The San Jose Earthquakes and Amway announced a three-year partnership agreement on January 27, 2009 that includes Amway's name on the front of the Earthquakes jerseys. The partnership also features a number of in-stadium, community and grassroots components that will provide greater visibility for both the Earthquakes and Amway.

Community Program

A major part of the partnership is focused on community initiatives in the Bay Area. Amway is now the official sponsor of the Kicks for Kids program that focuses on fitness and healthy lifestyles, as well as bringing underprivileged children to Earthquakes games. Through the program, Earthquakes players have visited over 30 schools in the Bay Area over the past two seasons to discuss the importance of being active and living a healthy lifestyle. At each event, the player distributes tickets and replica jersey shirts to hundreds of children at each school. In 2009 and 2010, Amway helped bring over 7,000 children to Earthquakes games. The program will continue to grow in 2011 as the Quakes will visit 20 schools during the season as part of the Kicks for Kids program. Earthquakes players also made Amway-sponsored appearances at road games in 2009 for independent business owners. Players met a group of fans, posed for pictures and signed autographs.

Amway and the Earthquakes also sponsor the Hispanic Youth Soccer Scholarship Program. This program will pay the expenses for one year of soccer for a deserving youth player in the Bay Area. The 2010 recipient of the scholarship was Juan Guerrero Jr. He was honored on the field at Buck Shaw Stadium prior to the the Quakes 2010 home opener against Real Salt Lake.

About Amway

Based in Ada, Mich., Amway is a worldwide leader in direct selling, with more than three million Independent Business Owners (IBOs) in over 80 countries and territories around the world. Amway was founded in 1959.

- \cdot XS $^{\text{TM}}$ Energy Drinks, with all of the "energy," and none of the sugar.

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR

The San Jose Earthquakes and the English Premier League's Tottenham Hotspur Football Club announced the establishment of a strategic partnership on October 9, 2008. Representatives of the Earthquakes and Tottenham Hotspur announced the partnership at a press conference at the Fairmont Hotel in San Jose.

With the objective of creating a long-term bond between the two clubs, the partnership primarily focuses on both soccer and commercial development by exchanging and implementing the best practices from both organizations. The two clubs will also collaborate on community and charitable endeavors.

"The Earthquakes and Major League Soccer are delighted and excited with the creation of this great professional soccer relationship," said Earthquakes owner Lew Wolff at the press conference. "We believe our coming together with the historic Tottenham Hotspur Football Club unites the premier soccer league in England with the premier soccer league in the U.S."

This partnership will serve to develop the Tottenham Hotspur brand in the United States, while expanding the Earthquakes brand overseas. Tottenham Hotspur fans across the U.S. will now have the opportunity to be more engaged and connected with the Club, as both the senior and youth teams plan on visiting the country in the near future. The Earthquakes also have the option to play a match in England against Spurs.

Paul Barber, Tottenham Hotspur Executive Director, highlighted the commercial benefits for the Tottenham Hotspur, "This agreement with San Jose Earthquakes will provide us with an excellent opportunity to access a key region in a global market. As a Club we are continually looking for innovative ways to evolve and our partnership with the Earthquakes will enable us to market the Tottenham Hotspur to a wider audience. We already have a fan base within the state of California and the opportunity to grow the brand in the U.S is very appealing."

The Earthquakes trained at Spurs Lodge in England during the preseason in 2010 and 2011. Spurs also traveled to California to play San Jose on July 17, 2010 in front of a sellout crowd. The game drew the highest rating on ESPN for a game involving an MLS team in 2010.

OWNERSHIP GROUP

Lew Wolff Investor-Operator

Lew Wolff is co-owner of the San Jose Earthquakes after exercising his exclusive option to bring the team back to the Bay Area on July 18, 2007. Wolff's entry into MLS came after a trip to the 2006 World Cup in Germany.

As soon as the franchise returned to the league, Wolff made four million dollars of renovations to Buck Shaw Stadium at Santa Clara University, helping create one of the best and most intimate atmospheres in MLS. The newly improved Buck Shaw Stadium has a top quality grass field, and a state-of-the-art scoreboard and video screen. He also worked to create the Nutrilite Training Facility, adjacent to the site of the proposed new stadium on Coleman Avenue in San Jose.

For over two years prior to the team's return, Wolff was instrumental in laying the groundwork for the return of the Earthquakes as an expansion franchise with its records, colors, and trophies intact. He has worked tirelessly over the last few years to find a stadium solution that will work for the team, its fans, and the community. Wolff is responsible for heading a proposal to build a state-of-the-art soccer stadium in San Jose with no public funding.

In October of 2008, Wolff was a key piece in the establishment of a partnership with the English Premier League's Tottenham Hotspur Football Club. The partnership primarily focuses on both soccer and commercial development by exchanging and implementing the best practices from both organizations. The Earthquakes have made two preseason trips to London while Spurs played the Earthquakes at a sold-out Buck Shaw Stadium in 2010.

The San Jose Mercury-News ranked Wolff first in its annual listing of the Bay Area's 25 Most Powerful Sports Figures in both 2006 and 2007.

In September 2008, the Silicon Valley Leadership Group also presented Wolff with its prestigious "Community Cornerstone Award." The award is given to "a Silicon Valley leader who has displayed a lifetime of impeccable ethics, business achievement and community engagement."

Wolff is the founder of Wolff Urban Development and co-founder of Maritz-Wolff, entities that are involved in the development, acquisition and management of a wide range of commercial, office, parking and hotel properties in a number of California cities including San Jose, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Burbank.

Wolff's ownership interests in representative hotels and resorts include properties such as The Carlyle in New York City; Four Season Hotels in Houston, the Park Hyatt in Carlsbad; The Ritz-Carlton in St. Louis; Fairmont Hotels in San Jose and San Francisco; Rosewood-managed hotels including The Mansion in Dallas, Little Dix Bay, Virgin Gorda, Inn of the Anasazi, Sante Fe plus other brands such as Marriott. In addition, Maritz-Wolff has a 50 percent interest in the Dallas-based Rosewood Management Company, which owns and operates luxury hotels and resorts throughout the world.

Wolff began his career in real estate economics and appraisal in his hometown of St. Louis, Mo. before relocating to Los Angeles. In addition to his real estate analysis work, he also served as the President of the 20th Century Fox Realty & Development Company where he managed Fox's worldwide real estate activities.

Wolff is a former minority owner of the St. Louis Blues, the Golden State Warriors and the San Jose Missions, a now-defunct minor league baseball team. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin in Madison, a master's degree in business administration from Washington University in St. Louis and is also a member of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers (MAI).

Wolff resides in the Westwood section of Los Angeles with his wife, Jeane. The Wolffs have three children and four grandchildren.

EXECUTIVE STAF

Keith Wolff Manging Partner

Keith M. Wolff is the Managing Partner for the San Jose Earthquakes and President of Wolff Urban Development, LLC. In addition, Mr. Wolff is also part of the related ownership group for the Oakland Athletics professional baseball club.

During his time with the Earthquakes, Wolff has taken the lead on several multi-million dollar projects. In 2010, Wolff was the point man for the development of the world class Nutrilite Training Facility, a one-million dollar venture. San Jose's training grounds were home to Tottenham Hotspur of the English Premier League for one week in July of 2010. The Earthquakes club partner used the facility in preparation for a friendly played at Buck Shaw Stadium, an event that Wolff was intricately involved with.

At the outset of 2011, Wolff made significant process on the Earthquakes proposed new stadium by beginning the demolition process on the Food Machinery Building at 1125 Coleman Avenue. Since his arrival with the club, Wolff has been an outspoken proponent for building a soccer-specific stadium in San Jose.

Wolff has over twenty years of experience within the real estate industry with an emphasis on hotel, office and retail project assets. Wolff has an extensive background in all facets of commercial real estate and has been working on behalf of the team ownership group to lead the site acquisition, entitlement, design and development team for a soccer specific stadium for the Earthquakes and a new professional baseball stadium for the Athletics. Wolff received a Bachelors of Science degree, Magna Cum Laude, from the University of the Pacific and holds an Masters in Business Administration from Harvard University.

EXECUTIVE STAFF

Michael Crowley
Manging Director

Michael Crowley begins his first full season with the Earthquakes as the Managing Director. In October of 2010, Crowley was promoted after hiring David Kaval as the new Earthquakes President. He served as the team's President from 2007 to October of 2010.

During the 2010 season, Crowley was instrumental in helping to bring club partner Tottenham Hotspur to San Jose for a friendly on July 17, 2010, a match that drew a sellout crowd as well as a national television audience on ESPN. Additionally, the Earthquakes set a franchise record for single-game attendance against the Los Angeles Galaxy on August 21, 2010, with a crowd of 10,799 on hand for San Jose's 1-0 win. The new attendance mark eclipsed the previous record of 10,712 on hand for San Jose's friendly against Tottenham Hotspur.

Under Crowley's leadership in 2009, the Quakes posted the third-highest average attendance in Quakes history. The Earthquakes also saw an increase in sponsorship as the Quakes signed a multi-million dollar sponsorship deal with Amway just before the 2009 season kicked off. He also played a key role in bringing the Night of Champions Doubleheader to San Francisco, which saw the largest Bay Area soccer crowd since the 1999 Women's World Cup. The Night of Champions saw the Earthquakes take on the Columbus Crew followed by FC Barcelona playing Chivas de Guadalajara at Candlestick Park.

Crowley oversaw the four-million dollar renovations made to Buck Shaw Stadium at Santa Clara University and greatly influenced the establishing of a strategic partnership with the English Premier League's Tottenham Hotspur Football Club in 2008. On the team side, he played an important role in the hiring of General Manager of Soccer Operations John Doyle and head coach Frank Yallop.

Crowley also serves as president of the Oakland Athletics. The 2011 season marks Mike Crowley's 14th year with the Athletics' organization and his 13th as president after being named to the position on September 28, 1998. His tenure is the second longest among those who have served in the same capacity since 1968. A limited partner in the Athletics ownership group, Crowley is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Athletics' organization both on the business and baseball sides of the operation, working directly with Managing Partner Lew Wolff.

After spending three years in the San Jose office of Price Waterhouse and nine years with I.C.I./Fuller O'Brien Paints, Crowley joined the Athletics organization in July 1997 as vice president and chief financial officer. Considered a key figure in the A's resurgence as one of baseball's premier franchises, Crowley has been committed to fielding a championship-caliber team with homegrown talent. He works closely with General Manager Billy Beane on key player decisions and issues relating to the baseball operations overall objectives and philosophies.

In 1999, Crowley and his wife, Kathy, played a key role in implementing the Oakland A's Breast Cancer Awareness Day, which has raised close to $875,000 for cancer-related causes over the last eight years. Crowley currently serves on the Bay Area Board of Trustees of the Knowledge is Power Program (KIPP), which aims to create a respected, influential and nationwide family of schools that are successful in helping educationally underserved students develop the knowledge, skills and character to succeed in college and in the competitive world. He also served on the board of top business executives and community leaders that attempted to land the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in the Bay Area.

A native Californian, Crowley graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1985 with a degree in business administration with an emphasis in accounting. He earned his MBA from Duke's Fuqua School of Business in 1992. In November of 2002, Crowley was named one of Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal's "40 Under 40", honoring the nation's top sport executives under the age of 40. Crowley resides in Los Gatos with his wife, Kathy, and their three children.

David Kaval President

David Kaval was hired as the new President of the San Jose Earthquakes in October of 2010. He oversees the business and technical sides of the franchise.

After joining the Earthquakes, Kaval wasted no time in making his mark. The new Earthquakes President announced plans to demolish the Food Machinery Corporation (FMC) buildings residing on the site of San Jose's proposed stadium beginning on March 3, 2011. In an effort to keep fans informed about stadium development, Kaval launched a weekly blog on SJEarthquakes.com. Additionally, Kaval unveiled plans for improvements to the atmosphere at Buck Shaw Stadium in 2011, including: A new concessionaire in Bon Appetite, iConcessions in-seat ordering, a revamped Epicenter Fan Zone, a new VIP Section, gourmet food carts, a new team store, the addition of the George Best Gate and VIP restrooms.

On the corporate sponsorship side, Kaval has helped create partnerships with the 7UP Bottling Company. Farmer's Insurance and VISA, along with helping renewals for KFC and SuperCuts, among others.

Prior to joining the Earthquakes, Kaval founded the Golden Baseball League in 2003 with fellow Stanford Business School graduate Amit Patel. Kaval was responsible for raising the initial capital to launch the league and attracted a number of investors from around the country to fund the venture. He also negotiated a number of major corporate partnerships, including the multi-million dollar league naming rights agreement with Safeway. Kaval also served as the President of the Yuma Scorpions, Long Beach Armada, Chico Outlaws teams, as well as the Arizona Winter League. The Golden Baseball League currently includes 12 teams in three different countries. Under Kaval's leadership, the league turned an operating profit in multiple years.

In addition to his time with the Golden Baseball League, Kaval worked at Key Bank, served as a Business Analyst for Accenture, and was the Director of Business Development for Sparks.com.

Kaval has also spent time in the Office of the President of the United States on the budget for National Security.

Kaval is a recognized expert by the Superior Court of the State of California on the subject of minor league baseball and the business of professional sports. He lecturers in a variety of programs at Stanford University including the Graduate School of Business and is a Director of the Workforce Investment Board in San Mateo County.

In 2000, Kaval co-authored a book entitled "The Summer that Saved Baseball," which highlighted a tour of all 30 Major League Baseball stadiums in the summer of 1998.

A native of Cleveland, Kaval earned a B.A. in 1998 and an M.B.A. in 2003 from Stanford University.

He currently resides in Menlo Park with his wife and two daughters.

GENERAL MANAGER

John Doyle General Manager of Soccer Operations

John Doyle enters his fourth season with the club as General Manager of Soccer Operations. Doyle is responsible for all aspects of the club's soccer operations, including the coaching staff, the first team, reserves and the academy. Doyle has assembled one of the top coaching staffs in the league in head coach Frank Yallop, assistant coaches lan Russell and Mark Watson and goalkeeper coach Jason Batty.

The 2010 season was a benchmark for success under Doyle's leadership. A mixture of transactions played a key role in San Jose's run to the Eastern Conference Championship. Doyle traded for eventual 2010 MLS Budweiser Golden Boot winner Chris Wondolowski late in the 2009 season, signed veteran goalkeeper Jon Busch, acquired a budding star in Sam Cronin and picked up the club's first Designated Player, former FC Barcelona and Hull City star Geovanni. This confluence of personnel decisions coupled with Yallop's coaching led to the best season for San Jose since returning to MLS in 2008, a 13-10-7 record. The team earned the third highest point total in team history with 46.

Doyle also selected Generation adidas defender Ike Opara during the 2010 SuperDraft, a selection that paid immediate dividends—as he was the early choice for MLS Rookie of the Year before injury cut the young center back's season short. With a bevy of talent on the back line, the Earthquakes set a new franchise mark with 13 shutouts in 2010. Capping the postseason honors was Bobby Convey's selection as the MLS Comeback Player of the Year. Convey was also the lone San Jose representative on the 2010 MLS All-Star Team.

After a slow start in their 2008 expansion season, Doyle showed his resourcefulness by overhauling the team's attack during the international transfer window in July, signing English midfielder Darren Huckerby and former AS Roma midfielder Francisco Lima and trading for midfielder Arturo Alvarez. Those moves jump-started the Quakes attack and helped them put together a nine-game unbeaten streak from July 12-Sept. 27, the longest unbeaten streak in the league in 2008 and the second longest ever by an expansion team. The team finished the year with more wins (8), points (33) and goals scored (32) than any expansion team this decade.

Doyle has been a part of the San Jose MLS team every season since its inception, working in a number of capacities. He and Michael Emenalo were signed as the first players in club history on Dec. 7, 1995 when the team was known as the San Jose Clash. The Fremont, Calif. native played five illustrious seasons as the captain of the Clash/Earthquakes and until 2003 held the team records for games played (132) and minutes played (11,385). A two-time MLS All-Star (1996, 1997), Doyle scored 11 goals and dished out 15 assists in his career. He was the 1996 MLS Defender of the Year and named to the League's Best XI that year.

Following his retirement at the end of the 2000 season, Doyle served as the television analyst from 2001-03. He was then hired on Jan. 22, 2004 as the assistant coach for Dominic Kinnear. With Doyle as the assistant coach, the Quakes made two consecutive playoff appearances and in 2005 won the Supporters Shield. The 2005 team became just the second team in league history to record over 60 points. In 2005, Doyle was the inaugural member of the San Jose Earthquakes Hall of Fame.

Doyle has also spent the past 11 years as the Director of Coaching for Mustang Soccer, where he is responsible for the training and development of coaches who oversee over 5,000 children from the Danville, Alamo, Walnut Creek and San Ramon areas.

In 2003, Doyle was appointed the Technical Director of U.S. Super Y League. He was elected to the U.S. Soccer Board of Directors in 2001 and was named to the U.S. Soccer Technical Committee in 2002. He holds an "A" coaching license from the U.S. Soccer Federation.

The former University of San Francisco All-American enjoyed one of the most decorated playing careers in U.S. soccer history. Doyle first began training with the U.S. national team in 1987 and was a member of the squad until 1994. He played in the 1988 Seoul Olympics and the 1990 World Cup in Italy, as well as the 1991 CONCACAF Gold Cup. Doyle earned 53 caps for the U.S., notching three goals and two assists.

At the club level, Doyle helped the San Francisco Bay Blackhawks win the 1991 APSL Championship. After playing in Sweden and Germany, Doyle returned to the U.S. to play and was named the 1995 APSL Defender of the Year while with the Atlanta Ruckus.

Doyle grew up in nearby Fremont and starred at Washington High School. Doyle resides in Pleasanton with his wife Kaarin and their two children Jay and Kate.

Frank Yallop enters his fourth season as the head coach of the San Jose Earthquakes on a high note after leading the club to the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2005.

Yallop's squad entered the 2010 season flying under the radar, but the squad transformed into MLS Cup contenders. At season's end, Bobby Convey garnered Comeback Player of the Year and Chris Wondolowski won the MLS Budweiser Golden Boot and was a finalist for the Volkswagen MVP award. Yallop's team also took pride in earning the MLS Xbox 360 Team Fair Play award, an accolade given to the club with the fewest yellow cards during the regular season. In the MLS Cup Playoffs, the Earthquakes fell behind 1-0 in the aggregate to the New York Red Bulls. However, under Yallop's leadership, San Jose bounced back for an improbable 3-1 win in front of a packed Red Bull Arena in the second leg to advance to the Conference Championship for the first time since 2003.

In 2009, the Earthquakes finished with 30 points and a 7-14-9 record. Despite their struggles, Yallop rallied the squad to close the season 4-4-5 over their final 13 games. Most notably during that 13 game stretch was a dominant 4-0 win against playoff bound Seattle Sounders FC.

Under Yallop's guidance the Quakes made a successful return to MLS in 2008 as the top expansion team of the last decade. The Quakes had more wins (8) and points (33) scored more goals (32) and allowed fewer goals (38) than any expansion team since 1998. The team also posted a nine-game unbeaten streak from July 12-Sept. 27, which was the longest unbeaten streak in the league in 2008 and the second longest ever by an expansion team. At the conclusion of the season, he was invited to coach MLS' Generation adidas team for a week of games in London.

Yallop's current tenure as head coach of the Earthquakes is his second stint with the club. He also coached the Quakes from 2001-03 before serving as the head coach of the Canadian men's national team from 2004-06 and the Los Angeles Galaxy from 2006-07.

During his previous three seasons as head coach of the Earthquakes, Yallop won two MLS Cup Championships while posting a 41-25-18 record, the best mark in MLS during that stretch. Yallop was also named MLS Coach of the Year in 2001 after taking over a team that posted a league-worst 7-17-8 record in 2000 and leading them to the MLS Cup Championship in 2001. The former Canadian international defender is the club's all-time leader in wins in club history (69). In addition, Yallop coached the MLS All-Stars to a 3-2 win over the United States National Team in 2002.

COACHING STAT

Under Yallop during that stretch, the Earthquakes broke numerous club records, including fewest goals allowed in a season (29) and most consecutive wins at home (12). Many players flourished under Yallop's tutelage, as the Quakes had 13 players named to the All-Star team in Yallop's three seasons and had five members selected to the MLS Best XI team. Seven Earthquakes players also earned their first call-up to the senior men's national team for training camps during Yallop's first three seasons in San Jose.

Yallop began his coaching career in 1999 with the U.S. Project 40 team. He was an assistant coach to Tim Hankinson for the Tampa Bay Mutiny in 1999 and then he went to work with D.C. United in 2000 as the top assistant to then head coach Thomas Rongen.

Before he began his coaching career, Yallop spent almost 20 years playing in England and the United States as a defender. He signed his first professional contract at the age of 16 with Ipswich Town FC in England and in 1992 helped the team win the English First Division. He was twice named the team's most valuable player and Yallop scored game-winning goals in back-to-back games in 1993 to lead Ipswich to Premiership victories over Tottenham Hotspur and legendary side Manchester United.

He also played in MLS as a top defender for the Tampa Bay Mutiny from 1996 to 1998, where he earned the Mutiny's Defender of the Year award in 1997 and 1998. In 1996 Yallop helped the Mutiny to a league-best regular season record of 20-12 and in 1998 he scored the only goal of his MLS career.

Yallop has a United States Soccer Federation "A" coaching license and an FA Preliminary Badge.

He and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jack and Samuel.

COACHING STAFF

Ian Russell Assistant Coach

lan Russell returns to San Jose for his fourth season as Jose's international and collegiate scouting efforts.

one of the top young assistant coaches in Major League Soccer. The former Earthquakes player works closely with head coach Frank Yallop in the preparation of daily training sessions while also helping to coordinate San Earthquakes posted the best record for any expansion team since 1998 with eight wins, 33 points and 32 goals scored. San Jose also recorded a nine-game unbeaten streak from July 12-Sept. 27, the longest unbeaten streak in the league in 2008 and the second-longest ever by an expansion team.

Russell contributed to a memorable 2010 season for the Earthquakes. San Jose reached the Conference Championship in the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2003 and finished with the No. 3 mark all time in franchise history for points with 46.

Russell holds a U.S. Soccer Federation "A" coaching license

In 2009, the Earthquakes finished with 30 points and a 7-14-9 record. Despite their struggles, San Jose rallied to close the season 4-4-5 over their final 13 games. Most notably during that 13 game stretch was a dominant 4-0 win against playoff bound Seattle Sounders FC.

A native of Seattle, Wash., Russell spent six seasons playing for the San Jose Earthquakes and seven total years in MLS. After being drafted in 2000, Russell appeared in 131 games for the Quakes. A lightning-quick midfielder, he scored five goals and notched 20 assists, helping the Quakes win two MLS Cups in 2001 and 2003. He is ninth all-time in Quakes history in assists and is tied for first in playoff appearances with 14.

During his first year with the club, Russell helped the team make a successful return to MLS. In 2008, the Russell also played three games in 2007 with the Los Angeles Galaxy under Frank Yallop.

Jason Batty Goalkeeper Coach

Jason Batty returns for his fourth season as the goalkeeper coach for the San Jose Earthquakes. The New Zealand native works day-to-day with the club's goalkeepers and plays a key role in opponent scouting.

In 2010, Batty oversaw a goalkeeping crew that posted a franchise record 13 clean sheets during the regular season. Keeper Jon Busch provided a steadying presence in goal for the San Jose Earthquakes all season long, especially down the stretch of the regular season after Joe Cannon suffered a fractured ankle.

Under Batty's tutelage in 2008, Joe Cannon had another outstanding season. Cannon ended the year as one of six players in MLS to play every minute of every game, recording a career-high 2,700 minutes.

Prior to joining the Earthquakes, Batty was the Director of Goalkeeping for Texas Premier SC, while serving as a coach for a number of soccer academies and camps. He previously served as an assistant coach and the goalkeeper coach for Dartmouth College.

As a player, he competed professionally for 14 seasons in England, Singapore, New Zealand and the United States. Watson earned 55 caps for New Zealand's national team.

He and his wife, Jess, welcomed their first child, Ava, in 2008.

COACHING STAF

Mark Watson Assistant Coach

Watson enters his second season as an Earthquakes assistant coach after helping transform San Jose into a playoff contending team during his inaugural year on the staff in 2010. The Vancouver, Canada native assists with daily training regimens, pre-game tactical preparations and scouting efforts.

Watson contributed to a memorable 2010 season for the Earthquakes. San Jose reached the Conference Championship in the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2003 and finished with the No. 3 mark all time in franchise history for points with 46. The Earthquakes also set a new club record with 13 clean sheets.

Previously, Watson was an assistant for the Canadian National Team system from 2004-09. He coached with the U-20, U-23 and Senior Canadian National Teams. He was on the staff of the U-23 team for Olympic Qualifying in 2004 and 2008 and also worked with the U-20 team in qualifying for the 2009 FIFA U-20 World Cup.

While working with the Canadian National Team, Watson also spent time as a player and assistant coach with the Charleston Battery of USL-1.

The former defender and captain appeared in 78 matches for the Canadian National Team, scoring three goals. Watson helped Canada win the 2000 CONCA-CAF Gold Cup. Other international career highlights include being a part of Canada's World Cup qualifying campaigns for the 1994, 1998 and 2002 World Cups.

During his playing career, he also spent time in England with Watford from 1993-95 and came to MLS in its inaugural season in 1996, splitting time with the Columbus Crew and New England Revolution. Watson played with the Seattle Sounders briefly in 1997 and then went abroad to Sweden from 1997-98 to play with Osters IF. He played in the Second Division in England with Oxford and Oldham before returning to the United States in 2001 for a season with D.C. United.

Jose Vega Equipment Manager

After six years with the Los Angeles Galaxy, Jose Vega joined the San Jose Earthquakes in May of 2008 as the team's equipment manager.

During his stint with the Galaxy, Vega worked numerous international matches at the Home Depot Center while also accompanying the Galaxy on its 2007 tour of Australia and New Zealand. He has worked at two MLS Cups during his time in the league.

Along with the Earthquakes coaching staff, he traveled with the Generation adidas squad in 2008 to assist in their three-game tour in London, which included games against the Chelsea, Aston Villa, and Reading reserve teams.

Vega is originally from San Salvador, El Salvador, and now lives in the Bay Area with his wife and four children.

COACHING STAFF

Bruce Morgan Head Athletic Trainer

Bruce Morgan returns for his 16th season in the MLS and his 14th as the San Jose Earthquakes head athletic trainer. Having spent the first ten seasons in San Jose (with the Clash/Earthquakes), Morgan is the only person who has been a part of every game (preseason, exhibition, regular season and postseason) in team history.

Morgan started his MLS career with the San Jose Clash in 1996 and was a fixture on the team until 2005 when the Earthquakes were relocated to Houston. Morgan joined the Houston Dynamo during the Earthquakes relocation to Houston in December 2005. He has been a part of four MLS Cup-winning teams, two with San Jose in 2001 and 2003 and two more with Houston in 2006 and 2007.

He returned to San Jose in 2008 to rejoin his former club for the team's return to MLS.

A native of Northern California, Morgan earned his undergraduate degree from California State University Sacramento and his master's degree at the University of Arizona. As a member of the league's medical advisory panel (1996-2002), he assisted in the development of the policies and procedures manual that guides the practice of teams' medical staffs.

Prior to joining San Jose's staff in 1996, Morgan supervised a hospital-based out-reach athletic training program, served as a consultant to numerous youth athletic organizations in that capacity, including the North and Central Coast Sections of the California Interscholastic Federation and the California Youth Soccer Association (CYSA).

An avid reader, he has authored or co-authored articles appearing in a variety of publications, including the American Journal of Orthopedics, the Journal of Arthroscopy and the American Journal of Sports Medicine.

When not attending to the medical needs of the team, Morgan enjoys traveling and spent three weeks in the 2008 offseason traveling to Vietnam. He is also passionate about running, a passion which dates back over thirty years to his days spent as a member of his high school's cross country team.

Hank House Assistant Athletic Trainer

Hank House enters his third season with the Earth-quakes as an assistant athletic trainer.

House is a graduate of San Jose State University and holds a Master's Degree in athletic training. House worked at Baysport Physical Therapy Clinic for three years, and has provided athletic training services for several colleges in the Bay Area. He also spent time as the athletic trainer for the San Francisco Seals. Most recently, House was the Head Athletic Trainer for Prospect High School and then Castro Valley High School.

In 2010, House was a part of the Earthquakes run to the MLS Cup Playoffs. The squad reached the Conference Championship and posted its best season since rejoining the league in 2008.

House lives in San Leandro with his wife, Suzanne, and his two children, Kristin and Joshua.

Greg Tella Fitness Coach

Greg Tella enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Earthquakes. He brings a new dimension to the staff as the primary coach for overall team fitness.

Tella is a certified soccer-specific speed and agility trainer. He spent time working from 2005-07 at Speed Trainers USA, where he worked with clientele of all age groups, both individually, as well as in group settings. During that time, he also was a trainer at Fulfillment Factor, which is a development center for elite soccer players who are 14-18 years of age.

Starting in 2008. Tella has worked with Mustang Soccer Club in Danville as a trainer for both U-15 and U-17 boys level premier teams.

Tella played soccer for most of his life and enjoyed success at the club level with Fremont Celtic, and later at the U-23 level with the La Jolla Nomads in the San Diego area.

Tella went to the University of San Diego on a full soccer scholarship and played from 1995-98. He helped the Toreros to two West Coast Conference titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Joe Dincecco Team Administrator

Joe Dincecco enters his fourth season as the team administrator for the San Jose Earthquakes.

Working directly with General Manager John Doyle, Dincecco oversees and coordinates all team travel and works on the team's preseason training schedule. He also helps coordinate the team's college scouting efforts. Additionally, the Massachusetts native plays a big role in player relocation and the acquisition of the appropriate entry visas for international players.

In addition to his work at the Quakes, he also serves as an assistant coach for the Aptos High School soccer team.

Prior to working for the Earthquakes, Dincecco worked at

Soccer United Marketing (SUM) in New York City, assisting with both the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup and 2007 SuperLiga tournaments. His soccer background also includes stints working for the Richmond Kickers (PDL) and Mass. Pro Soccer.

Dincecco graduated from the University of Richmond in 2007 after playing four years of varsity soccer for the Spiders. He served as captain of the team as a senior. He earned a degree in Business Administration from the Robins School of Business at Richmond. During his college years, he also played for the Cape Cod Crusaders (PDL).

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The San Jose Earthquakes are committed to serving the Northern California community both on and off the field. The team's foundation, the San Jose Earthquakes Community Fund, was created in 2008. The team's main focus with its community endeavors is to raise awareness among local youth about healthy lifestyles and the importance of staying active. The Earthquakes also have community programs that focus on serving the local Hispanic community. For the most up-to-date information on community programs offered by the Earthquakes please visit www.sjearthquakes.com.

Get Earthquakes Fit

Get Earthquakes Fit is a five-week elementary school program dedicated to helping youth live active, healthy lifestyles. The program, focusing on students in third and fourth grade, instructs and supports teachers to use ten fun activities with the goal of encouraging students to make physical activity a regular part of their day. These activities are non-competitive and low tech, allowing for a low-stress environment that delivers a rewarding experience for kids. Participating schools will receive a school visit from an Earthquakes player. At the visit, the player will introduce the five-week program. The children will participate in a series of activities designed by the Earthquakes training staff for 20 minutes a day for five weeks. For more information, contact the Earthquakes community relations department at 408-556-7700.

School Assembly

The San Jose Earthquakes provide free school visits to elementary, middle and high schools around the Bay Area. An Earthquakes player will speak about the importance of education and healthy living, provide a skills demonstration and sign autographs.

Earthquakes Kicks for Kids Program

The Kicks for Kids program gives businesses, corporations and individuals the opportunity to provide San Jose Earth-quakes tickets to non-profit organizations that serve at-risk and underprivileged children and families throughout the Bay Area. The Kicks for Kids program gives children the chance to experience the excitement of Major League Soccer and demonstrates the importance of teamwork, determination and sportsmanship. In 2010, the Earthquakes and their partners brought many at-risk and underprivileged youngsters to the stadium for soccer matches. Kicks for Kids sponsors receive a variety of valuable advertising benefits including recognition in the official match program and in-stadium exposure.

Verizon Adopt-A-Team

San Jose Earthquakes and Verizon created the Adopt-A-Team program to reach out to Bay Area youth soccer teams. Over the course of the 2009 and 2010 seasons, over 30 local teams were adopted by an Earthquakes Soccer player. The player stands in as the celebrity coach and mentor for the team and participates in at least one practice or game for their adopted team. The Adopt-A-Team program is also an effort to prevent relationship abuse by encouraging coaches to talk with their athletes about respect and non-violence. Coaches are poised to help their athletes build healthy relationships by positively influencing how they think and behave both on and off the field. The head coach of each team selected participates in a one-hour informational class, led by the Family Violence Prevention Fund, that addresses the prevalence of domestic violence and the many opportunities coaches have to impart their philosophies of respect, integrity, and non-violence upon their athletes.

U.S. Soccer Humanitarian Award

Every season, Major League Soccer acknowledges the philanthropic endeavors of an Earthquake's player in conjunction with the League's continuing commitment to the San Jose community. Selected at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign in recognition of their involvement in the soccer community throughout the Bay Area was Earthquakes defender Jason Hernandez.

Donation Requests

The San Jose Earthquakes have made merchandise available to registered 501(c)3 organizations for use at fundraisers and auctions. For consideration, please email Laura Webster at lwebster@sjearthquakes.com. Please note that all donation requests must be submitted in writing, either electronic or hard copy at least four (4) weeks prior to the date of your event.

2010 IN REVIEW

QUAKES HISTORY

OPPONENTS

2010 SEASON NOTES

Quakes Reach Conference Final for First Time Since 2003

The San Jose Earthquakes defeated the New York Red Bulls on aggregate 3-2 after a 3-1 win on Nov. 4. With the win, the Quakes advanced to the Eastern Conference Championship, which marks the first time San Jose reached a Conference Championship since 2003. That is also the last time the Earthquakes won the MLS Cup. San Jose defeated the Kansas City Wizards 3-2 in overtime on Nov. 15, 2003 in the Conference Championship at Spartan Stadium. Current assistant coach Ian Russell assisted on the game-tying goal in the 83rd minute in that match. San Jose had never been on the road for a Conference Championship game since the playoff format changed. In 2001, the Quakes won on the road 1-0 in Miami in the third game of the MLS Cup Playoff Semifinals to advance to the MLS Cup. Troy Dayak scored the game-winner in overtime in the 93rd minute on a header to send the Quakes through.

Convey in Franchise Playoff Record Books

With two goals and an assist on Nov. 4 against the New York Red Bulls, Quakes midfielder Bobby Convey tied an individual post-season record for the Earthquakes. His two goals tied Landon Donovan for the most goals scored in a playoff game. Donovan had achieved the feat twice, in his first career playoff game on Sept. 22, 2003 against the Columbus Crew in a 3-1 win and on Nov. 23, 2003 against the Chicago Fire in a 4-2 win in the MLS Cup Final.

San Jose Make Playoff History

By winning a two-leg series against the New York Red Bulls 3-2 after dropping the first leg at home, the Earth-quakes became just the second team to achieve the feat since the playoff format changed in 2003. The only other team to do so was the Colorado Rapids in 2006. After losing the first leg at home 2-1 to FC Dallas, the Rapids won the return leg 3-2 and won on penalties to advance to the Conference Championship.

Wondolowski Wins 2010 Budweiser Golden Boot

San Jose Earthquakes forward and Major League Soccer MVP finalist Chris Wondolowski claimed the 2010 Budweiser Golden Boot, awarded to the top goal scorer at the end of the MLS regular season. Wondolowski's careerhigh 18 goals through 28 games played helped the Earthquakes to their first playoff appearance since the team rejoined MLS in 2008. Wondolowski trailed Los Angeles Galaxy forward Edson Buddle by six goals (14-8) with eight games to play (through games on September 11). By winning the Budweiser Golden Boot, he became the first player to win an MLS goal-scoring title, either jointly or outright, by erasing a deficit of five or more goals in his last 10 games. Wondolowski also became the first player in San Jose franchise history to win the Golden Boot. In 2004, Brian Ching scored 12 goals, which was tied with FC Dallas forward Eddie Johnson for the league lead in goals. However, in 2004, MLS did not award the Golden Boot, but recognized the MLS Scoring Champion, given to the player with the most points in the season.

Wondolowski Named Finalist for Volkswagen MVP

Quakes forward Chris Wondolowksi was a finalist for Volkswagen Most Valuable Player, and finished third.

Wondolowski Sets Club Single Season Goals Record, Moves Up All-Time List

Forward Chris Wondolowski had a tremendous season for the San Jose Earthquakes in 2010, scoring a club record 18 goals in one season. Wondolowski surpassed Ronald Cerritos' record of 15 goals achieved in 1999 in the Earthquakes' 3-0 victory over Chivas USA on Oct. 20 at Buck Shaw Stadium. In that game Wondolowski notched his second hat trick of the season, tying Cerritos' record on the first goal and surpassing it on the second goal. With 21 goals in his career in San Jose, Wondolowski is tied with Eric Wynalda for fifth place on the club's all-time goals scored list. Finally, Wondolowski is first all-time in team history in goals per game with 21 in 44 games played for an average of 0.48.

More History for Wondo

From Sept. 15 to Oct. 23, San Jose forward Chris Wondolowski scored all 10 of the Earthquakes goals, setting the all-time MLS record for the most consecutive goals scored by one player. Wondolowski passed former LA Galaxy forward Carlos Ruiz, who scored nine straight for the Galaxy from 2002-2003. Also, Wondolowski accounted for 52.9 percent (18 of 34) of the Earthquakes' goals in the 2010 season, which is the second highest such percentage all-time in MLS history. Finally, Wondolowski owns the third-highest scoring percentage in MLS history, scoring 25 goals on 111 shots (22.5%). Former San Jose forward Giovanni Savarese has the highest scoring percentage, scoring 51 goals on 218 shots (23.4%), followed by Adolfo Valencia of New York (21 goals on 93 shots, 22.6%).

2010 SEASON NOT

Wondolowski Finishes First in Game-Winning Goals

San Jose forward Chris Wondolowski finished the regular season with a Major League Soccer best nine game-winning goals, which surpassed the previous club record of six game-winning goals in a single season. Wondolowski's nine game-winning goals in a single season are tied for the most in MLS history with Carlos Ruiz, who achieved the feat for the Los Angeles Galaxy in 2002, the year in which he won the MLS MVP award. Additionally, with ten career game-winning goals with the Earthquakes, Wondolowksi is tied with Landon Donovan for second place on the all-time game-winning goals list.

Convey Named 2010 MLS Comeback Player of the Year

San Jose Earthquakes midfielder Bobby Convey was named the Comeback Player of the Year in 2010. Convey battled back from the effects of microfracture surgery on his right knee in 2007 and hamstring injuries that hampered him in 2009 to have a breakout season in 2010. Convey recorded a career-high 10 assists (fifth in MLS) in 2010 to go along with one goal and helped lead the Earthquakes to the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time since their return to MLS in 2008. Convey set a career-high with three assists in one game on May 8 against the New York Red Bulls. His excellent two-way play on the left wing also helped the Quakes achieve their third-highest point total in franchise history with 46. Additionally, Convey finished the regular season tied for the league lead in game-winning assists with five, along with FC Dallas midfielder David Ferreira and LA Galaxy midfielder Landon Donovan. The five game-winning assists are tied for the most in a single season in club history with Eddie Lewis (1999) and Dwayne De Rosario (2005). Convey played 26 games in 2009, totaling only one goal and two assists, but was slowed by a hamstring injury and lingering pain in his right knee. In 2010, Convey appeared in 28 games, missing none due to injury. He missed one game due to yellow card accumulation and he was rested for a game after San Jose had clinched a playoff spot. He became the third Earthquakes player to win the award. Troy Dayak captured the award in 2001, while Brian Ching won in 2004.

Quakes Record Third Highest Point Total in Franchise History

The Quakes finished 13-10-7 with 46 points, which ranks third all-time in franchise history. The Quakes high-water mark came with a Supporters Shield in 2005 when the team earned 64 points. San Jose had 51 points in 2003, the year they won their second MLS Cup Championship in franchise history.

San Jose Sets Single Season Shutout Record

The San Jose Earthquakes set the franchise record for shutouts in a season with 13 clean sheets in 2010. Number 13 came on Oct. 20 in a 3-0 win over Chivas USA at Buck Shaw Stadium. The previous record of 12 shutouts was set in 2005 when the Earthquakes won the lone Supporters Shield in club history.

Convey Finishes Fifth in Assists, Tied for First in Game-Winning Assists

Earthquakes midfielder Bobby Convey finished the regular season fifth in MLS in assists with 10. Landon Donovan of the Los Angeles Galaxy led the league with 16 assists, followed by David Ferreira of FC Dallas (13), Brad Davis of the Houston Dynamo (12) and Sebastien Le Toux of the Philadelphia Union (11). Convey's 10 assists were the most by an Earthquakes player since 2005 when Dwayne De Rosario notched 13 assists, and are a career-high in a single season for the Philadelphia native. Additionally, Convey finished the regular season tied for the league lead in game-winning assists with five, along with Ferreira and Donovan. The five game-winning assists are tied for the most in a single season in club history with Eddie Lewis (1999) and De Rosario (2005).

Road Warriors

With a road record of 6-5-4, the Earthquakes had more wins on the road than the team had in 2008 and 2009 combined. In 2008, the Earthquakes went 2-8-5 on the road in their first season back. In 2009, the Earthquakes went 1-10-5 with the lone win coming against D.C. United on September 27, 2009 at RFK Stadium. With 22 points on the road, the Earthquakes doubled the 11 points the team had in 2008 for the most points earned on the road since the team returned. The franchise record for points on the road in a single season is 30 points, achieved in 2005. In 2010, the Earthquakes had the second-highest winning percentage on the road in the MLS with a .533 clip, along with FC Dallas. The Los Angeles Galaxy had the highest (.700). Finally, the six wins the Earthquakes had on the road were tied for the second-most road wins along with the Seattle Sounders FC. The Los Angeles Galaxy had the most road wins in MLS with nine.

INTRODUCTION

2010 IN REVIEW

OPPONENTS

The Beginning (1994-1996)

The San Jose organization was established in 1994, when San Jose became a charter member of Major League Soccer on June 15. San Jose joined Boston, Columbus, Los Angeles, New York/New Jersey and Washington, D.C. as the first teams in MLS. Between November, 1994 and June 1995, Tampa Bay, Denver, Kansas City and Dallas were added as clubs and the San Jose team was assigned to the Western Conference

The club began to take shape on August 1, 1995 when a Bay Area soccer icon, Peter Bridgwater, was named the president and general manager of the team. Bridgwater previously served as the owner and general manager of the North American Soccer League version of the San Jose Earthquakes, and was one of the founders of the Western Soccer Alliance in the mid-1980s. Bridgwater was also the Venue Executive Director for the San Francisco venue of World Cup 1994.

The San Jose MLS club began its history nicknamed the "Clash," a moniker it kept for four seasons before changing the name of the organization to "Earthquakes" prior to the 2000 season, embracing the name of the former NASL franchise that had been successful in the area throughout the 1970's and 1980's.

Laurie Calloway was named the first head coach in San Jose history on December 7, 1995. Soon after, Calloway announced the first two members of the San Jose club: Bay Area native and U.S. National Team veteran John Doyle and Nigerian World Cup veteran Michael Emenalo.

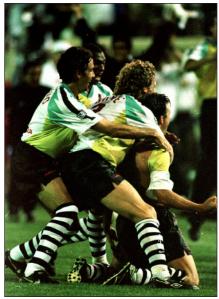

1996: Excitement In San Jose

Throughout the early stages of 1996, San Jose remained busy attempting to field their first squad in the organization's history. The club received a huge boost when it was allocated U.S. National Team leading scorer Eric Wynalda on January 23, just one day after he became the all-time leading goal scorer in U.S. National Team history.

The team continued to take shape, as Paul Bravo was the club's first ever draft pick on February 6 in the inaugural MLS Draft. Eleven days later, San Jose was involved in the first trade in league history, sending Rhett Harty and a first-round draft choice to the Metro-Stars for defender Troy Dayak.

Soon after the first draft, Calloway convened the team on the south campus of San Jose State University on March 1 for the club's first-ever training camp. San Jose was once again an integral part of the launching of MLS, hosting the MLS' Inaugural Game at Spartan Stadium before a crowd of 31,683 on April 6. The thenrecord crowd did not go away disappointed as San Jose won its first game on the first goal in MLS history courtesy of Wynalda, defeating D.C. United 1-0. One month later, the club made history again, as they hosted the Los Angeles Galaxy in a match that drew 31,728 fans to Spartan Stadium, setting the record for attendance at a sporting event in the city of San Jose.

San Jose went on to finish their first season with a 15-17 record and a tough three-game exit from the playoffs by the eventual MLS runners-up Los Angeles Galaxy. It was a season that saw the club host the one millionth fan to attend an MLS game and record the first victory for an MLS team against an international opponent. The Clash defeated UNAM Pumas of the Mexican First Division 2-1 at Spartan Stadium June 12 to earn that distinction. Doyle went on to be recognized as the first MLS Defender of the Year after a stellar season, while also earning a spot on the MLS Best XI team. Missael Espinoza, a Mexican National Team standout, earned the Clash Budweiser MVP Award in that first season.

San Jose would continue with its international success, becoming the first MLS team to make a post-season international tour. The club split two games during a 13-day trip through China in late October and early November.

One player from the original team, Ramiro Corrales, remains with San Jose today. John Doyle, the first official member of the club, now serves as the Earthquakes general manager of soccer operations.

1997: A Star Emerges

San Jose finished the 1997 season with a 12-20 record and failed to make the playoffs. The Clash played through a mid-season coaching change that occurred when Brian Quinn replaced Calloway on June 25, 1997. At the time, the 37-year old Quinn became the youngest coach in MLS history and he finished the '97 campaign with a 7-10 record.

The 1997 team was led by first-year MLS player Ronald Cerritos. Cerritos would go on to become a fan favorite in San Jose, playing with the team for six seasons and becoming the club's all-time leading goal scorer. The Salvadoran set both an MLS and San Jose record with his 11-game point streak during the season, which helped him to be named to the MLS Best XI. Notable members of the '97 club were former head coach Dominic Kinnear and U.S. National Team star Eddie Lewis, then a second-year MLS midfielder. San Jose also made its first appearance in the Lamar Hunt

U.S. Open Cup in 1997, defeating the Central Coast Roadrunners in their first match, before bowing out in the next round of the historic competition.

1998: Another Lean Season

The 1998 season was one of excitement tempered by frustration. Quinn led the team to a 13-19 record, good for 33 points in MLS. San Jose was forced to play the first three home games of the season at Stanford University after winter rains delayed the renovation on Spartan Stadium. When the club returned to Spartan, they faced the New England Revolution May 3, 1998 on a newly widened field that was 70 yards wide and 110 yards long.

Ronald Cerritos again led the team, putting in 13 goals to finish the season as the eighth leading goalscorer in the league. During the 1998 season, the pieces of the eventual 2001 MLS Cup Champions began to form at Spartan Stadium. Eventual 2002 MLS all-star Wade Barrett was drafted in the first round of the 1998 College Draft, and eventual 2002 MLS Goalkeeper of the Year Joe Cannon gained his first MLS experience. Cannon was called to the club from the A-League to serve as a back up for ten days before returning to soccer's minor leagues. Defender Richard Gough enjoyed an all-star season in 1998, as he was the only member of the team selected to play in the mid-season classic. The club was forced to play through May and June without forward Eric Wynalda, who was with the United States National Team at the World Cup in France. Wynalda appeared in two matches for the U.S. during the World Cup.

1999: The Kraft Era Begins

For the first three seasons of the League's history, the San Jose club had operated as a league-owned team. That arrangement changed on November 18, 1998 when the Kraft Group Sports, the investor-operator of the New England Revolution and owner of the NFL's New England Patriots, took over operations of the team. The change in ownership brought immediate change throughout the organization.

Kraft Group Sports assumed operation of the team on January 4 and named Lynne Meterparel the general manager and Renato Capobianco as director of soccer. The 1999 season also marked the final year that the club would be known as the Clash, and the team retired the nickname by setting a club record for wins in a season with 19. Unfortunately, the team's 37 points saw them come up just short of a playoff spot for the third straight season.

However, the team did place three players in the All-Star game, as Cerritos, Lewis and defender Mauricio Wright were selected. Wright knocked in the game-winning goal in the mid-season classic off a Cerritos assist in the 84th minute. The 1999 season also saw Cerritos break his own goal-scoring record with 15, and Lewis establish a new high mark for assists, registering 14.

Lothar Osiander became the third head coach of the team when he took over for Quinn on September 16 with five games remaining in the season. Assistant coach Jorge Espinoza guided the team to two wins before Osiander, the former U.S. National Team coach, was able to join the team from coaching the MLS Project-40 team for the final three matches of the year.

Despite missing the post-season, San Jose continued building for the future. The 1999 season was the first season for four key members of the 2001 MLS Cup Championship squad. Midfielder Richard Mulrooney, defender Jimmy Conrad, goalkeeper Joe Cannon and midfielder Scott Bower all debuted over the course of the year, establishing the solid foundation of the club. Mulrooney was a finalist for the MLS Rookie of the Year award.

With precocious rookies arriving, San Jose parted ways with a piece of its past, loaning striker Eric Wynalda to Leon of the Mexican First Division for the early stages of the season and then sending him to the Miami Fusion via the MetroStars on June 1 as part of the "future considerations" from an early season deal.

Ronald Cerritos again led the team in scoring and finished as the third-leading scorer in MLS with 15 goals and 39 points. His bicycle kick assist to Alejandro Sequeira Sept. 4 also earned him the Nickelodeon Play of the Year. He was also named the MLS Player of the Month for September when he scored four goals and notched four assists as the team battled for a playoff spot. Solid midfielder Eddie Lewis was named to the MLS Best XI, becoming the third San Jose player ever to be so honored.

2000: Earthquakes Shake San Jose Again

The 2000 season marked the return of a soccer club with the Earthquakes nickname to the Bay Area. San Jose played its first season under the Earthquakes moniker, revamping the organization under the name of the NASL soccer team that had been so popular in the area in the 1970's and early 1980's.

The 2000 edition of the Quakes was not immediately able to rekindle the glory days of the club, missing out on the playoffs for a fourth straight year and finishing the season with a 7-17-8 record in the first season that MLS games finished as ties. The season began with much promise after the allocation of Khodadad Azizi, a forward who played in the German Bundesliga and was the 1996 Asian Player of the Year. Azizi was selected to the All-Star team along with midfielder Dario Brose, but he managed to score just three goals in 20 games.

While Azizi and several new Quakes, including 2001 MLS Cup Champions Ian Russell and Jon Conway, were getting adjusted to the style of play under Osiander, San Jose was forced to part ways with one of its past stars. Eddie Lewis, the team's midfield star, was transferred to Fulham of the English First Division for a then MLS-record $1.5 million transfer fee.

While the team struggled at times, the Earthquakes did manage to set an MLS record with 15 straight unbeaten matches at Spartan Stadium. The streak stretched from Aug. 21, 1999 – July 15, 2000. It was a mark that the club would equal just two seasons later.

With a defense led by the emerging force of goal-keeper Joe Cannon, the Quakes recorded a club record nine shutouts in 2000. Long-time Bay Area soccer legend John Doyle played his last game as a member of the club in 2000, finishing a highly-decorated career that included eight years as a member of the U.S. National Team and a spot in the 1988 Olympics and 1990 World Cup. Doyle is still amongst the Earthquakes club leaders in numerous statistical categories, including appearances, games started, minutes played and cautions.

Forward Abdul Thompson Conteh was recognized as the MLS Humanitarian of the Year for his efforts to raise awareness and funds for the victims of war in his native Sierra Leone

In a move that would foreshadow the dramatic upheaval the club would soon undergo, Lynne Meterparel stepped down as the Earthquakes General Manager on October 4 after 21 months.

2001: That Championship Season

After several years of frustration, the San Jose club was able to deliver a true season to remember for its fans in 2001, a season that ended with the club capturing its first MLS Cup Championship. It was a roller coaster ride right from the start when a new operating group was introduced in January and it accelerated with the addition of a savvy coach and the signing of the brightest American star the sport has ever seen.

The San Jose Earthquakes experienced a re-birth in 2001 when it was announced that Silicon Valley Sports & Entertainment, the business and marketing arm of the NHL's San Jose Sharks, would become the operator of the club on January 10. In addition, Spartan Stadium was named the site of the 2001 MLS All-Star game the same day, and the stage was set for the Earthquakes historic season.

Just two days later, head coach Lothar Osiander was relieved of his duties. With the days leading to the draft and pre-season training rapidly approaching, Tom Neale was hired as the Earthquakes general manager on Feb. 1. Frank Yallop became the fifth head coach in Earthquakes history when he was hired on Feb. 2, giving him just two days in command prior to the MLS Superdraft.

Yallop wasted little time turning the Quakes into a contender, acquiring one of the league's best defenders, Jeff Agoos, from D.C. United in exchange for two draft picks and Abdul Thompson Conteh. Yallop then received defender Zak Ibsen in a trade from Los Angeles for a draft pick and acquired high-scoring A-League forward Dwayne De Rosario as an allocated player.

Yallop's busy week was not over, however, as he drafted six players in the Feb. 5 SuperDraft, including Chris Carrieri with the number one pick and defender Eddie Robinson with the 20th selection. Yallop was able to solidify the Quakes midfield when he acquired Manny Lagos from Tampa Bay in exchange for two draft picks.

With a revamped Earthquakes team coming into focus, former Earthquakes player Dominic Kinnear was hired as an assistant coach Feb. 15. The coaching staff was also bolstered by the return of goalkeeper coach Tim Hanley, who had served in the same capacity from 1997-1999. Seven days after Kinnear's hiring, another important piece of the 2001 Earthquakes came together when Ramiro Corrales rejoined his original club, coming over in a trade with the MetroStars.

Perhaps the biggest announcement in Earthquakes history took place on March 29, when it was announced that then 19-year-old superstar Landon Donovan would join the club as an allocated player. Donovan, from Redlands, Calif., was well known in the soccer world, joining the Quakes from German Bundesliga club Bayer Leverkusen, with whom he signed a contract in 1999.

As the season was set to start with a sense of optimism never before experienced at Spartan Stadium, Yallop and the Quakes made two more major moves, signing Danish star Ronnie Ekelund and bringing defender Troy Dayak back to the team.

Dayak was an original member of the club in 1996 and appeared in matches in 1997-1998 before succumbing to serious surgery on a bulging disk in his neck that took over two years to fully recover.

The Quakes got off to a slow start in April before tearing through an undefeated stretch from late April to early July (7-0-5) to establish themselves as one of the best teams in the league.

MLS recognized the Quakes firepower, as a team record six players were named to the MLS West All-Star team in July. A large crowd at Spartan Stadium watched the Quakes put on a mid-season show in the 6-6 game July 28. Ronald Cerritos, Joe Cannon, Troy Dayak, Manny Lagos, Jeff Agoos and Landon Donovan all represented the team, with Donovan taking home the MVP honors after thrilling the crowd with four goals.

Quakes general manager Tom Neale resigned a day before the All-Star game, but the team continued to roll along, finishing with a 13-7-6 record for the best winning percentage (.615) in club history. The team entered the final two games (both against the Los Angeles Galaxy) of the season trailing the Galaxy by two points in the Western Division standings. Tragedy struck the day the team was set to travel to Los Angeles for the first of their final two matches, as the terrorist attacks on New York City and Washington, D.C. put the country on hold. MLS canceled the remaining regular season games and the Quakes finished second in the Western Division and fifth overall in MLS, their best finish in club history. Overall, the Quakes winning percentage improved by .271 from 2000 to 2001, the third highest increase from one season to the next in league history.

The Earthquakes made this playoff appearance count, rolling over the Crew in the MLS Cup Playoff quarterfinals in two games, 3-1 and 3-0. The Quakes then faced the owners of MLS' best regular-season record, the Miami Fusion, in the semifinals.

It was a hard-fought series, with Miami striking first with at 1-0 win in the first game off a goal in the 53rd minute from Preki. San Jose responded in the second game with a resounding 4-0 win at Spartan Stadium, setting the stage for one of the biggest games in Quakes history at Lockhart Stadium in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. on October 17.

The game was a tight, pressure-packed affair that headed into overtime deadlocked at zero. It remained that way until four minutes into the extra session when Richard Mulrooney curled in a corner kick from the right side. Standing on the back post in heavy traffic, Jimmy Conrad knocked the ball in the air toward the goal-mouth, where a leaping Dayak powered the ball past Miami goalkeeper Nick Rimando for a 1-0 win and the Earthquakes first-ever trip to the MLS Cup Final.

It was an incredible week to be a member of the Earthquakes as the club prepared for MLS Cup 2001 in Columbus, Ohio against their in-state rival Los Angeles Galaxy. In his first season as head coach, Frank Yallop was recognized for turning the club around from its last-place finish in 2000 to the MLS title game with the Coach of The Year Award. First year Quake Jeff Agoos was named MLS Defender of The Year and a member of the MLS Best XI while Troy Dayak won the Acc Comeback Player of the Year Award for his dramatic recovery from neck surgery. As a team, the Earthquakes were recognized with the Fair Play Award.

MLS Čup 2001 would feature a similar Earthquakes sweep. Despite falling behind 1-0 on a Luis Hernandez goal in the 21st minute, San Jose responded with a world-class strike by Donovan in the 43rd minute. The team then won the first championship in club history on a golden goal by Dwayne De Rosario six minutes into overtime. De Rosario was rewarded with the MLS Cup MVP trophy, and the Earthquakes were finally able to call themselves MLS Cup Champions.

2002: Defending the Cup

The Quakes began the 2002 campaign in an unusual position. For the first time they were among the league favorites to win the championship. The team was well positioned for another run at the title, as MLS Defender of the Year Jeff Agoos and star forward Landon Donovan were returning. The team also made a major off-season move as it sent all-time leading scorer Ronald Cerritos to the Dallas Burn for the Burn's top goal scorer Ariel Graziani on Feb. 8. On the same day, the Quakes announced that Johnny Moore would serve as the new general manager. Moore had strong roots in the history of San Jose soccer, having played for the NASL Earthquakes from 1974-1977, while also serving as assistant general manager from 1974-1976. In 1977, Moore became the first person to serve as a player and general manager at the same time, helping the Quakes rank among the leaders in NASL in attendance.

With Frank Yallop and Dominic Kinnear in charge, 2002 turned out to be another fantastic season for San Jose. The team held first place overall in MLS from April 20-Sept. 13 and posted an MLS all-time best home record of 12-1-1 at Spartan Stadium. The Quakes posted a then-MLS record 12-game winning streak at Spartan Stadium and a 15-game unbeaten streak at home that tied their own home unbeaten streak. At the end of the year, the Quakes finished with the second-best record in MLS and equaled the club record for points in a season with 45.

The Quakes also participated for the first time in the CONCACAF Champions Cup, where they advanced to the quarterfinals. The team swept CD Olimpia of Honduras in the Round of 16 1-0 and 3-1, but could not get by Mexican champion Pachuca CF, who won the two-game series 3-1 on aggregate.

Individually, a number of Quakes shined both internationally and in the league. Jeff Agoos and Landon Donovan represented the United States at the 2002 World Cup with Donovan starting every game and scoring two goals. The U.S. shocked the world by advancing to the quarterfinals.

At home, Wade Barrett and Ronnie Ekelund earned spots on the MLS Best XI team, while Joe Cannon was named MLS Goalkeeper of the Year. For the second straight season, six Quakes players participated in the MLS All-Star game (Jeff Agoos, Wade Barrett, Joe Cannon, Landon Donovan, Ariel Graziani and Richard Mulrooney). Frank Yallop earned the honor of coaching the MLS All-Stars in the game and his squad defeated the U.S. National Team 3-2. In 2002, Cannon set a club record with eight shutouts, while Graziani also broke a record by scoring six game-winning goals on his way to leading the team with 14 goals and five assists.

The playoffs were not as fruitful for the Quakes, however, as they were swept by the Columbus Crew, losing two games by 2-1 scores. Landon Donovan led the playoff charge with a goal and an assist, but his efforts were not enough as the Quakes were unable to defend their title.

2003: Return to Glory

After losing in the first round of the 2002 MLS Cup Playoffs, the Earthquakes went through a tumultuous off-season prior to 2003. Eight players left the team through trade or free agency, and the club re-loaded by bringing in nine new faces through the draft and shrewd trades. Starters Joe Cannon, Jimmy Conrad, Wade Barrett and Ariel Graziani would not be back for 2003.

The Quakes acquired Stanford All-American Todd Dunivant, 17-year-old Arturo Alvarez, Pac-10 Player of the Year Roger Levesque, forward Jamil Walker and goalkeeper Josh Saunders in the MLS SuperDraft. The team picked up Los Angeles Galaxy midfielder Brian Mullan in a trade, while also acquiring Craig Waibel (Waiver Draft) and Brian Ching (Supplemental Draft). After an injury to goalkeeper Jon Conway in preseason, Yallop and Kinnear signed Canadian National Team veteran Pat Onstad to man the net.

Yallop's squad had two setbacks prior to kicking off the regular season. First, CSD Municipal of Guatemala eliminated the Quakes from the CONCACAF Champions Cup in the round of 16 5-4 on aggregate. Second, projected starting forward Dwayne De Rosario, who had missed the preseason with a broken foot, suffered a torn lateral collateral ligament in his right knee and was expected to be out for the year.

Despite the difficulties suffered in preseason, the Quakes surprised the League by bursting out of the gate with a 4-0-2 record in their first six games to claim the top spot in the Western Conference. The team, however, continued to deal with adversity as a number of players went down with injuries while Landon Donovan, Richard Mulrooney, Pat Onstad and Arturo Alvarez all missed time due to national team commitments.

Overall in 2003, the Quakes lost over 100 man games to injuries and national team call-ups, but they battled through and held the top spot in the Western Conference for every week but one. Contributions came from every player on the roster. Rookies Todd Dunivant and Jamil Walker each notched eight points, setting the single-season rookie scoring record, while Arturo Alvarez scored a goal in his first career start. Brian Mullan and Brian Ching put together career years with each netting six goals, while Craig Waibel, another former Galaxy player, put up career highs in games played and minutes played.

With strong efforts from everyone, San Jose captured its first-ever regular season Western Conference Championship with 51 points, a new club record. Pat Onstad and Landon Donovan were named to the Best

XI team and Onstad was also recognized as the MLS Goalkeeper of the Year. The Canadian international rewrote the San Jose record book for goalkeepers, setting the club record for shutouts (9), wins (14), catch/punches (117), games played in goal (27) and goals against average (1.04). He also found himself among the league leaders in most goalkeeping categories, placing first in catch/punches (117), first in shutouts (9), second in goals against (1.04) and second in wins (14).

Donovan and Dwayne De Rosario also had two defining moments in 2003 as they notched the first two hat tricks in club history. Donovan got things started by netting the first Quakes hat trick on Sept. 20 against Kansas City and then De Rosario followed the next week with a hat trick of his own against the Dallas Burn. De Rosario scored his first goal of that game 11 seconds in, setting the record for the fastest goal in MLS history.

In the MLS Cup Playoffs, the Quakes started slowly with a 2-0 loss to the Los Angeles Galaxy in the first game of a two-game aggregate goal series and then they fell behind 2-0 just 13 minutes into game two. Facing a 4-0 aggregate goals deficit, Yallop's squad responded with the tenacity and desire shown all season, as they netted four unanswered goals in regulation, capped by Chris Ronér's 90th minute header. Rodrigo Faria, who arrived in a late season trade, scored the overtime winner setting off a celebration at Spartan Stadium. The 5-2 comeback win has since been called the "greatest game in MLS history."

The Quakes continued their run to the championship, coming back just six days after the miracle against the Galaxy to record another memorable victory in the Western Conference Championship. Against the Kansas City Wizards, the Quakes twice recovered from one-goal deficits in the second half to tie the game and send it to overtime to the delight of 16,108 fans at Spartan Stadium. With only three minutes remaining in the overtime period, Landon Donovan sent the crowd into delirium with the game-winning goal off a pass from Ronnie Ekelund, giving San Jose its first-ever Western Conference Championship.

After coming from behind in their previous two playoff matches, the Quakes struck first in the MLS Cup against the Chicago Fire at The Home Depot Center. Ronnie Ekelund blasted a free kick past Fire goalkeeper Zach Thornton in the fifth minute, tying the MLS Cup record for the fastest goal in Cup history. Donovan stretched the lead to two goals by finishing off a Jamil Walker through ball in the 38th minute and the Quakes headed into halftime with a two-goal cushion. Onstad was outstanding in the first half with seven saves to hold Chicago scoreless.

The first 15 minutes following intermission saw back-and-forth action as three goals were scored during that interval and a penalty kick was called. DaMarcus Beasley scored for Chicago in the 49th minute, but Richard Mulrooney responded a minute later with a goal to stretch the lead back to two goals at 3-1. An own goal by Chris Ronér made it a 3-2 game and three minutes later Fire forward Damani Ralph was fouled in the penalty box to earn a penalty kick. Ante Razov stepped up to take the penalty and drove it towards the lower left corner, but Onstad was there to make a momentumchanging save. Donovan put the finishing touches on the Quakes' second championship win in three seasons with a goal in the 71st minute from a Dwayne De Rosario cross. The Quakes four goals set and MLS Cup record, while the six combined goals were also a record.

The Earthquakes proved once again that they were the top team in MLS. From 2001-2003, San Jose was the top team in MLS with two MLS Cup Championships and the best regular season record at 41-25-18.

2004: Kinnear Takes Charge

Despite coming off their second championship in three seasons, changes at the top were the big story heading into the 2004 season. In December 2003, head coach Frank Yallop stepped down from the Quakes to take over the Canadian National Team. In his place, the Quakes elevated assistant coach Dominic Kinnear to the top job and he brought in long-time San Jose player John Doyle to serve as his assistant coach. In late January 2004, changes continued as general manager Johnny Moore stepped down and was replaced by former U.S. World Cup star Alexi Lalas, who was named President and General Manager on January 27, 2004.

A successful draft by Kinnear and Doyle saw the team acquire local Santa Clara products defender Ryan Cochrane and goalkeeper Steve Cronin in the first round. The team also picked up midfielder Tighe Dombrowski from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in the fifth round. Those draft picks served to bolster a team that brought back over 90 percent of the 2003 team. Manny Lagos, who was traded to Columbus for a third round pick, was the only starter not retained.

The 2004 season again saw the Quakes lose over 100 man games to injury and national team call-ups, and coupled with nine one-goal losses, San Jose finished 9-10-11 and fourth in the Western Conference San Jose then faced Kansas City in the Western Conference Semifinals in a two-game series. After winning the first game 2-0 at home on goals by Dwayne De Rosario and Craig Waibel, Kansas City turned the tables in game two to beat the Quakes 3-0 and end their season

While San Jose did not make it back to MLS Cup, the team accomplished a number of notable feats. It set club records by recording four straight shutouts from Aug. 14–Sept. 4, while also recording a club record 459-minute shutout streak. Kinnear's squad also broke the MLS record by extending their unbeaten streak when scoring first at home to 46 games.

Individually, the Quakes had a number of outstanding performances and milestones. For the first time in club history, the Earthquakes had five players voted in as starters for the Sierra Mist MLS All-Star Game as Jeff Agoos, Brian Ching, Landon Donovan, Richard Mulrooney and Pat Onstad all earned spots on the West squad. Ching scored in the game on assists from Mulrooney and Donovan, but the West fell 3-2.

Ching had a breakout year after recovering from a torn Achilles tendon in 2003, as he scored a league-leading 12 goals and notched four assists to earn MLS Comeback Player of the Year honors and a spot on the RadioShack Best XI team. In another historic moment, Mulrooney set the club record for assists against the Los Angeles Galaxy on May 22 and finished the year with 44 career assists. Mulrooney finished 2004 as the all-time leader in six categories, including games played (163), minutes played (14,204) and fouls suffered (354), among others.

The off-season saw more change as the Quakes lost star forward Landon Donovan, who decided to return to Germany to play for Bayer Leverkusen, which had exercised the option to retain Donovan after his four years in MLS.

2005: The Supporters Shield

Coming off a disappointing 2004 season, head coach Dominic Kinnear helped return the Quakes of long-time standout members of the club before the start of the season. Bringing in 18 new players, including returnees to the team Ronald Cerritos and Wade Barrett, Kinnear led the Quakes to the greatest regular season in team history with an 18-4-10 record and 64 points, clinching the club's first Supporters Shield, despite losing over 100 man games to injury. Newcomers Ricardo Clark, Kelly Gray, Danny Califf, Mark Chung, Brad Davis and Alejandro Moreno all played big parts in the Quakes' 2005 success.

The team set the MLS record for the fewest losses in league history with four and became the second team in MLS history to surpass 60 points in a season. San Jose also set club records in the following categories: winning streak (6 games), road winning streak (6 games), shutouts (12), most road shutouts (4), most road wins (9), unbeaten streak (14 games) and most consecutive shutouts at home (5). Kinnear's squad became the first team in MLS history to finish the regular season unbeaten at home (9-0-7), while stretching their all-time unbeaten streak at home to 18 games, another MLS record. San Jose posted a +22 goal difference, the best in team history with 53 goals scored and 31 allowed.

Despite the great regular season success, the Quakes were eliminated for the second straight season in the Western Conference Semifinals. After losing 3-1 on the road to the Los Angeles Galaxy in the first leg of the series, the Quakes could not comeback and fell 4-2 overall on aggregate.

Dwayne De Rosario had the best season of his five-year MLS career in 2005 to lead the Quakes. Moving from forward to attacking midfielder, the Canadian international recorded career-highs in goals (9) and assists (9) and finished runner-up in the Honda MLS MVP race. He also earned his second straight Sierra Mist MLS Goal of the Year award for his spectacular free kick on Oct.15 against the Los Angeles Galaxy.

Also having standout seasons for the Quakes were goalkeeper Pat Onstad and defender Danny Califf, who were both named to the RadioShack MLS Best XI team. Onstad was also named the MLS Goalkeeper of the Year for a season in which he led the league in wins (18), shutouts (12), goals against average (0.97) and save percentage (77.2). It was the second Goalkeeper of the Year award for the 37-year-old Canadian, who also moved into first place in team history with his 27th career shutout on Oct. 1 against New England. Califf helped stabilize the defense after coming over in a trade with the Galaxy, appearing in 20 games and scoring two goals. Along with Eddie Robinson, Califf helped form the most formidable central defense tandem in MLS.

Cerritos, the all-time leading goal scorer in team history, made a strong return to San Jose in 2005, after spending three seasons away from the team. Cerritos finished the year with six goals and eight assists to push his all-time totals to 61 goals and 47 assists, both team records. Cerritos notched his record-breaking 46th assist on August 6 against the Columbus Crew.

2005 also saw two original members of the team honored on the field at Spartan Stadium. The team inducted John Doyle as the inaugural member of the San Jose Earthquakes Hall of Fame, while Troy Dayak was honored in a post-game ceremony after announcing his retirement. Doyle's number was unveiled in Spartan Stadium along with a Hall of Fame banner at halftime of the team's Aug. 27 game against the Los Angeles Galaxy. Doyle was the first signing in the team's history on Dec. 7, 1995 and had a standout career with San Jose. The team captain during every year of his tenure, Doyle appeared in 132 games during his five seasons in San Jose and scored 11 goals and notched 15 assists. He was named the 1996 MLS Defender of the Year and made the MLS Best XI that year as well. The Fremont, Calif. native also earned a spot in the MLS All-Star Game in 1996 and 1997. Since his retirement following the 2000 season, Doyle spent three years as the color commentator on Quakes broadcasts before serving as the assistant coach in 2004 and 2005.

Dayak announced his retirement from the Earthquakes after spending eight seasons with the team and overcoming two potential career-ending injuries. Dayak played for San Jose from 1996-1998 and then returned to the team in 2001 after overcoming a severe neck injury that required surgery and torn knee ligaments. The former Livermore High School standout was a major factor in the Quakes' 2001 MLS Cup Championship victory as he missed only one game in 2001 and was named the MLS Comeback Player of the Year, while also earning a spot on the MLS All-Star team. His overtime header against the Miami Fusion in the MLS Cup Playoff Semifinals sent San Jose to their first MLS Cup. Despite being hampered by injuries following that season, "The Beast" still helped San Jose win their second MLS Cup in 2003, while being one of MLS' elite teams in 2002, 2004 and 2005. He was honored on the Spartan Stadium field in a post-game ceremony on October 8, where he was presented a commemorative Earthquakes belt buckle.

On December 15, 2005, after the greatest regular season in team history with an 18-4-10 record and 64 points clinching the club's first Supporters Shield, the Earthquakes were placed on hiatus by the League, with their players and coaching staff moving to Houston where they now play as the Houston Dynamo.

2006: The Rebirth Begins

On May 24, Lew Wolff, principal owner of the Oakland Athletics, purchased an exclusive option to acquire an MLS team and bring professional soccer back to the Bay Area. David Alioto was named the Executive Vice President of the San Jose Earthquakes.

2007: The Earthquakes Return

On July 18, Lew Wolff activated an option for the rights to the San Jose Earthquakes and Major League Soccer granted them a new expansion team. The club started to take shape on Oct. 3, when John Doyle was named General Manager of Soccer Operations. On the same day, the Earthquakes unveiled their new uniforms and team logo. On Oct. 26 the Earthquakes announced Buck Shaw Stadium in Santa Clara as their temporary venue for the 2008, 2009 and 2010 seasons with some games being played at McAfee Coliseum in Oakland.

One of the biggest announcements for the new expansion team came on Nov. 5 when the Earthquakes named Frank Yallop their head coach. With Yallop aboard the Earthquakes selected ten players in the MLS Expansion Draft, including former Earthquakes defender Ryan Cochrane of the Houston Dynamo. Also selected were Clarence Goodson (FC Dallas), Ned Grabavoy (Columbus Crew), James Riley (New England Revolution), Joseph Vide (New York Red Bulls), Ivan Guerrero (Chicago Fire), Brian Carroll (D.C. United), Jason Hernandez (Chivas USA), Gavin Glinton (LA Galaxy) and Chris Pozniak (Toronto FC). A few days later, the Earthquakes acquired forward Kei Kamara from the Columbus Crew and goalkeeper Preston Burpo from Chivas USA. The Earthquakes traded defender Brian Carroll to the Crew for Kamara and traded the club's fourth-round pick in the 2008 MLS Super Draft to Chivas USA in exchange for Burpo.

On Nov. 29, the Earthquakes brought another familiar face to the club by naming lan Russell the assistant coach.

Toward the end of the year, the Earthquakes had open tryouts in seven cities across Northern California looking for local talent. The tryout tour began on Nov. 3 and finished on Sunday, Dec. 2 with over 600 players trying out. The tour visited Sacramento, Santa Rosa, San Francisco, Salinas, Oakland, Walnut Creek and Hayward. There were 33 players selected from the tryout tour that participated in the Earthquakes invitation-only combine. These players competed with other players from United Soccer League and from other top colleges in the country for a spot on the Quakes reserve division team.

2008: Best Expansion Team of the Decade

The San Jose Earthquakes started 2008 with a flurry of activity. On Jan. 10, they acquired goalkeeper Joe Cannon from the Los Angeles Galaxy. Soon after the team acquired defender Nick Garcia from the Kansas City Wizards in exchange for the No. 1 overall pick in the 2008 MLS SuperDraft and then selected Shea Salinas with the 15th overall pick in the MLS SuperDraft.

The Quakes reported for preseason at the beginning of February and officially made their on-field return to the Bay Area on February 13, in a 1-0 preseason loss to the old version of themselves, the Houston Dynamo, at PAL Stadium in San Jose. Another familiar face returned to San Jose soon after, as the Earthquakes acquired midfielder Ramiro Corrales from the Houston Dynamo in exchange for allocation money.

On Feb. 26, the Earthquakes named former Quakes midfielder Ronnie Ekelund the technical advisor. A day later, the team acquired midfielder Ronnie O'Brien from Toronto FC in exchange for a first round draft pick in the 2009 MLS SuperDraft and allocation money.

The Quakes kept on building the team and on March 13, Jason Batty was named the goalkeeper coach. At the end of the month, the team signed Shea Salinas and acquired forward John Cunliffe. Prior to the opener against the Los Angeles Galaxy on April 3, the Earthquakes signed Eric Denton, Jay Ayres, Matt Hatzke, Adam Smarte, Jamil Roberts and Ryan Johnson.

The team opened its home schedule in front of over 20,000 fans at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum against the Chicago Fire on April 12. The Quakes won their first match on April 19 with a 2-0 road victory over the Colorado Rapids. Another milestone came on May 3 when the team opened its new home on the campus of Santa Clara University, Buck Shaw Stadium. The Quakes played to a 0-0 draw in front of a sold-out crowd of 10.515.

While the Quakes were back on the field, the team was not able to find its rhythm until midseason. To help bolster the attack, John Doyle and Frank Yallop signed English forward Darren Huckerby, MLS veteran forward Scott Sealy, former AS Roma midfielder Francisco Lima and acquired former Earthquakes player midfielder/forward Arturo Alvarez. The new signings paid off and the team posted a nine-game unbeaten streak from July 12-Sept. 27, the longest unbeaten streak in the league in 2008 and the second longest ever by an expansion team. That run got the Quakes back into the thick of the playoff race, but they were not able to climb all the way back up the standings and were eliminated from the playoff chase on the penultimate weekend of the season.

During the 2008 season, the team earned a number of memorable victories, including a 2-1 victory over the Houston Dynamo on May 22 at Buck Shaw Stadium, a last-minute 3-2 win over the Los Angeles Galaxy at Oakland Alameda County Coliseum, a 4-0 win over the New England Revolution and a 2-0 road win over the eventual MLS Cup Champion Columbus Crew. The Quakes capped the season with a 2-0 win over Toronto FC on Oct. 25. The team also set a single-game attendance record on June 14 against the Los Angeles Galaxy, as 39,728 fans packed into Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum.

The Quakes saw standout performances from a number of players, including goalkeeper Joe Cannon and midfielder Darren Huckerby. Cannon led the league in saves and posted nine shutouts on the year and was also named the team's U.S. Soccer Foundation Humanitarian of the Year. Huckerby scored six goals and notched four assists in just 14 games to be named the MLS player of the month for September, MLS Newcomer of they Year and the Earthquakes Most Valuable Player. Jason Hernandez earned the team's Defensive Player of the Year award and a callup into US national team camp the following January for his excellent play on the backline.

The Earthquakes made a very successful return to MLS as the top expansion team of the last decade. Under the guidance of head coach Frank Yallop, the Quakes had more wins (8), points (33) and goals (32) and allowed fewer goals (38) than any expansion team since 1998.

2009: Quakes Shake Things Up

The 2009 campaign was one filled with injury and frustration for the Earthquakes. They finished 7-14-9 with 30 points under head coach Frank Yallop. The season began with new hope, coming off of a strong finish to the 2008 season that included a nine game unbeaten streak. Unfortunately, Yallop and the team had to deal with key injuries to Jason Hernandez and Darren Huckerby. This, along with other injuries spread throughout the starting eleven and led to a lot of shuffling and player movement. All in all, eight players from the roster on opening day were gone by the middle of the season. Players like Andre Luiz, Ramon Sanchez, Cornell Glen, Chris Wondolowski, Bobby Burling, Aaron Pitchkolan and Antonio Ribeiro were brought in mid-season to help bolster the team and set them up for a good run in the future. Once all of these components were together, along with mainstays like Ryan Johnson, Arturo Alvarez and Joe Cannon, the team began to play better and finished the year on a nice

Ryan Johnson led the team with a breakout season in 2009, scoring a career-high 11 goals. Defender Chris Leitch, who was acquired early in the year from New York Red Bulls, led the team in assists with a career-high seven. Brandon McDonald broke through into a starting central back role during the middle of the season and solidified himself as a key part of the Quakes defense. He scored his first goal for San Jose, and just the second of his career, in a thrilling 2-2 draw in Los Angeles against Chivas USA late in the year. McDonald was rewarded with a call-up into US national team camp in January.

Another mid-season addition, forward Chris Wondolowski, provided some highlights in the Quakes good form at the conclusion of the season. He scored a stoppage-time winner at home against Kansas City on Aug. 22 and added the final goal in a 4-0 thrashing of Seattle Sounders FC on Aug. 8. Arturo Alvarez added flair to the Quakes attack, scoring five goals in the 2009 season. His goal against Real Salt Lake on May 30 was nominated and finished in the top 10 for MLS Goal of the Year. 2009 also marked a significant point in Alvarez's career, as he was selected for the El Salvador national team for the first time. He appeared in five World Cup Qualifiers for his country, along with teammate and Salvadoran captain Ramon Sanchez, who appeared in all of the qualifiers.

Two Earthquakes hit big milestones during the season, as goalkeeper Joe Cannon became the franchise leader in starts (159) and minutes played (14,481) and captain Ramiro Corrales became the franchise leader in appearances with 167, while also appearing in his 200th MLS game. Midfielder Darren Huckerby, who provided such a lift to the Earthquakes after his arrival in 2008, called an end to his career towards the end of the season after undergoing season-ending surgery. Huckerby was honored before the game on Oct. 3 in a 1-0 win over New York Red Bulls.

San Jose had quite a few memorable wins in 2009: knocking off Houston 3-2 at home for their first win of the year on March 28, a big 2-1 win over eventual MLS Cup Champion Real Salt Lake on May 30, a 2-1 win over eventual Western Conference Champion Los Angeles Galaxy in which Ryan Johnson scored the game-winner, a 4-0 domination of Seattle Sounders FC on Aug. 2, the 1-0 stoppage-time win over Kansas City on Aug. 22 and a 2-1 come-from-behind victory over D.C. United on the road on Sept. 27, which marked the first road win of the year and the first-come-from behind win since the team came back in 2008.

2010: Quakes Return to Postseason

The 2010 season will be remembered for two things: San Jose's return to the MLS Cup Playoffs and the emergence of Chris Wondolowski.

The year began with a preseason camp that included a 10-day trip to train at the grounds of club partner Tottenham Hotspur. The Earthquakes played three friendlies during the time abroad, winning games against the Tottenham Hotspur (1-0) and West Ham United (2-0) reserves as well as the Colorado Rapids (1-0).

Building on a strong preseason, the Earthquakes jumped out to a 5-2-1 start over its first eight games. During that stretch, Wondolowski scored four goals in four games, a precursor to what would become an historic body of work.

In July, Tottenham Hotspur traveled to San Jose to train and play an exhibition against the Earthquakes. Two days before the match, over 1,200 fans attended a Spurs open practice session with players like Gareth Bale, Luka Modric and Robbie Keane on the pitch. On Saturday, July 17, a record crowd of 10,712 packed into Buck Shaw Stadium with more tuned in on ESPN2 to watch a spirited 0-0 draw.

One month later, the Earthquakes eclipsed the attendance record set against Tottenham Hotspur with 10,799 on hand for a thrilling 1-0 win against Southern California rival the Los Angeles Galaxy. As was the case in nine of San Jose's 13 wins during the 2010 campaign, it was Wondolowski tallying the decisive blow.

San Jose's win against the Galaxy was part of a 5-1-1 stretch that put the squad on the brink of clinching its first MSL Cup Playoff berth since returning to the league in 2008. On October 9, after two goals from Wondolowski gave the Earthquakes a 2-0 road win against DC United, the club officially sealed its spot in the postseason.

With a playoff spot secured, a different race heated up: Wondolowski's chase for the Golden Boot. With Edson Buddle in command heading into the final week of the season, San Jose's local product needed a small miracle to overtake the lead. That miraculous moment came on October 20 with Wondolowski coming off the bench to record a hat trick, leveling the race at 17 goals apiece. The drama continued as Wondolowski scored in San Jose's 4-1 loss to Kansas City on Saturday, October 23 and Buddle yet to play. The next day, Buddle failed to find the net, sewing up Wondolowski's comeback to win the 2010 MLS Budweiser Golden Boot.

From Sept. 15 to Oct. 23, Wondolowski scored all 10 of the Earthquakes goals, setting the all-time MLS record for the most consecutive goals scored by one player. Also, the Danville, Calif. native accounted for 52.9 percent (18 of 34) of the Earthquakes' goals in the 2010 season, the second highest such percentage all-time in MLS history. Also of note, Wondolowski posted the third-highest scoring percentage in MLS history, scoring 25 goals on 111 shots (22.5%).

For his efforts, Wondolowski was named a finalist for the Volkswagen MVP along with Buddle and eventual winner David Ferreira of FC Dallas.

Regular-season accolades aside, the Earth-quakes sought to make an impact in the MLS Cup Playoffs after drawing the star-laden New York Red Bulls in the Eastern Conference Semifinal. A Red Bulls squad bolstered by Thierry Henry, Rafael Márquez and Juan Pablo Ángel took a 1-0 lead in the aggregate at Buck Shaw Stadium. However, on the strength of a brace by 2010 MLS Comeback Player of the Year Bobby Convey and a series-clinching goal by Wondolowski, the Earthquakes advanced to the Eastern Conference Championship.

One week later, the Earthquakes bowed out of the MLS Cup Playoffs in frigid conditions against the Colorado Rapids at Dick's Sporting Goods Park. Kosuke Kimura scored the lone goal for a squad that would go on to defeat FC Dallas 2-1 to win the MLS Cup Championship.

HISTORY OF THE EARTHQUAKES NAME

When the San Jose Major League Soccer club decided to change its name and look in 1999, it went into the past to do so. Reaching back to a previously successful soccer team in the area, the Clash became the Earthquakes. The previous incarnation of the Earthquakes played in the North American Soccer League from 1974-1984, and then in the Western Soccer Alliance from 1985-88. Those Earthquakes teams called Spartan Stadium home. The name Earthquakes originally came from a newspaper contest in the San Jose Mercury News, in which fans were encouraged to send in suggestions for the name of the soon-to-be formed San Jose franchise. The name Earthquakes was chosen by the team's management. Following are the results of those teams:

NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE

Year	Record	Finish
1974	12-8	2nd Western Division (4 teams)
1975	8-14	4th Western Division (5 teams)
1976	14-10	1st Western Division (5 teams)
1977	14-12	3rd Western Division (5 teams)
1978	8-22	4th Western Division (4 teams)
1979	8-22	4th Western Division (4 teams)
1980	9-23	4th Western Division (4 teams)
1981	11-21	4th Western Division (4 teams)
1982	13-19	5th Western Division (6 teams)
1983	20-10	2nd Western Division (4 teams)
1984	8-16	5th Western Division (5 teams)

AMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP

Dating back to 1914, the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup is the oldest soccer cup competition in the United States and is among the oldest in the world. Open to all affiliated amateur and professional teams in the U.S., the annual Open Cup is a 91-year-old single-elimination tournament based on similar competitions played across the world concurrent with domestic league action. In 1999, the U.S. Open Cup was renamed the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup to honor the long-time soccer supporter and pioneer.

San Jose has participated in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup on eight occasions (1997, 1998, 2000-2005), and has reached the quarterfinals seven times. The team reached the semifinals for the first time in team history in 2004, but fell 1-0 to the Kansas City Wizards on the road.

Since the team's inception in 1996, San Jose has played against a number of international foes, facing UNAM Pumas (Mexico), Bayer Leverkusen (Germany) and Sichuan Quan Xing (China) among others in exhibition matches both at home and on the road. The Quakes have a 5-8-5 record in exhibitions against international foes. In 2002, the Earthquakes took part in their first international competition, the 2002 CONCACAF Champions Cup. The Quakes qualified for the tournament by winning the 2001 MLS Cup and reached the quarterfinals of the competition before falling to Pachuca CF (Mexico) 3-1 on aggregate.

2005 marked the first season since 2001 that the Quakes did not participate in the Champions Cup as they competed from 2002-2004 in the prestigious tournament. In 2003, the team added another international tournament to its resume, the La Manga Cup. The La Manga Cup is played every year in La Manga in the Murcia region of Spain and has featured European powers like Rosenborg Trondheim and Dynamo Kiev.

STADIUM INFORMATION

Buck Shaw Stadium

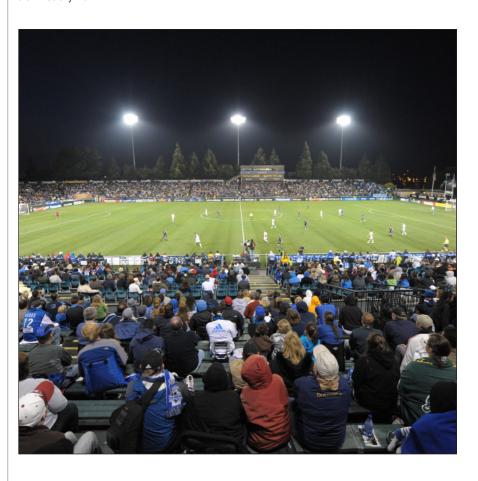

After a nearly four million-dollar renovation, Buck Shaw Stadium quickly became one of the most exciting venues for Major League Soccer in its first season in 2008. With an intimate setting and great sightlines, the fan experience at Buck Shaw ranks near the top of MLS.

The Earthquakes first game at the stadium on the campus of Santa Clara University took place before a sold-out crowd of 10,515 on May 3, 2008 against FC Dallas. The team sold over 90 percent of the tickets for the 12 games played in the regular season at Buck Shaw.

In 2010, the Quakes set the attendance record twice in just over a month. On July 17, the Quakes tied Tottenham Hotspur 0-0 in front of a record crowd of 10,712. Then on Aug. 21, the record was broken as 10,799 fans crowded into Buck Shaw to see San Jose defeat the LA Galaxy 1-0.

Named after former Santa Clara football coach, Lawrence T. "Buck" Shaw, Buck Shaw Stadium has served as a showcase for some of Santa Clara University's proudest athletic achievements since the facility opened in 1962. Besides serving as the home for the Bronco soccer teams, the formerly 6,800-seat facility also housed Santa Clara baseball until 2005.

The stadium was dedicated on October 6, 1962, prior to the football game between Santa Clara and Occidental, but was first used in the Broncos' loss to UC Davis on Sept. 22, 1962. Buck Shaw Stadium earned national attention in 1996, when it played host to the NCAA Women's College Cup. The two-day attendance of 17,600 set a record for the event. In 1994, the facility served as the practice site for the Brazilian national team during the World Cup competition. The U.S. national team and the Japanese national team have also trained at Buck Shaw.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Earthquakes Season Credentials

Members of the media planning to cover the Earthquakes on an on-going basis are encouraged to apply for season credentials and season parking passes.

Two types of credentials will be issued:

- 1. Media: admits bearer to press box and locker room
- 2. Field/Photo: admits photographers and camera crews to field and press box

Please be realistic and specific when applying for credentials. Applications will be accepted online at sjearthquakes.com. For questions or additional information, please contact:

Jed Mettee, VP of Marketing and Communications, or Frank Stranzl, Media Relations Manager:

San Jose Earthquakes 451 El Camino Real, Suite 220 Santa Clara, CA 95050 Office: 408-556-7700 Fax: 408-260-6802

Individual Game Credentials

Members of the media may apply for credentials on an individual-game basis. Applications, from sports editors or sports directors only, should be made on company letterhead to Jed Mettee or Jordan Stepp at the same address and/or fax number as above. Requests can also be made via email to either jmettee@sjearthquakes.com or fstranzl@sjearthquakes.com. Individual game credential requests will be accepted only until 48 hours before kickoff.

Note: The Earthquakes will maintain a working press box, with access limited to working journalists only.

Postgame Interviews

Following Earthquakes home games, players and coaches from both teams will be available for interviews in the locker room and/or the interview area outside of the locker rooms after a 10-minute cooling off period. Members of the media seeking autographs, posing for pictures with players or otherwise conducting themselves in an unprofessional manner will be subject to credential revocation.

Training Sessions

The Earthquakes generally train once-a-day at the Nutrilite Training Facility in San Jose, California. Members of the media should confirm schedules with the Media Relations Department before attending any practice.

Directions to Buck Shaw Stadium

From I-880

- Take Exit 2/The Alameda for CA-82 North
- Merge onto CA-82/The Alameda, continue to follow CA-82 going North.
- The street then turns into El Camino Real, follow until you hit the stadium on the left hand side at the address 500 El Camino Real.

John Shrader Color Analyst

John Shrader has been the voice of the Earthquakes (Clash) either on radio or television since 1996 and has worked in Bay Area broadcasting for over 25 years, including 14 years at all-sports station KNBR 680 AM. Along with his broadcasting work, he currently teaches journalism and media at San Jose State University and San Jose City College, and has previously taught at San Francisco State University.

He has broadcast numerous events for Fox Sports Net and now CSN Bay Area/California, and spent time at two San Jose TV stations. KNTV and KICU. For nearly a decade Shrader was the voice of San Jose State athletics

Shrader broadcast the 2002 & 2003 MLS All-Star Games and the 2002 & 2003 MLS Cup Finals on the radio.

A native of Neligh, Nebraska, John is a graduate of the University of Nebraska in Lincoln and he also owns a masters degree in mass communications from San Jose State. He and his wife, Tina, have two children: Ben and Allison. They reside in San Jose.

Carlos Cesar Rivera Radio Play-by-Play Announcer (Spanish)

Carlos Cesar Rivera is back behind the microphone for another season with the San Jose Earthquakes. Rivera hosts a popular sports radio show Monday through Friday at 6 p.m. PT on KZSF 1370 AM. The show covers MLS, Mexican soccer, as well as many other sports.

Rivera has worked in the Bay Area for over 25 years and was previously the voice of the San Jose Clash in 1997. He has also done Spanish language broadcasts for the San Francisco 49ers, Oakland Raiders, Oakland Athletics, San Francisco Giants and the San Francisco Blackhawks.

Rivera, an El Salvador native, currently lives in San Jose with his wife and three children.

KZSF

KZSF is a locally-owned Spanish language station that hosts daily sports talk shows and also plays a wide variety of popular music. All Earthquakes home games will be broadcast in Spanish by Carlos Cesar Rivera. "La Kaliente" has also been the Spanish-language radio home for both the San Francisco Giants and Oakland Raiders.

EARTHQUAKES HALL OF FAME

EARTHQUAKES HALL OF FAME

John Doyle - The San Jose Earthquakes inducted their first member to the Earthquakes Hall of Fame, former captain and now general manager John Doyle on Aug. 27, 2005 in front of his home fans at Spartan Stadium.

In 1995, Doyle was the first player selected by the San Jose Clash of Major League Soccer. Doyle was named team captain each of the five seasons he played with the Earthquakes organization. He was named MLS Defender of the Year in 1996 and was a member of the MLS West All-Star Team in 1997. At the time of retirement, he was the Earthquakes all-time leading defensive goal scorer and held the team record for games played.

Doyle was a member of the U.S. Men's National Team that was a part of the 1990 FIFA World Cup, where the U.S. made its first appearance in 50 years. Doyle also played for the U.S. National Team in their first-ever CONCACAF Gold Cup and in the U.S. Cup.

A native of Fremont, Calif., Doyle graduated from Washington High School and was an All-American at the University of San Francisco.

Ronald Cerritos - Former Earthquakes forward Ronald Cerritos became the second player inducted the the Earthquakes Hall of Fame on Sept. 29, 2010 at Buck Shaw Stadium.

Cerritos played in San Jose from 1997-2001 and returned to the club in 2005. He is the all-time leading scorer with 61 goals and 47 assists. Additionally, the Salvadoran international ranks fourth all-time in appearances (148), minutes played (12,382) and games started (142). He also helped lead San Jose to their first ever MLS Cup Championship in 2001.

Cerritos also spent time with the El Salvador National Team, earning 66 caps and scoring eight goals from 1995-2008.
