NEWS & NOTES

MATCH PREVIEW

Winners of four-straight matches, Memphis 901 FC continues its home stretch Tuesday night at 7:00 against fifth-place Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC.

After ending Saint Louis FC's five-match winning streak Saturday night, Memphis boasts the longest winning streak in the Eastern Conference and is one of two teams in the entire USL Championship that has won four or more matches in a row, along with Orange County SC.

On Saturday, Marcus Epps found the back of the net off a corner kick by Cam Lindley in the 54th minute to account for the match's only scoring. The goal came as a result of a halftime adjustment on set pieces and was set up perfectly letting Epps put it home across the front of the net. 901 FC goalkeeper Jeff Caldwell and the Memphis defense weathered multiple Saint Louis threats down the stretch and finished off the club's first clean sheet since an Aug. 6 match at Saint Louis FC.

As a result of its four-match winning streak, 901 FC has moved from 17th place before the Atlanta United 2 match on Aug. 28 to 12th place and eight points away from the final playoff spot in the conference.

Tuesday's match is a makeup of a match on May 18 that was postponed after the first half of play due to inclement weather in Memphis. 901 FC and Pittsburgh played earlier this season on Aug. 3 in Pittsburgh, which was a 4-0 win for the home side.

After Tuesday, 901 FC remains at AutoZone Park to face Bethlehem Steel FC Saturday night at 7:00.

COMEBACK KIDS

After starting the season 0-11-2 when conceding first in a match, 901 FC has come back to win after allowing the first goal in three of the matches on its four-match winning streak.

The club was also 0-9-2 on the season when trailing at halftime before erasing halftime deficits to beat Atlanta United 2 and Loudoun United FC.

AWESOME ALLEN

In Memphis' seven recent matches in which it has scored a total of 14 goals, Brandon Allen has accounted for six of them. This includes two-goal performances on July 20 and Sept. 7.

THROUGH THE RINGER

Including Tuesday, 10 of Memphis' last 13 matches have been against teams in the playoff picture at the time of the match. (PIT, 5th; STL, 9th; TBR, 3rd; BHM, 10th; NC, 5th; STL, 10th; PIT, 6th; OTT, 8th; NY, 2nd; NSH, 3rd). 901 FC recently concluded a stretch of three-straight matches against non-playoff teams.

OFFENSIVE COMPARISON

Memphis has scored nine goals in its last four matches after scoring a total of five in the eight matches prior.

The club's recent stretch of play includes 10 multi-goal performances where the squad is 8-0-2. Memphis had just two multi-goal showings in its first 10 matches and did not win either outing.

MAY BRINGS MOVEMENT

In 19 matches since the beginning of May, 901 FC has gotten a point in 12 of them after having points in three of its first nine matches of the season.

Since that May 4 game against Birmingham Legion FC, Memphis has added playmakers Brandon Allen, Marcus Epps, and Lagos Kunga, among others, who have combined for eight goals, three assists, and 25 shots on target.

CHANCE TO GAIN GROUND

With three points on Tuesday, Memphis 901 FC could get three points closer to a playoff spot in its inaugural season.

Currently sitting in 12th place with 31 points, the team ahead of Memphis, Charleston Battery, has 38. The line for a playoff spot currently stands at 39 points.

After Tuesday's match against Pittsburgh, Memphis has upcoming matches against 13th-place Bethlehem, 2nd-place Indy, 15th-place Charlotte, 11th-place Charleston, and 6th-place Louisville to finish the regular season.

KEY ADDITIONS

After building its inaugural season roster, Memphis 901 FC has not been content. Since then, the club has added key contributors Cam Lindley (April 12), Jochen Graf (April 25), Lagos Kunga (May 13), Brandon Allen (June 26), Marcus Epps (Aug. 2), Pierre Da Silva (Aug. 5), and Liam Doyle (Aug. 5) as the season has progressed.

By itself, that group has accounted for approximately 25 percent of Memphis' minutes played in matches since Lindley was the first to join the team.

FANS LINING UP

The Memphis 901 FC fanbase had made quite an impression in its inaugural season. In 13 USL Championship competitions at home this season Memphis is averaging 6,904 fans per match, which ranks seventh in the league and is second among expansion teams.

2019 TECHNICAL STAFF

Head Coach Tim Mulqueen

Tim Mulqueen was named the inaugural Memphis 901 FC Head Coach on August 15, 2018. Mulqueen brings vast expertise and over two decades of coaching experience to The Bluff City. He most recently served as assistant coach for Orlando City Soccer Club of Major League Soccer from Jan. 2017 until this summer. Mulqueen also coached in MLS with the Kansas City Wizards, now Sporting Kansas City, from 2000-04 and the New York/New Jersey MetroStars, now the New York Red Bulls, from 1996-99. The ties between Mulqueen and Memphis 901 FC advisor and soccer legend Tim Howard run deep, as Howard credits Mulqueen with getting his career started at the age of 12, when Mulqueen took notice of his immense talent and drive and welcomed Howard to train for free at his skills clinic in Metuchen, N.J. It all came full circle when Mulqueen then coached Howard professionally with the MetroStars at the onset of his pro career, which eventually developed into one of the finest in American soccer history. In addition to his MLS coaching experience, Mulqueen was the goalkeepers coach for the United States at the 2005 and 2007 FIFA U-17 World Championships, the 2008 Summer Olympics, and the 2007 and 2009 FIFA U-20 World Cups.

Assistant Coach Ben Pirmann

Ben Pirmann was named Memphis 901 FC Assistant Coach on December 13, 2018. Pirmann arrives in The Bluff City after spending six seasons as the head coach of Detroit City FC in the National Premier Soccer League and eight seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Michigan State University.

As head coach of DCFC, which boasts one of the largest fan bases in all of North America, Pirmann went 49-17-17, won a regular season title in 2013 and a Midwest Region championship in 2017, and helmed the club to three playoff appearances and two runs in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. His club took USL foe Louisville City FC to penalty kicks and then-USL side FC Cincinnati to extra time in the second round in 2016 and 2018, respectively.

Sporting Director Andrew Bell

Andrew Bell, formerly of the Charleston Battery, was named the inaugural Memphis 901 FC Sporting Director on March 19, 2018.

Bell, who spent nearly 20 years with the United Soccer League's Battery, is tasked with handling all player and technical staff-related decisions and building the Memphis 901 FC Front Office.

A native of Wokingham, Berkshire, England, Bell began working for the Battery as its radio play-by-play announcer in 1999 after moving to the United States in 1995. He served in a variety of roles for the team, including Director of Marketing, Director of Sales, and President, which was the role he held most recently from 2008 until moving to Memphis.
