Storylines:

Last week against The Eleven: But this was not a repeat since PRFC reacted quickly and started putting pressure with Jairo Puerto switching from sideline to sideline. In the 24th minute PRFC cut the lead in half when Héctor “Pito” Ramos received the ball inside the box and passed it to Conor Doyle who kicked the ball in for the score. Just before the half ended PRFC leveled the score thanks to a penalty called against Indy defender Kwame Watson. Pito stepped up to take the PK which was stopped by veteran goalkeeper John Busch, but the forward reacted immediately and was able to push the ball in the net for the equalizer. In the second half, another penalty was called in favor of PRFC. This time it was against Busch who was forced to leave the goal behind to stop a striving Puerto but, took the wingers legs from under him. This PK was cashed in by Walter Ramírez who gave PRFC the 3-2 lead. After three straight PRFC goals, Indy countered with force, forcing goalkeeper Trevor Spangenberg to work his magic. His effort was not enough since Braun scored one more time for the home side leveling the scoreboard at 3-3.

Back to back to back against last year’s best: Puerto Rico FC opened the 2017 season with a 0-0 against the 2016 champions New York Cosmos. A week later they traveled to Indianapolis to face the runner-up of the 2016 season Indy Eleven in a 3-3 tie that was not for the faint of heart. Now PRFC gears up to host Indy in a match in which both clubs will look to break the stalemate that began in Indiana.

Caribbean Club Championship: PRFC hosted Group D of the Caribbean Club Championship. In their first match, they defeated SV Transvaal from Suriname 1-0. In the second match, they faced Portmore United from Jamaica in a game that was tied 0-0 heading into the 88th. A goal by Portmore broke PRFC’s seven game unbeaten streak. In the third match of the tournament PRFC defeated Scholars International 4-0 but was eliminated when Portmore defeated SV Transvaal earlier that day.

Injury Report: Jordi Quintilla out with Grade 2 quadriceps strain. Yuma Monsálvez nursing and ankle sprain and thigh contusion. Will be evaluated on game day. Tyler Rudy waiting for MRI results but doctors believe it’s a Sports Hernia or an Abdominal Strain.
