WIN AND ADVANCE

The Orange and Blue hosted the South Florida Surf in a U.S. Open Cup Second Round fixture.

The Surf would get on the board first in the 21st minute.

Poku scored an equalizer in the 48th minute, heading home a Blake Smith cross. Dylan Mares created an own goal in the 60th minute.

The Surf would equalize in the 74th minute, but Miami responded immediately with the eventual match winner in the 79th minute when Smith found Chávez far post.

OPPOSITE DIRECTIONS

Last season, Indy Eleven was the Spring Season champion and finished 2nd in the NASL.

This season has been an entirely different story for both teams.

Indy is in sixth place and hasn't won a game through seven played. The Eleven has drawn six and lost one, with the lone loss coming against Miami.

Miami is currently atop of the NASL table, having won four games, tied two, and lost just one.

MATCH NOTES

HEAD TO HEAD

The Miami FC and Indy Eleven have faced each other four times before, with Miami holding a 2-1-1 record over their opponents.

The first matchup was during the 2016 Spring Season, a match that ended 0-0 and was relatively tame in terms of action.

The second matchup was a 2-1 win during the 2016 Fall Season. Indy got a late goal from Eamon Zayed, but the match was already in hand for the home team.

The third matchup was on the road in Indy during the 2016 Fall Season. Miami fell to Indy 2-1.

The fourth matchup took place just two weeks ago, with Miami tying a season-high three goals scored in an exciting 3-2 win.

TEAMWORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK

Miami sports the top offense in the NASL with 12 goals scored. The club's offensive prowess can be attributed to its stellar passing.

Miami FC players occupy five of the top 10 spots for total passes in the NASL, including four in the top five. Defender Hunter Freeman currently leads the team with 488 total pass, ranking second in the NASL.

Through seven matches, Miami FC players have created a staggering 85 scoring chances.

Midfielder Dylan Mares has created 20 chances, the top mark in the NASL. Poku is at No. 2 in the league with 19 chances created, while forward Vincenzo Rennella has created 10 opportunities and tallied a NASL-high three assist.

MIAMI FC PLAYERS TO WATCH

Dylan Mares: Mares has been a key contributor to the Miami FC's success in 2017. The midfielder has been great on the left side contributing to the attack and assisting on defense.

Mares has scored two goals and registered one assist through seven matches for the Orange and Blue. He has completed over 70% of his passes, creating a league-best 20 scoring chances for his teammates.

When acting as a defender, Mares has won 14 tackles, 30 duels, intercepted eight passes and made six key clearances.

His creativity in attack and ability to track back on defense will indispensable as the 2017 season wears on.

Blake Smith: Smith took full advantage of his 90 minutes in Wednesday's U.S. Open Cup win.

The speedy midfielder was in full attack mode all night, making great runs down the left flank and playing in dangerous crosses for his teammates.

Both of the Miami FC's goals came thanks to Smith's left foot, as he picked out Poku and Chávez far post for goals.

Smith would finish the night having completed 45 of 49 passes, created five scoring chances and notched two assists.

Look for the Texan to give the Miami FC a spark this weekend in Indianapolis.

NEWS

MIAMI FC EARNS THREE TEAM OF THE WEEK NODS

Vincenzo Rennella, Dylan Mares and Robert Baggio Kcira all made the cut after the Orange and Blue took down Indy Eleven 3-2.

Rennella was fantastic against Indy Eleven, scoring a goal and tallying an assist.

Kcira netted his second goal of the season with a great strike from distance. He would go on to complete 40 of his 46 passes, while also creating two scoring opportunities.

Mares put in 90 minutes of high-quality work against Indy, completing 30 of 33 passes, created three scoring chances and scoring a goal in the 61st minute.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Miami FC returns home May 27 to take on Puerto Rico FC on Puerto Rican Heritage Night.

The last time these two sides met they were in Puerto Rico. After falling behind early, Miami scored two late goals including the match winner deep into extra time.

The Orange and Blue then host the Tampa Bay Rowdies, Wednesday, May 31 in a U.S. Open Cup match.

ALESSANDRO NESTA HEAD COACH

Widely considered to be one of the greatest defenders ever, Nesta made over 400 Serie A appearances in a 20-year career.

Nesta was a member of the Italian national side for a decade from his debut in 1996, earning 78 caps in total. He competed in three FIFA World Cups, including the team that won the 2006 World Cup in Germany.

In his first season leading the Miami FC, Nesta's squad compiled a 10-10-12 record. After a slow start to the season, Nesta righted the ship in the Fall season as the club fought for a playoff spot till the final day of the season.
