MATCH PREVIEW

Minnesota United and the Scorpions won the Spring and Fall seasons, respectively, in 2014 and finished 1-2 in the overall regular season standings last year. Both sides carry high expectations for 2015, but both are still looking for their first win of the year as the Scorpions have lost two straight and United are winless in six dating to last season. I-35 runs through both San Antonio and Minneapolis but the clubs share more than an interstate as they have a colorful history on the pitch that began with a heated playoff series in 2012.

SERIES HISTORY

The Scorpions won the last meeting between the teams 1-0 last fall at NSC Stadium in Blaine, MN, to bring the all-time series to a count of 3-5-5 in favor of United. The Scorpions have always played the Loons well on the road, though, as they've only lost once in Minnesota while compiling a 2-3-1 record.

QUOTABLE

"They are still a very strong team. They were projected (by some) to win it all in the preseason. We expect a stern challenge from them. It is their home opener so their fans are going to be behind them and I'm sure they will be motivated."

- Scorpions Head Coach Alen Marcina

ABOUT THE SAN ANTONIO SCORPIONS & MORGAN'S WONDERLAND

San Antonio philanthropist Hartman led the effort to create Morgan's Wonderland so people of all ages with and without disabilities could come together in a safe, colorful, totally-wheelchair-accessible park for fun and understanding. The 25-acre park, which features more than 25 rides, play-scapes and attractions, just completed its third season. In the past two years, Morgan's Wonderland has attracted more than 200,000 guests from all 50 states and more than 30 other countries.

Because anyone with a physical or cognitive special need is admitted free to Morgan's Wonderland, Hartman sought other revenue streams to help the park meet its financial obligations as well as to expand programs and services at the park for the special-needs community. Morgan's Wonderland opened in spring 2010 along with STAR Soccer, which conveys profits from the operation of 13 first-class playing fields to the park.

Sensing an opportunity to benefit Morgan's Wonderland for the long run, Hartman in fall 2010 secured an NASL franchise – one rung below MLS – and immediately launched Soccer for a Cause, a campaign to build community support for the new team.

The team played its first game on April 7, 2012 on the road against the Atlanta Silverbacks, earning their first point in franchise history with a 0-0 draw. Their first home game was played eight days later on April 15 in front of a sold-out crowd of 13,151 at Heroes Stadium. The Scorpions finished the 2012 season atop the regular season standings before being eliminated in the playoffs.

The Scorpions now play their home games for the 2014 season at Toyota Field; a privately funded, 8,000-seat playing facility. The 2013 stadium opener at Toyota Field took place on April 13 vs. the Tampa Bay Rowdies and drew 8,177 fans.
