HEAD COACH | GÜNTER KRONSTEINER

Hometown: Hieflau, Austria

Günter Kronsteiner came to the Strikers on July 17th, 2013 as head coach and sports director for the team. Under Coach Kronsteiner, the Strikers finished with a 5-3-6 record in the Fall 2013 Season.

Prior to joining Kronsteiner's professional career as a player began in 1978 in Austria with Donawitzer SV Leoben. He later played with FC Wacker Innsbruck, where he won two titles with the team in the Austrian Bundesliga and participated in the UEFA Cup. He then went on to play with FC Salzburg, LASK Linz and finally with Rapid Linz where he began his coaching career as a player/coach in 1984.

Aside from his coaching experience, Kronsteiner has also worked as sports director for several organizations including FC Casino Salzburg, which reached the finals of the UEFA Cup in 1994.

As the sports director for Austria Vienna, Kronsteiner oversaw Joachim Löw, before Löw was hired by Jürgen Klinsmann to be his assistant coach of the German National Team in 2004. Kronsteiner then took over Austria Vienna as the head coach and led the team to the Quarterfinals of the UEFA Cup in 2005.

1 OKA NIKOLOV

Position: Goalkeeper
Date of Birth: 05-25-1974
Age: 39
Country: Germany
Weight: 189.2 lbs
Height: 6.2'

2014: German Bundesliga veteran Oka Nikolov signed with the Strikers on January 28, 2014 for the 2014 NASL Spring Season. He brings to the club nearly 20 years of professional experience with Eintracht Frankfurt in Germany.

Professional: He spent nineteen seasons with German giants Eintracht Frankfurt, appearing in 413 official games over the course of 13 Bundesliga seasons (19 overall).

After leaving the Bundesliga, Nikolov signed with Philadelphia Union of Major League Soccer in 2013, fulfilling his lifelong dream to play in the United States.

International: Nikolov chose to represent Macedonia, the country of his ancestors, instead of Germany at the international level. He was unable to acquire a Macedonian passport because he possessed German nationality, and was therefore unable to appear in any official matches under FIFA ruling. He made five appearances for Macedonia, all in friendlies.

2 STEFAN ANTONIJEVIC

Position: Defender
Number: 2
Date of Birth: January 24, 1989 (age 25)
Height: 6'6" Weight: 195lbs
Hometown: Buffalo Grove, IL
College: Valparaiso

2014: Antonijevic re-signed with the Strikers for the 2014 season on February 14, 2014.

2013: On March 25, 2013 Stefan Antonijevic put pen to paper on his first professional contract with the Strikers.

Antonijevic made his professional debut for the Strikers in the 1-0 win against FC Edmonton on May 26th, partnering Justin Chavez in center defense. He and Chavez were named to the NASL Team of the Week for their performances in the shutout win in Edmonton.

Under head coach Günter Kronsteiner, Antonijevic became a regular starter, partnering Rafael Alves in defense. Antonijevic started and played 90 minutes in the 2-1 win against San Antonio Scorpions on August 17th, before starting the remaining 11 matches in the Fall season.

Antonijevic finished 2013 with 14 starts in 15 matches. He helped keep four shutouts and picked up just a single yellow card.

Professional: Antonijevic was selected by Sporting Kansas City as the 43rd overall pick in the 2012 Supplemental Draft. He spent time with Sporting KC and Chicago Fire in preseason, but did not sign a pro contract with either MLS franchise.

Had training stints with Spartak Zlatibor Voda in the Serbian first division and HNK Rijeka in Croatia.

College: Played college ball at Valparaiso University. As a defender Antonijevic recorded eight goals and three assists in 59 appearances over three seasons for the Crusaders.

He was named the Horizon League Defensive Player of the Year in 2011, earned Second Team All-Horizon League two years in a row, and was a First Team All-League honoree and NSCAA All-Great Lakes Region First Team selection in 2011.

Amateur: Played PDL for Chicago Fire Premier. In 2009 Antonijevic won the USASA U23 National Cup Championship and USASA Region III U23 Men's Cup with Carolina RailHawks U23.

International: Antonijevic has been capped by Serbia at the U-19 level.

Personal: Antonijevic is a dual citizen of USA and Serbia. His father Zelimir Antonijevic played professional soccer in Yugoslavia, and his younger brother currently plays collegiate volleyball at Pepperdine.

3 MITCHELL LOPEZ

Position: Midfielder

Number: 3

Date of Birth: July 17, 1993 (age 20)

Height: 6'1" Weight: 180lbs

Hometown: São Vicente, Brazil

Previous Club: Club Atlético Penarol

2014: 20-year old Mitchell Lopez signed with the Fort Lauderdale Strikers on March 28, 2014. Lopez was discovered by the Strikers at an open tryout in February and earned a contract after impressing the coaching staff during preseason.

Professional: Played for Club Atlético Peñarol.

Personal: Mitchell wears his first name on his jersey. He was born in Opa-locka, Fla. and grew up in Brazil, Uruguay and South Florida.

5 MATT HALL

Position: Defender

Number: 5

Date of Birth: July 27, 1987 (Age 26)

Height: 5'7" Weight: 169 lbs

Hometown: Virginia Beach, VA

Previous Club: LA Blues

2014: The Strikers announced the signing of Matt Hall on March 12, 2014.

Professional: Hall signed his first professional contract in 2012 with the L.A. Blues of USL Pro (the third division of professional soccer in the United States). He made 33 appearances in two seasons.

Amateur: While in college, Hall played for Hampton Roads Piranhas in the PDL and later with Arizona Sahuaro of the NPSL. He also had stints with Thunder Bay Chill, Vermont Voltage, and the Las Vegas Knights.

College: Between 2005 and 2006, Hall played college soccer at Tyler Junior College, before transferring to Grand Canyon University for his junior and senior year.

6 CHRIS NURSE

Position: Midfielder

Date of Birth: 05-07-1984 (Age 29)

Weight: 180 lbs Height: 6.2'

Hometown: London, England

Previous Club: FC Edmonton

2014: The Strikers announced the signing of Guyana national team captain Chris Nurse on March 14, 2014.

Professional: Chris Nurse started his career in England with non-league side Kingstonian F.C. in 2002. Spells with Sutton United, Aldershot Town, Moor Green, Hinckley United, Tamworth, Stevenage Borough and Halesowen Town followed.

In 2009, Nurse left England to join USL First Division side Rochester Rhinos in Rochester, NY. He joined AFC Telford United in England before signing with Puerto Rico Islanders for the 2010 USSF-D2 Pro League season.

Nurse captured the CFU Club Championship with the Islanders in 2010. He was part of the Islanders team that defeated MLS side Los Angeles Galaxy 5-3 on aggregate and progressed to the group stages of the CONCACAF Champions League for the third consecutive year. Nurse won the USSF Division 2 Pro League championship title defeating the Carolina RailHawks in the final.

Carolina RailHawks signed Nurse for the 2011 North American Soccer League season. Nurse was part of the RailHawks team that broke almost every existing club record and collected the regular season title. He left the RailHawks during the 2012 season to re-join Puerto Rico Islanders. In 2013, Nurse joined FC Edmonton where he re-established himself as one of the premier holding midfielders in the league.

International: Despite being born in England, Nurse, who is of Guyanese descent, elected to play for the Guyana national football team. Nurse captained Guyana during the 2014 FIFA World Cup qualification matches.

7 GONZALO DE MUJICA

Position: Midfielder

Number: 19

Date of Birth: January 31, 1990 (24)

Height: 5'9" Weight: 145lbs

Hometown: Weston, FL

Previous Club: Orlando City U-23

2014: De Mujica signed on for a second season with the Strikers on January 8, 2014.

2013: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers announced local product Gonzalo De Mujica signed with the team on January 31, 2013.

De Mujica made his professional debut as a substitute in the Strikers 3-1 defeat to the San Antonio Scorpions on May 18. He started his first match for the club on May 26, a 1-0 away victory against FC Edmonton. De Mujica finished his rookie season with three starts in nine league appearances.

Amateur: During college, De Mujica played in the United Soccer League (USL) with Central Florida Kraze (now Orlando City U-23) in 2009, Schulz Academy in 2010, FC JAX Destroyers in 2011, and again with Orlando City U-23 in 2012.

College: De Mujica was a four-year starter for the Stetson University Hatters in DeLand, Fla., from 2007-2011. As a freshman, Mujica earned Atlantic Sun All-Freshman honors and had five goals and seven assists for the Hatters. As a sophomore, De Mujica earned Atlantic Sun All-Academic Team honors while starting all 20 games for Stetson.

As a junior, he again earned All-Academic Team honors while also earning a spot on the Second Team All-Atlantic Sun Team. De Mujica finished his junior year with five goals, three assists and assisted on a game-winning goal in the Atlantic-Sun semifinals against Jacksonville University. He earned First Team Atlantic-Sun, Third Team NSCAA All-South Region, Third Team NSCAA Scholar All-American and First Team NSCAA Scholar All-South Region honors as a senior, scoring five goals and leading the Hatters in assists with seven.

High School: De Mujica graduated from Cypress Bay High School in Weston, Fla. His high school soccer honors included being named the BCAA All-Star Team MVP and Herald All-Broward Team.

Personal: Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

8 PECKA

Position: Defensive Midfielder

Number: 8

Date of Birth: May 2, 1989 (age 24)

Height: 5'8" Weight: 152lbs

Hometown: Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

Previous Clubs: Flamengo, CFZ do Rio (Brazil)

2014: The Strikers announced that Pecka would be returning to the club for another season on January 22, 2014. It was subsequently announced that Pecka would go on loan to Madureira Esporte Clube in Brazil until April.

2013: On October 17, 2012 the Fort Lauderdale Strikers announced that Pecka had signed a new contract with the club and would be returning to play for the 2013 season.

Pecka started in center midfield alongside compatriot Rubens in the first match of the season against FC Edmonton on April 6th. Was named to the NASL Team of the Week for Week 1.

Recorded his first assist of the season on April 20th against Carolina RailHawks, setting up Jemal Johnson for the opening goal. Pecka was named to the NASL Team of the Week for the second time in 2013 after the 2-1 defeat against Minnesota United FC on June 8th.

Pecka was appointed captain ahead of the Fall season. On August 10, Pecka was injured in a match against Minnesota and had to be substituted in the first half. He finished 2013 with 17 appearances, all starts, and one assist.

2012: The 2012 season was Pecka's first full season with the Strikers. Following the departure of Bryan Arguez to the Montreal Impact in the offseason, Pecka claimed to the holding midfield position. He formed a solid partnership with on-loan DC United midfielder Conor Shanosky in the center of midfield.

Pecka scored his first goal for the club on September 8, 2012 in a 1-1 draw with the Puerto Rico Islanders. He finished the season with 22 starts from 27 appearances in all competitions and scored one goal.

2011: Wellington Paekart, better known as Pecka, was the last signing made by the Fort Lauderdale Strikers during the 2011 season, joining the club on August 22, 2011. He inherited the number 8 jersey, last worn by compatriot Lennon Celestino.

Pecka made four starts in eight total appearances in his first season with the Strikers, contributing one assist.

Youth: Pecka started his youth career in the academy of one of Brazil's most storied clubs, Flamengo. Without making a first team appearance with the club, Pecka was loaned to Centro de Futebol Zico Sociedade Esportiva.

International: In 2006, Pecka was selected to represent the U-18 Brazilian national team at the Sendai Cup International Youth Tournament in Japan.

9 MARTIN NUÑEZ

Position: Forward

Number: 9

Date of Birth: February 2, 1987 (age 27)

Height: 5'6" Weight: 160lbs

Hometown: Miami, Florida

Previous Club: Minnesota United

2014: On January 24, 2014 the Strikers secured the re-signing of the club's leading-goalscorer in 2013.

2013: After spending the 2012 season with Minnesota Stars FC (now Minnesota United FC), Nuñez returned to the Fort Lauderdale Strikers ahead of the 2013 NASL Fall season.

He made his return to the team in the first match of the Fall season, coming on as a substitute in the 2-1 defeat to The New York Cosmos on August 3. Nuñez scored his first goal of the season in the next match, a 3-1 defeat to Minnesota United FC on August 10. He started the next match, a 2-1 victory against San Antonio Scorpions on August 17, opening the scoring in just the second minute of the match.

Nuñez finished 2013 as the Strikers leading goalscorer with five goals. He made 11 starts in 13 appearances in the Fall season.

2011: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers re-signed Martin Nuñez ahead of the 2011 NASL season. He began the campaign as a starting forward, but lost his place due to the good form of strike partnership between Abe Thompson and Brian Shriver. Nuñez was often used as a substitute to provide an injection of energy into the game. In stoppage time of the August 8th encounter with the Carolina RailHawks, Nuñez scored with a last-gasp volley to steal a win for the Strikers. It was just one of many important goals he scored in 2011 for the Strikers.

Martin Nuñez played 29 games in all competitions with the Strikers, starting 13 of them. He scored a total of 5 goals, and contributed 3 assists.

2010: Nuñez signed with Miami FC (now the Fort Lauderdale Strikers) towards the end of the 2010 USSF-D2 season. He was limited to the role of a bit-part player, often coming on towards the end of matches. Nuñez played nine games in 2010, and tallied a goal and an assist.

Professional: Miami FC selected Nuñez in the second round (22nd overall) of the 2007 USL College Player Draft, but he decided against signing with the Blues. He instead signed with the Carolina RailHawks on March 15, 2008, after declining a contract with the New York Red Bulls of Major League Soccer. Nuñez had an exceptional debut season with the RailHawks, scoring five goals from 28 games as an attacking midfield position. He was nominated for Rookie of the Year, but lost out to Osvaldo Alonso, now with the Seattle Sounders FC of MLS.

Nuñez joined the Puerto Rico Islanders for the 2009 season. He couldn't replicate the good form he showed in Carolina, and was released from the club after playing just 14 games.

After two seasons in South Florida, Nuñez was traded to Minnesota Stars FC in exchange for defender Jack Stewart. He played 25 games for the Stars in their run to the NASL Championship Series, scoring 5 goals.

College: Martin attended Georgia Perimeter College in 2006 where he played one year of college soccer. In his sole season with the Jaguars he scored 30 goals and provided 17 assists, leading the team to an impressive 23-1-1 record. After an outstanding season, Nuñez opted to turn professional.

Personal: Nuñez was born in Montevideo, Uruguay, but grew up in South Florida after moving to Miami at the age of nine.

11 FAFÀ PICAULT

Position: Midfielder

Height: 5'7" Weight: 170lbs
Hometown: Comayagua, Honduras
Previous Club: Motagua (Honduras)

2014: Guerrero signed on for another year with the Strikers on January 8, 2014.

2013: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers announced the signing of veteran Iván Guerrero for the 2013 season on January 24, 2013.

Guerrero made his first appearance for the Strikers on April 20th against Carolina RailHawks, starting and playing the entire 90 minutes at left back. Guerrero started and played every match in the Fall season. In August, he assisted on the winning goals in matches against Atlanta and Carolina.

Guerrero recorded an unprecedented four assists in the 6-2 win against Atlanta at Lockhart on October 19th. He finished the Fall season as the league-leader and Strikers top-provider with six assists. Guerrero made 22 appearances in 2013, all starts, and captained the side on many occasions.

Professional: Guerrero began his professional career in 1996 with Club Deportivo Motagua of the first division of Honduran soccer. He made 99 appearances with Motagua before transferring to Coventry City, then of the English Premier League, in 2000.

Guerrero returned to Motagua in 2002, making 38 appearances between 2002 and 2004. He then spent a portion of the 2004 season with Uruguayan side Club Atlético Peñarol before moving to the Chicago Fire of Major League Soccer for 2005.

Guerrero was the Fire's only representative in the 2005 MLS All-Star Game and took home Chicago's MVP and Defender of the Year awards. After three seasons in Chicago, Guerrero spent 2008 playing first for the San Jose Earthquakes and later D.C. United.

Guerrero was traded to the Colorado Rapids in 2009 but did not see any regular season action and returned to Honduras' Motagua from 2009 to 2011, where he made 87 appearances before briefly retiring in 2011.

International: Guerrero had 84 caps with the Honduran national team between 1999 and 2010, scoring 4 goals. He competed in 33 FIFA World Cup qualification matches for the Honduran national team and competed in the CONCACAF Gold Cup in 2000, 2005 and 2007.

Date of Birth: July 1, 1981 (age 32)
Height: 5'9" Weight: 160lbs
Hometown: Cali, Colombia
Previous Clubs: Tauro FC (Panama)

2014: Salazar was the first player re-signed for the 2014 campaign.

2013: Following stops in Colombia, Costa Rica, Venezuela, Chile, Iran and Panama, journeyman Carlos Salazar added the United States to his list of places played, signing with the Fort Lauderdale Strikers on March 25, 2013. The attacking midfielder selected the number 14 jersey.

Salazar made his debut for the Strikers in the 1-1 draw against FC Edmonton in the opening match of the 2013 season. He captained the team for the first time on May 26 against FC Edmonton and scored a penalty in the 1-0 away victory.

Salazar scored his second goal from the penalty spot on August 19th in the 6-2 win over Atlanta. He went on to score in the next two matches (10/26 in Minnesota and another penalty on 11/2 vs. Edmonton). He finished the season with four goals in 17 league appearances. He made 13 starts and also tallied an assist.

Professional: Salazar has played in no less than six different countries prior to joining the Strikers. He started his career in native Colombia with Deportivo Cali, before stints with Atlético Bucaramanga and Deportivo Pereira. In 2006 he signed with his first team outside of Colombia, Alajuelense of Costa Rica.

Following a single season in Costa Rica, Salazar returned to Colombia with Deportivo Pasto before brief stints in Venezuela and Chile with Zamora and Colo-Colo, respectively. In 2008 Salazar returned to Colombia, signing with Atlético Huila.

In 2009, Salazar had a trial with Real Salt Lake of Major League Soccer, but did not join the club. Instead, he signed in Iran with Mes Rafsanjan, and later Mes Kerman. Salazar rejoined Deportivo Pereira in 2012, before linking up with Tauro FC in Panama.

International: Salazar earned 17 caps for the Colombia U-23 national team, and scored 3 goals.

15 ALY ALBERTO HASSAN

Date of Birth: May 15, 1989 (age 24)
Height: 6'3" Weight: 184lbs
Hometown: Weston, Florida
College: Nova Southeastern University

2014: Hassan re-signed for a third season with the club on December 6, 2013.

2013: On December 20, 2012 the Strikers announced that Hassan had signed a new contract with the club. On January 9 Hassan joined Club Aurora of the Bolivian first division on loan for the duration of the 2013 NASL Spring Championship season. He was recalled by the Strikers ahead of the Florida Derby clash with Tampa Bay Rowdies on April 27, 2013.

Wearing the number 99 jersey, Hassan made his first appearance of the season from the bench in a 2-1 loss to the Rowdies. Hassan started the international friendly match against Brazilian Serie A side Cruzeiro on June 23rd and suffered a broken nose. Hassan was limited to just six substitute appearances in 2013.

2012: Following a successful preseason, local product Aly Alberto Hassan signed with his hometown club, the Fort Lauderdale Strikers, on March 19, 2012.

On April 7th, Hassan made his professional debut with the Strikers, starting the first match of the season against FC Edmonton. Hassan's debut was one to forget, as the forward was shown a red card by referee Ted Unkel just 40 minutes into the match.

In Hassan's next home match, he scored his first professional goals, a hat-trick in the 3-2 victory against the Puerto Rico Islanders on April 25. Hassan scored his second hat-trick of the season in the 7-2 victory against Fresno Fuego in the second round of the U.S. Open Cup on May 22.

Hassan finished the season as the club's second top-scorer with nine goals in all competitions. He made 15 starts in 22 appearances and tallied one league assist.

Professional: In 2011 Hassan spent preseason trialing with famous Hungarian side Ferencváros as well as with Astra Ploiesti in the top division of Romania. Hassan also spent preseason with the Fort Lauderdale Strikers in 2011, but was not offered a professional contract.

Amateur: In 2009 and 2011, Hassan suited up for Central Florida Kraze (now Orlando City U-23) of the USL Premier Development League.

College: Hassan played four years of college soccer at Nova Southeastern University. He is fifth among all-time goalscorers at the university, having scored a total of 36 goals for the Sharks.

As a freshman in 2007, Hassan scored 11 goals and contributed five assists in 18 games. He was an at-large first team selection of the 2007 All-Sunshine State Conference Men's Soccer Team. Won All-Sunshine State Conference First-Team honors his senior year as well.

Youth: Hassan is a product of Schulz Academy. The academy, based in South Florida, has produced several professional players, notably AZ and United States' national team forward, Jozy Altidore.

Hassan also played with local youth side Weston Fury. He and several teammates spent time training in Argentina at one of the country's elite facilities.

International: Hassan has represented the United States at the U-20 level. In August 2008, he earned his first cap with the United States U-20 National Team in a friendly against Guatemala.

Personal: Weston resident Hassan has family from both Colombia and Egypt.

18 STEPHANE GUILLAUME

Position: DefenderNumber: 18Date of Birth: February 9, 1984 (age 30)Height: 6'1" Weight: 175lbsHometown: Saint-Marc, HaitiPrevious Club: Cleveland City Stars

2014: Guillaume is currently recovering from his knee injury sustained in September 2013. He is expected to miss the entire Spring season.

2013: On April 1, 2013 the Strikers announced the signing of Haitian international Stéphane Guillaume. The right back returns to South Florida after a five year absence, having previously spent three seasons with Miami FC.

Guillaume made the right back spot his own over the course of the season, making 14 starts in the league. A serious knee injury suffered in the match against the New York Cosmos at Lockhart on September 21, 2013 prematurely ended his season.

Professional: Guillaume started his career in native Haiti with Aigle Noir AC in 2002. He completed a move to Major League Soccer in 2005, signing with Colorado Rapids, but was unable to play due to regulatory matters.

In 2006, Guillaume moved to side Miami FC ahead of the club's first season in the USL First Division. He played for three seasons in Miami before leaving at the end of 2008. He played with Cleveland City Stars in 2009 before returning to Haiti.

International: Guillaume has appeared 29 times for the Haiti national football team. He made his debut in 2003 and participated in the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup.

19 MARIUS EBBERS

Position: Attacker
Date of Birth: January 4, 1978 (Age 36)
Weight: 194 lbs      Height: 6.3'
Hometown: Essen, Germany
Previous Club: FC St. Pauli

2014: On March 25, 2014 the Strikers announced the signing of German Bundesliga veteran forward Marius Ebbers.

Professional: Ebbers started his professional career in Germany with MSV Duisburg in 1998. He joined SG Wattenscheid 09 in 1999 and was the top scorer with 12 goals in 16 appearances before returning to Duisburg the following season. Ebbers scored 32 goals in two seasons for the Zebras before signing with 1. FC Köln in 2003.

Ebbers helped Köln win the 2. Bundesliga in 2004–05 and earn promotion to the Bundesliga. He left at the end of the season to join Alemannia Aachen, where he again won the 2. Bundesliga in 2005–06. Ebbers spent three seasons with Aachen, including one season in the Bundesliga, scoring 20 times in 84 appearances.

FC St. Pauli signed Ebbers in 2008. He won promotion in his second season with the club and participated in the Bundesliga in 2010–11. He captained the team and retired in 2013.

Fair Play: Ebbers is well known for his fair play, when during a match with St. Pauli, the forward scored a goal with his hand. The referee and linesman didn't see the handball clearly and gave St. Pauli the goal. Ebbers, however, went up to the officials and came clean about the infringement and asked them to disallow the goal, which they did. St. Pauli went on to win that match in injury time.

20 MARK ANDERSON

Position: Attacking Midfield
Number: 20
Date of Birth: February 13, 1989 (age 25)
Height: 5'10"      Weight: 167lbs
Hometown: Durham, England
Amateur: Baton Rouge Capitals
College: Barry University

2014: The Strikers exercised the option on Anderson's contract on December 13, 2013 to keep him at the club in 2014.

2013: On October 24, 2012 the Strikers announced that Mark Anderson had signed a new multi-year contract.

After missing the first match of the season through injury, Anderson made his first appearance of the season as a substitute in the 2-0 defeat to the Atlanta Silverbacks on April 20. Anderson scored his first goal of the season in the 2-1 win against Minnesota United FC on May 11.

He continued his U.S. Open Cup scoring streak with his third goal in three matches in the competition, a 1-1 draw with Laredo Heat on May 21. Anderson also converted a penalty kick in the shootout victory.

Anderson scored his second goal of the season on August 17 on a direct freekick against San Antonio Scorpions. Earlier in the match he recorded his first assist of the season in an eventual 2-1 win. Injuries limited Anderson to just 12 league appearances in 2013. He finished the year with two goals and one assist in 11 starts.

2012: Mark Anderson officially joined the Fort Lauderdale Strikers on March 22, 2012. The Englishman signed his first professional contract after a successful showing at the 2012 NASL Combine and preseason with the Strikers.

He made his professional debut for the Strikers in the 1-0 victory against FC Edmonton on April 7th, replacing goalscorer Andy Herron in the 83rd minute of the match. In a match against the Carolina RailHawks on May 2nd, Anderson scored his first professional goal, a shot from outside of the box to level the score at 3-3.

Anderson has a knack for scoring in spectacular fashion. On May 29, in an Open Cup game against the San Jose Earthquakes, Anderson opened the scoring with a shot from inside his own half. He scored the winning goal from the corner flag against the Tampa Bay Rowdies on June 2.

He finished his rookie season with two NASL Offensive Player of the Week honors, and earned a place on the NASL Best XI. He made 22 starts in 28 appearances in all competitions, scoring a team-high 13 goals and 3 assists.

Amateur: Played for amateur side Baton Rouge Capitals of the USL Premier Development League in 2010. Anderson was teammates with former Strikers' defender Scott Gordon, now Major League Soccer's Chivas USA.

College: Anderson enjoyed a very successful college soccer career at Barry University between 2008 and 2010. In four seasons he scored a total of 59 goals and racked up 32 assists in 74 appearances. Anderson was named 2011 Daktronics DII National Soccer Player of the Year and 2011 Capital One Academic All-America of the Year for DII men's soccer.

As a freshman, Anderson set several records for the Buccaneers. He scored at least one goal in nine consecutive appearances, posted a school record of 11 assists, and broke the record for points in a season with 33. Anderson led the nation in assists per game (0.786) and was 7th in the nation for points per game.

In his native England, Anderson played for Roseberry Sports College. He was a prolific scorer, averaging more than a goal per game in 2007: 43 goals in 35 games. Anderson was awarded the Sportsman Of the Year Award in 2006 and 2007. He was awarded a scholarship to Barry University based on his performances.

Youth: Anderson was a former youth scholar at Sunderland A.F.C. He was let go by the club as a 16 year-old

International: Represented Great Britain at the 2011 World University Games in Shenzhen, China. Anderson started every game for Great Britain, scoring twice en route to an appearance in the final. The team collected silver medals having lost 2-0 to Japan in the championship game.

Anderson has been capped by the England Schoolboys at the U-18 level.

21 DARNELL KING

Position: Midfielder

Number: 21

Date of Birth: September 23, 1990 (age 23)

Height: 5'8" Weight: 155 lbs

Hometown: Tampa, FL

College: Florida Atlantic University

2014: On December 6, 2013 the Strikers announced that fan-favorite King will return for his third season with the club.

2013: King started the season as an auxiliary fullback, filling in for injured fullbacks Stéphane Guillaume and Ivan Guerrero. He picked up an assist from right back in the 2-1 defeat to the Tampa Bay Rowdies on April 27.

When Guillaume returned from injury, King was moved to the attack. He scored his first goal of the season on June 8 in Minnesota after blocking goalkeeper Matt VanOekel's attempted clearance. He scored his second goal of the season, and first-ever at Lockhart, on June 29 against the San Antonio Scorpions. King finished the Fall season as the only Strikers player to feature in all 12 league games.

King started the Fall season as a right winger under new head coach Günter Kronsteiner. He scored his third goal of the year in a 1-0 win against Carolina RailHawks on August 30th on a volley. Following a season-ending injury to Stéphane Guillaume on September 21st, King filled in at right back for the remainder of the year.

King finished the year with three goals and one assist in 24 league starts. He was the only member of the Strikers to appear in all 26 NASL games in 2013.

2012: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers announced the signing of former FAU forward Darnell King, along with Lionel Brown and Hosman Ramos, on March 27, 2012. King, 21, put pen to paper on his first professional contract that will tie him to the club for the foreseeable future. He selected the number 21 jersey—the same number he wore at FAU—for the 2012 season.

King made his professional debut on April 7th, replacing Polo Morales in the 75th minute of the first game of the 2012 season against FC Edmonton. King made his full debut the following match against Minnesota Stars FC, starting and playing 83 minutes before being replaced by Mark Anderson.

Despite playing as a forward during college, King demonstrated his versatility by starting several games as a right defender as well as on the wing. He finished the season with 11 starts in 24 appearances, scoring one goal and registering two assists in all competitions.

Amateur: King played in the USL Premier Development League with amateur side Fort Lauderdale Schulz Academy.

College: Darnell King played four seasons of college soccer at Florida Atlantic University. A star player for the Owls, he was ranked tenth best player in the entire Mid-American Conference by TopDrawerSoccer.com. King was the only player in the top ten not from defending national champions University of Akron.

King was named to the third team NSCAA All-North Atlantic Region and collected second team all-conference honors during his time at FAU.

Number: 22

Date of Birth: September 17, 1987 (age 25)

Height: 6'1" Weight: 180 lbs

Hometown: Miramar, FL

College: UConn

2014: The Strikers announced that Brown would be returning for a third season with the club on March 5, 2014.

2013: Brown re-signed for the 2013 season, joining Matt Glaeser and Cody Laurendi as the team's goalkeepers.

Following injuries to Laurendi and Glaeser, Brown was the backup goalkeeper to Richard Sanchez for the Fall season. He played the second-half in the 4-0 defeat to Brazilian side Cruzeiro on June 23, 2013, conceding just one goal and making several key stops.

Brown made his professional debut on June 29, 2013 in a 4-1 defeat to San Antonio Scorpions at Lockhart, his only competitive appearance for the Strikers to date.

2012: South Florida native Lionel Brown signed his first professional with his hometown side, the Fort Lauderdale Strikers ahead of the 2012 North American Soccer League season. The club announced his signing, along with Darnell King and Hosman Ramos, on March 27, 2012.

Brown did not make any official appearances for the Strikers in 2012.

College: Brown started his college soccer career at East Central Junior College in St. Louis. A starter his first two seasons, Brown recorded an impressive record of 25-12-6 and kept 16 clean sheets. Brown was named to the First Team All-Region and Second Team All-Conference.

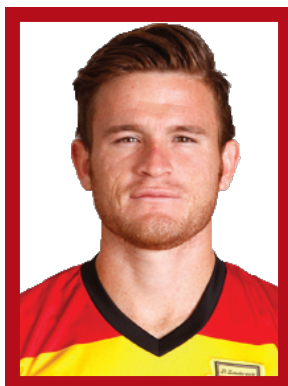

Brown transferred to the University of Connecticut from East Central College his junior year, and stayed with the Huskies through the 2011 season. He was teammates with former Strikers defender Nickardo Blake at East Central Junior College and the University of Connecticut.

High School: Brown was team captain, a BCAA All-Star Goalie and an All-State Honorable Mention at Coconut Creek High School.

2014: The Strikers announced the signing of Brazilian-American midfielder Ronaldo Vieira on April 9, 2014. Vieira signs his first-ever professional contract after being discovered at the Strikers open tryouts in February. After being invited to an invitation-only tryout for further evaluation, Vieira was offered a contract by the club.

College: Vieira played college soccer at Framingham State and later Sacred Heart University.

29 YAIKEL PEREZ

Position: Attacker

Date of Birth: February 17, 1985 (Age 29)

Weight: 184 Height: 6'

Hometown: Havana, Cuba

Previous Club: Aguila

2014: Pérez re-signed for another season with the club on January 10, 2014.

2013: The Fort Lauderdale Strikers announced the signing of former Cuba national team forward Yaikel Pérez on August 13, 2013. Pérez had previously played for the franchise in 2006, the inaugural season of Miami FC (rebranded Fort Lauderdale Strikers in 2011).

Pérez came on as a substitute in the 2-1 win against San Antonio Scorpions on August 17th for his first appearance of the season. He scored his first goal in the 1-1 draw against FC Edmonton on September 15th. He scored a brace in the Strikers 6-2 victory against Atlanta Silverbacks on October 19th.

Pérez finished the season with 9 starts in 10 league appearances. He scored three goals and one assist.

33 RAFAEL ALVES

Position: Defender

Number: 33

Date of Birth: January 18, 1985

Height: 6'3" Weight: 200 lbs.

Hometown: Praia Grande, Brazil

Previous Club: Ocala Stampede

2014: The Strikers secured the re-signing of Rafael Alves on January 29, 2014.

2013: On July 24, 2013 the Fort Lauderdale Strikers signed 28-year-old Brazilian defender Rafael Alves for the 2013 Fall Season. He is known as a set-piece specialist.

Alves made his debut for the Strikers in the first match of the season, a 2-1 defeat to The New York Cosmos on August 3. In his next match, Alves scored an unfortunate own goal in a 3-1 defeat to Minnesota United FC at Lockhart. Alves was named to the NASL Team of the Week the following week after his performances in the Strikers 2-1 win against the San Antonio Scorpions on August 17.

Alves was the only Strikers field player to play every minute in the Fall season. He started all 14 matches and recorded a single assist.

Professional: Alves played in his native Brazil with Boa Esporte, Ituano FC and Goiás.

Amateur: Prior to signing with the Strikers, Alves played for the Ocala Stampede of the PDL. The big defender scored four goals in 10 league appearances.
