A CUP RUNNETH OVER

If there's an identifiable energizing element, a catalyst to the on-field success of Sounders FC, it's the Cup.

History is being written in these formative years, and because of the club's success on the field, in the community and a stadium teeming with roaring supporters, it promises to be a history which will long stand the test of time.

Fifty years on, any story studying the gene-campaigns for Sounders FC making the MLS Cup Playoffs. Winning the Cup certainly gained the club access to international play.

History is being made.

"I tell our players all the time that we want to be unique; we want to make history," says head coach Sigi Schmid. "Now we've become the first MLS expansion team to win trophies in each of our first two years, and the first to qualify for the Champions League in each of our first two opportunities. That's unique, and no one can take that away from us."

While some clubs have concentrated solely upon the league season and playoffs, Seattle leaders have sought to press forward on all fronts.

Once again in 2011, there will be four competitions to be won: the Supporters' Shield (best record in MLS), MLS Cup, CONCACAF Champions League and the Open Cup. Owner and general manager Adrian Hanauer states that Sounders FC will be trying to win each of those every year.

"It's part of our DNA," Hanauer says. "Between me, Sigi and the staff, we are all so sis of the Sounders FC formula for finding joy must begin with the Cup.

The Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup is more commonly known as the Open Cup, and it is the prize given to the winner of the nation's oldest sporting team tournament. Dating to 1914, the tournament is open to all amateur and professional clubs throughout the country.

The Cup itself is impressive. Shiny sterling and standing a couple inches shy of three feet. Today there are two such trophies housed behind glass in the Qwest Field entrance lobby.

Seattle has become home to those Cups because Sounders FC has won the tournament in each of its first two seasons. Winning a trophy is a great way to end a season, yet it actually has served as a beginning for the Rave Green.

All the toil and effort which has gone into winning the Open Cup has resulted in multiple rewards.

In both 2009 and 2010, while becoming the first team in 27 years to repeat as champion, it could be argued that the Cup jump-started competitive that we want to win every tournament, every competition, every cup."

Whether it's realistic remains to be seen; no team has yet accomplished a treble, let alone that feat. However, success breeds success, and a hunger for trophies makes for motivated hunters.

In the first season, the drive to make the Cup Final coincided with Seattle's mid-summer hot streak. Combined, the club won five straight in league and tournament play. And when form sagged going into September, it was a road victory over D.C. United in the Cup Final that sparked a resurgence. Seattle won three of its last four road matches to sew-up a playoff berth.

Again in 2010, the Cup proved an elixir. Sounders FC had struggled mightily, winning only four times in the first half of the regular season. Two days after losing its third straight league game, Seattle hosted the L.A. Galaxy in the Cup quarterfinals, and won, 2-nil.

That signaled the start of a sensational run across all competitions. The Rave Green caught fire, going unbeaten (6-0-3) in nine games. It advanced to the Champions League group stage and to the Open Cup Final. It lost only twice during the second half of the MLS schedule.

The Cup run gave new life to Sounders FC, and it also pumped vivacity and new spirit into the competition itself.

Not since the early days of the Hoover Administration had such fervor surrounded a Cup Final. Seattle would host the Columbus Crew, and tickets were going fast. Two weeks before the game, the attendance record of 21,583, set in 1929 in Brooklyn, had fallen. By matchday, it was obliterated.

A passionately partisan crowd of 31,311 filled the Xbox Pitch at Qwest Field. What was a din at the opening whistle only grew in decibels as Sounders FC first went a goal down to the Crew then mounted the comeback. Sanna Nyassi's second goal brought about bedlam.

"That's the loudest I've heard this place," said Schmid after the game. "A lot of times you see celebrations at the end of the game where the stadium is half empty. Everyone was there for the Cup presentation. I can't say enough about our fans. They're just fantastic."

His suit soaked with champagne, Hanauer was beaming afterward.

"You don't get too many opportunities to celebrate winning a championship at home, and by accomplishing that I'm especially happy for our fans, first and foremost," he said.

Seattle's 2-1 triumph was followed by a playoff-clinching verdict in Kansas City four days later. Bigger dividends may await. Schmid sees a big, Big Picture.

"The U.S. Open Cup should be very special to anyone interested in the history of American soccer, because it is one of the last remaining links in today's American soccer to the American soccer of nearly a century ago. The Sounders' enthusiasm for the Cup, and particularly the enthusiasm of the Sounders fans, warms the heart of someone who wants today's teams to be eager to follow in the footsteps of teams like Bethlehem Steel and the Fall River Marksmen."

ROGER ALLAWAY
former historian of the National Soccer Hall of Fame

Noting that Bayern Munich began its march toward becoming Germany's juggernaut by first winning a pair of domestic cup competitions he said, "I see the Open Cup as the catalyst to winning league championships and other competitions. Once you have this taste in your mouth, you want to do it again."

Entering 2011, there is a thirst to again drink from the Cup. And in addition to the aforementioned prizes, another shiny object has caught the eyes of Sounders FC.

With the league expanding into Portland and Vancouver, a three-way rivalry unlike any other in U.S. soccer has been not only renewed but its profile heightened exponentially.

The Cascadia Cup, a supporters-organized competition, goes to the Pacific Northwest's premier team, as proven in four regular-season meetings. Just as the norm of raucous capacity crowds in the Emerald City have gotten the world's attention, so too will the fervor flowing from the stands when the Sounders FC, Timbers or Whitecaps FC get together.

Success breeds success. Passion produces still more passion. Witness how rivalries between Dodgers and Yankees, Bears and Packers and Celtics and Lakers have affected their sports over the past two generations.

For the world's game, seeds were sown when the North American Soccer League formed three Northwest franchises during the 70s. All three teams advanced to at least one championship match, and all three cities ranked among the attendance leaders.

With reunification in the USL First Division some 20 years later came the Cascadia competition. In MLS the flames of passion will be fanned.

The rest of America sampled the Seattle-Portland rivalry in 2009 and again in 2010 when the teams met in the third round of the Open Cup. The atmosphere in the Timbers' PGE Park was palpable, thousands of Sounders FC supporters having made the trip south to Oregon. The crowds were the biggest in the USL franchise's history.

"It creates a scene like no other," says Schmid. "Local derbies or rivalries can create interest and awareness that draws more people to the games, not just here but in other cities. You can feel the difference."

From seeds have grown strong roots. From out of the Emerald forest, just watch the beast grow.

"Seattle, Portland and Vancouver: we are "The crowd feels like you have an extra player on the field and for Seattle they have a great crowd."

all among the Goliaths now," says Schmid. "This is going to be great for the game. As a player of mine once told me, these games are going to be massively intense."

ADRIAN HANAUER

OWNER & GENERAL MANAGER

Adrian Hanauer first kept the flame of professional soccer alive in Seattle before helping to reignite the community's passion for the game with the arrival of a Major League Soccer expansion franchise for 2009. Hanauer is both an owner and the Sounders FC general manager.

Under Hanauer's leadership, the Sounders FC achieved remarkable success in the first two seasons. Seattle became the first team to win two consecutive Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup championships in 27 years and became just the second MLS expansion team to reach the playoffs and the first to qualify for the CONCACAF Champions League in each of its first two years.

Since 2001, Hanauer has been associated with the highest level of soccer played in Seattle. He first joined the ownership group of the Sounders franchise in the United Soccer League's First Division, and later became majority shareholder and general manager. His first season in that role, 2002, was rewarded with Seattle going 23-4-1—the second-best record in league history. From 2004 to 2007, the Sounders played in the USL-1 championship game three times, winning twice (2005, 2007) and also taking a Commissioner's Cup (best record) in 2007.

Hanauer has over 20 years of business experience in a variety of other industries. On numerous occasions he has made early stage investments in technology companies with interests in advertising, infrastructure, and wireless communications. Hanauer co-founded Curious Office Partners, which invests in and incubates early stage technology companies. He was a seed stage investor in aQuantive Inc, the largest interactive advertising company which was later acquired by Microsoft for $6 billion US, and he was also an early investor in Amazon.com.

Hanauer also brings a great deal of "brick and mortar" business experience. The Hanauer family owns Pacific Coast Feather Co., the nation's largest manufacturer of pillows, comforters, and bedding products. He also owns one of the largest chains of picture framing companies in the United States, as well as a small chain of pizza restaurants.

Involved in many organizations in Seattle, Hanauer sits on the Board of Trustees for the Museum of History and Industry. He has also sat on the advisory board of The University of Washington Intercollegiate Sports Master's Degree Program.

PAUL G. ALLEN

OWNER

Paul G. Allen helped bring major league soccer to the northwest when his Vulcan Sports and Entertainment joined the ownership group behind the Sounders FC. The announcement in 2007 was the result of years of work and enthusiasm on behalf of soccer fans.

Allen had visions of world-class soccer in his hometown soon after purchasing the Seattle Seahawks of the National Football League. Allen bought the club to save pro football in Seattle after the former owners threatened to move the team to southern California.

On June 17, 1997, the voters of Washington state approved "Referendum 48" to authorize a public/private partnership to construct a stadium, exhibition center, and parking facilities. One of the keys to the success of the vote was statewide support from the soccer community and its hope to one day see professional soccer, played at the highest level, return to the northwest.

Growing up in the Seattle, Allen's passion for sports began when he'd attended University of Washington football games with his father, he later became a basketball fan watching the Seattle Supersonics win the 1979 NBA Championship.

Allen bought the Seahawks in 1996 after community leaders asked him to save the team from being moved to Los Angeles.

"From the beginning of this process, my goals have been to work with the community to create a lasting asset for our future; and to ensure the long-term success of the Seahawks," said Allen at the time of purchasing the franchise. He also wanted to "create a world-class facility for the state of."

That became a reality in 2002 with the opening of the Seahawks Stadium and Exhibition Center, renamed Qwest Field and Qwest Field Event Center in 2004. An open air facility which many critics argue is the best venue in the National Football League, Qwest Field is home to over 300 events annually ranging from soccer, to Supercross, concerts, graduation ceremonies, and trade shows.

"It exceeds the vision we had originally," Allen said shortly after the opening of the stadium. "We had a bunch of goals about trying to create a really intimate stadium that would be great for the fans, to have elegant architecture, and I think we've ended up with a fantastic facility."

Allen is one of the nation's best-known and generous philanthropists. He co-founded Microsoft with Bill Gates in 1976 and continues to be an innovator in the world of business and technology. He is founder and chairman of Vulcan Inc., which oversees his philanthropy and business interests. He is the owner of the NBA's Portland Trail Blazers.

Allen has been named one of the top philanthropists in America — with lifetime giving totaling more than $1 billion — and is committed to leaving a majority of his estate to support communities throughout the northwest and internationally. Allen gives back to the community through The Paul G. Allen Family Foundation, which strengthens communities and supports vulnerable populations in the areas of arts and culture, human services, opportunities for youth, and scientific advancement. He also gives directly, including $256 million in 2010 to Washington State University's School for Global Animal Health. In 2003 he pledged $100 million for creation of the Allen Institute for Brain Science in Seattle. The non-profit Allen Institute was founded as an innovative and unprecedented resource for neuroscientists around the world. In 2006 the Allen Institute completed its inaugural project, the Allen Brain Atlas— Mouse Brain. The mouse brain atlas is a Web-based, three-dimensional map of gene expression in the mouse brain which is freely accessible online and available at no cost. Detailing more than 21,000 genes at the cellular level, the Atlas continues to help lead scientists to new insights about neurological function and disease. In 2008 the Allen Institute announced three new major atlas projects — the Allen Brain Atlas (ABA) — Human Brain, —Developing Mouse Brain, and — Mouse Spinal Cord. The new atlases are designed to accelerate brain, and spinal cord research, dramatically advancing the field of neuroscience.

Inspired by growing up in the era of the "space race," with its Mercury, Gemini, and Apollo missions, Allen underscored his passion for rocketry by sponsoring the development of SpaceShipOne, the first privately funded spacecraft to successfully attain suborbital space. He founded the Experience Music Project, Seattle's critically acclaimed interactive music museum; the Science Fiction Museum and Hall of Fame; Flying Heritage Collection — a collection of rare World War II aircraft restored to flying condition; and, Vulcan Productions, the independent film production company behind feature films like Hard Candy and Far From Heaven, and documentaries and PBS series, including This Emotional Life, Evolution, the Emmy Award-winning Rx for Survival: A Global Health Challenge; and the Peabody Award-winning Judgment Day: Intelligent Design on Trial, and The Blues, executive-produced by Martin Scorsese in conjunction with Allen and Jo Lynn Allen.

During his travels Carey became fascinated with the empowerment of supporters at such clubs as Barcelona and Real Madrid, where leadership positions are voted upon by the members. He brought that idea to Sounders FC, where members will vote on various matters, most notably the fate of the general manager every four years. Carey is also the driving force for Seattle's 53-piece marching band, Sound Wave. Carey, 52 (5/23/58), is a native of Cleveland, Ohio.

Carey served on the USA Bid Committee, a non-profit organization created to prepare a successful application to host the FIFA World Cup™ in 2018 or 2022 on behalf of the United States Soccer Federation.

Carey had the distinction of having two hit shows simultaneously: the long-running comedy The Drew Carey Show, which ran from 1995-2004, and the improv/sketch show Whose Line Is It Anyway? on which he was host and a producer. The success of that show led to the creation of Drew Carey's Improv All-Stars, an improv group that performs in showrooms across the country. # SIGI SCHMID

HEAD COACH

Named the first head coach of Seattle Sounders FC on Dec. 16, 2008, Sigi Schmid is recognized as one of the most successful coaches in MLS history. Since 1999, Schmid's teams have won nine major titles, including two MLS Cups.

Schmid is the most successful active coach in MLS history and a two-time coach of the year. In the 2010 season he guided the Sounders FC to the playoffs for the second consecutive year, becoming just the third team in league history to reach the playoffs in their first two seasons.

The Sounders FC also became the first team in 27 years to repeat as Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup Champions when they beat Columbus, 2-1, in front of a record crowd on the Xbox Pitch at Qwest Field. Seattle defeated D.C. United, 2-1, on the road to win the 2009 title. In 2008, Schmid led his former club, the Columbus Crew to its first MLS Cup and Supporters' Shield, earning MLS Coach of the Year.

From 1999 through 2004 Schmid's L.A. Galaxy teams won four major competitions: 2002 MLS Cup, 2002 MLS Supporters' Shield, 2001 U.S. Open Cup and the 2001 CONCACAF Champions Cup.

He was voted the MLS Coach of the Year in his first season, 1999. Altogether, his Galaxy teams were 79-53-32 and reached the MLS Cup final four times and won three division crowns.

Schmid ranks No. 1 in MLS career victories (139). Overall, Schmid's record in MLS is 139-103-74. His combined postseason win total (19) is the highest in MLS history. Schmid (316) has surpassed Bob Bradley's MLS record of 272 career games coached.

Schmid is the only man in MLS history to coach two different teams to MLS Cup titles. He is one of two to coach in four MLS Cup finals.

Twice Schmid has served as U.S. Under-20 National Team head coach, most recently in 2005 at the FIFA World Championships. Schmid was an assistant to Bora Milutinovic on the Americans' 1994 World Cup team. He also was head coach for the 1991 World University Games and 1995 Pan American Games.

Scores of Schmid's UCLA players have played professionally and internationally, including Sounders FC technical director Chris Henderson (1989-90). Others include Brad Friedel, Cobi Jones, Paul Caligiuri, Eddie Lewis and Carlos Bocanegra.

Schmid first forged a winning tradition at his alma mater, UCLA. After serving as an assistant, he was elevated to head coach of the Bruins in 1980, beginning a 19-year run at the helm. His first NCAA championship was won in 1985 at Seattle's Kingdom.

UCLA went on to claim two more national titles in 1990 and '97. Schmid was named national coach of the year following the '97 championship. When he left to take over the Galaxy, his UCLA teams had accumulated a record of 322-63-33.

Schmid is a member of both the National Soccer and UCLA halls of fame. He was presented with the Walt Chyzowych Lifetime Achievement Award following the 2010 season.

Born in Tuebingen, Germany, Schmid relocated with his family to the U.S. in 1956, and to Torrance, Ca., in 1962. He was a four-year starter at UCLA (1972-75). He graduated with a B.S. degree in economics in 1976 and later earned a M.A. in business administration from the University of Southern California. Schmid is a Certified Public Accountant.

He and his wife, Valerie, maintain a residence in Manhattan Beach. He has four children: Erik, Lacey, Kurt and Kyle. Kurt is a Sounders FC assistant coach and scout. Kyle completed his career at UC Irvine in 2008.

2009 LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP

Seattle became the third first-year franchise in the modern era to win the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup.

Seattle's achievement of claiming the Open Cup in its first season equaled that of D.C. United in 1996 and Chicago, an expansion MLS team in 1998.

The Sounders FC cup run contributors featured a distinctive USL-1 flavor. All six former members of Seattle's forerunner pro-franchise saw action in games in the play-in phase or tournament proper. In fact, they figured in nine of the 12 goals scored. Sebastian Le Toux scored two goals and two assists in the play-in rounds, scored the game-winner in a quarterfinal win over Colorado, and had the game-winning assist to Roger Levesque in the Cup Final.

In addition to his game-winner in the Cup Final Levesque also scored the opening goal at Portland in the third round and assisted on Nate Jaqua's equalizer versus Houston. Stephen King scored three goals in cup play, including the overtime winner against the Dynamo.

The Sounders FC earned one of the four U.S. slots in the 2010-11 CONCACAF Champions League by virtue of the Cup Final victory. The Open Cup winner receives an automatic spot in the Champions League preliminary round. The other berths are determined by the outcome of the MLS regular season and playoffs. CONCACAF is the game's governing body for North America, Central America and the Caribbean.

2010 LAMAR HUNT U.S. OPEN CUP

Playing before a record crowd in the tournament's 97-year history, Sounders FC repeated as Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup champions in 2010.

Sanna Nyassi scored twice as Seattle came from behind at home to defeat the Columbus Crew, 2-1, and become the first team in 27 years to successfully retain the Cup. Sounders FC had defeated D.C. United in the 2009 final. The New York Pancyprian Freedoms won back-to-back titles in 1982-83.

The crowd of 31,311 shattered the attendance record for the Cup Final. The largest previous attendance in the 97 years of the tournament was 21,583 for the 1929 game in Brooklyn.

After tying the game in the 38th minute, Nyassi scored the game-winner in the 66th minute. Steve Zakuani's header from a Fredy Montero cross caromed off the crossbar and Nyassi crashed home the rebound from 8 yards.

Sounders FC used a total of 22 players during its Cup run, with striker Nate Jaqua leading the Rave Green into the Final. Jaqua scored in each of the first three matches, including a brace against both the L.A. Galaxy in the quarterfinal round and Chivas USA in the semifinal. He finished as the tournament's co-leader with five goals and was named the competition's outstanding player.

By virtue of the victory Seattle once again earned a berth in the 2011-12 CONCACAF Champions League.

HISTORY OF SOCCER IN SEATTLE

Capacity crowds at Seattle's Memorial Stadium (above) in the early 1970's helped pave the way to a move to the Kingdome (below).

SEATTLE SOUNDERS (1974-1983)

The tradition of professional soccer and the Sounders brand began with the arrival of the North American Soccer League expansion franchise. For 10 seasons they were successful and entertaining on the field, attracting some of the league's largest crowds. Just as important, the original Sounders created a legacy of developing local players capable of reaching the highest levels of the game.

In some respects, the Sounders paved the way for Seattle securing an NFL expansion franchise a year later. The founding ownership group featured six of the same partners, including Lamont Bean, Howard S. Wright, Lynn Himmelman, David Skinner, Lloyd Nordstrom and Herman Sarkowsky.

The Sounders played their first two seasons outdoors and under the Space Needle. Located on the Seattle Center campus, Memorial Stadium provided a central location and an intimate setting, although the crowds soon outgrew the initial 13,000-seat capacity. In fact, Seattle was the first NASL team to draw a sellout and did so for nine of the final 16 games at Memorial.

With the completion of the Kingdome, the Sounders moved south in 1976, and a sold-out preseason game against Pele and the Cosmos set a North American attendance record of 58,128.

From the outset, the Sounders played an energetic, entertaining style while utilizing British veterans and young, mostly local, North American players. Although it won only two division titles, Seattle finished with winning records in seven of 10 seasons, twice reached the championship game, Soccer Bowl, and in 1980 the Sounders won 25 matches – the most in NASL history.

In each Soccer Bowl, Seattle met the star-studded New York Cosmos. The 1977 final marked the final competitive game for Pele. The Sounders only major trophy was the 1981 Trans-Atlantic Challenge Cup, a midseason tournament involving the Cosmos, England's Southampton and Scotland's Celtic.

The NASL and Sounders peaked in popularity by 1980, and over the following two seasons attendance declined while the number of teams dropped from 24 to 13. Seattle bowed out after the 1983 season, and a year later the league halted operations.

FC SEATTLE STORM (1984-90)

It can be argued that the rebirth of professional soccer in North America began with FC Seattle. In 1984, a year after the original Sounders folded, a new team surfaced with a new objective: to cultivate the best local talent and test it against the best in the business.

Funded by Eastside businessman Bud Greer and with former Sounders player and coach Jimmy Gabriel serving as coaching director, FC Seattle's approach was to create a pyramid system of youth teams feeding a senior men's program. That philosophy ran counter to the NASL era, when foreigners comprised the bulk of the roster and domestic players were in the minority.

Beginning with a summer series of friendlies against NASL teams and the U.S. National Team at Memorial Stadium, FC Seattle held its own and attracted an average of 6,669 fans. The first win came in Vancouver against the Whitecaps, 2-1.

In 1985, the stakes were raised and a league took root. With the NASL now disbanded, clubs from Europe, Mexico and South America were brought to Seattle. However, when British teams faced a worldwide travel ban, FC Seattle was forced to band together with other fledgling clubs to form the Western Soccer Alliance. That became the forerunner of the American Professional Soccer League or, as it was more widely known, the A-League.

Drawing on a mixture of former Sounders and stars from both Seattle Pacific Univ and Washington collegiate programs, Seattle played a mixture of league and foreign exhibitions through 1988. That campaign culminated with Seattle winning the Western Soccer League championship and, later, making a five-match postseason tour of England. The Storm nickname was adopted prior to the 1989 season.

In 1990, the WSL merged with the East Coast's American Soccer League to form the APSL. In all there were 22 teams, but in 1991, with costs rising due to nationwide travel, membership fell to only nine clubs, and Seattle was not among them. After going dormant, it ceased operations altogether in 1992, although the brand was resurrected and used by an entry in the regional Pacific Coast League through 1995.

SEATTLE SOUNDERS (1994-2008)

In 1994, the World Cup was coming to America and, riding the resulting new wave of enthusiasm, professional soccer returned to Seattle after a three-year absence. The Sounders name was revived and the club, owned by Scott Oki and coached by Alan Hinton, joined the American Professional Soccer League.

From the outset, the Sounders nucleus was largely formed by homegrown talent. Hinton tapped into the college players being produced at both Seattle Pacific and Washington, and added experience in the form of past pros with local connections.

When Seattle won the 1995 A-League championship in its second season, eight of the 13 players who saw action originally came from the surrounding area's youth leagues. In 1996, when the Sounders repeated, nine starters were local products. Player/coach Neil Megson had been with both the original Sounders and Tacoma Stars for a total of nine seasons.

MLS opened play in 1996, and the A-League was thereafter classified as second division. Consequently, many of the top players were lured elsewhere. The Sounders remained competitive, qualifying for the playoffs in all but two of their 15 seasons and winning five divisional crowns.

In 2002 under the management of new majority investor Adrian Hanauer and the coaching of Brian Schmetzer, the club reached for new goals. Hanauer led the local effort to land a new MLS team and also moved the team from Memorial Stadium to the newly-completed Qwest Field. In fact, in the stadium's first event, the Sounders played to a USL record crowd of 25,515.

On the field, Seattle won a club-record 23 games in Schmetzer's first season. From 2004-07, it advanced to the USL championship game three times, winning twice. In U.S. Open Cup play, the Sounders eliminated four MLS teams in reaching back-to-back semifinals in 2007 and '08.

XBOX PITCH AT QWEST FIELD

In 1996, Paul G. Allen obtained an option to purchase the Seattle Seahawks and launched a campaign to win public support for a new world-class football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. Six years later, the dream became reality as the Seahawks opened the 2002 preseason against the Indianapolis Colts in new Seahawks Stadium, renamed Qwest Field on June 2, 2004. The facility, built atop the site of the Kingdome, is not only home to the Seahawks, but the stadium accommodates many levels of soccer competition, including Major League Soccer, amateur, international, World Cup and collegiate soccer.

Qwest Field is designed with a 67,000 seat capacity (36,500 for MLS regular season), with 5,000 additional seats available for special events, and 1,400 seats for fans with disabilities. With a roof covering 70 percent of the seating area, fans enjoy wide, comfortable seats with sideline seating. The facility also features a dozen elevators and expansive concourses with an ample provision of concessions stands and restrooms.

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle...Rethink!

In 2009, Qwest Field was awarded the "Event Recycling Award" from the Washington State Recycling Association. As a host for over 300 events and more than 1.5 million visitors annually, Qwest Field and Qwest Field Event Center recycled 35% of more than 1,000 tons of waste material generated; including paper products, plastics, co-mingled metals, wood and compost. For more information about the home of Sounders FC, go to qwestfield.com.

QWEST FIELD FUNDING

The $430 million facility is owned by the public and was funded by a private-public partnership. Private contributions totaled at least $130 million, while the public contributed up to $300 million through a lottery and a variety of taxes generated by events in the stadium/exhibition center.

A breakdown of the funding package:

- $130 million private investment led by Paul Allen
- $127 million from new, sports related games, similar to the Mariners' baseball-themed scratch games
- $101 million in sales taxes collected in King County attributable to events in the stadium/exhibition center
- $56 million from facility admission and parking taxes
- $15 million from extending King County's share of the existing hotel-motel tax
- $1 million per year of in-kind advertising for the new lottery games will be provided by Paul Allen
- All excess stadium revenues will fund youth athletic facilities throughout Washington State in addition to a $10 million contribution from Paul Allen
- Paul Allen agreed to pay for any construction cost overruns
- As an added measure, the debt on the Kingdome was retired, freeing property taxes for other purposes

FIRST & GOAL INC.

In June of 1997, Washington State voters approved a funding package to build a new football/soccer stadium and exhibition center. With that, Paul G. Allen and Football Northwest created First & Goal Inc., an entity that represented the interests of Qwest Field in the construction of the new stadium and now manage the stadium and event center on a daily basis.

ARLO WHITE

PLAY-BY-PLAY

Announcer Arlo White begins his second season with the Sounders FC broadcasting team as the club's play-by-play announcer. The "Voice of the Sounders FC" can be heard on all television and radio broadcasts.

White joins Seattle after spending the previous nine years with BBC Radio Sport in England where he served as a host on "BBC Radio 5 Live." White also hosted the station's flagship Premier League Football show, "Saturday 5 Live Sport," and the Monday Night Club alongside the legendary BBC football commentator John Motson.

From 2002 to 2005, White was a key presenter on the "5 Live Breakfast" program. During that time, he covered the 2003 Cricket World Cup in South Africa, the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, and various UEFA Champions League football matches.

In November 2006, White joined a very select band of broadcasters to have worked the Test Match Special and presented Sports Report. He served as the presenter of "Saturday 5 Live Sport" for several weeks, and was a regular voice on the network presenting "5 Live Sport."

White called play-by-play during five Super Bowls for "BBC Radio 5" Live and hosted a weekly NFL Show.

He and his wife, Lizi, are the parents of twin daughters, Eva and Amelie.

MEDIA POLICY

CREDENTIALS

Season media credentials will be issued to recognized newspapers, magazines, television and established radio stations making reasonable requests. To qualify, an outlet must cover 18 of the club's home games. Because of limited photo credentials, it is impossible to grant freelance photographer access unless assigned to shoot for a specific story or project.

ROAD CREDENTIALS

Members of the Sounders FC's media traveling to road games should submit requests for credentials to the Communications Department no later than five (5) business days prior to the road game.

MEDIA WILL CALL

Members of the media needing to pick up passes at the game will find the Media Will Call booth located at the Southwest corner of Qwest Field. Each person must pick up his or her own credential and present corresponding photo identification. Media Will Call opens two hours prior to the scheduled kickoff. All media must enter through the press gate entrance located at the Southwest Entrance. Media credentials will not be honored at any other entrance. All credentials are non-transferable, and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from Qwest Field and confiscation of the credentials.

BROADCAST

In making requests for broadcast credentials, please specify requirements for spotters and/or statisticians. These services must be arranged in advance, and once they are made the statisticians must be compensated whether used or not. Broadcast booth locations are located in the Qwest Field press box.

PARKING

A limited number of parking passes are available for working media. Members of the media seeking parking passes are advised to make their requests as early as possible. Please note that that Sounders FC will not be able to accommodate all requests.

A limited number of TV news trucks will be allowed to park on the Qwest Field east access road. TV trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will need to make prior arrangements with Kurt Shaffer, Director of Technical Services for First & Goal, Inc. (kurtsh@firstandgoal.com or 206-381-7220).

PRESS BOX

The Gary Wright Press Box at Qwest Field is located on the suite level on the west side of Qwest Field. The press box will open two hours before kickoff. Admittance is limited to working media members with valid credentials. The press box is intended for the purpose of providing a work place for writers, reporters, broadcasters and game personnel. It is imperative that season pass holders notify the communications staff of their intention to cover a game in order to receive press box seating. Family members and guests will not be accommodated in the press box. Abuse of press box press privileges will result in forfeiture of a press pass.

TELEPHONE/WIRELESS ACCESS

Several pool phones are placed throughout the press box. Remember pool phones are to be shared. Courtesy hard lines are available in the photo room. Qwest Field offers wireless internet access in all areas of the press box and photographers' work room. The access is free of charge and works with all wi-fi enabled computer equipment. Media wishing to pay for dedicated LAN connections should be made through the Communications Department.

GAME NOTES/STATISTICS

Game notes and statistics will be available in the press box. Statistics will be distributed to each seat throughout the game at halftime and 10 minutes following the game. Periodic announcements will also be made during the game.

LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Following the conclusion of the game, a postgame news conference will be held in the NFL Visiting Media Room near both the Home and Visiting Locker Rooms in the south end of Qwest Field. At the end of the news conference the locker room will be open to media. Sounders FC and visitor locker rooms are located near the Southeast tunnel on the field level. Your cooperation and professional courtesy is asked in maintaining a proper working atmosphere for postgame interviews. Absolutely no autographs are allowed during media access periods.

Media cell phones - No media may use a cell phone at any time inside the locker room. Media members may carry their cell phones into the locker room but may not use them to place or take calls, or to take photos.

FIELD ACCESS

Only working newspaper, magazine and network TV photographers and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Press Box passes will not be honored for field admittance at any time, unless authorized by Seattle Sounders FC.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

ENG crew and still photographers holding proper credentials may position themselves along either endline at field level. Immediately prior to each match, photographers who wish to shoot the traditional pre-game team photo will be escorted on cue to the midfield sideline by photo marshals. Photographers will be instructed to walk only on the sidelines—never on the field of play—en route to these temporary sideline positions. Once team photos have been taken, photographers will be directed to quickly return to their endline photo positions. During the match, photographers are advised that they have restricted freedom of movement. At no time during the match can photographers shoot from directly behind the goal. Also, movement from one end of the field to the other is allowed only at halftime on the sideline opposite the team benches. Still photographers DO NOT have access to the locker rooms at any time.

PHOTOGRAPHER PHOTO BIBS

PHOTOGRAPHERS' WORKROOM

The Photographers' work area is located at the back of the press box.

MEALS

Food and beverages are available to working members of the media in the Press Box and Photographers' Workroom.

DURING THE WEEK

Training Access

During the regular season, training sessions typically run 75-90 minutes and usually begin at 10 a.m. Training times can and frequently do vary. Members of the media who intend to cover training sessions on a regular basis should call the Sounders FC Communications Department to obtain the latest training schedule information. Training sessions will, in general, be open to the media, but they may be closed at the discretion of the head coach. No media members are allowed into the locker room before, during or after training sessions.

Interviews

Interviews that require advance preparations or special accommodations by a Sounders FC player or staff member should be made by calling or e-mailing the Sounders FC Communications Department.
