OHAI SETS CLUB RECORD FOR GOALS

Team co-captain Kealia Ohai finished with a club-record 11 goals and tied for the most goals in the league with Western New York Flash forward Lynn Williams, who won the NWSL Golden Boot through a tiebreaker.

Ohai's second-half surge caught the eye of USWNT head coach Jill Ellis, who selected the forward to her first senior camp in October. Ohai earned her first cap against Switzerland on Oct. 23 as a second-half substitute; and 48 seconds later she scored the fastest debut goal in USWNT history.

She will also join midfielder Morgan Brian for the final USWNT games of 2016 later this month in California against Romania.

HOUSTON CLAIMS FOUR FAN POLL AWARDS IN 2016

The Dash finished with two Goal of the Week and two Save of the Week honors, which are selected by fans through an online poll.

Goalkeeper Lydia Williams won the Week 5 Save of the Week award after she blocked a point-blank shot from Washington Spirit forward Crystal Dunn.

Forward Rachel Daly's second half strike against the Chicago Red Stars salvaged a draw on the road and earned her Week 14 Goal of the Week honors.

Houston swept the final goal and save of the week honors of the regular season with a long-range effort from Forward Kealia Ohai against Seattle Reign FC and near-post save from Williams against Manon Melis.

DALY, OHAI AND UBOGAGU SELECTED AS POW IN 2016

Houston finished with four NWSL Player of the Week honors this season, a franchise record. Rookie forward Rachel Daly won the first NWSL Player of the Week award of the season after she scored a goal and tallied an assist in her professional debut. Newcomer Chioma Ubogagu finished with a goal and an assist in Week 4 as Houston defeated FC Kansas City 2-1 at Swope Soccer Village in the Dash's first road victory over the reigning champions.

Forward Kealia Ohai was named the NWSL Player of the Week twice, also a franchise record. Her first award came in Week 15 after a two-goal performance against the WNY Flash at BBVA Compass Stadium. The forward scored four goals in two games during Week 17 action for her second player of the week award. Prior to 2016, goalkeeper Bianca Henninger received the award in 2015 and midfielder Teresa Noyola received the award in 2014. The NWSL Player of the Week honors are selected by the NWSL Media Association.

BECKIE, CHAPMAN CLAIM BRONZE IN RIO

The Dash were well represented at the Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro as seven players represented their country in the soccer tournament.

Canadian forward Janine Beckie scored the fastest goal in the history of the women's tournament after her strike in the 19th second of the first group game beat Dash teammate Lydia Williams at the near post. Beckie went on to score two more goals and tally an assist. The forward and defender Allysha Chapman claimed the bronze medal by defeating the host nation and Dash teammates Andressa and Poliana.

Williams finished with 18 saves, the most out of any NWSL goalkeeper at the tournament, but fell to the host nation in a penalty shootout in the quarterfinals. Carli Lloyd finished the tournament with two goals and Morgan Brian tallied an assist, but the USWNT's run came to an early end as they fell to Sweden in the quarterfinals. Dash players tallied 2,144 minutes in 32 appearances at the tournament, the most of any NWSL club.

DASH FINISH 2016 WITH THREE VICTORIES IN FINAL FIVE GAMES

The Houston Dash finished the 2016 NWSL season by winning three out of their last five games to cap off a second-half charge that matched their club win record – set in 2015. Houston's third season kicked off with a 3-1 victory over the Chicago Red Stars at BBVA Compass Stadium in April. This was the first time the Dash defeated the Red Stars and the second consecutive opening day victory for Houston at BBVA Compass Stadium.

Houston made its first trip to Florida a week later and fell to the Orlando Pride 3-1 in front of a record-setting 23,403 fans at Camping World Stadium. Andressa scored her first goal for the club and Lloyd left the game in the 13th minute due to a knee injury. Lloyd would miss a significant amount of time with the Dash due to the injury and national team obligations.

Lydia Williams recorded her only shutout of the season in a 0-0 draw with Sky Blue FC on April 29. Midfielder Denise O'Sullivan made her debut as second half substitute and Caity Heap made her first Dash start. Heap was the last player signed to the roster in 2016.

Houston defeated FC Kansas City on the road for the first time in franchise history on May 7. Ubogagu and O'Sullivan scored their first Dash goal and Brian made her season. The No. 5 overall selection in the 2016 NWSL College Draft, Cari Rocarro, made her Dash debut as a late second half substitution.

The Dash lost six consecutive games by identical 1-0 score lines, beginning on May 14 as Houston fell to the Washington Spirit at the Maryland SoccerPlex. The Pride visited BBVA Compass stadium for the first time on May 20th, and an 81st minute strike from Kristen Edmonds secured three points for the visiting squad. Houston's third consecutive loss came on its first trip to the Pacific Northwest as the Dash fell to Reign FC 1-0 with a strike from Havana Solaun. USWNT and FCKC defender Becky Sauerbrunn's header secured three points and a series split for the reigning champions in Houston's final home game before national team players reported to camp to prepare for the Olympic Games.

The six-game scoreless streak continued on the road as Houston fell to the Pride and Sky Blue FC. Pride forward Jasmyne Spencer scored her second goal of the season in the second minute of stoppage time for Orlando's third consecutive victory over Houston. Taylor Lytle's strike from the edge of the box gave Sky Blue FC three points and the season series on July 9. This was Houston's first game without the seven players selected to represent their national team at the Olympic Games.

Houston's goal drought came to an end on July 16 as Daly got on the end of a cross from Ohai in the seventh minute. Amber Brooks scored her first Dash goal in the 68th minute off a cross from Becca Moros and Ohai scored her first goal of the season in the 83rd minute.

Houston picked up its first points on the road since May 7 when they visited the Red Stars on July 23 and salvaged a 1-1 draw. Chicago scored in the first minute and Daly equalized in the 82nd minute off a cross from Ohai.

Stoppage time goals continued to plague Houston as they drew with the WNY Flash 3-3 at BBVA Compass Stadium on July 30 after entering the 70th minute with a 3-1 lead. Lianne Sanderson scored the first goal of the game in the second minute but Houston would respond with goals from Daly and Ohai. Jessica McDonald and Williams teamed up to claim a draw with goals in the 70th minute and the third minute of second half stoppage time.

The Dash were originally scheduled to host the Washington Spirit in May but inclement weather forced the game to be postponed until Aug. 18. Two unassisted strikes from Christine Nairn secured the series sweep but Ohai scored her fourth goal of the season to prevent the shutout.

The Dash Olympic players returned for a two-game road trip to the East Coast in late August. Bronze medalist Janine Beckie started in a 2-2 draw with the WNY Flash on Aug. 27 at Shalen's Stadium. O'Sullivan and Ohai scored the go ahead-goals but a second-half strike from Makenzy Doniak split the points and season series. Four days later the Dash defeated the Boston Breakers 4-1 with goals from Ohai and Lloyd.

Houston and its Olympic players returned to BBVA Compass Stadium on Sept. 3 and defeated the Pride 4-2 for its first victory in the series. Beckie scored her second goal of the season in the 24th minute and Poliana scored her first Dash goal four minutes into the second half. Ohai finished with a brace which included a second-half strike from the edge of the box that curled past a diving Ashlyn Harris.

Houston lost its final road trip of the year on Sept. 7 in a game that finished 3-0 in favor of Portland Thorns FC.

The Dash split their last two games of the season – both at BBVA Compass Stadium – with a 4-1 victory over the Boston Breakers and a 2-3 loss to Seattle Reign FC.

THREE DASH PLAYERS TO COMPETE IN W-LEAGUE

The Houston Dash have announced that goalkeepers Bianca Henninger (Melbourne Victory – Australia), Lydia Williams (Melbourne City FC – Australia) and defender Stephanie Ochs (Canberra United – Australia) will go on loan during the NWSL offseason.

Henninger started five games for the Dash this season and finished with one shutout and 1.14 goals against average. In three seasons for the club the goalkeeper has played in 17 games and tallied five shutouts with a 1.15 goals against average. Ochs appeared in 12 games for the club in 2016 and matched her career-high for assists with two. The defender missed most of last season with a torn ACL in her right knee. Williams started 15 games for the club and finished tied for the second most saves in the league with 62. The goalkeeper also led NWSL goalkeepers at the Olympic Games in Rio with 18 saves.

Some Westfield W-League matches will air on ESPN3 in the United States. All three players will return to the Dash prior to the start of the 2017 NWSL season.

WNY FLASH CLAIM NWSL CHAMPIONSHIP

More than 8,000 fans at BBVA Compass Stadium witnessed the Western New York Flash lifting the 2016 NWSL Championship after goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo propelled her team to a 3-2 victory over the Washington Spirit in a penalty shootout following a 2-2 draw.

This was the first time in league history that a shootout decided the championship and the Flash became the first No. 4 seed to win the title after they sealed their place in 2016 postseason with a victory in their final game of the regular season.

The 2016 NWSL Championship was the fourth edition of the league's title game, the first time a professional women's soccer league in the U.S. has reached that milestone. Houston was pre-selected as the host for the game in April prior to the beginning of the NWSL regular season. This is the second consecutive year the NWSL Championship will take place at a predetermined venue, after Providence Park in Portland, Oregon hosted the 2015 edition with FC Kansas City defeating Seattle Reign FC 1-0 to claim their second straight title. Seattle hosted at Starfire Sports Stadium in 2014 by virtue of being the top seed in the playoffs, but lost 2-1 to FCKC. In the inaugural 2013 season, the Western New York Flash hosted Portland Thorns FC at Sahlen's Stadium in Rochester, New York, with Thorns FC winning 2-0.
