EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHIES

BOB LENARDUZZI

PRESIDENT

Bob Lenarduzzi has been involved with Whitecaps FC for over three decades, excelling as a player, coach, general manager, director of soccer operations, and now president. Playing with his hometown Whitecaps FC (1974-1984), Lenarduzzi was the North American Soccer League's all-time leader in games played with 312. He was the only Canadian to win the North American Player of Year, and in 1979, he was a key member of Whitecaps FC's championship-winning team. He represented Canada 47 times as a player, helping them qualify for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics and the 1986 FIFA World Cup in Mexico. For his efforts, Lenarduzzi was named among CONCACAF's top 30 players of the past century. As a player/coach, he won four straight Canadian Soccer League championships and was twice named CSL Coach of the Year. He went on to coach Canada's men's national team from 1992 to 1997.

Lenarduzzi served as the general manager and director of soccer operations of Vancouver 86ers and Whitecaps FC from 1988 to 1993, and 1998 to 2007. In 2000, he received the USL First Division Executive of the Year award, while he was also a member of the FIFA U-20 World Cup Canada 2007 Steering Committee.

Lenarduzzi has been inducted into the North American Soccer Hall of Fame, the Canadian Soccer Hall of Fame, the British Columbia Sports Hall of Fame, and the United Soccer Leagues Hall of Fame. In 2005, he received the Order of British Columbia – the highest form of recognition that the province can extend to its citizens – for his contribution to the sport of soccer.

RACHEL LEWIS

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Rachel Lewis has been in the field of sport and event management for nearly a decade, joining Vancouver Whitecaps FC in 2003 as director of event management and stadium development. In 2007, she assumed the role of chief operating officer.

Prior to joining Whitecaps FC, Lewis spent three years with Vancouver's PGA Tour Stop, the Air Canada Championship. As tournament director, she was responsible for overseeing all day-to-day operations. Lewis also represented BMO Financial Group as project manager for their sponsorship of the BMO Financial Group Canadian Women's Open. She holds a BA (honours) from the University of Victoria and an MBA from the University of British Columbia.

Lewis has a strong passion for community. She currently sits on the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of Kidsport Canada, is a board member of the Gastown Business Improvement Society, is a former Director of Sport BC, and is a former Trustee with the BC Sports Hall of Fame and Museum. She also volunteered as a member of the FIFA U-20 World Cup Canada 2007 Steering Committee. In 2008, Lewis was recognized as a recipient of the Business in Vancouver "40 Under 40" awards, while in 2011, she was named one of "BC's 100 Women of Influence" by The Vancouver Sun.

KIM JACKMAN

VICE PRESIDENT BRAND & PARTNERSHIPS

In September 2011, Kim Jackman was named Whitecaps FC vice president of brand & partnerships after previously serving as director of marketing and communications. In her current role, Jackman oversees the club's partner relationships and the development of a strong and sustainable brand.

Since 2007, Jackman has been a contributor to the club's management team, including playing a key role in the development of the Whitecaps 2009 bid for an MLS franchise, and the evolution and re-launch of the Whitecaps brand in 2010/11.

Prior to joining Whitecaps FC, Jackman was an account director at global marketing agencies RMG Connect and Ogilvy & Mather, where she worked with a wide range of local and Fortune 500 clients including LifeScan - a Johnson & Johnson Company, Telus Communications, Intrawest, BC Hydro, Mountain Equipment Co-op, and VanCity Savings. Jackman holds a BA (honours) from McGill University.

DON FORD

VICE PRESIDENT FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

Don Ford joined Whitecaps FC in January 2011, and is responsible for the financial management of the club including financial planning, reporting, and accounting. He also manages the financial relationships with Major League Soccer and the external financial community.

Prior to joining the Whitecaps FC front office, Ford was the director of revenue finance for the Vancouver Organizing Committee for the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games (VANOC), where he oversaw the implementation of all aspects of VANOC's revenue streams. Ford has also worked as a senior manager in the audit and assurance practice for the Vancouver office of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, serving the forestry, technology, and retail sectors.

Born in Alberta and raised in Ontario, Ford is an active recreational hockey player and golfer. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce (Hons.) from Queen's University and is a Chartered Accountant and Certified Public Accountant (Illinois).

DIRECTOR BIOGRAPHIES

GREG ANDERSON

DIRECTOR, PROFESSIONAL TEAMS

Greg Anderson joined the Whitecaps FC front office in 2004. He is responsible for the management of the men's first team. Anderson also sits on the Canadian Soccer Association board of directors.

Prior to joining the club, Anderson worked in pulmonary research at St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver. In order to make a career change and explore his passions for sport and development, Anderson completed an MBA at the Thunderbird School of Global Management, during which time, he was invited to join the United Nations Graduate Study Program, where he had the opportunity to study and work abroad in France and Costa Rica. Anderson also holds a BSc in Biology from the University of Western Ontario.

TOM SOEHN

DIRECTOR, SOCCER OPERATIONS

Having been part of Major League Soccer since its inception in 1996, Tom Soehn brings a vast wealth of experience to his role as Whitecaps FC director of soccer operations. A native of Chicago, Illinois, Soehn joined the club on January 19, 2010.

With ten years' experience as a coach in MLS, including last season with Whitecaps FC and the previous three as head coach of D.C. United, Soehn's role is to develop and oversee the creation and operation of the club's player scouting, identification, and recruitment system, as well as collaborate with the technical staff to formulate the roster for their MLS season.

Soehn came to Whitecaps FC after six seasons on the coaching staff at D.C. United. From 2004 to 2006, he served as assistant coach to Peter Nowak at the Washington, D.C. outfit. During that time, United won both the 2004 MLS Cup title and the 2006 MLS Supporters' Shield as regular season champions. On December 21, 2006, Soehn succeeded Nowak as head coach and enjoyed a successful first season with United, with the club defending their MLS Supporters' Shield title in 2007. His second season in charge saw United win the 2008 Lamar Hunt US Open Cup title before he led the club into the group stages of the inaugural (2008-09) CONCACAF Champions League. As Lamar Hunt US Open Cup winners, United returned to the CONCACAF Champions League for the 2009-10 season and reached the group stages for a second straight year. As United head coach from 2007 to 2009, Soehn registered a 55W-48L-31D record in all competitions, including an overall MLS record of 36W-31L-25D.

Prior to joining D.C. United, Soehn served as assistant coach with hometown club Chicago Fire. He first assisted current United States national team head coach Bob Bradley during both the 2001 and 2002 seasons before serving in the same role for then Fire head coach Dave Sarachan in 2003.

Soehn's time in professional soccer also included a distinguished 13-year playing career as a defender/midfielder in both the indoor and outdoor game in North America. This included four seasons in MLS with Dallas Burn (now known as FC Dallas) and Chicago. After being selected in the second round (13th overall) of the MLS Inaugural Player Draft in February 1996, Soehn missed out on the league's first season of existence through injury before returning to action the next year, as Dallas won the 1997 Lamar Hunt US Open Cup title. In 1998, Soehn returned home to join expansion club Chicago following a mid-season trade from Dallas. He then helped the Illinois-based outfit to a memorable first year of existence, as the Fire won both the MLS Cup and Lamar Hunt US Open Cup titles that year. That was followed by another Lamar Hunt US Open Cup title with Chicago in 2000.

Soehn's playing career also included a spell in the old Canadian Soccer League with Ottawa Intrepid and Hamilton Steelers in 1989 and 1990. He then played a further three seasons in the old American Professional Soccer League (APSL) with Colorado Foxes from 1992 to 1994. During his time with Colorado, the defender/midfielder won two APSL championship titles in 1992 and 1993. He also claimed the 1992 'Professional Cup' North American Club Championship with Colorado, with the Foxes defeating Whitecaps FC (known then as Vancouver 86ers) 5-3 on aggregate in the first round of the competition. Soehn also spent part of his career playing professional indoor soccer. This included spells with Wichita Wings in the Major Indoor Soccer League/Major Soccer League (1988 to 1992) and National Professional Soccer League (NPSL - 1993 to 1996), Denver Thunder (NPSL - 1992-93 season), and Las Vegas Dustdevils (Continental Indoor Soccer League - 1995 season).

Soehn and his wife Jean have four children named TJ, Payton, Sydney, and Addison.

CARLY JOKIC

DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS & BROADCAST

Carly Jokic joined Whitecaps FC as director of communications and broadcast in March 2011. She holds more than 15 years of communications and marketing experience in both public and private sectors in organizations ranging from 20 to 1,500 people with revenues up to $800 million.

Prior to joining Vancouver Whitecaps FC, Jokic was with the Vancouver Organizing Committee for the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games (VANOC). A key part of the communications senior management team, Jokic acted as communications liaison for all 65 corporate sponsors for day-to-day and long-term issues management and strategic communications planning. A primary link to the CEO office, she also managed a broad variety of crucial programs - such as the launch of the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic medals, the infamous Red Mittens campaign, and the launch of the Canadian team uniform.

Prior to VANOC, Carly managed communications for the Vancouver Convention Centre in preparation for major facility expansion, and also held a wide range of roles at leading high technology corporations, including Sophos Inc., Xantrex Technology Inc., Absolute Software, and Dynapro Systems Inc.

Jokic majored in English at Simon Fraser University and holds a Management Certificate in Marketing Communications (with honours) from BCIT. She is a member of CPRS and IABC, a frequent guest speaker at BCIT marketing and PR classes, and a long-time volunteer for the Canadian Cancer Society's Camp Goodtimes.

ROBERTO CABRONE

DIRECTOR, SALES

Roberto Cabrone has been a sales leader in the professional sports industry for more than 13 years. In both Canada and the United States, Cabrone has driven innovative revenue initiatives, developed and executed successful sales programs, and supported the teams' other business endeavours through cross-promotion activities. Cabrone has worked with the BC Lions (Canadian Football League), Vancouver Canucks (National Hockey League), Long Beach Ice Dogs and Victoria Salmon Kings (East Coast Hockey League).

Director, Corporate Partnerships Colby Fackler Colby Fackler joined Whitecaps FC in February 2012 as director of corporate partnerships. Fackler brings a wide range of sponsorship and sports industry experience. Prior to coming to Whitecaps FC, he worked as the senior director of corporate sales with Comcast Spectacor's, FrontRow Marketing providing commercial rights management for the Abbotsford Heat of the American Hockey League (AHL) and The Abbotsford Entertainment & Sports Centre.. Additional experience includes roles at Sport BC, Vancouver Canucks of the National Hockey League (NHL), and Inventa Promotions, as well as a teaching role in the Entertainment Business Program at the Vancouver Film School. Fackler is also a member of the executive committee and board of trustees for the BC Sports Hall of Fame.

SANDY HANCOCK

DIRECTOR, FOUNDATION

Sandy Hancock joined Whitecaps FC as director of the Whitecaps Foundation in January 2011. She did her BA at UBC after which she attended UBC Law School, graduating with her LLB in 1984. She travelled extensively in Asia, Australia, and New Zealand before commencing Articles at Richards Buell Sutton LLP and thereafter was called to the BC Bar in 1986.

Hancock began practicing in civil litigation and had a varied civil practice for a number of years, eventually developing a preferred focus in Personal Injury; she practiced with Richards Buell Sutton LLP between 1985 and 2010. She has taught and lectured for Continuing Legal Education and Trial Lawyers of BC in such varied areas as Collections and Enforcement of Judgments, Production of Documents, and Use of Private Health Facilities in Personal Injury cases. During her years working as a lawyer, Hancock was involved in a number of charitable events and organizations including "The Spring Charity Ball", the Vancouver Crisis Centre, and the Endeavour Society, as well as a number of community groups and Irish Dance initiatives.

Hancock has managed soccer teams on the North Shore from U-7 to U-16 and is currently the co-manager of a U-15 Metro Girls side; she is also active in the volleyball community and coaches with the North Shore Stars volleyball club, as well as Handsworth Secondary School, where she is chair of the Parent Advisory Council. Hancock enjoys travelling and takes part in multiple sports; she is active in Irish dance and loves spending time with her two teenaged daughters Alexis and Mariah, as well as her husband Bruce. She is a member of the Association of Professional Fundraisers.

DAN LENARDUZZI

DIRECTOR, SOCCER DEVELOPMENT

Lenarduzzi has been involved in the game both as a player and executive. He was born and raised in Vancouver and followed his two older brothers, Bob and Sam, into professional soccer with Vancouver Whitecaps FC at the age of 18. This made the Lenarduzzi's the first three brothers in North America to play on the same professional sports team. Lenarduzzi played his way up through the British Columbia youth soccer system with Vancouver's Grandview Legion and the BC provincial team program. In 1979, he led the Canadian U-20 national team to qualification for the FIFA U-20 World Cup, having been named a tournament all-star at the qualifying tournament in Honduras. Other accomplishments include his role as captain of the Canadian side at the U-20 World Cup in Japan and professional player with the Whitecaps from 1978 to 1982. Lenarduzzi has a Business Degree in Marketing and Communications from the British Columbia Institute of Technology (BCIT), and 10 years in the marketing industry, including his own company. In his current role with Whitecaps FC, Lenarduzzi oversees the clubs Residency and Women teams in addition to other player development programs and community camps and clinics.

SOCCER DEVELOPMENT

Vancouver Whitecaps FC is modeled after a European style football club with a development path and programming from grassroots to professional.

The Whitecaps Community Soccer System forms the foundation of the model helping to grow the game and reaching over 21,000 youths through a combination of free community, school, and pre-game clinics.

The Whitecaps Player Development Program is the next step for many of the Community Soccer System youth. Local and regional camps, academies, and showcase events offer aspiring players of all levels the opportunity to further develop their skills under the guidance of professional Whitecaps coaches. These programs reach over 7,000 youths and provide a scouting network for player selection to the Whitecaps FC Residency program.

Vancouver Whitecaps FC Professional Development begins with the Whitecaps FC Residency program and the Girls Elite program.

Whitecaps FC Residency is a full-time, fully funded, player development program unlike any other in North America. Residency is designed to maximize a player's potential on and off the field through a "soccer lifestyle" philosophy linking technical and personal development. By integrating training, education and accommodation, all conveniently situated in Burnaby, BC, Whitecaps FC Residency provides the perfect conditions to develop and prepare elite athletes for the mental and physical demands of professional environments in North America and Europe.

In September 2011, the Residency program grew from a squad of 25 players in the U-17 to U-19 age range to teams in the U-14, U-16, and U-18 categories. With this expansion, the full-time Residency program is now primarily comprised of 80 of the top players from across British Columbia and Canada. Aspiring players can now enter the Whitecaps FC club system full-time as early as age 12, and be nurtured in an age appropriate learning environment, with gradational steps that will help them attain a successful professional and national team career.

The Whitecaps FC Girls Elite program is a funded player development program for U-14 to U-18 girls that will evolve over the next two years. The program is based around a funded, full-time U-18 training development program for players who have been identified to move beyond community club soccer. Players in this program train and compete from September to July as full-time Whitecaps youth. The program now also includes a part-time seasonal training camp program for U-14 to U-16 girls that is integrated with the new EA Sports BC Soccer Premier League.

Exceeding Vancouver Whitecaps FC Soccer Development is the First Team Operations. Vancouver Whitecaps FC men's team are the top of the club model with entry into Major League Soccer in 2011. The Whitecaps women's team is the pinnacle program for young female athletes to compete in the USL W-League. Players are mixed with internationals to represent Vancouver Whitecaps FC in elite competition in the Western Conference.

WHITECAPS FOUNDATION

The Whitecaps Foundation is the charitable arm of the Whitecaps organization. The Foundation both raises funds from the community (individuals, foundations, government, and corporations) and gives back to the community through the donation of tickets, merchandise, and from time to time, helping other organizations raise cash funds.

The mission of the Foundation is to help create the fittest generation of BC youth by 2020. We will measure our success by the physical, mental, emotional, social, and cultural fitness of the youth we reach, and their readiness to make positive and lasting contributions to society. We will reach our goal by providing accessible soccer programs for youth in communities throughout Western Canada, by leveraging our greatest resource (YOU – the players) to act as role models and help deliver and reinforce messages related to the importance of healthy living, nutrition, education and life balance, and by complementing existing community initiatives.

Currently, the Foundation is raising funds to support all of the Whitecaps youth programs, the women's program and the Residency program. For additional information on the Whitecaps Foundation visit, whitecapsfoundation.org.

STADIUM AND FACILITIES

BC PLACE

777 Pacific Boulevard
Vancouver, BC V6B 4Y8
Capacity: 21,000

Field Size: 117 x 75 yards

Whitecaps FC play in beautiful BC Place Stadium, which completed significant renovations in September 2011. The 'Caps have a proud history with BC Place. In what was the first sporting event to be played in the stadium, a sold-out crowd of 60,342 saw the Whitecaps defeat Seattle Sounders 2-1 on June 20, 1983.

Now in its second incarnation, BC Place stadium includes a, a state-of-the-art retractable roof, new synthetic FIFA-approved 2-Star FieldTurf, as well as a centrally hung electronic scoreboard. Additional soccer-specific renovations - designed to increase the intimacy of the venue - include modular floor-level hospitality areas, floor-level loge seats (bringing fans closer to the pitch), and an upper deck draping limits the capacity of the stadium to approximately 21,000 seats (from 54,313).

The completed stadium also features improved access for persons with disabilities, and the redevelopment of all common spaces, concessions, washrooms, exterior plazas, media facilities, dressing rooms, and general public areas, as well as a comprehensive refurbishment of all suites, and the establishment of a club seat area.

TRAINING FACILITIES

Whitecaps FC will hold the majority of their training at Burnaby Lake training facility to start the 2012 Major League Soccer season. Training sessions at home will typically run from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. with media availability to follow each session.

NATIONAL SOCCER DEVELOPMENT CENTRE

Whitecaps FC are committed to building a world-class training facility for not only players, but also for coaches and referees, on a 30 to 40-acre footprint in the Metro Vancouver region. The National Soccer Development Centre (NSDC) will provide access to nation-leading sport science programs and new development opportunities for soccer clubs throughout the province of British Columbia.

The $31.5-million capital project, which includes a commitment of $17.5 million from the BC provincial government, will serve as the training base for the Whitecaps FC men's and women's teams, the club's full-time Residency program, youth sides, and visiting teams. Plans for the NSDC also include a clubhouse for national and professional teams, a training facility, and several fields.

COACH/STAFF BIOGRAPHIES

MARTIN RENNIE

HEAD COACH

Birthplace: Thurso, Scotland

Hometown: Falkirk, Scotland

Citizenship: Scotland

Seasons with Whitecaps FC: 2012

Acquired: 2011.08.09

Previous Club: Carolina RailHawks (NASL)

An up-and-coming head coach that has already enjoyed tremendous success in North American professional soccer, Martin Rennie was appointed Vancouver Whitecaps FC head coach on August 9, 2011. The native of Thurso, Scotland, took charge of the Blue and White following the 2011 Major League Soccer season.

Rennie comes to Whitecaps FC after three impressive seasons as head coach of Carolina RailHawks at the North American second division level. In the inaugural season of the new North American Soccer League in 2011, the Scotsman guided the RailHawks to an NASL regular season title with a record of 17W-8L-3D. The North Carolina club finished the campaign as league leaders in goals scored with 50 in 28 matches and conceded a league-best 26 goals. Though Carolina clinched a bye to the playoff semifinals, Rennie saw his tenure as RailHawks head coach come to a disappointing end when they lost 5-3 on penalties to eventual NASL champions NSC Minnesota Stars following a 4-4 aggregate draw in their semifinal series.

In 2010, Rennie guided the RailHawks to the NASL Conference title with a 13W-9L-8D regular-season record. Carolina then earned their first playoff win and won their first playoff series in club history. They advanced all the way to the United States Soccer Federation Division-2 Professional League championship series before falling 3-1 on aggregate to Puerto Rico Islanders.

In his first season with Carolina in 2009, Rennie guided the RailHawks to a 16W-7L-7D regular-season record, a runners-up finish in the United Soccer Leagues First Division (USL-1) standings, and a berth in the USL-1 quarterfinals, where they fell 1-0 on aggregate to Whitecaps FC. Under Rennie that season, the RailHawks established new team records for wins, points, shutouts, goals scored, goals allowed, and the longest winning streak.

Prior to joining the RailHawks, Rennie enjoyed two very successful seasons with Cleveland City Stars in the old third-tier United Soccer Leagues Second Division (USL-2). He guided the Ohio-based outfit to a 10W-1L-9D regular season record in 2007 and a runners-up finish in the USL-2 standings. The Stars outscored their opponents 31 to 14 during the regular season and posted eight shutouts. They reached the semifinals of the USL-2 playoffs that year before Rennie was named the league's Coach of the Year.

Despite replacing more than three-quarters of the roster for 2008, Rennie and the Stars posted a 10W-3L-7D record to finished third in the USL-2 standings. They outscored their opponents 33 to 16 and logged 11 shutouts on the year. After failing to win three straight matches at any point during the regular season, Cleveland won three straight playoff matches and claimed the 2008 USL-2 championship title in just their second season of existence. In his two seasons as Cleveland head coach, Rennie compiled a 26W-7L-16D record in all competitions.

Rennie began his coaching career in 2005 with Cascade Surge of the USL's Premier Development League (PDL). The Surge placed sixth overall (12W-2L-2D, 38 points) in the 54-club PDL, with the Oregon-based outfit claiming the Western Conference, Northwest Division regular season title and the league's Fair Play award. Under Rennie, the Surge also qualified for the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup for the only time in the club's history.

His coaching credentials include UEFA 'A' and 'B' Coaching Licenses, as well as a UEFA Youth License. Rennie is one of only a handful of coaches worldwide who possesses both the UEFA 'A' and Youth Licenses. Rennie holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration and Management from Glasgow Caledonian University in Scotland.

Born May 22, 1975, in Thurso, Scotland, Rennie grew up in Falkirk, Scotland. Rennie and his wife Amy have two girls named Lauren and Chloe.

Rennie became the 15th head coach in the club's history in 2012. He follows Jim Easton (1974-1975 -- Scotland), Eckhard Krautzun (1976-1977 -- Germany), Holger Osieck (1977 -- Germany), Tony Waiters (1977-1979 & 1980 -- England), Bob McNab (1980 -- England), Johnny Giles (1981-1983 -- Ireland), Alan Hinton (1984 -- England), Bob Lenarduzzi (1987-1993 -- Canada), Carl Valentine (1994-1999 -- England), Dale Mitchell (2000-2001 -- Canada), Tony Fonseca (2002-2004 -- Portugal), Bob Lilley (2005-2007 -- United States), Teitur Thordarson (2008-2011 -- Iceland), and Tom Soehn (2011 -- United States)

PAUL RITCHIE

ASSISTANT COACH

Birthplace: Kirkcaldy, Scotland

Hometown: Glenrothes, Scotland

Citizenship: Scotland

Seasons with Whitecaps FC: 2012

Acquired: 2011.11.03

Previous Club: Carolina RailHawks (NASL)

A former Scotland international that enjoyed a successful playing career in Scotland and England, Paul Ritchie became Vancouver Whitecaps FC assistant coach on November 3, 2011, reuniting with head coach Martin Rennie after working with his fellow countryman at North American Soccer League (NASL) club Carolina RailHawks.

The native of Kirkcaldy, Scotland, moves to Major League Soccer with Whitecaps FC after two successful seasons as Rennie's first assistant with the RailHawks. In the inaugural season of the new NASL in 2011, Ritchie helped guide the North American second division outfit to an NASL regular season title with a record of 17W-8L-3D, with the North Carolina club finishing the campaign as league leaders in goals scored with 50 in 28 matches, while conceding a league-best 26 goals. Though they clinched a bye to the playoff semifinals, the RailHawks saw their 2011 season come to a disappointing end when they lost 5-3 on penalties to eventual NASL champions NSC Minnesota Stars following a 4-4 aggregate draw in their semifinal series. In 2010, Ritchie helped Carolina to an NASL Conference title during the 2010 United States Soccer Federation Division-2 Professional League (USSF D-2) season with a record of 13W-9L-8D. The RailHawks then advanced all the way to the USSF D-2 championship series before falling 3-1 on aggregate to Puerto Rico Islanders.

Before joining the RailHawks coaching staff, Ritchie spent a year coaching with Manchester United Soccer Schools (MUSS). This included involvement in a number of international projects and spending the summer of 2009 at their prestigious residential program at Denstone College in Utttoxeter, England. From September 2007 to November 2008, Ritchie served as the U-19 coach with Scottish First Division club Dundee FC.

As a player, Ritchie appeared for several top clubs in Scotland and England. He started his career at Scottish Premier League (SPL) side Heart of Midlothian FC in 1992, where he spent eight years with the Edinburgh-based outfit. In the 1997-98 season, Ritchie helped Hearts claim a sixth Scottish FA Cup title. A defender, Ritchie then spent six months on loan with Bolton Wanderers FC during the 1999-2000 English League Championship season, with The Trotters reaching the promotion playoffs and the semifinals of both the English FA Cup and League Cup. In June 2000, Ritchie signed with Scottish giants Rangers FC before the Old Firm club sold him to English Premier League outfit Manchester City FC in August 2000. The defender spent three seasons with City, though his last season included loan spells with English League Championship sides Portsmouth FC and Derby County FC. He then remained in the second tier of English soccer for the 2003-04 season with Walsall FC before returning to the SPL when he joined Dundee United FC in July 2004. In two seasons with The Terrors, Ritchie helped the Tayside outfit to the Scottish FA Cup final in the 2004-05 season. He then had a brief spell in Cyprus with Athletic Club Omonoia Nicosia before ending his playing career with Carolina RailHawks after making one appearance during the 2009 United Soccer Leagues First Division campaign. A Scotland international, Ritchie scored one goal in seven appearances for his country between April 1999 and February 2004. The centre back made his international debut in a 1-0 friendly win over Germany on April 28, 1999, before scoring his lone international goal in qualifying for the 2000 UEFA European Championship, as Scotland fell 3-2 away to Czech Republic on June 9, 1999.

Currently working towards his Union of European Football Associations (UEFA) Pro Licence, Ritchie holds UEFA 'A' and 'B' Coaching Licences, as well as a Scottish Football Association Youth Licence.

Born August 21, 1975, in Kirkcaldy, Scotland, Ritchie grew up in the nearby town of Glenrothes, Scotland. He is married to wife Gill and has two boys named Jordan and Dylan.

ED GEORGICA*HEAD EQUIPMENT, LOGISTIC & FACILITIES MANAGER

Birthplace: Richmond, British Columbia

Hometown: Vancouver, British Columbia

Citizenship: Canadian

Years with Whitecaps FC: 2011, 2012

Acquired: 2011

Ed Georgica, an East Vancouver native, began his extensive career in professional sports with the BC Lions back in 1980. After the Grey Cup win in 1985, Georgica moved into hockey as the equipment assistant with the Vancouver Canucks for six years and then moved to the Ottawa Senators for their inaugural year as the head equipment manager where he contributed in this role for over 10 years.

On the international stage, Georgica worked for Team Canada at the 1993 and 1996 World Championships resulting in a silver medal win. He was then selected to represent the world team in the 2000 NHL All Star game in Toronto. Georgica served four years on the executive board for the Society for Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM), with one year in the role of president. In 2001, Georgica was the recipient of the Larry Ashley Award presented to the trainer that best exemplifies the character and commitment to excellence displayed by Ashley throughout his career.

In 2002, Georgica made a change from hockey and moved to back to the West Coast where he enjoyed sports consulting for two major motion movies and then pursued a business opportunity as a partner in a company that patented a unique technology for a compression garment. Five years later, a licensing deal was finalized with a global performance sports apparel leader and this technology is now global and in multiple products.

Last season, Georgica stepped into the role of head equipment, logistic & facilities manager for Vancouver Whitecaps FC.

Georgica's primary residence is on Vancouver Island in North Nanaimo with his wife, Deana and their four children: Jenessa, Sarah, Alex and Taylor.

PROFILE

A talented and hardworking central midfielder that captained Canada at the 2011 FIFA U-17 World Cup, Bryce Alderson joined Whitecaps FC's Major League Soccer roster after signing a 'Generation adidas' contract as a Home Grown player on Nov. 17, 2011. Named Canadian U-17 Player of the Year in 2010 and 2011, the native of Kitchener, Ontario, first joined the club's Residency program on Sept. 7, 2010.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Alderson made two substitute appearances for Whitecaps FC reserves that season. His MLS Reserve League debut came as a substitute during a 1-0 home defeat to Portland Timbers reserves at Swangard Stadium on Oct. 3. The midfielder again appeared as a substitute in their final match of the Reserve League season, as Whitecaps FC reserves fell 1-0 at Chivas USA reserves on Oct. 18.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES PREMIER DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE

2011: Alderson made his PDL debut for Whitecaps FC Residency during a 2-0 home defeat to Kitsap Pumas on May 1. The midfielder then assisted on Philippe Davies' equalizer during the Residency team's 2-2 away draw with Portland Timbers U-23's on July 10. The midfielder made a total of 11 appearances that season, as the Residency team finished third in the Northwest Division of the PDL's Western Conference.

VANCOUVER WHITECAPS FC RESIDENCY

2010-11: As a member of the Residency program, Alderson made three appearances during the team's six-match tour of Mexico in Nov. 2010. This included starts in a 4-2 defeat versus Estudiantes Tecos U-18's (Nov. 10, 2010), a 4-2 victory over Atlas de Guadalajara U-18's (Nov. 14, 2010), and a 2-2 draw with Estudiantes Tecos U-19/U-20 side (Nov. 16, 2010). The midfielder then appeared for the Residency team in all three Bracket C matches at Dallas Cup XXXII. This included starts in a 3-2 win over Brazil's Sport Club Corinthians Paulista (Apr. 17, 2011), a 2-0 defeat to Mexico's Tigres de la Universidad Autónoma de Nuevo León (Tigres UANL) (Apr. 18, 2011), and a 2-0 defeat to Real Salt Lake U-17/U-18 Academy (Apr. 20, 2011). Alderson also appeared in the 2-1 friendly win over Costa Rica's Liga Deportiva Alajuelense at Dallas Cup XXXII on Apr. 21, 2011.

CANADIAN SOCCER LEAGUE RESERVE LEAGUE

2010: Prior to joining Whitecaps FC Residency, Alderson scored three goals in 12 appearances for the reserve side of Portugal FC (now Soccer Club of Toronto) in the Canadian Soccer League (CSL) Reserve League. Portugal FC Reserves finished seventh in the CSL Reserve League standings that season.

INTERNATIONAL

U-20: In Dec. 2011, Alderson was one of five Whitecaps FC Residency players to be called up by former Whitecaps FC player and assistant coach Nick Dasovic to a 10-day training camp with Canada's U-20 national team in Sunrise, Florida. U-17: Serving as captain, Alderson led Canada's U-17 national team to a runners-up finish at the 2011 CONCACAF U-17 Championship in Montego Bay, Jamaica, and with it, qualification to the 2011 FIFA U-17 World Cup in Mexico. The midfielder appeared in all five matches at Jamaica 2011, with Canada making their first U-17 World Cup since 1995 in Ecuador. At Mexico 2011, Alderson captained Canada U-17's in all three of their Group C matches. This included a 3-0 defeat to U-17 World Cup finalists Uruguay (June 19, 2011), a 2-2 draw with England (June 22, 2011), and a 0-0 draw with Rwanda (June 25, 2011). As a result, Canada missed out on the 'Round of 16' at Mexico 2011 after finishing third in Group C.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Alderson started his soccer career as a four-year-old with Kitchener Soccer Club (KSC) in his hometown of Kitchener, Ontario. As a member of KSC, the midfielder played in Ontario's South-West Regional Soccer Association until the age of 11. The midfielder then played for Kitchener Spirit in the Western Ontario Youth Soccer League, where he remained until his U-16 year. As a member of the Ontario provincial team program, Alderson captained his home province to silver medals at the 2008 Canadian U-14 All-Star Championship and the 2010 Canadian U-16 All-Star Championship.

PERSONAL

Born and raised in Kitchener, Ontario, Alderson attended St. Timothy Catholic Elementary School in Kitchener, Ontario, before moving to Burnaby Central Secondary School in Burnaby, BC, as part of the Whitecaps FC Residency program. His parents are Darline and Mark Alderson, while he has an older sister named Tamara.

INTERESTING FACTS

When not concentrating on his soccer career, Alderson works on his conditioning by swimming. The midfielder also enjoys watching movies, listening to music, playing video games, and spending time with family and friends. He was an admirer of former Manchester United and England midfielder Paul Scholes, while he currently enjoys watching Arsenal and England midfielder Jack Wilshere, as well as FC Barcelona and Spain midfielder Xavi, play.

ETIENNE
BARBARA
STRIKER

HEIGHT / WEIGHT	6-01 / 190 lbs.
DATE OF BIRTH	June 10, 1982
BIRTHPLACE:	Pieta, Malta
HOMETOWN:	Pieta, Malta
CITIZENSHIP:	Malta
FORMER CLUB:	Carolina RailHawks (North American Soccer League)
ACQUIRED:	12.01.17: MLS discovery rights from Montreal
STATUS:	Unsigned international

PROFILE

A Maltese international striker with experience of North American and European club soccer, Etienne Barbara joined Whitecaps FC after the club acquired his Major League Soccer Discovery Rights from Canadian rivals Montreal Impact in exchange for Mexican defender Gienir Garcia, who was selected second overall in the 2012 MLS Supplemental Draft by Whitecaps FC on Jan. 17, 2012. The native of Pietà, Malta, is re-united with Whitecaps FC head coach Martin Rennie after playing two seasons for the Scotsman at Carolina RailHawks.

NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE

2011: Barbara had an outstanding second season with Carolina RailHawks, as he led the North Carolina-based outfit to the North American Soccer League (NASL) regular season title. For his efforts, the striker won the NASL Golden Ball as the league's Most Valuable Player, was selected to the NASL Best XI, and claimed the NASL Golden Boot as the league's top scorer with 20 goals and eight assists in 27 regular season appearances. His 20 goals that season included three two-goal performances in a 3-1 away win over FC Tampa Bay (now Tampa Bay Rowdies) on May 8, a 2-1 away win over Montreal Impact on May 14, and a 3-0 home win over Puerto Rico Islanders on May 21. Barbara also scored a hat-trick in a 4-2 away win over Atlanta Silverbacks on Aug. 28. The striker also started both legs of Carolina's playoff semifinal versus eventual NASL champions NSC Minnesota Stars (now Minnesota Stars FC) on Oct. 8 and 15, with Barbara assisting on Nick Zimmerman's second-half goal during Carolina's dramatic 4-3 extra-time home win in the second leg. Minnesota, however, won the series in a penalty shootout after a 4-4 aggregate draw. Barbara concluded his RailHawks career with eight club records to his name.

UNITED STATES SOCCER FEDERATION DIVISION-2 PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE

2010: After spending a decade playing in his native Malta, Barbara moved to North America when he signed for Rennie's RailHawks on Feb. 25. His first season with Carolina saw the striker set a new club record for points in a season with 18 after he scored eight goals and added two assists in 21 regular season appearances, with the North Carolina outfit claiming the NASL Conference title in the United States Soccer Federation Division-2 Professional League (USSF D-2), as a result. Barbara's debut for the RailHawks could not have gone better, as he scored twice in a 2-0 home win over Athletic Club of St. Louis on Apr. 10. The striker then scored match winners versus Montreal Impact (May 30), Miami FC Blues (now Fort Lauderdale Strikers) (Aug. 18), FC Tampa Bay (now Tampa Bay Rowdies) (Aug. 25), and Austin Aztex (now Orlando City SC) (Oct. 1). He also scored an equalizer from the penalty spot versus Whitecaps FC at Swangard Stadium, as Carolina earned a 1-1 away draw on June 9. Barbara then started all but one of his six playoff appearances during Carolina's postseason run to the USSF D-2 championship series, where the RailHawks fell 3-1 on aggregate to Puerto Rico Islanders. The striker also appeared in Carolina's two matches in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup that season. The RailHawks reached the second round before falling 2-1 at United Soccer Leagues Second Division side Charleston Battery on June 22, with Barbara assisting on Greg Shields' consolation goal in the second half at Blackbaud Stadium in Charleston, South Carolina.

MALTESE PREMIER LEAGUE

Barbara started his professional career in the Maltese Premier League, where he played for five different clubs in 10 seasons. After catching the eye of scouts as a youth trainee at Qormi FC, Barbara signed for Floriana FC in July 1999. His 74 appearances for Floriana saw the striker be also used as a defender during his four seasons with the club, with his eight Floriana goals all being scored during the 2001-02 campaign. His time at Floriana saw the club reach the final of the Air Malta Centenary Cup, where they fell 3-1 to Valletta FC on Dec. 13, 2000. On Jan. 25, 2003, Barbara joined Marsaxlokk FC, where he scored an impressive 21 goals in 43 appearances during his two seasons with the club. In that spell, Marsaxlokk reached the 2003-04 Maltese FA Trophy final, where they fell 2-0 to Sliema Wanderers FC on May 18, 2004. For reaching that final, Marsaxlokk appeared in the first qualifying round of the 2004-05 UEFA Cup (now UEFA Europa League), where Barbara started both legs of a 3-0 aggregate defeat to Slovenia's NK Primorje on July 15 and 29, 2004. Marsaxlokk also claimed a third-place finish in the 2004 Super 5 Tournament with a 2-0 victory over Hibernians FC on Boxing Day (Dec. 26, 2004). In Jan. 2005, the striker moved to Birkirkara FC in 2005, where he scored 31 goals in 59 appearances during a successful two-and-a-half year spell at the club. He claimed his first Maltese FA Trophy winner's medal after Birkirkara's 2-1 victory over Msida Saint-Joseph FC in the 2004-05 final on May 20, 2005. With Birkirkara finishing runners-up in the 2004-05 Maltese Premier League campaign, Barbara appeared again in the first qualifying round of the UEFA Cup - this time for the 2005-06 competition. The striker started both legs of a 6-0 aggregate defeat to Cyprus' APOEL FC on July 14 and 28, 2005. Despite the setback in Europe, Barbara went to win his first Maltese Premier League title with Birkirkara in the 2005-06 season. After being deemed surplus to requirements by Birkirkara in July 2007, Barbara joined Malta's most successful club in Sliema Wanderers FC on a two-year contract. He scored eight goals in 23 appearances for Sliema Wanderers before leaving the club after one season in order to join SC Verl in Germany's Regionalliga West. He spent one season in the German fourth tier before returning home to sign with reigning Maltese Premier League champions Hibernians FC on Aug. 20, 2009. He scored three goals in 19 appearances with the Paola-based outfit before moving to North America and Carolina in Feb. 2010. Following his first season with the RailHawks, Barbara returned to the Maltese Premier League for a short loan spell with Sliema Wanderers. He scored two goals in six appearances with The Blues during the 2010-11 campaign.

GERMAN REGIONALLIGA WEST

2008-09: Barbara spent a season in mainland Europe when he joined Sportclub (SC) Verl on a two-year contract in Germany's fourth-tier Regionalliga West. The striker made his debut for the North Rhine-Westphalia outfit as a second-half substitute versus Bayer Leverkusen II on Aug. 16, 2008. He made 18 appearances in his lone season with the club, as SC Verl finished eighth in the Regionalliga West standings that year.

ENGLISH LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

2009-10: After spending a season in Germany with SC Verl, Barbara was given a pre-season trial with Sheffield Wednesday FC. Despite appearing in a pre-season tournament for The Owls, the South Yorkshire outfit did not offer the striker a contract.

INTERNATIONAL

Barbara has represented his native Malta at youth and senior international levels. Senior: Barbara earned his first senior call-up to Il-Kavallieri (The Knights) in 2002 before making his senior international debut in Malta's final qualifying match for the 2004 UEFA European Championship (EURO 2004) in Portugal, as the Mediterranean island nation earned a 2-2 away draw with Israel in Group One on Sept. 10, 2003. He then scored twice for his country in a 5-2 home win over Estonia in the Malta International Tournament on Feb. 16, 2004. The striker then made three substitute appearances for Malta in European zone qualifying Group Eight for the 2006 FIFA World Cup in Germany before make a further four substitute appearances in qualifying Group C for the 2008 UEFA European Championship (EURO 2008) in Austria and Switzerland. Barbara then started two of his six appearances for Malta in European zone qualifying Group One for the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa. The striker has made a total of 30 appearances for his country to this stage. U-21: The striker made nine total appearances for Malta in qualifying for the UEFA European U-21 Championship. U-18: Barbara made five appearances for Malta in qualifying for the UEFA European U-18 Championship. U-16: The striker made his competitive international debut for the Mediterranean island nation in qualifying for the 1999 UEFA European U-16 Championship, as Malta fell 3-1 at home to Scotland on Mar. 2, 1999.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

The striker began his youth career with Maltese Premier League side Qormi FC before moving into the professional ranks with Floriana FC after impressing scouts with his displays.

PERSONAL

Barbara was born and raised in the small coastal town of Pietà, which is located on the outskirts of the Maltese capital of Valletta. The striker's wife, Wendy, hails from the United States.

INTERESTING FACTS

During the 2009-10 Maltese Premier League season, Whitecaps FC teammate Camilo Sanvezzo played for Qormi when Barbara was at Hibernians FC.

PROFILE

A centre back that has represented his native New Zealand at both youth and senior international level, Michael Boxall joined Whitecaps FC after being taken as the first overall pick in the 2011 MLS Supplemental Draft on Jan. 18, 2011. The native of Auckland, New Zealand, enjoyed a stellar NCAA Division I career at University of California, Santa Barbara (UCSB).

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Boxall started all but one of his 19 appearances during his rookie season for Whitecaps FC, with his MLS debut coming in the club's inaugural MLS match on Mar. 19, as Vancouver defeated Canadian rivals Toronto FC 4-2 at Empire Field. His appearances included both league contests versus D.C. United, FC Dallas, Sporting Kansas City, and Toronto FC that season. The centre back also started in two Nutrilite Canadian Championship (NCC) matches for the 'Caps that year. This included the 1-0 semifinal, first leg, win at North American Soccer League side Montreal Impact on Apr. 27, as well as the 2-1 defeat at MLS rivals Toronto FC in the second leg of the NCC final on July 2.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: The centre back made two appearances for Whitecaps FC reserves, with his MLS Reserve League debut coming as a start in a 1-0 home win over San Jose Earthquakes reserves on Sept. 6. He then made a substitute appearance in a 1-0 home defeat to Portland Timbers reserves on Oct. 3.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES PREMIER DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE

2011: The centre back made one lone appearance for Whitecaps FC Residency that season, making his PDL debut on May 21, as the Residency team drew 2-2 at British Columbia rivals Victoria Highlanders FC.

NEW ZEALAND

As a teenager, Boxall played for several clubs in his hometown of Auckland, New Zealand. They included Ellerslie AFC and Three Kings United FC, who play in the Northern Region Football League (NRFL). As a member of Central United FC, the defender was named the club's Young Player of the Year in 2006 before leading the Auckland-based club to the NRFL Premier League title in 2007. It was also in the 2006-07 season that Boxall helped Auckland City FC to the New Zealand Football Championship title, with the centre back being named the club's Young Player of the Year at season's end.

COLLEGE

2010: As a senior, Boxall started all 21 of his appearances that season. He earned National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) and College Soccer News Third Team All-American honours, and was named Big West Conference Defender of the Year. He also made the All-Big West Conference First Team for a second time and the All-Far West Region First Team after helping UCSB post 10 shutouts and a goals-against average of 0.77. He assisted on David Opoku's goal in a 2-0 home win over University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) on Sept. 24. 2009: As a junior, the centre back was named to the All-Big West Conference First Team after being one of only four players to start all 24 matches for the Gauchos, with Boxall setting a UCSB record for minutes played in a season at 2,185. He also helped the team set UCSB records for consecutive shutouts (six) and single season shutouts (16). He was also named to both the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Week and College Soccer News National Team of the Week after leading UCSB to a pair of clean sheets versus Big West Conference rivals California State University, Northridge on Oct. 28 and University of California, Irvine on Oct. 31. Boxall's lone UCSB goal was a match-winning header in a 1-0 victory over California State University, Northridge in the Big West Conference Championship semifinals on Nov. 11. He also recorded two assists that season, including David Walker's match winner in a 1-0 victory over Wofford College during the first round of the NCAA Championship on Nov. 19. 2008: Boxall appeared in all but one of his 21 appearances for UCSB, with the defender recording two assists in the process. His first assist set up Chris Pontius' equalizer in a 4-2 home win over University of Evansville on Sept. 18. He also recorded an assist on Nick Perera's equalizing goal during a 2-1 victory at University of California, Irvine on Oct. 4. His efforts that season earned him an All-Big West Conference Honourable Mention. 2007: Following in the tradition of previous New Zealanders to have played NCAA Division I men's soccer at UCSB, Boxall saw his freshman year cut short by a knee injury after the centre back started all but two of his 12 appearances for the Gauchos. During those 12 appearances, the defender helped UCSB concede only eight goals and register a 0.80 goals-against average.

INTERNATIONAL

Boxall has represented his native New Zealand at both the youth and senior international level. Senior: The defender made two appearances for New Zealand 'A' at the 2006 Agribank Cup tournament in Hanoi, Vietnam. Boxall appeared as a substitute in the 1-0 defeat to Thailand on Oct. 27, 2006, and the 1-0 victory over Bahrain's U-23 Olympic squad on Oct. 29, 2006. New Zealand 'A' finished third in the tournament. The centre back then earned his first full senior cap for New Zealand when he appeared as a second-half substitute in a 1-1 friendly draw away to China on Mar. 25, 2011. Boxall then started New Zealand's 3-0 friendly defeat to Mexico in Denver, Colorado, on June 1, 2011, and the All Whites' 3-0 away defeat to arch-rivals Australia on June 5, 2011. U-23: In 2008, the defender helped the Oly-Whites qualify for their first-ever Men's Olympic Football Tournament in Beijing, China. His 12 appearances for New Zealand's U-23 Olympic squad included all three of his country's matches in Group C at the Beijing Olympics. After appearing as a substitute in the 1-1 draw with hosts China on Aug. 7, 2008, Boxall started New Zealand's 5-0 defeat to Brazil on Aug. 10, 2008, and 1-0 defeat to Belgium on Aug. 13, 2008. U-20: As a member of the Junior All-Whites, the centre back made 14 appearances for New Zealand's U-20 squad, including starts in all three of his country's Group C matches at the 2007 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Canada. They included defeats to Portugal (July 2, 2007) and Gambia (July 5, 2007) at BMO Field in Toronto, Ontario, and to Mexico (July 8, 2007) at Commonwealth Stadium in Edmonton, Alberta.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

Boxall played centre back and right fullback at Mount Albert Grammar School (MAGS) in his hometown of Auckland, New Zealand. As Lions team captain during his senior year in 2006, the defender led MAGS to a second Knockout Cup title in three years, the Auckland Secondary School Soccer Association Championship title, and a second-place finish at the New Zealand Secondary School Soccer Championship. During his time at MAGS, Boxall helped the Lions to league titles in 2004 and 2005, as well as a national championship title in 2005.

PERSONAL

Boxall was born and raised in Auckland, New Zealand. As a senior at Mount Albert Grammar School, Boxall won the Head Perfect Award for academics. As a student at University of California, Santa Barbara, the defender has been majoring in Business Economics. His parents are Aggie and Murray Boxall. He has an older sister named Casey and a younger brother named Nikko.

INTERESTING FACTS

Boxall's brother, Nikko, will be playing for Northwestern University in NCAA Division I, starting in the autumn of 2011. When not concentrating on his soccer career, the centre back is usually eating, sleeping, listening to music, or hanging out with friends. He is a fan of English Premier League giants Arsenal FC and NBA basketball's Phoenix Suns. Boxall is an admirer of boxing legend Muhammad Ali, as well as former Arsenal and England centre back Tony Adams. His favourite movie is 'Any Given Sunday', while he enjoys the written works of American author Dan Brown.

PROFILE

A goalkeeper with over a decade's worth of experience in Major League Soccer, Joe Cannon joined Whitecaps FC after being selected in the eighth round (16th overall) of the 2010 MLS Expansion Draft. A two-time MLS Goalkeeper of the Year, the former San Jose Earthquakes shot-stopper played for the previous edition of the Earthquakes (now Houston Dynamo), Colorado Rapids, and Los Angeles Galaxy. This included an MLS Cup title with San Jose in 2001.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Cannon started all 20 of his appearances during Whitecaps FC's inaugural MLS season. The goalkeeper made his Whitecaps FC competitive debut in the club's first away match in MLS, as Vancouver fell 1-0 at Philadelphia Union on Mar. 26. In earning a clean sheet during a 1-0 home win over Houston Dynamo on Aug. 27, Cannon earned a spot in the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week for Week 24. Cannon then won the MLS Save of the Week award for Week 26 after making a fine stop in the second half of Whitecaps FC's 1-1 draw at New York Red Bulls on Sept. 10. Cannon made his 300th career appearance in MLS when he started Whitecaps FC's 3-0 defeat at LA Galaxy on Sept. 17 before making his 300th career start in the league during the 3-1 home defeat to Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC on Sept. 24. Cannon then earned his first Whitecaps FC assist, and the fourth of his MLS career, on Nizar Khalfan's first goal in the league during the 3-0 home win over Real Salt Lake on Oct. 6. He also started Whitecaps FC's 2-1 defeat at MLS rivals Toronto FC in the second leg of the Nutrilite Canadian Championship final on July 2. On Dec. 5, Cannon signed a new MLS contract with Whitecaps FC. 2010: Cannon's third season with the Earthquakes saw him record an impressive six shutouts in 12 appearances. However, injury cut short his campaign in San Jose, as he suffered a broken left ankle in training on Aug. 17. He was unable to appear for the Earthquakes' first appearance in the MLS Cup Playoffs since their return to the league back in 2008, with San Jose reaching the Eastern Conference Championship before losing 1-0 at Cannon's former club and eventual MLS Cup champions Colorado Rapids on Nov. 13. On Nov. 24, Whitecaps FC acquired the goalkeeper during the 2010 MLS Expansion Draft. 2009: The 'keeper recorded three shutouts in 28 appearances with San Jose that season. In earning his third clean sheet of the season with the Earthquakes, Cannon passed

Richard Mulrooney as the club's all-time leader in career starts (156) and minutes (14,211) following a 1-0 home win over New York Red Bulls on Oct. 3, 2008. Cannon returned home to the Bay Area when the re-born San Jose Earthquakes acquired the keeper from Los Angeles Galaxy in exchange for allocation money on Jan. 10. He led MLS in saves with 124 and had nine shutouts in 30 regular season appearances. He was also one of only six players to appear in every minute of regular season action for his club (2,700). His service to the Bay Area community was awarded again with a second US Soccer Foundation Humanitarian of the Year award. 2007: In his lone season with Los Angeles Galaxy, Cannon registered five clean sheets in 29 appearances for the Southern California outfit. In what was David Beckham's first season with the Galaxy, the shot-stopper made his LA debut in a goalless draw at Houston Dynamo on Apr. 8. He then made his 200th career appearance and earned his 55th career shutout in a 0-0 draw at expansion club Toronto FC on Aug. 5. Cannon finished his ninth season in MLS by sitting fourth all-time in league history in saves (902) and shutouts (56), while he sat fifth all-time among MLS keepers for wins (84) and save percentage (73.6). Cannon also started all five of the Galaxy's games in their march to the North American SuperLiga final that season. This included a clean sheet in the 2-0 semifinal win over D.C. United on Aug. 15. He then played the first half of the 0-0 draw between the Galaxy and then United Soccer Leagues First Division (USL-1) side Whitecaps FC at BC Place in Vancouver, BC, on Nov. 7, 2006. With seven shutouts in 28 appearances, Cannon enjoyed a productive fourth and final season with Colorado, as he helped the Rapids back to the Western Conference Championship before they fell to eventual MLS Cup champions Houston Dynamo on Nov. 5. He was a finalist for the MLS Goalkeeper of the Year award and earned a third selection to the MLS All-Star Game, where he played the second half for the MLS All-Stars in a 1-0 victory over English Premier League giants Chelsea FC in Bridgeview, Illinois, on Aug. 5. Cannon was MLS Player of the Week in Week 25. On Dec. 1, the Rapids traded Cannon and the 23rd overall pick in the 2007 MLS SuperDraft to Los Angeles Galaxy for striker Herculez Gomez, defender Ugo Ihemelu, and the 18th overall pick in the 2007 SuperDraft. 2005: The goalkeeper was Colorado's Most Valuable Player for a second straight year after registering eight clean sheets in 27 appearances for the Rapids. He was an additional selection for the MLS All-Star Game between the MLS All-Stars and English Premier League side Fulham FC in Columbus, Ohio, on July 30. Cannon also started Colorado's 4-1 defeat at former USL-1 side Minnesota Thunder in the fourth round of the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup on Aug. 3. He also appeared the Rapids' three MLS Cup Playoff matches, as Colorado reached the Western Conference Championship before falling to eventual MLS Cup champions Los Angeles Galaxy on Nov. 5. 2004: Named MLS Goalkeeper of the Year for the second time in his career, Cannon was also a finalist for the league's Most Valuable Player award after posting a career-high and team record 10 clean sheets in 30 regular season appearances. His efforts earned him a spot on the MLS Best XI, while the Rapids named him their Most Valuable Player and Defender of the Year. He also started both legs of their Western Conference Semifinals defeat to Los Angeles Galaxy on Oct. 22 and 30, while he made a late substitute appearance in Colorado's 3-0 defeat at MLS rivals Dallas Burn (now FC Dallas) in the fourth round of the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup on July 20. 2003: After spending half a season in France's Ligue 1 with Racing Club de Lens, Cannon returned to MLS in August when he joined Colorado Rapids, who had acquired the goalkeeper's league rights in a trade with San Jose for three draft picks. He made one substitute appearance in the regular season for Colorado before starting both legs of their Western Conference Semifinals defeat to Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting Kansas City) on Nov. 4 and 8. 2002: After training with French Ligue 1 outfit FC Metz in January, Cannon was named MLS Goalkeeper of the Year after setting a club record for shutouts in a single season with eight in 26 appearances. He also earned his second selection to the MLS All-Star Game, as he played the second half for MLS All-Stars in a 3-2 win over the United States national team in Washington, DC, on Aug. 3. Cannon also started both matches of San Jose's Playoff Quarterfinal series defeat to Columbus Crew on Sept. 25 and 28. Cannon also made three starts for the Earthquakes in the CONCACAF Champions' Cup (now CONCACAF Champions League). They included both legs of their Round of 16 clash versus Honduras' Club Deportivo Olimpia on Mar. 13 and 16, as well as the quarterfinal, first leg, defeat away to Mexico's Pachuca Club de Fútbol on Apr. 17. 2001: His third season with the Earthquakes was a highly successful one for Cannon, as he led San Jose to their first-ever MLS Cup title. He was a finalist for the MLS Goalkeeper of the Year award after setting a club-record goals-against average of 1.09 in 25 regular season appearances. He also tied the San Jose record for clean sheets with seven that year. Cannon also earned his first selection to the MLS All-Star Game, playing the first half for the West All-Stars at Spartan Stadium in San Jose, California, on July 28. In the MLS Cup Playoffs, Cannon posted a 5W-1L-0D record and a goals-against average of 0.49 in leading the Earthquakes to their first league championship title. 2000: With the club re-named as the Earthquakes, Cannon continued his progress towards becoming one of elite shot-stoppers in the league, with the keeper named the club's Defensive Player of the Year. He had the fourth-best goals-against average in MLS (1.49) after 26 appearances for San Jose that season. He set new single-season records for saves (137) and catches/punches (106) with the club, as well as Earthquakes records for shutouts (seven) and starts by a goalkeeper (26). His efforts also earned him MLS Player of the Week honours in Weeks Three and 17. Cannon also made one start for San Jose during their run to the quarterfinals of the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup. He also earned the club's US Soccer Foundation Humanitarian of the Year award for his service to the community that year. 1999: Following a fine 1998 season with former A-League club San Diego Flash, Cannon arrived in MLS when he joined hometown club San Jose Clash. After starting the season as the club's back-up goalkeeper, Cannon assumed the starting position in June following a shoulder injury to number one David Kramer. He recorded four clean sheets and a goals-against average of 1.33 in 24 appearances for the Clash that season.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Cannon started Vancouver's debut match in the MLS Reserve League, as Whitecaps FC reserves fell 2-1 at San Jose Earthquakes reserves on Mar. 22. He then started the 1-1 home draw versus Chivas USA reserves on Apr. 17 and the 2-1 home win over Seattle Sounders FC reserves on Aug. 9.

FRENCH LIGUE 1

2002-03: After a fine 2002 MLS season with San Jose Earthquakes, Cannon headed to Europe and joined Racing Club de Lens in France's Ligue 1 on a six-month contract. Though he appeared as a substitute for the Northern French club, he was unable to make a first-team appearance, with Cannon leaving at the end of the season.

A-LEAGUE

1998: In his first season as a professional, Cannon made the All A-League Second Team after registering 12 clean sheets and a goals-against average of 0.80 as a member of former A-League club San Diego Flash. Compiling 21 wins and seven defeats, the keeper was named the club's Most Valuable Player that season after leading the Southern California outfit to top spot in the A-League's Western Conference, Pacific Division standings. San Diego eliminated Whitecaps FC (known then as Vancouver 86ers) in the playoff quarterfinals before the Flash fell to Minnesota Thunder in the Western Conference Final.

COLLEGE

Cannon spend the 1994 year at the University of California, Santa Barbara before transferring to Santa Clara University for his sophomore year in 1995 and kicking off his NCAA Division I career. The keeper was a three-time All-West Coast Conference (WCC) and two-time All-Far West Region selection, while he earned All-America honours for the Broncos that year. He finished his college career with a 0.94 goals-against average and 15 shutouts. Cannon led Santa Clara to three-straight NCAA championship tournament appearances, notching 17 saves in postseason play. During his All-America season of 1995, Cannon also earned the WCC Defensive Most Valuable Player award. He earned All-WCC First Team honours in all three of his collegiate seasons at Santa Clara (1995, 1996, and 1997). He was also a WCC All-Academic honouree as a junior and senior.

INTERNATIONAL

Senior: Cannon has made two appearances at the senior international level for the United States. His USA debut came in a 2-1 friendly win over New Zealand in Richmond, Virginia, on June 8, 2003, with the keeper replacing Marcus Hahnemann in the second half and earning a clean sheet. His second and last appearance for his country came on Mar. 19, 2005, when he started the 1-0 friendly win over Honduras in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

Cannon started his soccer career with Mountain View Los Altos Soccer Club in Bay Area of Northern California. In 1993, he helped Mountain View Los Altos Shooting Stars to a US Youth Soccer National Championship title. The keeper then became a standout for the boys soccer team at St. Francis High School in Mountain View, California.

PERSONAL

Born in Sun Valley, Idaho, Cannon grew up in Bay Area community of Los Altos Hills, California, near the city of San Jose. His parents are Barbara and Joe Cannon, while the 'keeper has four brothers including his twin Jon. As a student at Santa Clara University, Cannon majored in political science.

INTERESTING FACTS

Fluent in English and Spanish, Cannon enjoys playing golf and beach volleyball when not concentrating on his soccer career. His commitment to the community has seen him work with autistic children at the Independent Peer Socialization Training Program (IPSTP) in Santa Clara, California. In Dec. 1999, 2000, and 2001, the keeper also took part in the Oakland Ballet's 'Celebrity Nutcracker', while he was co-Grand Marshall at the San Jose Holiday Parade on Dec. 2, 2001. A member of a sporting family, his twin brother Jon played minor league baseball in the San Francisco Giants organization, while his younger brother Colt has been on the professional skateboarding circuit. Younger brother Cody, meanwhile, played on the United States junior national water polo team. As a youngster, Cannon and his twin brother Jon were competitive ski racers. The keeper was also founder of Cannon Soccer Training and Camps in the Bay Area. Cannon supports the Garth Brooks Teammates for Kids Foundation and in January 2012 he performed Friends in Low Places on-stage with Brooks during the annual gala.

PROFILE

A skillful playmaker, who can play on either flank or as an attacking midfielder, Davide Chiumiento joined Whitecaps FC on Aug. 17, 2010, after spending three seasons in his native Switzerland with FC Luzern. Known for his skill, and playmaking abilities, Chiumiento has also played in the top-flight leagues of Italy and France.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Chiumiento's first season in MLS saw the Swiss playmaker lead Whitecaps FC, and be tied for fifth in the league, with nine assists after starting all but six of his 26 MLS appearances that year. Playing the first half as a right-sided midfielder, Chiumiento made a sensational MLS debut in Vancouver's 4-2 home win over Canadian rivals Toronto FC on Mar. 19. The playmaker assisted on the club's first-ever MLS goal by Eric Hassli and Terry Dunfield's first goal in the league at Empire Field. As a substitute, the Swiss international assisted on Camilo's first goal in MLS during a dramatic 3-3 home draw with Sporting Kansas City on Apr. 2. Chiumiento then set up Camilo's goal in a 3-1 defeat at Houston Dynamo on Apr. 10 before assisting on Alain Rochat's first-ever goal for the 'Caps during a 2-1 home defeat to FC Dallas on Apr. 23. He then scored his first goal for Whitecaps FC during a 1-1 home draw with San Jose Earthquakes on May 11. Chiumiento then assisted on Hassli's goal during a 1-1 home draw with Toronto FC in the first leg of the Nutrilite Canadian Championship final on May 18. He also assisted on Rochat's second goal of the season, as Whitecaps FC ended a 14-match winless streak with a 1-0 victory at home to Philadelphia Union on June 18. The following weekend, Chiumiento's cleverly-taken free kick set up Camilo's goal in a 2-1 defeat at Sporting Kansas City on June 25. He then assisted on Hassli's second goal during a 2-2 away draw with San Jose Earthquakes on July 20. Chiumiento's second goal of the season during a 1-1 draw at New York Red Bulls on Sept. 10 earned him the MLS Goal of the Week award for Week 26. He then assisted on Camilo's goal during the 3-1 home defeat to Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC on Sept. 24.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Chiumiento recorded an assist as Whitecaps FC reserves claimed a 2-1 home win over Seattle Sounders FC reserves on Aug. 9. The result at Swangard Stadium was Vancouver's first-ever win in the MLS Reserve League. He also started Vancouver's season finale, as Whitecaps FC reserves fell 1-0 at Chivas USA reserves on Oct. 18.

UNITED STATES SOCCER FEDERATION DIVISION-2 PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE

2010: Chiumiento made his Whitecaps FC debut as a second-half substitute, as he replaced Philippe Davies on the right-hand side of midfield during the 1-0 home defeat to Canadian arch-rivals Montreal Impact on Sept. 24. The playmaker then made his first Whitecaps FC start in the club's regular season finale, as they drew 2-2 at home to Portland Timbers on Oct. 2.

SWISS SUPER LEAGUE

2009-10: The midfielder had his best season as a professional after scoring 11 goals in 24 appearances, as he helped FC Luzern to a fourth-place finish in the Swiss Super League standings and qualification for the 2010-11 UEFA Europa League. This included three two-goal performances versus FC Aarau (Dec. 6, 2009 & May 2, 2010) and AC Bellinzona (Feb. 21, 2010). He also made three appearances during the club's run to the quarterfinals of the Schweizer Cup that season. 2008-09: The midfielder scored four goals in 30 league appearances during his second season with FC Luzern, while he also made two appearances during the club's run to the semifinals of the Schweizer Cup (Swiss Cup). However, the Lucerne club's ninth-place finish meant they had to face runners-up FC Lugano from Switzerland's second-tier Challenge League in a two-leg promotion/relegation playoff. On June 13, 2009, the playmaker scored a penalty in a 5-0 second-leg win at home, as FC Luzern retained their Swiss Super League status following a 5-1 aggregate result. 2007-08: After impressing in the Swiss Super League with BSC Young Boys, Chiumiento joined FC Luzern from Juventus, with the playmaker signing a three-year contract. He appeared in all but one of the Lucerne-based club's league matches that season, with his debut coming in a 1-1 home draw versus Neuchâtel Xamax on July 21, 2007. He then scored FC Luzern's second goal in a 2-2 home draw versus former club BSC Young Boys on July 29, 2007, before striking from the penalty spot in a 1-1 home draw versus FC Sion on Mar. 8, 2008. 2006-07: Chiumiento spent a third season on loan from Juventus, as he returned to his native Switzerland to join Berner Sport Club (BSC) Young Boys. The midfielder's debut came in a 2-1 defeat at former club FC St. Gallen on Sept. 24, 2006. Chiumiento's lone goal for BSC Young Boys came in the reverse league match versus FC St. Gallen, as he scored the match winner in a 3-0 home win on Dec. 9, 2006.

FRENCH LIGUE 1

2005-06: After a season on loan with AC Siena, Chiumiento went out on another season-long loan from parent club Juventus, as he joined Le Mans Football Club in France's top-flight Ligue 1. The playmaker made his debut as a second-half substitute during a 3-0 away defeat to AS Saint-Étienne on Oct. 1, 2005. He started half of his 18 appearances for the club from northwest France, with the midfielder scoring the first goal in Le Mans' 3-0 home win over Olympique de Marseille on Nov. 5, 2005.

ITALIAN SERIE A

2004-05: In a bid to get more Serie A experience, Chiumiento joined AC Siena on a season-long loan, with the midfielder making his debut as a second-half substitute during a 1-0 away defeat to US Palermo on Sept. 12, 2004. He started six of his 14 appearances for the Tuscan-based club, with his only goal coming on Feb. 13, 2005, when he struck a late equalizer in a 2-2 home draw with ACR Messina. 2003-04: After spending three years in the youth set-up of Italian giants Juventus, a 19-year-old Chiumiento made his Serie A debut for the Turin-based club as when he came on as a second-half substitute for childhood hero Alessandro Del Piero during a 3-0 home win over AC Ancona on Feb. 29, 2004. The playmaker also appeared as a second-half substitute for Juventus in the UEFA Champions League on Mar. 9, 2004. He replaced Italian international Mauro Camoranesi during a 1-0 second-leg defeat at home to Deportivo La Coruna, with the Spanish club reaching the quarterfinals after a 2-0 aggregate win.

INTERNATIONAL

Senior: Chiumiento made his senior debut for Switzerland in a 3-1 home defeat to Uruguay on Mar. 3, 2010. The midfielder was a second-half substitute during the friendly match in St. Gallen. U-21: Chiumiento scored two goals in 13 appearances with Switzerland's U-21 squad. Along with Whitecaps FC teammate Alain Rochat, the playmaker appeared for his country at the 2004 UEFA European U-21 Championship in Germany. Switzerland finished bottom of Group B behind Sweden, Portugal, and hosts Germany.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Chiumiento started his playing career with hometown club FC Heiden in Switzerland before moving to FC St. Gallen in 1995, where he eventually played for the club's U-18 side. In 2000, the playmaker joined the youth set-up at Italian giants Juventus, with Chiumiento appearing in the Turin club's 'Primavera' squad with other young Juventus prospects.

PERSONAL

Born and raised in the northeastern Swiss town of Heiden, Chiumiento is a dual citizen of both Italy and Switzerland through parentage. His parents are Manuela and Gerardo Chiumiento, while he has an older brother named Claudio. As a student, the playmaker attended Heiden primary school in his hometown before attending Scuola privata Athenaeum in Turin, Italy.

INTERESTING FACTS

The playmaker has been a long-time admirer of Juventus legend and former Italian international striker Alessandro Del Piero, and Argentine great Diego Maradona. He enjoyed watching Napoli when Maradona was a player at the Italian Serie A club in the 1980's, while he currently enjoys watching Spanish and European giants Barcelona and the Spanish national team. When not concentrating on his soccer career, Chiumiento enjoys spending time with family and friends, listening to Brazilian and Latin music, and surfing the Internet.

PROFILE

A defensive-minded midfielder with nearly a decade's worth of experience in the Japanese J.League, Jun Marques Davidson joined Whitecaps FC on Jan. 19, 2012, after spending a season with J.League Division Two club Tokushima Vortis. A dual American/Japanese citizen, Davidson comes to Major League Soccer with experience of North American professional soccer following a spell with Carolina RailHawks in 2010.

JAPANESE J.LEAGUE

Davidson made over 130 appearances during eight seasons in both divisions of the J.League. 2011: Davidson enjoyed a productive second spell in J.League Division Two (J2) with Tokushima Vortis. The midfielder started 18 of his 24 appearances for the club that season, as Vortis just missed out on promotion to J.League Division One (J1) after finishing fourth in the J2 standings - three points behind third-place Consadole Sapporo. He registered an assist on Vortis' third goal by Tomohiro Tsuda during a 3-1 home win over Kataller Toyama on July 30. He also started for Vortis in their second-round defeat in the Emperor's Cup, as they fell 1-0 at Oita Trinita on Oct. 10. 2009: As a member of J1 club Albirex Niigata, Davidson made eight league appearances during his third and final season with the club, as Albirex finished eighth in the J1 standings. The midfielder also made two appearances for Niigata in Group A of the J.League Cup, with Albirex suffering group defeats to J1 rivals Urawa Red Diamonds (May 30) and Yokohama F. Marinos (June 3). Davidson then moved to North America to join Carolina RailHawks for the 2010 season. 2008: As an Albirex Niigata player, Davidson spent a second season on loan with another J1 club when he joined Consadole Sapporo. The midfielder started 11 of his 17 appearances for the club from the northern Japanese island of Hokkaido. It proved to be a challenging season for Consadole, as the Sapporo-based outfit finished bottom of the J1 standings and were relegated to J2 for the 2009 campaign. The midfielder also made two appearances for Consadole in Group C of the J.League Cup versus J1 rivals JEF United Ichihara Chiba (Apr. 16) and Kashiwa Reysol (June 8). He also appeared in the club's Emperor's Cup fourth-round clash at J1 rivals Yokohama F. Marinos, as they fell 1-0 on Nov. 2. 2007: After moving to Albirex Niigata from Omiya Ardija, Davidson was unable to make an appearance for his new club and subsequently went on loan to fellow J1 club Vissel Kobe. He made 10 appearances for Vissel, as they finished 10th in the J1 standings that season. He also made one appearance for Kobe during the club's Emperor's Cup run to the 'Round of 16'. 2006: Playing his fourth and final season with Omiya Ardija, Davidson started 13 of his 20 appearances for the Saitama-based club, as they finished 12th in the J1 standings. 2005: Davidson enjoyed his most productive season with The Squirrels, starting all but four of Omiya's league matches, as they finished 13th in their first-ever season in J1. The midfielder also made four appearances in Omiya's run to the Emperor's Cup semifinals, where The Squirrels fell to eventual winners in Saitama arch-rivals Urawa Red Diamonds on Dec. 29. He also appeared in all eight matches of Omiya's run to the J.League Cup quarterfinals, where they eventually fell to Yokohama F. Marinos. 2004: The midfielder helped Omiya earn promotion to J1 for the first time in club history after The Squirrels finished runners-up to champions Kawasaki Frontale in the J2 standings. Davidson made 17 starts during the Saitama club's promotion campaign, scoring his first J.League goal during a 2-0 home win over Avispa Fukuoka on Sept. 23. He also scored in his lone appearance during Omiya's run to the 'Round of 16' in the Emperor's Cup before The Squirrels fell 6-3 to FC Tokyo on Dec. 12. 2003: After initially joining Omiya in 2002, Davidson broke into the Saitama club's first team the following season, making a total of seven starts. His J.League debut came as a 20-year-old during Omiya's 1-1 home draw versus Sanfrecce Hiroshima on June 14. The Squirrels finished sixth in the J2 standings.

UNITED STATES SOCCER FEDERATION DIVISION-2 PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE

2010: After seven seasons in the Japanese J.League, Davidson returned to the United States when he joined current Whitecaps FC head coach Martin Rennie and Carolina RailHawks in the United States Soccer Federation Division-2 Professional League (USSF D-2) on Feb. 26. During his lone season with the North American second division club, the midfielder started 12 of his 19 regular season appearances for the North Carolina-based outfit, as the RailHawks captured the NASL Conference title in USSF D-2. His only goal for Carolina came during a 4-2 away win over Crystal Palace Baltimore on Sept. 18. Davidson also started three of his four playoff appearances, as Carolina reached the USSF D-2 championship series before falling 3-1 on aggregate to Puerto Rico Islanders.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

Davidson started playing soccer in his native Japan with the youth set-up of Tokyo Gas Football Club (now J.League outfit FC Tokyo) before moving with his family to Pasadena, California, where he attended the American Global Soccer School. His development as a player in Southern California led to his return to Japan and J.League club Omiya Ardija.

PERSONAL

Born in Tokyo, Japan, to American-born parents, Davidson spent considerable time as a youngster in the United States after he moved with his family to Pasadena, California. As a result, the midfielder holds dual American and Japanese citizenship.

PROFILE

A United States international that played in every match of his country's campaign at the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa, Jay DeMerit became Whitecaps FC's first Major League Soccer signing on Nov. 18, 2010. The native of Green Bay, Wisconsin, joined Vancouver after six seasons with England's Watford FC, where he served as club captain. DeMerit became Whitecaps FC's inaugural MLS captain and the 20th men's team captain since the club's first season in 1974 on Mar. 2.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: DeMerit started as centre back on his and Vancouver's MLS debut on Mar. 19, as Whitecaps FC defeated Canadian rivals Toronto FC 4-2 at Empire Field. The centre back also appeared in both legs of the Nutrilite Canadian Championship final versus Toronto FC on May 18 and July 2, with Whitecaps FC falling 3-2 on aggregate. Despite battling with injuries during the early part of the year, DeMerit appeared in nearly two-thirds of Whitecaps FC's regular-season matches during their inaugural MLS season, starting all but one of his 21 appearances for the Blue and White..

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Returning from injury, DeMerit played the first half in Whitecaps FC reserves 2-1 home win over Seattle Sounders FC reserves on Aug. 9 at Swangard Stadium.

ENGLAND

2009-10: The centre back made 27 league appearances in his sixth and final season with Watford, with the Hertfordshire club finishing 16th in the League Championship standings. He also appeared in Watford's 5-0 defeat at Chelsea FC in the third round of the English FA Cup on Jan. 3, 2010. DeMerit's time in English soccer ended after his Watford contract expired at the end of the season. 2008-09: DeMerit made 32 league appearances in his fifth season with Watford, as The Hornets finished 13th in the League Championship standings. He was part of the club's run to the English League Cup quarterfinals, while his only goal that season coming in the fourth round of the English FA Cup, as Watford defeated Crystal Palace FC 4-3 on Jan. 24, 2009. 2007-08: The centre back helped Watford back to the League Championship playoffs after a sixth-place finish in the standings. Though DeMerit served the second half of the season as club captain, Watford's hopes of an English Premier League return were ended in the playoff semifinals when they lost 6-1 on aggregate to Hull City FC. His only goal that season came on Boxing Day (Dec. 26, 2007) in a 2-2 home draw versus Cardiff City FC. 2006-07: Playing in the top flight of English soccer, DeMerit and Watford endured a difficult season, as The Hornets finished bottom of the English Premier League standings and were subsequently relegated back to the League Championship. The defender, however, helped Watford reach the semifinals of the English FA Cup before losing to Manchester United FC. He had two goals in the Premier League that season versus Portsmouth FC (Nov. 18, 2006) and Blackburn Rovers FC (Jan. 23, 2007). 2005-06: Under the stewardship of manager Adrian Boothroyd, who replaced Lewington in Mar. 2005, DeMerit helped Watford earn promotion to the English Premier League as winners of the League Championship playoffs after a third-place finish in the standings. His three goals that season included the match-winner in the promotion playoff final at the Millennium Stadium in Cardiff, Wales, on May 21, 2006. The Hornets defeated Leeds United FC 3-0, with DeMerit earning the 'Man of the Match' award. 2004-05: The centre back made the move to English league soccer when he signed a one-year contract with second-tier League Championship side Watford FC following a two-week trial. DeMerit's move to The Hornets came after he impressed then Watford manager, and former Vancouver Whitecaps FC midfielder, Ray Lewington during a preseason friendly in July 2004. The defender played against Watford as a trialist with semi-professional outfit Northwood FC of the seventh-tier Isthmian League Premier Division. DeMerit made his Watford debut in the first round of the English League Cup, as The Hornets defeated Cambridge United 1-0 at home on Aug. 24, 2004. The centre back made over 30 appearances in league and cup play during his first season with Watford, helping the Hertfordshire club to the English League Cup semifinals, where they eventually fell to Liverpool FC. He scored three goals in the League Championship that season. Those goals came against Crewe Alexandra FC (Jan. 15, 2005), Ipswich Town FC (Feb. 22, 2005), and Leicester City FC (Mar. 15, 2005). 2003-04: DeMerit's start in English soccer came in the ninth tier with Southall FC of the Combined Counties Football League. Southall are based in the London borough of Ealing.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES PREMIER DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE

2001: The defender appeared in Chicago Fire Premier's inaugural season in the PDL. Known then as Chicago Fire Reserves, DeMerit led the Illinois-based outfit to a first-place finish in the Great Lakes Division of the PDL's Central Conference. The fire reached the Central Conference playoff final before losing 1-0 to Sioux Falls Spitfire.

COLLEGE

DeMerit enjoyed a stellar four-year NCAA Division I career with the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). 2001: With the MCC renamed the Horizon League, DeMerit had another fine season for the Flames in his senior year. He was again named to the NSCAA All-Midwest Region First Team and the All-Horizon League First Team after appearing in every match for UIC that year. His four goals include strikes in three straight matches versus University of Detroit Mercy (Oct. 26), University of Wisconsin Milwaukee (Nov. 3), and Loyola University Chicago (Nov. 10). 2000: The defender was named to the NSCAA All-Midwest Region First Team, and for a second time, the All-MCC First Team after a fine junior year with the Flames. For a second straight season, DeMerit made the MCC All-Tournament Team after leading UIC to a second MCC men's soccer title. The Flames also reached the 'Sweet 16' of the NCAA Tournament before losing 6-0 to Stanford University on Nov. 25. 1999: The centre back's sophomore season with the Flames earned him a spot in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Midwest Region Second Team and the All-Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC) First Team. DeMerit made the MCC All-Tournament Team after leading the Flames to their first MCC men's soccer title and the NCAA Tournament. This included the match-winner in the MCC Tournament quarterfinal win over Cleveland State University. He also earned a spot on the MCC's Academic All-Conference Team. 1998: As a freshman, DeMerit appeared in all 17 matches for the Flames, with 10 of those appearances coming in the defensive backline. His only goal that season was the match-winner in a 2-1 overtime victory at local rivals Loyola University Chicago.

INTERNATIONAL

Though not selected to appear for his country at youth international level, DeMerit's rise as a defender in England led to his establishment as a senior international with his native United States. Senior: The centre back made his USA debut during a goalless draw versus Guatemala in Frisco, Texas, on Mar. 28, 2007. The defender then appeared in Group B victories over Guatemala (June 7, 2007) and Trinidad & Tobago (June 9, 2007), as the USA went on to claim the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup title. Later that summer, DeMerit was also a member of the USA squad that appeared at the 2007 Copa America in Venezuela. He made two appearances in Group C, including a start in the 4-1 defeat to South American giants Argentina on June 28, 2007. He was then involved in 2010 FIFA World Cup qualifying in 2008 before appearing for his country at the 2009 FIFA Confederations Cup. DeMerit helped the Americans to the final of the competition in South Africa, with the centre back appearing in all three Group B matches versus Italy (June 15, 2009), Brazil (June 18, 2009), and Egypt (June 21, 2009). He then started the USA's historical 2-0 victory over reigning European champions Spain in the semifinals on June 24, 2009. DeMerit was then selected to the USA's 23-player squad for the 2010 FIFA World Cup and started all four of his country's matches in South Africa. He appeared in the draws versus England (June 12, 2010) and Slovenia (June 18, 2010) before taking part in the famous 1-0 victory over Algeria (June 23, 2010) that clinched top spot for the Americans in Group C. DeMerit's World Cup campaign ended in the Round of 16 when the USA lost 2-1 in extra time to Ghana on June 26, 2010. The centre back then appeared in the USA's 1-1 friendly draw versus Argentina in East Rutherford, New Jersey, on Mar. 26, 2011, and the 1-0 friendly defeat to Paraguay in Nashville, Tennessee, on Mar. 29, 2011.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

DeMerit played youth soccer with Howard Hurricanes Soccer Club in his hometown of Green Bay, Wisconsin, before joining a team called Green Bay 7 Up until he was 20 years of age. The defender also had a stellar soccer career with Bay Port High School in his hometown of Green Bay, Wisconsin. As a junior and senior, he led the Pirates in goals, assists, and points. As a senior, he was named Metro Player of the Year by the Green Bay Press Gazette newspaper, while he also earned All-Bay Conference First Team, all-state, and all-metro honours as a junior and senior. DeMerit was also a top athlete for the Pirates in track & field and basketball.

PERSONAL

Born and raised in Green Bay, Wisconsin, DeMerit attended Hillcrest Elementary School in nearby Oneida, Wisconsin, before studying at Bay Port High School. In 2002, the centre back completed a degree in industrial design at the University of Illinois at Chicago. His parents are Karen and John DeMerit.

On Nov. 3, 2011, Harris agreed to a contract extension.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Though a knee injury restricted Harris to just five starts for Whitecaps FC that year, his attacking production in the early stages of Vancouver's inaugural MLS campaign was impressive, as he was one of five 'Caps players to score two or more goals that season. His debut for Whitecaps FC was a highly influential performance, as he had a goal and two assists in Vancouver's inaugural MLS match, as Whitecaps FC defeated Canadian rivals Toronto FC 4-2 at Empire Field on Mar. 19. Harris then played his part in Vancouver's dramatic 3-3 home draw with Sporting Kansas City on Apr. 2. The striker scored Whitecaps FC's first goal in the match at Empire Field before assisting on Camilo's very late equalizer. Though a knee injury ended his season in late April, Harris signed a contract extension with Whitecaps FC on Nov. 4. 2010: Harris played a key role in leading FC Dallas to the MLS Cup final that season, with the midfielder/striker starting all but one of his 29 regular season appearances. His four goals came against Texas rivals Houston Dynamo (Mar. 27), New England Revolution (May 1), Real Salt Lake (July 17), and in the regular season finale at Los Angeles Galaxy (Oct. 24). Harris also started the qualification semifinal defeat at D.C. United in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup on Apr. 28. In the MLS Cup Playoffs, Harris appeared in the first leg of the Western Conference Semifinals on Oct. 30, as FC Dallas won 2-1 at home to Real Salt Lake. He then started the 3-0 victory at MLS Supporters' Shield winners Los Angeles Galaxy in the Western Conference Final on Nov. 14 before starting the MLS Cup final versus Eastern Conference champions Colorado Rapids at BMO Field in Toronto, Ontario, on Nov. 21. FC Dallas fell 2-1 to Colorado in extra time. On Nov. 24, Whitecaps FC acquired the midfielder/striker during the 2010 MLS Expansion Draft. 2009: Harris scored twice during his second season with Chivas USA, with both goals coming in a 2-1 home win over Columbus Crew on Apr. 5 and in a 2-0 victory at home to FC Dallas on Apr.

25. He also scored the equalizer in a 1-1 home draw versus Mexico's San Luis in Group A of the North American SuperLiga on June 27 before appearing in the club's third-round US Open Cup defeat at former USL-1 club Charleston Battery on June 30. On July 19, the midfielder/striker was traded to FC Dallas in exchange for midfielder Marcelo Saragosa. Harris started all 12 of his regular season appearances for the Texas outfit, with his first FC Dallas goal coming in a remarkable 6-3 victory at Los Angeles Galaxy on Sept. 12, where he also recorded two assists in the match. He also struck in the regular season finale on Oct. 24, as FC Dallas fell 2-1 at Seattle Sounders FC. 2008: In Dec. 2007, Real Salt Lake traded Harris to Chivas USA for a third-round pick in the 2008 MLS SuperDraft. His first season with Southern California outfit saw him feature regularly, both in midfield and as a striker. In 28 regular season appearances, Harris scored goals against former club Real Salt Lake (Apr. 5), SuperClasico rivals Los Angeles Galaxy (Aug. 14), and Toronto FC (Aug. 30). In the MLS Cup Playoffs, the midfielder/striker appeared in the first-leg defeat at RSL in the Western Conference Semifinals on Nov. 1. Harris also started Chivas USA's third-round defeat at United Soccer Leagues First Division (USL-1) side Seattle Sounders in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup on July 1, as well as all three matches in Group B of the North American SuperLiga that summer. Harris also started both legs of the Preliminary Round series versus Panama's Tauro FC in the inaugural edition (2008-09) of the CONCACAF Champions League, with Chivas USA falling 3-1 on aggregate. 2007: His second season with RSL proved more of a challenge, as Harris recorded just one assist in 21 appearances, with the Utah club missing out on the MLS Cup Playoffs for a third-straight season. Harris also started one of RSL's qualification matches in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup that year. 2006: Harris became the first player from Saint Kitts and Nevis to sign for MLS when he joined Real Salt Lake for the 2006 season. Harris scored four goals and added one assist in 22 regular season appearances for the Utah-based club. He also made a substitute appearance for RSL in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup that season.

SAINT KITTS AND NEVIS PREMIER LEAGUE

After spells in England and Spain, Harris spent portions of the 2004-05 and 2005-06 Saint Kitts and Nevis Premier League seasons with St. Peters FC in his hometown of Basseterre.

SPAIN

2003-04: Following his time in England with Newcastle United FC, Harris moved to the Spanish Segunda División (Second Division) when he joined Cádiz Club de Fútbol. It was during that season with Cádiz CF that the midfielder/striker spent time on loan at Club Deportivo Linares, who were in Spain's third-tier Segunda División B.

ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

At the age of 17, Harris joined Newcastle United FC as a youth trainee in 2002. The midfielder/striker remained with the English Premier League side before moving to Spain with Cádiz Club de Fútbol.

INTERNATIONAL

Harris has represented his native Saint Kitts and Nevis at youth and senior international level. The midfielder/striker represented his country at the U-13, U-15, U-17, U-20, and U-23 Olympic levels. Senior: As a 15-year-old, Harris made his senior international debut for Saint Kitts and Nevis in 2000. With seven goals in 22 appearances for the Caribbean nation, Harris played in the semifinal round of CONCACAF qualifying for the 2006 FIFA World Cup in Germany, as The Sugar Boyz finished bottom of Group Three. On Feb. 6, 2008, the midfielder/striker appeared for Saint Kitts and Nevis in the first leg of their Stage One qualifying playoff versus Belize in Guatemala City, Guatemala. Belize won the two-leg playoff 4-2 on aggregate and advanced to the next stage of qualifying for the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa.

PERSONAL

Hailing from Basseterre on the island of St. Kitts, Harris is one of four children to be raised in the capital of Saint Kitts and Nevis. Now a resident of Los Angeles, California, the midfielder/striker has a wife named Rachael and a daughter named Laila.

INTERESTING FACTS

Harris has a cousin in Manchester City and England defender Micah Richards. An avid music listener, the midfielder/striker's favourite music genres are hip hop, reggae, and rhythm & blues. He is a fan of English Premier League giants Chelsea FC. Harris' favourite soccer memory was debuting for his town's U-18 team as a 12-year-old and scoring two goals.

PROFILE

A left fullback who can also play in midfield, defender Jordan Harvey joined Whitecaps FC after being acquired in exchange for allocation money from Major League Soccer rivals Philadelphia Union on July 7, 2011. An experienced MLS campaigner with over 100 appearances in the league, the native of Mission Viejo, California, started his career with Colorado Rapids after being selected in the first round (ninth overall) of the 2006 MLS Supplemental Draft.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: After spending the first half of the season with Philadelphia Union, Harvey started all 14 of his league appearances for Whitecaps FC that year. His Vancouver debut came in a 2-1 away defeat to former club Colorado Rapids on July 9. He then made his home debut in the Herbalife World Football Challenge friendly, as Whitecaps FC suffered a 2-1 defeat to English Premier League club Manchester City FC at Empire Field on July 18. He then recorded two assists in the 4-2 home win over Chicago Fire on Aug. 7 before assisting on Camilo Sanvezzo's consolation goal during a 2-1 away defeat to Pacific Northwest rivals Portland Timbers on Aug. 20. Harvey made his 100th career appearance in MLS when he started Whitecaps FC's 3-1 home defeat to Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC on Sept. 24. Playing as a left-sided midfielder, Harvey recorded assists on goals by Camilo and Long Tan during Whitecaps FC's 2-1 home win over D.C. United at BC Place on Oct. 12. Before joining Whitecaps FC on July 7, Harvey started all 16 of his appearances in his second season with Philadelphia, with the defender recording an assist on Gabriel Farfan's opening goal during a 6-2 victory at Toronto FC on May 28. He also started both of the Union's MLS matches versus Whitecaps FC that year. This included Philadelphia's 1-0 home win over Vancouver on Mar. 26 and the Union's 1-0 away defeat to Whitecaps FC on June 18. Harvey also appeared in the Union's play-in round defeat away to MLS Eastern Conference rivals D.C. United in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup. Philadelphia fell 4-2 on penalties after a 2-2 extra-time draw on Apr. 6. 2010: As a member of Philadelphia's inaugural MLS squad, Harvey started all but one of the Union's league matches that season, as they missed the MLS Cup Playoffs after finishing seventh in the Eastern Conference standings. A fixture at left fullback, his first goal for Philadelphia came during a 2-1 away defeat to Toronto FC on Apr. 15. He also assisted on Jack McInerney's equalizing goal, as the Union won 2-1 at Eastern Conference rivals New England Revolution on Aug. 28. 2009: In his second and final season of action with Colorado Rapids, Harvey started all but one of the club's 30 league matches that season, as Colorado missed the MLS Cup Playoffs after finishing sixth in the Western Conference standings. A steady presence in the Rapids' backline, the defender recorded three assists that season. Harvey's time in Colorado came to an end when he was Philadelphia's first pick in the 2009 MLS Expansion Draft on Nov. 25. 2008: After helping the Rapids second string to MLS Reserve League titles in 2006 and 2007, Harvey made his MLS debut in his third season with Colorado, as the Rapids defeated D.C. United 2-0 on May 4. He appeared in half of Colorado's regular season matches that season, as the Rapids just missed the MLS Cup Playoffs by a single point after a fourth-place finish in the Western Conference standings. He recorded his first MLS point when he assisted on Conor Casey's goal during a 1-1 home draw with Rocky Mountain Cup rivals Real Salt Lake on Oct. 25.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Harvey played the first half in Whitecaps FC reserves 1-0 home win over San Jose Earthquakes reserves on Sept. 6, 2011. 2007: Harvey enjoyed a successful second season with Colorado Rapids reserves, as they successfully defended their Reserve League title after going undefeated during the regular season before defeating Toronto FC reserves 3-0 at home in the final on Oct. 7. The defender registered two goals and an assist in 10 starts for Colorado's second string that year. 2006: After being drafted by the Rapids in the 2006 MLS Supplemental Draft on Jan. 26, Harvey's first season in Colorado was spent in the reserves, as he alternated between left fullback and the left side of midfield. He played in all but one match for Colorado's second string that season, scoring one goal and adding two assists, as he helped the Rapids reserves win the Reserve League title that year with a final victory over New York Red Bulls reserves.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES FIRST DIVISION

2006: During his first MLS season with Colorado Rapids, Harvey had two loan spells with former USL First Division club Seattle Sounders, making a total of 12 appearances that year. The defender first joined the Pacific Northwest club on June 15 and made his USL-1 debut the next day, as Seattle suffered a 4-1 defeat at Puerto Rico Islanders on June 16. He registered two assists on goals by current Houston Dynamo striker Cam Weaver, as the Sounders drew 2-2 at Minnesota Thunder on June 24. His first USL-1 goal was the opening strike in Seattle's 2-1 home win over Miami FC on July 1. After returning to the Rapids on July 8, Harvey returned on loan to the Sounders on July 20 for the remainder of the season. Seattle missed the USL-1 playoffs that year after finishing seventh in the standings.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES PREMIER DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE

2005: Prior to his senior year at UCLA, Harvey played a second season in the PDL with Orange County Blue Star, where he was named to the league's All-Western Conference Team. In a squad that included several current MLS players, the defender played in all but one of Orange County's 16 regular season matches, as the Blue Star claimed top spot in the Southwest Division on the PDL's Western Conference. His three goals for Orange County came in a 4-0 home win over Southern California Seahorses (June 1); a 5-0 victory at home to BYU Cougars (June 10); and a 2-0 away win over California Gold (July 16). In the PDL playoffs, the Blue Star claimed the Western Conference title after defeating Cascade Surge - who were led then by current Whitecaps FC head coach Martin Rennie - 3-0 in the final on July 31. Orange County reached the PDL semifinals before falling 2-1 to eventual league champions Des Moines Menace on Aug. 6. 2004: During his first season in the USL PDL Harvey scored three goals and added two assists as he helped guide Orange County to a first place finish in the Western Conference.

COLLEGE

Harvey enjoyed a distinguished career in NCAA Division I with the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), having been part of the first class to win four-straight Pac-10 Conference titles in the school's history and that claimed the NCAA College Cup title in 2002. 2005: The defender's senior year with the Bruins saw him selected to the Top Drawer Soccer National Team of the Season Second Team and earn All-Pac-10 second team honours after scoring three goals and recording two assists in 20 appearances with UCLA. A key defender that helped the Bruins earn 14 clean sheets (second-most in a season in UCLA history), his goals came in a 3-2 defeat to Santa Clara University (Sept. 2); a 2-0 win over University of California, Berkeley (Sept. 30); and a 2-0 win over Stanford University (Oct. 2). His assists came in a 4-0 win over the University of Maryland on Sept. 4 and on an overtime winner, as the Bruins won 1-0 at Stanford University on Nov. 4. 2004: As a junior, Harvey was one of two UCLA players to start in all 20 matches for the Bruins that year, earning a second All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection. His four assists that season included a 1-0 win at University of California, Riverside, on Sept. 5; a 3-0 victory at University of California, Berkeley, on Oct. 15; a 2-1 victory at University of Washington (Nov. 5), and 4-0 home win over University of San Diego on Nov. 11. 2003: As a sophomore, Harvey ranked third on the Bruins in goals (four) and fifth in points (10) after starting seven of his 16 appearances for UCLA that year. The defender scored goals in a 4-2 home win over University of California, Berkeley (Oct. 17); a 3-0 home win over Stanford University (Oct. 19); a 5-0 victory at home to Oregon State University (Nov. 9); and a 1-0 home win over California State University, Fresno (Fresno State) (Nov. 15). Harvey missed the postseason with UCLA after representing the United States at the 2003 FIFA U-20 World Cup in the United Arab Emirates. 2002: A freshman member of the Bruins' NCAA Division I championship-winning side, Harvey started seven of his 13 appearances in his first season with UCLA, registering an assist during a 2-1 victory over Fresno State on Oct. 13. He was an All-Pac-10 honourable mention selection, despite missing UCLA's last three Pac-10 matches, as he was on international duty with the USA U-20 squad. The Americans qualified for the 2003 FIFA U-20 World Cup in the United Arab Emirates in Nov. 2002.

INTERNATIONAL

Harvey represented the United States at youth international level from U-14 to U-20. U-20: The defender helped the USA qualify for the 2003 FIFA U-20 World Cup and made a late substitute appearance at the final tournament in the United Arab Emirates, as Thomas Rongen's side defeated South Korea 2-0 on Dec. 5, 2003. The Americans won Group F and reached the quarterfinals before falling 2-1 in extra time to Argentina on Dec. 12, 2003. U-17: Harvey served as co-captain of the USA U-17 squad, having been a member of his country's U-17 Residency program. He led John Ellinger's side to the 2001 FIFA U-17 World Cup in Trinidad & Tobago and made two starts in Group B. This included a 1-0 defeat to Japan on Sept. 14, 2001, and a 5-3 defeat to eventual winners France on Sept. 16, 2001. The USA missed out on reaching the quarterfinals after finishing bottom of Group B. In 2000, Harvey scored his first international goal during a 4-1 victory over arch-rivals Canada.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

A soccer standout at Capistrano Valley High School in his hometown of Mission Viejo, California, Harvey was the first player from the state to win America's Gatorade National High School Boys Soccer Player of the Year award in 2001. Fellow Whitecaps FC teammate Lee Nguyen went on to win the accolade in 2004. As a member of the Cougars, Harvey earned Parade All-American honours as both a junior and senior. He also played youth soccer for Strikers FC in nearby Irvine, California.

PERSONAL

Harvey was born and raised in the southern Orange County city of Mission Viejo, California. During his free time, he enjoys playing the guitar, favourite artists includes Jack Johnson and Ben Harper, as well as spending time with his family and friends. As a student at UCLA, the defender majored in sociology.

INTERESTING FACTS

When not concentrating on his soccer career, one of Harvey's favourite pastimes is baseball. Harvey supports the Garth Brooks Teammates for Kids Foundation.

PROFILE

A talented striker known for his physical strength and technical ability, Eric Hassli joined Whitecaps FC as the club's first Designated Player on Mar. 4, 2011. The native of Sarreguemines, France, comes to the Major League Soccer club after spells in Switzerland, France, and England.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Hassli's first season in MLS was highly eventful, as the Frenchman started all but five of his 26 league appearances for Whitecaps FC that season. Only Hassli and strike partner Camilo Sanvezzo scored 10 or more goals during Vancouver's inaugural MLS season, with the Frenchman finishing the campaign as the MLS co-leader for multi-goal games with four. His MLS debut will long be remembered by Whitecaps FC fans. In the club's debut match at Empire Field on Mar. 19, the striker scored the club's first-ever goal in MLS before adding Vancouver's fourth goal in Whitecaps FC's 4-2 home win over Canadian rivals Toronto FC. He then scored Vancouver's first penalty in MLS during a 1-1 home draw with New England Revolution on Apr. 6. Hassli scored again against Toronto FC on May 18, as Whitecaps FC were held to a 1-1 home draw in the first leg of the Nutrilite Canadian Championship final, with the Frenchman starting all four of Vancouver's matches in the competition. The striker scored his second penalty of the season during a 1-1 home draw with New York Red Bulls on May 28. On June 11, Hassli had a memorable two-goal performance during a 2-2 draw at Interstate 5 rivals Seattle Sounders FC. He scored his third penalty of the season to give Whitecaps FC the lead before striking a brilliant volleyed equalizer in the late stages at CenturyLink Field. Hassli's effort earned him the MLS Goal of the Week award in a landslide vote and a spot in the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week for Week 13. The goal also earned him a 2011 'Best Play' nomination for an Excellence in Sports Performance Yearly Award (ESPY) by American cable sports television network ESPN. On July 20, Hassli scored two goals during a 2-2 away draw versus San Jose Earthquakes. On July 25, Hassli was named as one of six inactive players on the 2011 MLS All-Star final roster, as voted by MLS players. On Aug. 7, Hassli scored two goals and recorded an assist in Whitecaps FC's 4-2 home win over Chicago Fire. The striker's efforts earned him a spot in the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week for Week 21. He then assisted on Camilo's goal during the 3-1 home defeat to Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC on Sept. 24.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Hassli made his MLS Reserve League debut in Whitecaps FC reserves' season finale, as they fell 1-0 at Chivas USA reserves on Oct. 18.

SWISS SUPER LEAGUE

2010-11: Prior to his move to Whitecaps FC, Hassli scored four goals in 16 Swiss Super League appearances for FC Zürich. Those goals came in a 4-2 defeat at Berner Sport Club (BSC) Young Boys on Feb. 13, 2011; a 3-1 home victory over former club FC St. Gallen on Feb. 19, 2011; and two goals in a 5-0 home win over AC Bellinzona on Feb. 26, 2011. The striker also scored the match winner in a 4-0 victory at third-tier 1.Liga outfit FC Tuggen in the third round of the Schweizer Cup on Nov. 20, 2010. 2009-10: Hassli appeared in the UEFA Champions League with Swiss champions FC Zürich that season. This included both legs of the club's third qualifying round success over NK Maribor, with the striker scoring the second goal in the 3-2 first-leg defeat to the Slovenian club on July 29, 2009. Hassli then helped FC Zürich to the Champions League group stage after appearing in the two-leg playoff win over Latvia's FK Ventspils in Aug. 2009. Playing in Group C, the striker appeared in FC Zürich 5-2 home defeat to Spanish giants Real Madrid on Sept. 15, 2009. In the Swiss Super League, Hassli scored goals against BSC Young Boys (July 14, 2009), FC St. Gallen (July 22, 2009), and FC Luzern (Aug. 22, 2009), while he also scored for the club's U-21 side (FC Zürich II) during a 7-1 home win over Sport-Réunis de Delémont in Switzerland's third-tier 1.Liga on Apr. 10, 2010. 2008-09: The striker finished third in the Swiss Super League goalscoring charts, as the Frenchman led FC Zürich to the league title that season. Among his 17 goals and 10 assists that year, Hassli scored twice in a 7-1 win at FC Vaduz on Sept. 14, 2008, and a 2-2 draw at BSC Young Boys on Nov. 2, 2008. He then struck a hat-trick in a 5-3 win at FC Vaduz on May 12, 2009. Hassli also scored in the first leg of the club's UEFA Cup second qualifying round match-up versus Austria's SK Sturm Graz on Aug. 14, 2008, as well as a hat-trick in a 6-0 victory at FC Widnau in the first round of the Schweizer Cup on Sept. 21, 2008. The striker also appeared in both legs of FC Zürich's UEFA Cup first-round defeat to Italian giants AC Milan. 2007-08: Following a season in his native France with Valenciennes FC, Hassli returned to Switzerland when he joined FC Zürich. He scored goals against FC Sion (Aug. 19, 2007), FC Basel (Sept. 26, 2007), and Neuchâtel Xamax (Mar. 30, 2008), as FC Zürich finished third in the Swiss Super League standings that year. The striker also scored two goals in a 6-0 victory at FC Herrliberg in the first round of the Schweizer Cup on Sept. 15, 2007. Hassli also appeared in European club competition that season. This included both legs in the third qualifying round of the UEFA Champions League, as FC Zürich fell 3-1 on aggregate to Turkish club Beşiktaş J.K. in Aug. 2007. After failing to reach the UEFA Champions League group stages, FC Zürich took part in the UEFA Cup, with Hassli making five appearances for the Swiss outfit, as they reached the Round of 32 before falling 3-1 on aggregate to German giants Hamburger SV. 2005-06: The striker's second season with FC St. Gallen was a highly productive one, as Hassli scored 13 goals and added eight assists that season. This included five two-goal performances versus FC Thun (July 30, 2005), FC Basel (Aug. 14, 2005), Neuchâtel Xamax (Dec. 4, 2005), FC Zürich (Apr. 23, 2006), and FC Schaffhausen (May 14, 2006). 2004-05: Following a season with Neuchâtel Xamax, Hassli joined Servette FC, where he scored three goals in 11 appearances with the Geneva-based outfit. Those goals came against FC Zürich (Aug. 21, 2004) and BSC Young Boys (Aug. 29 & Nov. 28, 2004). He also made his European club debut with Servette FC, having appeared in both legs of their UEFA Cup second qualifying round defeat to Hungary's Újpest FC in Aug. 2004. The striker's time in Geneva came to an abrupt end when Servette FC's parent company declared bankruptcy on Feb. 4, 2005. As a result, Hassli joined FC St. Gallen, where he scored five goals in 13 appearances. This included a two-goal performance in a 3-1 home win over FC Basel on Feb. 20, 2005. 2003-04: Hassli began his career in the Swiss Super League with Neuchâtel Xamax, where he scored two goals in 13 appearances for the club.

FRANCE

2006-07: After completing his first spell in Switzerland, Hassli joined newly-promoted Ligue 1 outfit Valenciennes FC. He scored two goals for the northern French outfit that season, with the striker getting on the scoresheet in a 2-0 victory at Lille OSC on Apr. 1, 2007, and in a 1-1 draw at Club Sportif Sedan Ardennes on May 19, 2007. 2002-03: The striker helped FC Metz make a return to Ligue 1 after making 16 appearances for the northeast French club. Hassli's lone goal that season came in a 2-0 victory at FC Gueugnon on Aug. 3, 2002. 2001-02: Hassli made just four appearances for FC Metz before moving to the English Premier League for a loan spell with Southampton FC. FC Metz suffered relegation from Ligue 1 at the end of the season. 2000-01: In his first season with FC Metz, Hassli scored two goals in 18 appearances. This included the match winner in a 1-0 home win over Paris Saint-Germain FC on Aug. 19, 2000, and a 2-2 home draw versus Espérance Sportive Troyes Aube Champagne on Oct. 14, 2000. FC Metz finished 12th in France's top-flight Ligue 1 that season.

ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

2001-02: During his second season with France's FC Metz, Hassli went on loan with Southampton FC. The Saints finished mid-table in the English Premier League standings that season.

INTERNATIONAL

U-21: Hassli made several appearances for France's U-21 squad. This included the striker's participation in qualifying for the 2002 UEFA European U-21 Championship, with Raymond Domenech's side finishing runners-up at the tournament in Switzerland that year.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Hassli started his soccer career with L'Association sarregueminoise de football 93 (ASF 93) in his hometown of Sarreguemines, France, before embarking on his professional career with FC Metz in 2000.

PERSONAL

Hassli was born and raised in the Moselle department commune of Sarreguemines, which is based in the Lorraine region of northeast France and right next to the border with Germany.

INTERESTING FACTS

When not concentrating on his soccer career, Hassli enjoys listening to music, dining out, and visiting friends. The striker is also a fan of English Premier League giants Chelsea FC.

PROFILE

Selected in the second round (21st overall) of the 2012 MLS Supplemental Draft on Jan. 17, 2012, defender/midfielder Greg Klazura joined Whitecaps FC after signing a Major League Soccer contract on Feb. 22, 2012. A five-year product of the University Notre Dame, the native of Rockford, Illinois, served as Fighting Irish co-captain in his final year of NCAA Division I soccer in 2011.

COLLEGE

2011: Though he received an invitation to the 2011 MLS Player Combine, Klazura decided to turn down the offer and remain with the University of Notre Dame for one final season. A co-captain as a fifth-year senior, Klazura started all 18 matches for the Fighting Irish that season, seeing every minute of action in all but two matches for Notre Dame. He was third in team assists with three that year, and was a finalist for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for outstanding senior student athlete in NCAA Division I. 2010: As a fourth-year senior, Klazura started all 20 matches for the Fighting Irish, logging the second-most minutes on the team that year. He scored one goal and added an assist for three points, scoring his first NCAA Division I goal in a 5-1 win over California Polytechnic State University that secured Notre Dame the Mike Berticelli Memorial Tournament

PROFILE

A goalkeeper with experience of Major League Soccer and North America's lower divisions, Brad Knighton joined Whitecaps FC on Jan. 17, 2012, after spending the 2011 season with North American Soccer League side Carolina RailHawks. A former New England Revolution and Philadelphia Union shot-stopper, Knighton became the first player from the University of North Carolina Wilmington to sign with MLS when he joined the league back in 2007.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: After being part of Philadelphia Union's inaugural MLS squad, Knighton was waived by the Pennsylvania-based outfit on Jan. 25. 2010: As a member of the Union, the goalkeeper made his Philadelphia debut in a 3-1 defeat at FC Dallas on Aug. 8. On Sept. 11, Knighton's second start for Philadelphia resulted in his - and the Union's - first clean sheet in MLS following a 1-0 home win over Chicago Fire. Knighton made eight starts in goal for that season, posting a 1.10 goals-against average. He also claimed for 180 scoreless minutes in friendlies versus Scottish giants Celtic FC, English Premier League side Manchester United FC, and Mexico's Club Deportivo (Chivas) Guadalajara. 2009: In his third season with New England Revolution, Knighton made his MLS debut in a 1-1 draw at New York Red Bulls on Mar. 28. He went on to make six starts for the Massachusetts outfit, recording a 2.33 goals-against average. His first career MLS victory came on Apr. 4, as Knighton made nine saves in a 2-1 home win over FC Dallas. He also appeared in New England's Lamar Hunt US Open Cup third-round defeat to United Soccer Leagues Second Division club Harrisburg City Islanders, as the Revolution fell 2-1 at home after extra time on June 30. On Nov. 25, Knighton was selected third overall by Philadelphia in the 2009 MLS Expansion Draft. 2007: As an undrafted free agent, Knighton signed an MLS developmental contract with New England on Feb. 26 following a successful preseason trial with the Revolution. During the preseason, he started in New England's 3-1 friendly win over Honduran outfit Club Deportivo Olimpia in New Orleans, Louisiana, on Mar. 25.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2008: Knighton earned one shutout and a 1.14 goals-against average after making four starts in his second season with New England Revolution reserves, as they finished 13th in the MLS Reserve League standings with a 2W-6L-2D record. 2007: He started four of his six appearances with New England's reserves squad, registering a goals-against average of 1.40. He posted a clean sheet after making six saves versus Houston Dynamo reserves on July 22. The Revolution second string finished third in the MLS Reserve League standings with a 6W-4L-2D record that season.

NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE

2011: After four seasons in MLS, Knighton played a year in the second-tier North American Soccer League (NASL) when he joined current Whitecaps FC head coach Martin Rennie at Carolina RailHawks. His efforts earned him a spot on the NASL Best XI, while he was a runner-up for the league's Golden Glove award after registering eight clean sheets and a goals-against average of 0.94 in 28 regular-season appearances for Carolina. The goalkeeper played every minute for the North Carolina-based outfit that season, as the RailHawks claimed the NASL regular season title before falling in the playoff semifinals to eventual NASL champions NSC Minnesota Stars (now Minnesota Stars FC) on Oct. 8 and 15. Minnesota won the semifinal series in a penalty shootout after a 4-4 aggregate draw.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES FIRST DIVISION

2008: In his second season with New England, Knighton joined United Soccer Leagues First Division (USL-1) side Portland Timbers on loan on July 2. He played every minute of his eight appearances for the Pacific Northwest outfit, recording two shutouts and posting a goals-against average of 1.25. A stand-out performance in a goalless home draw versus future club Carolina on July 24 earned Knighton a spot in the USL-1 Team of the Week for Week 15. A month later, the keeper was recalled by parent club New England after Revolution number one Matt Reis suffered a right adductor strain.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES PREMIER DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE

2006: Knighton made 11 appearances and registered a goals-against average of 1.78 during his lone season with Indiana Invaders, as they finished third in the Great Lakes Division of the PDL's Central Conference.

SPANISH TERCERA DIVISIÓN

2006-07: As a college senior, the goalkeeper travelled to Valencia, Spain, to train with Burjassot Club de Fútbol, who play in the Spanish fourth-tier Tercera División.

ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

2005-06: Prior to his junior year in college, Knighton spent three weeks training with then English Premier League side Middlesbrough FC.

COLLEGE

Knighton enjoyed a distinguished NCAA Division I career as a four-year starter with University of North Carolina Wilmington (UNCW), becoming the first Seahawks player to sign a contract with MLS after starting all but four matches for the school between 2003 and 2006. During his time with UNCW, the goalkeeper helped the Seahawks make four consecutive trips to the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Championship Tournament. Knighton is UNCW's all-time leader in career shutouts with 24, while he ranks second all-time with a goals-against average of 1.08, and in total appearances with 75. He also set a Seahawks record for a single-season goals-against average (0.83) during his senior year, while posting six clean sheets. As a senior, the goalkeeper was named to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-South Atlantic Region Second Team and to the All-CAA First Team.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

Knighton played his entire youth career with Richmond Strikers Soccer Club in his hometown of Richmond, Virginia. His efforts earned him an invite to US Youth Soccer's Olympic Development Program. As a senior at Mills E. Godwin High School in Richmond, Virginia, he led the Eagles to an undefeated record of 22W-0L, as Godwin claimed the 2003 Virginia state high school championship title. He earned All-State, All-Region, All-District, and All-Metro honours with the Eagles, while as a junior at Godwin, Knighton trained with MLS club D.C. United.

PERSONAL

Born in Hickory, North Carolina, Knighton was raised in the Virginia state capital of Richmond. As a student at UNCW, the goalkeeper majored in exercise science.

INTERESTING FACTS

Knighton once told UNCW student newspaper 'The Seahawk' - "I love clothes shopping and I shave my legs after a loss. I'll let them grow again until our next loss. Most of the team thinks it's weird, but I like to do it."

PROFILE

A promising central midfielder, Gershon Koffie joined Whitecaps FC's inaugural Major League Soccer roster on Feb. 9, 2011, becoming one of the first players to be signed to an international roster spot by the club. A product of the lower divisions in his native Ghana, Koffie moves up to MLS with Vancouver after signing with the club on Sept. 3, 2010, during the 2010 USFF D-2 Pro League season.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Koffie was named Whitecaps FC's Most Promising Player after a productive first season in MLS, in which he was second in league appearances for the Blue and White, while leading all 'Caps midfielders, after starting all but one of his 29 MLS matches that season. Koffie made his MLS debut in central midfield of Vancouver's inaugural league match on Mar. 19. His solid performance helped Whitecaps FC to a 4-2 home win over Canadian rivals Toronto FC at Empire Field. The midfielder scored his first MLS goal during Whitecaps FC's 4-2 home win over Chicago Fire on Aug. 7. In earning Whitecaps FC a 1-0 home win over Houston Dynamo on Aug. 27, Koffie earned a spot in the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week for Week 24.

That was followed by a spot in the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week for Week 26 after his fine performance during Whitecaps FC's 1-1 draw at New York Red Bulls on Sept. 10. Koffie's three starts in the Nutrilite Canadian Championship included the semifinal, second leg, versus North American Soccer League side Montreal Impact on May 4 and both legs of the final versus MLS rivals Toronto FC on May 18 and July 2.

UNITED STATES SOCCER FEDERATION DIVISION-2 PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE

2010: Koffie made his Whitecaps FC, and North American, debut on Sept. 5, when he started the goalless home draw versus Puerto Rico Islanders. He then scored his first Whitecaps FC goal in the first leg of their first-round playoff series, as Whitecaps FC defeated Portland Timbers 2-0 at home on Oct. 7.

DANISH SUPERLIGA

2009-10: After spending the first half of 2009 training with Swedish club Hammarby IF, the midfielder had an extended trial with Danish Superliga outfit Randers FC from Aug. to Dec. 2009.

SWEDISH ALLSVENSKAN

2009: Looking to make his way into European club soccer, Koffie joined Hammarby IF of Sweden's top-flight Allsvenskan for a trial in Feb. 2009. He trained with Hammarby until Aug. 2009 before moving to Denmark for another trial with Randers FC.

GHANAIAN DIVISION TWO LEAGUE

From 2006 to 2009, Koffie played four seasons in Ghana's third-tier Division Two League with the reserve side of International Allies FC - a club based in the southeast Ghanaian town of Ho. The central midfielder registered 28 goals in his four seasons with International Allies FC reserves, who play in the Greater Accra Regional Football Association zone of the Division Two League.

INTERNATIONAL

U-20: In July 2010, Koffie earned his first spell of international duty when he joined Ghana's U-20 national team for a training camp. In April 2011, the midfielder was named in a 26-player squad by Ghana U-20 national team head coach Orlando Wellington for the 2011 African Youth Championship in Johannesburg, South Africa. Koffie was unable to help The Black Satellites to a successful defence of their FIFA U-20 World Cup title, as Ghana missed out on qualification for the 2011 U-20 World Cup in Colombia after finishing third in Group B at the African Youth Championship that year.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Koffie began his soccer career when he joined Rot-Weiss Accra as a nine-year-old in 2000. Based in the Ghanaian capital, Rot-Weiss Accra are affiliated with German club Rot-Weiss Essen. His first year with Rot-Weiss Accra saw him named Player of the Year and finish as the youth club's top goalscorer. He spent six years with Rot-Weiss Accra before moving to International Allies FC in 2006.

PERSONAL

Born in the Ghanaian city of Koforidua, Koffie's current hometown is the country's capital - Accra. As a student, the midfielder attended Kaneshie Methodist Junior Secondary School in Accra before attending Pope John Secondary School in Koforidua, Ghana. His parents are Jemima Brock and George Koffie, while he has two sisters named Rita and Selina.

INTERESTING FACTS

Koffie is fluent in English and two native Ghanaian languages - Ga and Twi. Ga is mainly spoken near the midfielder's hometown of Accra, while Twi is a branch of Akan, which is the most widely spoken native language in Ghana. When not concentrating on his soccer career, Koffie enjoys listening to Hiplife, Hip Hop, and Reggae music. The midfielder also enjoys reading and watching movies in his spare time. Koffie's favourite soccer teams are English Premier League giants Arsenal FC and the Brazilian national team, while he is an admirer of former Juventus, Real Madrid, and former France star Zinedine Zidane.

PROFILE

Regarded as a soccer legend in his native Republic of Korea (South Korea), Young-Pyo Lee joined Whitecaps FC on Dec. 6, 2011, following a highly distinguished club and international career that included appearances at three FIFA World Cup tournaments for his country. A speedy and skilful fullback that can play on either the right or left flank, Lee comes to Major League Soccer following spells in Saudi Arabia, Germany, England, Netherlands, and his native South Korea.

SAUDI ARABIAN PROFESSIONAL LEAGUE

2010-11: After Al-Hilal Saudi Football Club picked up Lee's one-year contract option, the defender appeared in all but two of the Riyadh-based outfit's 26 matches in the Saudi Professional League, as the club claimed their 13th league title under the stewardship of former Argentine international Gabriel Calderón. Al-Hilal also earned a 16th Saudi Crown Prince Cup title that season, while the defender made four appearances for the club in the 2011 Asian Football Confederation (AFC) Champions League. Al-Hilal reached the 'Round of 16' in Asia's top club competition before falling 3-1 to Saudi rivals Al-Ittihad on May 24, 2011. Despite receiving the offer of a contract extension, Lee opted not to extend his stay with Al-Hilal. 2009-10: Following a season in Germany with Borussia Dortmund, Lee moved to the Middle East when he joined Saudi Arabian giants Al-Hilal on a one-year contract - plus a one-year option - on July 9, 2009. Led by former PSV Eindhoven and Belgium star Eric Gerets, the defender made his debut in a 2-1 victory at Al-Qadisiyah FC on Aug. 19, 2009. He made 22 Saudi Professional League appearances for the Riyadh outfit that season, as Al-Hilal won their 12th league title. Lee also appeared in all four matches of Al-Hilal's successful run to their 15th Saudi Crown Prince Cup title, while he also made four appearances in the end-of-season 'Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques Champions Cup', as Al-Hilal reached the final before losing on penalties to Saudi rivals Al-Ittihad. The fullback also made six appearances for Al-Hilal in the 2010 AFC Champions League, with his only goal for the club being a dramatic winner in second-half time added on, as Al-Hilal defeated Group D opponents Al-Ahli Club 3-2 in the United Arab Emirates on Mar. 30, 2010. Al-Hilal reached the semifinals of Asia's top club competition before losing 2-0 on aggregate to Iran's Zob Ahan FC.

GERMAN BUNDESLIGA

2008-09: After three seasons in England with Tottenham Hotspur FC, Lee moved to Germany when he joined Borussia Dortmund for an undisclosed fee on Aug. 27, 2008. His debut came in the Ruhr Valley derby, as Dortmund drew 3-3 with arch-rivals Schalke 04 on Sept. 13, 2008. During his lone season in the German Bundesliga, the fullback appeared in just over half of Dortmund's league matches, as they finished sixth in the standings and missed out on a spot in the inaugural (2009-10) UEFA Europa League by two points. Lee also made two appearances for the club in the DFB-Pokal (German Cup), with Dortmund falling at the 'Round of 16' stage to eventual winners Werder Bremen. The defender also appeared in both legs of Dortmund's first-round clash in the 38th and final edition of the UEFA Cup (now UEFA Europa League) versus Udinese Calcio. The German club missed out on the group stage after falling on penalties to the Italian Serie A outfit.

ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

2007-08: In his third and final season with Tottenham Hotspur FC, Lee appeared in just under half of the North London club's matches in the English Premier League (EPL), with Spurs finishing 11th in the standings that season. He made two appearances in the English FA Cup that year, with Spurs reaching the fourth round before falling 3-1 at EPL giants Manchester United FC on Jan. 27, 2008. The fullback also made four appearances in the English League Cup that season, as he helped Spurs to their fourth League Cup title after they defeated London rivals Chelsea FC 2-1 after extra time in the final on Feb. 24, 2008. In European club competition, Lee made six appearances during Spurs' run to the 'Round of 16' of the UEFA Cup, where they eventually fell on penalties to his former club PSV Eindhoven. 2006-07: Lee's second season with Spurs was eventful, as Martin Jol's side fared well in domestic and European club competitions. His 21 EPL appearances that season helped the North London outfit to a fifth-place finish in the standings and UEFA Cup qualification for the following season. Lee also made five appearances in the club's English FA Cup run to the quarterfinals before Spurs fell 2-1 to London rivals Chelsea FC in a replay on Mar. 19, 2007. He made just one appearance in the club's English League Cup run to the semifinals, where North London rivals Arsenal FC defeated Spurs 5-3 on aggregate. In Europe, the defender played four matches during Spurs' run to the UEFA Cup quarterfinals, where Spanish club Sevilla defeated the English side 4-3 on aggregate – en route to their second straight UEFA Cup title. 2005-06: After making three Dutch Eredivisie appearances at the start of the season with PSV Eindhoven, Lee made a high-profile move to the EPL when he joined Tottenham Hotspur FC on the final day of the European summer transfer window (Aug. 31, 2005), with Spurs' Dutch manager Jol touting him as "the best left back in Holland" at the time. His debut came during a goalless home draw versus EPL giants Liverpool FC on Sept. 10, 2005. The defender appeared in all but seven of the club's 38 EPL matches that season, as the North London outfit finished fifth in the standings and earned UEFA Cup qualification for the following season. His first taste of cup soccer in England was less than memorable, as Spurs fell 1-0 at English League Two side Grimsby Town FC in the second round of the English League Cup on Sept. 20, 2005.

DUTCH EREDIVISIE

2005-06: Lee's last three appearances for Philips Sport Vereniging (PSV) Eindhoven came at the start of the season. He played his final game for the club on Aug. 28, 2005, as PSV won 3-0 at Roda JC Kerkrade. On the final day of the European summer transfer window (Aug. 31, 2005), the defender transferred to English Premier League club Tottenham Hotspur FC. 2004-05: The defender's third season with PSV proved to be his most successful with the Dutch giants, as Lee made a telling contribution as an attack-minded left fullback. He appeared in all but three of PSV's 34 league matches that season, as Guus Hiddink's side claimed their 18th Dutch Eredivisie title. His only goal for PSV came in a 2-0 home win over Dutch rivals Ajax on Oct. 24, 2004. Lee scored the winner before setting up a second goal by John de Jong. He also made four appearances in PSV's run to their eighth KNVB (Dutch) Cup title that season. The fullback also made an important contribution to PSV reaching the semifinals of the UEFA Champions League, as he made 14 appearances in Europe's top club competition that season. PSV missed out on the UEFA Champions League final after losing their two-leg semifinal clash to Italian giants AC Milan on the 'away goals' rule following a 3-3 aggregate result. 2003-04: In his first full season with PSV, Lee made 26 Eredivisie appearances, as the Eindhoven club finished second in the standings behind champions Ajax, with the club earning a qualifying spot in the UEFA Champions League for the following season. He also made two appearances in the club's run to the Dutch Cup quarterfinals that year. His 12 appearances in European club competitions for PSV were split between the UEFA Champions League group stage in late 2003 and the knockout stages of the UEFA Cup in early 2004. PSV reached the UEFA Cup quarterfinals before falling 3-2 on aggregate to English Premier League club Newcastle United FC. As defending Eredivisie champions, Hiddink's side won the Johan Cruyff Shield VIII (Dutch Super Cup) with a 3-1 win over Dutch Cup holders FC Utrecht. 2002-03: Following a string of memorable performances for his country at the 2002 FIFA World Cup, Lee joined former South Korea head coach Hiddink and fellow countryman Ji-Sung Park at PSV on an initial six-month loan deal from South Korean club Anyang LG Cheetahs on Jan. 9, 2003. The defender made 15 league appearances during the second half of the season, as he helped his new club to a 17th Dutch Eredivisie title, with PSV finishing one point ahead of arch-rivals Ajax in the standings. He also appeared twice in PSV's run to the Dutch Cup semifinals that season.

SOUTH KOREAN K-LEAGUE

2002: Lee's third and final season with South Korean Professional Football League (K-League) side Anyang LG Cheetahs (now FC Seoul) was a busy one, as the defender was committed during the year to the South Korea squad for their co-hosting of the 2002 FIFA World Cup. In the spring, Anyang reached the semifinals of the K-League Cup after winning Group B. Following the World Cup, Lee returned to Anyang and appeared in all but four of his club's 27 league matches, as the Cheetahs finished fourth in the K-League standings. His only goal that season came in a 3-1 home win over Pohang Steelers on July 31. Lee also took part in his third straight K-League All-Star Game as a member of Central All-Stars. They defeated Southern All-Stars 6-1 on Aug. 15. Anyang were then ousted from the Korean FA Cup in the first round following a 1-0 extra-time defeat at home to Hyundai Mipo Dockyard on Nov. 30, 2002. 2001: The defender's second season with Anyang started with a Korea Super Cup title on Mar. 18. As reigning K-League champions, the Cheetahs defeated Korean FA Cup holders Chonbuk Hyundai Motors 2-1 in extra time. He then appeared in all but one of Anyang's eight group matches in the K-League Cup, as the Cheetahs finished fourth in Group A. Lee made 22 K-League appearances for Anyang, as they finished second in the standings - two points behind champions Seongnam Ilhwa Chunma. He appeared in his second straight K-League All-Star Game as a member of Central All-Stars, where they fell 2-1 to Southern All-Stars on Aug. 5. Anyang then reached the quarterfinals of Korean FA Cup before falling 2-1 at home to eventual winners Daejeon Citizen on Nov. 15. 2000: Lee moved into the professional ranks when he joined Anyang for the 2000 season. His first year in the K-League was a successful one, as he appeared in just over half of the Cheetahs' league matches – en route to the club's third K-League title. Anyang finished top of the standings by 11 points before claiming the K-League Championship with a 5-2 aggregate win over Bucheon SK. His first K-League goal came in a 2-1 home win over Daejeon Citizen on July 4 before the defender scored the winner in a 1-0 victory at Bucheon SK on July 12. Lee's efforts earned him a first appearance in the K-League All-Star Game as a member of Central All-Stars. They fell to a 3-2 defeat versus Southern All-Stars on Aug. 15. The fullback also made three appearances in the two K-League Cup competitions, with Anyang finishing bottom of Group A in springtime Supplementary Cup, but reaching the semifinals in the autumn edition of the tournament before falling 4-3 to Seongnam Ilhwa Chunma on Oct. 20. It was the same club that ended Anyang's Korean FA Cup run that season, as Seongnam Ilhwa Chunma defeated the Cheetahs 3-2 in extra time in the quarterfinals on Nov. 30.

INTERNATIONAL

Lee represented his native South Korea with distinction at the international level. He sits third on his country's all-time international appearance list after earning 127 caps between June 1999 and Jan. 2011. Senior: The fullback made his international debut for the Taeguk Warriors during the 1999 Korea Cup tournament, as hosts South Korea drew 1-1 with Mexico on June 12, 1999. His first of five international goals for his country was the match winner in South Korea's 1-0 friendly win at Far East rivals China on July 28, 2000. Lee appeared in three straight FIFA World Cup tournaments for South Korea, with the defender part of Guus Hiddink's famous squad that reached the semifinals of the 2002 World Cup, which they co-hosted with Far East rivals Japan. His five appearances at Korea and Japan 2002 included his assist on Jung-Hwan Ahn's 'golden goal' that gave South Korea a famous 2-1 extra-time victory over Italy in the 'Round of 16' on June 18, 2002. He then made three starts in the 2006 World Cup in Germany, as South Korea finished third in Group G. In the 2010 World Cup in South Africa, Lee started all four of South Korea's matches, as the Taeguk Warriors reached the 'Round of 16' before falling 2-1 to Uruguay on June 26, 2010. The defender also made three appearances during his country's co-hosting of the 2001 FIFA Confederations Cup, as they finished third in Group A. Lee also played twice against Canada in the 2000 and 2002 CONCACAF Gold Cup when South Korea participated in the tournament as a guest nation. The defender also appeared in three Asian Football Confederation (AFC) Asian Cup tournaments. He played in all six matches of South Korea's third-place finish at the 2000 AFC Asian Cup in Lebanon. In China in 2004, Lee played all four AFC Asian Cup matches for his country, as South Korea reached the quarterfinals before falling 4-3 to Iran on July 31, 2004. It was at the 2011 AFC Asian Cup in Qatar that Lee brought his international career to a close, as he appeared in all six matches for the Taeguk Warriors. His final international appearance was in the third-place match, as South Korea defeated Uzbekistan 3-2 on Jan. 28, 2011. U-23: As a member of South Korea's U-23 Olympic squad, the defender started all three matches for his country at the 2000

Sydney Olympics. South Korea missed out on the quarterfinals of the 2000 Men's Olympic Football Tournament after finishing third in Group B.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Before turning professional with Anyang LG Cheetah, Lee played four years for Konkuk University in Seoul, South Korea, between 1997 and 2000.

PERSONAL

Born and raised in Hongcheon-gun, South Korea, Lee is married to Bo-Yoon Jang and has two daughters named Hael and Na-el. As a student, the defender earned a degree in governmental issues and politics at Konkuk University in Seoul, South Korea. The fullback is known to be a devout Christian.

INTERESTING FACTS

When not concentrating on his soccer career, Lee enjoys watching movies, listening to music, and reading. An avid golfer, the defender is good friends with top professional golfer and fellow countryman Kyong-Ju (KJ) Choi.

PROFILE

A hard-working striker with plenty of speed and a nose for goal, Sébastien Le Toux joined Whitecaps FC from Major League Soccer rivals Philadelphia Union in exchange for allocation money on Jan. 31, 2012. An MLS All-Star in 2010, the native of Mont-Saint-Aignan, France, has emerged as one of the premier strikers in the league, having scored the second most points in the league over the last two seasons with 25 goals and 20 assists. Le Toux started his MLS career with Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC in 2009 and also enjoyed spells with Seattle at the North American second division level and in his native France.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Le Toux's second season with Philadelphia saw the Frenchman lead the Union in goals and assists for a second straight season, as the Pennsylvania-based outfit reached the MLS Cup Playoffs for the first time in club history after finishing third in the Eastern Conference standings. For a second straight year, the striker was awarded the MLS Individual Fair Play Award after only committing 20 fouls all season. For a third straight year, Le Toux completed an MLS season without receiving a yellow or red card. He was the only Union player to start every MLS regular season and playoff match that season, with his performances earning him the league's Player of the Month award for September. His 11 goals included three two-goal performances - a 2-2 draw versus FC Dallas (Aug. 13); a 4-4 draw versus New England Revolution (Sept. 7); and a 3-2 victory over D.C. United (Sept. 29). Le Toux scored his first and Philadelphia's playoff goal in the first leg of the Eastern Conference semifinals, as the Union fell 2-1 at home to Houston Dynamo on Oct. 30. Philadelphia lost 3-1 on aggregate to Houston in the two-leg playoff series. The Frenchman also started the Union's play-in match in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup, as Philadelphia were knocked out by MLS Eastern Conference rivals D.C. United 4-2 on penalties following a 2-2 extra-time draw away from home. He also started the Herbalife World Football Challenge friendly versus Spanish and European giants Real Madrid, as the Union suffered a 2-1 defeat in front of a crowd of 57,305 at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field on July 23. 2010: In Philadelphia's inaugural season in MLS, Le Toux enjoyed a breakout year in the league after starting all but two of the Union's regular season matches - this despite the Pennsylvania club missing the MLS Cup Playoffs following a seventh-place finish in the Eastern Conference standings. He became the first-ever Philadelphia player to be an MLS All-Star after the Frenchman was selected by LA Galaxy head coach Bruce Arena. Though not voted a member of the MLS All-Star First XI, Le Toux started the MLS All-Star Game versus Manchester United FC, as he played the first half of a 5-2 defeat to the English Premier League giants at Reliant Stadium in Houston, Texas, on July 28. His 14 goals and 11 assists that season earned the striker a spot on the MLS Best XI after he set the highest combined total in the league that year. He also earned his first MLS Individual Fair Play Award after committing only 10 fouls and receiving no bookings. The striker was named MLS Player of the Week for Week Three after scoring a hat-trick in the Union's

3-2 victory over Eastern Conference rivals D.C. United at Philadelphia's Lincoln Financial Field on Apr. 10. This included Philadelphia's first-ever goal in MLS, with Le Toux also making an important contribution to the Union's first-ever win in the league. He had a goal and two assists in 3-1 home win over former club Seattle Sounders FC on June 27 before claiming a goal and an assist in a 2-1 victory at home to Toronto FC on July 17. Le Toux won the MLS Goal of the Week in Week 18 for his bending strike in a 1-1 home draw versus Eastern Conference rivals New England Revolution on July 31. He scored the consolation goal in Philadelphia's 2-1 away play-in match defeat to MLS Eastern Conference rivals New York Red Bulls in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup on Apr. 27 before striking the winner in a 1-0 friendly result over Scottish giants Celtic FC on July 14. Le Toux also appeared in the 1-0 friendly defeat to English Premier League giants Manchester United FC on July 21. 2009: The striker started his MLS career with expansion club Seattle Sounders FC, having been the club's first-ever signing on May 8, 2008. Le Toux started just over half of his 28 appearances for Sigi Schmid's side that season, with the forward assisting on the club's first-ever goal in MLS, as he set up Fredy Montero for the match winner in a 3-0 home win over New York Red Bulls on Mar. 19. He then scored his first MLS goal during a 1-1 home draw versus LA Galaxy on May 10 before recording assists in a 2-1 home win over San Jose Earthquakes on June 13 and a 3-0 victory at home to Colorado Rapids on June 28. Sounders FC made the MLS Cup Playoffs in their inaugural year in the league - thus making Seattle the second MLS expansion club after the 1998 Chicago Fire to reach the postseason in their first season of play. Le Toux made substitute appearances in both legs of the Western Conference semifinal series versus Houston Dynamo on Oct. 29 and Nov. 8, with Seattle falling 1-0 on aggregate. The striker also scored three goals and registered five assists in Sounders FC's run to their first Lamar Hunt US Open Cup title. This included two goals and two assists in a 4-1 play-in victory at home to MLS rivals Real Salt Lake on Apr. 28; the winner from the penalty spot in a 1-0 home win over Kansas City Wizards (now Sporting Kansas City) in the quarterfinals on July 7; two assists in 2-1 semifinal win at home to Houston Dynamo on July 21; and an assist in Seattle's 2-1 victory at D.C. United in the final on Sept. 2. Le Toux also appeared as a second-half substitute during a 2-1 friendly defeat at home to English Premier League giants Chelsea FC on July 18. The striker's spell in Seattle ended on Nov. 25

when 2010 expansion club Philadelphia Union made him their fourth selection in the 2009 MLS Expansion Draft.

ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

2011-12: In Jan. 2012, Le Toux had a week-long training stint with English Premier League side Bolton Wanderers FC.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES FIRST DIVISION

2008: In his final season at the North American second division level, Le Toux was named to the United Soccer Leagues First Division (USL-1) Second Team after appearing in all 30 regular season matches for USL-1 club Seattle Sounders that season. The Frenchman's 14 goals and 32 points ranked him second overall in the league, with six of those goals resulting as match winners. He also scored against Whitecaps FC on two occasions that season, claiming a goal and an assist in Seattle's 2-0 away win over Vancouver on May 23 before scoring the opening goal in the Sounders' 3-2 home defeat to the 'Caps on Sept. 20. After finishing sixth in the USL-1 standings, Le Toux started both legs of Seattle's USL-1 playoff quarterfinal versus Montreal Impact on Sept. 26 and 28, with Montreal winning the series 4-3 on aggregate. The striker also scored five goals in Seattle's Lamar Hunt US Open Cup run to the semifinals, having struck four goals in the Sounders' 6-0 home win over amateur side Hollywood United FC in the second round on June 24. The Sounders missed out on the final that year after falling on penalties to USL-1 rivals Charleston Battery on Aug. 12. 2007: Following an unsuccessful trial with MLS club FC Dallas, Le Toux's entry into North American professional soccer came when he signed for Seattle in USL-1 after being spotted at a combine held in conjunction with the 2006 MLS Cup in Frisco, Texas. He went on to have an outstanding first season with the Sounders, as he became the fourth Seattle player to win the USL-1 Most Valuable Player award and finish as joint top scorer in the league with 10 goals. He was also selected to the USL-1 All-League First Team. The Frenchman's efforts helped the Sounders win the Commissioner's Cup as USL-1 regular season champions and earn the club's second USL-1 championship title in three years in the playoffs. He appeared in all but four of Seattle's 28 regular-season matches and started all five of the Sounders' postseason matches - en route to the club's fourth North American second division championship title. His first goal and assist in USL-1 came during a 2-2 draw at Pacific Northwest rivals Portland Timbers on May 11. Le Toux then struck six match-winning goals in the regular season. This included a 1-0 away win over Whitecaps FC on July 12 and a hat-trick performance in a 4-0 home win over California Victory on Sept. 6. Le Toux was also the leading scorer in the Lamar Hunt US Open Cup with five goals. Seattle reached the semifinals that year before falling at home to MLS outfit FC Dallas after a 2-1 extra-time defeat on Sept. 4.

FRENCH LIGUE 2

2005-06: Prior to his move to North America, Le Toux played two seasons for FC Lorient-Bretagne Sud in France's Ligue 2. In his second and final season with the Brittany-based outfit, the striker made three appearances in Nov. 2005, as Lorient earned promotion to France's top-flight Ligue 1 after finishing third in the Ligue 2 standings. His only goal for 'Les Merlus' was a match-winner, as Lorient claimed a 1-0 away victory over Stade Brestois 29 on Nov. 14, 2005. 2004-05: Le Toux made his Ligue 2 debut on opening day, as Lorient suffered a 3-2 defeat at Club Sportif Sedan Ardennes on Aug. 6, 2004. The striker started 10 of his 12 appearances for Les Merlus that season, as the Brittany-based club finished 10th in the Ligue 2 standings.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Before starting his professional career with FC Lorient-Bretagne Sud in his native France, Le Toux was a member of the youth set-up at Lorient's Brittany rivals Stade Rennais FC.

PERSONAL

Born in Mont-Saint-Aignan in the Upper Normandy region of northern France, Le Toux grew up in the northwestern French city of Rennes, which is the capital of the region of Brittany. The striker's parents are Marlene and Michel Le Toux, while he also has two brothers and a sister. On Aug. 5, 2010, Le Toux received a United States Permanent Resident Card (green card), changing his MLS roster status to Domestic.

PROFILE

A speedy goalscorer with game-changing qualities, striker Darren Mattocks joined Whitecaps FC after being the second overall pick in the 2012 Major League Soccer SuperDraft in Kansas City, Missouri. A two-year standout at the University of Akron, Mattocks helped the Zips to the 2010 NCAA College Cup title as a freshman. The native of Portmore, Jamaica, signed a Generation adidas contract with MLS on Dec. 20, 2011.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2012: Mattocks was selected second overall in the MLS SuperDraft by Whitecaps FC on Jan. 12.

COLLEGE

Mattocks enjoyed two outstanding seasons in NCAA Division I at the University of Akron after being scouted in Jamaica by Zips head coach Caleb Porter. 2011: As a sophomore, Mattocks finished second in scoring in NCAA Division I with 21 goals in 22 appearances with the Zips. His efforts made him a semifinalist for the Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy as the top male player in NCAA Division I soccer that year. He was named Mid-American Conference (MAC) Player of the Year and to the All-MAC First Team for a second straight year. A five-time MAC Player of the Week, Mattocks found the back of the net more than twice in a single match on six occasions. He registered his second career hat-trick for Akron during a 3-0 victory at the University of Tulsa on Sept. 24 before striking his third career hat-trick during the Zips' 5-2 win at the University of Buffalo on Oct. 21. In the NCAA Championship Tournament, Mattocks scored the third goal in Akron's 3-1 home win over Northwestern University in the first round on Nov. 17. In the second round, the Caribbean forward scored twice - including the match winner - as the Zips defeated sixth-seeded Southern Methodist University 3-2 at home to reach the 'Round of 16'. Akron's quest to defend their NCAA College Cup title ended at the 'Round of 16' stage following a 1-0 away defeat to College Cup finalists in the University of North Carolina at Charlotte on Nov. 27. 2010: As a freshman, Mattocks led Akron to the NCAA College Cup title - the first Division I national championship to be won in any sport by a University of Akron varsity team. He was named MAC Newcomer of the Year after finishing third in NCAA Division I scoring (second among freshmen) with 18 goals in 25 appearances for the Zips. The striker's efforts also earned him Freshman All-American honours with College Soccer News, Goal.com, Soccer America, and Top Drawer Soccer, as well as a spot on the All-MAC First Team. The striker scored multiple goals in four matches that year, including a pair of goals during a 5-0 victory at Oakland University on Oct. 6. His first career hat-trick for the Zips came in a 4-0 home win over the University of Buffalo on Oct. 16. Mattocks also played a crucial role in Akron's run to their fourth consecutive MAC Tournament championship title. He struck the match winner in a 3-1 semifinal win over the University of Buffalo on Nov. 12 before finding the back of the net twice in a 4-0 victory over Western Michigan University in the MAC Tournament championship final on Nov. 14. The Caribbean forward also played a role in Akron's historical run to their first NCAA College Cup title. He scored twice in a 3-2 home win over West Virginia University in the second round of the NCAA Championship Tournament on Nov. 21 before striking the match winner in 2-1 home win over Indiana University in the 'Round of 16' on Nov. 28.

INTERNATIONAL

Senior: In Dec. 2011, Mattocks earned a call-up to a four-day training camp with the full Jamaica squad by Reggae Boyz head coach Theodore Whitmore. U-23: Mattocks was a member of Jamaican U-23 Olympic team player pool, having trained with the squad in the summer of 2011.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

A prolific striker as a youngster, Mattocks is the all-time leading scorer with 54 goals and 25 assists for Bridgeport High School in his hometown of Portmore, Jamaica. This included 18 match-winning goals for Bridgeport. He was also the leading goalscorer for the U-21 squad of Jamaican National Premier League outfit Waterhouse Football Club, who are based in the country's capital of Kingston.

PERSONAL

Mattocks was born and raised in the Jamaican coastal city of Portmore, which is based in the parish of Saint Catherine. The striker's parents are Lasmine Montegue and David Mattocks. As a student at the University of Akron, Mattocks was majoring in marketing management.

PROFILE

A speedy and athletic centre back that has represented Trinidad & Tobago at the international level, Carlyle Mitchell joined Whitecaps FC ahead of the 2011 Major League Soccer roster freeze on Sept. 15, 2011. The native of Arima, Trinidad & Tobago, comes to Vancouver with experience of the CONCACAF Champions League from his time with Trinidad & Tobago side Joe Public FC.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Mitchell made three starts for Whitecaps FC during their inaugural MLS season, with all three appearances coming at the tail-end of the campaign following the club's move into the newly-refurbished BC Place in Oct. 2011. The centre back made his MLS debut on Oct. 6, as Whitecaps FC defeated Real Salt Lake 3-0. He then started at centre back in the 2-1 home win over D.C. United on Oct. 12 and the 2-1 home defeat versus Colorado Rapids on Oct. 22.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: The defender made his Whitecaps FC competitive debut in the MLS Reserve League on Oct. 3, as the 'Caps reserves fell 1-0 at home to Portland Timbers reserves at Swangard Stadium.

TRINIDAD & TOBAGO PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

2010-11: Playing his third and final season with Joe Public FC, Mitchell helped the Eastern Lions to a third-place finish in the Trinidad & Tobago Professional Football League (TT Pro League) standings and to the quarterfinal stages of the Trinidad & Tobago Cup (FA Trophy). Joe Public claimed their first-ever First Citizens Cup title after a 3-0 penalty shootout win over Defence Force FC following a 1-1 draw in the final on Oct. 23, 2010. Joe Public also won their second Trinidad & Tobago Pro Bowl title following a 1-0 victory over W Connection FC on Apr. 1, 2011. As reigning TT Pro League champions, Mitchell helped the Eastern Lions to a runners-up finish behind North American Soccer League side Puerto Rico Islanders at the 2010 Caribbean Football Union (CFU) Club Champions' Cup. That earned Joe Public one of three berths in the 2010-11 edition of the CONCACAF Champions League, where Mitchell made five appearances in the confederation's top club competition. His only goal came in the Preliminary Round, second leg, as Joe Public won 4-2 at home to Costa Rica's Brujas FC on Aug. 5, 2010, for a 6-4 aggregate victory. The Eastern Lions missed out on the Champions League quarterfinals after finishing bottom of Group B that included MLS club Columbus Crew. 2009: Mitchell enjoyed a memorable season with Joe Public, as they claimed no less than five domestic titles during the year. The Eastern Lions won the league championship and Super Six title in the TT Pro League, as well as their third Trinidad & Tobago Cup (FA Trophy) title after a 3-2 extra-time win in the final over W Connection FC on Dec. 9. The defender scored in a 4-0 final win over San Juan Jabloteh to earn Joe Public a second Trinidad & Tobago Classic title on Nov. 13. The Eastern Lions also claimed their first Trinidad & Tobago Pro Bowl title with a 5-3 penalty shootout win over former club Caledonia AIA after a 1-1 draw on Dec. 11. A sixth domestic title eluded Joe Public in the First Citizens Cup following a 1-0 defeat in the final to Defence Force FC on Oct. 2, 2008: Initially signed as a striker from TT Pro League rivals Caledonia AIA, Mitchell was converted into a defender during his time at Joe Public. During his first season with the Eastern Lions, Mitchell's side finished fourth in the league standings and fifth in the Big Six standings during the TT Pro League campaign. Joe Public also made the Trinidad & Tobago Pro Bowl quarterfinals, while they were runners-up in the First Citizens Cup after falling 6-5 on penalties to W Connection FC following a 2-2 draw on Sept. 26. After finishing runners-up to Jamaica's Harbour View FC in the 2007 CFU Club Champions' Cup, Joe Public participated in the inaugural edition (2008-09) of the CONCACAF Champions League, with Mitchell making seven starts in the competition that year. This included both legs of the 6-1 aggregate victory over MLS club New England Revolution in the Preliminary Round and appearances versus Canadian arch-rivals and 2012 MLS expansion club Montreal Impact in Group C. Joe Public missed out on the Champions League quarterfinals after finishing bottom of Group C. 2007: Mitchell started his TT Pro League career as a non-professional U-20 player with Caledonia AIA, having made his league debut as a 19-year-old. In his lone season with the 'Men from Morvant', Mitchell helped Caledonia AIA to a second-place league finish and a fourth-place finish in the Big Six standings in the TT Pro League. They Men from

Morvant were also runners-up in the Trinidad & Tobago Cup (FA Trophy) and First Citizens Cup that season, while they finished fourth in the Trinidad & Tobago Classic.

INTERNATIONAL

Mitchell has represented his native Trinidad & Tobago at youth and senior international levels. Senior: The centre back made his senior international debut for The Soca Warriors when he started a 3-1 friendly defeat at home to Caribbean rivals Jamaica on August 11, 2010. The defender then started a goalless friendly draw away to CONCACAF rivals Belize on Sept. 10, 2010, and a 3-0 friendly win at home to India on Aug. 21, 2011. He then appeared in his country's final qualifying match for the 2014 FIFA World Cup, as The Soca Warriors earned a 2-0 home win over Guyana on Nov. 15, 2011. Despite the win, Trinidad & Tobago did not advance from the second round of CONCACAF World Cup qualifying after finishing second in Group B behind Guyana. U-23: As a member of the Trinidad & Tobago U-23 Olympic squad in 2007, striker Mitchell appeared in all but one of his country's five matches during their qualifying campaign for the 2008 Beijing Olympics. This included a goal in a 3-0 away win over Curaçao (formerly Netherlands Antilles) in the first round of Caribbean zone Olympic qualifying on Sept. 1, 2007, and two goals in a 3-2 home defeat to Grenada in the second round of Caribbean zone Olympic qualifying on Oct. 12, 2007. Trinidad & Tobago missed out on the final round of 2008 CONCACAF Olympic qualifying after finishing third in second-round Group G of Caribbean zone Olympic qualifying. U-20: In 2006, Mitchell made five appearances for the Trinidad & Tobago U-20 squad as a striker. This included three appearances in Caribbean zone qualifying for the 2007 FIFA U-20 World Cup in Canada in late 2006. The U-20 Soca Warriors just missed out on one of three Caribbean berths for the 2007 CONCACAF U-20 Championship after finishing second in second-round Group F of Caribbean zone U-20 World Cup qualifying.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

Mitchell started his soccer career on his native island of Trinidad with Uprising Youths and Pinto United FC. The centre back then joined one of Trinidad's biggest youth academies in Memphis FC before playing school soccer for Mount Hope Junior Secondary School in Mount Hope, Trinidad, and Hillview College in Tunapuna, Trinidad.

PERSONAL

Mitchell was born and raised in The Royal Borough of Arima, which is the fourth largest town in Trinidad & Tobago. His family includes three sisters named Carlene, Melissa, and Sapphire, plus three brothers named Devon, Dexter and Joseph.

INTERESTING FACTS

Like most soccer players in Trinidad & Tobago, Mitchell was an admirer of his country's greatest soccer export in Dwight Yorke and the striker's former club in English Premier League giants Manchester United FC. The centre back is also a fan of Spanish and European giants FC Barcelona and their star player Lionel Messi. He also admires the talents of Brazilian star Ronaldinho. When not concentrating on his soccer career, Mitchell enjoys listening to soca music from his native Trinidad. The defender's favourite foods are chicken and macaroni pie, while he likes drinking orange Gatorade.

PROFILE

An attack-minded Generation adidas midfielder that helped the University of Akron to the 2010 NCAA College Cup title, Michael Nanchoff joined Whitecaps FC after being selected eighth overall in the 2011 MLS SuperDraft in Baltimore, Maryland. A native of North Royalton, Ohio, Nanchoff was one of five Akron players to be selected among the first eight picks by MLS clubs in the 2011 SuperDraft.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: After a lengthy spell on the sidelines with a groin injury, Nanchoff made five appearances during his first season in MLS with Whitecaps FC. The midfielder made his league debut when he replaced centre back Mouloud Akloul late in the second half of Whitecaps FC's 2-0 away defeat to Real Salt Lake on June 4. He then made his first MLS start during Whitecaps FC's 2-1 away defeat to Colorado Rapids on July 9.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER RESERVE LEAGUE

2011: Nanchoff started all but three of Whitecaps FC reserves' 10 matches that season. The midfielder made his MLS Reserve League debut during Whitecaps FC reserves' 2-0 defeat at Seattle Sounders FC reserves on June 7. He then assisted on the consolation goal by fellow 2011 MLS SuperDraft first-round pick Omar Salgado, as Whitecaps FC reserves suffered a 2-1 away defeat to LA Galaxy reserves on June 20. Nanchoff then scored the first goal in a 2-1 home win over Seattle Sounders FC reserves on Aug. 9. The result at Swangard Stadium was Vancouver's first-ever win in the MLS Reserve League. He then assisted on Salgado's winning goal during a 1-0 home win over San Jose Earthquakes reserves on Sept. 6.

UNITED SOCCER LEAGUES PREMIER DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE

2011: After missing the entire MLS preseason with a groin injury, Nanchoff made four appearances in his fifth PDL season as a member of Whitecaps FC Residency. In fact, the midfielder made his competitive debut in a 'Caps uniform on May 13, as the Residency team defeated British Columbia rivals Abbotsford Mariners 2-1 at Empire Field. He then scored his first PDL goal for the Residency team during a 2-2 draw at British Columbia rivals Victoria Highlanders FC on May 21. Nanchoff then assisted on Ben Fisk's winning goal, as the Residency team won 1-0 at Abbotsford Mariners on May 29. 2009: Nanchoff recorded four assists with Cleveland Internationals, with the midfielder assisting on former University of Akron teammate and Portland Timbers' SuperDraft pick Darlington Nagbe's two goals in a 3-2 home defeat to Indiana Invaders on July 12. 2008: Nanchoff made the PDL's All-Central Conference Team after a fine third season with Cleveland. Amassing a total of 17 points, Nanchoff's six goals and five assists included a goal and two assists in a 5-1 home win over Ohio rivals Cincinnati Kings on June 27. After finishing second in the Great Lakes Division, the Internationals reached the Central Conference playoff semifinals before losing 2-0 to eventual PDL champions Thunder Bay Chill on July 26. 2007: The midfielder made seven appearances in his second PDL season with Cleveland. He recorded assists in a 2-1 home defeat to Chicago Fire Premier on June 1 and in a 2-1 victory at home to Michigan Bucks on July 7. 2006: The midfielder played the first of four PDL seasons for his father, George Nanchoff, and Cleveland. Though he made just six appearances that season, Nanchoff scored Cleveland's lone goal in a 5-1 defeat at St. Louis Lions on July 9 before recording an assist in a 1-1 home draw versus Fort Wayne Fever on July 12.

COLLEGE

Nanchoff enjoyed a fine NCAA Division I career at the University of Akron, where he played three years for the Zips. 2010: In his final season with the Zips, Nanchoff led Akron to the NCAA College Cup title - the first Division I national championship to be won in any sport by a University of Akron varsity team. As a Redshirt Junior, the midfielder made the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Great Lakes Region Second Team, the All-Mid-American Conference (MAC) First Team, and the NCAA College Cup All-Tournament Team after appearing in all 25 matches for the Zips that season. This included a career-high 10 goals for Akron, including three match winners versus Penn State University (Oct. 13), State University of New York at Buffalo (Oct. 16), and Hartwick College (Nov. 6). More significantly, Nanchoff assisted on Akron's match-winning goal in the NCAA College Cup semifinal win over University of Michigan on Dec. 10. 2009: Nanchoff made the All-MAC First Team after amassing five goals and 11 assists with the Zips. As a Redshirt Sophomore, the midfielder was named Soccer America National Player of the Week on Sept. 26 after tying an Akron record with four assists in one match, as the Zips claimed a 6-0 home win over Bowling Green State University. He also made the College Soccer News National Team of the Week on Oct. 5, and scored match-winning goals versus Indiana University (Sept. 18) and Northern Illinois University (Nov. 13). Unfortunately for Nanchoff, a leg injury in a 2-0 win over University of South Florida in the second round of the NCAA championship tournament on Nov. 22 forced the midfielder to miss Akron's last four matches of the season, with the Zips reaching the NCAA College Cup final before losing on penalties to University of Virginia in Cary, North Carolina, on Dec. 13. 2008: Redshirted his sophomore year. 2007: As a freshman, the midfielder made 17 appearances for Akron, with Nanchoff recording assists in a 1-0 victory over the University of Alabama at Birmingham on Sept. 2 and a 4-0 win over St. Francis University on Sept. 16. His first career goal for the Zips came in the first round of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Tournament, as Akron edged Northern Illinois University in overtime on Nov. 16. The Zips won the MAC championship title that season before falling in the second round of the NCAA championship tournament to the University of South Florida on Nov. 28.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

As a student at Walsh Jesuit High School in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, Nanchoff earned an NSCAA All-America honour and was named Cleveland Plain Dealer Player of the Year as a member of the Warriors. As a senior in 2006, the midfielder made the All-Ohio First Team after leading Walsh Jesuit to the Ohio Division II state championship title with a record of 21 wins and two defeats. In the state final victory over Kettering, Ohio's Archbishop Alter High School, Nanchoff assisted on the match-winning goal before scoring the second goal in a 2-0 win. During his youth soccer career, the midfielder claimed five Ohio state championship titles with Cleveland Internationals.

PERSONAL

Nanchoff was born and raised in the Cuyahoga County city of North Royalton, which is based just south of Cleveland, Ohio. As a student at the University of Akron, the midfielder has been majoring in sport and exercise science. His parents are Marian and George Nanchoff, while he has a brother named Georgie and a sister named Nicole.

INTERESTING FACTS

The product of a soccer family, Nanchoff's father (George) and uncle (Louie) were four-year letter winners and two-time All-Americans at the University of Akron in the 1970's before the pair became professionals in the old North American Soccer League and the now-defunct Major Indoor Soccer League. Though born in the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, George and Louie each made 10 international appearances and scored a goal for the United States. In 1980, the pair were due to appear for the USA at the Moscow Olympics before the Americans boycotted the games after the Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan. These days, George and Louie are co-owners and directors of coaching at Cleveland Internationals Soccer Club. The midfielder's brother Georgie also played college soccer at the University of Dayton, while his sister Nicole plays collegiately for Duquesne University.

PROFILE

A midfielder/striker with playing experience in North America, Europe, and Southeast Asia, Lee Nguyen joined Whitecaps FC via the MLS weighted Lottery process on Dec. 15, 2011, after the product of Richardson, Texas, signed a multi-year contract with the league on Dec. 6, 2011. A United States international, Nguyen was selected to join Vancouver ahead of FC Dallas, Houston Dynamo, LA Galaxy, Real Salt Lake, and Toronto FC in the weighted Lottery.

VIETNAMESE V-LEAGUE

2011: Playing his third season in the V-League (now Vietnamese Super League), Nguyen was a popular figure in Vietnam and the highest-paid athlete in the country that year. During his second season with Becamex Binh Duong FC, the Thu Dau Mot-based club finished sixth in the V-League standings and reached the quarterfinals of the Vietnamese Cup before falling on penalties to eventual winners Navibank Saigon FC on Feb. 12. Nguyen ended his spell in Vietnam when the midfielder/striker and Binh Duong mutually agreed to terminate his contract on June 29. 2010: Despite fielding interest from several MLS clubs, Nguyen signed an 18-month contract with Binh Duong on Mar. 22 after starting the V-League season with Hoàng Anh Gia Lai FC (HAGL). The midfielder/striker made his Binh Duong debut in a 5-2 home win over Lam Sơn Thanh Hóa FC on May 30, with Nguyen recording two assists in the victory. Binh Duong finished ninth in the V-League standings that season and reached the quarterfinals of the Vietnamese Cup before falling on penalties to Nguyen's former club and cup finalists HAGL on Mar. 29. 2009: Nguyen became the first American to play in the Vietnamese V-League when he signed with HAGL on Jan. 17. The midfielder/striker had a spectacular debut for the Pleiku-based outfit, as Nguyen struck a hat-trick in a 3-2 home win over Saigon United FC in the first round of the Vietnamese Cup. His first V-League goal came in a 3-2 victory at home to Xi Mang Hai Phong FC on Mar. 8. In his 24 appearances for HAGL that season, Nguyen scored 13 goals and recorded 16 assists in all competitions. This included a total of nine league goals, as HAGL finished sixth in the V-League that year. He also had a total of four goals in the club's Vietnamese Cup run to the quarterfinals before HAGL fell 2-1 at home to Nguyen's future club Binh Duong on July 15.

ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

2009-10: After playing his first season in the Vietnamese V-League, Nguyen joined English Premier League giants Arsenal FC for a month-long training spell in Sept. 2009, through a club partnership with V-League club Hoàng Anh Gia Lai FC.

DANISH SUPERLIGA

2008-09: Nguyen made nine league appearances for Randers FC that season, with the midfielder/striker recording an assist as a late substitute during a 4-1 away win over SønderjyskE on Nov. 2, 2008. Randers FC finished fifth in the standings that season, with

The Horses earning a spot in the qualifying rounds of the UEFA Europa League for the following season after finishing top of the Danish Superliga's Fair Play Rankings. Nguyen also started for Randers FC in the DBU Pokalen (Danish Cup) 'Round of 16', as they fell 3-2 at Danish Superliga rivals AC Horsens on Oct. 29, 2008. 2007-08: Following a trial with the club, Nguyen joined Randers FC on the final day of the January transfer window (Jan. 31), signing a contract until the summer of 2009 with the Superliga outfit. He made a total of 13 appearances for The Horses that season, with his debut being a goalless draw at Aarhus GF on Mar. 20, 2008. He assisted on Tidiane Sane's winning goal during a 1-0 victory at Viborg FF on May 18, 2008. Randers FC finished sixth in the Superliga standings that season.

DUTCH EREDIVISIE

2007-08: Playing primarily with the Dutch giants PSV Eindhoven reserve side, Nguyen brought his spell in the Netherlands to an end when he joined Danish Superliga club Randers FC on the final day of the January transfer window (Jan. 31). 2006-07: With Ronald Koeman replacing Guus Hiddink as PSV manager that season, Nguyen saw limited first team minutes with the Eindhoven club, despite performing well in the PSV reserve side. His only first-team appearance that season came as a late substitute in the Johan Cruyff Shield XI (Dutch Super Cup), as the Dutch Eredivisie champions fell 3-1 to KNVB (Dutch) Cup holders Ajax at the Amsterdam ArenA on Aug. 13, 2006. 2005-06: After impressing PSV manager Hiddink with his performances for the United States at the 2005 FIFA U-20 World Cup in the Netherlands, Nguyen made the move to Europe when he joined the Eindhoven club that season. The PSV squad briefly included Whitecaps FC teammate Young-Pyo Lee before the South Korean international made the switch to English Premier League side Tottenham Hotspur FC in Aug. 2005. The midfielder's debut for PSV came as a substitute in the 1-0 away win over Heracles Almelo on Feb. 11, 2006. Nguyen replaced fellow United States international DaMarcus Beasley in the second half.

COLLEGE

2005: Nguyen had an outstanding freshman year in NCAA Division I at Indiana University. In 22 appearances, he ranked third with the Hoosiers and fourth in the Big Ten Conference with 21 points, while he led the team and the Big Ten Conference with 12 assists. For his efforts, the midfielder was named Freshman of the Year in the Big Ten Conference, as well as by Soccer America and Soccer Times. He was also the only freshman to make the All-Big Ten Conference First Team and was a unanimous selection to the All-Big Ten Conference Freshmen Team. His first goal and assist for the Hoosiers came in a 5-0 victory over California State University, Northridge, on Sept. 16. His five goals that season for Indiana included a strike during a 2-2 draw with Oregon State University on Sept. 17; the match-winner from the penalty spot during a 2-0 win at University of Michigan on Oct. 9; and the first goal from the penalty spot during a 5-2 victory at University of Wisconsin on Oct. 14. He also struck a 25-yard free kick for the match winner during a 3-0 away win over University of Notre Dame on Oct. 26. The Hoosiers finished runners-up in the 2005 Big Ten Conference Tournament before falling to Notre Dame in the second round of the NCAA Division I Championship Tournament. Following his first semester at Indiana, Nguyen left university to pursue his professional soccer career in The Netherlands.

INTERNATIONAL

Nguyen has represented the United States at youth and senior international levels. Senior: As a 20-year-old, the midfielder earned three senior international caps with the Americans in 2007. His senior international debut came as a late substitute for former PSV teammate Beasley during a 4-1 friendly win over China on June 2, 2007. Nguyen was then named in Bob Bradley's 22-player USA squad for the 2007 Copa America in Venezuela, where he made two substitute appearances in Group C at the South American championship. This included the 3-1 defeat to Paraguay on July 2, 2007, and the 1-0 defeat to Colombia on July 5, 2007. The Americans missed out on the quarterfinals. U-23: The midfielder/striker was one of 22 players to be named in the USA U-23 Olympic team by current Philadelphia Union head coach Peter Nowak for the 2008 Toulon International Tournament in Toulon, France. Playing in Group B, Nguyen appeared in the 3-2 defeat to Turkey on May 21, 2008; the 1-0 defeat to Côte d'Ivoire on May 23, 2008; and the 2-0 defeat to Italy on May 25, 2008. The USA missed out on the tournament semifinals. U-20: As an 18-year-old, the midfielder/striker was named in the USA's 21-player squad for the 2005 FIFA U-20 World Cup in the Netherlands by current Seattle Sounders FC head coach Sigi Schmid. He was a late substitute in the goalless draw with Germany on June 14, 2005, before starting the USA's 1-0 victory over Egypt on June 18, 2005. Despite winning Group D, Schmid's young squad went out at the 'Round of 16' stage following a 3-1 defeat to Italy on June 21, 2005. U-18: Before his freshman year at Indiana University, Nguyen was a member of the USA U-18 squad, having led the team with four goals in four matches at the Copa Chivas Youth Tournament in Guadaluajara, Mexico, in Jan. 2005. At the 2005 Milk Cup tournament in Northern Ireland, Nguyen started all three matches for Bob Jenkins' side, as the young Americans won the Elite Group tournament for the first time. His starts included a 1-1 draw with Brazil on Aug. 1, 2005; a 1-0 win over Serbia & Montenegro on Aug. 3, 2005; and a 4-2 win over hosts Northern Ireland in the Elite Group final on Aug. 5, 2005.

HIGH SCHOOL/AMATEUR

Nguyen had a distinguished career at Plano East Senior High School in Plano, Texas. In 2004, he was named Gatorade National High School Boys Soccer Player of the Year in the United States. He followed Whitecaps FC teammate Jordan Harvey in winning the accolade, with Harvey winning the award in 2001. As a senior with the Panthers, Nguyen was also a National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA)/adidas Youth Boys Region III All-American and a two-time PARADE Magazine All-American selection. He also developed as a player with Dallas Texans Soccer Club, having won state, Region III, and United States Youth Soccer national titles with the club. During his time with the Texans, the midfielder/striker also claimed Dallas Cup and Disney's Soccer Showcase tournament titles.

PERSONAL

A dual American/Vietnamese citizen, Nguyen is fluent in both English and Vietnamese. He was born in McKinney, Texas, and raised in Richardson, Texas. His parents are Michelle and Pham Nguyen, while he has a younger sister named Michelle. The midfielder/striker studied business at Indiana University.

INTERESTING FACTS

An outstanding student, Nguyen was a member of the National Honor Society in the United States. While not playing soccer, Nguyen enjoys playing golf, go-kart racing and paintballing. Throughout his career, he has volunteered his time to work with handicapped and underprivileged children, as well as spending time helping out at homeless shelters.

PROFILE

A left back with playing experience in the UEFA Champions League, Canadian-born Alain Rochat joined Whitecaps FC's Major League Soccer roster from Swiss club FC Zürich on Jan. 21, 2011. The native of Yverdon-les-Bains, Switzerland, initially signed with Vancouver in Aug. 2010 before spending the remainder of the year on loan at FC Zürich.

MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER

2011: Rochat was the first MLS recipient of the Jock MacDonald Unsung Hero Award following an impressive first season with Whitecaps FC. He was third in league appearances for the Blue and White, while leading all defenders, after starting all but one of his 28 MLS matches that year. Rochat split his time between left and centre back and also started the Apr. 10 match against Houston Dynamo as a holding midfielder. The experienced defender also started six matches wearing the captain's armband, which includes the international friendly against Manchester City. Starting at left fullback, Rochat made his MLS debut in the club's inaugural match on Mar. 19, as Whitecaps FC defeated Canadian rivals Toronto FC 4-2 at Empire Field. He then scored his first goal for Whitecaps FC during a 2-1 home defeat to FC Dallas on Apr. 23 before assisting on Mouloud Akloul's goal in extra time of Whitecaps FC's 1-1 home draw with Montreal Impact in the second leg of their Nutrilite Canadian Championship semifinal on May 4. The draw earned Whitecaps FC a 2-1 aggregate victory over Montreal in the two-match series. His second goal of the season was Whitecaps FC's match winner, as Vancouver ended a 14-match winless streak with a 1-0 victory at home to Philadelphia Union on June 18. In earning Whitecaps FC a 1-0 home win over Houston Dynamo on Aug. 27, Rochat earned a spot in the MLSsoccer.com Team of the Week for Week 24. He then assisted on Long Tan's first goal in MLS during Whitecaps FC's 2-1 home win over D.C. United on Oct. 12 before scoring Vancouver's final goal of the season in a 2-1 home defeat to Colorado Rapids on Oct. 22.

SWITZERLAND

2010-11: After signing with Whitecaps FC on Aug. 17, 2010, Rochat remained on loan with FC Zürich for the first half of their season. The defender started all 14 appearances during his loan spell with FC Zürich. This included three starts in the first three rounds of the Schweizer Cup that season. 2009-10: As Swiss champions, Rochat appeared with FC Zürich in the UEFA Champions League. He started both legs of the club's third qualifying round success over Slovenia's NK Maribor before helping FC Zürich to the group stage after a two-leg playoff win over Latvia's FK Ventspils in Aug. 2009. Playing in Group C, the centre back started all six matches, as FC Zürich finished bottom of a group that consisted of Spanish giants Real Madrid, Italian Serie A powerhouse AC Milan, and French club Olympique de Marseille. He also scored two goals in 32 appearances domestically, as FC Zürich finished a disappointing seventh in the Swiss Super League standings. Those goals came in a 3-2 home defeat to Young Boys on July 14, 2009, and in a 4-1 home win over AC Bellinzona on July 25, 2009. Rochat also started FC Zürich's second and third-round matches in the Schweizer Cup that season. 2008-09: Scoring four goals in 29 appearances during his third season with FC Zürich, the defender claimed his second Swiss Super League championship title with the club. His four league goals included match winners versus FC Luzern (July 23, 2008), Liechtenstein-based outfit FC Vaduz (Dec. 14, 2008) and strikes in both league contests versus arch-rivals Grasshopper Club Zürich (Aug. 10, 2008 & May 29, 2009). Rochat also started both games in FC Zürich's run to the Schweizer Cup quarterfinals that season, as well as the first leg of the club's UEFA Cup second qualifying round match-up versus Austria's SK Sturm Graz on Aug. 14, 2008. 2007-08: After making his move to FC Zürich permanent, the defender scored his first goal for the club, as they defeated FC Luzern 4-1 on July 26, 2007. Rochat went on to make 28 appearances in his second season with FC Zürich, as they finished third in the Swiss Super League. He also recorded an assist in FC Zürich's quarterfinal defeat to FC Thun in the Schweizer Cup (Swiss Cup) on Dec. 15, 2007. Rochat also appeared in European club competition that season, starting with both legs in the third qualifying round of the UEFA Champions League, as FC Zürich fell 3-1 on aggregate to Turkish club Beşiktaş J.K. in Aug. 2007. After failing to reach the UEFA Champions League group stages, FC Zürich took part in the UEFA Cup, with Rochat making eight appearances for the Swiss outfit, as they reached the Round of 32 before falling 3-1 on aggregate to German giants Hamburger SV. The defender scored FC Zürich's only goal during a 3-1 first-leg defeat at home to Hamburg on Feb. 14, 2008. 2006-07: After an unsuccessful spell in France with Stade Rennais Football Club, Rochat returned to his native Switzerland when he joined FC Zürich on a season-long loan.

The defender started 11 of his 17 appearances that season, as Rochat won the first of two Swiss Super League championship titles with the club. He also recorded an assist on Blerim Dzemaili's goal during a 2-0 win at FC Thun on Dec. 2, 2006. 2004-05: The centre back scored two goals in 33 appearances for Young Boys, who finished fourth in the Swiss Super League that year. One of those goals came in a 3-1 victory at FC Aarau on Aug. 21, 2004. 2003-04: With Nationalliga A changing its name to the Swiss Super League, and the elimination of the playoffs to determine the league champion, Rochat helped Young Boys to a runners-up finish after making 35 appearances for the club that season. 2002-03: Rochat scored two goals in 34 appearances for Young Boys, as the Bern outfit finished seventh in the regular season standings and fourth in the championship playoffs. 2001-02: Rochat split his time between Yverdon-Sport and Berner Sport Club (BSC) Young Boys during his third season. Rochat scored five goals in 21 appearances for Yverdon-Sport, as they finished just outside the promotion playoff places in Nationalliga B. The centre back then returned to Nationalliga A when he joined BSC Young Boys in Jan. 2002. He scored one goal in 13 appearances with the Bern-based club, as Young Boys finished seventh in the championship playoffs. 2000-01: The teenage Rochat made a more telling contribution in his second season at Yverdon-Sport, as the centre back scored two goals in 28 appearances. Unfortunately, Yverdon-Sport's tenth-place finish in Nationalliga A resulted in relegation to Switzerland's second-tier Nationalliga B. 1999-2000: Rochat made his professional debut with Yverdon-Sport FC in Switzerland's top-flight Nationalliga A. The defender made three appearances in his first season with the club, as Yverdon-Sport finished fifth in the regular season standings and bottom in the championship playoff standings.

FRENCH LIGUE 1

2006-07: Rochat started one match for Stade Rennais reserves in Group D of the fourth-tier Championnat de France Amateur (CFA) before returning to his native Switzerland when he joined FC Zürich on a season-long loan. 2005-06: Rochat made his first venture abroad in June 2005 when he joined Stade Rennais Football Club in France's top-flight Ligue 1. The defender started four of his nine appearances for the Brittany-based outfit, as Stade Rennais finished seventh in Ligue 1 that season. He also started one match in France's Coupe de la Ligue (League Cup) and made another start for the club in their final UEFA Cup Group G match, as Stade Rennais fell 5-1 away to Greek club PAOK Thessaloniki on Dec. 14, 2005.

INTERNATIONAL

Though born in Canada, Rochat has represented Switzerland at youth and senior international level. Senior: Rochat made his senior international debut on June 4, 2005, as Switzerland claimed a 3-1 away victory over Faroe Islands in Group Four of European qualifying for the 2006 FIFA World Cup in Germany. U-21: After making several appearances for Switzerland's U-16, U-18, and U-19 national teams, the defender became the youngest member of Switzerland's U-21 squad that hosted the UEFA European U-21 Championship tournament in 2002. Led by head coach Bernard Challandes, the Swiss finished runners-up in Group A before losing 2-0 to France in the semifinals on May 25, 2002. Two years later, Rochat played alongside Whitecaps FC teammate Davide Chiumento during his country's appearance at the 2004 UEFA European U-21 Championship in Germany. Switzerland finished bottom of Group B behind Sweden, Portugal, and hosts Germany.

YOUTH/AMATEUR

The centre back played youth soccer for FC Grandson-Tuileries in his native Switzerland before moving to Yverdon-Sport FC in 1995.

PERSONAL

A dual citizen of both Canada and Switzerland, Rochat was born in Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu, Quebec, and lived in nearby Sainte-Sabine, Quebec, before moving with his family to Switzerland when he was just two years of age. As a student, Rochat attended Centre professionnel du Nord Vaudois in Yverdon-les-Bains, Switzerland, as well as Écoles Primaire and Secondaire Grandson in nearby Grandson, Switzerland. His parents are Sylvie and Yvan Rochat, and he has two older sisters and one younger brother. The defender married his wife Emilie in July 2006 and has two children named Malicia and Nathéo.

INTERESTING FACTS

When not concentrating on his soccer career, Rochat enjoys reading, playing tennis and video games, and watching ice hockey. In fact, the defender is a big fan of the NHL's Montreal Canadiens. As a youngster, Rochat was a fan of Italian giants AC Milan, while he also enjoys watching the English Premier League. The defender is also an admirer of Bayern Munich and Germany striker Miroslav Klose, as well as Barcelona and Spain stars Xavi and Andres Iniesta.

Playing in their first-ever match in Major League Soccer, Vancouver Whitecaps FC defeated Canadian arch-rivals Toronto FC 4-2 in the first-ever meeting between two Canadian MLS clubs on Bell Pitch at Empire Field.

Designated Player Eric Hassli endeared himself to his new fans with two goals for the Blue and White, while Vancouver native Terry Dunfield and Expansion Draft pick Atiba Harris also found the scoresheet on another historic day for the 'Caps. Captain Dwayne De Rosario and Brazilian striker Maicon Santos replied for Toronto FC, but it was not enough to ruin Vancouver's special moment on the Pacific National Exhibition grounds in East Vancouver.

Playing their first-ever away match in Major League Soccer, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-1L-0D) suffered a 1-0 defeat at Eastern Conference club Philadelphia Union (2W-0L-0D) on Saturday afternoon.

Guatemalan international Carlos Ruiz's first goal for the Union gave Philadelphia their second-straight victory of the season, though Whitecaps FC will look to the sending off of striker Eric Hassli for a second bookable offence as the turning point at PPL Park in Chester, Pennsylvania. Forced to play with ten men for the last third of the game, Vancouver worked hard to try and claim an away point, but instead, fell to their first defeat as an MLS club.

In what was a thrilling six-goal contest on Bell Pitch at Empire Field, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-1L-1D) heroically came from three goals down to earn an improbable 3-3 home draw with Sporting Kansas City (1W-1L-1D).

Hopes that the Blue and White would take anything from this second home match of the season looked remote after two goals from Teal Bunbury and a second-half strike from Kei Kamara gave Sporting KC a seemingly commanding three-goal lead. However, Whitecaps FC found a way to earn a point in the final 17 minutes of the match, as a goal by Atiba Harris set up a grandstand finish for the 20,518 that were in attendance in East Vancouver. In time added on, Brazilian striker Camilo became the toast of 'Caps fans, as the Budweiser Man of the Match dramatically scored twice to secure an unlikely stalemate in front of a stunned and delighted home crowd.

In another eventful Major League Soccer encounter on Bell Pitch at Empire Field, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-1L-2D) were held to a 1-1 draw by New England Revolution (1W-0L-3D) on Wednesday evening.

Following the dramatic events of the weekend, 'Caps fans were treated to more drama in this midweek encounter in East Vancouver, as the Blue and White finished Wednesday's match with nine men after referee Baldomero Toledo sent off Gershon Koffie in the first half and substitute Eric Hassli for a second bookable offence following his celebration of a second-half penalty strike that gave Vancouver the lead. Though New England had defender A.J. Soares sent off in the second half as well, substitute Ilija Stolica struck in time added on at the end of the match.

Playing their second away match of the season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-2L-2D) suffered a 3-1 defeat to Eastern Conference club Houston Dynamo (1W-1L-2D) in Major League Soccer action on Sunday.

First-half goals by the Dynamo's Cam Weaver and Bobby Boswell set the Texas-based outfit on their way to their first win of the season, despite Camilo briefly drawing Whitecaps FC level before the break. Houston rookie Will Bruin sealed all three points for Dominic Kinnear's side with a late second-half strike at Robertson Stadium in Houston, Texas.

Playing their first all-Western Conference match-up, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-2L-3D) had to settle for a goalless draw with Chivas USA (0W-2L-3D). Despite creating numerous goalscoring chances, which included hitting the post twice in the first half, Whitecaps FC could not find a way past Chivas USA goalkeeper Dan Kennedy and their Southern California visitors in this weekend clash on the Pacific National Exhibition grounds. To their credit, winless Chivas USA gave as good as they got in their maiden visit to Vancouver, as they created some very good chances of their own, especially in the early stages of the second half in Vancouver's first-ever 0-0 result in MLS.

Completing a two-match home stand, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-3L-3D) suffered their first home defeat in Major League Soccer after a 2-1 loss to Western Conference rivals FC Dallas (2W-3L-1D) on Saturday afternoon.

Things looked promising for a second Whitecaps FC win on Bell Pitch at Empire Field after 'Budweiser Man of the Match' Alain Rochat gave the 'Caps a 1-0 halftime lead with his first goal of the season. However, George John's equalizer early in the second half for The Hoops set up substitute Eric Avila's game winning strike.

Playing the second match of a two-game road trip, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-4L-3D) suffered a 2-1 defeat at Eastern Conference club Columbus Crew (3W-1L-3D) in Major League Soccer action on Saturday evening.

Two second-half goals by Crew striker Emilio Renteria - the first coming from the penalty spot - extended Columbus' unbeaten streak in the league to six matches. Though it was a third straight MLS defeat on the road for the Blue and White, youngster Omar Salgado made the weekend contest interesting with a well-taken consolation strike on his first-ever start in MLS at Columbus Crew Stadium in Ohio. In fact, Whitecaps FC were unlucky not to take something from the game, as they created some excellent chances in the dying stages to earn at least a draw in the Ohio state capital.

Playing their fourth away match of the season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-4L-4D) claimed their first-ever point on the road in Major League Soccer after a hard-fought 0-0 draw at Eastern Conference club Chicago Fire (1W-3L-4D).

In a match that had plenty of quality scoring chances at Toyota Park in Bridgeview, Illinois, neither side had the finish needed to beat Whitecaps FC goalkeeper Jay Nolly, nor his Fire counterpart Jon Conway. Having lost their first three away matches in the league this season, the Blue and White will be more satisfied with this weekend result, as they weathered first-half pressure from hosts Chicago before creating some fine chances of their own after the break.

In their fifth away match of their inaugural Major League Soccer season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-5L-5D) fell to a disappointing 1-0 defeat at Eastern Conference side New England Revolution (3W-3L-4D) on Saturday evening.

An early second-half penalty from Revolution captain Shalrie Joseph earned New England all three points after match referee Chris Penso adjudged Wes Knight to have fouled Revolution midfielder Benny Feilhaber in the Vancouver box. It was a frustrating end to a solid road performance by Whitecaps FC, as a younger-looking Vancouver side gave their hosts a real battle on the turf at Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Massachusetts

Playing their final match in the month of May, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-5L-6D) were held to a 1-1 home draw by Eastern Conference club New York Red Bulls (4W-2L-6D) in Major League Soccer on Saturday afternoon.

In what was Vancouver's first league match in two weeks, a first-half penalty from Eric Hassli put Whitecaps FC in the lead on a beautiful sunny day on Bell Pitch at Empire Field. However, the 'Caps quest for a second league win was denied when English striker Luke Rodgers struck a first-half equalizer to earn the Red Bulls an away point in this first-ever meeting between the 'Caps and New York.

In their first game of a three-match road spell, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-5L-7D) had to settle for a 1-1 draw at Western Conference club Chivas USA (3W-4L-5D) in Major League Soccer on Wednesday evening.

In Tom Soehn's first match since becoming Whitecaps FC head coach this week, a fine second-half strike from Camilo cancelled out Nick LaBrocca's opening goal for Chivas USA at The Home Depot Center in Carson, California. Though they created several chances to earn their first away win in MLS, the Blue and White were, in some ways, happy to take a point from this return meeting with The Goats after striker Eric Hassli was sent off in the 66th minute.

Playing the second game of a three-match road spell, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-6L-7D) fell to a 2-0 defeat at Western Conference rivals Real Salt Lake (6W-2L-2D) in Major League Soccer on Saturday evening.

After earning a draw with 10 men at Chivas USA on Wednesday night, Whitecaps FC struggled to contain Real Salt Lake, who looked the better side throughout this weekend contest at Rio Tinto Stadium. Jason Kreis' side took all three points with a first-half goal from Jean Alexandre and a second-half strike from Fabian Espindola.

In their first Cascadia Cup match of the season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-6L-8D) claimed a memorable 2-2 away draw with Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC (5W-4L-7D) in a pulsating Interstate 5 derby clash on Saturday evening.

In what was the first Major League Soccer meeting between these two arch-rivals, Whitecaps FC earned a valuable away point in front of the second-largest crowd to attend an MLS match at Seattle's Qwest Field, as 36,502 witnessed Vancouver take a first-half lead before seeing three goals in the space of four highly-dramatic second-half minutes at the end of the match.

Striker Eric Hassli was the Whitecaps FC hero in The Emerald City, as the 'Budweiser Man of the Match' gave Vancouver the lead from the penalty spot in the first half. As the game entered the dying stages, Sounders FC turned things around in the last nine minutes with goals from Mauro Rosales and Osvaldo Alonso. Yet, just when another away defeat seemed to be on the cards for the 'Caps, Hassli produced a world-class finish to earn Vancouver a draw, with the equalizer sure to be a strong candidate for 'Goal of the Season' in MLS.

In their lone home match in the month of June, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (2W-6L-8D) claimed their second win in Major League Soccer after defeating Eastern Conference high-flyers Philadelphia Union (6W-4L-4D) 1-0 on Saturday evening.

Alain Rochat's fine strike early in the first half on Bell Pitch at Empire Field ended Vancouver's long wait for a second win in their inaugural MLS campaign, as victory in East Vancouver snapped a winless league run at 14 matches. Saturday's victory was also Tom Soehn's first since becoming Whitecaps FC head coach late last month. Defeat for Philadelphia ended the Union's unbeaten streak in MLS at four matches.

In the first of two Canadian derby clashes this week, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (2W-8L-8D) suffered a 1-0 away defeat to arch-rivals Toronto FC (3W-7L-9D) in Major League Soccer action on Wednesday evening.

An early second-half penalty from Nick Soolsma helped TFC end their winless run in MLS at nine matches and avenge a season-opening defeat to the 'Caps at Empire Field back on March 19. It was Toronto FC's first win over the Blue and White since the 2009 Nutrilite Canadian Championship (NCC) when The Reds defeated Vancouver 1-0 at BMO Field on May 9 of that year.

Playing their first league match in the month of July, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (2W-9L-8D) suffered a heartbreaking 0-1 home defeat to Eastern Conference high-flyers Columbus Crew (7W-5L-6D) in Major League Soccer on Wednesday evening.

A 90th-minute strike by substitute Jeff Cunningham earned Columbus a sweep of results against Whitecaps FC in 2011, with the Blue and White suffering their second league defeat on Bell Pitch at Empire Field this season. The loss also ended Vancouver's 100 per cent home record against teams from the state of Ohio (4W-0L-1D).

It was a devastating end to an eventful match that saw the home side perform well for much of the contest, but see events turn against them in the latter stages. Vancouver substitute Terry Dunfield missed a second-half penalty before the 'Caps were forced to play the last 13 minutes of the game with ten men after winger Shea Salinas was sent off for serious foul play.

Completing a busy week of action, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (2W-10L-9D) earned a hard-fought 2-2 away draw with Western Conference rivals San Jose Earthquakes (5W-6L-9D) in Major League Soccer on Wednesday evening.

In what was a thrilling midweek contest at Buck Shaw Stadium in Santa Clara, California, two goals by Eric Hassli cancelled out Chris Wondolowski's two goals for the Earthquakes to earn Vancouver a share of the spoils on the campus of Santa Clara University. Through it ended in stalemate, both sides provided great entertainment with their willingness to attack throughout the match.

The result ended Whitecaps FC's four-match losing streak in MLS, and a five-match losing streak in all competitions, though their quest to secure a first-ever away win in the league continues. San Jose's unbeaten run at Buck Shaw Stadium now extends to seven games.

Playing their final match in the month of July, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (2W-11L-9D) suffered a 0-4 defeat at home to Western Conference leaders LA Galaxy (12W-2L-9D) on Saturday afternoon.

After giving the best side in MLS a stern test for much of this weekend contest on Bell Pitch at Empire Field, the pedigree of the Galaxy proved telling in the end, as LA scored four goals in the game's final half-hour to earn their sixth away win of the season. Landon Donovan struck twice - the second coming from the penalty spot - before Sean Franklin and substitute Adam Cristman sealed LA's first league win on Canada's west coast and inflicted the worst defeat in MLS on the Blue and White. Saturday's result extended Vancouver's winless run in the league to six matches, while victory for the Galaxy extended their unbeaten run in MLS to 14 games (8W-0L-6D).

Playing their first match in the month of August, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (3W-11L-9D) bounced back from last weekend's disappointment to defeat Eastern Conference side Chicago Fire (2W-7L-13D) 4-2 in Major League Soccer on Sunday afternoon.

Two goals by 'Budweiser Man of the Match' Eric Hassli led Whitecaps FC to their third league win of the season on Bell Pitch at Empire Field, with Gershon Koffie and Camilo adding their names to the scoresheet in what was a fine home performance by the Blue and White. Though Dominic Oduro and substitute Orr Barouch replied for the Fire, victory for the 'Caps ended their winless run in MLS at six matches. Defeat for Chicago sees their winless run in the league extend to eight games. With two difficult road matches to come, Sunday's result will come as a timely boost for Whitecaps FC. The victory also confirmed Vancouver's first regular season series of results over an MLS opponent, with the 'Caps earning a win and a draw versus Chicago this season.

Making their first Major League Soccer visit to America's capital, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (3W-12L-9D) suffered a 4-0 away defeat to Eastern Conference side D.C. United (7W-6L-9D) on Saturday evening.

Two goals by Chris Pontius led United to just their third home win of the season, with Andy Najar and substitute Stephen King also getting on the scoresheet for D.C. Facing Whitecaps FC for the third time with a third different club this season, Canadian international Dwayne De Rosario led by example as United captain, as he recorded two assists in Saturday's match at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C.

It was a humbling setback for the Blue and White, who never recovered from United goals either side of halftime, as D.C. made the most of their potent counter-attack to seal all three points in the second half.

Playing their second Cascadia Cup match of their inaugural Major League Soccer season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (3W-13L-9D) went down to a 2-1 away defeat versus fellow MLS expansion cousins and Pacific Northwest rivals Portland Timbers (8W-12L-5D) on Saturday evening.

First-half goals by the Colombian pair of Diego Chara and Jorge Perlaza gave the Timbers victory in this first-ever MLS meeting between Portland and Vancouver at JELD-WEN Field in The City of Roses. Though Camilo replied with a late goal for the 'Caps, it proved not enough in the end, as Whitecaps FC suffered a stinging defeat to one of their arch-rivals.

Playing their final match in the month of August, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (4W-13L-9D) left it late to defeat Eastern Conference side Houston Dynamo (8W-8L-11D) 1-0 in Major League Soccer on Saturday afternoon.

A late strike by 'Budweiser Man of the Match' Shea Salinas gave Whitecaps FC a morale-boosting victory and ended Vancouver's two-match losing streak. It was the Blue and White's fourth league win on Bell Pitch at Empire Field this season and well merited from the home side, who had several excellent chances to make the breakthrough during the weekend contest. The win was also the perfect tonic for the 'Caps after disappointing away defeats to D.C. United and Portland Timbers, with Vancouver now able to head into an extended two-week break in fine spirits.

Playing their first match in the month of September, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (4W-13L-10D) had to settle for a 1-1 away draw with Eastern Conference club New York Red Bulls (6W-6L-15D) on Saturday evening.

A fine first-half performance by Whitecaps FC at Red Bull Arena in Harrison, New Jersey, saw 'Budweiser Man of the Match' Davide Chiumiento give the visitors a well-deserved halftime lead with an excellent strike. Although they played just over half the match with ten men following the sending off of Jan Gunnar Solli, the Red Bulls earned a point at home when substitute Juan Agudelo equalized midway through the second half.

It was a pulsating fixture between these two clubs, with chances and incidents occurring throughout the contest. Whitecaps FC, however, will feel disappointed to have only taken a point from Saturday's game after initially taking the lead and playing with an extra man in the second half.

Making their second Major League Soccer visit to Southern California, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (4W-14L-10D) suffered a 3-0 away defeat to top MLS club LA Galaxy (16W-3L-10D) on Saturday evening.

Two goals by Mike Magee sent the Galaxy to their 10th home win of 2011, with recent acquisition Robbie Keane also getting on the scoresheet for the runaway MLS Western Conference leaders. Though they created chances and had a couple of penalty appeals at The Home Depot Center in Carson, California, Whitecaps FC could not capitalize against a Galaxy side that bounced back from a midweek CONCACAF Champions League defeat to Monarcas Morelia in Mexico.

The loss in LA also ends Vancouver's unbeaten run in the league at two matches. The Galaxy, meanwhile, take their home record this season to an impressive 10W-0L-5D, with LA also extending their unbeaten run in MLS to five matches.

In their final match on Bell Pitch at Empire Field, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (4W-15L-10D) suffered a 3-1 home defeat to Pacific Northwest rivals Seattle Sounders FC (15W-6L-9D) in Major League Soccer on Saturday evening.

Though Camilo gave Whitecaps FC the lead midway through the first half, a Brad Evans penalty levelled matters for Seattle before halftime. Sounders FC secured the derby victory with two goals in the space of four second-half minutes from Colombian striker Fredy Montero to bring the Blue and White's second spell on the Pacific National Exhibition grounds to a disappointing conclusion.

Saturday's result not only ended Whitecaps FC's chances of winning this year's fan-based Cascadia Cup competition with Seattle and Portland Timbers, it also eliminated Vancouver from making the MLS Cup Playoffs in their expansion year. By contrast, victory for playoff-bound Seattle earned the Emerald City outfit their third Cascadia Cup title with the best record between themselves, Whitecaps FC, and the Timbers during the 2011 MLS regular season.

In their first match on Bell Pitch downtown at BC Place, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (4W-16L-10D) went down to a 1-0 defeat versus Pacific Northwest rivals Portland Timbers (11W-13L-7D) on Sunday afternoon.

A first-half strike by Portland's Kenny Cooper was the difference between the two MLS expansion clubs, with their second away victory of the season keeping the City of Roses outfit in the hunt for an MLS Cup Playoff spot in their inaugural year in the league. Though they had a good amount of possession, Whitecaps FC were unable to break down Portland's defensive rearguard and complete a memorable first day back in their newly refurbished home.

Playing their second Major League Soccer match in four days, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (5W-16L-10D) defeated Western Conference rivals Real Salt Lake (15W-11L-6D) 3-0 on Thursday evening.

In what was the Blue and White's biggest victory of their inaugural MLS campaign, two penalties by Camilo and a late strike by Nizar Khalfan earned Whitecaps FC their first MLS win on Bell Pitch downtown at BC Place in club history. It was a well-deserved fifth victory of the season for the 'Caps, as Salt Lake struggled to make inroads during the midweek contest, especially after RSL midfielder Collen Warner was sent off just before halftime.

In their third Major League Soccer match on Bell Pitch at BC Place, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (6W-16L-10D) defeated Eastern Conference side D.C. United (9W-11L-11D) 2-1 on Wednesday evening.

Goals by Camilo and Long Tan earned Whitecaps FC back-to-back victories for the first time in their inaugural MLS season. The win also took Whitecaps FC off the bottom of the overall MLS standings, as they leapfrogged New England Revolution to move up one place. Though Brandon McDonald pulled a goal back for United in the second half, playoff chasers D.C. United were unable to overturn the scoreline in their final away match of the season, as the visitors saw their MLS winless streak extend to three games.

Playing the final away match of their inaugural Major League Soccer season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (6W-17L-10D) suffered a 2-0 defeat at Western Conference rivals FC Dallas (15W-11L-7D) on Saturday evening.

Goals by Marvin Chavez and Brek Shea gave The Hoops their ninth win of 2011 at Pizza Hut Park, with defeat in Frisco, Texas, confirming Whitecaps FC will end their first season in MLS without a victory on the road (0W-12L-5D). The weekend loss also ended Vancouver's winning streak in the league at two matches, while victory for The Hoops keeps them in the hunt for one of the Western Conference's three playoff spots.

Playing the final match of their inaugural Major League Soccer season, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (6W-18L-10D) fell to a 2-1 home defeat versus Western Conference rivals Colorado Rapids (12W-9L-13D) on Saturday afternoon.

Despite taking an early second-half lead through Alain Rochat, Whitecaps FC suffered a second defeat on Bell Pitch at BC Place, as captain Jeff Larentowicz levelled matters for the Rapids before the visitors made it a second straight league win over the Blue and White with a late winner from Colorado substitute Wells Thompson. It was a disappointing way for the 'Caps to end a challenging first season in MLS, as the home side were unable to build on taking the lead shortly after the break.

Playing their first match in the 2011 Nutrilite Canadian Championship, Vancouver Whitecaps FC defeated North American Soccer League side Montreal Impact 1-0 in the first leg of their two-match semifinal series on Wednesday evening.

Terry Dunfield's second-half strike at Montreal's Stade Saputo gave the Blue and White a one-goal aggregate advantage, with the Whitecaps FC captain's marker serving as an invaluable away goal for next Wednesday's decisive second leg on Bell Pitch at Empire Field.

Vancouver's quality as a Major League Soccer club showed in the number of quality chances they created against their Quebec-based hosts, who were playing their final season as a North American second division club before joining MLS in 2012. It was the second victory of the season for Teitur Thordarson's squad and Vancouver's third-straight win over the Impact at Stade Saputo – going back to the 2010 season when the 'Caps played in the USSF D-2 Pro League.

Playing the decisive second leg of their 2011 Nutrilite Canadian Championship semifinal series, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-0L-1D) earned a dramatic 1-1 extra-time draw with Montreal Impact (0W-1L-1D) on Bell Pitch at Empire Field on Wednesday evening. With the result, Whitecaps FC won the two-match semifinal series 2-1 on aggregate.

Holding a one-goal aggregate lead after last week's first leg in Quebec, Whitecaps FC were forced into 30 minutes of extra time by their North American Soccer League (NASL) opponents after Ali Gerba struck a penalty late in the second half to make it 1-1 on aggregate, with both teams having scored an 'away goal' each in the series. With the semifinal in the balance, Whitecaps FC pulled off the heroics in the second period of extra time, as centre back Mouloud Akloul scored the decisive winner to take the Blue and White into the two-match championship final. The draw also extends Whitecaps FC's undefeated run in the Nutrilite Canadian Championship to nine matches (4W-0L-5D).

In the first leg of the 2011 Nutrilite Canadian Championship (NCC) final, Vancouver Whitecaps FC (1W-0L-2D) were held to a disappointing 1-1 home draw by Major League Soccer rivals Toronto FC (2W-0L-1D) on Wednesday evening.

Eric Hassli gave the 'Caps a deserved lead in a second half that the Blue and White dominated with several quality goalscoring chances on Bell Pitch at Empire Field. TFC, however, claimed a valuable away goal when Brazilian striker Maicon Santos scored again in Vancouver to earn The Reds an important away result ahead of next Wednesday's decisive second leg at Toronto's BMO Field. The draw extends Whitecaps FC's undefeated record in the NCC to 10 matches (4W-0L-6D) and their undefeated home record versus TFC to five games (2W-0L-3D).

The result leaves this two-match series in the balance, though TFC have the advantage in their quest to defend their Voyageurs Cup title with that all-important away goal. Whitecaps FC will need to negate Santos' first-leg strike by scoring at BMO Field next week.

In the fourth match of the 2011 Herbalife World Football Challenge, Major League Soccer's Vancouver Whitecaps FC suffered a 2-1 defeat on Bell Pitch at Empire Field to English Premier League (EPL) giants Manchester City FC in an international match on Monday evening.

In what was the third all-time meeting between Whitecaps FC and City, the home side took the lead through a first-half strike from Camilo. However, the Blue and White were unable to hold on to their advantage in the second half, as goals by youngster John Guidetti and 'Man of the Match' Shaun Wright-Phillips gave the EPL club their second win in three days on their North American preseason tour.

Monday's result was Manchester City's first friendly win in Vancouver, and at Empire Field (formally Empire Stadium), in five attempts - going all the way back to 1958. City's win also avenged two defeats to Whitecaps FC back in the North American Soccer League days of 1980 and 1981.

2012 MLS PLAYER RULES AND REGULATIONS

I. MLS ROSTER COMPOSITION

A Major League Soccer club's first team roster is comprised of up to 30 players. All 30 players are eligible for selection to each 18-player game-day squad during the regular season and playoffs.

SALARY & BUDGET:

- ▶ Players occupying roster spots 1-20 count against the club's 2012 salary budget of $2,810,000, and are referred to collectively as the club's Salary Budget Players.
  - ▶ Roster spots 19 and 20 are not required to be filled, and teams may spread their salary budget across only 18 Salary Budget Players. A minimum salary budget charge will be imputed against a team's salary budget for each unfilled senior roster slot below 18.
  - ▶ The maximum budget charge for a single player is $350,000.*
  - ▶ A Designated Player over the age of 23 counts as $350,000 against the club's salary budget, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $175,000.
  - ▶ A Designated Player 20 years old or younger** (referred to as Young Designated Players or Young DPs) counts as $150,000 against the club's salary budget
  - ▶ A Designated Player 21-23 years old** counts as $200,000 against the club's salary budget.
  - ▶ The budget charge for the midseason signing of a Young DP is $150,000 and this amount cannot be lowered with allocation funds.
  - ▶ Clubs will not have to buy the third DP roster slot to accommodate a Young Designated Player whereas clubs are normally required to buy that slot for a one-time fee of $250,000.
  - ▶ Clubs are responsible for all amounts above the budget charge for all Designated Players.
- ▶ Players occupying roster spots 21-30 do not count against the club's salary budget, and are referred to collectively as the club's Off-Budget Players (maximum of 10 per team).

- ▶ All Generation adidas players are Off-Budget players.
- ▶ Players occupying roster spots 1-24 will earn at least $44,000 in 2012.
- ▶ Players occupying roster spots 25-30 will earn at least $33,750 in 2012.
- ▶ Clubs may elect to leave up to two of these roster spots (25-30) vacant and use $35,000 for each empty spot as allocation money.
- ▶ Clubs may sign up to two Homegrown Players contracts above the minimum salary and similar to Generation adidas player contract amounts.

AGE DESIGNATIONS:

- ▶ Any player making $33,750 must be under the age 25 (does not turn 25 or older in 2012).

DOMESTIC/INTERNATIONAL:

- ▶ In 2012, a total of 152 international slots are divided among the 19 clubs. Each club began with eight international slots, which are tradable. There is no limit on the number of international slots on each club's roster.
  - ▶ The remaining roster slots must belong to domestic players. For clubs based in the United States, a domestic player is either a U.S. citizen, a permanent resident (green card holder) or the holder of other special status (e.g., refugee or asylum status).
- ▶ The three MLS clubs based in Canada – Montreal Impact, Toronto FC and Vancouver Whitecaps FC – began with eight international slots, but their domestic slots may be filled with either Canadian or U.S. domestic players.
  - ▶ MLS clubs based in Canada are required to have a minimum of three Canadian domestic players on their rosters.
  - ▶ Players with the legal right to work in Canada are considered Canadian domestic players (i.e., Canadian citizen, permanent resident, part of a protected class).

NOTE: The terms Homegrown and Generation adidas are used to describe mechanisms by which players are acquired. They are not roster designations. All players' roster slots are determined by their compensation and/or age as outlined above.

II. PLAYER ACQUISITION MECHANISMS

MLS teams may acquire players and add them to their rosters via the following mechanisms:

(A) ALLOCATION RANKING

The allocation ranking is the mechanism used to determine which MLS club has first priority to acquire a U.S. National Team player who signs with MLS after playing abroad, or a former MLS player who returns to the League after having gone to a club abroad for a transfer fee. The allocation rankings may also be used in the event two or more clubs file a request for the same player on the same day when the discovery period opens in December. The allocations will be ranked in reverse order of finish for the 2011 season, taking playoff performance into account.

Once the club uses its allocation ranking to acquire a player, it drops to the bottom of the list. A ranking can be traded, provided that part of the compensation received in return is the other club's ranking. At all times, each club is assigned one ranking. The rankings reset at the end of each MLS League season.

ALLOCATION MONEY

Allocation money is a resource available to clubs in addition to their respective salary budgets.

A club may receive allocation money for:

- (1) failure to qualify for the MLS Cup Playoffs;
- (2) the transfer of a player to a club outside of MLS for value;
- (3) expansion status;
- (4) qualification for the CONCACAF Champions League;
- (5) trading in up to two Off-Budget roster spots;
- (6) funds from purchased third designated player roster spots.

Each year the MLS Competition Committee determines the allocation amount to be made available to each club. Allocation money can be traded by clubs. Allocation money does not count against a club's salary budget and can be used:

- ▶ To sign players new to MLS (that is, a player who did not play in MLS during the previous season).
- ▶ To re-sign an existing MLS player, subject to League approval.
- ▶ To "buy-down" a player's salary budget charge below the League maximum of $350,000.

- ▶ In connection with the exercise of an option to purchase a player's rights or the extension of a player's contract for the second year provided the player was new to MLS in the immediately prior year.

NOTE: To protect the interests of MLS and its clubs during discussions with prospective players or clubs in other leagues, amounts of allocation money held by each club will not be shared publicly.

(B) DESIGNATED PLAYER

The Designated Player Rule allows clubs to acquire up to three players whose salaries exceed their budget charges, with the club bearing financial responsibility for the amount of compensation above each player's budget charge. Designated Player slots may be used to acquire players new to MLS or to retain current MLS players, subject to League approval.

In 2012, a Designated Player over the age of 23** will carry a salary budget charge of $350,000, unless the player joins his club in the middle of the season, in which case his budget charge will be $175,000.

A Designated Player 20 years old or younger** counts as $150,000 against the club's salary budget and a Designated Player 21-23 years old counts as $200,000 against the club's salary budget.

Clubs have the option of "buying down" the budget charge of a Designated Player with allocation money. The reduced charge may not be less than $150,000.

The budget charge for the mid-season signing of a young Designated Player (23 years old and younger) is $150,000 and this amount cannot be lowered with allocation funds.

Each club has two Designated Player slots and clubs are allowed to "purchase" a third Designated Player slot for a one-time fee of $250,000 that will be dispersed in the form of allocation money to all clubs that do not have three Designated Players. Clubs will not have to buy the third DP roster slot to accommodate Designated Players 23 years old and younger.

Designated Player slots are not tradable.

* See section entitled Allocation Money below, under Player Acquisition Mechanisms, for details on buying down a player's budget charge.

** Age of player is determined by year (not date) of birth.

** Age of player is determined by year (not date) of birth.

(C) SUPERDRAFT

The 2012 MLS SuperDraft, held Jan. 12 in Kansas City, Mo., consisted of two rounds of 19 picks for a total of 38 player selections. A supplemental draft was held Jan. 17 via teleconference and consisted of four rounds of 19 picks.

The majority of draft prospects are NCAA college seniors who have exhausted their college eligibility. Generation adidas players and non-collegiate international players are also eligible for selection in the SuperDraft and supplemental draft. Clubs may nominate players for the League's draft-eligible list, and only players from that list may be selected.

Generation adidas is a joint program between MLS and adidas that is dedicated to developing exceptional domestic talent in a professional environment. Each year, a handful of top domestic underclassmen and youth national team players are signed to the league and placed in the SuperDraft through this program. Generation adidas players also receive an educational stipend.

Draft Order: The Montreal Impact held the first overall selection in the 2012 MLS SuperDraft as expansion clubs are always given the top spot in the SuperDraft and the Supplemental Draft. The next eight selections went to clubs that did not qualify for the 2011 MLS Cup Playoffs beginning with the club with fewest regular season points (3 points per win, one point per tie). The remaining ten positions were ranked by fewest regular season points among the teams that were eliminated in the same round of the MLS Cup Playoffs.

Unless claimed on waivers, a player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign with the League, is placed on that team's "College Protected List" until the second December 31 following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to the player.

(D) TRADES

Players, SuperDraft and Supplemental draft picks, allocation money, allocation rankings, and international player slots may all be exchanged in trades approved by the MLS League Office, provided all of the necessary rules regarding roster and salary budget compliance are met and the trade is completed during a valid trading period. No trades may occur after the Roster Freeze Deadline of September 15, 2012 at 5 p.m. ET.

(E) DISCOVERY SIGNINGS

Clubs may make discovery claims on players not yet under MLS contract who are not subject to the allocation ranking or lottery mechanisms.

Each club has the opportunity to make six discovery signings per season (expansion teams may make 10 discovery signings in their inaugural season). A club may have up to 10 discovery claims on unsigned players at any time and may remove or add players at any time. The last day for discovery player signings is September 15, 2012 – coinciding with the roster freeze date and trade deadline.

The six discovery signings can be used to fill senior roster spots only. If multiple clubs claim the same player using a discovery, the club that filed the claim first will have first rights to the player. Discovery claims expire following each season. If the League and player are unable to reach an agreement during the season, the club that first filed the discovery retains the right of first refusal in the event the player is later signed by the League.

Note: To protect interests of MLS clubs in scouting and negotiations with prospective players, the League office will not publicize the names of players on club discovery lists, nor specify if a discovery claim has been filed on a particular player.

(F) HOMEGROWN PLAYER SIGNINGS

A club may sign a player to his first professional contract without subjecting him to the MLS SuperDraft if the player has trained for at least one year in the club's youth development program and has met the League's Homegrown Player criteria. Players joining MLS through this mechanism are known as Homegrown Players.

There is no limit to the number of Homegrown Players a club may sign in a given year.

(G) RE-ENTRY PROCESS

The 2012 Re-Entry Process will commence after MLS Cup. The priority order for the Re-Entry Draft is reverse order of finish in 2012, taking into account playoff performance.

Available to all teams in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry draft will be:

1. Players who are at least 23 years old and have a minimum of three years experience in MLS whose options were not exercised by their clubs (available at option salary for 2013).
2. Players who are at least 25 years old with a minimum of four years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them at their previous salary (available for at least their 2012 salary).
3. Players who are at least 30 years old with a minimum of eight years of MLS experience who are out of contract and whose club does not wish to re-sign them (available for at least 105% of their 2012 salary).

Players who are not selected in Stage 1 of the Re-Entry Draft will be made available in Stage 2. Clubs selecting players in Stage 2 will negotiate a new salary with the player.

Players who remain unselected after Stage 2 will be available to any MLS club on a first come, first serve basis.

(H) WAIVERS

A team may place a player on waivers at any time during the regular season at which point he is made available to all other teams. The waiver claiming period shall commence on the first business day after the League delivers notice to teams and shall expire at 5 p.m. EST on the second business day after the Waiver Period Commencement Date. The claiming period is 48 hours.

The Waiver Draft order is determined via points per game once all teams have played at least three MLS League games. If the waiver takes place prior to all teams playing in at least three League games, priority shall be granted based upon the prior year's performance, taking playoff performance first, with teams eliminated from playoff contention at the same stage separated according to their point totals through the end of the regular season. New expansion teams shall be at the bottom of the waiver order.

Once a team selects a player off waivers, that club is automatically moved to the bottom of the priority list for subsequent waiver selections in a given season, regardless of its points-per-game total. Players who may be placed on the MLS waiver wire are as follows:

- (i) A player waived by an MLS team in the current season;
- (ii) A player who completed his college eligibility within the past season, who was not made available in the SuperDraft or Supplemental Draft;
- (iii) A player who has remaining college eligibility (and was not made available in the SuperDraft or Supplemental Draft), but the League at its discretion and after taking into account exceptional circumstances determines the player may be offered an MLS contract;
- (iv) A player who has played in MLS previously where his last MLS team does not wish to exercise their right of first refusal, except in the case of returning U.S. National Team players as stated above.
- (v) A player who was drafted in the SuperDraft or supplemental draft, and who after a trial with the club is not offered a contract by the first Monday of June.

(I) LOTTERY

Some players shall be assigned to MLS teams via the weighted Lottery process. Any team assigned a player through the lottery in any particular season shall not be assigned another lottery player that season unless and until all teams have received a lottery player or have agreed to waive their option to participate in a Lottery. The players made available through lotteries include:

- (i) Generation adidas players signed after the MLS SuperDraft;
- (ii) Draft eligible players to whom an MLS contract was offered but who failed to sign with the League prior to the Draft.

The weighted lottery takes into consideration each team's performance over its last 34 regular season games and the most recent postseason. The team with the worst record over its last 34 regular season games (dating back to previous season if necessary and taking playoff performance into account) will have the greatest probability of winning the lottery. Teams are not required to participate in a lottery. Players are assigned via the lottery system in order to prevent a player from potentially influencing his destination club with a strategic holdout.

(J) EXTREME HARDSHIP CALL-UPS

Teams may add players to their roster in cases of “extreme hardship” as follows: (1) a club with three goalkeepers on its 30-man roster, but has less than two available goalkeepers or (2) a team has less than 15 available players. Extreme hardship call-ups are made on a game-by-game basis.

(K) SEASON-ENDING INJURY REPLACEMENTS (SEASON ENDING INJURY LIST)

A team with a player lost to a season-ending injury can place the player on the Season Ending Injury List and replace that player on its roster, while remaining responsible for the full amount of the injured player’s salary. A player can be placed on the season-ending injury list once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). International player limits still apply at the time a season-ending replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

(L) SHORT-TERM INJURY REPLACEMENTS (DISABLED LIST)

A player who has a short-term injury can be placed on the Disabled List once another player has been signed as a replacement (provided the team has budget space). The team will remain responsible for the full amount of the injured player’s salary on the salary budget. Note: the injured player will have to sit out a minimum of six MLS League matches before he can rejoin the team’s roster.

International player limits still apply at the time a short-term replacement is made (with the player being replaced not counting against those limits).

NOTE: No changes may be made to a team’s active full roster during the period beginning on September 16, 2012 (day after Roster Freeze Date) through the day after MLS Cup. Nevertheless, a team may obtain players in accordance with the extreme hardship rules and procedures to replace players who are injured or otherwise legitimately unavailable after the Roster Freeze Date. Any other replacements after the Roster Freeze Date may only be made in exceptional circumstances in the League’s sole and absolute discretion.

(III.) METHODS OF RELEASING PLAYERS*(A) WAIVERS

Teams may waive players based on performance at any time during the MLS season. Players with guaranteed contracts will continue to have their salary budget charge applied to the team salary budget, subject to any settlement. Players on semi-guaranteed contracts can be waived prior to July 1 of any year and free up the corresponding budget space. If a player on a semi-guaranteed contract is waived after July 1, his salary budget charge will count against the team’s salary budget and the team waiving the player will not receive a replacement except under the normal player acquisition mechanisms. Any settlement amount will be charged to the team’s salary budget.

(B) TRANSFERS AND LOANS

An MLS player may be transferred or loaned at any time to a team outside the League (subject to that team’s Federation’s transfer window), subject to the consent of the player.

The registration windows – the dates between which MLS may request the transfer certificate of a player under contract in another country – are as follows:

January 21 – April 15 (Primary Window)

June 27 – July 27 (Secondary Window)

(C) CONTRACT EXPIRATION

When a player’s contract expires, the player does not count against the roster or budget of the team in question. Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the rights to the player indefinitely following the expiration of a contract only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

(D) BUYOUT OF GUARANTEED CONTRACT

Teams may have the ability to buyout one guaranteed player as follows:

- ▶ A Team may buy out one (1) guaranteed player (including a DP’s) contract during the off-season and free up the corresponding budget space. Such a buyout is at the particular MLS Team’s own expense.
- ▶ A Team may not free up budget space with a buyout of a player’s salary budget charge during the season. Such a buyout will be conducted by the League and count on a Club’s budget in a manner consistent with current MLS guidelines.

(IV.) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Right of first refusal grants one MLS club the first opportunity to add a player to its roster in the event that the player signs with MLS. Holding a right of first refusal applies only within MLS and does not indicate holding of the player’s International Transfer Certificate.

OUT OF CONTRACT PLAYERS / OPTIONS NOT PICKED UP

Subject to the Re-Entry Draft rules, a team retains the right of first refusal to the player indefinitely only if attempts were made to re-sign the player.

DRAFTED BUT NOT SIGNED

A player who was drafted by a particular team through the SuperDraft or supplemental draft and did not sign, or who as of the first Monday in June is not offered a contract after a trial and clears waivers, is placed on that team’s “College Protected List” until the second December 31 immediately following the draft in question, after which the team loses the rights to sign the player.

PLAYER TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE MLS

If a team receives allocation money as a result of a player’s transfer, the team does not retain a right of first refusal.

2012 MLS RULES OF COMPETITION

STRUCTURE

The 19 MLS teams are divided into two conferences:

Eastern Conference – Chicago Fire, Columbus Crew, D.C. United, Houston Dynamo, Sporting Kansas City, Montreal Impact, New England Revolution, New York Red Bulls, Philadelphia Union, Toronto FC.

Western Conference – Chivas USA, Colorado Rapids, FC Dallas, LA Galaxy, Portland Timbers, Real Salt Lake, San Jose Earthquakes, Seattle Sounders FC, Vancouver Whitecaps FC.

SCHEDULE

Each team plays a 34-game regular season schedule; 17 home games, 17 away games.

WESTERN CONFERENCE

24 in-conference + 10 out-of-conference games:

- ▶ Western Conference teams will play each West opponent three times (24 games):
  - ▶ West teams will play four conference opponents twice at home and once away
  - ▶ They will play the other four conference opponents once at home and twice away.
  - ▶ The home and away games will be reversed in 2013.
- ▶ Western Conference teams will play each East opponent once each (10 games):
  - ▶ Five of these will be at home and five will be away.
  - ▶ The East opponents each team faces at home and away will be reversed in 2013.

EASTERN CONFERENCE

25 in-conference + 9 out-of-conference games:

- ▶ Eastern Conference teams will play 25 games against other East teams:
  - ▶ East teams will play seven conference opponents three times each (21 games) and
  - ▶ Two conference opponents twice each (four games).
- ▶ Eastern Conference teams will play each West opponent once each (9 games):
  - ▶ Some will play four at home and five away while others will play five at home and four away.

The West opponents each team faces at home and away will be reversed in 2013.

POINT SYSTEM

Teams will receive three points for a win, one point for a tie and zero points for a loss.

REFEREES

All referees in MLS are either USSF (United States Soccer Federation) or CSA (Canadian Soccer Association) National Referees. All MLS games played in the US will be assigned by USSF and all games played in Canada will be assigned by CSA.

GAME CLOCK

The official game time for all Major League Soccer games will be managed on the field by the referee. If necessary, the referee may also allot extra time (a.k.a. "stoppage time") at the end of each period (first half, second half, and if applicable, first overtime period and second overtime period during playoff matches) to allow for injuries, time-wasting or other disturbances.

The stadium clock will display the time from 0:00 to 45:00 and from 45:00 to 90:00 (plus stoppage time where applicable in each half). For statistical purposes, the minutes for goals, substitutions, yellow cards, etc., will be listed from the first minute until the 90th minute. A goal scored at 15 minutes 10 seconds will be listed as having been scored in the 16th minute. Events occurring during stoppage time will follow the international norm by being demarcated with a "+" sign and the extra minutes. For example, a goal scored three minutes into first half stoppage time will be officially identified as happening at "48+."

GAME DAY ROSTERS

Each team can nominate 18 players for a game day roster. Teams are allowed three substitutions per game.

CAUTIONS AND SUSPENSIONS

A player will be suspended for one game upon receiving his fifth yellow card – regardless of the nature of the infraction that resulted in his being awarded a yellow card. A second suspension of one game would result after the awarding of an additional three cards, as would a third suspension after the awarding of card number eleven. With the "Good Behavior" incentive, it is possible for a player to have a caution expunged. If a player goes three games without receiving a yellow card, after an initial warning, the player will have one yellow card expunged. A player may take advantage of the "Good Behavior" incentive only once throughout the season.

MLS CUP PLAYOFFS

FORMAT

WHO QUALIFIES: Ten teams, the top five in points from each conference at the end of the regular season, qualify for the 2012 MLS Cup Playoffs.

The fourth and fifth place teams in each conference will play a single knockout game, the winner of which will advance to the Conference Semifinals and face the first place team in the conference.

The four Conference Semifinals will be decided by two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. If the aggregate score is tied after 180 minutes of play, two 15-minute extra time periods will be played in their entirety, followed by penalty kicks, if necessary.

The two Conference Championships will be decided by a two-game aggregate series, with the lower seed hosting the first leg and the higher seed hosting the second leg. If the aggregate score is tied after 180 minutes of play, two 15-minute extra time periods will be played in their entirety, followed by penalty kicks, if necessary.

MLS Cup will be a single championship match hosted by the higher seed. If the score is tied after 90 minutes of play, two 15-minute extra time periods will be played in their entirety, followed by penalty kicks, if necessary.

TEAM-STANDINGS TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

The team awarded the highest position in the MLS standings will be the team with the greatest number of points (three points for a win, one point for a tie, zero points for a loss). In the event that two teams finish the regular season with an equal number of points, the following system will be used to break the tie:

- 1) The highest position shall be awarded to the team with the better win/loss record in current regular season games against all other teams equal in points. (head-to-head competition)
- 2) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position shall be awarded to the team with the greater goal difference against all other teams during the regular season. (goal differential)
- 3) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position shall be awarded to the team scoring the greatest number of total goals against all other teams during the regular season. (total goals)
- 4) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the procedures described in this section shall be applied only to games played on the road by each team against all other teams during the regular season. (road 1-3)
- 5) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the procedures described in this section shall be applied only to games played at home by each team against all other teams during the regular season. (home 1-3)
- 6) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position shall be awarded to the team with the fewest team disciplinary points in the League Fair Play table during the regular season.
- 7) If the teams are still equal in the standings, the highest position in the standings shall be determined by the toss of a coin.
- 8) The first tiebreaker in a three-way tie is also head-to-head, but it is determined via points-per-game versus the other two teams. If two teams are tied in points-per-game head-to-head, the next tie breaker is goal difference.

NOTE: If two teams remain tied after another teams with the same number of points advances during any step, the tie breaker reverts to step 1 of the two-team format.

MLS DIGITAL MEDIA POLICIES

AS OF DEC. 15, 2011

The Digital Media Policy applies without exception to online activities by all media organizations and other entities and individuals that have been granted working media credentials or photo credentials (each, a "Media Member") in order to cover Major League Soccer games (where at least one MLS team participates) and associated events (each, a "MLS Game"). From time-to-time, MLS may (in its sole discretion) designate certain non-MLS Game events to be excluded from these MLS Digital Media Policies.

NO MEDIA MEMBER MAY USE VIDEO, PHOTOGRAPHS OR LIVE BLOGS (AS DEFINED BELOW) OF MLS GAMES FOR COMMERCIAL PURPOSES WITHOUT THE EXPRESS WRITTEN CONSENT OF MAJOR LEAGUE SOCCER, L.L.C. ("MLS").

VIDEO AND AUDIO CONTENT

GAME

No Media member may post, transmit or otherwise exhibit game video, other than through MLS QuickKicks, without the express written permission of MLS.

NON-GAME

In accordance with the following usage restrictions and conditions, a Media Member may post, transmit or exhibit a reasonable number of non-game video and audio content, including but not limited to practices, interviews with MLS employees, including players, and press conferences.

USAGE RESTRICTIONS FOR GAME AND NON-GAME AUDIO AND VIDEO CONTENT

- ▶ Such video or audio content may not be archived for more than 72 hours without team or League approval.
- ▶ The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to MLSsoccer.com, FutbolMLS.com and the corresponding team site. For example: For more info, go to www.MLSsoccer.com and www.(teamname).com.
- ▶ No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be related in any way to the MLS video /audio content.

PHOTOGRAPHS

A Media Member may post a reasonable number, as determined by MLS, of photographs each day on its Website. Any photograph posted on a Media Member's Website or otherwise transmitted online may be used only for editorial coverage of the MLS Game and not for any commercial, advertising or promotional purpose.

WRITTEN CONTENT

Online reports concerning MLS Games while they are in progress ("Live Blogs") are subject to following conditions:

- ▶ Live Blogs must contain original commentary so as not to undercut the authorized Match Tracker at MLSsoccer.com.
- ▶ Live Blogs must provide television and radio broadcast information for that MLS Game. For example: "Tonight's MLS Game is being broadcast live on (name of television/radio station)."
- ▶ Live Blogs may not use any audio, video or graphic simulations of MLS Game action. A Media Member may post a reasonable number of photographs together with the Live Blog.

COPYRIGHT

Any and all copyrights, trademarks and other proprietary interests in and to MLS Games, MLS and each of its teams, and accounts and descriptions of each MLS Game shall remain vested solely with Major League Soccer, L.L.C. (or its designated licensees).

COMPLIANCE

MLS reserves the right to take action against any Media Member who does not comply with this policy, including without limitation, revoking such Media Member's credentials.

AMENDMENTS TO THE NEW MEDIA POLICY

MLS may amend this MLS Digital Media Policy at anytime in its sole and absolute discretion.
