HISTORICAL TIMELINE	162-164
----------------------------------	---------

THE CREST

Unveiled for the first time on Dec. 13, 2012, through a unique video featuring 16 members of Girls, Inc. of NW Oregon, the Portland Thorns FC crest is infused with several different elements of Rose City pride. Designed by artist and Timbers Army member Brent Diskin, the club's green, red and black color scheme is emphasized throughout the logo. In the center sits a stylized rose, emblematic of Portland's nickname, the Rose City. The red rose is shielded by a protective layer of thorns, the club's namesake. Enveloping it all is the team's name in bold white lettering. The design around the outer edges includes two four-pointed stars, also called hypocycloids, that house the letters "F" and "C" and anchor the sides of the badge. The stars are a call-out to the left-centered, directional star that is prominent on Portland's city flag, which flies high above Providence Park in downtown Portland. Resting atop the logo are two solitary five-pointed star, signifying the team's 2013 and 2017 National Women's Soccer League championships.

THE CLUB

GAVIN WILKINSON

GM/PRESIDENT OF SOCCER

Gavin Wilkinson serves as the club's general manager and president of soccer. He first joined the club as a player for the Timbers' USL First Division side in 2001, before taking over as the head coach and general manager during the club's final years in the second division from 2007-10.

During Wilkinson's tenure as general manager and president of soccer, the club has won MLS Cup in 2015, NWSL championships in 2013 and 2017 with Thorns FC, an NWSL Shield in 2016, the 2020 MLS is Back Tournament and a national championship with the Timbers U-23s in 2010. Additionally, the Timbers have made two appearances in Concacaf Champions League (2014-15, 2016-17) and are one of just three MLS teams to appear in three conference championships (2013, 2015, 2018) over the last six seasons, winning their second Western Conference Championship and advancing to MLS Cup for a second time in 2018. The Timbers also have secured the Western Conference's No. 1 playoff seed with the best regular-season record two times (2013, 2017).

In his current role, Wilkinson has formed the Timbers' deeply integrated, vertical development system, which includes USL Championship club Portland Timbers 2 (T2) and the Timbers Academy teams. He was instrumental in establishing an innovative partnership with Oregon Youth Soccer Association, which encompasses the statewide Olympic Development Program and regional training centers, as well as the adidas Timbers Alliance program.

As the club's general manager and head coach from 2007-10, Wilkinson assembled a 50-29-39 record over four seasons in the USL First Division/USSF Division-2 Pro League and was a two-time USL First Division Coach of the Year (2007, 2009). He guided the club to three postseason berths, including its only semifinals appearances as a second-division club in 2007 and 2009. As head coach, Wilkinson oversaw Cascadia Cup (a fan-based derby between Portland, Seattle and Vancouver) titles in 2009, 2010 and again in 2012.

He led the Timbers to one of the best seasons in USL First Division history in 2009, including a record-setting, 24-game unbeaten streak and winning the Commissioner's Cup.

Wilkinson's 13-year professional playing career included time with clubs in six different countries, including Portugal, Ireland, Hong Kong, Singapore and Australia. A defender, he joined the reborn Timbers for their inaugural United Soccer Leagues season in 2001, playing in each of the club's first six seasons and serving the dual role as a player/assistant coach from 2005-06. He finished his playing career ranked among the Timbers' USL franchise career leaders in games (124) and minutes played (10,181).

A New Zealand native, Wilkinson earned 38 caps with the New Zealand National Team and competed in the 1999 and 2003 FIFA Confederations Cups.

Wilkinson founded the youth club Eastside Timbers, based in Gresham, Ore., in 2001. He helped run the club as its coaching director for many years and now serves as an advisor for the club. In 2010, Eastside's U-18 boys team ('91 Liverpool) won the U.S. Youth Soccer U-18 national championship and became the first youth club team from Oregon to win a national title since 1994.

He and his wife, Heather, have two children, Kienan and Brooke.

MARK PARSONS

HEAD COACH

A finalist for 2018 Best FIFA Women's Coach of the Year, head coach Mark Parsons begins his sixth season with Thorns FC in 2021. Since joining the club ahead of the 2016 season, Parsons has helped lead Portland to an NWSL Championship (2017) and NWSL Shield (2016), the NWSL Challenge Cup Championship (2021) and two NWSL Championship game appearances (2017, 2018), while compiling a mark of 49-20-23 (.658) and 11 or more wins in each of his first four regular seasons with the club. On May 25, 2018, Parsons became the third coach in league history to register 50 career wins, posting a record of 69-42-36 across seven seasons coaching in the NWSL.

During his tenure, Thorns FC have finished in the top three in the NWSL regular-season standings in four consecutive seasons, winning the club's first NWSL Shield in 2016 and the second NWSL Championship in club history in 2017. Portland secured home playoff matches with top-two finishes in 2016, 2017 and 2018. Under Parsons, Thorns FC have one of the top home-field advantages in the league, registering just five losses at Providence Park since his arrival (31-7-8) while also becoming the first team in league history in 2017 to record 10 home victories.

In just his second season with the club, Parsons helped Portland lift the NWSL Championship trophy behind one of the most dominant defensive performances in league history. Thorns FC tied the single-season record for the top defense in NWSL history, posting a 0.83 goals-against average, while also equaling the mark for the most home shutouts (7) in a single season. In addition, Thorns FC finished the 2017 regular-season campaign ranked first in fewest goals conceded (20), fewest goals conceded at home (8) and fewest goals conceded on the road (12).

The 2016 NWSL Coach of the Year in his first season with Thorns FC, Parsons led Portland to the NWSL Shield. With Parsons at the helm, Thorns FC finished the season with a 12-3-5 record as they hosted the club's first-ever home playoff game. In addition, Portland registered the best home record (8-1-1) and best road record (4-2-4) in the league, while beginning the season with the second-longest unbeaten streak in league history (12 games). Parsons oversaw a defensive unit that became just the third team in league history to allow less than a goal per game over the course of an entire season (19 goals in 20 games, 0.95 goals-against average) and offensively the team ranked second in the league in goals (35) and tied for second in assists (23).

Prior to joining Thorns FC, Parsons served as the head coach and general manager of the Washington Spirit of the NWSL, helping guide the Spirit to consecutive playoff appearances during the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Assuming the role of head coach in July 2013 and general manager in September 2013, Parsons helped engineer one of the most successful turnarounds in league history as the Spirit went on to a 10-win season and secured a berth in the league playoffs in 2014 after winning just three games the previous season.

In addition, the Spirit Reserves won the W-League Championship, the U20s were national finalists and five Super Y Academy teams were also national finalists with Parsons at the helm as general manager. As the head coach of the Spirit Reserves in 2013, Parsons led the team to a third-place finish at the National Championships, while also helping launch the club's academy programs. In 2012, Parsons helped guide the D.C. United Women U20s to the National Championship match, earning a runner-up finish.

From 2014-10, Parsons worked with Chelsea FC girls and boys academies, while also serving as the head coach for the Chelsea Ladies Reserves from 2008-10 and as an assistant coach with the U16 Girls Academy.

The Cranleigh, Surrey, native holds USSF A and B licenses, UEFA A and B licenses, a US Youth Soccer National Youth license and a NSCAA Director of Coaching diploma.

Mark, his wife, Hannah, and their daughter Edie reside in Portland.

NADINE ANGERER

GOALKEEPING COACH

Following a distinguished playing career both professionally and internationally, Nadine Angerer begins her sixth season with Thorns FC as the team's goalkeeping coach. Angerer has a UEFA B license and Goalkeeper Coach license.

The 2013 FIFA Women's World Player of the Year, Angerer is the only goalkeeper, male or female, to receive this honor. The Germany Women's National Team captain was selected to her fifth FIFA Women's World Cup roster in 2015, helping lead Germany to the semifinal round of the tournament.

Announcing her retirement from soccer ahead of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup, Angerer closed out her professional career playing her final two seasons (2014-15) for Thorns FC and also played professionally in Australia, Germany and Sweden.

SOPHIE CLOUGH

ASSISTANT COACH

Sophie Clough begins her sixth season with Thorns FC as an assistant coach in 2020. She also serves as the team's equipment manager. She currently holds her USSF B license and United SC goalkeeper level 3 diploma.

Prior to her arrival at the club, Clough was an assistant coach at the University of Montana. As an assistant coach, Clough managed all of the recruiting activities, oversaw the student-athletes academic progress, handled budgets and scouting reports, while helping lead the team to 2 conference titles and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. She also gained coaching experience as an assistant coach at Lamar University.

As a player, Clough played at Oregon State University and played with England at the U17, U19 and U21 level. As a professional, Clough played for Leeds United Ladies FC, helping the team finish runner-up in the FA Cup.

RICH GUNNEY

ASSISTANT COACH

The 2020 season marks Rich Gunney's fifth season with Thorns FC. Prior to his arrival in Portland, Gunney spent six years as the head coach and development officer for the Wales National Futsal Team, directing and managing the men's national team and a staff of six for UEFA and FIFA international competitions.

Gunney has gained coaching experience both in the United States and Europe, coaching in Cardiff FC's Academy, where he served as the head coach of the U14 Boys Academy team and also served as the Director of Coaching for the Girls Centre of Excellence at the Fulham FC for five years (2005-10).

Gunney has earned both his UEFA A License and also holds a Youth license with the English Football Association and Wales Football Association.
