giants at Rio Tinto Stadium that put RSL atop the Group A standings ... Logged 22 minutes off the bench in Leg One of RSL’s Western Conf. Semifinal Series on 10/30 @ DAL (1-2 L) ... Started and went the full 90 minutes in Leg Two on 11/06 v. DAL (1-1 T).

Notched a goal and three assists while ranking in top five on squad with 26 starts (3rd) and games played (T-5th) ... Registered first assist of the season on 4/11 v. DC, helping set up Olave’s quick equalizer (40’) ... Scored RSL’s lone goal on 4/28 @ SEA in a U.S. Open Cup qualifier, his tally just past the half-hour mark helping cut into a Sounders in an eventual 1-4 defeat ... Contributed to crazy finish in 2-2 draw on 5/06 v. LA, first being whistled for a handball in the area that set up Donovan’s 91+’ equalizer before converting a spot kick of his own a minute later, only to see his hopeful game-winner cancelled out minutes later by Magee in the 94+’ ... Missed two July matches due to Canadian National Team commitment for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup ... Prior to departing for Canadian duty, was the only RSL player to log all 1,260 minutes across its first 14 contests ... Named to first MLS All-Star squad as an injury replacement for Shalrie Joseph on 7/24 ... Played 45 min. for MLS All-Stars on 7/29 v. Everton FC at Rio Tinto Stadium in MLS’ 3-4 PK defeat (1-1 in regulation) in front of his home crowd ... Converted his PK opportunity in the shootout against Tim Howard ... 84 min. stint on 8/01 @ CHI marked the first time Johnson had failed to log the full 90 in a regular season or postseason match since joining RSL in Aug. 2008 ... Started 12 of last 13 contests, missing only 8/29 @ KC contest (caution accumulation) ... Started all four playoff contests, playing every minute up until halftime of MLS Cup 2009 ... After 120 minutes of play on 11/14 @ CHI in the Eastern Conf. Championship, helped get revenge on his former side by converting fifth round PK that continued the shootout (5-4 W) ... Gamely started MLS Cup 2009 on 11/22 v. LA in Seattle, but a severe bout of food poisoning would limit him to the first 45 minutes of RSL’s 1-1 draw and an exit before its 5-4 triumph in penalties that claimed the Utah side’s first title.

Started all 12 regular season and playoff appearances he was available for after rights were acquired by RSL from Chicago Fire on 8/22 in exchange for conditional 2009 4th round and 2011 2nd round MLS SuperDraft picks ... Scored a pair of goals in his nine regular season appearances ... Re-signed with MLS on 8/15/08 after spending two years in Dutch Eredivisie, becoming the fifth North American native to return from Europe to play for RSL in 2008 (Borchers, Joy, Mathis and Russell) ... Played all 270 minutes in RSL's maiden postseason run, starting both Western Conference Semifinal Series games (11/01 v. CHV & 11/08 @ CHV) and the Western Conference Final on 11/15 v. NY ... Made RSL debut with 90-minute performance on 8/29 v. COL in a 2-0 win ... Scored first goal for RSL in just his second appearance on 9/06 @ LA, his 52' tally helping the squad to a 2-2 away draw ... His second goal in an RSL uniform – a brilliant volley 54th minute volley on 10/18 v. FCD in a 3-1 triumph – counted not only as his first game-winner in MLS play, but was also voted the 2008 Sierra Mist MLS Goal of the Year via fan voting at season's end.

Started one of six appearances during his rookie campaign in Chicago, scoring one goal in 162 minutes of play ... Signed a Senior roster contract with Chicago as an 18-year-old on 2/17/05 ... Made his MLS debut on 7/16 v. CLB, entering at the half and playing the final 45 minutes in a 1-1 tie ... Notched first MLS start and goal a week later on 7/23 @ COL, scoring the first goal of the game (16') and playing 71 minutes in an eventual 1-4 loss ... Played final 17 minutes on 10/05 v. MET in a 2-2 draw, marking his last MLS appearance prior him joining RSL in 2008.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB CAREER

2007-08: De Graafschap – Dutch Eredivisie (First Division):

Loaned to Dutch Eredivisie squad De Graafschap from SC Heerenveen for the 2007/08 season, when he scored three times in 39 games across all competitions while spending time at forward, central midfield and right midfield.

After being rescued off the waiver wire by Real Salt Lake just prior to the 2010 preseason and earning his spot on Utah side's roster during its February camps, Rauwshan McKenzie found playing time tough to come by when the regular season came around. Of course, when you're behind a pair of MLS Defender of the Year finalists on the depth chart that is to be expected, but the squad would grow more comfortable with the ex-Kansas City Wizard, resulting in starting nods in both contests against Cruz Azul in CONCACAF Champions League action and a stout performance against Colorado in a pivotal Rocky Mountain Cup showdown in September. With a year in the RSL system under his belt and his skill set and physical traits now a known commodity to the team's Technical Staff, expect the fourth-year pro to be called into service more often during a 2011 calendar that will again be congested thanks to CCL and U.S. Open Cup play.

MLS CAREER

Amassed 644 minutes and tallied one assist in eight matches (six starts) across League and Cup play ... Made RSL debut off the bench in season opener on 3/27 @ SJ, playing final 27 minutes of the 3-0 win in place of an injured Nat Borchers ... Went the full 120 min. in RSL's Open Cup qualifier on 4/17 @ SJ, a wild 3-3 draw that RSL advanced from via a 5-3 triumph in penalties ... Made second MLS appearance on 5/08 v. PHI, playing 17 min. (3-0 W) ... Went the distance on 6/02 @ DC in U.S. Open Cup qualifying, logging all 120 minutes in the 1-2 OT defeat ... Made first start in MLS play for RSL on 8/11 @ PHI, going the full 90 minutes in a 1-1 draw in the team's first visit to PPL Park ... Pressed into service on 8/25 @ Cruz Azul for rain-soaked 4-5 defeat in Mexico City ... Introduced to Rocky Mountain Cup series on 9/25 v. COL via a 90-minute performance in the 1-1 draw at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Helped RSL to the top of the CCL Group A standings on 10/19 v. 1 TIM MELIA GOALKEEPER

WEIGHT: 194

BORN: May 15, 1986 in Great River, New York

HOMETOWN: Great River, New York

COLLEGE: Lynn University (Fla.) / Oneonta State (NY)

MLS EXPERIENCE: : 2nd Season (2010)

LAST CLUB: Charleston Battery (USL-2) (loan-2010)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Signed to a Developmental Player contract on 2/10/10.

The arrival of Tim Melia prior to the 2010 campaign marked the first shake-up of any type in the RSL goalkeeping corps in three seasons, and while the 24-year-old Long Island native did not see any time with the RSL first team during his initial MLS campaign, he did manage to achieve something his Claret-and-Cobalt teammates failed to do last year ... hoist a trophy. After serving much of the spring and summer on loan with the Charleston Battery, Melia would help the South Carolina side – which he first suited up for during the preseason Carolina Challenge Cup – to the USL-2 crown, stepping up to the occasion by making eight saves in the final against the Richmond Kickers. With more valuable playing time and a championship under his belt, look for Melia to carry more confidence into his fight for back-up time alongside Kyle Reynish in 2011.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

2010: RSL/Charleston Battery (loan)

Signed with RSL on 2/10/10, but did not see any minutes in his first year with the squad ... Was 12-4-3 with 5 clean sheets and a 1.19 GAA while on loan with the USL-2's Charleston Battery from April–August ... Led Battery to the USL-2 title by making 8 saves in a 2-1 win over Richmond in the Final on 8/28 ... After being sent to Battery on loan stint on 4/15, picked up his first win for the Battery two days later on 4/17 @ Charlotte (3-2 W) ... Recorded first shutout on 4/24 v. Pittsburgh (0-0 T) ... Won four straight contests from late-April through mid-June, helping the Battery leap to the top of the USL-2 standings ... Shut out MLS side Chicago Fire in 120 minutes of Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup action on 6/29, making 8 saves during regulation and overtime and stopping another shot in PKs, leading the Battery to a 3-0 PK triumph and Round of 16 upset ... Earned TheCup.us's "Player of the Round" honor for his heroics against the Fire ... Fell 0-3 @ Columbus Crew in the USOC Quarterfinals a week later on 7/06 ... Swapped places with Kyle Reynish for a few weeks after the Battery's U.S. Open Cup run to train with RSL, but returned for the stretch drive of the Battery's season on 8/02 ... Clean sheet on 8/14 v. Charlotte clinched USL-2 regular season crown and a berth in the division's Championship.

2008-09: Rochester Raging Rhinos (USL First Division)

Spent two seasons with the Rhinos, registering a 6-4-7 overall record across USL and U.S. Open Cup play ... Made one start during his rookie season in 2008 on 9/17, a 0-1 defeat @ Miami FC ... Playing time increased in 2009, making 13 League appearances (0.98 GAA, 4-2-7 record, 6 shutouts, and 59 saves in 1,125 minutes) in place of injured starter Scott Vallow ... Racked up a 2-1-0 record in leading Rochester to the U.S. Open Cup Semifinals, defeating the Columbus Crew in the Third Round and USL-2's Wilmington Hammerheads in the Quarterfinals before bowing out to D.C. United after a 1-2 loss.

COLLEGE

Placed in Lynn University's career top-five in shutouts (18, T-5th), GAA (0.65, 3rd) and saves (85, 5th) after just two seasons of play in Boca Raton ... 2007: Started all 18 games for Fightin' Knights, posting a 14-2-1 record with eight shutouts, 47 saves, a 0.80 GAA and .770 save percentage ... Selected as the Sunshine State Conference Defensive Player of the Year ... Other accolades include: First-Team All-SSC, Daktronics Second-Team All-South Region, NSCAA First-Team Academic All-South Region and NSCAA First-Team Academic All-America ... 2006: Started all 16 appearances after transferring to Lynn University, posting a 14-2-0 record and career highs in 10 shutouts, 38 saves, an 0.49 GAA and a .826 save percentage in the process ... First-Team All-Sunshine State Conference, Daktronics All-South Region First-Team and NSCAA All-South Region Second-Team honoree ... 2005: Played at Oneonta State, seeing action in 16 games (15 starts) and going 6-8-2 with two shutouts, 58 saves and a 1.63 GAA ... 2004: Saw action in all 18 games in his first season with Oneonta State, recording a 6-10-2 record with a 1.11 GAA, five shutouts, 89 saves and a .809 save percentage.

HIGH SCHOOL / CLUB

Made seven appearances in 2007 for the Long Island Rough Riders of the USL Premier Development League ... Was a four-year letter winner at East Islip High School.

PERSONAL

Born Timothy Joseph Melia in Great River, N.Y. ... Son of Michael and Julie Melia ... Majored in criminal justice at Lynn University, where he played alongside current RSL teammate Jean Alexandre in 2007.

JAVIER MORALES MIDFIELDER

HEIGHT: 5'8"

WEIGHT: 161

BORN: January 10, 1980 in Buenos Aires, Argentina

HOMETOWN: Buenos Aires, Argentina

CITIZENSHIP: Argentina

COLLEGE: N/A

MLS EXPERIENCE: 5th Season (2007-2010)

LAST CLUB: UD Vecindario [Spanish LIGA BBVA (Second Division)] (2007)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Signed to a Senior contract as a Senior International on 8/17/07

In 2009, the opposition's increasingly rough dealings with Javier Morales might have resulted in a drop-off in production by the midfielder, but it did not impede Real Salt Lake's road to its first title. Fast forward to 2010, when the maestro of RSL's attack hit the ground running with a stunning display in San Jose and never looked back, as the Argentine pulled the strings of the League's best offensive attack and helped lead the Claret-and-Cobalt to unparalleled heights in their maiden CONCACAF Champions League voyage. In addition, Morales would earn a his MLS "Best XI" honor at season's end and his second straight MLS All-Star Game nod, parlaying a fast start to the season into an "All-Star First XI" choice and a solid performance against none other than Manchester United, proving he could step up his game even more when the lights were brightest.

But an All-Star appearance was not the only parallel between the last two years, as Morales would again end the season on the sidelines. However, unlike the injury he suffered early in MLS Cup 2009, this time the absence was of his own accord, the red card he picked up in the opening leg of the Western Conference Semifinals against FC Dallas forcing him to watch the second and decisive leg in Sandy helplessly from afar. So while the thrill of victory offset his 2009 disappointment, the agony of playoff defeat in 2010 left a bad taste in Morales' mouth. So what does this mean for 2011? Well, when combining the playmaker's impressive preseason form with the obligation he feels to atone for the team's premature end to last season, it means that things could get very, very rough for the opposition.

MLS CAREER

Consistent return to top form in 2010 earned the Argentine playmaker his first MLS "Best XI" honor at season's end, his second RSL Most Valuable Player award, and his second consecutive MLS All-Star nomination – this time voted as a "First XI" choice by fans, players, coaches, GM's and his playing peers ... Combined to play 2,511 minutes across 32 matches (28 starts) in League and Cup competition ... Led squad with nine assists in MLS play while also ranking in top 5 with an MLS-career-high seven goals (2nd), 25 starts (4th), and 2,163 minutes played (5th) ... The nine helpers placed T-9th across MLS alongside fellow Argentine Guillermo Barros Schelotto, while 76 fouls suffered were 2nd most behind only League MVP David Ferreira ... Finished season in top five on RSL's career charts in numerous categories, his all-time numbers including 31 assists (1st), 15 goals (T-5th), 6 game-winning assists (1st), 7 game-winning goals (2nd), 199 fouls suffered (2nd), 64 shots on goal (4th), and 132 shots (T-5th w/ Kreis) ... 2G/1A effort in a thorough 3-0 win on 3/27 @ SJ led to Morales being voted the first MLS Player of the Week in 2010 ... Started scoring with a stunning 30-yard volley into the upper right 90 (14') before finishing the scoring with another upper-corner beauty on a free kick, and notched an assist on an Espíndola (27') goal in between ... The brace marked his first multi-goal effort in what was his 63rd regular-season match in an RSL uniform ... Tally on 4/01 @ HOU (17') pushed RSL out to a lead in the eventual 1-2 defeat (and was retroactively voted the MLS Goal of the Week for Week 2) ... Helped exact revenge on 5/13 v. HOU, assisting twice (Saborío – 24', 60') in a 3-1 win in Sandy ... Ended Galaxy's 12-game undefeated streak to start the season on 6/09 v. LA, his 80' goal off a Galaxy miscue counting as the lone tally in a 1-0 win ... Notched another 2-assist game on 7/02 v. NE in RSL's 5-0 drubbing of the Revs ... After earning second All-Star nod, started and played 63 minutes on 7/28 on behalf of MLS v. Manchester United in the EPL side's 5-2 win in front of 70,728 fans at Houston's Reliant Stadium ... Earned MLS Player of the Week honors for Week 21 effort on 8/14 v. CLB, blasting home two seeing-eye strikes (11', 60') that punctuated a dominant 2-0 win in the battle of Conference leaders ... Assisted on both RSL goals on 10/02 @ NE in a 2-1 win that marked the team's first ever on artificial turf ... Led the charge in clash of the record streaks on 10/16 v. DAL, assisting on Grabavoy's GWG (59') before closing the scoring himself (90') in a 2-0 win ... After picking up a red card (69' – 2nd caution) on 10/30 @ DAL in Leg One of the Western Conf. Semifinal Series, was forced to sit out of the 1-1 Leg Two draw on 11/06 in Sandy (2-3 aggregate loss).

First-time MLS All-Star finished season 3rd on RSL with five assists and 5th with 24 GS and 26 GP ... Also started all four MLS Cup Playoff contests for RSL, finishing the postseason with a goal and assist in 299 minutes of action ... Only goal of the season was a big one on 4/11 v. DC, his 80th minute finish lifting the home side to a 2-1 victory ... Made his contributions known during a historic night on 4/25 v. NE, assisting on RSL's first two goals in a 6-0 trouncing of the Revs ... Precision corner kick to the far post combined with Mathis' thunderous volley to create one of the three 2009 MLS Goal of the Year nominees ... Netted the lone goal on 7/11 v. Club América (MEX) in XanGo Cup 2009, defeating the "Águilas" 1-0 in the first-ever international friendly at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Named in July to his first MLS All-Star Team as one of two "Commissioner's Picks" along with teammate Kyle Beckerman ... Played 26 min. for MLS All-Stars on 7/29 v. Everton FC at Rio Tinto Stadium in MLS' 3-4 PK defeat (1-1 in regulation) ... Ended season on a high note on 10/24 v. COL, notching assist on Movsisyan's final RSL tally in the 85' of a thorough 3-0 win that helped clinch RSL's passage to the postseason ... Sparked RSL in East Semifinal Leg Two on 11/05 @ CLB, registering a goal and assist in leading the Utahans to a 3-2 win and a spot in the East Championship ... The 1G/1A effort marked his second such postseason performance ... Played all 120 minutes on 11/14 @ CHI in the Eastern Conf. Championship, seeing the match through to its 120-minute conclusion and 5-4 PK triumph (missed 4th round PK) ... Started MLS Cup 2009 on 11/22 v. LA in Seattle, but an awkward challenge by David Beckham resulted in a knee injury that forced the Argentine from the match 22 minutes into RSL's eventual 1-1 draw and 5-4 PK victory.

Started and appeared in 29 of RSL's 30 contests during the best season ever enjoyed by an RSL midfielder, breaking the club's single-season record with 15 assists while also finishing T-2nd (w/ Findley) on RSL's scoring chart with six goals ... Finished 2nd in MLS in assists (15), assists/gm (0.52), and multi-assist games (3); 4th in assists/90 min. (0.54) and fouls committed (49); and 5th in fouls suffered (59) ... Assist on RSL's first-ever goal at Rio Tinto Stadium on 10/09 v. NY (Olave - 41') was his 17th in an RSL uniform, breaking a tie with Andy Williams for RSL's career lead in the category ... Five-game point streak from 4/26 @ DC - 5/31 v. SJ (2G/5A) was T-2nd for the longest such stretch of the MLS season ... Notched first two-assist match of MLS career on 5/03 v. LA ... Scored GWG on 7/12 with a 4' free kick in RSL's 2-0 victory v. CLB ... Had second 2-assist game of season - both on Fabian Espindola goals - in a 2-0 win over COL on 8/29 ... Signed contract extension on 9/23 that keeps him a member of RSL through the 2012 campaign ... His back-to-back 1G/1A performances on 9/27 @ SJ and 10/04 @ NE marked his third and fourth such performances of the season (5/31 v. SJ and 8/16 @ HOU) ... His 12th assist, a brilliant chip to Andy Williams (73'), on 10/04 @ NE gave him the RSL single-season record in the category, breaking Jeff Cunningham's mark of 11 (2006) ... Became first player in RSL history and second player in MLS in 2008 (Barros Schelotto - CLB) to record assists in four straight games on 10/18 v. FCD, a match that marked his third 2-helper game of the campaign ... Figured in all three of RSL's goals in the 2008 MLS Cup Playoffs ... Carried his sparkling regular season form into the postseason in Game One of the Western Conference Semifinal Series v. CHV on 11/01, assisting on Movsisyan's 90' goal in a dramatic 1-0 win at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Continued his wizardry in Game Two @ CHV on 11/08, first serving the final cross on Kovalenko's 39' equalizer before hammering what would be the final nail in the Goats' coffin, his curling 77' strike serving as the eventual series winner in the game's 2-2 draw and RSL's 3-2 aggregate series win.

Joined Real Salt Lake as a Senior International with the club on 8/17/07 ... Finished the season with one goal and two assists in seven appearances (five starts) ... Made a spectacular first impression in his MLS debut on 8/29 v. KC, recording an assist on fellow Argentine Matías Mantilla's goal 40 seconds into the match ... The assist was the fastest ever for a player making his MLS debut ... Scored his first career MLS goal on 9/19 v. LAG on an 86th minute free-kick, helping RSL earn a 2-2 draw.

4 JAMISON OLAVE DEFENDER

HEIGHT: 6'2"

WEIGHT: 210

BORN: April 21, 1981 in Medellin, Colombia

HOMETOWN: Medellin, Colombia

CITIZENSHIP: Colombia

COLLEGE: N/A

MLS EXPERIENCE: : 4th Season (2008-10)

LAST CLUB: Deportivo Cali (Colombia Copa Mustang/ First Division)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Signed to a Senior contract as a Senior International in January 2008

From an individual standpoint, 2010 could not have been much better for Jamison Olave, whose budding respect from the soccer punditry and the opposition culminated in him being named the 2010 MLS Defender of the Year. And it's hard to argue with the outcome, as the Colombian's unique blend of size, strength, and speed contributed mightily to Real Salt Lake smashing the MLS record for fewest goals allowed in a season. But it wasn't just Olave's physical game that allowed him to earn the accolades he did – which also included a spot on the MLS "Best XI" team and a "First XI" selection on the 2010 MLS All-Star Team – as his decision-making on the fly improved by leaps and bounds ... even if the referees didn't always give him the benefit of the doubt.

Olave continues to provide the perfect "ying" to his center-back partner Nat Borchers' "yang," playing the more athletic, risk-taking style of the two – a style one can afford to play when you possess the best closing speed in all of MLS. And while his defending rightfully gets all the attention, the opposition still can't sleep on the hulking back when he ventures up for set pieces, as the 29-year-old banged home three more goals in MLS play and added another in CONCACAF Champions League action in 2010, once again all the tallies coming in front of his adoring fans at Rio Tinto Stadium. While the awards are nice, it is those supporters in Sandy that have paid RSL's #4 perhaps the biggest compliment of all, shedding the normal confines of grammar to declare, as the banner hanging in the South End states, that "Olave is a VERB!" Perhaps you have to be an opposing forward to understand completely, but he's personally ushered enough of them towards the banner while shielding hopeful through balls for everyone to get the picture.

MLS CAREER

Filled up his mantle after being named 2010 MLS Defender of the Year, earning a spot on the MLS "Best XI" team, and being named to his first MLS All-Star Team as a member of the "First XI" ... Key reason Real Salt Lake smashed the MLS record for fewest goals allowed in a season, the Utah side allowing only 20 goals in its 30 contests (previous record 23 GA by 2007 Houston Dynamo) ... In the process of gaining that record, also played most every minute in RSL's 567-minute and 568-minute shutout streaks, the 3rd and 4th longest such runs in League annals ... Started all 33 appearances (2,953 minutes) and scored four goals across MLS regular season, MLS Cup Playoff and CONCACAF Champions League action ... All four of his goals were scored at Rio Tinto Stadium, meaning all nine of his career tallies (MLS & CCL) have come in home contests ... His 27 games played and starts and 2,413 minutes were all high-water marks for his three-year MLS career ... Made his 50th career MLS appearance on 4/01 @ HOU and followed with his 50th start in League play on 4/10 v. SEA ... Scored first goal of the season on 5/01 v. TOR, following up Saborio's shot on the doorstep to open the scoring in a 2-1 win ... Continued on the attack a week later on 5/08 v. PHI, notching an insurance tally in the 51st minute of a 3-0 win ... The two-game goal binge (5/1 v. TOR, 5/8 v. PHI) was the second such streak of his MLS career (4/11/09 v. DC, 4/25/09 v. NE) ... Got on the end of Morales' free kick into the six on 7/02 v. NE, tallying RSL's second goal in the 5-0 drubbing of the Revs ... In his All-Star debut, started and played 45 minutes on 7/28 on behalf of MLS vs. Manchester United in the EPL side's 5-2 win in front of 70,728 fans at Houston's Reliant Stadium ... Made CCL debut in Group A opener on 8/18 v. Árabe Unido, going the full 90 minutes in a wild 2-1 win ... Missed RSL's 4-5 loss @ Cruz Azul on 8/25 due to tweaked MCL in left knee just two training sessions prior to game ... Suspended for 9/09 @ SEA due to yellow card caution accumulation, marking the only match he missed in 2010 due to disciplinary reasons ... Tallied game-winning goal in critical CONCACAF Champions League match on 9/15 vs. Toronto with 40' header off Williams free kick to give RSL a lead in the eventual 4-1 win ... Also started CCL away matches on 9/22 @ Árabe Unido (3-2 W) and 9/28 @ TOR (1-1), the latter earning the standings point RSL needed to ensure advancement to the knockout phase ... Went the full 180 minutes across both legs of RSL's Western Conference Semifinal Series defeat to FC Dallas (2-3 on aggregate).

Named RSL's 2009 Defensive Player of the Year after starting 24 of 25 appearances ... One of 3 players on RSL with 3 goals in 2009, finishing T-3rd on the squad ... Has 4 goals in RSL's 17 regular season contests at Rio Tinto Stadium since opening in Oct. 2008 (3rd most goals at RTS) ... Played all 420 minutes for RSL in postseason play en route to helping the Utah side claim its first MLS Cup title ... Scored in back-to-back games for first time in RSL uniform, first tallying an immediate equalizer on 4/11 v. DC (40') that led to a 2-1 comeback win ... Followed that up on 4/25 v. NE by opening RSL's historic account in the 53', his GWG opening the floodgates during the second half of a 6-0 trouncing of the Revs ... Missed 4/18 @ NY contest (DNP-Coach's Decision) in between his scoring forays due to precautionary reasons related to surgically-repaired right knee and playing on hardened FieldTurf at Giants Stadium ... Played all 90 minutes on 4/28 @ SEA in a 1-4 defeat in qualifying play for the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup ... Returned to play on 7/03 v. SJ after missing 6/27 v. TOR match due to red card suspension (6/20 @ HOU, 58'), his second red card of 2009 season (5/02 @ COL, 41') ... Started and played all 90 minutes on 7/11 v. Club América in the 1-0 XanGo Cup victory ... Missed match on 8/23 @ NE due to yellow card accumulation, his third contest missed due to disciplinary reasons this season ... Return to scoresheet on 9/12 v. CHI was worth the wait, as his in-stride volley of Andy Williams' 50-yard ball over the top 18 minutes from time brought the match to its eventual 1-1 finish ... Received third red card of the season on 9/19 @ HOU and sat out on 9/26 @ DAL ... Started friendly on 10/07 v. CD Guadalajara (MEX) but wouldn't finish the first half, an altercation with Chivas FW Edgar Solis resulting in their ejections just prior to halftime (49+) ... Put discipline problems behind him for the postseason, going the full 90 minutes in both wins v. CLB in the East Semifinal Series and playing all 120 minutes in the Eastern Conf. Championship on 11/14 @ CHI and MLS Cup 2009 on 11/22 v. LA at Seattle's Qwest Field.

After sitting for RSL's first four contests, Olave started 23 of RSL's last 26 matches, scoring twice in the process ... Played 90 minutes in 21 of 23 MLS appearances, including his last 19 ... Partnered with Nat Borchers to form one of the most formidable center back tandems across the League ... Made his MLS debut on 4/26 @ DC, playing an impressive 90 minutes in central defense ... Played the first half of RSL's 1-2 international friendly loss on 7/23 v. Deportivo Saprissa of Costa Rica ... Scored his first career MLS goal on 7/28 v. TOR ... played the first half in two of RSL's three international friendlies: 7/23 v. Deportivo Saprissa (CRC) and 9/03 v. UANL Tigres (MEX) ... Became surprise choice to score RSL's first-ever goal at Rio Tinto Stadium on 10/09 v. NY by converting from 9 yards out on a Morales corner kick (41') ... His nine cautions (T-2nd in MLS) led to a pair of one-match caution accumulation suspensions (8/16 @ HOU & 10/04 @ NE) ... Started all three of RSL's postseason contests, tallying 246 minutes of action in helping the squad reach the brink of MLS Cup.

Noticing his four assists and team-high eight goals in 22 appearances for Miami FC through the majority of its second division campaign last year, Real Salt Lake took a chance on forward Paulo Jr. by bringing him aboard via a loan for the 2010 stretch run. The short-term move paid off well for the Utah side, as the exciting young attacker managed to score three times in two appearances in CONCACAF Champions League play, with two of those tallies sparking RSL to a 3-1 win over Mexican powerhouse Cruz Azul on Oct. 19 that clinched the top spot in Group A for the MLS side. While much of the offseason buzz for Real Salt Lake surrounded its efforts to bring back fellow forward Álvaro Saborío, RSL fans were almost just as thrilled to see the Utah side agree to an extension of Paulo Jr.'s loan deal for 2011, which could become a permanent deal through 2014 should the budding Brazilian striker impress during the Claret-and-Cobalt's busy slate this season.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

2010: Real Salt Lake

Appeared in six games across all competitions for Real Salt Lake after joining the club on loan on 9/09, scoring three goals in 176 minutes of play ... Scored three goals in just 65 minutes across two games in CONCACAF Champions League play ... Made an immediate impact in his RSL debut on 9/15 v. TOR, entering the CCL contest in the 74th minute and opening his scoring account just 6 minutes later, capping the scoring in RSL's vital 4-1 victory ... Made his MLS debut three days later on 9/18 v. CHI, logging another 16 minutes in RSL's 1-0 win that broke the record for the longest MLS home undefeated streak at 23 games ... After missing a handful of games due to a left hamstring strain, returned to the field on 10/9 @ NY via a 22-minute stint of the bench in a scoreless draw at Red Bull Arena ... Scored RSL's first two goals on 10/19 v. Cruz Azul (43', 67') in the CCL Group A finale for both sides, pacing the Utahans to a 3-1 win that allowed RSL to become the first MLS team in nine tries to win a Group Stage ... Played final 29 minutes on 10/22 @ COL in the regular season finale, a 2-2 draw that allowed RSL to maintain the Rocky Mountain Cup rivalry trophy for a fourth consecutive season ... Made his postseason debut in the second leg of the Western Conference Semifinal Series on 10/06 v. DAL, playing the last 17 minutes off the bench in the 1-1 draw that ended RSL's 2010 campaign ... Saw loan deal extended for 2011 MLS season on 12/27, with Utah side holding option to purchase contract rights through 2014 at the end of the campaign.

2009-10: Miami FC (USFF D-2 Pro League)

2010: Started 18 of his 22 matches with Miami FC in League play in 2010, registering a team-high 8 goals and adding 4 assists across 1,675 minutes of action, numbers that led to him being named to the USFF D-2 Pro League's Best XI team at year's end

... At the time of his departure, ranked in USSF D-2's top five with 20 points (3rd), 8 goals (T-4th), and 50 shots (5th) ... Also scored five times in three Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup contests, ranking at the top of the competition's scoring chart (alongside Seattle's Nate Jaqua) ... Four of those goals came during a 10-minute span in added extra time in Miami FC's First Round 5-1 win over the Central Florida Kraze (PDL) on 6/15 ... Also tallied the Blues' opener (2') a week later in the squad's 2-1 (AET) victory over fellow D-2 USSF side Tampa Bay ... Started and went the full 90 minutes on 6/29 @ Houston Dynamo in a 0-1 Third Round defeat ... Re-signed with Miami on 3/15 for its 2010 season ... 2009: Notched three goals and three assists across 18 appearances in his first season with Miami in 2009 ... Made his Blues debut on 5/20 v. Charleston Battery ... Scored his first USL goal a month later on 6/20 v. Cleveland City Stars.

2008: Ituano FC (Campeonato Brasileiro Série C)

Perhaps no player on the Real Salt Lake roster had a bigger jump in opportunity – and responsibility – from 2009 to 2010 than Kyle Reynish, who ended up owning the #2 goalkeeper spot by racking up a handful of solid performances when called upon between the posts. Helping the Claret-and-Cobalt navigate through a crowded 2010 slate, Reynish served as the primary netminder for Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play and spelled starter Nick Rimando more than admirably in CONCACAF Champions League and late-season MLS regular season play, proving that the trading of Chris Seitz to Philadelphia was not so much a gamble as it was a vote of confidence in the 26-year-old product of UC Santa Barbara, with whom he won a NCAA College Cup title during his senior campaign in 2006.

When combining a possible six-game run in the CCL's "knockout" phase, increased attention to the U.S. Open Cup, four more regular season affairs, and the return of the MLS Reserve Division, RSL's upcoming calendar will be even more crowded than last year's, meaning Reynish will get even more opportunities to stay sharp and show his stuff in 2011.

MLS CAREER

Made six appearances in MLS regular season, CONCACAF Champions League & Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play, notching a 1.20 GAA (8 GA in 600 min.), 1-1-4 record, and one shutout ... Earned draws in all three regular season appearances, during which he allowed just two goals (0.67 GAA) and registered his first career clean sheet ... Also went 2-0-1 during a midseason loan to the USL-2's Charleston Battery, using the stint to sharpen himself for RSL's August / September gauntlet of matches ... Was between the posts on 4/14 @ SJ for RSL's U.S. Open Cup qualifying opener, keeping a clean sheet for the first half of the match before seeing three goals rush past in a 3-3 OT draw ... After 120 minutes of regulation and added extra time, the Utah side eventually advanced via a 5-3 win in penalties (0 saves, 1 miss in 4 attempts against) ... The start @ SJ was his first in an RSL uniform in League or Cup competition since being drafted in 2007 ... Started and played full 90 minutes on 5/21 v. Mexico's U-21 National Team, recording 6 saves in the 1-1 friendly draw at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Logged a solid 120-minute performance on 6/02 @ DC in an Open Cup qualifier, making 6 saves in the 1-2 OT loss at RFK ... Earned first-ever MLS start on 8/11 @ PHI, his six saves helping RSL gain a valuable road point from a 1-1 draw in its inaugural visit to PPL Park ... Collected his first career shutout on 9/09 @ SEA, making a pair of saves behind a stout defense in a scoreless draw that marked RSL's first visit to Qwest Field since its MLS Cup 2009 triumph ... Was introduced to the intensity of the Rocky Mountain Cup rivalry on 9/25 v. COL, making three saves in a thrilling 1-1 draw that pushed RSL's MLS record home unbeaten run to 24 games ...

Helped RSL capture a slice of history on 10/19 v. Cruz Azul, stopping three of four shots on his frame in a 3-1 win that allowed the Utah side to become the first MLS team in nine tries to finish atop its CCL group (Group A).

Made his MLS debut off the bench on 5/02 @ COL, playing 55 minutes in place of injured starter Nick Rimando while making one save and allowing one goal in a 1-2 defeat in the '09 Rocky Mountain Cup opener ... Appeared on gameday roster for RSL's following five contests in the month of May ... Did not appear for RSL in U.S. Open Cup or exhibition play.

2008 (RSL)

Finished RSL Reserves campaign with six of the team's seven wins (6-1-1) and a sub-1.00 GAA (0.95), allowing just 4 goals in 378 minutes between the posts ... Finished 18-game Reserves career (6 GS) across the 2007-08 seasons with a 0.92 GAA and 8-2-1 record ... Recorded the first win of the season for the RSL Reserves on 5/04 v. LA, his scoreless first half helping RSL to a 5-2 victory ... Started on 7/23 in RSL's 1-2 international friendly loss v. Costa Rican champions Deportivo Saprissa, playing the entire match ... Went full 90 minutes for RSL Reserves on 8/06 @ DAL, earning the "W" in a 3-2 road triumph ... Posted a solo clean sheet for RSL Reserves on 8/30 v. COL, helping RSL to a dominating 4-0 win ... Saw his GAA dip below 1.00 in Reserve play by posting 45 shutout minutes in RSL Reserves' season-ending 2-1 win @ COL.

Did not see any first-team action in MLS play ... Made RSL debut on 4/18 vs. Fijian MNT, playing the full 90 minutes and helping a mostly reserve squad to a shutout in the 3-0 win ... Played 9 minutes in 1-0 victory on 6/07 vs. Chinese MNT ... Entered at the half on 7/21 v. Everton and made two saves in combining with Nick Rimando to shut out the EPL side 2-0 ... Enjoyed solid Reserve Division campaign, leading the squad with a 0.88 GAA and picking up a 2-1-0 record in 9 games (3 starts) ... Drafted by RSL in the 4th round (43rd overall) of the 2007 MLS Supplemental Draft on 1/18/07.

COLLEGE

After serving primarily as a back-up to All-American Dan Kennedy for most of his first two seasons, played every minute of his junior and senior campaigns at the University of California – Santa Barbara ... Ended 57-game collegiate career (49 starts) with impressive 0.82 GAA, 33-13-4 record, and 23 shutouts ... 2006: Played every minute for the Gauchos for the second straight season, this time helping UCSB to its first NCAA College Cup title ... Went 17-7-1 in his 25 starts while registering a 0.91 GAA, .823 save percentage and 12 shutouts ... Named to NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team after helping UCSB to a 4-3 penalty kick triumph over Wake Forest after 120 minutes of scoreless soccer in the Semifinals and a 2-1 win in the Final over UCLA ... Also earned All-Big West First-Team and co-Big West Goalkeeper of the Year honors during his senior season ... 2005: Played every minute of his 21 starts for the Gauchos during his first year as a full-time starter ... Garnered Second-Team All-Big West honors and led the Big West with nine shutouts on the season ... 2004: Served as a back-up, but made four appearances in which he allowed only one goal across 225 minutes of action ... 2003: Red-shirted between his freshman and sophomore seasons ... 2002: Enjoyed a solid freshman season, not allowing a single goal in 202 minutes of play, a Gaucho record to start a career.

HIGH SCHOOL / CLUB

Attended Santa Clarita's Williams S. Hart High School, where he posted a 0.84 career goals against average ... Set school records for both single-season (14) and career (38) shutouts ... HEIGHT: 5'9"

WEIGHT: 185

BORN: June 17, 1979 in Montclair, California

HOMETOWN: Montclair, California

COLLEGE: UCLA

LAST CLUB: New York Red Bulls (2007)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Acquired via trade from NY for a 2008 MLS SuperDraft pick and 2009 MLS Supplemental Draft pick on 2/23/07 NY: Acquired via trade from RSL on 2/9/07 for future considerations RSL: Acquired via trade along with MF Freddy Adu from DC for GK Jay Nolly, a major player allocation and future considerations on 12/11/06

So how do you follow one of the greatest goalkeeping runs in MLS postseason history, one in which you post a 0.64 GAA in four high-stakes affairs, carry your team on your back during not one, but two penalty kick shootouts, and capture the MLS Cup MVP award? Quite simple, really – you stretch that greatness across the entire regular season the next year. That was 2010 in a nutshell for Nick Rimando, who followed his playoff run for the ages in 2009 with the best season of his 11-year MLS career – and one of the best in the 15-year history of Major League Soccer.

Just how good was Rimando's 2010 campaign? For starters, the Southern California native's 18 goals allowed in 27 League appearances resulted in a ridiculously low 0.67 goals against average, which smashed Pat Onstad's previous single-season record and marked the first sub-1.00 GAA campaign in his standout career. Rimando's career-high-tying 15 wins allowed him to become the fifth netminder to surpass the century mark in regular season victories, his total sum of 107 currently tied for third-most in MLS annals. That also happens to be where he ranks in shutouts, his 14 clean sheets in 2010 now standing as the second most in a single-season (behind only Tony Meola's 16 in 2000) and another high-water mark for his career, bringing his total in the category to 74. In addition to racking up 567- and 511-minute shutout streaks (the 3rd and 6th longest such streaks in League history), the cherry on top came when the 31-year-old earned his first MLS All-Star nod since 2001, his return to the midsummer showcase coming against global powerhouse Manchester United in front of the fourth largest All-Star audience in American sports history.

In 2011, Rimando will be looking to add to a championship pedigree that already contains two MLS Cup championships, a U.S. Open Cup title, a Supporters Shield crown, and an NCAA College Cup – and with five domestic and international trophies in play for Real Salt Lake this calendar year, the odds appear to be in his favor. After signing a contract extension this past offseason that will take him through the 2013 campaign, arguably the best shot-stopper in MLS history will continue his trophy hunt on the Wasatch Front through the prime of his career, much to the delight of the throngs of RSL faithful who consider the fan-favorite their "homeboy."

MLS CAREER

In 34 overall regular season and Cup appearances (3,040 minutes), allowed only 31 goals en route to a sparkling 18-6-10 record, 0.91 GAA, and 14 shutouts ... His MLS regular season numbers were even more impressive: 27 games played (all starts), with a 15-4-6 record, 0.67 GAA, and 14 shutouts ... The 0.67 GAA was the 2nd lowest single-season mark in MLS history, behind only Kevin Hartman's 0.62 for FC Dallas (also in 2010), while besting the previous League record held by Houston's Pat Onstad from 2007 (0.82) ... The 14 clean sheets were not only a career-high but also the 2nd best single-season mark in MLS annals, behind only Tony Meola's 16 shutouts for Kansas City in 2000 ... 15 wins equaled his previous high-water mark (2001 w/ Miami, 2005 w/ DC) ... Named an MLS All-Star for just the 2nd time in his illustrious career (2001) ... His 567-minute (5/29 v. KC - 7/17 @ DAL) and 511-minute (8/07 @ KC - 10/02 @ NE) shutout streaks were tops in MLS in 2010 and the 3rd and 6th longest such runs in League history ... Went 3-1-1 with a 2.00 GAA in CCL play, notching wins on 8/18 v. Árabe Unido, 9/15 v. TOR, and 9/22 @ Árabe Unido ... Victory on 5/29 v. KC (4-1 W) was his fifth in as many contests in May ... In that contest, he also surpassed former RSL netminder Scott Garlick for 5th place on MLS' all-time appearances in goal list with his 238th GP ... Posted shutouts in all three contests in June (6/05 @ DC, 6/09 v. LA, 6/25 v. NE), leading him to becoming just the second goalkeeper in League history to earn a second MLS Player of the Month award ... Became 5th goalkeeper in MLS history to record 100 regular season wins on 7/02 v. NE in a 5-0 trouncing of the Revs at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Made a season-high 7 saves on 10/02 @ NE in RSL's 2-1 win ... Has stopped 13 of 46 penalty attempts against in regular season play (28.2%).

His 1.14 GAA was the third lowest of his 10-year MLS career, while his 10 wins (10-10-6) were T-3rd (6th season w/ double-digit wins) and his 9 shutouts ranking second-most (11 SHO in 2005) ... Finished among MLS' Top 10 with a 1.14 GAA (8th), 9 shutouts (T-5th), and 10 wins (T-5th) ... Missed 3 games with a L 3rd finger laceration, suffered late in first half on 5/02 @ COL ... Stopped both PK attempts faced in regular season play in 2009 ... PK save of Brad Davis on 6/20 @ HOU in the 74th minute temporarily kept RSL in the lead what was an eventual 1-1 draw ... His PK stop on Jeff Cunningham on 7/24 v DAL (71') was the 13th in 42 attempts on his goal during his career (31%) ... Contributed the game-winning assist on 8/08 v. SEA, his long goal kick converted by Findley for the lone goal in a 1-0 win ... The assist was the 6th of his career, tying Marcus Hahnemann for the most by a GK in MLS history ... Saw his home shutout streak snapped at 383 minutes on 9/12 v. CHI (Rolfe - 44') ... His 60th career clean sheet in the regular season finale on 10/24 v. COL placed him T-5th on MLS' all-time list in the category w/ Pat Onstad (HOU) ... Performed heroically in RSL's four-game run to the MLS Cup 2009 crown, posting an undefeated 2-0-2 record, impressive 0.64 GAA and a pair of shutouts across 420 minutes of action ... Picked up wins over Columbus in both Eastern Conf. Semifinal Series contests against the defending MLS Cup Champions on 10/31 @ RSL and 11/05 @ CLB ... Engineered RSL's Eastern Conf. Championship triumph on 11/14 @ CHI, making 6 saves in regulation & OT to preserve visitors' end of 0-0 draw before saving 3 of the Fire's 7 PK attempts, seeing the Utahns through to a 5-4 PK win and their first MLS Cup appearance. ... Saved his best for last in MLS Cup 2009 on 11/22 v. LA at Seattle's Qwest Field, again being thrown into penalties, this time after a 1-1 draw ... Forced a miss out of Landon Donovan and saved shots by Jovan Kirovski and Edson Buddle, the latter also coming in the 7th round and precluding Russell's championship clincher in the 5-4 shootout triumph ... Now one of only two players on RSL roster to win multiple MLS Cup titles (w/ Grabavoy), this after first winning the 2004 crown with DC in his lone prior final appearance.

One of four 'keepers to play every minute for his squad in 2008 (w/ Busch, Cannon & Hartman) ... Only RSL player to log all 2,700 minutes in 2008 and one of two RSL members (w/ Beckerman) to start all 30 contests ... Finished season in top six across MLS with 10 wins (T-5th), 8 shutouts (5th) and a 1.30 GAA (T-6th) ... It's the image you'll always remember when you see the "2009 MLS Cup Champion" banner at Rio Tinto Stadium and think back on that special night in Seattle – Robbie Russell, on his knees, head towards the sky, eyes closed, fists clinched ... and knowing he's about to get pummeled in celebration by his teammates. When you hit the championship-clinching penalty kick to give your club its first title and an entire state its first pro champion in nearly 40 years you'll always be remembered fondly. But perhaps nobody deserved the moment more than the well-traveled Russell, who embodied the mold in which the RSL Technical Staff re-built the team – an American veteran with overseas experience and character that sacrifices for the team and is ready when called upon.

As part of Real Salt Lake's troika of steady fullbacks in 2010, alongside Tony Beltran and Chris Wingert, Russell's solid campaign on the right wing played a major role in Real Salt Lake crushing the League record for least goals allowed in a single season. And, almost as impressive, the heady Duke product manned the flank in remarkably civil style, committing just eight fouls in nearly 2,000 minutes while never being shown a caution along the way. The versatile veteran flexed his offensive muscle as well, consistently pumping in dangerous crosses from the right, six of which were finished off for RSL goals. The 31-year-old Russell entered RSL's preseason camp in excellent condition and should prove ready to help RSL tackle the rigors of a 2011 early-season slate that will include a run at international prestige in the CONCACAF Champions League's knockout phase.

MLS CAREER

Started 29 of 31 appearances (2,642 minutes played) while scoring once and registering six assists across League and Cup competitions ... Part of a defensive unit that led the charge in helping Real Salt Lake allow just 20 goals all season, beating the previous record of 23 GA set by the 2007 Houston squad ... His five assists in MLS play were the most in his three seasons on the Wasatch Front ... Committed only eight fouls and was not shown a caution across his 22 appearances in League play (1,915 minutes) ... Appeared and started in five of RSL's six CONCACAF Champions League contests (0G/1A) ... Notched first assist of season on 4/10 v. SEA, his cross from the right flank met perfectly by Will Johnson's diving header (53') in the 2-2 home opening draw ... Played an unexpected 89 min. on 4/14 @ SJ in RSL's 3-3 draw in its Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifying opener, spelling an injured Chris Wingert early before supplying a late cross that resulted in Borchers' 118' equalizer and burying RSL's 4th spot kick in its 5-3 PK victory ... Broke 38-game scoreless streak to start the MLS portion of his career on 5/29 v. KC by slotting home rebound of saved Morales free kick, helping RSL exact revenge for its last home defeat via a 4-1 triumph ... Registered his first two-assist game in MLS play on 7/02 v. NE (Espíndola – 27', Saborío – 52'), helping RSL to another home drubbing of the Revs (5-0 W) ... Went the full 120 minutes on 6/02 @ DC in a grueling 1-2 OT loss in U.S. Open Cup qualifying action ... Helped RSL equalize on 8/07 @ KC, his cross hitting Findley in stride for a one-timer that ended the scoring in the 1-1 draw ... Notched game-winning assist on 10/16 v. DAL, his looping ball towards the penalty spot finished off with a Ned Grabavoy header (59') in the 2-0 win ... Started both legs of RSL's Western Conference Semifinal Series against FC Dallas, playing the full 90 minutes on 10/30 @ DAL (1-2 L) before playing first 56 minutes of the second leg in Sandy on 11/06.

Versatile veteran plied his trade at right back, center back and holding midfielder in 2009, notching a pair of helpers in 19 appearances (18 starts) ... Answered the call in the postseason, starting all four of RSL's contests en route to claiming its first MLS Cup crown ... Started on the backline in 9 straight contests (dating back to 4/18 @ NY), the streak ending with his red card suspension served on 6/13 @ LA ... First helper of the season came in RSL's historic onslaught on 4/25 v. NE, his assist on Escalada's 81' score leading to the fourth goal in the Utah side's 6-0 result ... Missed match on 8/08 v. SEA after suffering an injury (L rectus femoris strain) early in the match on 7/24 v. DAL ... Assist on Campos tally (18') on 8/29 @ KC snapped a 15-game streak without a helper and helped RSL to just its second road win of the season, a 1-0 victory at CommunityAmerica Ballpark ... Spelled an injured Tony Beltran for the last 11 min. on 10/31 v. CLB in Leg One of the Eastern Conf. Semifinal Series ... Maintained the line-up spot for RSL's 3-2 win in Leg Two on the series on 11/05 @ CLB ... Started and played until the dying moments on 11/14 @ CHI in the Eastern Conf. Championship, exiting the 0-0 draw in the 120', just moments before RSL's 5-4 triumph in penalties ... Would not be left out of the PK fun on 11/22 v. LA in MLS Cup 2009 at Seattle's Qwest Field, a sturdy 120-minute performance on the backline being rewarded with a spot in RSL lore ... Stepped up to convert the championship-clinching spot kick in the 7th round of penalties, giving RSL a 5-4 shootout win and its first MLS Cup crown in the process.

Signed to RSL's Senior roster on 7/25 from Danish side Viborg FF ... One of five players with European club experience that joined the RSL roster in 2008 ... Versatile player saw time at right fullback, right midfield & center back during his 11 regular season appearances ... Made his RSL – and MLS – debut with a 17-minute appearance off the bench on 7/28 v. TOR in a 2-1 win ... Followed that up with his first MLS start and a 90-minute performance as a right back on 8/16 @ HOU in a 3-4 defeat ... Replaced an injured Nat Borchers at center back on 10/18 v. DAL and put in a solid 90 minutes in partnership with Jamison Olave in a 3-1 victory ... Started in two of RSL's three MLS Cup Playoff appearances, registering two vital assists in 207 postseason minutes ... One of six MLS players to record multiple helpers in the '08 postseason ... Helped RSL to victory in his 27 min. appearance on 11/01 v. CHV in Game 1 of the Western Conference Semifinal Series, his quick 90' throw-in ending up in the back of the net courtesy of a Javier Morales cross and Yura Movsisyan finish in a dramatic 1-0 win ... Helped RSL get on the board in Game 2 of the WSS @ CHV on 11/08, notching an assist on Dema Kovalenko's 39' tally in a 2-2 draw that advanced the squad to the Conference Final ... Played all 90 min. on 10/15 v. NY in a 0-1 loss in the Western Conference Final.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB CAREER

2006-08: Viborg FF – Danish Superligaen (First Division):

Played in 31 contests for Viborg FF of the Danish first division in two seasons with the club ... Was a regular first-choice selection for Viborg in 2006/07, when he played in 26 contests ... Injuries limited Russell to only five appearances during the 2007/08 campaign.

2004-06: Rosenborg BK – Norwegian Tippeligaen (First Division):

Made 13 appearances for Rosenborg BK during portions of three seasons with the Norwegian powers ... Became the starter at right back for the squad during its 2004 championship season, logging nine appearances against league competition and four more during UEFA Champions League, making the short list of American players competing in the prestigious competition at the time ... Made substitute appearances in Champions League play on 9/14/04 @ Panathinaikos (1-2 L) and 9/29/04 v. Arsenal (1-1 T) ... Started and went the full 90 minutes in Rosenborg's next two CL games on 10/20 v. PSV Eindhoven (1-2 L) and 11/02/04 @ PSV (0-1 L) ... Injuries and a coaching change saw his playing time decrease during the latter half of his Rosenborg stint, as he made only two league appearances in both the 2005 and '06 Tippeligaen seasons before reestablishing himself in Denmark.

2001-04: Sogndal I.L. – Norwegian Tippeligaen (First Division):

Scored four goals in 63 league appearances for Sogndal, establishing himself as one of the Norwegian Tippeligaen's best right backs during his tenure with the squad ... Got his feet wet during his Norwegian stint by playing in five contests during the 2001 campaign ... Followed that up with 24 appearances in both the 2002 & '03 seasons, scoring one goal each year ... Scored twice in 14 games during the first half of the 2004 season before being sought out by Rosenborg.

COLLEGE / HIGH SCHOOL

Was a standout at Duke University, tallying 12 goals and 21 assists while starting 73 of his 75 games with the Blue Devils ... LAST CLUB: Bristol City FC (2009)

ACQUIRED: RSL: Added to roster on loan from Swiss First Division side FC Sion as an International Player on 3/15/10; Re-signed to four-year contract as a Designated Player on 12/01/10

Real Salt Lake had followed the travels of Álvaro Saborío for years with the hopes of bringing the imposing forward to the Wasatch Front, and it didn't take long after his signing last March to see why. The diligence of the RSL Technical Staff more than paid off as the Costa Rican international took Major League Soccer by storm in 2010, the prototypical target man bagging 12 times in League play while spearheading an offensive attack that racked up a League-high 45 goals. Saborío's season-long dominance allowed him to capture Real Salt Lake's "Golden Boot" award as the team's top scorer along with the MLS "Newcomer of the Year" award, confirming the team's latest master-stroke in roster-building.

If Saborío's League form was sparkling, his play during Real Salt Lake's maiden voyage in CONCACAF Champions League action was crucial, as his six goals in five games were a main component in the Utah side becoming the first MLS team to win a group in the tournament in nine tries. But then again, the 28-year-old's pedigree in the regional club championship was another reason why RSL deemed him so crucial to its success, as he had previously helped his native country's powerhouse side, Deportivo Saprissa, to a pair of CONCACAF Champions Cup Finals appearances in 2004 & 2005.

With "Sabo" settling in nicely in Sandy and Real Salt Lake acknowledging his importance to the squad, the two sides were able to work out a deal last December that turned his temporary loan from Swiss side FC Sion into a permanent contract with RSL, in the process making him the first Designated Player in club history. With his future in Claret-and-Cobalt secured through the 2014 campaign and a lingering knee injury that nagged him towards the end of the campaign cleared up during an offseason surgery, a healthy and happy Saborío can now focus solely on bringing domestic and international glory to his new home, which could feature an intriguing CCL Semifinal showdown against his former Saprissa side come April.

MLS CAREER

Tallied a franchise-record 18 goals and added six assists across 36 appearances (31 starts; 2,669 minutes) in League and Cup competition during his first season in Utah, numbers that helped him earn the 2010 MLS Newcomer of the Year award ... His 12 goals in MLS play placed him 8th on the MLS Golden Boot chart and earned him Real Salt Lake's Golden Boot award as its top scorer ... Finished T-3rd in MLS with five GWG and three multi-goal games ... His four assists in 27 regular season games (23 starts) placed T-4th on the squad (w/ Findley) ... His six goals during CONCACAF Champions League play were not only tops on the squad, but placed him in a three-way tie for second place across the 24 teams taking part in the regional championship's

Notched another match-winner on 7/31 v. DC, his 13th minute tally opening the scoring in a 3-0 win ... His brace on 8/18 v. Árabe Unido in RSL's first ever CCL contest led the comeback in a wild 2-1 victory in Sandy over the Panamanian champs [45', 94+' (PK)] ... A week later on 8/25 @ Cruz Azul, scored an equalizer (26') and an early go-ahead goal (43') during a monsoon in Mexico City in what turned out to be a heart-breaking 4-5 defeat ... Joined Costa Rica National Team for pair of away friendlies at Panama (9/03) and Jamaica (9/05, DNP), causing him to miss NYRB game on 9/4 at Rio Tinto Stadium ... 69th minute insurance goal on 9/15 v. TOR marked his 5th goal in three CCL games, helping RSL secure a 4-1 win ... Lashed home from the penalty spot on 9/18 v. CHI, his first half stoppage-time conversion standing as the lone goal in a 1-0 RSL win that set the record for the longest home undefeated streak in League history (23 games) ... Gave RSL a lead on the road on 9/22 @ Árabe Unido, his 36' goal putting RSL up 2-1 in its eventual 3-2 triumph ... Just minutes after RSL allowed an equalizer on 10/02 @ NE, scored his 5th GWG of the campaign (84') to give the visitors a crucial 2-1 result ... Almost single-handedly allowed RSL to maintain possession of the Rocky Mountain Cup in the regular season finale on 10/23 @ COL, his high-pressuring of GK Matt Pickens leading to his first tally in the 90th minute before a PK five minutes later brought the rivalry affair to a stunning 2-2 finish ... Grinded through a right knee injury during the Western Conference Semifinal Series v. FC Dallas, starting both legs and totaling 133 minutes in the 2-3 aggregate defeat (68 min. on 10/30 @ DAL, 65 min. on 11/06 v. DAL).

INTERNATIONAL CLUB CAREER

2001-06: Club Deportivo Saprissa – Costa Rica (Primera División de Costa Rica): Saborío's career at CD Saprissa totaled 149 appearances and 95 goals, scoring an average of two goals every three games ... Helped Saprissa reach the CONCACAF Champions Cup final in back-to-back years, winning the 2005 title over Mexican side UNAM (Pumas) (3-2 agg.) a year after dropping the series to fellow Costa Rican side Alajuelense ... Was Saprissa's leading scorer in the Costa Rican First Division's 2003-04 season, when he logged 25 tallies ... Twice helped Saprissa to Primera División de Costa Rica titles in 2003-04 and 2005-06 ...

2006-09: FC Sion – Switzerland (Swiss Super League): Netted 36 goals in 87 appearances during his stay with the Swiss team ... The 2007-08 year was Saborío's strongest statistical year abroad, when he logged 34 appearances and 17 goals ... Helped FC Sion achieve the 2008-09 Swiss Cup crown in May of 2009 ... Was loaned out to Bristol FC in fall 2009 ...

2009-10: Bristol City FC – England (Football Championship League): Made 19 appearances for Bristol City in their 2009-10 campaign after joining the Robins on loan in September 2009 ... Made an immediate impact in his debut on 9/12/09 v. Coventry, logging an assist on Nick Maynard's equalizer (48') in the 1-1 draw ...

COSTA RICAN NATIONAL TEAM

For the better part of the last decade, Saborío has proven to be an important player for the Costa Rican National Team at various levels, and is expected to lead the squad during CONCACAF Gold Cup action in the United States in June 2011 ... Has scored 21 goals in 62 appearances for the "Ticos" across all levels as of Feb. 2011 ... Last appearance came on 9/03/10 @ Panama, when he scored a 52' equalizer and went the full 90 minutes in a 2-2 draw ... Represented the CRC U-23s at the 2004 Olympics, scoring the Qualifying goal that advanced Costa Rica

... At the Sydney 2004 Games, started three of the team's four matches, scoring a goal against Portugal ... Parlaying that performance into consistency for Costa Rica's full National Team, appeared prominently during 2006 World Cup Qualifying ... Better known as "Sabo" or "le Gigì," the striker appeared twice for Costa Rica in Germany at the 2006 FIFA World Cup, totaling 73 minutes in a pair of losses as a substitute for Tico legends Ronald Gómez and Paulo César Wanchope ... His goal just 79 seconds into a 3-1 CONCACAF World Cup Qualifying win over the U.S. on 6/03/09 in San Jose, Costa Rica, is the second-fastest goal the U.S. has ever allowed during qualifying rounds.

Unfortunately for Chris Schuler, his chance for breakout performances towards the end of his rookie season in 2010 coincidentally ended with a break, as a fracture in his right foot suffered during a training session derailed RSL's plans to feature him in its rotation during a busy October slate. The lanky center back's adjustment to the pace of the professional game looked to be complete after he put in a sparkling 90-minute performance in front of a national TV audience at Seattle in early September, his MLS debut turning many a head across League circles. With Schuler returning to full training during the 2011 preseason, expect the Creighton University product and Chicagoland native to be right back atop the mix in spelling the 1-2 punch of Jamison Olave and Nat Borchers, whose tutelage paid obvious dividends for the promising talent last year.

2010 (RSL): Made one appearance each in regular season, CONCACAF Champions League, and Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup action, totaling 243 minutes ... Started and played full 90 minutes in unofficial RSL debut on 5/15 v. Mexican U-21 Nat'l Team, going the full 90 during a 1-1 draw at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Official first-team debut came on 6/02 @ DC in RSL's second U.S. Open Cup qualifying contest, when he started and played 63 minutes before giving way to Fabian Espindola in the eventual 1-2 OT loss ... Entered at the half on 6/19 v. Puntarenas FC (CRC) and played the final 45 minutes in helping RSL close out a 2-0 international friendly/CCL tune-up win at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Made four appearances on loan for USSF D-2 Pro League side AC St. Louis during two separate stints, notching 338 minutes while sharpening up for RSL's congested late-season slate ... Started for the Gateway City side on 7/21 @ Montreal (90 min., 0-3 L), 7/24 @ Crystal Palace Baltimore (90 min., 0-1 L), 7/28 v. Portland (68 min., 3-0 W), and 9/05 v. Miami FC (90 min., 3-1 W) ... Made MLS debut in breakout fashion just four days after his last loan stint ended on 9/09 @ SEA, exhibiting stellar form across 90 minutes in a road shutout at Qwest Field in place of suspended DF Jamison Olave ... Was thrown into the fire of international competition in RSL's Champions League away fixture @ Árabe Unido on 9/22, going the full 90 minutes in a crucial 3-2 victory in Panama City ... Was in line for more appearances during busy October stretch until suffering a broken bone in his right foot during a training session on 9/29 in Toronto in preparation for a likely start on 10/02 @ NE.

There may be no bigger challenge in Major League Soccer this spring than cracking the Real Salt Lake roster, but that's exactly the challenge for University of Portland product Jarad vanSchaik. The good news is that the ex-midfielder – who RSL projects to be cover at fullback in the professional ranks – can seek some familiar company for tips on how to make the squad, as he will be hoping to join his former collegiate teammate Collen Warner, who the Utah side's braintrust consulted before taking vanSchaik with the only pick it kept during January's SuperDraft in Baltimore.

COLLEGE

When midfielder Collen Warner was announced as part of a 2010 SuperDraft day deal between Real Salt Lake and Los Angeles, his wasn't the name everyone was talking about – that honor belonged to Clint Mathis. But Warner certainly changed the focus during his rookie campaign, which was dotted with performances that sparked comparisons to another RSL midfielder with a similar uncanny knack for keeping possession and willingness to make the difficult pass, veteran Andy Williams. Warner's string-pulling performance in RSL's 3-1 Group A-clinching win over Cruz Azul last October was the embodiment of what the Utah side's Technical Staff saw when it traded up for the University of Portland, and the Claret-and-Cobalt faithful should expect even more of those efforts during a crowded 2011 calendar as he looks to climb up the depth chart in the League's deepest and most talented corps of midfielders.

MLS CAREER

Started half of his 18 appearances in League and Cup competition, tallying a goal and assist in 792 minutes ... The goal and helper came during CONCACAF Champions League play, during which he played in three contests ... Made RSL debut in U.S. Open Cup qualifying action on 4/14 @ SJ, starting in the #10 role and playing 69 minutes in the wild 3-3 draw that the Utahans eventually emerged from 5-3 in PKs ... Made MLS debut off the bench three days later on 4/17 @ LA, playing the final 26 minutes in the 1-2 loss ... Continued streak of firsts on 4/24 @ CLB, earning his first League starting nod and playing 62 minutes in the 0-1 defeat ... Went the full 120 minutes on 6/02 @ DC in a 1-2 OT defeat in a U.S. Open Cup qualifier ... Pressed into service just three days later on 6/05 @ DC in their League rematch, playing 61 minutes in a scoreless draw at RFK Stadium ... Played one contest on loan with D-2 Pro League club AC St. Louis (90 min. on 8/01 v. NSC Minnesota) before being quickly recalled by RSL ... Featured in RSL's last three CCL Group A contests, beginning with a 9-minute appearance on 9/22 @ Árabe Unido (3-2 W) ... First-ever 90-minute performance in MLS play came on 9/25 v. COL in a dramatic 1-1 draw ... Earned first CCL start on 9/28 @ TOR, playing the opening 45 before giving way to Javier Morales (1-1 T) ... Was a difference maker on 10/19 v. Cruz Azul in the CCL Group Stage finale, assisting on Paulo Jr.'s 43rd minute opening tally before pushing the advantage to 3-0 in the 69th minute with his first goal of the season in the eventual 3-1 triumph ... Made his MLS Cup Playoff debut on 11/06 v. DAL in Leg Two of the Western Conference Semifinal Series, being inserted for the last 34 minutes in the hopes of providing an attacking spark in the eventual 1-1 draw (2-3 aggregate defeat).

COLLEGE

Concluded his University of Portland career with 20 goals, 20 assists, 60 points and six game-winners in 79 games ... 2009: Completed UP career by helping guide the Pilots to the Third Round of the College Cup and being named to his third consecutive All-West Coast Conference First-Team ... At 33 years of age, Andy Williams may be the "old man" of the Real Salt Lake roster, but you wouldn't be able to tell after watching the latest of his string of recent renaissance campaigns in 2010. The wily veteran turned back the clock even more last year, when he joined Nat Borchers as the only members of the Claret-and-Cobalt to appear in all 30 League fixtures – a new career-high in his 12th professional season – and registered a team-high 12 assists across all competitions from his spot on the outside of the Utah side's demanding diamond midfield formation. While his numbers were impressive, it was once again Williams' qualities that can't be found on a stat sheet – an instinctual ability to keep the ball and his unique way of providing the calm so crucial to RSL's possession-oriented style of play – which earned him high praise from his coaches and kept the fans on the edge of their seats every time the ball came his way.

Since Jason Kreis took over on the RSL sideline in 2007, the team's entire roster has been replaced, save one man – and of all the players to stick around the longest, go figure it's Williams, the player that once defined the moniker of MLS journeyman after suiting up for five different sides in his first seven seasons. As the lone "RSL Original," Williams has continued to rack up stats that have placed him in or on the cusp of the League's career Top 10 in assists (8th), appearances (12th), and fouls suffered (3rd). The RSL faithful would love nothing more than to see the man known as "Bomma" continue to up those levels and his play in 2011, much like he has done across the past few seasons.

MLS CAREER

Led the squad with 12 assists and added one goal in 38 total appearances (26 starts; 2,455 minutes) across regular season and Cup competition ... The 38 match appearances were 2nd most on RSL, behind only Borchers' 39 GP ... One of only two RSL'ers to play in all 30 League contests (w/ Borchers), during which he scored once and notched seven assists, the latter placing 2nd on the squad and counting as a single-season best during his six seasons in Utah ... Assisted on both of RSL's goals during the Western Conference Semifinal Series v. DAL ... Finished the campaign at or near the top 10 on MLS' career charts with 85 assists (8th), 301 appearances [12th (2nd among active players heading into 2011, four behind Jason Kreis)], and fouls suffered (635) ... Ended season as RSL's career leader in games played (158), shots (194), shots on goal (70), and fouls suffered (224), while also ranking 2nd in assists (28), games started (102), minutes played (9,566), corner kicks (185), and game-winning assists (5) ... His three assists in five CONCACAF Champions League contests (four starts, 376 MIN) play led the Utah side ... His 1G/1A effort on 5/01 v. TOR was the 9th of his career and led RSL to a 2-1 victory ... The 42nd minute game-winning goal against the “Reds” was the 7th of his career ... His game-winning assist on 5/22 @ CHV on Espíndola’s 89th minute winner helped RSL grab the lead back late in its 2-1 win and counted as the 20th of his career ... A week later on 5/29 v. KC, assisted on another Espíndola tally (35’), this one starting the scoring in a 4-1 win that exacted revenge for RSL’s last Rio Tinto Stadium defeat 54 weeks earlier ... His ultra-productive 19-minute stint off the bench on 7/31 v. DC produced assists on two insurance tallies (Findley – 79’, González – 93+) in RSL’s 3-0 win ... The multi-assist effort was the 14th of his MLS career, tied for the 7th most in League annals ... Helped salvage RSL’s MLS record home undefeated streak on 9/25 v. COL, his 35-yard chip to the spot finished off with Borchers’ backward header that equalized the Rocky Mountain Cup opener in the 94th minute ... Helped RSL to a dream start on 10/30 @ DAL in its West Semifinal opener, freeing Espíndola for his 5’ tally in an eventual 1-2 defeat at Pizza Hut Park ... Started RSL’s desperate comeback attempt in Leg Two on 11/06 v. DAL, helping on Findley’s 80’ goal in the 1-1 draw (2-3 aggregate loss).

Strong play in the final third of the season led to lone “RSL Original” finishing season with two goals and six assists in 23 GP (7 starts) ... Also added an assist during starting nods in all four of RSL’s postseason contests, his fifth postseason appearance finally rewarded with a first MLS Cup title ... Had 7 points (2G, 5A) in last 9 overall appearances, dating back to start on 8/29 @ KC ... His 1G/1A effort on 4/25 v. NE marked his first multi-point game in 58 games, dating back to 9/16/06 v. DAL (1G/1A) ... Went 90 minutes on 4/28 @ SEA in RSL’s 1-4 loss in Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifying play ... Granted a leave of absence from the squad to attend to family matters in early July and missed 7/11 v. Club America and 7/18 @ CLB contests ... Starts in four consecutive contests starting on 8/26 v. CHV marked first appearances in starting XI since 7/03 v. SJ ... Recorded an assist in 3 straight contests (8/29 @ KC, 9/12 v. CHI & 9/19 @ HOU), tying him with 8 other players for the 2nd longest assist streak in MLS in 2009 (Davis, HOU – 6) ... Recorded GWA on 8/29 @ KC, his unlocking pass in tight quarters leading to Campos’ 18’ tally in the 1-0 win ... Played final 48 minutes of a contentious friendly on 10/07 v. CD Guadalajara (Chivas) (MEX) that ended in a 1-1 draw at Rio Tinto Stadium ... Late-season magic continued on 10/14 v. NY, as his 26-minute appearance off the bench culminated in an 80’ game-winner in the eventual 2-0 result that kept RSL’s postseason hopes afloat ... Capped off regular season with pair of assists on 10/24 v. COL, his helpers on Findley’s first-half brace (15’, 33’) lifting RSL to a 3-0 trouncing of its Rocky Mountain Cup rivals and a spot in the MLS postseason for a second straight season ... His short-corner cross turned goal in 74' on 11/05 @ CLB in Eastern Conf. Semifinal Series Leg Two all but sealed RSL's passage, bringing the aggregate tally to its final 4-2 margin ... Goal was only his second in now 18-game playoff career (11/01/03 w/ CHI v. DC) ... Turned in a gutsy performance in MLS Cup 2009 on 11/22 v. LA at Seattle's Qwest Field, early midfield substitutions forcing him into the full 120 minutes of action in the 1-1 draw through regulation and added time ... After dropping to the ground in exhaustion, his clinching spot kick attempt in fifth round of penalties was saved, but ultimately did no harm thanks to RSL's 5-4 PK triumph ... Result in Seattle gave the Jamaican a deserved first MLS title ring in just the 11-year veteran's 2nd appearance in the Cup final (2003 w/ CHI).

Registered a goal and three assists across 26 regular season appearances (16 starts) ... Continued his US Open Cup mastery on 4/30 v. SJ, notching an assist and the closing goal (90') in RSL's 4-0 Play-In round win ... Broke club record for starts with his 70th appearance in the starting XI for RSL on 7/19 @ CHI (formerly 69 GS, Eddie Pope) ... Claimed another club record for shots with his 133rd for RSL on 7/28 v. TFC, a record previously held by current Head Coach Jason Kreis ... His first-time, upper corner blast on 10/04 @ NE not only snapped a 33-game goalless streak, but earned Sierra Mist Goal of the Week honors and was that day's #8 choice on SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays ... Collected an assist in his Rio Tinto Stadium debut on 10/18 v. FCD, the late assist on a Robbie Findley goal helping to seal the 3-1 win and move the team closer to a playoff spot ... The helper also resulted in his first point-streak of the season ... It was his rebounded shot in the 90' on 10/25 @ COL that led to Movsisyan's equalizer, helping to give RSL a 1-1 draw and, in turn, its first-ever postseason berth ... Made his first playoff appearances since 2003 with Chicago, featuring in all three of RSL's postseason contests (one start) ... Started & played 67 min. on 11/01 v CHV in West Semifinal Series Leg 1, a 1-0 victory ... Made substitute appearances in WSS Leg 2 on 11/08 @ CHV (11 min.) and the West Final on 11/15 v. NY (18 min.).

Started in half of his 24 appearances for RSL, scoring a goal and a team high-tying three assists ... Made at least 20 League appearances for the ninth straight season ... Lone goal of the season on 8/29 v. KC was a memorable one, as his surprise 55-yard strike in the 85th minute closed the scoring in a 3-1 RSL win ... Notched assists in back-to-back games on 9/29 @ NY and 10/06 v. CHV ... Became RSL's all-time leader in games played with his 59th appearance on 6/02 @ NE ... Made his 200th appearance in League play on 5/20 @ FCD ... The latter helper v.

CHV gave Williams the team's all-time lead in assists with 12 ... Resumed his role as the team's U.S. Open Cup hero on 4/18 v. KC, as his 109' goal lifted RSL to a 2-1 OT win in a USOC play-in contest.

Finished third on RSL with six assists and led the team, as usual, in fouls suffered with 52 ... His 29 appearances marked a career single-season high ... Gave the squad its first-ever win in the U.S. Open Cup on 7/11 v. Virginia Beach, his 93' tally in OT helping RSL to a 2-1 third round victory.

Notched career highs in goals (5), starts (26), and minutes (2,102) during RSL's inaugural season, in which he also tallied three assists ... Recorded his first GWG with RSL on 5/18/05 (37').

2004 (CHI)

His nine assists led CHI in the category (eighth in MLS) for a second straight season, while his 25 appearances and 23 starts were then career bests ... Led Fire with 83 fouls suffered (4th in MLS) ... Registered his 50th career assist on 5/15 at MET.

2003 (CHI)

Played in 20 games with 14 starts as he helped lead the Fire to MLS Cup ... Sled CHI in assists with seven ... In his third career postseason run, recorded a goal and an assist in helping the Fire to MLS Cup 2003 ... Scored first goal of postseason career on 11/01 at DC, the GWG in a 2-0 victory.

2002 (NE/MET)

Split time between NE and MET after being dealt to Jersey in a six-player deal on 5/24 ... His 15 assists across the two stops (2 for NE, 13 for MET) marked a career-high ... Suffered a career-high 86 fouls ... Four GWG tied for 4th in MLS.

2001 (NE)

Named NE's MVP for the season after scoring a team-high 13 points on three goals and seven assists ... Acquired by Revs in the 2001 Waiver Draft after the contraction of Miami FC over the offseason.

2000 (MIA)

Finished lone season with Miami FC with four goals and assists in 20 contests ... Had a pair of GWG for MIA, marking his lone multi-GWG campaign.

1999 (CLB)

Started 11 of his 21 regular season matches with Columbus, finishing with three assists ... Recorded two assists in three postseason contests against DC.

1998 (CLB)

Notched 12 assists in just 13 contests (11 starts) for CLB as a rookie ... Set a then-MLS record with a seven-game assist streak ... Missed part of season to participate in the 1998 FIFA World Cup ... Added four more assists in four MLS Cup Playoffs.

JAMAICAN NATIONAL TEAM

Now has 93 caps & 15 goals with the Jamaican National Team after his return to the Reggae Boyz in 2010 following a two-year retirement from the international game ... Scored three goals in 11 appearances overall for Jamaica in 2008 ... Started four of the Reggae Boyz' five games and tallied one goal during the Digicel Caribbean Cup in December 2008, helping Jamaica claim the regional title and qualify for the 2009 CONCACAF Gold Cup ... Started and played 55 minutes for Jamaica on 9/10/08 @ Honduras in an eventual 2-0 defeat in World Cup qualifying play ... Played full 90 minutes for Jamaica on 9/06/08 @ Mexico in a 3-0 WCQ defeat ... Played 63 minutes and scored lone goal for Jamaica in 1-1 draw @ Canada in WCQ play on 8/20/08 (BMO Field in Toronto) ... Scored one goal and added 4 assists for the Jamaican National Team on 6/15/08 and 6/18/08 v. Bahamas in aggregate 13-0 World Cup Qualifying victories ... Ended his international hiatus 6/03/08, playing the full 90 minutes for the Reggae Boyz in their 5-1 win over St. Vincent & the Grenadines in Kingston ... Represented Jamaica in the 2000, 2003, and 2005 CONCACAF Gold Cup tournaments ... Made his senior international debut for Jamaica as a 20-year-old in the 1998 FIFA World Cup vs. Croatia on 6/14/98 ... Also represented Jamaica at the U-23, U-18, and U-17 levels.

COLLEGE

Was the University of Rhode Island's all-time leading scorer with 52 goals and 45 assists ... Voted to the Soccer America Collegiate Team of the 1990's honoring the top 11 college players of the decade.

Diego Serna and Brian Kamler on 5/24/02

Chris Wingert was his usual dependable self in 2010, contributing massively from both the left and right fullback spots to a defensive effort that was the best in MLS history, Real Salt Lake allowing just 20 goals across its 30 contests. While a pair of nagging injuries affected Wingert's play for the first time since the Utah side rescued him from the Colorado bench midway through 2007, the 28-year-old still grinded through to log almost 2,500 minutes across all competitions, helping lead the Claret-and-Cobalt to a historic regular season effort and the first Group Stage win for an MLS side in CONCACAF Champions League action. And the minutes are indeed starting to add up for Wingert, who finished the season ranked third on the team's all-time charts in appearances, starts, and minutes played.

We'll forgive people for overlooking Wingert's defensive mastery for just a second ... after all, he did score a goal last season, his first MLS tally coming right before the half at Chivas USA and helping lift RSL to a key early-season road win. Normally this wouldn't be a big deal, especially for a defender, but when you go 146 games to start your career without one – the fifth-longest such stretch in MLS history – it tends to overshadow the typical dirty work performed along the flanks. Of course, Wingert did that work game-in, game-out with the usual tenacity and intelligence that has become the norm for the former MAC Hermann Trophy winner and Scholar Athlete of the Year recipient out of St. John's University.

MLS CAREER

Scored a goal and contributed an assist in 2,466 minutes of action (30 GP/ 28 GS) across regular season and Cup competition ... Those tallies included one assist in four CONCACAF Champions League contests (all starts, 360 minutes) ... Ended season ranked third on RSL's career charts with 99 appearances; 90 starts (tied w/ Beckerman); and 8,150 minutes played ... Missed two games after suffering a hamstring strain early on 4/14 @ SJ in a Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup qualifier (sat out of MLS Cup '09 rematch on 4/17 @ LA and another playoff rematch on 4/24 @ CLB) ... Returned to the field off the bench on 5/01 v. TOR (20 minutes) and returned to starting XI on 5/08 v. PHI (3-0 W) ... Showed signs of ending his goalless streak on 5/13 v. HOU, when he pushed forward on numerous forays into the box and took a pair of shots in the 3-1 win ... Notched a goal seven seasons in the making on 5/22 @ CHV (46+), his rebound off a Morales shot starting the scoring in RSL's 2-1 win at The Home Depot Center ... The goal snapped the fifth-longest goalless streak to begin a career in MLS history at 146 games ... Re-aggravated hamstring injury in late May, forcing him to miss RSL's 6/02 (USOC qualifier) and 6/05 contests @ DC ... Helped RSL achieve MLS history in CCL play, starting and going the distance on 8/18 v. Árabe Unido (2-1 W), 8/25 @ Cruz Azul (4-5

L), 9/15 v. TOR (4-1 W), and 9/28 @ TOR (1-1 T) during the Utah side's run to the top of the Group A table ... Helped get RSL on the board – and its first-ever goal in CCL action – on 8/18 v. Árabe Unido, his looping cross finished by Saborío to equalize just before the half (45') in the thrilling victory in Sandy ... Missed games on 10/09 @ NY, 10/16 v. DAL, and 10/19 v. Cruz Azul (CCL) due to a left quadriceps strain ... Made his 13 career postseason appearance on 10/30 @ DAL, returning from injury to log the full 90 minutes of the Western Conf. Semifinal Series Leg One defeat (1-2 L).

One of 2 players (w/ Borchers) to appear in all 30 of RSL's contests and ranked 2nd with 27 starts ... Tied his single-season high of 3 assists (also in 2008) ... Ended season with a 43-consecutive-match played streak ... Assist on 6/20 @ HOU marked first helper in 16 games ... Went full 90 minutes on 7/11 v. Club America (MEX) in XanGo Cup 2009 (1-0 W) ... Assisted on 7/18 @ CLB (Cox), helping RSL to its only goal (1-3 L) ... Saw 8-game starting streak snapped due to illness on 8/15 v. HOU ... Matched single-season high with his third assist, a helper on Findley's first finish in a 4-0 win v. CHV on 8/26 (85') ... Including playoffs, played every minute in RSL's final 13 contests ... Played all 120 minutes in Eastern Conf. Championship on 11/14 @ CHI, making several key defensive plays in helping RSL to a 0-0 draw and an eventual 5-4 triumph in PKs ... Playoffs culminated in his first MLS Cup appearance, a steady 120-minute effort on 11/22 v. LA at Seattle's Qwest Field ... Followed the 1-1 draw in regulation and overtime by keeping RSL's hopes alive in penalties, burying his 6th round attempt to keep the proceedings going for one more round – which is all it took for RSL to register a 5-4 PK win and its first MLS crown.

2008 (RSL)

Collected a career-best three assists while starting in all 29 League contests for which he was eligible (red card suspension for 7/12 match v. CLB) ... Was shown first red card of his career on 7/03 v. HOU ... Started and went all 90 minutes on 7/09 v. Santos Laguna (MEX) in RSL's 1-4 loss in 2008 XanGo Cup ... Scored RSL's lone goal on 7/23 in 1-2 international friendly loss v. Deportivo Saprissa (CRC) at Rice-Eccles Stadium ... Notched first assist of 2008 on 7/28 v. TOR, his stellar cross being finished by Olave (63') in the 2-1 win ... Made his 100th career MLS appearance on 8/16 @ HOU ... His second assist of the campaign on 9/06 @ LA (Movsisyan, 21') helped get RSL on the board in an eventual 2-2 draw ... Notched single-season best in assists when he tallied his third helper of the campaign on Will Johnson's MLS Goal of the Year-winning volley (54') on 10/18 v. FCD in a 3-1 victory ... Played all 270 minutes across RSL's three postseason contests.

2007 (COL/RSL)

Went from the bench to the starting XI after being acquired by RSL on 7/13/07 from Colorado in exchange for RSL's 2008 first round and 2009 second round MLS Supplemental Draft picks ... Made 22 League appearances overall, with 16 coming in an RSL uniform, while adding a pair of assists ... Made RSL debut on 7/14 @ KC ... Broke a 56-game streak without an assist on 9/12 @ DC ... Added second helper of the campaign in front of his hometown fans on 9/29 @ NY.

2006 (COL)

Acquired by Rapids on 1/20/06 in a deal that sent a pair of draft picks to CLB ... Made COL debut on 4/02/06 v. HOU, starting and playing all 90 minutes ... Played 10 games for the Rapids first team and nine for the team's MLS Reserve Division outfit before suffering a mid-season leg injury ... Came back to appear in all three of the Rapids' playoff matches, recording 272 minutes on the field during their march to the Western Conference Final.

Started 20 of his 27 appearances for CLB during his sophomore MLS campaign ... Earned a team-high eight cautions during his second professional season.

2004 (CLB)

Selected in the second Round (12th overall) by CLB in the 2004 MLS SuperDraft ... Appeared in 22 games, earning 16 starts, for CLB after working his way into the lineup as a rookie ... Made his MLS debut on 5/01 v. DAL, playing 33 minutes as a sub ... Earned his first MLS start on 7/03 v. CHI.

COLLEGE

Capped a highly-decorated career at St. John's University by winning the 2003 M.A.C. Hermann Trophy, college soccer's equivalent of the Heisman Trophy ... Played in two NCAA Men's College Cups in 2001 and 2003 ... As the team's captain, started all 23 games in which he appeared in his senior season in 2003 ... Missed the only game of his career while playing for the U.S. U-23 National Team ... Became the first player in Division 1 men's soccer history to win the Hermann Trophy and the NSCAA Scholar-Athlete Award in the same season.

U.S. NATIONAL TEAMS

Senior MNT: Earned first "cap" with the full U.S. Men's National Team on 1/24/09 v. Sweden, playing the final 11 minutes in a 3-2 victory at The Home Depot Center ... The appearance concluded his debut camp with the USA's Senior Team, his first call-up to the U.S. Soccer system since 2004 ... U.S. U-23's: Represented the U.S. at the Under-23 level between 2002 and 2004, appearing in all five games of the 2004 CONCACAF Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Guadalajara, Mexico – a run that ended with a semifinal loss the "El Tri."

HIGH SCHOOL / CLUB

Played club soccer for West Chester, Penn. side FC Delco, helping the club to the 2001 U-19 Snickers United States Youth National Championship when he hit the game-winning goal in a 1-0 final victory ... Named All-State in New York as both a junior and a senior at St. John the Baptist High School, where he also lettered in tennis, his favorite sport after soccer.

2010 IN REVIEW

2010 SEASON IN REVIEW

Real Salt Lake's title defense lasted nearly 10 months from March to November, a sometimes arduous stretch that saw the six-year old organization's first foray into meaningful international competition, a visit to the White House to commemorate the MLS Cup Championship in 2009 and an ultimately shocking and disappointing "game for the ages" in Mexico City that had the U.S. soccer blogosphere hyperventilating with anticipation.

On a November evening in the RSL locker room, eyes filled with tears found it impossible to believe that after losing just four games out of 38 in all competitions over the previous six months that an incredibly dynamic, record-setting season – one when many "firsts" were accomplished – was now over, and that another team – eventually, its chief rival – would be crowned MLS Cup champion.

While Real Salt Lake did not repeat – something that has occurred just twice in Major League Soccer's 15 seasons – Jason Kreis' team accomplished several franchise and American soccer milestones that contribute to an "unfinished business" fuel for 2011. Depth was a massive key to the team's success in 2010, as RSL saw 16 different players score in three competitions, and a total of 23 players earning starts. Therefore, it can truly be called a TEAM effort as Real Salt Lake established new all-time MLS standards in several categories, including: fewest goals allowed (20), overall goal differential (+25), total home points (37), fewest home losses (0) and fewest home goals allowed (7) during the 2010 season.

While RSL was the highest-scoring team in MLS last year with 45 goals in 30 games for an average of 1.50 goals/game, defense takes precedence in Jason Kreis' "Team is the Star" system. The total commitment of all 11 players on the field to the defensive side of the ball allowed 2010 Real Salt Lake to amass two of the top four shutout streaks in MLS history. GK Nick Rimando played all 568 minutes of the third longest streak for a team and goalkeeper during August and September, which surpassed – by one minute – the run accumulated from late May to mid-July, during which Rimando contributed 511 minutes of spotless soccer.

RSL concluded the 2010 season with just 20 goals allowed in 30 games – smashing the previous record of 23 goals conceded in 30 games, a mark set by the 2007 Houston Dynamo. The average of just 0.67 goals allowed per game was by far the lowest GAA in team history (2009, 1.17 goals/game). The total of 15 shutouts (14 Rimando, 1 Reynish) far surpasses the all-time team season mark of 10 clean sheets, set during the MLS Cup-winning 2009 campaign. Rimando surpassed by three clean sheets his personal-best season total of 11 shutouts, set in 2005 with D.C. United, when he appeared between the pipes for all 2700 minutes of his team's 30 regular-season games.

The team's commitment to defense resulted in not one, but both regular centerbacks – Nat Borchers and Jamison Olave, the combination affectionately known as "Bor-Lave" – named to the 2010 MLS Best XI, while All-Star GK Nick Rimando was a finalist – and, ultimately, an unceremonious snub – for the League's annual Goalkeeper of the Year honor.

Also receiving year-end accolades around MLS was team MVP Javier Morales, finally receiving the richly-deserved league-wide recognition that had eluded him in 2008 and 2009 as the sublime playmaker joined Borchers and Olave on the Best XI selection. Also an All-Star, Morales was a two-time MLS Player of the Week, each following two-goal performances against San Jose and Columbus, earned Goal of the Week honors against Houston, and tallied the game-winning goal in the 80th minute of a mid-June game – albeit controversially – at home just prior to the FIFA World Cup 2010 South Africa over previously-undefeated Los Angeles.

Morales was the straw that stirred the potent drink that was the RSL attack, the team setting franchise records in wins (15), goals (45), scoring output (1.50/game), points (56), shutouts (15), road points (19) and road goal differential (+1). The prime beneficiary of Morales' mastery? The man who would win MLS Newcomer of the Year honors, Costa Rican striker Álvaro Saborio.

"Sabo" joined RSL late in the preseason on loan from Swiss club FC Sion after a dismal period at Bristol City in England. The former Saprissa star made an immediate impact for Jason Kreis' team, coming off the bench in the team's home opener against Seattle and tallying a stoppage-time equalizer to ensure that the sell-out crowd – many of whom had come to celebrate the pre-game raising of the MLS Cup 2009 championship banner and the players' ring ceremony – went home happy. That goal was the first of 18 in 32 MLS and CCL games for Saborio, who tallied five games with two or more goals and demonstrated a penchant for clutch scores, with two stoppage-time equalizers and two game-winning goals in the 85th minute or beyond.

Never was Real Salt Lake's "never stop fighting" attitude on display brighter than it was in the regular-season finale at Colorado in a game that would determine the winner of the 2010 Rocky Mountain Cup. RSL, seemingly exhausted by the 22,000 miles spent criss-crossing North America as part of CONCACAF Champions League Group Play, was down 0-2 to the rival Rapids in a game that had MLS Cup Playoff seeding and Supporters Shield implications for both teams.

In the 90th minute, Colorado 'keeper Matt Pickens took a little extra time clearing a back pass, allowing the "always hunting" Saborio to get his outstretched foot on the ball, which bounced off the ground behind Pickens and struck the Colorado crossbar. With a backtracking Pickens losing his balance searching to recover from the gaffe, Saborio, in true poacher fashion, slammed home the ball to cut the Colorado lead to just one goal in perhaps the most bizarre scoring play of the MLS season. Five minutes later, deep into stoppage time, Sabo converted a penalty kick for the equalizer, which ensured that RSL – despite its worst performance in months – would earn a point to tie Los Angeles in the Supporters Shield race entering the final day of the season and retain the valued Rocky Mountain Cup for the fourth consecutive season.

Saborio also shone brightest in key moments during RSL's CONCACAF run, scoring six goals in five group games and leading the Claret-and-Cobalt to become the first-ever MLS team (and one of just 3 non-Mexican teams) to win a CONCACAF group, posting a 4-1-1 mark (with 13 points, one ahead of Mexican power Cruz Azul) and advancing to the Championship Stage. Real Salt Lake, which also saw Will Johnson, Fabian Espindola, Paulo Junior, Kyle Beckerman, Javier Morales, Jamison Olave and Collen Warner score CCL goals, was the 2nd highest-scoring team in the 2010/11 tournament, with 17 goals across six games (2.83 goals/game).

The team's CCL campaign will be remembered by MLS fans across the globe due to the team's rain-soaked tilt with Mexican power Cruz Azul. Hailed as an instant classic and a game for the ages, RSL trailed 0-1 in Mexico City before earning a 2-1 halftime lead and a 3-1 advantage in the 74th minute, courtesy of a Saborio brace and his set-up for Fabian Espindola. In devastating fashion on a pitch with massive amounts of standing water, Cruz Azul scored three goals in the final quarter-hour (75', 88', 89') amid the monsoon-like conditions to take the lead into stoppage time.

In yet another "never say die" moment for RSL, Canadian international Will Johnson slotted home a ball at 92+ to knot the game at 4-4, but Mexican international Christian Jimenez scored just seconds after the ensuing kickoff to deny RSL – and MLS – the first-ever American club victory on Mexican soil. From May 1 to Oct. 19, RSL amassed 64 points in 30 games played – the equivalent of an MLS season – in combined MLS and CCL play, a points haul equal to the 3rd-best run EVER by an MLS team (Los Angeles in 1997/98 and 2009/10 accrued 70 and 66 points over a 30-game period).

In 2010, RSL extended its Rio Tinto Stadium dominance (11-0-4 MLS, 3-0-0 CCL) to become just the second MLS team to post an undefeated home campaign (San Jose 2005). Entering 2011, the home unbeaten streak is at 25 MLS games and counting, 33 if you include Playoffs, CCL and international exhibitions. In MLS play, RSL has outscored league opponents 53-12, with 15 different scorers (Saborio and former striker Robbie Findley lead with nine goals each).

2010 AWARD WINNERS

MLS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Week 1 - MF Javier Morales - His pair of stunning upper-90 seeking bombs, an assist on Espindola's insurance tally, and overall dominance of the middle of the park sparked RSL to a 3-0 win @ SJ in the 2010 season opener

Week 8 - FW Álvaro Saborio - Lashed a 24' low line drive to the near post to give RSL a 2-0 lead v. nemesis Houston, then added another in the 60' with a point-blank header off a succinct Javier Morales free kick

Week 20 - MF Javier Morales - The Argentine playmaker scored on two scintillating shots, first in the 11th minute from the corner of the penalty box to give RSL an early lead, then icing the game with a 60th minute free kick through the wall and again into the far side

MLS GOAL OF THE WEEK

Week 2 - MF Javier Morales - The beneficiary of the ultimate "team" goal, Morales took a ball that had come to him off a Nick Rimando free kick, played it forward to new teammate Álvaro Saborio. The Costa Rican international slotted it to Captain Kyle Beckerman, who found an onrushing Morales in the box, with the Argentine playmaker beating Houston GK Pat Onstad to the far post

Week 17 - MF Ned Grabavoy - Coming off the bench in the 62nd minute for returning starter Kyle Beckerman, Grabavoy latched onto a cleared RSL corner kick and laced a left-footed volley from 20 yards out into the far upper corner to give RSL a 1-0 home lead

Week 25 - DF Nat Borchers - Crashing the box with literally seconds left in the game, down 0-1 to rival Colorado [his former team!] with a league-record 24-game home unbeaten streak on the line, the towering defender rose up between two Rapids players to nod home with a reverse header a flighted ball by RSL original Andy Williams for the late equalizer, snapping Borchers' personal 41-game scoreless streak

MLS PLAYER OF THE MONTH

June - FW Álvaro Saborio - Recent addition spearheaded RSL's attack in a perfect 5-0-0 month of May, when he notched four goals and three assists (2 GWG, 1 GWA) in helping the squad to its first-ever 5-game win streak in League competition

June - GK Nick Rimando - RSL's all-time leading 'keeper did not allow a goal in June, helping the team to a 1-0-2 mark and making 15 saves in three games, including a stellar effort at home against MLS-leading L.A. Galaxy just prior to the World Cup hiatus

NOTES & QUOTES – SJ 0 : 3 RSL

- The three-goal outburst was in stark contrast to RSL's road performance to start the season a year ago, when it failed to tally until its sixth road contest and didn't collect a win until its seventh road match, a 2-1 result at the LA Galaxy on June 13.
- When combined with its playoff run last November, Real Salt Lake is now undefeated in its last four away or neutral-field contests (2-0-2), this after going just 2-11-2 in road contests during the '09 regular-season.
- This marked Morales' first multi-goal performance in an RSL uniform in his 63rd regular-season appearance since joining the squad in August 2007.
- Tonight's victory tied the largest margin of victory on the road in RSL history, a 3-0 result at the LA Galaxy on May 16, 2006.
- A pair of players – Álvaro Saborío and Rauwshan McKenzie – made their Real Salt Lake debuts on the evening.
- Kreis on the first road win: "It is very nice to get the first win of the season on the road. Getting a shutout in this first road match was very important for us. A lot of good things happened for us tonight. We wanted to establish a foundation of how we are going to play this season and we came out strong tonight and got the result we wanted."

NOTES & QUOTES – HOU 2 : 1 RSL

- Javier Morales' third goal of 2010 placed him alone atop of the MLS Golden Boot race ever so briefly, as he was later tied by LA's Edson Buddle, who tallied twice in the Galaxy's 2-0 win vs. Chivas after scoring in LA's 1-0 win over New England in its previous match.
- The 1-2 loss dropped RSL to 0-6-1 all-time at Robertson Stadium, with all six losses coming by one goal. Despite the winless mark, Real Salt Lake has still never been shut out in its seven visits to Houston.
- Álvaro Saborío recorded his first MLS assist and his first MLS start tonight at Houston, after the Costa Rican international had scored 133 goals in 257 games across his club career with Saprissa, FC Sion and Bristol City.
- Nelson González also made his MLS debut, playing the final 15 minutes after coming on for Will Johnson. González joined RSL last July during the summer window from Quilmes (Argentina).
- Jason Kreis: "It's good to be on the road at Houston up a goal at halftime, but for me we could still do better. I thought our biggest problems were coming when we just weren't possessing the ball enough, and that continued in the second half and probably got a little bit worse than it was in the first. We live and die with the ball. We need to possess the ball, and we didn't do it well enough tonight."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 2 : 2 SEA

- In an early season match between two of the top teams in the Western Conference, RSL would salvage a point by scoring a stoppage time goal that would knot the score up, 2-2, against Seattle Sounders FC.
- This was the home opener for the Utah side and began with a pregame ceremony in which each player from the 2009 MLS Cup Championship side received their championship rings.
- Will Johnson's 53rd minute goal was one to be remembered, as Robbie Findley sent a ball into the box and Johnson laid-out for at full stretch for a diving header that tied the match at 1-1.
- Álvaro Saborío and Nelson González made their Rio Tinto Stadium debuts in MLS play, and Saborío would score his first MLS goal with less than a minute left in stoppage, a goal that was sent in on a corner kick by Gonzalez, who tallied his first assist in MLS play.
- Jason Kreis: "I'm asking for better. When we win, I'm asking for better. When we lost in Houston, I'm asking for better possession. Tonight we have some fantastic things; to react the way we did and to get a draw is very good, but I'm asking for better again. So we'll continue to set the bar high and I know the players can live up to that."

- After getting out to a two-goal lead, RSL gave up three unanswered to the 'Quakes, but Nat Borchers' header in the dying moments of added extra time allowed RSL to advance to penalties, which it took by a 5-3 margin to advance to the second MLS qualifying round of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup.
- Jason Kreis: "It seems like these Open Cup games are crazy affairs for us, at least they have been the last couple of years. To be up two goals, and then go down 3-2, and then tie it up in the waning moments and win it in penalties, we have to look at this as a positive thing. I feel very good about the way our team reacted to what could have been a very disappointing situation."

NOTES & QUOTES - LA 2 : 1 RSL

- In the first of two MLS Cup 2009 rematches this season, Real Salt Lake fell to Los Angeles at The Home Depot Center by a 2-1 margin. The result snapped RSL's seven-game unbeaten streak against the Western Conference leader, bringing the Utah side's all-time record in regular season play against the Galaxy to 5-6-1.
- Captain Kyle Beckerman's tally in the 41' was his first of the 2010 campaign, and the first allowed by the Galaxy, snapping their shutout streak to begin the season at 311 minutes.
- LA Galaxy FW Edson Buddle's brace increased his MLS-best goal total to seven for the year.
- Jason Kreis: "[We] played outstanding. We all knew the circumstances coming into this game. Having played 120 minutes Wednesday night was a difficult situation for us, and our guys handled it really well. For me, the details of the game are still some of the hardest to put together. When you don't have 100% fitness, when you are not 100% ready. You can see tonight, Edson [Buddle] makes two fantastic individual plays and that is the difference in the game."

NOTES & QUOTES – CLB 1 : 0 RSL

- The 1-0 win for the Crew was a matter of revenge, as the match marked the first meeting between the two sides since Real Salt Lake bounced the Black-and-Gold from the 2009 postseason last Nov. 5 via a 3-2 Leg Two victory at Crew Stadium.
- For the second time already this season, Real Salt Lake saw a penalty kick stand as the only shot on goal against it in a match. On April 1 at Houston, both the Dynamo's shots on frame came via Brad Davis PK conversions in a 1-2 RSL loss at Robertson Stadium.
- Real Salt Lake rookie MF Collen Warner earned the first MLS start of his career, logging 62 minutes in the rain-soaked match.
- Nick Rimando on the squad's start to the season: "I think it's most important that we have faith in ourselves and then it helps to have a coaching staff that works with us and reminds that we did it all last year and we had a bad record in the beginning. Ours isn't too bad right now – there's worse out there – so we're going home for the next three games and if we get nine points out of that, then good; but if not, we've still got a long season."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 2 : 1 TOR

- The first match of a three-game home stand went on without a hitch as RSL was able to overcome another penalty kick – the fourth of the young season against the defending Champions – to notch a 2-1 victory.
- Toronto Head Coach Preki made all three of his available substitutions as the Claret-and-Cobalt went into half-time leading the Reds by a score of 2-0
- After nearly being knocked unconscious in the early going, Real Salt Lake DF Jamison Olave was not only able to recover, but minutes later put the finishing touch on a Saborio header for his first goal of the 2010 season.
- Jason Kreis: "... We were running the risk of now becoming not so positive about the way we're playing, but in the locker room we've felt very good about how we've played in every single match. But you need results sometimes to bolster that confidence, and tonight that's the most important thing that comes out of it for us."
- Andy Williams: "They came out ... and tried to sit back, so we needed to be patient, keep the ball moving and try to get one or two touches, and it paid off. Our movement was great tonight. Our form in midfield was outstanding, our outside backs were pretty good with helping us out, and our spacing was much better."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 3 : 0 PHI

- Jamison Olave's goal was his 2nd of the season and RSL's 200th tally in regular-season play.
- Nick Rimando notched his 62nd career shutout and his first since the season opener on March 27 at San Jose (3-0 W). The win also extended RSL's home undefeated streak to 13 games.
- Robbie Findley was subbed out of the match late in the first half due to a back bruise.
- Jason Kreis: "I really was displeased with our first half. I really felt like Philadelphia was the better team. We were very fortunate to have a lead at all. I felt like Philadelphia wanted the game more in the first half and that is unacceptable, and we let the players know that. There was no disagreement, and what we saw was a fantastic reaction in the second half. We ended up getting what we deserved in the end, which was a result."
- Kyle Beckerman on his goal: "'Sabo' has been [turning back passes into scoring opportunities]; he did it in Columbus and almost caught one. He seems to kind of sniff those out, and he was able to do it again. I saw him do it and, I don't know what made me get going, but something in my mind made me get on my horse and run towards goal just in case that ball pops out. Once it did, I just hit it."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 3 : 1 HOU

- Real Salt Lake avenged its loss in Houston and started early with a Kyle Beckerman to Robbie Findley goal in the 3rd minute. The goal was Findley's first of the year, this after his 12 goals last season paced the young striker to the team's Golden Boot award.
- Costa Rican international Álvaro Saborío is making a quick impact with his new squad, as his brace for the home side upped his goal tally to four in his first eight appearances for the Utah side.
- MF Javier Morales served up assists on both of Saborío's goals, giving him three helpers in his last two games and four overall on the young season.
- The win snapped RSL's eight-game winless streak against its Western Conference nemesis, its last victory over Houston coming back in August of 2007.
- Captain Kyle Beckerman: "It was a big step for us to get towards where we want to be, and that's an elite team in this league. If we're going to do that we've got to beat everyone, and that includes Houston. We wanted to jump on them and show that we were ready to play right away."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 1 MEX U-21

- The RSL Reserves settled for a 1-1 draw in an international friendly that was chippy, to say the least. In all, 33 fouls were called and eight cards were shown, including a red card to MF Jean Alexandre that forced RSL to finish a man down.
- The Claret-and-Cobalt tallied the first goal of the match a little before the hour mark when FW Pablo Campos put away MF Nelson González's square ball from 10 yards out.
- The Utah side looked as though they would grind out the win before the 84th minute, when Mexico U-21 MF Erben Trejo knocked home a 25-yard free kick that was spotted perfectly in the upper right 90.
- Jason Kreis: "Today was a big opportunity for a lot of players that don't get to play regularly to step up and impress over 90 minutes against a good side. I was proud of our effort; we worked hard out there. I thought it went back and forth out there today."

NOTES & QUOTES – CHV 1 : 2 RSL

- Real Salt Lake matched a franchise-high winning streak with its fourth consecutive victory and captured its second road win of 2010 with a 2-1 decision over 2005 expansion classmate Chivas USA.
- Fabián Espíndola tallied the game-winner in the 89th minute, while GK Nick Rimando stonewalled the home side with three saves en route to the 97th victory (31st in an RSL uniform) of his illustrious career.
- DF Chris Wingert ended a lackluster first half with a flourish, slamming home the rebound of a Javier Morales shot off the post to notch his first career goal in 147 MLS regular season games, snapping the second-longest active scoreless streak (Chris Leitch, San Jose, 175 games) and the fifth-longest streak in league history to begin a career.
- FW Álvaro Saborio earned an assist on the game-winning goal, giving him a goal or an assist in four consecutive contests – all RSL wins.
- Jason Kreis: “I thought we were difficult; we defended really well for the 80 minutes out of the 90, so some positives. We need to be fairly critical of giving up that goal the way we did, but then the reaction after that, extremely pleased. Fabián comes on and makes the difference, and we walk away with three points, so that’s great.”

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 4 : 1 KC

- Real Salt Lake notched five consecutive wins in MLS play for the first time in the club's six-year history with the result over KC and improved its already club-record home undefeated streak to an impressive 15 games.
- With his 34th minute goal, FW Álvaro Saborío recorded a point in his fifth straight contest.
- DF Robbie Russell snapped a 38-game goalless streak in MLS regular season play with his 84th minute tally.
- The goal for MF Ned Grabavoy was his first with RSL in 25 games since joining the squad prior to the '09 season.
- Jason Kreis: "It was not a great night of soccer on our part; it was a little disjointed. I don't think we passed the ball as well as we have on past occasions. But it was good to see that we made the critical plays and we head out of here with three points."

NOTES & QUOTES – DC 2 : 1 RSL

- Several of Real Salt Lake's reserves saw minutes in this second MLS qualifying round of the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, as Kyle Beckerman, Robbie Findley, Andy Williams, Chris Wingert and Nelson Gonzalez were all out due to injury or international duty.
- RSL was still unable to tally the squad's first-ever road win in the U.S. Open Cup, the match pushing the Utah side's all-time away mark in the tournament to 0-5-1.
- MF Will Johnson's 80' PK served as the equalizer before D.C. United prodigy Andy Najar tallied the game-winner early in the 2nd OT period
- Tonight marked the official RSL debut in League or Cup competition for a pair of rookies. DF Chris Schuler was plugged into the starting XI on the left side of the RSL backline and went 63 minutes on the evening, while 16-year-old Luis Gil played the final 30 minutes and provided RSL's best chance for an equalizer, as his shot was cleared off the line in the 118th minute.

NOTES & QUOTES – DC 0 : 0 RSL

- By earning the hard-fought road point against United, the Utah side saw the longest winning streak in team history snapped at five games. However, the draw also gave Real Salt Lake the first six-game undefeated streak in MLS play in team history, this after having recorded similar five-game runs on five previous occasions in its six-year existence.
- The shutout for Rimando against his former side was the 63rd of his MLS career, pushing him past Tony Meola on the League's all-time chart and into a fourth place tie with Houston backstop Pat Onstad.
- Tonight's result kept Real Salt Lake winless at RFK Stadium, the Claret-and-Cobalt's record moving to 0-4-3 in all competitions against United after a loss and draw in the Nation's Capital this week.
- Kreis on the match: "I think it feels like what it was: a well, hard-fought-for draw. Probably the most important thing to come out of that was a shutout. We've been stressing that every match for the past four or five matches, and we've always come up short, so to get it tonight is pleasing, and I think all of us have to feel good about it."
- Rimando on the clean sheet: "We've been stressing that for a while. We had been winning games by four goals, three goals, but we'd still let in a goal. Tonight that was stressed a lot, and if we weren't going to get the 3 points, we weren't going to let one [goal] up."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 0 LA

- The victory for Real Salt Lake resulted not only in the first defeat of the 2010 campaign for the Galaxy, but also allowed the defending champs to continue a pair of club-record streaks of their own, their home undefeated run now stretching to 16 games in MLS play (17 games overall counting MLS Cup Playoffs) and their overall unbeaten streak in League play improving to seven matches (6-0-1).
- The contest between MLS' two highest-scoring teams got off to slow start, but through no fault of either side, as a lightning delay in the 13th minute caused a 37-minute stoppage in play.
- With Real Salt Lake FW Pablo Campos carrying the ball at the edge of the area, back-tracking Galaxy DF Michael Stephens knocked the ball behind his backline and directly to RSL MF Javier Morales, who calmly finished past Galaxy GK Donovan Ricketts from 12 yards out.
- Morales' fourth goal of the season marked the first goal allowed on the road this season by the Galaxy, breaking its away shutout streak at 530 minutes.

• Jason Kreis: "We keep telling our guys that good things happen when we defend well. We're in their attacking third ... Pablo (Campos) made a block on their defender, it hits off another defender and goes straight to Javier (Morales). Good things happen when we are alert defensively."

- RSL's record is now 7-4-3 all-time in friendly matches. With the win, Real Salt Lake bumped its 13-month home undefeated streak up to 20 contests (14-0-6) across regular season, playoff and friendly contests.
- 14 of RSL's 22 shots came in the second half of the game.
- Jason Kreis: "Our biggest goal was to get the guys prepared for next weekend (against San Jose). There were some other separate goals – getting guys like Jean Alexandre extended minutes; Chris Schuler, getting him some of his first minutes with the first team at center back, and Luis Gil got a little bit of a run. There were separate things we were looking for from the younger players and I thought everyone performed well."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 0 : 0 SJ

- Real Salt Lake and the San Jose Earthquakes would bring Major League Soccer back from its World Cup break, but the goals would stay on hiatus as the West rivals settled for a share of the spoils from a 0-0 draw.
- RSL netminder Nick Rimando showed no signs of rustiness, making eight saves on the evening. The shutout for Rimando marked his third consecutive clean sheet and was the 65th of his MLS career (4th all-time). His current 318-minute shutout streak is the second-longest in club annals (he also leads with a 355-minute streak from June 28-July 28, 2008).
- With the draw, Real Salt Lake pushed its club-record undefeated streak in League play to eight games (6-0-2).
- The point also bettered RSL's club-record home unbeaten streak in MLS action to 17 games (11-0-6), which is now tied for the third-longest such run in League history.
- Jason Kreis: "Our energy wasn't good enough in first half and it got a little better in second half. I felt like we let 45 minutes slip tonight with our play in the first half, and it cost us. We're very frustrated, we're very disappointed. The only thing I can contribute it to is maybe a little bit of complacency."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 5 : 0 NE

- RSL rebounded from a disappointing goal-less draw last weekend against San Jose by putting five on the board tonight against the New England Revolution in a dominating 5-0 victory in front of 19,101 fans in Sandy.
- With the win, RSL pushed its club-record undefeated streak in League play to nine games (7-0-2), the second longest-such streak in MLS this season behind the LA Galaxy's 12-game run – which RSL ended on June 9.
- The three-point result also bettered RSL's club-record home unbeaten streak in MLS action to 18 games (12-0-6), which is now tied for the second-longest such run in League history (Columbus – 22, 2008-09).
- Real Salt Lake's five goals were the second most in a regular season contest for the Claret-and-Cobalt, bested only by the six-spot the Utah side put up against the same Revolution side last April 25.
- Nick Rimando recorded his 100th in regular season play, putting him in the League's "century club" alongside Kevin Hartman, Zach Thornton, RSL alum Scott Garlick, and Joe Cannon.
- Jason Kreis: "We talked all week about a reaction, a response to last weekend (0-0 vs. San Jose), and I don't think we could have asked for much more."

NOTES & QUOTES – CHI 0 : 1 RSL

- Real Salt Lake used a penalty kick from FW Robbie Findley, a stout defensive effort, and a little help from the woodwork to post a hard-fought 1-0 road victory over the Fire.
- Findley earned the kick from the spot himself after it was ruled Fire DF C.J. Brown knocked him over in the area, the striker sending Chicago GK Andrew Dykstra the wrong way before slotting his shot just inside the right post.
- With the victory, Real Salt Lake pushed its club-record undefeated streak in League play to 10 games (8-0-2).
- The shutout for Nick Rimando was his fifth straight clean sheet, his seventh of the season, and the 67th of his career (4th all-time, now 5 behind Zach Thornton). The reigning MLS Player of the Month's personal and club-record 498-minute shutout streak is now the 5th longest in MLS history for a goalkeeper.
- The 30 points accrued at the halfway point of the season easily marks the most by RSL through 15 games, the previous high-water mark standing at 19 points during both the 2008 and 2009 seasons.
- Jason Kreis: "Really just so proud of our guys tonight ... I felt like in the second half, more than anything else, we battled. We showed we can do that. For the majority of the season I'd say we're a team that's played pretty soccer and hasn't had to really battle for things. I am just pleased with our guys because they fought through and got the result. It was a fortunate night for us. At the beginning we were begging for a bounce and now we're getting a few."

- The loss ended the Utah side's club-record undefeated run in MLS play at 10 games (8-0-2), giving RSL its first taste of defeat since a 0-1 loss at Columbus all the way back on April 24.
- For the first time in 2010, RSL coach Jason Kreis scrapped his usual 4-4-2 formation in favor of a 4-5-1, with Jean Alexandre and Ned Grabavoy sitting in front of the back four and Robbie Findley serving as the lone striker.
- Shea's goal in the 69th minute also halted the shutout streak of Real Salt Lake and goalkeeper Nick Rimando at 566 minutes, giving club and 'keeper the third longest shutout streaks in League history.
- The defeat was the eighth in as many tries for Real Salt Lake at FC Dallas, the last seven of which have been contested at Pizza Hut Park.
- Jason Kreis: "First and foremost, I'm looking in the mirror about the decision to change the formation. Ultimately I think we have to consider all things when we put the players in different positions. We're frustrated because we're not possessing the ball; there's reasons for that, we're going to have to analyze that decision to see if we should make that decision moving forward and we've got to continue to learn as coaches."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 1 CHV

- After pressing the issue for most of the first hour, Real Salt Lake would take the lead in the 66th minute through MF Ned Grabavoy's fantastic volley from the edge of the area off a poorly cleared corner.
- However, the lead would last only four minutes, as MF Jesus Padilla made an instant impact off the bench for Chivas USA, his dipping shot sneaking through the legs of RSL GK Nick Rimando.
- Real Salt Lake saw the return of MF Kyle Beckerman to the line-up, the 28-year-old captain hitting the field for the first time since suffering a torn tendon in his left foot at Chivas USA back on May 22.
- Jason Kreis: "There were a couple of opportunities where I thought we could have done better, and maybe we should have done better. And obviously we made a mistake in front of our goal, but we win together and lose together. It would be easy to stand here and say 'I can't believe Nick Rimando would make that kind of mistake,' but the converse of that is 'I can't believe our midfielders and forwards didn't put more goals in.'"

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 3 : 0 DC

- Real Salt Lake moved the scoreboard early on, as FW Álvaro Saborío snuck a low shot through United GK Troy Perkins from 10 yards out to give the Utahans a 1-0 advantage just before a quarter-hour had expired.
- RSL's attacking pressure would pay off late, as FW Robbie Findley would notch an insurance tally in the 79th minute, while MF Nelson González – making his return from injury – scored his first career MLS goal on a beautiful chip in stoppage time.
- The result pushed the second longest home undefeated streak in Major League Soccer regular season play to 20 games, now just two behind the record of 22 set by the Columbus Crew (2008-09).
- With his goal, Gonzalez became the 12th different player to score in MLS play for Real Salt Lake this season.
- Jason Kreis: "... oftentimes that first goal can be what makes or breaks the game for you. It changes tactics. We have had a lot of teams that come in lately and sit. If we can't score that first goal, then they are content to do that. Once you score that goal, they've got to open up. As we've seen before, we're pretty dangerous when teams open up against us."

NOTES & QUOTES – KC 1 : 1 RSL

- RSL fell behind early when Kansas City striker Kei Kamara headed home strongly off a FW Ryan Smith cross in the 21st minute.
- However, Robbie Findley would answer 12 minutes later, running onto DF Robbie Russell's pinpoint cross to the top of the six and finishing with an open header of his own, the low shot sneaking just inside the left post and past helpless Wizards GK Jimmy Nielsen.
- Findley has been on a tear since rejoining Real Salt Lake following his stint at the FIFA World Cup in South Africa, with four of his five tallies coming in the six contests since returning from U.S. Men's National Team's duty.
- Real Salt Lake debuted a new look for the contest, as the squad unveiled its "Victory Gold" third kits at CommunityAmerica Ballpark.
- Jason Kreis: "With a different group of players – a year ago, two years ago, three years ago – that would have been a loss tonight. Our guys responded very positively and showed again their belief in themselves. To get the goal back and battle for the rest of the 90 minutes was important to us."

NOTES & QUOTES – PHI 1 : 1 RSL

- In the middle of a congested schedule, Real Salt Lake made several changes to its lineup and still managed a favorable result on the road, a 1-1 draw against the Philadelphia Union in the Utah side's first-ever visit to PPL Park.
- Reserve GK Kyle Reynish made six saves in his first career MLS start since being drafted in 2007.
- For the second consecutive outing, Real Salt Lake fell behind early, this time when Philadelphia striker Danny Mwanga played a quick one-two with Sebastien Le Toux to get in alone on Reynish, slotting home the goal in the 8th minute.
- FW Fabián Espíndola equalized for the Utah side just eight minutes later, taking a deflected cross from right back Tony Beltran and running at former teammate and current Union netminder Chris Seitz, blasting near post from six yards out for the critical lever.
- FW Pablo Campos and DF Rauwshan McKenzie each made their first MLS starts of the 2010 season, while DF Tony Beltran and MF Jean Alexandre saw their first starts in nearly a month.

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 2 : 0 CLB

- With the big 2-0 win, Real Salt Lake vaulted the Crew for second place in the overall MLS standings and improved its home undefeated streak in regular season play to 21 games (14-0-7), just one away from the record the Crew set across the 2008-09 seasons.
- Since a 0-1 defeat at Columbus on April 24, Real Salt Lake has tasted defeat just once in 16 MLS matches, going an impressive 10-1-5 during the stretch.
- The brace for Javier Morales was the second of his MLS career since joining Real Salt Lake in 2007 – and his second of the season, following his season-opening two-goal display at San Jose back on March 27.
- The clean sheet was the 69th of Nick Rimando's MLS career, putting him four behind Zach Thornton (CHV) and Joe Cannon (SJ) for second place in the League's all-time annals.
- DF Nat Borchers: "We dominated possession, and defensively I thought we were really sharp. From minute one we played really well, so I think that this was one of our best results. It was about us tonight – how we were going to come out, how we were going to play, our energy level, how we were going to create chances. Javier [Morales] had just a dominating performance in the midfield and he changed the game."

- It was a veteran of CCL play, FW Álvaro Saborío, who played the hero for the home side, hitting home late in both halves, including a PK four minutes into second half stoppage time gave RSL a win in its CCL debut.
- Árabe Unido MF Armando Cooper's deflected shot got past GK Nick Rimando 13 minutes in, but equalizing appeared to get easier when DF Nahil Carroll was shown a straight red card for a challenge on Kyle Beckerman in the 29th.

Jason Kreis: "We've been talking a lot about being down a goal and how many teams don't do well in that situation. We went down a goal tonight and we win, which is the first time we've done that all season – and I think that's important."

NOTES & QUOTES – CAZ 5 : 4 RSL

- Real Salt Lake nearly made MLS history by becoming the first team to win a match on Mexican soil, but a late collapse resulted in a 4-5 defeat to Cruz Azul in one of the more memorable games in CONCACAF history.
- After allowing a disputable goal by Javier Orozco five minutes in, RSL answered with two by Álvaro Saborio – who notched a brace for the second straight CCL match – and another by Fabián Espindola by the middle of the second half to take a 3-1 lead in monsoon-like conditions on a largely flooded Estadio Azul pitch.
- But Orozco wasn't finished, scoring thrice in the final 15 minutes to put the home side up. Will Johnson evened the dramatic affair in the 92nd minute, but on the final play it was Christian Gimenez's deflected shot from the top of the box that would bring heartbreak to the Utah side and leave it on the brink of MLS history.
- Jason Kreis: "I think we have to take a lot of positive things away from this match. We came down here and did what we set out to do, which was not to sit back and defend the entire match. We came out here and tried to put our best foot forward and go on the attack, and if you can put up four goals on Cruz Azul at their place you have to say you've done that."

NOTES & QUOTES – TOR 0 : 0 RSL

- Real Salt Lake rebounded from Wednesday's epic CONCACAF battle in Mexico City with a stellar effort nearly 3,000 miles north, earning its 11th road point of the season and remaining undefeated in 16 of its last 17 MLS contests with a scoreless tie at a hostile BMO Field. The road point earned equals the organization's highest-ever away point total with eight games left.
- RSL GK Nick Rimando and the defense, led by Nat Borchers and Jamison Olave, equaled a team record with the team's 10th clean sheet of the season, Rimando posting the 70th of his career, the 4th highest total in MLS annals.
- RSL was unlucky not to have left Canada with three points, as both DF Chris Wingert and MF Will Johnson hit the same left post in the final 10 minutes of the game, this after FW Fabián Espíndola had rounded Toronto netminder Stefan Frei and shot wide right earlier in the 2nd half.
- Real Salt Lake remained winless at Toronto's BMO Field, with a pair of 0-0 draws in 2007 and 2010 sandwiching 0-1 losses in 2008 and 2009.
- MF Will Johnson: "We're in a good spot. We've put ourselves in a good position. We've got 40 points with eight games to go and last year we won the MLS Cup with 40 points, so we're definitely in a much better spot than we were last year. At the same time there's still a lot of room to grow, we're a few plays away from really being out front in this league."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 0 NY

- Real Salt Lake grabbed a piece of League history during its 1-0 win, the result allowing the defending MLS Cup champs to equal the Major League Soccer record for the longest home undefeated streak in regular season play at 22 games (15-0-7), a mark originally set by the 2008-09 Columbus Crew.
- The contest started out brightly for the home side, which went up just four minutes in after MF Kyle Beckerman's chip at midfield sprang FW Fabián Espíndola behind the Red Bulls backline. The Argentine striker would fend off DF Tim Ream and knock the ball past onrushing 'keeper Greg Sutton and inside the right post.
- GK Nick Rimando was on the spot to collect four saves, while Beckerman and MF Andy Williams both cleared shots off the RSL goalline during the contest to keep the clean sheet – RSL's 11th shutout of the season.
- The triumph also allowed Real Salt Lake to set new single-season records in points (43) and wins (12), despite the fact that seven regular season games remain on the team's 2010 slate.
- Jason Kreis: "We feel really good about [the home undefeated streak] now. I think in our next match we will be gangbusters going to break the record. It is important to us. We take a lot of pride in our building, as I've said before. I think it's more than a building for us since a lot of us have been here since the place opened up. It feels a little bit more like a home."

NOTES & QUOTES – SEA 0 : 0 RSL

- Another stout defensive effort by Real Salt Lake allowed the defending MLS Cup champions to wring a hard-fought road point from a 0-0 draw with Seattle Sounders FC in front of 36,078 at Qwest Field.
- In RSL's first visit back to Seattle since last November's MLS Cup triumph, the visitors continued their record-setting defensive pace, collecting its 12th shutout of the season despite missing four regular starters.
- This marks the first time in Real Salt Lake's six-year history in which the Utah side has had at least a share of the League's top spot.
- The draw also marked the 18th time in RSL's last 19 League contests in which it has claimed at least a point, the defending champs going 11-1-7 since May 1 after a 1-3-1 start to the season.
- Tonight marked the MLS debut for DF Chris Schuler, who played a standout 90 minutes next to Nat Borchers.
- The tie also marked the second start in MLS play for GK Kyle Reynish, the 4th year pro earning his first professional shutout in the most hostile of MLS environments.
- Real Salt Lake pushed its current shutout streak to 442 minutes, which now stands as the third longest in MLS play this season.
- Jason Kreis: "I'm thrilled for more reasons than just the result. The guys put in great effort tonight and the attention to detail was amazing. The commitment level was just second to none."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 4 : 1 TOR

- RSL would be up by the break after MF Kyle Beckerman and DF Jamison Olave both headed home set-piece deliveries from MF Andy Williams to counter Maicon Santos' early tally - which marked the third time in as many CCL contests the Utahans conceded the opening goal in side the first quarter-hour.
- Life would get more difficult for TFC after MF Mista was shown a red card in the 66th minute, and RSL would get insurance goals afterwards from FW Álvaro Saborio and newcomer FW Paulo Jr. to coast to the finish.
- Paulo Jr. made an impressive debut for the Claret-and-Cobalt, the diminutive Brazilians entering in the 74th minute and scoring his first goal for his new squad just six minutes later.

• Jason Kreis: "To have a response the way we did was really, really impressive from our group. I honestly felt a lot it came from Kyle Beckerman. He was one of the few players, I thought, that was completely engaged from the opening minute."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 0 CHI

- Real Salt Lake continued its historic run of form at Rio Tinto Stadium, the Utah side using a PK conversion from Álvaro Saborío just before halftime and a fifth-straight shutout in MLS play to post a 1-0 victory over Chicago.
- The win in Sandy broke RSL's tie with the 2008-09 Crew for the longest home undefeated streak in League play, the Utahans becoming the first team in MLS history to go 23 straight home matches without suffering a defeat.
- The three points also, at least temporarily, pushed RSL back into a share of first place in the League's overall standings, the team's 47 points pulling even with Western Conference cohort Los Angeles Galaxy.
- RSL now owns the two longest shutout streaks in MLS in 2010, its current 532-minute stretch, which began on August 11 at PHI, sitting only behind its 567-minute run earlier this summer (5/31 v. KC – 7/17 @ DAL).
- Today marked the 100th career start in an RSL uniform for MF Andy Williams. The only remaining "RSL Original" ranks 2nd in the category in team annals behind only Nick Rimando.
- Jason Kreis: "[Last preseason] I really felt like this is the group I envisioned for a long time, playing the type of soccer they're playing. This is the team I think we've been trying to build for a long time, and this is the team that should challenge for championships for quite a while."

- The gritty result at Estadio Rommel Fernandez gave the defending MLS Cup champions the lead atop the Group A standings in CCL play.
- Will Johnson became the only RSL player to score in all three competitions for the team this season (MLS, U.S. Open Cup and CCL) with his 10th minute equalizer.
- FW Álvaro Saborio tallied his sixth CONCACAF goal with a header off a MF Nelson González corner kick to give ★RSL the lead. Then Johnson struck again, finishing Saborio's through ball for the first-half brace.
- Jason Kreis: "We really needed a couple of guys to show a bit more energy than we have the past couple of games. I always say, it's interesting how the players who seem to show the most energy and passion for the game are getting rewarded ... so that's good."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 1 COL

- Just when it looked like RSL's record home undefeated streak in MLS play would fall by the wayside, DF Nat Borchers nodded home in the 93rd minute to earn a 1-1 draw with archrival Colorado.
- Borchers' goal – his first in 41 MLS games – also clinched the defending champs' passage into the 2010 MLS Cup Playoffs for a third straight season – this time the squad leaving nothing to chance for the season's final weekend as it had done in 2008 & 2009.
- Casey's 36th minute tally ended Real Salt Lake's shutout streak at 568 minutes, one minute longer than the defending champions' previous run across May and June that stood as the longest in MLS in 2010. The two streaks are now the third and fourth longest in MLS history in the category.
- Jason Kreis: "All in all, I think we created some really nice changes, played some really nice soccer, and I would say that our group probably feels a little hard done that we didn't win that game. We keep telling our players that if they give us their best, that's good enough. That means the result is not the most important thing. Tonight I feel like all the players went out there and gave us their absolute best. Win, lose or draw, we're going to be pleased with our effort."

NOTES & QUOTES – TOR 1 : 1 RSL

- Real Salt Lake used a free kick goal by MF Javier Morales in the 67th minute to get the result it needed against Toronto FC, a 1-1 draw tonight at BMO Field securing its passage into the knockout phase of the CONCACAF Champions League in its first appearance in the regional championship.
- It was déjà vu all over again for Real Salt Lake, which fell behind for the fifth time in as many CCL contests in the 20th minute, a lightning-quick counter-attack started by a long throw by Toronto GK Jon Conway being finished with authority from distance by FW Jacob Peterson to give the hosts a 1-0 lead.
- But a patient and resilient RSL side would dominate possession throughout the contest, its persistence paying off when FW Robbie Findley was fouled 25 yards straight out from goal midway through the second half. Morales would take it from there, striking his free kick towards the left side of goal and past Conway to even things up.
- Jason Kreis: "We are an extremely pleased team to have accomplished one of our major goals for the season. At the beginning of the year we stressed that we wanted to put a lot of focus on this tournament, and it's a credit to our guys that they've done that and, deservedly, we're into the next round."

NOTES & QUOTES – NE 1 : 2 RSL

- Nat Borchers again utilized a backwards header, this time off a Javier Morales set piece, to give RSL a 1-0 lead in the 68th minute and the defender his second goal in as many contests following a 41-game dry spell in MLS action.
- After Kheli Dube's 82nd minute goal, RSL responded quickly, FW Álvaro Saborío's header off a Morales corner kick – his first road tally of the year in MLS play – just two minutes later allowing RSL to extend its road unbeaten streak to five MLS games.
- The win completed a 14-game, 56-day stretch that spanned the continent, RSL's 22,000 miles traveled in two concurrent competitions paying off with a 7-1-6 record in the run that began on Aug. 7. RSL ran through the finish line, finishing the grueling stretch with a 4-0-2 mark in six games across the final 18 days.
- With the victory, RSL claimed first-place on MLS' overall table to itself for the first time in team history.
- Jason Kreis: "We got out to really quite a slow start ... the second half was much better right off the kickoff. At the end of it all you want the result, for sure. You want the three points, but I also want there to be some good soccer. I want there to be some indication that we're trying to play the way that we play, but I think it's always a difficult prospect when you play on turf."

NOTES & QUOTES – NY 0 : 0 RSL

- The match between the Supporters Shield hopefuls saw chances early from both squads – including an Andy Williams shot that caught the right post flush just nine minutes in – but evolved into an increasingly physical affair, with neither side able to create much danger as the match carried on.
- Real Salt Lake's club-record undefeated streak in League play improved to 12 matches (5-0-7) with the draw. The defending MLS Cup champs have now dropped just one match in their last 23 MLS contests dating back to April (13-1-9).
- With just two games remaining, RSL's 18 goals allowed is five less than Houston's 23 GA in 2007, while the Utah side's 11 goals allowed on the road is one less than the 2007 edition of D.C. United with one away tilt left.
- GK Nick Rimando was forced into only one save on the day en route to his MLS-best 13th shutout of the season. The clean sheet was the 73rd of his career, putting him now just one behind third-place Joe Cannon (SJ) and two behind second-place Zach Thornton (CHV) in the category.
- After dropping its first game against East competition (0-1 @ CLB), RSL finished 10-0-5 the rest of the way.
- Jason Kreis: "I think we did enough to perhaps earn the three points, but all in all it was a fairly even game. I think we were also a little fortunate not to give anything away, probably a just result ... I thought there were some moments when some really nice things were happening. Creating the chances that we did, hitting the post twice, Javier Morales' great free kick ... you have to feel good about that stuff, but still I'm still a little worried about the team's energy level."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 2 : 0 DAL

- The huge 2-0 win earned RSL one of the Western Conference's two automatic berths into the playoffs, guaranteeing home-field advantage at Rio Tinto Stadium for a two-legged Western Conference Semifinal Series.
- The home-field advantage should likely pay off, as RSL joined the 2005 edition of the San Jose Earthquakes as the only two teams in MLS history to go undefeated at home during a regular season. The 37 points at home stand as the most by an MLS squad in a 30-game season, while RSL's 11-0-4 mark at Rio Tinto Stadium in 2010 counts as three-fifths of the squad's MLS-record 25-match home undefeated streak in regular season play. The result also brought FC Dallas' MLS-record 12-match road undefeated streak to an end.
- Tonight's attendance of 20,236 marked the largest soccer attendance in Rio Tinto Stadium's two-plus year history, breaking the previous best of 20,124 that attended the 2009 MLS All-Star Game against Everton FC last July.
- RSL set an MLS record for goals allowed at home during a single-season (7) and broke its own MLS record for home goal differential during a season (+24, old record was +23).
- Jason Kreis: "All of the midfielders and forwards bought into a defensive effort tonight. That's when and why we get shutouts. We were a little slow to get going, but at the end of the match, when our guys are flying around making so many nice defensive plays, you've got to feel good about our fitness."

NOTES & QUOTES - RSL 3 : 1 CAZ

- Real Salt Lake became the first Major League Soccer side in nine tries to take first place in a CONCACAF Champions League group stage courtesy of its thorough win over the two-time defending CCL runners-up.
- It didn't take long for RSL to set another Rio Tinto Stadium attendance mark, the 20,463 fans witnessing the historic contest trumping the 20,236 that saw RSL notch a 2-0 win over Dallas four nights earlier.
- After being put on its heels in the opening 30 minutes, RSL gradually found its attacking legs and broke through just before the end of the half through FW Paulo Jr., his finish in the 43rd minute giving the Utahans the advantage.
- The Brazilian striker's second goal in the 67th minute was followed just two minutes later by MF Collen Warner's first score of the tournament, giving the home side a 3-0 advantage that would prove more than enough this time around against los Cementeros.
- Jason Kreis: "I just can't say enough on the contributions of the players that are coming in. For the last six weeks all of them that have been called upon in some extremely important games - this one and the home game against Colorado - all of them have stepped up, big time."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 2 : 2 COL

- Real Salt Lake kept its Supporters' Shield hopes alive thanks to some late-game heroics by FW Álvaro Saborio, his brace in second half stoppage time salvaging a 2-2 draw for the defending MLS Cup champs.
- With the crucial standings point, Real Salt Lake once again drew even with the Los Angeles Galaxy for the League's top overall spot, the Galaxy in the driver's seat with one game remaining (v. FCD).
- The draw kept RSL's club-record 14-match undefeated streak in League play (6-0-8) alive, part of a response to a 1-3-1 start to the campaign that ended with just a single loss across the final 25 contests (14-1-10).
- Real Salt Lake easily managed to finish the campaign with the best defensive effort in MLS regular season history, its 20 goals allowed besting the 2007 Houston Dynamo's record of 23.
- Saborio's brace gave him a team-high 12 goals in MLS play (T-2nd on RSL's single season chart with Findley, 2009) and 18 overall across 32 appearances in MLS and CCL play.
- Jason Kreis: "I was looking at the game towards the end of the match thinking that this was exactly what we needed. To take the loss, but then we come out and get a draw. That feels good too. As long as our guys take the responsibility and accountability for the fact that we knew that that was not good enough. That was an unbelievably emotional affair for us and those guys put a lot of energy in there tonight."

NOTES & QUOTES – DAL 2 : 1 RSL

- Real Salt Lake's title defense got off to a dream start as FW Fabian Espindola put the visitors up 1-0 in just the 5th minute with a stellar cut-back blast past Kevin Hartman.
- MF Andy Williams tallied his 8th career playoff assist on the play – his first postseason helper for RSL – to match Landon Donovan for 7th place among MLS postseason leaders.
- Former RSL striker Jeff Cunningham – a late first-half sub for an injured Milton Rodriguez – equalized for the home side just before the halftime break, slotting home a bouncing ball in the box from the six.
- RSL's midfield maestro Javier Morales was booked twice within 20 minutes in the 2nd half for RSL's first ejection of 2010, but referee Kevin Stott evened things up just 6 minutes later as Dallas MF Atiba Harris was issued a straight red for a high elbow.
- Just 2 minutes from time, Dallas sub Eric Avila blistered a shot from 25 yards out just inside the far post for a 2-1 win.
- Jason Kreis: "We have a very, very disappointed group there. When you go away in a playoff match and score the first goal, especially us, we expect better. The problem was we never then got to what was supposed to happen after the first 15 minutes. We were supposed to possess the ball for long stretches of time. Maybe that early goal hurt us a little bit in that we didn't think we needed to do as much when we had the ball. We just needed a little bit better from everybody."

NOTES & QUOTES – RSL 1 : 1 DAL

- Despite losing only 3 games in its final 32 in all competitions between May 1 and November 6, Real Salt Lake crashed out of the MLS Cup Playoffs at the hands of a stellar goalkeeping performance by FC Dallas' Kevin Hartman and a 2-3 aggregate goal loss in the series after tonight's 1-1 draw in Sandy.
- MF Andy Williams filled in the attacking midfield role for suspended playmaker Javier Morales, and eventually tallied his 9th career Playoff assist on Robbie Findley's 80th-minute equalizer to surpass Landon Donovan for 7th place among MLS postseason assist leaders
- Findley's goal – his first in 18 MLS and CCL games since August 7 – drew RSL to within one goal on the aggregate scoreline with 10 minutes remaining, but the defending champs couldn't muster another goal to keep their title defense alive.
- Just 18 minutes into the game, Dallas MF Dax McCarty scored against the run of play on a Ferreira/Shea-led counter-attack.
- Jason Kreis: "In the last couple matches, we were a victim of our own expectations. I really feel that we've been playing with this angst of, 'What if we lose? What if we don't repeat as Champions?' We expected more of ourselves, and that's different than it ever has been here. In years past we've played with no fear, with no expectations. We played a little tentatively and a little bit scared because we were nervous to lose, and I just don't think you can ever be at your best when you're a little bit nervous and a little bit scared."

RSL IN THE OPEN CUP

The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup, recognized as U.S. Soccer's National Championship, is an annual, single-elimination competition open to all amateur and professional soccer teams affiliated with U.S. Soccer. The tournament has crowned a champion for 95 consecutive years dating back to 1914. Within the U.S. Open Cup framework, teams compete in one of the following four categories: professional outdoor Division I (Major League Soccer), Division II (USL First Division) or Division III (USL Second Division); or Amateur Division (USL Premier Development League & U.S. Adult Soccer Association). The team that advances the furthest from each level except Division I earns a $10,000 cash prize. The runner-up takes home $50,000, while the champion collects $100,000. The winner also will have the team's name engraved on the historic Dewar Challenge Trophy, the oldest trophy in American team sports that is housed in the National Soccer Hall of Fame in Oneonta, N.Y.

In 2011, for the first time in club history, RSL is one of the eight automatic MLS qualifiers which receive passage to the Open Cup Round of 16, to be played on June 28 or 29. The 2011 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Quarterfinals are July 12/13, with the Semifinal Round to be played on August 30 or 31, and the Final on October 4/5. U.S. Soccer conducts a "closed bid" process to determine host teams in each round. For the last four consecutive years, Real Salt Lake was forced to earn its spot in the domestic tournament as one of nine or more Major League Soccer sides fighting for two "play-in" positions alongside the League's six automatic qualifiers, which earned their spots as a result of their finish in last year's regular season campaign. Real Salt Lake has failed to defeat an MLS team in its last eight attempts to make the tournament proper and reach the Quarterfinal Stage. Below are Real Salt Lake's results in its first six years of Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup play. Please note that while Real Salt Lake recognizes its five play-in games from 2007-10 in its official U.S. Open Cup history, U.S. Soccer does not officially count statistics from these games in their records.

2009 SEASON IN REVIEW

Real Salt Lake entered the 2009 campaign with an unfamiliar aura: an unprecedented amount of roster stability, combined with heightened expectations due to 2008's Western Conference Final run. For a team that boasted just one player – fan favorite Andy Williams – from its inaugural team in 2005, the stability established by returning 12 of the 14 players who had appeared in the disappointing 0-1 home playoff loss to New York was most evident at the team's Rio Tinto Stadium home during 2009 (only Dema Kovalenko and Fabian Espindola were absent as the season kicked off, although Espindola returned in late May to the RSL fold).

The team's 9-1-5 mark – and 34-10 aggregate goal margin on its natural Rio Tinto Stadium pitch – resulted in the best home record in MLS in 2009. While tying a league record established by the 1998 Chicago Fire for home goal differential (+24), RSL also rewrote team record books with several historic moments – most notably the first-ever RSL hat trick in League play from FW Robbie Findley in the home opener against Columbus (April 2), four unanswered goals in the second half to erase a 0-2 halftime deficit in a 4-2, Pioneer Day win over FC Dallas (July 24), and a six-goal second-half outburst in a 6-0 rout of New England (April 25), one which featured goals by six different players.

The late-April win over the Revolution would be the team's last for nearly seven weeks, as all of May and early June represented a swoon that saw Real Salt Lake shut out four times in seven games, scoring just four goals (not including a 1-4 road loss in a U.S. Open Cup Qualifier at Seattle). Two of the goals came in a disappointing 2-2 home draw that saw RSL hold not one but two leads in second-half stoppage time. Catharsis came with a 2-0 road win at Los Angeles against the Galaxy in mid-June, in one of the most complete road performances of the season, if not the team's brief history.

The return of Espindola and a switch to a 4-3-3 formation, away from the trademark diamond midfield employed by Head Coach Jason Kreis since taking over the team shook things up throughout the rest of June all the way to late August, by whence RSL had dropped just two of 10 games, and won over several thousand of the Utah market's Hispanic fans with a dominating 1-0 win in an international friendly vs. Club America. Findley and Movsisyan combined to score 8 of the 14 RSL goals scored during that span, Movsisyan's red-hot June surely a factor in his decision depart Major League Soccer and sign a pre-contract with Danish club Randers FC on July 1, six months prior to the expiry of his MLS/RSL obligation.

The Real Salt Lake defense stepped up big during the late Summer emergence, with GK Nick Rimando tallying six shutouts in an 11-game span and the central pairing of team MVP Nat Borchers and Defender of the Year Jamison Olave controlling the rearguard. Only three times in that 11-game run did RSL allow more than one goal, albeit in three-goal road losses at Columbus and at New England. It was the home shutouts against Chivas and Houston in August that inspired hope for the team, as well as a gritty, 1-0 road win at Kansas City that saw newcomer Pablo Campos notch the game-winner, even with RSL playing the final 45+ minutes a man down due to a Ned Grabavoy red card.

However, the home domination demonstrated by Real Salt Lake during the 2008 and 2009 seasons – a mark of 19-3-11 in MLS play in Utah's thin air – contrasted sharply with the team's ongoing struggles on the road. On Labor Day Weekend, RSL had just six games remaining – three each in September and October, sandwiched around a bizarre 18-day break in early October – to seize the day and attempt to go one step further than it had in 2008. Kreis used the 18-day break as a "mini-Preseason" to put each player on the roster on notice that his job was up for grabs, and to install a renewed confidence in the locker room. A return to the 4-4-2 diamond and an electric 1-1 draw in an international friendly with Mexican powerhouse Chivas de Guadalajara did just that, as RSL entered the final stretch with resolve to prove that the preseason hype was legitimate, and that the Claret-and-Cobalt belonged among Major League Soccer's elite.

The inability to win away from home in the late months – a heart-breaker at Houston, a devastatingly embarrassing performance at last-place FC Dallas and a loss in perhaps the team's best road form at Toronto – kept RSL from competing for the West's top spot, instead leaving the Utah squad fighting for its postseason lives through the final days of the season, right up until the final weekend. With the now-traditional season-finale showdown against Rocky Mountain Cup rival Colorado determining the playoff fate of at last one of the teams for the third consecutive year, it was Real Salt Lake once again stepping it up with a dominant 3-0 triumph at home, sparked by two Findley goals and a Yura Movsisyan dagger that helped RSL control what it could of its playoff destiny. The results of two other concurrent matches – and three others in total – on the final Saturday of 2009 conspired to Jason Kreis' team clinching an unlikely spot in the MLS Cup Playoffs for a second straight season.

"The one thing that sticks out in my mind more than anything is how we managed to stay together and really keep believing when everybody else didn't believe in us anymore," said All-Star midfielder Will Johnson.

As the eighth overall seed, but the fifth-place finisher in the Western Conference, Real Salt Lake provided fodder for the critics with its sub-.500 regular season record of 11-12-7. Crossing over into the Eastern Conference playoff bracket, RSL hoped to duplicate the run of the Red Bulls that stung the Utahns just a year prior. It was déjà vu all over again in the first round against the defending champion Columbus Crew, as a late goal in the first leg at home, this time by Robbie Findley, pushed RSL out to a 1-0 series lead. Real Salt Lake straightened out its road form at just the right time, a shock 3-2 win in the second leg propelling the visitors on to the East Final at Chicago the following week. After a hard-fought and scoreless 120 minutes of regulation and overtime at Toyota Park, RSL goalkeeper Nick Rimando would step to the forefront, saving three of the Fire's seven penalty kick attempts, the last of which set up Ned Grabavoy's conversion that gave the Utah club a 5-4 PK win and the fifth-year club its first-ever MLS Cup appearance.

2009 SEASON IN REVIEW

Through the struggles on the road and inconsistent stretches of play, however, RSL players and coaches never relinquished their belief they could put it all together when it came time to do so. Real coach Jason Kreis said his team never felt like the underdog at any point in the season.

"I guess that's the image that was portrayed and a lot of people feel that way about us," Kreis said. "But, inside the locker room, we were never a Cinderella team. Inside the locker room, we've been favorites all along. This feels a little better because we've really been down to the depths of despair. To see a result like that: hard-fought, well-deserved, on the road – everything that went into that game is gratifying."

With two "designated players" in Schelotto and Blanco vanquished, RSL and its "Team is the Star" philosophy were once again thrust into the "underdog" role against David Beckham, Landon Donovan and the star-laden Los Angeles Galaxy. Carrying its momentum into Seattle's Qwest Field just five days before Thanksgiving, 2009. Despite having never won a road game on artificial turf in its history (entering MLS Cup, RSL was 0-8-3 all-time on road turf, having been outscored 6-21), RSL was confident, just a step away from claiming the Philip F. Anschutz trophy. RSL had beaten the Galaxy on the road and earned a draw with them at home. Because of that, the team liked its chances – especially since the group was once again an underdog going into the championship match.

"We had nothing to lose, so that was the mentality we had going in there," Findley said. "All the pressure was on the Galaxy. We went in and did the same thing we've done for the past month – play our game and just focus on ourselves, really."

Drama played out early in the title match, as RSL engine Javier Morales suffered a hard tackle from Beckham in the 14th minute, and was removed minutes later in favor of grizzled MLS and U.S. National Team veteran Clint Mathis. The first 45 minutes in Seattle were labeled by many in the RSL family as the worst half played in the 2009 season, RSL fortunate not to be facing more than a one-goal deficit, thanks to Beckham and Donovan setting up Mike Magee's 41st minute goal against the run of play. Adding insult to injury, one of the team's midfield engines, Will Johnson, was removed at halftime due to illness, replaced by one of the heroes from the week before, Ned Grabavoy. Early in the second half, with Beckerman, Grabavoy, Mathis and Andy Williams controlling the midfield, RSL equalized as the team's 2009 Golden Boot winner Robbie Findley would score the last of his 15 combined regular and postseason goals. The 1-1 scoreline remained through regulation and overtime, setting up the second consecutive week of penalty kick drama. Rimando would stand tall once again, forcing a miss out of Landon Donovan and making more two saves, and the seventh round would again be kind to Real Salt Lake, as defender Robbie Russell's low kick inside the left post would sneak in, giving the "Claret-and-Cobalt" the first title in team history – and the State of Utah its first major-league professional sports title since the 1971 ABA Utah Stars, a span of nearly 40 years.

Seeing the joy in the faces of his teammates was a priceless moment for Russell because they had earned the top prize in MLS by traveling a long, hard road.

"Maybe it makes it sweeter," Russell said. "I don't know how it would feel like any other way. Getting a championship is always great. But we had to fight a little bit harder for it and it makes it that much more worthwhile."

Just two days later, on the steps of the Utah State Capitol during a ceremony with Governor Gary Herbert and several other dignitaries, Real Salt Lake founder Dave Checketts challenged Jason Kreis and the team to win the title again in 2010, delivering on the promise of a budding MLS dynasty.

"We're just starting to scratch the surface of this team," RSL Captain Kyle Beckerman said. "This is a big moment for our team and I think this is going to help us a lot to move forward and really get better and really make Salt Lake a team that is always consistently good."

2008 SEASON IN REVIEW

The 2008 season will forever be remembered as a year of firsts for Real Salt Lake, the tipping point in the team's evolution, when the roster turnover and inconsistency of the organization's first three campaigns dissipated, replaced by a competitive core with purpose, drive and ambition. In the span of a few months, RSL went from Major League Soccer's basement to the precipice of an MLS Cup title, the lone remaining Western Conference team in the league's final four.

Head Coach Jason Kreis guided his squad into its postseason debut in a year that also saw the club ascend atop the Western Conference for the first time in club history, holding the top spot mid-Summer for three weeks, and never dropping below a tie for third place after the first week of June. In somewhat traditional RSL fashion, the team was slow out of the gates in April and May, with 17 new faces learning how to play together with losses in five of the first 10 games. However, interspersed were a pair of 4-0 home wins over MLS sides D.C. United and San Jose Earthquakes (in a U.S. Open Cup play-in game) that saw Captain Kyle Beckerman tally four of the eight goals, while the strike trio of Yura Movsisyan, Robbie Findley and Fabian Espindola showed the attacking prowess which would blossom later in the season.

RSL's dramatic, come-from-behind road victory over San Jose on 9/27 sparked a 7-game unbeaten run that saw the squad through to the 2008 Western Conference Final. It was the strongest run of form in franchise history, coinciding with the most crucial stretch of games the club has ever seen.

RSL rebounded in the middle third of the year to catapult itself to unprecedented heights in the standings, going undefeated in eight of 10 games in June and July. Despite suffering scoring droughts that would have doomed the team in the past, a rock-solid defense led by GK Nick Rimando, central defenders Nat Borchers and Jamison Olave and the versatile Chris Wingert allowed less than a goal per game in that span, including six shutouts. The staunch defense allowed RSL to gain 16 points in 10 games despite averaging exactly one goal per game of its own, moving atop the Western Conference for the first time ever on July 12, and moving above .500 for the first time - EVER - on July 28.

Kreis and General Manager Garth Lagerwey utilized the midsummer break to add depth and experience from Europe to the roster, plugging in key pieces during the league's international transfer window. In that time, RSL added the versatility of 2005 star Clint Mathis, Canadian-American midfielder Will Johnson and utility man Robbie Russell, all three playing key roles in the team's postseason run. Johnson instantly earned a starting role, playing every minute of the latter half of the season, even tallying MLS Goal of the Year honors for his pivoting long-range blast at Rio Tinto Stadium against Dallas. Mathis and Russell gradually moved into the first XI as well, possessing high degrees of work rate and meshing well with the existing core of the team.

Kreis credited Lagerwey's knack for finding the best players available, as the RSL technical staff logged hundreds of thousands of frequent-flier miles, crossing the globe and scouting not only domestic players, but also visiting England, Scotland, Argentina, Peru, Ecuador, Costa Rica, Germany, Norway, Trinidad and Mexico in search of the right pieces to the puzzle. Many of the players themselves hoped for good things when they joined RSL at midseason. What they experienced as the season wound down exceeded even their fondest expectations.

Real Salt Lake's 2008 Team MVP, playmaker Javier Morales, emerged as a dark-horse candidate for league MVP honors, gaining a national reputation as the key to the team's success. His combination of clutch goals and assists during the year's closing stretch authored RSL's attacking prowess, which saw the club lead MLS in both shots and shots on goal.

The final third of the 2008 campaign also became the Armenian-American Movsisyan's time to shine, scoring seven goals in the final 11 games, several in dramatic fashion. Yura locked down a starting spot and responded with a torrid goal-scoring pace, leading RSL to capture points in seven of the final 10 games of the season, dramatically pushing the team into the postseason with a 90th-minute equalizer against Rocky Mountain Cup rival Colorado. That final road draw against the Rapids was emblematic of the team's late-season road success, where it won or tied four of its final five games away from home. The fulcrum of Real Salt Lake's growth and emergence was its come-from-behind, 3-2 win at San Jose, a triumph in late September which set off an seven-game unbeaten streak that ended with a dominating, yet disappointing, 1-0 loss to New York in the Western Conference Final. Clearly, the signature moment of Real Salt Lake's fourth season was the move from its rented Rice-Eccles Stadium home - where the team dropped just one game all year on the artificial turf - to its permanent Rio Tinto Stadium venue, a breathtaking, state-of-the-art facility which envelops the fans and makes them part of the action.

Once RSL reached the MLS Cup Playoffs, the team was not content to simply sit back and call it a season. The Utah side upset expansion partner Chivas USA and earned a surprise berth into the Western Conference Championship - as the host. Beckerman said that the team's unexpected success was an appropriate reward to a cadre of loyal fans that have continued to support RSL even in bleaker moments.

The bitter 1-0 loss at home to the Red Bulls in the West final has RSL wanting more going into the 2009 season. And while the team is focused on rising to even further heights, it will be hard to eclipse what happened in this historic "coming-of-age" season - simply because how quickly the team rose after enduring mediocrity for so long.

DF Chris Wingert and his RSL teammates hoisted the Rocky Mountain Cup in heart stopping fashion for the second straight season. Not only did Yura Movsisyan's 90th minute strike earn the 1-1 draw and Cup victory for the Utah side, it booked the squad's spot in the MLS Cup Playoffs and eliminated the Rapids from contention.

FW Yura Movsisyan emerged as a future star in the second half of 2008. The 21-year-old striker set a torrid pace, scoring 8 goals in a 12 game stretch, highlighted by 90th minute strikes in back-to-back weeks against Colorado and Chivas USA to propel the franchise to heights not seen before.

2008 U.S. OPEN CUP

RSL played two rounds of MLS qualifying for the 2008 Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup but did not qualify for the 40-team tournament proper. Thus, RSL's 2008 USOC stats and results do not count in U.S. Soccer's official tournament records.

2007 SEASON IN REVIEW

As is the case for every team, a large dose of optimism and expectation welcomed Real Salt Lake as the 2007 campaign approached, with the club bringing back a veteran nucleus and adding a few high-profile additions to a side that saw its late-season playoff charge the year prior fall just three points short. And the reasons for such optimism were valid, as the squad was returning a healthy and rejuvenated Eddie Pope, defending MLS Golden Boot winner Jeff Cunningham, MLS all-time leading scorer Jason Kreis, veteran flanker Chris Klein and playmaker Andy Williams while also adding a veteran goalkeeper in Nick Rimando and the electrifying Freddy Adu.

As Real Salt Lake prepared to open its season at Rice-Eccles Stadium for the first time, it appeared the new plan under head coach John Ellinger would come together quicker than expected with the squad holding a late lead against FC Dallas. But a breakdown in stoppage time would result in the game's equalizer for the Hoops – and a draw that felt like a loss for the home side. That the breakdown was only beginning, as a scoreless draw at home the next weekend against Columbus would be followed by a 4-0 road loss at Chivas USA. After suffering a bitter 2-0 defeat at home to archrival Colorado on April 30th, the changing of the guard would be swift and surprising, as three days later General Manager Steve Pastorino resigned, Ellinger was re-assigned to a Technical Director role, and Kreis hung up his boots so that he could take over the head coaching reigns.

Kreis' sideline tenure started in entertaining fashion just two days later, as late goals by Cunningham and Chris Brown helped RSL garner a point out of a 3-3 home draw against the New York Red Bulls. A month-long, four-game road trip would coincide with the first of many major personnel moves, an exchange of strikers on May 22nd that sent Cunningham to Toronto FC and brought Alecko Eskandarian to Salt Lake City. June would see a bittersweet announcement from Pope, as the defender announced prior to the team's Jason Kreis became the second head coach in Real Salt Lake history on May 3, 2007, when RSL Owner Dave Checketts selected the team's first-ever player and the League's all-time leading scorer to seize the reins of Utah's Division I professional soccer team. The Duke University product was the eleventh ex-MLS player (not including interim stints) to take over a League side.

June 14th contest against FC Dallas that the 2007 campaign would be the last in his legendary MLS career. A heartbreaking 1-0 loss in that contest and a 3-2 defeat against Los Angeles would follow, with a daunting home clash against a top-of-the-table D.C. United side on tap next. But before that match another trade was on the horizon on June 21st, when RSL acquired a pair of up-and-comers from the LA Galaxy, Robbie Findley and Nathan Sturgis coming to Utah in exchange for Klein. The move paid dividends immediately as two days later Findley tallied twice in his Real Salt Lake debut, the goals lifting RSL to a stunning 2-1 upset that gave the squad its first three-point result and stopped United's seven-game unbeaten streak in the process.

July was full of ups and downs for Real Salt Lake, as the club dropped its four League matches during the month but showed well against a pair of international opponents in its XanGo Cup 2007 double bill over the Pioneer Day weekend. The 2-0 win over Everton FC and 1-1 draw against Boca Juniors also allowed the chance for Kreis to work in two of his latest acquisitions from the Rapids, defender Chris Wingert and midfielder Kyle Beckerman, the latter picked up in a trade that sent Mehdi Ballouchy to Colorado. Real Salt Lake would see one more player depart late in the month, as Adu transferred to Portuguese power Benfica, leaving RSL after just 11 appearances with the club.

The in-season roster makeover appeared to be taking shape as August hit, as Real Salt Lake won three out of five contests beginning with a surprising 1-0 victory on Aug. 4th over a Houston Dynamo side that had gone undefeated in 11 straight contests. A 3-1 home triumph over Kansas City on Aug. 29th and the squad's first road win of the campaign at the Galaxy three days later began a 4-4-3 finish to RSL's year, with the high note coming on the last day of the season on Oct. 20 at Colorado. Real Salt Lake's 1-0 win over the Rapids on Sept. 22nd would even up the Rocky Mountain Cup series at 1-1-1, and late into their season finale at Dick's Sporting Goods Park it looked like the sides would share the spoils out of a scoreless draw. But it was again Findley coming to the rescue, as his 87th minute tally gave the visitors a lead that Rimando would preserve with a highlight-reel save in stoppage time, giving RSL a 1-0 triumph that sent Pope into retirement on a well-deserved winning note. The result not only eliminated RSL's archrival from postseason competition, but gave the Utah side its first Rocky Mountain Cup series victory, a well-earned reward for a team that endured a roller coaster ride of a 2007 season.

2006 SEASON IN REVIEW

Led by forward Jeff Cunningham, last-minute heroics permeated the team's existence in 2006. Despite its slow start out of the gates, going 0-5-1 prior to losing Eddie Pope and Douglas Sequeira to World Cup duty, RSL was the lone team with more than one second-half comeback (four wins), as former Head Coach John Ellinger's squad led MLS with 15 of its 45 goals – exactly one-third – in the final 15 minutes of games, a testament to the team's cardiac personality.

Season highlights included the team's first-ever road win, a 3-0 victory at Los Angeles against the Galaxy in The Home Depot Center, sparking a 3-0-1 run during the month of May that also saw Cunningham score in a team-record four consecutive games. Real later went on a 6-2-1 run in late July and the month of August, the most successful surge in team history, one which included several highlights, including: the squad's first-ever come-from-behind win on the road, a 2-1 thriller at Columbus featuring a 72nd-minute Chris Klein equalizer and a 90th-minute Carey Talley game-winner; the record-setting four goals scored in a 4-1 win at Colorado just 3 days prior to Real Madrid's visit; a 3-1 win at New England highlighted by Cunningham's twisting 50-yard dribbling exhibition through eight Revolution defenders; and a scintillating 3-3 draw at Kansas City which saw three lead changes and Jason Kreis' 108th and ultimately final career goal.

Cunningham scored 16 goals in 2006 to lead MLS, capturing the Golden Boot, adding 11 assists and honored with an MLS Best XI selection. Real Salt Lake's emotional leader in 2006 was Carey Talley, the unequivocal "heart and soul" of RSL, the tenacious tackler and relentless motivator whose highlight-reel goal from 35 yards out in July against rival Chivas nearly won MLS Goal of the Year honors. Goalkeeper Scott Garlick notched career win #100, only the third 'keeper in MLS history to attain that threshold, in a season in which he started 31 games, a team record, and his 10 wins, 9 ties and 2,745 minutes also setting the club standard.

In the second half of RSL's second season, the team dropped just four of its final 16 games, turning the corner from an expansion team struggling to find its way to one which finished just two points shy of a Western Conference playoff berth. As the third-highest scoring team in MLS in 2006, RSL entered 2007 with high hopes and a "playoffs or bust" attitude.

The 2006 Budweiser Golden Boot winner Jeff Cunningham.

2005 SEASON IN REVIEW

Real Salt Lake's inaugural campaign offers several highlight-reel moments, most notably the diving Brian Dunseth header in the 81st minute against regional rival Colorado. The emotional victory, in front of 25,000-plus at Rice-Eccles Stadium and a live, national ESPN2 audience, imitated Dunseth's goal celebration, figuratively planting the RSL flag in the ground and establishing Major League Soccer in Utah.

In expansion terms, RSL burst out of the gates with a 3-3-2 record, with three defensive clean sheets and 11 points good for third place in the Western Conference. Future head coach Jason Kreis, the team's captain, scored the organization's inaugural goal at Los Angeles before a sell-out crowd of 27,000, one week after the squad drew 0-0 vs. New York at Giants Stadium, the game marred by a Nor'easter that rendered the ball hardly controllable on the turf. Kreis also recorded the team's first-ever multi-goal game with a "brace" in the 2-2 draw against San Jose.

However, for the next two months from mid-May to mid-July, Real Salt Lake struggled mightily, recording a 0-9-2 mark during a stretch that saw a record 556-minute scoring drought, as well as the team's first-ever own goals, dubiously recorded in back-to-back games.

The winless streak came to a crashing halt during a Pioneer Day spectacular with a 3-0 win against FC Dallas. Former Burn defender Dunseth tallied the team's earliest goal in history in the game's 3rd minute, while Jordan Cila and Clint Mathis also scored in the first 30 minutes. RSL followed that game up with a fiery, 2-1 win at home against expansion brethren Chivas, a game which saw double red cards just 18 minutes in, Andy Williams scoring Major League Soccer's 5,000th goal early in the second half and captain Kreis providing the 74th-minute game-winning goal.

Kreis again provided the metaphorical fireworks just four days later, becoming the first MLS player in the league's 10-year history to score 100 career goals, as his blistering volley from 22 yards out blazed past Kansas City goalkeeper Bo Oshoniyi and into the upper corner. That was the high point of the 2005 campaign, as the historic goal came in the midst of a 0-11-1 run after the August 6 Chivas win, RSL not tasting victory again until the season-ending "Chupacabra" exhibition game vs. Chivas at Rice-Eccles on Oct. 28, as both expansion teams watched the MLS Cup Playoffs from home.

Despite the expansion blues, hope sprang eternal as the season closed down, with the announcement on October 12, 2005, by Real Salt Lake Owner Dave Checketts and Sandy City Mayor Tom Dolan, joined by Utah State Legislators John Valentine, Greg Curtis and Curt Bramble, announced that a plot of land on State Street in Sandy between 9000 and 9400 South, one which had lain fallow for nearly 40 years, would be the site of the new RSL Stadium.

2005 expansion brethren, CD Chivas USA, quickly became a Western Conference nemesis.

COMPETITION RULES AND REGULATIONS

I. MLS ROSTER COMPOSITION

A Major League Soccer club's first team roster is comprised of up to 30 players. All 30 players are eligible for selection to each 18-player game-day squad during the regular season and playoffs.

Salary & Budget:

- Players occupying roster spots 1-20 count against the club's 2011 salary budget of $2,675,000, and are referred to collectively as the club's Salary Budget Players.
- Roster spots 19 and 20 are not required to be filled, and teams may spread their salary budget across only 18 Salary Budget Players. A minimum salary budget charge will be imputed against a team's salary budget for each unfilled senior roster slot below 18.
 - o The maximum budget charge for a single player is $335,000.*
- A Designated Player counts $335,000 against the club's salary budget, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $167,500.
- * See section entitled Allocation Money below, under Player Acquisition Mechanisms, for details on buying down a player's budget charge.
- Players occupying roster spots 21-30 do not count against the club's salary budget, and are referred to collectively as the club's Off-Budget Players (maximum of 10 per team).
 - o All Generation adidas players are Off-Budget players.
- Players occupying roster spots 1-24 will earn at least $42,000 in 2011.
- Players occupying roster spots 25-30 will earn at least $32,600 in 2011.
- Clubs may elect to leave up to two of these roster spots (25-20) vacant and use $35,000 for each empty spot as allocation money.
- Clubs may sign up to two Home Grown Players to Generation adidas contracts.

Age Designations:

- Any player making $32,600 must be under the age 25 (does not turn 25 or older in 2011).

Domestic/International:

- In 2011, a total of 144 international slots are divided among the 18 clubs. Each club began with eight international slots, which are tradable. There is no limit on the number of international slots on each club's roster.
- The remaining roster slots must belong to domestic players. For clubs based in the United States, a domestic player is either a U.S. citizen, a permanent resident (green card holder) or the holder of other special status (e.g., refugee or asylum status).
- The two MLS clubs based in Canada – Toronto FC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC – began with eight international slots, but their domestic slots may be filled with either Canadian or U.S. domestic players.
- MLS clubs based in Canada are required to have a minimum of three Canadian domestic players on their rosters.
- Players with the legal right to work in Canada are considered Canadian domestic players (i.e., Canadian citizen, permanent resident, part of a protected class).

NOTE: The terms Home Grown and Generation adidas are used to describe mechanisms by which players are acquired. They are not roster designations. All players' roster slots are determined by their compensation and/or age as outlined above.

II. PLAYER ACQUISITION MECHANISMS

MLS teams may acquire players and add them to their rosters via the following mechanisms:

(A) ALLOCATION RANKING

The allocation ranking is the mechanism used to determine which MLS club has first priority to acquire a U.S. National Team player who signs with MLS after playing abroad, or a former MLS player who returns to the League after having gone to a club abroad for a transfer fee. The allocation rankings may also be used in the event two or more clubs file a request for the same player on the same day. The allocations will be ranked in reverse order of finish for the 2010 season, taking playoff performance into account.

Once the club uses its allocation ranking to acquire a player, it drops to the bottom of the list. A ranking can be traded, provided that part of the compensation received in return is another club's ranking. At all times, each club is assigned one ranking. The rankings reset at the end of each MLS League season.

Allocation Money

Allocation money is a resource available to clubs in addition to their respective salary budgets.

A club may receive allocation money for:

- (1) failure to qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs;
- (2) the transfer of a player to a club outside of MLS for value;
- (3) expansion status;
- (4) qualification for the CONCACAF Champions League;

Each year the MLS Competition Committee determines the allocation amount to be made available to each club. Allocation money can be traded by clubs. Allocation money does not count against a club's salary budget and can be used:

- To sign players new to MLS (that is, a player who did not play in MLS during the previous season).
- To re-sign an existing MLS player, subject to League approval.
- To "buy-down" a player's salary budget charge below the League maximum of $335,000.
- In connection with the exercise of an option to purchase a player's rights or the extension of a player's contract for the second year provided the player was new to MLS in the immediately prior year.

NOTE: To protect the interests of MLS and its clubs during discussions with prospective players or clubs in other leagues, amounts of allocation money held by each club will not be shared publicly. (Similarly, most clubs in other countries do not announce the amount of money they plan to spend during a given transfer window.)

(B) DESIGNATED PLAYER

The Designated Player Rule allows clubs to acquire up to three players whose salaries exceed their budget charges, with the club bearing financial responsibility for the amount of compensation above each player's budget charge. Designated Player slots may be used to acquire players new to MLS or to retain current MLS players, subject to League approval.

In 2011, a Designated Player's salary budget charge will be $335,000, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $167,500.

Each club has two Designated Player slots, and clubs are allowed to "purchase" a third Designated Player slot for a one-time fee of $250,000 that will be dispersed in the form of allocation money to all clubs that do not have three Designated Players.

Designated Player slots are not tradable.

Clubs have the option of "buying down" the budget charge of a Designated Player with allocation money. The reduced charge may not be less than $150,000.

(C) SUPERDRAFT

The 2011 MLS SuperDraft, held Jan. 13 in Baltimore, Md., consisted of three rounds of 18 picks for a total of 54 player selections. A supplemental draft was held Jan. 18 via teleconference and consisted of three rounds.

The majority of draft prospects are NCAA college seniors who have exhausted their college eligibility. Generation adidas players and non-collegiate international players are also eligible for selection in the SuperDraft and supplemental draft. Clubs may nominate players for the League's draft-eligible list, and only players from that list may be selected.

Generation adidas is a joint program between MLS and adidas that is dedicated to developing exceptional domestic talent in a professional environment. Each year, a handful of top domestic underclassmen and youth national team players are signed to the league and placed in the SuperDraft through this program. Generation adidas players also receive an educational stipend.

Draft Order: Through the Expansion Priority Draft, Vancouver Whitecaps FC earned the first selection in the 2011 MLS SuperDraft while the Portland Timbers selected second. The next six selections went to clubs that did not qualify for the 2010 MLS Cup Playoffs beginning with the club with fewest regular season points (3 points per win, one point per tie). The remaining eight positions were ranked by fewest regular season points among the teams that were eliminated in the same round of the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Unless claimed on waivers, a player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign with the League, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to the player.

(D) TRADES

Players, SuperDraft and supplemental draft picks, allocation money, allocation rankings, and international player slots may all be exchanged in trades approved by the MLS League Office, provided all of the necessary rules regarding roster and salary budget compliance are met and the trade is completed during a valid trading period. No trades may occur after the Roster Freeze Deadline of September 15, 2011 at 5 p.m. ET.

(E) DISCOVERY SIGNINGS

Clubs may make discovery claims on players not yet under MLS contract who are not subject to the allocation ranking or lottery mechanisms.

COMPETITION RULES AND REGULATIONS

Each club has the opportunity to make six discovery signings per season (expansion teams may make 10 discovery signings in their inaugural season). A club may have up to 10 discovery claims on unsigned players at any time and may remove or add players at any time. The last day for discovery player signings is September 15, 2011 – coinciding with the roster freeze date and trade deadline.

The six discovery signings can be used to fill senior roster spots only. If multiple clubs claim the same player using a discovery, the club that filed the claim first will have first rights to the player. Discovery claims expire following each season. If the League and player are unable to reach an agreement during the season, the club that first filed the discovery retains the right of first refusal in the event the player is later signed by the League.

Note: To protect interests of MLS clubs in scouting and negotiations with prospective players, the League office will not publicize the names of players on club discovery lists, nor specify if a discovery claim has been filed on a particular player.

(F) HOME GROWN PLAYER SIGNINGS

A club may sign a player to his first professional contract without subjecting him to the MLS SuperDraft if the player has trained for at least one year in the club's youth development program and has met League criteria. Players joining MLS through this mechanism are known as Home Grown Players.

There is no limit to the number of Home Grown Players a club may sign in a given year.

(G) RE-ENTRY PROCESS

The 2011 Re-Entry Process will commence after MLS Cup. The priority order for the Re-Entry Draft is reverse order of finish in 2011, taking into account playoff performance.

Available to all teams in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry draft will be:

1. Players who are at least 23 years old and have a minimum of three years experience in MLS whose options were not exercised by their clubs (available at option salary for 2012).
2. Players who are at least 25 years old with a minimum of four years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them at their previous salary (available for at least their 2011 salary).
3. Players who are at least 30 years old with a minimum of eight years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them (available for at least 105% of their 2011 salary).

Players who are not selected in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry Draft will be made available in Stage 2. Clubs selecting players in Stage 2 will negotiate a new salary with the player.

Players who remain unselected after Stage 2 will be available to any MLS club on a first come, first serve basis.

(H) WAIVERS

A team may place a player on waivers at any time during the regular season at which point he is made available to all other teams. The waiver claiming period shall commence on the first business day after the League delivers notice to teams and shall expire at 5 p.m. EST on the second business day after the Waiver Period Commencement Date. The claiming period is 48 hours.

The Waiver Draft order is determined via points per game once all teams have played at least three MLS League games. If the waiver takes place prior to all teams playing in at least three League games, priority shall be granted based upon the prior year's performance, taking playoff performance first, with teams eliminated from playoff contention at the same stage separated according to their point totals through the end of the regular season. New expansion teams shall be at the bottom of the waiver order.

Once a team selects a player off waivers, that club is automatically moved to the bottom of the priority list for subsequent waiver selections in a given season, regardless of its points-per-game total. Players who may be placed on the MLS waiver wire are as follows:

- (i) A player waived by an MLS team in the current season;
- (ii) A player who completed his college eligibility within the past season, who was not made available in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft;
- (iii) A player who has remaining college eligibility (and was not made available in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft), but the League at its discretion and after taking into account exceptional circumstances determines the player may be offered an MLS contract;
- (iv) A player who has played in MLS previously where his last MLS team does not wish to exercise their right of first refusal, except in the case of returning U.S. National Team players as stated above.
- (v) A player who was drafted in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft, and who after a trial with the club is not offered a contract by the first Monday of June.

(I) LOTTERY

Some players shall be assigned to MLS teams via the weighted Lottery process. Any team assigned a player through the lottery in any particular season shall not be assigned another lottery player that season unless and until all teams have received a lottery player or have agreed to waive their option to participate in a Lottery. The players made available through lotteries include:

- (i) . Generation adidas players signed after the MLS SuperDraft;
- (ii) Draft eligible players to whom an MLS contract was offered but who failed to sign with the League prior to the Draft.

The weighted lottery takes into consideration each team's performance over its last 30 regular season games and the most recent postseason. The team with the worst record over its last 30 regular season games (dating back to previous season if necessary and taking playoff performance into account) will have the greatest probability of winning the lottery. Teams are not required to participate in a lottery. Players are assigned via the lottery system in order to prevent a player from potentially influencing his destination club with a strategic holdout.

(J) EXTREME HARDSHIP CALL-UPS

Teams may add players to their roster in cases of "extreme hardship" as follows: (1) a club with three goalkeepers on its 30-man roster, but has less than two available goalkeepers or (2) a team has less than 15 available players. Extreme hardship call-ups are made on a game-by-game basis.

(K) SEASON-ENDING INJURY REPLACEMENTS

A team with a player lost to a season-ending injury can replace that player on its roster, while remaining responsible for the full amount of the injured player's salary. A player can be placed on the season-ending injury list once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). International player limits still apply at the time a season-ending replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

(L) SHORT-TERM INJURY REPLACEMENTS

A team with a player who has a short-term injury can replace that player on its roster, while remaining responsible for the full amount of the injured player's salary. A player can be placed on the short-term injured reserve list once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). Note that the injured player will have to sit out a minimum of six MLS League matches before he can rejoin the team's roster. International player limits still apply at the time a short-term replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

NOTE: No changes may be made to a team's active full roster during the period beginning on September 16, 2011 (day after Roster Freeze Date) through the day after MLS Cup. Nevertheless, a team may obtain players in accordance with the extreme hardship rules and procedures to replace players who are injured or otherwise legitimately unavailable after the Roster Freeze Date. Any other replacements after the Roster Freeze Date may only be made in exceptional circumstances in the League's sole and absolute discretion.

(III.) METHODS OF RELEASING PLAYERS

(A) WAIVERS

Teams may waive players based on performance at any time during the MLS season. Players with guaranteed contracts will continue to have their salary budget charge applied to the team salary budget, subject to any settlement. Players on semi-guaranteed contracts can be waived prior to July 1 of any year and free up the corresponding budget space. If a player on a semi-guaranteed contract is waived after July 1, his salary budget charge will count against the team's salary budget and the team waiving the player will not receive a replacement except under the normal player acquisition mechanisms. Any settlement amount will be charged to the team's salary budget.

(B) TRANSFERS AND LOANS

An MLS player may be transferred or loaned at any time to a team outside the League (subject to that team's Federation's transfer window), subject to the consent of the player.

The registration windows – the dates between which MLS may request the transfer certificate of a player under contract in another country – are January 21 – April 15 (Primary Window) and July 15 – August 14 (Secondary Window)

(C) CONTRACT EXPIRATION

When a player's contract expires, the player does not count against the roster or budget of the team in question. Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the rights to the player indefinitely following the expiration of a contract only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

(D) BUYOUT OF GUARANTEED CONTRACT

Teams may have the ability to buyout one guaranteed player as follows:

- A team may buy out one (1) guaranteed player (including a DP's) contract during the off-season and free up the corresponding budget space. Such a buyout is at the particular MLS Team's own expense.
- A team may not free up budget space with a buyout of a player's salary budget charge during the season. Such a buyout will be conducted by the League and count on a Club's budget in a manner consistent with current MLS guidelines.

(IV.) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Right of first refusal grants one MLS club the first opportunity to add a player to its roster in the event that the player signs with MLS. Holding a right of first refusal applies only within MLS and does not indicate holding of the player's International Transfer Certificate.

OUT OF CONTRACT PLAYERS / OPTIONS NOT PICKED UP: Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the right of first refusal to the player indefinitely only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

DRAFTED BUT NOT SIGNED: A player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign, or who as of the first Monday in June is not offered a contract after a trial and clears waivers, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 immediately following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to sign the player.

PLAYER TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE MLS: If a team receives allocation money as a result of a player's transfer, the team does not retain a right of first refusal.

Major League Soccer will continue to bolster its Canadian credentials in 2012 with the addition of the Montreal Impact as the League's 19th team. After showing tremendous growth and support in recent years both on the field and in the stands, the Impact will carry over its identity and history when it makes the jump from the second tier of North American soccer to MLS next season, when it will join fellow north-of-the-border sides Toronto FC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC in the League.

STADIUM INFORMATION

SAPUTO STADIUM

4750 Sherbrooke Est, Montreal, Quebec, Canada
H1V 3S8

Following years of discussions on a possible move to the MLS ranks, Impact Owner / dairy magnate Joey Saputo and MLS Commissioner Don Garber officially announced Montreal as the League's newest expansion team on May 7, 2010. The Impact was founded in 1993 by the Saputo family and quickly became a regular contender in the various editions of what is now the second tier of American soccer – the American Professional Soccer League (1993–1996), the A-League (1997–98, 2000–03), the USL First Division (2004–2009), and the USSF D-2 Pro League (2010). Montreal will compete in 2011 in the new NASL as a final tune-up for its leap to North America's top flight in 2012.

The Impact have won three championships in its 18 seasons of play, collecting titles in 1994 (APSL), 2004 (A-League), and 2009 (USL First Division). Montreal also made a splash in continental competition in 2009, setting an all-time single-game franchise and competition attendance record of 55,571 fans for its 2-0 win over Mexico's Santos Laguna in the opening leg of the 2009 CONCACAF Champions League Quarterfinals on Feb. 25, 2009. The team's underdog run in the competition would come to a disappointing end in the second leg, however, as a pair of stoppage time goals by Santos resulted in a heartbreaking 4-5 aggregate defeat for the Impact.

The Impact will continue to call Saputo Stadium its home upon joining Major League Soccer, as the roughly 13,000-seat venue will expand to host 20,000 spectators for MLS contests. The venue broke ground in April 2007 and hosted its first match 13 months later on May 21, 2008, a scoreless draw against fellow Canadian side – and future MLS foe – Vancouver Whitecaps.

THE RSL IDENTITY

Real Salt Lake (pronounced RAY-äl) kicks off season number seven in MLS, continuing to wear Claret Red, Cobalt Blue and Real Gold uniforms with a classic shield logo that incorporates an iconic crown, suggestive of the majestic heritage and international spirit of soccer teams around the globe. In recognition of the team's MLS Cup 2009 victory, RSL has added the customary "star" above the interlocking RSL "jersey" shield.

Back for the fifth season in 2011 is the presence of the Utah-based XANGO logo emblazoned across the front of the team's adidas/MLS game jerseys, following the European professional soccer model. Headquartered in Lehi, Utah, XanGo is the recognized creator and international market leader of nutritional supplements from the mangosteen, a prized fruit from Southeast Asia.

The landmark Real Salt Lake / XanGo jersey-front partnership was unveiled on November 17, 2006, the first of its kind in major-league U.S. professional team sports. Since XanGo branded the RSL kit, more than a half-dozen MLS teams have recruited sponsors to follow suit. In June of 2009, RSL and XanGo announced a four-year extension of the jersey-front partnership and increased involvement for XanGo and its brand across RSL-related properties and at various Rio Tinto Stadium events through the end of the 2013 season.

"It is a wonderful milestone for RSL to be the first MLS franchise to secure a jersey-front sponsor," said Real Salt Lake owner Dave Checketts at the 2006 XanGo Revolution introduction, witnessed by nearly 10,000 attendees. "XanGo is a strong supporter of professional soccer in Utah and the growth of our franchise nationally and globally. XanGo's aggressive vision and innovative commitment to become the first company to sponsor a professional U.S. team sports jersey meshes well with the RSL spirit and mission. Jersey-front partners across the globe are intimately linked with the team identity and brand, representing a very personal relationship between the two organizations. XanGo's healthy lifestyle brand energy is an ideal fit, and the entire RSL organization is proud to bring the XanGo name to our field of play."

Real Salt Lake's name, colors and identity were originally introduced on October 9, 2004, with the team's unique nomenclature inspired by Mr. Checketts' admiration of FIFA "Club of the Century" Real Madrid, as well as his desire for the Utah MLS club to own a name immediately recognizable by its soccer connotation. The name "Real" – Spanish for "royal" – demonstrates RSL's globally-conscious vision and aspiration, emblematic of the organization's passion and respect for soccer's heritage, and reflective of the lofty aspirations for competitive excellence and crowning achievements in the community.

"The days of 'traditional mascot names' are numbered, and not only in soccer," said a very prescient Mr. Checketts on that historic day. "The name, colors and shield of Real Salt Lake represent soccer's spirit as a unifying sport, as well as the state of Utah's rapidly expanding diversity."

The color palette conveys the team's desire to embrace all cultures and present international distinction. Claret Red represents the passion and excitement that soccer generates among the Utah populace; Cobalt Blue embodies the state's mountains, lakes and natural beauty, while the accent of Real Gold is inspired by the golden significance of crowns and royalty throughout history.

RSL-ARIZONA ACADEMY

The crowning jewel of Real Salt Lake's Youth Development endeavors is the Real Salt Lake – Arizona (RSL-AZ) Academy, the United States' first – and currently only – soccer residency program affiliated with a Major League Soccer club. Based out of the state-of-the-art, $20 million Grande Sports World training facility in Casa Grande, Arizona, the goal of the RSL-AZ Academy is straightforward – to teach the next generation of potential Real Salt Lake players how to train and play "the RSL way" while providing them with a quality education both on and off the field. The RSL-AZ Academy hit the ground running in its inaugural year in 2010, when 24 players gathered in the desert to lift the burgeoning program to impressive heights right from the start.

After visiting the Grande Sports World complex during its 2010 preseason, Real Salt Lake developed a relationship with the facility that pushed past merely bolstering the Utah side's three-year-old RSL-Arizona Under-17 team. As a result, the residency program that came to fruition with the Fall 2010 Academy class has all but revolutionized the way youth development is looked at in MLS circles. With an impressive coaching staff that is committed to teaching the core values of the Real Salt Lake system, and continuous access to perhaps the most outstanding soccer training facility in the country at Grande Sports World, the RSL-AZ Academy residency program leads the way in developing soccer talent in the United States.

Shortly after forming, the RSL-AZ Academy was designated as a member club of the US Soccer Development Academy, a partnership between U.S. Soccer and the top youth clubs around the country to provide the best youth players in the U.S. with an everyday environment designed to produce the next generation of National Team players. The Academy's programming philosophy of increased training, less total games and more competitive games is based on U.S. Soccer's Best Practices utilized by the U-17 U.S. National Team Residency program. The RSL-AZ Academy is one of now 78 clubs taking part in the elite development program and participates at the U-15/16 and U-17/18 age groups in the competitive Southern California Division – a 10-team group which also includes squads representing a pair of MLS rivals, Chivas USA and the L.A. Galaxy.

Between its contributions to Real Salt Lake's SUM Cup successes, an undefeated record at the US Soccer Development Academy Winter Showcase, an upcoming appearance in the prestigious 2011 Dallas Cup Super Group, and an overall impressive showing in its first season of league play, it is no wonder the Real Salt Lake – Arizona Academy has garnered such widespread notoriety in a short amount of time. Perhaps the best proof of the RSL-AZ Academy's quality of training stems from its ranking as one of the top US Soccer Development Academy programs in NCAA scholarship offers for the 2011 NCAA season, with its graduates scheduled to continue their playing careers at some of the nation's top programs from coast to coast.

For the 2011-2012 academic year, the Real Salt Lake – Arizona Academy plans on boosting its enrollment for full-time residential academy players, the evaluation process beginning with player identification and tryouts in April and continuing through July. Are you the next Real Salt Lake prospect? David James

English Play-by-play

David James joined KUTV 2News in August of 1992, where he's remained as a Sports Anchor and Reporter for the last 17 years – and counting. James currently anchors the sports news for KUTV's weekend broadcasts in addition to hosting the station's "Talkin' Sports" wrap up programs on the weekend, flying solo for the half-hour show on Saturday night and co-hosting the hour-long Sunday version with Dave Fox. In addition, James handles hosting duties for the Utah Jazz's pre-game, halftime and post-game shows on KJZZ-TV and FSN-Utah.

In addition to his television duties, James also co-hosts "DJ & PK In the Morning," a morning drive sports radio talk show. A widely-respected broadcaster, James was named the 1996 Utah Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscaster and Sportswriter Association.

David is a family man who loves to hike, play basketball and spend time with his wife Marina, son Ryan and daughter Lia.

English Color Analyst

Brian Dunseth, the former Captain of the 2000 U.S. Olympic Team and the man who scored the game-winning goal in Real Salt Lake's first-ever win in its home opener in 2005 vs. rival Colorado, can be seen or heard each week during the RSL season, providing analysis during various RSL television and radio broadcasts, also often co-hosting the pre- and post-game shows for KALL 700 Sports Radio.

A nine-year veteran of MLS play, Brian can also be seen nationally on Fox Soccer Channel's 2010 MLS and international soccer slates. Mr. Dunseth, co-creator of the "Bumpy Pitch" soccer-based lifestyle clothing line and The Original Winger online magazine, resides in Salt Lake City with wife Jade and infant son Shia.

Bill Riley

English Play-by-play

Bill Riley enters his sixth season as a television and radio voice of Real Salt Lake. His career in television and radio broadcasting spans 16 years, the last eight in the Salt Lake market.

In addition to his RSL duties, Mr. Riley co-hosts the "Bill & Spence" show on the team's flagship station, KALL 700 Sports Radio, daily from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. MT. Before and after the MLS season, his play-by-play duties involve calling the Big Sky, Mountain West and Western Athletic Conference's basketball and football games. Before moving to Utah in 2001, Mr. Riley lived in Jacksonville, Fla., where he worked as the voice of Jacksonville University, a sports anchor at the local ABC affiliate and the host of a Morning Drive Sports Talk Show on the Jacksonville Jaguars flagship station.

Mr. Riley, a proud 1992 graduate of the University of Kansas, and his wife, Cindy, live in Salt Lake City with their two children.

Brian Kamler

English Color Analyst

Brian Kamler, a veteran of 10 MLS seasons and a two-time MLS Cup Champion, originally joined Real Salt Lake via the 2005 Expansion Draft. Mr. Kamler has appeared on RSL television and radio broadcasts periodically since the 2006 season. Following his retirement as a player, Mr. Kamler was RSL's Director of Player Development for the 2006 season.

As a player, Mr. Kamler appeared in all but two of RSL's 27 games during its inaugural campaign, starting 21, primarily at defensive midfield, also filling in at left back, and even playing 8 minutes in goal. During his 10 MLS seasons, Kamler scored 12 goals and assisted on 27 others, setting single-season career highs in both categories during the 2003 season with the New England Revolution, when he scored six times and assisted on five others.

He and his wife, Suzanne, and their two children currently reside in Draper, Utah.

Spencer Checketts

Pre-Game Host

Since 2004, Spencer Checketts has been a mainstay with both RSL and KALL 700, working in promotions, public relations, community relations and advertising during the organization's first four years of existence. For the last two years, he has dedicated himself full-time to working on-air with KALL 700 Sports Radio, creating the daily "Reality Check" show before moving into the weekday "Bill & Spence" show from 3:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. daily.

Over the past seven years, Mr. Checketts has served as co-host of "First Kick" and "Extra Time" (the pre- and post-game shows for Real Salt Lake) on KALL 700, while his work as an NBA insider on the various daily, pre- and post-game shows has earned him the reputation as one of the finest on-air NBA analysts in the market.

Spencer, a single father of seven-year old son Connor, resides in the Sugarhouse area of Salt Lake City, Utah.

RSL COMMUNICATIONS

As the 2010 Major League Soccer season commences, defending Cup champion Real Salt Lake welcomes you to embark on what we expect to be a truly captivating journey. With heightened expectations on the heels of last season's spectacular postseason run and the State of Utah's first major-league professional title in nearly 40 years, our sixth season truly ushers in a new era for the legacy of world-class professional soccer in Utah.

RSL's first five campaigns featured many memorable moments, showcasing "The Beautiful Game" to the Utah community. The home team captured its historic first win in team history in front of a crowd of 25,287 with a 1-0 victory over Rocky Mountain rival Colorado Rapids at Rice-Eccles on April 16, 2005. Salt Lake City also played host to a FIFA World Cup Qualifier on June 4, 2005, where 40,586 screaming fans from 48 different states watched the U.S. Men's National Team drill Costa Rica in a 3-0 rout. Fans from Utah also witnessed former Jamaican National Team captain Andy Williams score the League's 5,000th goal, while Jason Kreis became the first MLS player to amass 100 goals on a spectacular full volley to the upper 90, leaving KC's GK Bo Oshoniyi rooted on his line.

Season Two will long be remembered for two developments: the first-ever Utah visit by RSL sister club, Real Madrid, which spent a week in Salt Lake leading up to its 2-0 win before 45,000 fans at a sold-out Rice-Eccles Stadium; and the evolution of the team into a cohesive, competitive unit, shedding the expansion tag and emerging as Major League Soccer's hottest team during the second half of the season, dropping just four of its final 16 games, amassing 26 points and scoring 45 goals, the third-highest total in MLS. RSL earned a reputation for late-game heroics, tallying 15 of its 45 scores in the final 15 minutes of games, becoming the only team in MLS with as many as four wins when trailing at the half, and the only team with four wins after allowing the first goal.

Season Three did not meet early expectations coming off the hot finish to 2006, and will forever be remembered as a year of transition. Major League Soccer's all-time leading scorer abruptly retired, as captain Jason Kreis exchanged the boots that had scored 108 goals for a clipboard and whistle to become the organization's second head coach. Several veterans were jettisoned for younger players, with Kreis bringing in Olympic hopefuls Robbie Findley and Nathan Sturgis, acquiring Colorado villains Chris Wingert and Kyle Beckerman from the rival Rapids, and importing a trio of Argentine professionals, Fabian Espindola, Matias Mantilla and Javier Morales.

Kreis' former Duke University and Dallas Burn teammate, Garth Lagerwey, was named Real Salt Lake's second General Manager in September, 2007. The duo then acquired young striker Yura Movsisyan and watched RSL go 4-4-3 down the stretch, missing out on the playoffs but capturing the team's first-ever piece of hardware, the 2007 Rocky Mountain Cup, with a scintillating win starring RSL MVP Nick Rimando and late-game heroics by Findley.

The 2008 season saw RSL achieve several firsts, ascending to the top of the Western Conference in July, dropping just one game at home during the regular season (albeit in the final home game at Rice-Eccles), securing a playoff berth in heart-stopping fashion at Colorado in the season's final moments, and winning the first-ever home postseason game at Rio Tinto Stadium. RSL took it one step further in 2009, advancing to MLS Cup as the #8 seed in the Playoffs, earning its berth on the final weekend with a plethora of permutations coming together to give the 11-12-7 team the opportunity to knock off 2008 champ Columbus, 4-2 on aggregate, before winning penalty-kick deciders at Chicago against Cuauhtemoc Blanco and the Fire and outlasting Beckham, Donovan and the Los Angeles Galaxy before 46,000+ in Seattle at MLS Cup 2009.

This season, RSL's collective sights are set on defending the title and making MLS history with a successful run in the CONCACAF Champions League. We hope that this guide assists you in your coverage of Real Salt Lake and Major League Soccer for the 2010 campaign. Please do not hesitate to call us for additional assistance. We look forward to working with you throughout the year.

www.RSLtotheCore.com—Exclusive behind-the-scenes photos, video, breaking news and information, as well as off-the-field content for fans and media.

E-Mail Release List—All of Real Salt Lake and Rio Tinto Stadium's announcements are sent via e-mail. To be placed on either list, please contact one or both of RSLcommunications@RealSaltLake.com or RioTintoStadium@RealSaltLake.com.

Media Interviews

Members of the media requesting an interview with Real Salt Lake or Rio Tinto Stadium players, coaches or administrators should make arrangements with the RSL/Rio Tinto Stadium Public Affairs office:

- Trey Fitz-Gerald—Director: (801) 856-8877 (cell)
- John Koluder—Asst. Director: (801) 918-5050 (cell)

Photography Requests

Real Salt Lake and Rio Tinto Stadium maintain a limited number of head and shoulder portraits of players, coaches and officers, as well as venue images. For action shots, please contact Melissa Majchrzak at (612) 205-4706 or at lissa363@yahoo.com. Getty Images serves as the Official Photographer for Major League Soccer. Media outlets can also download high-resolution photos at www.Gettyimages.com.

Transportation / Parking

All parking for working media will be located in Rio Tinto Stadium's West Lot, with passes distributed by RSL Media Relations. On event days, no one will gain access to this lot without a permit. Parking in this lot is extremely limited, and requests must be submitted one week prior to the event via RSLcommunications@RealSaltLake.com; cash lots are available near the stadium. All Live TV Trucks Should Park In Their Designated Space Inside The South Loading Dock Area.

Gameday Credentials Application / Pick-up

Credential applications for the 2010 Real Salt Lake season at Rio Tinto Stadium are available online at www.RealSaltLake.iwebreg.com. Individual game credential requests must be submitted via RSLcommunications@RealSaltLake.com ONE WEEK prior to event in order to ensure proper handling.

Beginning at 5:00 p.m. on each gameday, all Real Salt Lake media credentials will be available for pickup at the Media Services Will Call Window (West side box office).

Print, Radio, TV press and photographers should take one of two main West side elevators or the stairs to the Stadium's fourth floor. Photographers and field access ENG crew members are required to check-out photo bibs beginning at 5:00 p.m. in the Main Level Media Room on the ground floor. Bibs should be returned following game at the same location.

Event Seating / Access To Press Box

All media will access the Rio Tinto Stadium Press Box using the West Side Main Elevator bank and/or West Stairs. Seating charts will be posted in various locations directing media members to their assigned seats and booths. All credentialed members of the written press Working On Deadline will be assigned a seat in the Press Box; as per Real Salt Lake policy, RSVPs are required for those desiring a seat in the Press Box 48 hours in advance of event. Auxiliary press seating will be located atop sections 23 and 24 in the NW corner for those NOT filing on deadline.

Pre-Game Media Access Policy

NO pre-game player interviews will be granted without a prior appointment via RSL Communications. Photo marshals and representatives from RSL Communications will sweep the field one hour prior to the game, removing those individuals without a photo bib or field access credentials. At this time, print media will also be advised to matriculate to the fourth floor Press Box or the auxiliary press area. Prior to the anthem, team photos and kickoff, photographers and ENG crews will be escorted behind the midfield touchline for pre-game ceremonies and player introductions.

Field Photographers

Prior to 1st & 2nd half kickoffs, photographers and ENG crews must decide from behind which goal they wish to shoot. If photographers or ENG crews wish to switch sides of the field, they can do so ONLY after the players exit the field at halftime from behind the east side fieldboards – No West-side Access Allowed At Any Time. Photographers and ENG crews will go to their selected endline spots immediately after team pictures & coin toss as instructed by the photo marshals. During the match, photographers have restricted freedom of movement. Because space around the perimeter of the field is limited, absolutely NO photographers will be allowed along the West sideline – including the bench area – during the match, nor is use of the players' field tunnel permitted AT ANY TIME.

ENG Crew Shooting Guidelines

ENG cameras are allowed to shoot game action from the field level, or from the EAST side camera baskets on the second level of Rio Tinto Stadium. By acceptance of RSL/Rio Tinto Stadium/MLS accreditation, ENG crews agree to abide by the accepted industry standards of film/video use for images they may obtain from the rights holder [i.e., use within a 72-hour window as part of regularly scheduled news or sports programming]. No other rights are granted for any other broadcast or video applications.

Post-Game Media Access Procedures

On-field Post-Game Interviews Will Be Allowed with RSL team members for all local affiliates.

At approximately 9:10 p.m. MT, RSL Head Coach Jason Kreis will enter the Main Level Media Room. Following Coach Kreis' post-game interview session, the team locker rooms are accessible. All media members with a BLUE pass will have Locker Room access at the conclusion of Coach Jason Kreis' press conference. Access to locker rooms is through the main elevator bank.

Internet Access / Telephones

A secure, high-speed wireless network will be operational on both the 4th floor Press Level and the 1st floor Main Level media room at Rio Tinto Stadium during RSL events in order to assist media members in their filing and informational needs. Network name & passwords will be posted throughout all media areas.

Post-game Quotes

RSL Communications will send representatives into each locker room after the game to collect quotes from players and coaches. A post-game quote sheet will be distributed following the game on the fourth floor press level, and via e-mail.

Referee Pool Reporter

A pool reporter is assigned by the home team PR Director to represent the media with any necessary inquiries of the game officials. The MLS pool reporter must be identified and have his/her identity posted in the official's locker room 30 minutes prior to kickoff.
