SAFC NOTES

Home Sweet Home

San Antonio FC will host Tulsa Roughnecks FC at Toyota Field on Saturday, April 30. The team will play in front of its home crowd for only the second time in club history after their sold out home opener on April 9 against Swope Park Rangers.

Toyota Field saw record-breaking attendance at the home opener, where 8,466 fans showed up to cheer on San Antonio.

New Faces

SAFC players Miguel Salazar and Biko Bradnock-Brennan made their professional debuts in San Antonio's match against the Switchbacks. Salazar came into the match in the 72nd minute for midfielder Rafa Castillo, while Bradnock-Brennan replaced Stephen McCarthy just moments later.

Salazar previously played for Darren Powell at Elon University. Bradnock-Brennan spent his college career at UNC Charlotte.

Stacking Up Saves

Goalkeeper Josh Ford has recorded 16 saves in five matches this season. The keeper has tallied almost half as many saves as he did last year in just over a fourth of the games.

Ford recorded 38 saves in 16 appearances for Fort Lauderdale Strikers in 2015.

All Day Every Day

Only three SAFC players have played every minute of every match this season. Defender Sam McBride, goalkeeper Josh Ford, and midfielder/defender Greg Cochrane lead the team in minutes played with 450 each.

McBride made his professional debut this season after spending his college career at Elon University.

Adapt to Survive

Fejiro Okiomah made his first start for the club against the Switchbacks on April 23. Okiomah first signed with SAFC as a defender, but has made all four of his appearances in the attack after adapting to the position.

Okiomah scored his first goal of the season in the club's first match in history against Seattle Sounders 2.

Diligence in Defense

The San Antonio back line has limited on-goal chances to 36% of total attempts by all opponents combined this season. The team has conceded just four goals despite taking over 50 total shots from all their opponents combined this season.

Only the Switchbacks and Sacramento Republic have allowed fewer goals than SAFC this season with two each.
