positional outlook

Keasel Broome and Trey Mitchell will serve as Pittsburgh's last line of defense for the 2017 campaign. Both goalkeepers are in their first year with the Hounds. Broome arrives in Pittsburgh after starting 13 games with in-state rival Harrisburg City Islanders during the 2016 season whereas Mitchell joins the Hounds after serving as an MLS League Pool Goalkeeper since 2015. Mitchell also spent the 2016 season training with Sporting Kansas City.

GK

Returners: None    Newcomers: Trey Mitchell, Keasel Broome    Departures: Brenden Alfery, Hunter Gilstrap, Zack Steffen, Mauricio Vargas

The Pittsburgh back four comes into the 2017 season completely rebuilt, as only Ryan Adeleye and Nick Thompson return to the club as listed defenders, while Jack Thompson returns expected to split time as depth in the midfield and defense. Supplanting them will be a blend of youth and experience. Tobi Adewole (George Washington University) and Ritchie Duffie (VCU) are the rookies of the group, while Gale Agbossoumonde (Fort Lauderdale Strikers), Rich Balchan (Ottawa Fury FC), Shane Campbell (Harrisburg City Islanders) and Taylor Washington (Bethlehem Steel FC) all bring experience at the pro level in the U.S. Rounding out the vets is Jamal Jack, who has played professionally in Trinidad and Tobago since 2009.

Returners: Ryan Adeleye, Jack Thompson, Nick Thompson
 Newcomers: Tobi Adewole, Gale Agbossoumonde, Rich Balchan, Shane Campbell, Ritchie Duffie, Jamal Jack, Taylor Washington
 Departures: Sergio Campbell, Willie Hunt, Jordan Murrell, Drew Russell, Anthony Virgara

In what is expected to be an aggressive offensive scheme, the Pittsburgh midfield will play a pivotal role on both ends of the pitch. Returning multiple vets in captain Kevin Kerr, Danny Earls, Mike Green and Stephen Okai, the Hounds will have plenty of help in controlling the center of the field. Both Kerr and Green have recorded at least 100 career appearances with the Hounds. First-year Hounds include Devaughn Elliott, Ben Fitzpatrick, Kenroy Howell and Victor Souto. Marshall Hollingsworth and Ben Swanson join the Hounds for a second-straight season via loan from Columbus Crew SC, as well as first-time loanee Abuchi Obinwa. On the wings, Elliott, Fitzpatrick, Howell and Hollingsworth provide depth in the attack alongside Kerr, while Souto and Swanson help fortify the holding midfield with Earls, Green and Okai.

M

Returners: Danny Earls, Mike Green, Marshall Hollingsworth, Kevin Kerr, Stephen Okai, Ben Swanson
 Newcomers: Devaughn Elliott, Ben Fitzpatrick, Kenroy Howell, Abuchi Obinwa, Victor Souto
 Departures: Nick Kolarac, Lebo Moloto, Melvin Snoh

Last season's leading goal-scorer for the Hounds Corey Hertzog fronts a group stocked with youth and potential. Scoring 13 goals this past season, Hertzog is joined by fellow returner and 2016 USL PDL MVP Chevaughn Walsh, who notched a goal himself in six appearances with the club last year. Meanwhile, newcomers and former MLS SuperDraft picks Kay Banjo of UMBC and John Manga of the University of Cincinnati also join the mix on the front line. This group expects to be supplemented by an aggressive attack on the wings of the midfield with players like Devaughn Elliott, Kenroy Howell and Kevin Kerr all having previous experience playing up top.

F

quick facts

Opened: April 13, 2013
 Spectator Capacity: 3,500
 Field Size: 110 x 70 square feet

Positioned right on the Monongahela River with the skyline of Pittsburgh across the river, Highmark Stadium has served as the home of the Riverhounds since its opening in 2013.

One of the premier venues in the Steel City, Highmark Stadium broke ground on June 25, 2012. It was completed on April 13, 2013 at a total cost of $10.2 million raised entirely through private investment. Along with being the home of the Pittsburgh Riverhounds, the venue hosts a variety of events including local sports ranging from high school football to college soccer, as well as concerts and is also the home of the Pittsburgh Rebellion of the Legends Football League.

At the time of its construction, the venue's FIFA 2-star certified artificial turf was one of only six fields to earn that designation in the United States.

On Hounds gamedays, the club is cheered on faithfully by its supporter's group, the Steel Army, who are located in the Paul Child Stand that can be found on the east end of the stadium.

"five years on the mon"

This season the club will be celebrating "Five Years on the Mon" - its fifth year playing at Highmark Stadium.

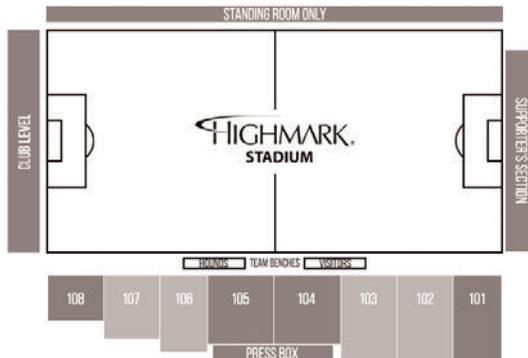

The first match ever to be played at the venue pitted the Riverhounds against long-time rival Harrisburg City Islanders in the 2013 season opener. In front of a sell-out of more than 4,000 in attendance, former Hound Jose Angulo would score the first-ever goal at Highmark Stadium, assisted by Matthew Dallman, in the 70th minute to give Pittsburgh the lead in the second half. Unfortunately, the score would not hold as the City Islanders responded with tallies in the 78th and 90th minute for the 2-1 victory.

In the four seasons played at Highmark Stadium, the Hounds have twice held a winning record during the USL regular season - 2013 (6-3-5) and 2015 (6-2-6). The club is 21-21-15 all-time in USL play on the Mon and has never hosted a playoff match at the venue.

Outside of league play, the Hounds have hosted nine matches at Highmark Stadium between the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and international friendlies.

[B.A. Business Administration]

Temple University, 1990
[M.E. Athletic Administration]

Hometown:
Mechanicsburg, PA

Birthdate:
October 14, 1958

Family
Wife - Diane
Children - Alexandria, Danny

Coaching Experience
Pittsburgh Riverhounds
Head coach, 2016-present
U.S. Naval Academy
Head coach, 2009-15
Messiah College
Head coach, 1997-2008

Head coach Dave Brandt enters his second year, and first full season, with the Pittsburgh Riverhounds. A native of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania, Brandt, in his first professional coaching stint, took over head coaching duties for the Hounds eight games into the 2016 season.

Brandt joined the Hounds after spending the past seven years at the United States Naval Academy. In his 19 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, Brandt coached his squads to over 300 wins and held a .786 career winning percentage (310-72-34) and is the fastest coach in NCAA men's soccer history to reach the 200-win mark.

Along with his seven years at Navy, Brandt spent 12 seasons as head coach of Messiah College, where he compiled a remarkable 246-25-14 (.888) record. His teams won six NCAA Division III National Championships, including the 2008 crown, and notched 52 postseason wins – both top marks in Division III history.

Brandt led the Naval Academy men's soccer team to perhaps their greatest stretch of two-year play in the program's history from 2013 to 2014. During this stretch, his team won a combined 27 matches – tied for the highest two-year win total in the program's history.

In 2013, Brandt led the team on a 15-game winning streak after starting the season 1-3-2, eventually reaching the second round of the NCAA Tournament and national ranking of No. 25 in the country. The 16 victories were a program record, the nine conference wins were a Patriot League single-season record, and the program's NCAA appearance was the first since 1988 and victory in the tournament the first since 1971. Brandt was named Patriot League Coach of the Year, NSCAA Mid-Atlantic Region Coach of the Year for the club's accomplishments.

The 2014 season followed a similar path, with the team finishing 11-4-5 and spending three weeks ranked in the NSCAA Top-25 Poll. Navy had considerable success against nationally ranked opponents, compiling a 2-0-1 record, which included a home victory over No. 10 Maryland. They finished the season on an 11-game unbeaten streak (7-0-4) to earn the No. 2 seed in the Patriot League Tournament and conference-leading marks in both scoring offense and goals-against average.

At Messiah, Brandt's 2005 squad was perhaps his most notable, as they were one of only five schools since the NCAA went to three divisions in 1974 to go through an entire season undefeated (24-0-0). The 24 wins were also the most of any of those five schools and tied for the second-most overall in NCAA history.

In all, between his time at Navy and Messiah, Brandt has coached five NSCAA Player of the Year recipients, 19 NSCAA All-Americans, 46 NSCAA All-Region selections, 14 Conference Players of the Year and 87 All-Conference performers.

Brandt's soccer teachings are rooted in a compelling vision for teamwork, principled thought and action and expected outcome of making the whole greater than the sum of the parts. His playing style places emphasis on "possession emphasizing penetration" – a playing style that lends itself to be fast, athletic, skillful, and, most of all, exciting to watch.

His knowledge of the game has been met with high regard among NSCAA circles, as he has earned his NSCAA Advanced National Diploma.

Brandt received his Bachelor's of Science degree in Business Administration from Messiah College in 1985. He received his Master's of Education in Athletic Administration from Temple University in 1990.

He and his wife, Diane, have a daughter, Alexandria, and a son, Danny.

➔ Dave Brandt joined the Hounds last season after spending 19 years coaching collegiately, where he was the winningest active coach in Division I men's soccer and a four-time National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Coach of the Year.

Dan Visser - assistant coach

Dan Visser enters his first-full season as an assistant coach with the Riverhounds after signing on with the team this past July, midway through the 2016 campaign.

Visser worked closely with head coach Dave Brandt in the past, serving as an assistant coach under him at the United States Naval Academy during the 2015 season. The Midshipmen finished that year with an 8-9-1 overall record.

Prior to arriving at Navy, Visser was head coach at Eastern Nazarene College in Quincy, Massachusetts from 2013-14. The Lions held a 3-14-0 record during his first year as head coach and improved to 5-12-1 in his second season at the helm.

He began his coaching career at the NCAA Division III level, serving as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Eastern University in St. Davids, Pennsylvania. During his two years at Eastern, the Eagles compiled a 21-11-2 record and had 11 student-athletes earn all-conference honors.

Visser graduated from Messiah College in 2008, having played for Brandt during all four of his collegiate seasons. In this time period, the team won three national championships and accumulated an 89-6-2 record. The two-time team captain also received Regional All-America honors in 2007.

In addition to his coaching and playing experiences, Visser holds an 'A' license from the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) and National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

Hunter Gilstrap - goalkeeping coach

After completing his 11-season playing career with the Riverhounds this past September, Hunter Gilstrap will remain with the club as the goalkeeping coach for the 2017 season.

Before playing his final year with the organization in 2016, Gilstrap first played for the Hounds from 2010-14. In 2010, he was voted First Team All-League and named USL-2 Goalkeeper of the Year. Over the course of his career, the goalkeeper appeared in 102 matches with the Black and Gold, ranking eighth all-time in team history.

In 2015, Gilstrap played for the Carolina RailHawks of the NASL. The goalkeeper made nine appearances with the club. He also played in two games for the Charlotte Independence of the USL while on loan from the RailHawks.

The Lexington, South Carolina native played for the Cleveland City Stars from 2007-09. In 2009, Gilstrap captained the team during its first campaign at the USL First Division level, making 22 appearances for the club. From 2007-08, Gilstrap and the Stars competed at the USL Second Division level. In 2008, he helped Cleveland City to its first league championship.

At the collegiate level, Gilstrap played at Clemson University from 2001-04. He attended the College of Charleston for his senior season in 2005, registering a 1.16 goals allowed average and four shutouts for the Cougars.

Gilstrap also currently serves as the Director of Goalkeeping for the Riverhounds Academy. In 2012, he built the Goalkeeper Academy program.

Andrew Scheck - assistant coach

Joining the Riverhounds staff in January 2017, Andrew Scheck enters his first season as an assistant coach with the club.

Scheck spent the past five seasons at North Carolina State University. In 2012, he joined the Wolfpack as a volunteer assistant coach. He transitioned onto the strength and conditioning staff before becoming the Director of Sports Science in 2013. In this role, Scheck helped implement and manage soccer-oriented fitness plans as well as collaborate with sports medicine to help with player injuries and rehabilitations.

The Acworth, Georgia native played collegiately at Liberty University from 2006-09.

BROOME

Keasel Broome prepares for his first season with the Riverhounds in 2017. Already accustomed to USL competition, the goalkeeper spent the 2016 season with in-state rival Harrisburg City Islanders. Broome started 13 games with the Islanders, recording a 5-4-4 record and stopping 36 of 58 shots for a .621 save percentage and 1.69 goals against average.

Although the 2016 season was Broome's first year appearing at the professional level, he was drafted by the San Jose Earthquakes in the third round of the 2015 MLS SuperDraft. The Claymont, Delaware native never reached a signing agreement with San Jose and instead penned a one-year contract with the New York Cosmos of the NASL. The goalkeeper did not make an appearance with the Cosmos in 2015.

In addition to his professional league experience in the United States, Broome competed at the international level with the Barbadian national team. During the 2015 World Cup qualifiers, he started two games and recorded a shutout in both matches for Barbados.

The goalkeeper had stints with Premier Development League clubs, including four appearances with the Real Boston Rams in 2014, two appearances with the Ocean City Nor'easters in 2013 and three appearances with Reading United in 2012.

Broome attended Providence College from 2010-14. As a redshirt senior and team co-captain in 2014, he set a school record with 2,131 minutes played in a single season. The goalkeeper started all 23 games, compiled a 16-5-2 record and recorded eight shutouts in his final campaign with the Friars. As a redshirt junior in 2013, Broome started every match for Providence, posting a 12-6-4 record and five shutouts in 22 games.

CAMPBELL

Shane Campbell comes to the Riverhounds in 2017 after spending his rookie season with in-state rival Harrisburg City Islanders.

While with the Islanders in 2016, Campbell appeared in eight games and recorded 167 minutes.

Prior to his USL playing experience, the defender played at the University of Louisville from 2014-15. Campbell appeared in 27 games, including 16 starts, with the Cardinals. He recorded two goals and two assists during his stint with Louisville.

Before transferring to Louisville for his junior and senior campaigns, Campbell played the first half of his collegiate career at Penn State University from 2012-13. As a freshman, he totaled more than 1,100 minutes in 16 appearances for the Nittany Lions. He scored two goals in his sophomore season, as well as helped the Penn State backline achieve a scoreless streak of four matches and 275 minutes.

In addition to playing collegiately, Campbell also suited up for Reading United of the Premier Development League from 2013-15. He made 31 appearances with the club, scoring one goal.

The York, Pennsylvania native had a successful career at Dallastown Area High School. He was a three-time York-Adams Interscholastic Athletic Association (YAIAA) All-County selection and named All-State in 2011. Campbell helped his team to three YAIAA Division I Championships, two YAIAA County Championships and one District 3 Championship.

Campbell's success in high school translated to the club level, where he was a member of the Philadelphia Union U-17/U-18 Academy for two seasons, earning an opportunity to play in two MLS reserve games for the Union first team in 2011. He also competed and captained USSF FC Delco Academy of the USSF Development Academy for two seasons.

THOMPSON

Jack Thompson signed with the Riverhounds midway through the 2016 campaign and now he returns for the 2017 season.

After signing with Pittsburgh on June 10, Thompson compiled 585 minutes and recorded an assist in 16 appearances to close out the 2016 season.

In 2015, Thompson played for USL Eastern Conference foe Charlotte Independence. While with the Independence, the midfielder started 10 of the 19 games in which he appeared. He racked up two goals and an assist during the campaign. Most notably, he scored the first goal in franchise history against the Charleston Battery on March 27, 2015.

Thompson attended Messiah College, the alma mater of head coach Dave Brandt, from 2011-14. While playing for the Falcons, Thompson starred at forward and tallied 35 goals and 50 assists in 89 career games played. He scored at least 10 goals in three of his four seasons at Messiah and recorded a collegiate career-best 17 assists as a junior in 2013. He earned Third Team Division III All-American honors as a senior in 2014 and MAC Commonwealth Rookie of the Year honors as a freshman in 2011. The Hudson, Ohio native was named First Team All-Commonwealth in each of his four seasons at Messiah.

During the 2012 campaign, Thompson played for the Southern West Virginia King's Warriors of the Premier Development League in addition to his time at Messiah. He appeared in 10 games and scored one goal with the Warriors.

Prior to playing at Messiah, Thompson played for the Columbus Crew SC Soccer Academy from 2008-2011.

Nick Thompson, Jack's older brother, also heads into the 2017 campaign with the Hounds.

Taylor Washington enters his first season with the Riverhounds after spending the 2016 campaign on loan with USL Eastern Conference rival Bethlehem Steel FC. While with the in-state foe, the defender appeared in 28 games and finished second on the team with 2,473 minutes.

MLS franchise Philadelphia Union loaned Washington to Bethlehem Steel FC after drafting the Somers, New York native No. 23 overall in the 2016 MLS SuperDraft. He made one appearance with the Union, receiving playing time during a friendly against Crystal Palace FC in July 2016.

Washington started his collegiate career at Boston University. He played for the Terriers for two seasons from 2011-12. In 2011, he appeared in 18 matches and scored his first collegiate goal, a game-winner against conference rival Harvard.

After not appearing in a game for Boston in 2012, Washington transferred to George Mason University. He played for the Patriots from 2013-15, totaling a goal and three assists in 52 career starts. He was named Atlantic-10 All-Conference first team in 2013 and NSCAA All-Midwest third team in 2015. He also was named George Mason Student-Athlete of the Year at the school's 2016 Senior Salute award ceremony.

During his collegiate playing career, Washington had stints with Worcester Hydra FC, a Premier Development League team, in 2012 and the D.C. United U-23 team in 2015. He made five appearances with Worcester Hydra and 13 appearances with D.C. United U-23.

Victor Souto enters his rookie season with the Riverhounds in 2017. The Sao Paulo, Brazil native most recently played at the University of Akron.

From 2013-2016, the midfielder played for Akron at the NCAA Division I level. As a freshman in 2013, Souto started all 22 games for the Zips and helped solidify the midfield defensively, as the team limited opponents to one or fewer goals in 19 games, including nine shutouts. By his junior season in 2015, the midfielder added an offensive element to his game and recorded three assists and eight goals, including the game-winning score of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) Tournament championship game – a 1-0 victory over the University at Buffalo.

Souto finished his collegiate career with nine goals, three assists, 74 shots and 23 shots on goal in 66 games, all of which he started.

During his playing career at Akron, Souto was named First Team All-MAC in 2013, Second Team All-Mac in 2014, First Team All-Ohio in 2014 and MAC All-Tournament Team in 2015.

Prior to arriving at Akron, Souto spent 10 years in the Corinthians prestigious youth academy in Brazil, playing for Sport Club Corinthians Paulista. He captained the Corinthians Youth National Championship team in 2009.

In 2016, Okai appeared in 23 matches, accumulated 1,484 minutes, scored one goal and recorded two assists for the Hounds.

The midfielder made his Pittsburgh debut in a 5-2 win over the Harrisburg City Islanders on March 28, 2015 at Highmark Stadium.

Prior to arriving in Pittsburgh, Okai played for the then Orange County Blues FC of the USL Western Conference in 2015. He scored two goals in 26 appearances with Orange County.

The Philadelphia Union selected Okai in the second round with the No. 31 overall pick of the 2013 MLS SuperDraft. After going on trial with Philadelphia before the start of the 2013 season, he was released by the club and signed with the Charlotte Eagles of the USL PRO league. He scored four goals in 24 appearances with the Eagles in 2013, helping the team reach the league championship game.

From 2009-12, Okai played collegiately at the University of Mobile. The Accra, Ghana native was a three-time All-American and picked up the NAIA National Player of the Year award in 2012. During his career with the Rams, Okai appeared in 77 games, scored 20 goals and tallied 26 assists, as well as helped lead his team to the title game of the 2012 NAIA Men's Soccer National Championship.

GREEN

Mike Green is the current longest-tenured Riverhounds player, having appeared with the club since the 2012 campaign. Entering his sixth year with Pittsburgh, the midfielder ranks No. 4 all-time in team history with 117 caps.

During the 2016 campaign, Green appeared in 29 games, compiled 2,234 minutes and tallied two assists. In 2015, Green showed his versatility as a player and filled in at a number of positions for the team, including up front and on the backline.

The Strongsville, Ohio native has scored five goals in his career with Pittsburgh, which is the only professional club for which he has played. Green made his debut with the Riverhounds in a 1-0 victory against Antigua Barracuda FC on April 6, 2012.

Green played collegiately at the University of New Mexico from 2008-2011. During his career with the Lobos, he registered 11 goals and 14 assists in 81 games and helped the team to an undefeated regular season as a senior in 2011. He also was named to the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) All-Tournament team, third team All-Far West and second team All-MPSF during his senior campaign.

In 2007, Green trained with the Columbus Crew SC's Academy. He also earned four caps for the United States at the U-20 level, participating in the 2008 Milk Cup in Northern Ireland.

Chevaughn Walsh signed with the Riverhounds in August 2016 and returns to the club for the 2017 campaign.

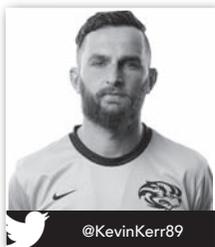

During his limited time with the Hounds in 2016, Walsh appeared in six matches, recorded 336 minutes and tallied one goal. The forward started his first game and scored his first goal with the club in a 2-0 win over Orlando City B on Sept. 3.

Prior to joining the Hounds, Walsh starred with the Ocean City Nor'easters of the Premier Development League (PDL) earlier that year. He scored 14 goals and recorded 31 points, both team records, en route to winning the PDL's Most Valuable Player award, as well as Golden Boot honors. His offensive prowess helped lead Ocean City to a final four appearance in the postseason. He finished the season ranked No. 2 on the league's Top Prospect List.

In the 14 matches Walsh played with Ocean City, he recorded 60 shots and two hat-trick games. Walsh is only the second player in Nor'easters history – a club that has been operating since 1996 – to win MVP and also be recognized on the All-PDL and All-Eastern Conference teams.

Including his totals from four games played in the 2016 playoffs, Walsh finished the year with 16 goals and 37 points for the Nor'easters.

In 2015, Walsh competed collegiately at Jefferson College in Hillsboro, Missouri. He tallied 25 goals and 14 assists in 20 games to earn first team Junior College (JUCO) All-American honors.

Riverhounds veteran Kevin Kerr returns for the 2017 season. This will be the midfielder's fifth season with the club and second as captain.

In 2016, Kerr scored 12 points, recording four goals and four assists in 27 appearances. In the season finale last year against FC Cincinnati, Kerr played in his 100th career match for the Black and Gold, which ranks No. 10 all-time in team history.

During the 2015 campaign, Kerr started 26 of his 27 appearances, scored 10 goals and tallied nine assists. The midfielder was named USL All-League second team.

Kerr played in 46 games and scored five goals in his first two seasons with Pittsburgh. He made his Hounds debut in a 2-1 home loss to the Harrisburg City Islanders on April 13, 2013. One week later, Kerr tallied his first goal with the Hounds in a 2-1 loss at the Dayton Dutch Lions.

Kerr ranks No. 7 in Hounds history with 19 goals.

In 2012, Kerr signed with AGOVV Apeldoorn, a second tier Dutch team. Shortly after his arrival, AGOVV declared bankrupt. As a result, Kerr, who was born in Münster, Germany due to his father's military duties, joined German club S.C. Wiedenbruck of the Regionalliga West, a fourth tier league.

Kerr signed his first professional contract with Arminia Bielefeld and made his debut for the club in Germany's second tier in March 2010. Internationally, the midfielder, who calls York, England his hometown, played for the Scotland U-21 team in 2009. He made two appearances for the squad.

ADELEYE

Ryan Adeleye readies for his first-full season in Pittsburgh. During the 2016 campaign, the defender played in 10 matches and accumulated 700 minutes for the Hounds after signing with the club on July 8.

Prior to arriving in Pittsburgh, Adeleye played professionally in Israel for Hapoel Jerusalem FC of the Liga Leumit, a second tier league. During the 2015-16 campaign, he appeared in 24 games and scored one goal for the club. Earlier in 2015, Adeleye had a brief stint with the Fort Lauderdale Strikers of the NASL, but his season was cut short due to injury after just one appearance.

Adeleye competed in the Israeli Premier League for Hapoel Ashkelon during the 2013-14 season and Hapoel Be'er Sheva for three seasons from 2009-13. The defender originally received attention from Be'er Sheva after competing for the U.S. Men's team during the 2009 Maccabiah Games in Israel.

Before starting his professional career in Israel, Adeleye entered the 2009 MLS SuperDraft. After going undrafted, he shifted his playing career to the Premier Development League, appearing in five games for the Newark Ironbound Express (now Jersey Express) in 2009 and five games for the Carolina Dynamo in 2008.

Collegiately, Adeleye competed at the University of North Carolina from 2007-08 and Davidson College from 2005-06. He transferred to North Carolina after his sophomore campaign at Davidson.

After signing with the Riverhounds on June 17, in the midst the 2016 campaign, Nick Thompson returns for the 2017 season.

In 17 games with the Hounds last year, Thompson accumulated 563 minutes, tallying two goals on 14 shots and six shots on goal. This was the defender's first professional playing experience since spending the 2011 season with the Carolina RailHawks of the NASL, where he made two appearances.

In addition to his professional playing experience, Thompson has more than four years of coaching experience at the collegiate level. In 2015, he served as the head coach of the men's soccer program at Eastern Nazarene College in Quincy, Massachusetts.

From 2011-14, Thompson served as an assistant coach on the men's side at Gordon College (2013-14), United States Naval Academy (2012) and North Carolina State University (2011), as well as the women's side at California Baptist University (2014).

Thompson's collegiate playing career resided at Messiah College (2007-10), where he played for current Hounds head coach Dave Brandt during his freshman and sophomore seasons. While playing for the Falcons, Thompson totaled 54 goals and 18 assists for his career. At Messiah, he also won three consecutive NCAA Division III National Championships from 2008-10. As a senior in 2010, Thompson earned First Team All-Commonwealth Conference, First Team All-Mid Atlantic, Second Team All-American and Commonwealth Conference Player of the Year honors.

Jack Thompson, Nick's younger brother, also heads into the 2017 campaign with the Hounds.

Agbossoumonde faced MLS competition during the 2013 and 2014 campaigns. He originally joined Toronto FC in December 2012 after entering a weighted lottery to allocate him to a team in MLS. He amassed 1,081 minutes in 13 games for Toronto during the 2013 campaign. On May 8, 2014, Toronto traded Agbossoumonde to the Colorado Rapids, where he spent the remainder of the season.

Prior to entering the weighted lottery that sent him to Toronto, Agbossoumonde signed a three-and-a-half year contract with Traffic Sports Marketing in 2009. As a result, he appeared for and was loaned to numerous professional teams, including the Carolina RailHawks of the NASL via loan in 2012, Eintracht Frankfurt II of the German Regionalliga Südwest league via loan from 2011-2012 and Djurgardens of the Swedish Allsvenskan league via loan in 2011.

Agbossoumonde began his professional career in 2009 with Miami FC of the USL-1. After making six appearances for the club during the 2009 campaign, he was loaned to Braga of the Portuguese Primeira Liga in 2010.

Internationally, he appeared in one game for the United States National Team, debuting in a 1-0 friendly victory against South Africa on Nov. 17, 2010. The defender also played for the United States U-20 squad, scoring two goals in 30 appearances.

Trey Mitchell joins Pittsburgh after spending the 2016 campaign as a MLS League Pool Goalkeeper and training with MLS franchise Sporting Kansas City.

He has served as a League Pool Goalkeeper since 2015, which includes a stint with the Colorado Rapids in the 2016 U.S. Open Cup as well as showings with D.C. United, Orlando City B, the Philadelphia Union and Sporting Kansas City in 2015.

Mitchell's professional career began when he signed with MLS franchise LA Galaxy in 2015, just prior to becoming a League Pool Goalkeeper.

From 2013-14, Mitchell played for FC Hasental of the National Premier Soccer League, the Chivas USA Under-23's and the Ventura County Fusion of the Premier Development League. He also gained experience as a coach, serving on staffs at Hollywood FC and Pepperdine University.

The Alta Loma, California native played collegiately at Citrus College from 2009-10. During his freshman campaign, he tied a program record with 11 single-game saves in a match at Allan Hancock College. Mitchell totaled 81 saves and a 2.09 goals against average during his stint with the Owls.

After his sophomore season at Citrus College, Mitchell transferred to California State University, Dominguez Hills. He recorded 71 saves and a 0.85 goals against average in 20 starts with the Toros from 2011-13.

The Pittsburgh Riverhounds enter the second season of their affiliate partnership with Columbus Crew SC of the MLS. Forming the agreement ahead of the 2016 season, fresh off of Crew SC's MLS Cup runner-up season in 2015, the Hounds have been the primary destination for all Crew SC loanees during the USL season.

This is only the second time in the club's history that it has had an affiliate partnership with an MLS club, the last being with the Houston Dynamo for the 2014 season. Crew SC, to date, has loaned seven players to the Hounds, including six last year - Chad Barson, Marshall Hollingsworth, Cristian Martinez, Rodrigo Saravia, Zack Steffen and Ben Swanson.

Of those six, the Hounds are expected to start the season once again with Hollingsworth and Swanson, while newcomer Abuchi Obinwa will also join them in Pittsburgh to begin 2017.

Abuchi Obinwa enters his first season with the Riverhounds via loan from Columbus Crew SC. The midfielder originally signed with the Crew on Jan. 25, 2017.

A Columbus native, Obinwa previously played for the U-19 team of Hannover 96, a club in Germany's 2. Bundesliga.

On June 6, 2014, Obinwa made his debut at the international level for the United States U-18 team during a 0-0 friendly draw against the Norway U-18 squad.

Marshall Hollingsworth returns to the Riverhounds for the 2017 campaign via loan from Columbus Crew SC. Columbus also loaned the midfielder to Pittsburgh during the 2016 season, where he recorded an assist in 24 appearances for the Hounds.

Hollingsworth signed his first professional contract with the Crew in March 2016 after being selected with the No. 41 overall pick in that year's MLS SuperDraft.

From 2012-15, the Libertyville, Illinois native played collegiately at Wheaton College, where he tallied 45 goals and 21 assists in 92 career appearances.

For the second straight season, Ben Swanson is loaned to the Riverhounds from Columbus Crew SC. The midfielder amassed 179 minutes in five appearances for the Hounds in 2016.

In addition to his caps with Pittsburgh, Swanson briefly returned to Columbus during the 2016 season and made his MLS debut on June 1 during a 3-2 Crew loss against the Philadelphia Union.

Swanson signed with the Crew as a Homegrown Player on Oct. 16, 2014. The Grove City, Ohio native is a product of the Crew's Academy, having first played at its U-9 level.

A Season of Endurance

The Riverhounds battled roster transformations, coaching transitions and philosophy changes during their 2016 season, the 17th year in team history. Finishing with a 6-17-7 record, the Hounds placed No. 13 in the USL Eastern conference and No. 12 in goal differential (31 goals forwarded and 50 goals allowed).

Less than two months before the season opener, it was announced MLS franchise D.C. United purchased midfielder Rob Vincent's contract. Vincent, who led the Hounds with 18 league goals in 2015, went on trial for D.C. United during the offseason. The permanent transfer was completed on Feb. 16.

At the commencement of the 2016 season, Pittsburgh looked to make the USL playoffs for the second straight season under head coach Mark Steffens. However, the team started slow and held a 0-4-3 record through its first seven games.

The struggles followed the team to the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. Entering in the second round of the tournament, Pittsburgh bowed out after its first game, losing to Lansdowne Bhoys FC, 2-0, on May 18 at Highmark Stadium.

The Hounds won their first regular season match, 2-1, against Toronto FC II on May 21 at Highmark Stadium. After the game, the team announced Steffens was relieved of his duties.

Pittsburgh announced Dave Brandt would assume head coaching responsibilities on May 22. Brandt previously coached at the United States Naval Academy, where he was the winningest active coach at the NCAA Division I level (310-72-34). In Brandt's first game with the Hounds, the team fell, 1-0, to New York Red Bulls II on May 28 at Red Bull Arena.

To help instill his philosophy, Brandt recruited Jack and Nick Thompson to Pittsburgh. Jack signed with the Hounds on June 10 and Nick penned his contract with the team on June 17. Nick played collegiately for Brandt at Messiah College from 2007-08. In total, the Hounds saw 38 different players suit up for the club throughout the season.

Brandt earned his first win with the Black and Gold against FC Montreal on June 18 at Highmark Stadium. Midfielder Kevin Kerr and forward Corey Hertzog netted goals in the 2-1 victory. Hertzog went on to lead the team with 13 goals in 2016.

Pittsburgh steadily improved in Brandt's system and held a 3-3-3 record over its final nine games to close out the 2016 season. Overall, the Hounds went 5-13-4 under the former Navy head coach.

The 2016 season was Pittsburgh's fourth year at Highmark Stadium.

Notable Numbers

13

Corey Hertzog led the Riverhounds and ranked No. 6 in the USL with 13 goals in 2016. The forward recorded one multi-score game last season, tallying two goals against Wilmington Hammerheads FC on Aug. 24, 2016, at Highmark Stadium. Hertzog scored 11 of his goals under Dave Brandt, who was introduced as head coach on May 23, 2016.

100

Kevin Kerr recorded his 100th career appearance with the Riverhounds in their 2016 season finale against FC Cincinnati on Sept. 24, 2016, at Highmark Stadium. The midfielder ranks No. 10 in games played in team history, 83 matches away from David Flavius' all-time record of 183 appearances. Kerr played in 27 of 30 scheduled games during the 2016 campaign.

7,247

Midfielders Danny Earls, Mike Green, Kevin Kerr and Stephen Okai accumulated 7,247 minutes for the Riverhounds during the 2016 season. The midfield accounts for a large portion of returning players with six, as the roster features 16 newcomers heading into the 2017 season.

➔ Corey Hertzog was a one-man wrecking crew on offense in his first year with the club, leading the team in points, goals, minutes and tying for the lead in assists. His efforts earned him All-USL honors for the second time in his career.

Notable Performances

6/18/16

→ Corey Hertzog and Kevin Kerr both tallied a goal en route to helping the Hounds defeat FC Montreal, 2-1, at home and give Dave Brandt his first win as head coach of the club.

→ Sent to the club on loan by Columbus Crew SC late in the season, goalkeeper Zack Steffen provided quite the spark for the Hounds, including recording a clean sheet on the road against Orlando City B - one of two on the year in nine appearances.

→ Rob Vincent cemented himself in Hounds history in his third and final season with the club in 2015, scoring an impressive 18 goals to go along with six assists in 27 caps. The effort was good enough to rank as one of the five best single-season scoring performances in USL history.

→ Currently the longest-tenured member on the club, Mike Green made his 100th cap with the Hounds last season against Montreal on June 18. Green is entering his sixth year with the Hounds and is only six appearances away from cracking the top-three for most in club history.
