About Kino Sports Complex

Kino Sports Complex, which covers 155 acres at 2500 E. Ajo Way, is the largest professional sports and entertainment venue of its kind in Pima County. With a panoramic view of the Santa Catalina Mountains, it is a natural fit for youth, high school and collegiate, semi-pro, and professional grass sports and makes a great setting for social gatherings, concerts, and community events.

The Complex north of Ajo Way primarily is dedicated to soccer and long field activities with a lighted 2,000-seat North Grandstand field, four more soccer fields, and a 3,000-seat stadium (North Stadium).

Where It All Began

TUC enters the match unbeaten in its last six home matches. The streak began on Saturday, May 18th, when the club defeated Chattanooga Red Wolves SC, 4-0.

First of Many

Tucson-native Erik Virgen recorded his first goal of the season in the 69th minute against OCB last Saturday. He became the first FC Tucson Youth product to record a goal for the professional side.

Home Field Advantage

In the last six home matches, TUC has scored 12 goals while conceding just four. During that span, three TUC players scored two or more goals (Jordan Jones, Devyn Jambga, and Kyle Venter).
