RAYO OKC vs. MINNESOTA UNITED FC

DATE: July 30, 2016 KICKOFF: 8 P.M. CST VENUE: YUKON MILLER STADIUM

THE MATCHUP

The Week 5 Fall Season matchup between Rayo OKC and Minnesota United FC will see two NASL clubs that have only lost once a piece in the Fall Season. Rayo is coming off of a 1-0 victory against the Tampa Bay Rowdies in a mid-week fixture. Minnesota is coming off a 3-1 win against the Fort Lauderdale Strikers. In the first meeting between the two teams, Rayo defeated Minnesota, 1-0, for Oklahoma City's first home win in its history.

LAST MATCH

Rayo OKC - 1 vs. Tampa Bay Rowdies - 0

Rayo OKC returned to Miller Stadium on Wednesday night after its six-game unbeaten streak was stopped last week in Puerto Rico, and responded with a victory against the Tampa Bay Rowdies.

Billy Forbes of Rayo OKC (3-2-1, 11 points) had the best scoring chance of the first half-hour when he chested down a Tampa Bay (1-2-2, 5 points) clearance from a corner kick and cracked a right-footed shot off the crossbar. Forbes made the most of another chance just before the end of the first half when a long lead pass was mis-hit by Rowdies goalkeeper Matt Pickens as he rushed outside the penalty area and the Rayo OKC striker was there to head it into the open goal for a 1-0 lead.

THE COACHES

Alen Marcina, Rayo OKC: The first head coach in club history, Marcina is looking for a win in the club's first appearance in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup. He coached the San Antonio Scorpions in 2014 and in his first season, the Surrey, British Columbia, Canada native led them to the NASL Championship. Marcina played professionally for eight years from 2002 through 2009. He started his playing career in the Pacific Coast Soccer League with New Westminster Khalsa and finished in the NASL with Miami FC. At 36-years-old, Marcina is the youngest head coach in the NASL.

Carl Craig, Minnesota United FC: Carl Craig joined the Minnesota coaching staff in early March 2010 after a long history coaching youth soccer in Minnesota.

The Newcastle upon Tyne native moved to the United States in 1994 as part of his involvement with Coerver Coaching. He has coached for the Eden Prairie Soccer Club, Minneapolis United, Westside FC, Wings Soccer Club, Shattuck-St. Mary's, Minneapolis South High School and Richfield High School. He was also head coach of Twin City Phoenix of the Premier Development League and the Minnesota Blast of the National Premier Soccer League.

Craig holds multiple coaching licenses from several different federations. He has an A license from UEFA, a full badge from the English FA, an advanced diploma from the Dutch KNVB, a diploma from the Italian federation and an A license and national youth instructor's license from the United States Soccer Federation. He also has a premier coaching diploma from the National Soccer Coaches

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Alen Marcina on playing Minnesota:

"They've been scoring quite a few goals, but we're up there in fewest goals conceded. We shut out in my opinion two of the best teams in the league. The guys have bought in. They know what is needed to be done on the defensive end. If we can continue that mentality and stay consistent with our work ethic, I believe that we can do what needs to be done against Minnesota."

BY THE NUMBERS

- 5 - The amount of home matches Rayo has gone without a loss, which is the longest such streak in club history.
- 15.0 - The goal-conversion percentage of Rayo, which is tied for third best in the NASL.
- 49 - The amount of saves OKC goalkeeper Daniel Fernandes has made this year, which is tied for the most in the NASL.
- 75.4 - Daniel Fernandes' save percentage so far this year; he has faced 65 shots on target.
- 12 - The number of Rayo's goals that have been scored off of left-footed shots, which is the most in the NASL. Eight of these goals have come from Michel.
- 4 - The amount of successful penalties converted so far this year. Michel is perfect on penalty kicks, converting all four of his attempts. Rayo has yet to concede a penalty all year.
- 78.2 - The percentage of passes that Rayo players have accurately completed to one another.
- 89.4 - The percentage of passes that Rayo players have accurately completed in their own half of the field.
- 202 - The amount of tackles Rayo has successfully won. The Scissortails have won 74.3 percent of possible tackles against opponents.
- 6 - The number of clean sheets that Rayo has earned this season, which is tied for the most in the league.

TABLE TOP

For the first time in team history, Rayo OKC sits atop the North American Soccer League standings. Rayo earned the first-place ranking for the Fall Season after defeating the Tampa Bay Rowdies via clean sheet on July 27, 2016.

GOING THE DISTANCE

Kosuke Kimura, Daniel Fernandes and Futty Danso have each recorded 1,440 minutes of playing time for the combined seasons, which are the three highest minute totals in the NASL. All three Rayo OKC players have started every game in the Scissortails' history.

RAYO OKC vs. MINNESOTA UNITED FC

O CAPTAIN! MY CAPTAIN!

On July 16, 2016, Rayo OKC captain Michel became the first player in Rayo history to score multiple goals in a game, landing him as the NASL's Player of the Week for Fall Season Week 3. Michel leads Rayo OKC in goals scored with eight, which ranks second in the NASL. He has also converted on all four of the penalty kicks he has taken during the combined seasons, which leads the league.

FUTTY DUDDY DEFENSE

Rayo center back Futty Danso has been the heart and soul of Rayo's interior defense, which resulted in the Scissortails earning four clean sheets in the past seven matches. Danso also leads the team in clearances (101), which is the most in the NASL, blocks (12) and aerial duels won (25).

SUNSHINE STATE SPECTACULAR

While on the road during the 2016 combined seasons, Rayo OKC has gone undefeated against teams from Florida, netting an away record of 2-1-0. Rayo's first two wins in history came on the road against Miami FC and Jacksonville Armada FC. The Tampa Bay Rowdies are the only Floridian team in the North American Soccer League that Rayo has both played and defeated at Yukon Miller Stadium. Rayo previously lost to the Fort Lauderdale Strikers in Yukon.

FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

Rayo midfielder Sebastian Velasquez and Rayo forward Georgios Samaras both scored the first goals of their NASL careers in the Fall Season. Both came in the 83rd minute or later. In June, Tyler Gibson and forward Ian Svantesson each scored the first goals of their NASL careers as well.

FEEL THE FERN

Rayo goalkeeper Daniel Fernandes has been efficient in goal this season. Opponents have reeled off a total of 65 shots on target against the Scissortails, 49 of which have been saved by Fernandes. That amount of saves is tied for first in the NASL. In addition, Fernandes has racked up six clean sheets, which is also tied for first in the league. Fernandes has allowed 16 goals, which is tied the third-worst mark in the league.

BASSACKWARDS

Thus far in the combined seasons, Rayo has either come away with better win-draw-loss records or earned more points from matches where OKC has been outperformed by the opposition in the following categories: shots taken, shots on goal, total possession, duels won, passes completed and pass-accuracy percentage. Rayo has also come away with more points and more wins when the team has been administered more bookings in a game.

HOMETOWN FACES AND NEW CASES

This Fall Season, Rayo has welcomed Oklahoma City natives

Adrian Ables, who is a midfielder, and Bryan Byars, who is a goalkeeper. Rayo has also welcomed two non-OKC natives; defender Sebastien Ibeagha and forward Devon Sandoval, who are both on loan from the MLS. Previously, Ables played collegiate soccer at Depauw University, Byars played for OKC Energy FC, Ibeagha played for the Houston Dynamo and Sandoval played for Real Salt Lake.

WHO ARE YOU?

Minnesota United FC:

There was no attack better than Minnesota United's in 2015 and the attacking riches have only grown for the Loons. Stefano Pinho and Lance Laing as well as Danny Cruz and Ben Speas all add to the firepower alongside Christian Ramirez. Under new coach Carl Craig, who took over from Manny Lagos on the touchline after Lagos moved to sporting director, the Loons should have no shortage of goals in 2016.

United is aiming to reach the postseason for a third successive year and push even further than two semifinal exits in a row. The Loons' best defense has been its attack with Justin Davis and Kevin Venegas contributing at both ends. Loan signing Darnion Lowe, 22, could play a crucial role in the heart of United's back line. Ibson, who was named to the NASL Best XI in 2015, should once again pull the strings in the midfield for Minnesota.

Shortly after the New York Cosmos raised the Soccer Bowl Trophy last November, Minnesota United sprang into action when it swooped to acquire two of the most exciting forces on offense in the NASL – the 2016 Golden Ball (MVP) and Golden Boot (top scorer with 16 goals and seven assists) winner Stefano Pinho from Fort Lauderdale; and the Jamaican international Lance Laing (eight goals, seven assists) from Edmonton, who was a member of the NASL Best XI. Now teamed with Christian Ramirez, the No. 2 leading goalscorer with 12 goals and six assists, the Loons boast three of the top nine goalscorers from last year. Danny Cruz, 26, and Ben Speas, 25, also joined the club to add to its attacking depth.

As potent as Minnesota appears to be up front, the wide play of defenders Justin Davis (five goals, two assists) and Kevin Venegas (two goals, six assists) gives the high-scoring Loons (a league-leading 54 goals last year) another dimension going forward.

What They're Saying:

"We certainly have the firepower to achieve what we're trying to achieve: winning a championship." –Coach Carl Craig

"I do want to be on top of the platform raising a trophy, that's what drives us [as players]." –Forward Christian Ramirez

Key Players: Christian Ramirez, Lance Laing, Stefano Pinho, Justin Davis, Ibson, Peter Venegas.

HEAD COACH ALEN MARCINA

The first head coach in Rayo OKC history, Alen Marcina was at the helm of the San Antonio Scorpions in 2014 and in his first season, the Surrey, British Columbia, Canada native led them to the NASL Championship.

Under Marcina, the Scorpions finished third in the 2014 Spring Season, finishing just three points off the pace, then won the Fall Season on goal difference ahead of Minnesota United. They edged the New York Cosmos 2-1 in extra time in the semi finals, then beat the Fort Lauderdale Strikers 2-1 to lift the Soccer Bowl trophy.

Marcina played professionally for eight years from 2002 through 2009. After a successful college career at Barry University, he started his playing career in the Pacific Coast Soccer League with New Westminster Khalsa and finished in the NASL with Miami FC.

Marcina played 28 matches with PAOK Thessaloniki in Greece, then went on loan to IA Akranes in Iceland and Schweinfurt in Germany, and Denmark's Herfolge Boldklub.

He scored 13 goals in 27 appearances for the Puerto Rico Islanders and won All-League honors, before taking his talents to a third continent, joining the New Zealand Knights. He played with the Montreal Impact, Vancouver Whitecaps, Minnesota Thunder and Rochester Rhinos before retiring with Miami FC in 2010.

At 36-years-old, Marcina is the youngest head coach in the NASL.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

Adrian Ables

Country: United States

The 22-year-old Midwest City, Oklahoma native comes to Rayo OKC as a rookie in professional soccer. The midfielder spent the past four years playing NCAA soccer at DePauw University as a forward. Ables scored 18 goals and had 17 assists in 75 games played for the Tigers.

Derek Boateng

Country: Ghana

Boateng represented his native Ghana at the 2006 and 2010 FIFA World Cups and has experience playing in more than 180 division one-level professional matches in leagues including the English Premier League, German Bundesliga and Spanish La Liga. The 32-year-old defensive midfielder comes to Oklahoma City after playing with Eibar in La Liga in 2015.

He began his professional career in Greece first with Kalamata and then Panathinaikos. After spells with Crete and with AIK in Sweden, he scored 8 goals in 72 appearances with Beitar Jerusalem, winning the fifth Israeli Premier League championship in the club's history. Boateng joined Getafe in Spain via FC Köln of Germany then spent time at Dnipro in the Ukraine and Fulham in the EPL.

He has made 46 international appearances for Ghana and was a FIFA World Youth Championship runner up for his country in 2011.

Bryan Byars

Country: USA

The 24-year-old Oklahoma City native was first signed by the Oklahoma City Energy FC in 2015 but did not make an appearance. Byars played as a goalkeeper collegiately at the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma (USAO) and holds USAO records for career wins (64) and shutouts (46). Byars graduated from Putnam City North High School and was named All-America and All-State his senior year. In 2008, he was a Gatorade National Player nominee.

Marvin Chávez

Country: Honduras

The 32-year-old La Ceiba, Honduras native comes to Oklahoma City after playing with the San Antonio Scorpions of the North American Soccer League in 2015, where he played in 27 matches and scored 4 goals. He represented Honduras at the 2014 FIFA World Cup and at the CONCACAF Gold Cup in 2009 and 2013 and in the Copa Centroamericana in 2011, totaling 48 international appearances so far for the country of his birth.

The 5-5 midfielder played for Chivas USA and Colorado Rapids in 2014, San Jose Earthquakes from 2012 through 2013 and FC Dallas from 2009 through 2011. He was named an MLS All-Star in 2012 after leading San Jose in assists with 13 on the season. Chávez began his career by making 26 appearances and scoring 6 goals for Victoria (2005-2008) and then Marathón (2008-2010) in the Liga Nacional de Honduras.

Futty Danso

Country: Gambia

The 32-year-old Serrekunda, Gambia native Mamadou 'Futty' Danso comes to Oklahoma City after playing with the Carolina RailHawks of the NASL in 2015. The defender is a member of the Gambia National Team and has won 10 caps since 2011.

Danso returned to RailHawks after enjoying success at the club's U-23 level back in 2008, when he played in the USL Premier Development League.

Danso played college soccer at North Carolina Wesleyan College and Southern Polytechnic State University in Marietta, Georgia, where he scored 35 goals while playing both the defender and forward positions. He was a two-time All-Southern States Athletic Conference selection, was named SSAC's 2007 Newcomer of the Year following his first season at SPSU, became the first Hornet to receive All-America honors in 2008 and was named to the honorable-mention team. In 2009, he was signed by the Portland Timbers of the USL First Division.

Danso played in 16 games as a rookie with the Timbers and was a member of the Timbers backline that shared the league lead for fewest goals allowed during the regular season. He eventually aided the club to a first-place finish in the USL First Division and the 2009 USL First Division Commissioner's Cup. Danso logged 2,950 minutes with the USSF Division 2 before the team joined MLS. He would eventually clock 5,437 with the Timbers senior team and scored a career-high three goals. Danso then joined Montreal Impact and played five games with the USL team before he joined the senior team, where he registered 231 minutes in three matches.

Daniel Fernandes

Country: Canada

The 32-year-old Edmonton, Canada native comes to Oklahoma City after playing with the San Antonio Scorpions of the NASL and Panthrakikos of the Greek Super League in 2015. The goalkeeper was a member of the 2010 Portugal World Cup roster and has played in some of the top leagues around the world such as the German Bundesliga and the Netherlands Eredivisie.

Fernandes was born in Edmonton, Alberta, to a Portuguese father and Czech mother. He began his international career appearing for the Canadian U-20 squad. He made his senior debut for the Portuguese national team in 2007 when he appeared in a friendly against Kuwait. He made a second appearance for the country in 2009 when he played a friendly against Finland. He also made the 23-man squad for the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa.

The 6'5" keeper has played for nine different clubs in four different countries around Europe in his career. His first major stint as a professional came in 2005 when he joined the Greek side PAOK FC as their starting keeper. He played for the club for three years and made 86 starts during that span. In 2008, he joined German club VfL Bochum, and made his Bundesliga debut in a match on August 16 of that year against Karlsruher SC. He played with seven more clubs from 2009-2015 all over Europe. His most recent club was the Greek side Panthrakikos FC where he was on loan from the Dutch FC Twente.

Robbie Findley

Country: USA

The US international forward signed for Rayo OKC from Toronto FC, having spent the two previous seasons with Real Salt Lake.

Findley made his US MNT debut in October 2007, while playing for the team that drafted him out of Oregon State, the LA Galaxy. He made three appearances at the 2010 World Cup in South Africa, towards a total of 11 international caps.

Findley scored three goals in 25 appearances in the English Championship with Nottingham Forest, having found the net on his debut in a League Cup clash with local rivals Notts County. He made 7 appearances on loan at Gillingham before returning to Real Salt Lake, where he had scored 29 times in 96 appearances from 2007 to 2010.

Billy Forbes

Country: Turks and Caicos

The Turks and Caicos international led the NASL in assists in 2014 and helped the San Antonio Scorpions to the 2014 NASL Championship. Forbes has more assists than any other NASL player during the past two NASL seasons.

The striker had a breakout rookie year in 2014 with seven assists and also

RAYO OKC vs. MINNESOTA UNITED FC

WINNING THE NASL CHAMPIONSHIP

Introduced in 2014 as the North American Soccer League's new post-season format, The Championship is a four-team, single-elimination tournament that crowns the league's annual champion.

HOW DO YOU GET THERE?

Spring Season Winner: The first berth into The Championship is awarded to the winner of the Spring Season (April - June), the first of two seasons on the annual NASL schedule.

Fall Season Winner: The second berth into The Championship is awarded to the winner of the Fall Season (July - November).

Next Best Two Teams In Combined Standings: In addition to the winners of the Spring and Fall Seasons being awarded a place in The Championship, two more teams will clinch postseason spots by virtue of the league's Combined Standings. The two teams that have the best combined records (Spring and Fall Season) – and that didn't win either the Spring or Fall Season – will enter the postseason tournament.

HOW ARE THE SEEDS DETERMINED?

Scenario A – Two Different Winners In Fall And Spring Season

#1 Seed: Out of the two teams that win the Spring or Fall Season, the top seed goes to the team with a better combined record (Spring and Fall) than the other.

#2 Seed: Out of the two teams that win the Spring or Fall Season, the #2 seed goes to the team with the second best combined record (Spring and Fall).

#3 Seed: Excluding the two teams that won either the Spring or Fall Seasons, the third seed goes to the team with the best overall record in the Combined Standings (Spring and Fall).

#4 Seed: Excluding the two teams that won either the Spring or Fall Seasons, the final seed goes to the team with the second best overall record in the Combined Standings (Spring and Fall).

Scenario B - One Team Wins Both Seasons

Should any one team win both the Spring and Fall Seasons, then the three remaining spots in The Championship would go to the teams with the top three records in the Combined Standings (Spring and Fall), excluding of course the team that won the Spring and Fall titles.

HOW IT WORKS?

The Championship Semifinals: The #1 and #2 seeds will each host a semifinal match. The #1 seed will host the #4 seed, while the #2 seed will host the #3 seed.

The Championship Final: The winner of each semifinal match will advance in the tournament, and the advancing team with the highest seed will host The Championship Final.

WHAT'S THE PRIZE?

Soccer Bowl Trophy: The winner of The Championship Final will be awarded the Soccer Bowl trophy, which dates all the way back to the NASL Golden Era. The winning team will have its name engraved on the trophy to mark the achievement.
