CLUB HISTORY

One of the eight inaugural members of the National Women's Soccer League, OL Reign was founded in 2012 as Seattle Reign FC by Bill and Teresa Predmore. The club played its first season at Starfire Stadium in Tukwila, Washington, before moving to Memorial Stadium in Seattle in 2014. The club won consecutive NWSL Shields in 2014 and 2015, finishing at the top of the table both seasons. Head coach Laura Harvey was named the NWSL Coach of the Year for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. The club missed the playoffs in 2016 and 2017, before returning in 2018 in its first season under head coach Vlatko Andonovski. On January 30, 2019, OL Reign announced that it would begin playing its home matches at Cheney Stadium in Tacoma, Washington. The club reached the NWSL semifinals for a second consecutive season in 2019, before Andonovski departed the club to accept the head coaching position with the U.S. Women's National Team.

In November of 2019, it was announced that Bill and Teresa Predmore had entered into exclusive negotiations to sell the club to OL Groupe, the parent company of Olympique Lyonnais. The sale was announced on December 19, 2019, with OL Groupe becoming 89.5% owners, Bill and Teresa Predmore retaining a 7.5% stake, and four-time NBA champion Tony Parker holding a 3.0% stake. In March 2020, the club officially unveiled its new name and crest ahead of the 2020 season.

TECHNICAL STAFF

FARID BENSTITI HEAD COACH

Benstiti enters his second season with OL Reign in 2021. The French head coach is one of the most experienced and accomplished managers in women's professional soccer. Benstiti has delivered eight domestic league titles in three countries (France, Russia, and China), taken both Olympique Lyonnais and PSG to the UEFA Women's Champions League final, and has worked with some of the world's best female footballers during his 20 years as a coach.

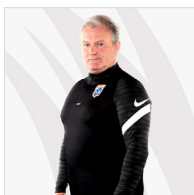

Born in Lyon, France in 1967, Benstiti began his professional career as a midfielder with Olympique Lyonnais in 1984. Benstiti spent 16 years as a professional player at various French clubs before becoming the head coach of FC Lyon's women's side in 2001.

When FC Lyon was acquired by OL Groupe in 2004 and rebranded as Olympique Lyonnais Féminin, Benstiti was retained as manager and led the club to four consecutive Division 1 Féminine championships from 2006-2010, along with three Coupe de France trophies.

After leaving OL in 2010, Benstiti found success in Russia, leading WFC Rossiyanka to a Russian Women's Championship title in 2012 while simultaneously serving as the head coach of the Russian women's national team.

A return to France saw Benstiti take the helm of Paris Saint-Germain in 2012, whom he guided to four straight second-place finishes and an appearance in the finals of the UEFA Women's Champions League.

Now, after a disrupted first season featuring the first ever NWSL Challenge Cup and Fall Series and previously winning three league titles in the Chinese Women's Super League with Dalian Quanjian, Benstiti comes to the Puget Sound hoping to bring further success to OL Reign while respecting what has made the club special.

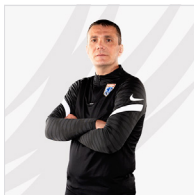

Sam Laity

Assistant Head Coach

Sam Laity enters his ninth season working with OL Reign. A native of Plymouth, England, Laity has lived in the Puget Sound since 2001. In addition to his work with the first team, Laity previously served as a head coach with several teams with OL Reign Academy.

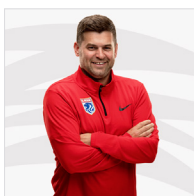

Laity holds a UEFA "B" License and worked with local youth clubs like Pacific Northwest Soccer Club, Dos FC, Westsound FC and Pacific Premier. He holds an NSCAA Master Coach Diploma and has worked as a regional NSCAA staff instructor.

Ljupco Kmetovski

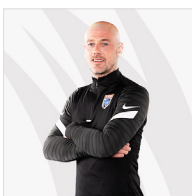

Goalkeeper Coach

Kmetovski returns for a third season with OL Reign. The Macedonian keeper coach, who holds a UEFA "A" License and a UEFA "Pro" goalkeeper license, oversaw a keeper corps that kept seven clean sheets and maintained a 1.125 goals against average in 2019.

OL REIGN MEDIA GUIDE

NWSL MEDIA POLICY

Included below are the media operations guidelines for the NWSL 2021 season. While recognizing the critically important role that the media plays for sport and society, all guidelines have been developed with health and safety as the number one priority. These guidelines have been created using best-practices developed internationally and domestically, and are subject to change.

The media operations guidelines are in addition to facility protocols, which include but are not limited to required face coverings, social distancing requirements, assigned arrival/departure times, media-specific entrances/exits and assigned seating/photo positions and/or locations. In order to minimize risk of exposure to COVID-19 for Personnel, these rules must be abided by and adhered to.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Cheney Stadium will be open to credentialed media members only during the NWSL Season. Media members will be issued their credentials when they enter the stadium and must visibly wear them at all times while inside Cheney Stadium. Please bring photo identification to receive your credentials.

Members of the media must enter Cheney Stadium through the Suites & Clubs entrance, located on the west side of the stadium to the left of the ticketing office. At the time of their entry, media members will have their temperature taken by a member of OL Reign staff and will be asked whether they have recently experienced symptoms related to COVID-19.

All media members must wear a facemask at all times while inside Cheney Stadium.

NWSL protocol forbids media members to move freely throughout the stadium, including during entry. Media members will be escorted by an OL Reign staff member to their assigned media position.

All credentialed media members and photographers must be on a specific assignment as an employee or contractor for the organization for which a credential is issued. Media members are expected to behave in a manner that befits a professional environment. Photographers should refrain from speaking with players.

CREDENTIAL TYPE

Media and photographers will receive the same style of credentials, however, each will be given an assigned spot, where the respective reporter or photographer must remain for the duration of the match.

Credentialed photographers will be issued an assigned photography position within the stadium. To enforce social distancing, photographers are not allowed to leave this position at any time during the match. It should be noted that there will not be a location for photographers to stow additional gear that is covered due to social distancing protocols, so they are encouraged to bring cover for additional equipment in the event of rain. Credentialed reporters will be issued a seat inside the Press Box. One seat will be at the bank of windows that look out on the stadium, while the other will be at a series of worktables

Media members should be careful to remain at least six feet from other media members or OL Reign staff while inside the press box and additional locations. Media members should note that the additional media space has a limited number of power outlets and while OL Reign will provide a number of power strips, they should also plan on having any devices fully charged before entering the stadium.

PITCH ACCESS

At no time are credentialed media members allowed on the pitch, except the two approved ISI photographers who are undergoing NWSL COVID-19 testing protocols.

Please note, we do not have the ability to remove or change the netting in the stadium. Additionally, we cannot have media or photographers in the first ten rows of the stadium, due to COVID-19 protocols. This means there will be no direct interaction between media, photographers, technical staff, and players.

MEALS

You will receive a food voucher upon entry to the stadium. This voucher can be used at most concession stands in Cheney Stadium.

POST-MATCH: REMOTE PRESS CONFERENCE

The post-match press conference will be held on Cheney Stadium's lower levels and will begin approximately 10 minutes after the final whistle. Under no circumstances are media members allowed to attend the press conference but may do so via web conference. A link to the web conference will be distributed on the NWSL Press Conferences Slack channel shortly after the final whistle. If a media member wishes to be added to the Slack channel, they should submit a request to Tara@OLReign.com

TRAINING SESSION INFORMATION

Members of the media are invited to observe open media training sessions of the OL Reign. Players and coaches will be made available for interviews upon request at the conclusion of training sessions. Feel free to share photos, videos, quotes, etc. from training on social media, unless instructed otherwise.

While at a training session you must abide by the COVID-19 protocols at all times which include wearing a mask at all times, staying in the designated media location six feet from fellow media members.

Training schedules will be sent out on a weekly basis to interested members of the media. To be added to that list please send an email to Tara@OLReign.com

OL Reign primarily train at Bellarmine Prep School (2300 S Washington St, Tacoma, 98405) or Cheney Stadium. Please consult the weekly training schedule to determine where the team will be training.

Please note: Training sessions may be immediately followed by a team weight-lifting session that can alter media availability times.

*All COVID-19 protocols subject to change.

STADIUM INFORMATION

OL Reign plays its home matches at Cheney Stadium, its new home in the South Sound. Cheney Stadium is home to the Tacoma Rainiers, the Triple-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners, and Tacoma Defiance, the USL Championship affiliate of Seattle Sounders FC. The stadium is capable of undergoing a dramatic transformation to take it from a regulation baseball diamond to a 110-by-70 yard soccer pitch.

The stadium underwent a $30 million renovation before the 2011 season which added 16 luxury suites, a 4,000 square foot club space and additional space for concessions and restrooms, and has since undergone an additional $7 million in improvements, adding new hospitality space, the first ever fire pit in professional sports, and a new club space known as the 1882 Club.
