MATCH PREVIEW

The Scorpions and Indy Eleven each come into the match having scored three goals in their last outing. Indy blanked Jacksonville 3-0 at home while the Scorpions played a very eventful match with Carolina that ended in a 3-3 draw after eleven yellow cards, two red cards, three penalty kicks, and the six goals. The Scorpions' all-time leader in minutes played - Greg Janicki - returns to Toyota Field in an Eleven kit, but longtime Scorpions fullback Stephen DeRoux is poised to surpass him later this season.

OUT

Julius James - Broken Leg (Out for Season)

Adrian Cann - Red Card Suspension

SERIES HISTORY

This will be the fifth meeting all time between San Antonio and Indy dating back to the Eleven's debut in the 2014 season. Both clubs have two wins and two losses in the series. In the previous meeting this year, Indy were 2-1 winners over the Scorpions in San Antonio. San Antonio won the first two meetings in 2014, but since then the club from Indianapolis has won the most recent two meetings.

QUOTABLE

"Indy is for the most part a young team. They are going to work extremely hard. Their coach is saying the same thing as us, you need these three points and need to be willing to leave it all on the pitch. It's a game that may not be pretty. We're not talking about cards or anything like that but it will be a game where every player on the pitch is going to leave it all out there. Hopefully we can come away with the three points."

-Scorpions Head Coach Alen Marcina

SAN ANTONIO SCORPIONS NOTES

THERE CAN BE ONLY ONE

Forward César Elizondo is the only Scorpions player to appear in all 21 matches this season. Elizondo has 17 starts, 4 substitutions in off the bench, and has played 1,523 minutes.

EVERY STREAK STARTS WITH ONE

Forward Billy Forbes did not play against Carolina this past Wednesday night, ending his team-record consecutive appearances streak at 43 straight games for the red and black.

FOR CLUB AND COUNTRY

Thus far in 2015, the following Scorpions have represented their country at the international level:

Billy Forbes – Turks and Caicos: Two World Cup Qualifiers vs St. Kitts and Nevis (scored first international goal)

Nana Attakora – Canada: CONCACAF preliminary World Cup 2018 Qualifiers vs Dominica

MR. SCORPION

Fullback Stephen DeRoux has now played a total of 5,639 career minutes for the Scorpions. He is second all-time among Scorpions players and is only 334 minutes shy of Greg Janicki (now with Indy Eleven), who holds the club record of 5,973 minutes played. DeRoux is on track to break the record during the Oct. 3 match against Ft. Lauderdale at Toyota Field.

NANA ATTAKORA D

Attakora is a native of New York in Ontario, Canada, and has represented his country at the international level with the U-16, U-17, U-19, U-20, and U-23 levels. He also has nine caps with the senior Canadian Men's National Team, including during World Cup Qualifiers. He has played for Major League Soccer clubs Toronto FC, the San Jose Earthquakes, and most recently D.C. United and has career MLS totals of 62 starts, three goals, and five assists in 5,491 minutes played.

MONBO BOKAR D

6'1", 170lb Bokar burst onto the soccer scene during his college years. In two years at North Carolina State, Bokar appeared in 31 games, starting in 19, while scoring six goals and notching two assists. After transferring over to UNC-Charlotte, Bokar played a pivotal role in helping the 49ers capture their first Conference USA Tournament in 2013. Bokar saw action in 20 games that season and helped the 49ers earn a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. In 2014, he helped the 49ers return to the NCAA Tournament, earning a 10 seed. Bokar scored six goals and was given third-team All-Conference-USA honors.

ADRIAN CANN C D

6'3", 180 lb Cann was drafted 16th overall in the 2004 MLS SuperDraft by the Colorado Rapids. Cann played in Europe for Danish club Esbjerg fB then trialed with England's Burton Albion of League Two before joining Toronto FC of MLS. In 2010, Cann was named the team's MVP. Adrian has also represented Canada in two FIFA World Cup qualification matches and has seven total caps. With Cann as captain of the defense last year, the Scorpions set a modern NASL record for the fewest goals allowed over the course of a full regular season with only 24 conceded in 2014. The 6'3" center back started 20 matches last season, compiled 1,742 minutes played, was named to the NASL's team of the week five times and scored a very key goal in the regular season finale. In the final seconds of second half stoppage time, Cann knocked in a loose ball in the box that handed the Scorpions the win and the NASL Fall Season championship.

MATT CARDONE GK

Matt Cardone is a San Antonio native that attended Trinity University. The 6'3", 215lb goalkeeper was a two-time Division-III All-American and posted a 0.49 career goals against average. Prior to joining the Scorpions, he was a trialist with MLS expansion team Orlando City SC.

16

RAFAEL CASTILLO M

Rafael has played for many professional Colombian teams throughout his career that include Deportivo Tolima, Real Cartagena and Millionarios. He also played for the most popular team in Egypt, Al-Ahly. He was a part of the 2004 Independiente Medellin championship team and has also played for his native Colombian National team in 2002-03. Castillo led the Scorpions in Scoring in 2014 with seven goals, was named to the 2014 NASL Best XI, and was the MVP of the 2014 Championship Final against Ft. Lauderdale.

MARVIN CHÁVEZ F

5'5" Chávez is a winger so known for his speed that his nickname is "el hijo del viento" or "the son of the wind." He has earned 42 caps for Honduras at the international level, including two appearances in the 2014 FIFA World Cup in Brazil.

Chávez has four international goals to his credit and was called up as recently as November, 2014, for a friendly against China. The native of La Ceiba, Honduras, has made over 100 appearances in MLS, most recently with Chivas USA in 2014. He has 15 career goals in MLS and had his best season while playing for the San Jose Earthquakes in 2012. That year, he was named to the MLS All-Star team as he helped lead the Earthquakes to the Supporter's Shield with three goals and thirteen assists in 1,910 minutes played, including 23 starts.

OMAR CUMMINGS F

The 5'10", 165 lb Cummings compiled career totals of 42 goals, 30 assists, and 11,902 minutes played in 185 MLS games. In 2009 with the Colorado Rapids, he tied for the league lead with 12 assists and for an encore the following year, he scored a career-high 14 goals. He won MLS Cup with the Rapids in 2010, was an MLS All-Star in 2011 when the opponent was Manchester United, and he has scored in both CONCACAF Champions League and the MLS Playoffs. Cummings is a native of Old Harbor, Jamaica, and has scored seven goals in 35 appearances for the Reggae Boyz. He played collegiately at the University of Cincinnati where compiled career totals of 13 goals plus 16 assists and was the first All-American in school history.

STEPHEN DEROUX D

DeRoux was born in Jamaica and moved to the Washington DC/Maryland area where he played college soccer at Prince George's College in Largo, Maryland. DeRoux was named as an NSCAA Second Team All American at Prince George's in 2002. He went on to sign a developmental contract with MLS side D.C. United where he made 10 appearances between 2005 and 2008. Coming into 2015, has appeared in 46 matches with 44 starts and has one assist for the Scorpions.

CÉSAR ELIZONDO F

César came to the Scorpions via a trade with the Carolina RailHawks in August, 2014. The 5'8" forward scored six goals in 50+ appearances with Deportivo Saprissa and two more after joining Carolina in 2013. Elizondo also has ten caps for the Costa Rican national team, most recently in 2011. In 15 matches with the Scorpions last year, Elizondo scored five goals and added an assist.

DANIEL FERNANDES GK

Fernandes was born in Edmonton, Alberta, to a Portuguese father and Czech mother. He began his international career appearing for the Canadian U-20 squad, and made his senior debut with 2 caps for the Portuguese national team in 2007 and 2009 friendlies. He also made the 23-man squad for the 2010 FIFA World Cup in South Africa. The 6'5 keeper has played for nine different clubs in four different countries around Europe in his career. His first major stint as a professional came in 2005 when he joined the Greek side PAOK FC as their starting keeper. He played for the club for three years and made 86 starts during that span. In 2008 he joined German Bundesliga club VfL Bochum.

PLAYER BIOS

7 BILLY FORBES F

Billy had a breakout rookie year in 2014 as he led the NASL with seven assists and also scored four goals in 22 starts before adding the title-winning goal in the Championship Final. Forbes has made six appearances for his national team in World Cup Qualifying and in 2015, he scored his first international goal. Prior to joining the Scorpions, he played with PDL team Southern West Virginia's King's Warriors and led the team in scoring with seven goals and three assists. Forbes played college soccer at Lubbock Christian University and was the first All-American in the program's history.

15 JULIO GARCIA M

Julio Garcia is a native of Guadalajara, Mexico. The 25-year-old is a product of the Club Social y Deportivo Atlas de Guadalajara academy, which is known for having one of the strongest youth development programs in Mexico. He played for the Chivas USA reserves prior to signing with the Scorpions in 2014.

92 GIUSEPPE GENTILE F

6'0, 165lb Gentile played collegiately at UNC-Charlotte, where he won the Soccer America National Freshman of the Year award, was named Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year, Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team and Second-Team All-Atlantic 10 in his 2011 freshman campaign. His sophomore year, Gentile scored nine goals, tallied seven assists, and led the 49ers in shots with 79. Gentile left UNC-Charlotte after his junior year to sign with the MLS Chicago Fire. After appearing in 22 games and scoring three goals with USL Orlando City and USL Charlotte Eagles, Gentile joined the Scorpions to help win the 2014 NASL Championship, starting in both the Championship Semi-final and Championship Final. After the 2014 NASL season, Gentile played six games overseas with Swiss Challenge League club FC Chiasso.

8 TYLER GIBSON M

Tyler Gibson is a rookie that played college soccer for the Charlotte 49ers. The 5'8", 145lb midfielder was a four-year starter, was named an Academic All-American his senior year, and was twice on the Hermann Award (soccer's version of the Heisman Trophy) watch list. In 2013, he scored the game-winning penalty kick in the Conference-USA title game and in 2010 he was named the Atlantic-10 Midfielder of the Year.

29 ERIC HASSLI F

6'4" Eric was an MLS All-Star and Designated Player while with the Vancouver Whitecaps. He has scored over 80 career goals and made more than 280 appearances during his 16-year club career for teams in France, Switzerland and England in addition to MLS stints with the Whitecaps, Toronto FC and most recently FC Dallas. In 2012, the 33-year-old native of Sarreguimines, France, was nominated for the prestigious FIFA Puskás Award. In 2014, Eric had six goals and four assists in 20 appearances (seven as a starter) for the Scorpions.

3 JULIUS JAMES D

Julius was a 2008 MLS SuperDraft pick by Toronto FC and the 30-year-old has also played for D.C. United, Houston Dynamo, and the Columbus Crew in MLS and the Carolina RailHawks in the NASL. James has played internationally for the Trinidad and Tobago Under-17s and has 16 caps for the senior side.

JOHNNY LAWSON M

Lawson is a San Antonio native and played collegiate soccer at Trinity University. He was named the Conference Tournament MVP during his sophomore and senior years, SCAC All-First team and West All-Region team during his junior and senior year. He was also named the SCAC Offensive Player of the Year his senior season. During that season he lead the team in scoring with 18 goals. He played one season with the semi-pro side Corinthian FC SA and scored 10 goals in 13 games.

BRAD RUSIN D

The 6'4" Rusin is a center back that has played in over 125 professional matches. In 2014, he appeared in 23 matches (with 21 starts) and scored two goals for the then USL PRO Orlando City team that went on to win their league's championship. A native of Crown Point, Indiana, Rusin made 16 starts and played in 19 games for Major League Soccer's Vancouver Whitecaps in 2013 after spending the previous two seasons in the Danish league. Rusin attended the famed IMG Soccer Academy in Bradenton, Florida, before playing collegiately for UCLA. He trained with the English Premier League's Bolton Wanderers and debuted with the Carolina RailHawks (then of the USL First Division) in 2009. Rusin's professional career includes time with: Carolina RailHawks (USL First Division), HB Køge (Denmark), Vancouver Whitecaps (MLS), Orlando City (USL PRO), and Tampa Bay Rowdies (NASL).

42

JOSEPH NANE M

The 6'2", 185lb Nane was selected in the 2010 Major League Soccer (MLS) SuperDraft by Toronto FC and made his professional debut for the Canadian club later that year. His MLS resume includes starts in the CONCACAF Champions League, the Nutrilite Canadian Championship, and the MLS Cup Playoffs in addition to 1,368 minutes played in the regular season. In 2013, he signed with the New York Cosmos of the North American Soccer League (NASL) and went on to capture the Soccer Bowl with them that November. The native of Yaounde, Cameroon, played collegiate soccer at Old Dominion University.

DARYL SATTLER GK

In 2012, the 6'2" Sattler led the NASL with a 0.79 Goals Against Average (GAA) and posted 13 shutouts in 26 starts - also tops in the league, Sattler made one start for the Scorpions last season, earning a win in New York over the Cosmos, and was with the team for their run to the 2014 NASL Championship. The 33-year-old native Tennessean played college soccer at Western Kentucky, where he still holds the career record for most shutouts with 19.

20

MILTON PALACIOS D

Palacios is a 5'7" fullback who has competed in both the CONCACAF Champions League and the Copa Sudamericana. He also has experience playing for the Honduran U-17 and U-20 Youth National teams as well. The 27-year-old has played in Guatemala's top flight for Club Deportivo Petapa and in the Honduran Liga Nacional for Club Deportivo Marathón and Club Deportivo Motagua.

JOSUÉ SOTO M

26-year-old Josué is an original Scorpion returning home – the Houston Dynamo loaned him to San Antonio during the inaugural 2012 season and he went on to score two goals in his 24 appearances. Soto played college soccer for the SMU Mustangs and made 18 appearances in 2013 for MLS team Chivas USA. Last year with the Scorpions, he appeared in 25 games, played 1,419 minutes and scored a goal.

88

ZOURAB TSISKARDIZE M

Tsiskardize was born in Tbilisi, Georgia, before the breakup of the Soviet Union, but moved to the United States as a youth and has earned his American citizenship. The 28-year-old is 6'1" and played as a center back or left fullback much of his career, but in recent years he has been playing in front of the defensive line as a holding midfielder. As a youth, Tsiskardize trained with the U-20 teams for Brazilian clubs Internacional and Grêmio Barueri and also had a tryout with Major League Soccer's D.C. United – all before graduating from high school. He holds the record for the longest goal in Swedish Superettan history with a 65-yard free kick that found the back of the net when he was playing for Jönköpings Södra IF.

2015 SCORPIONS GAME SUMMARIES

SPRING SEASON

GAME 1

SAS VS TBR

1-3

Tampa Bay hit the ground running with a goal in only the 10' of play and they struck again just before the halftime whistle to take a 2-0 lead to the locker room. The visitors added a third in the 61' before Omar Cummings finally got San Antonio on the board in 2nd half stoppage time with his first goal as a Scorpion.

GAME 2

SAS VS IND

1-2

This time, the Scorpions struck first as they opened the scoring in the 52' when César Elizondo set up Omar Cummings. San Antonio would rue the numerous missed chances in the game, though, as Indy equalized in the 63' and then Sergio Peña struck for the winner in the 89' from long distance.

GAME 3

SAS AT MNU

2-2

The first road match of the year started off with a bang for the Scorpions as Zourab Tsiskaridze buried a free kick from over 60 yards away in the 9'. The Loons equalized in the 34' and then took the lead on a Christian Ramirez penalty kick early in the 2nd half. Rafael Castillo buried a penalty of his own in the 90' to seal the draw.

GAME 4

SAS AT JAX

1-2

Jacksonville struck the first blow only four minutes into their inaugural match at Community First Park on a goal by Matt Millien. The Scorpions retaliated five minutes later on an Omar Cummings bicycle kick that went on to win NASL Play of the Week honors. The game was still deadlocked 1-1 as it went into second half stoppage time, but the Armada grabbed all three points on a goal by Alhasane Keita in the 93'.

GAME 5

SAS VS CAR

1-0

The Scorpions dictated play from the opening kickoff and almost got on the board in the first minute when Omar Cummings got behind the Carolina defense. In the 78', Rafa Castillo sent a through ball to Billy Forbes who drew the 'keeper out before setting up a Bright Dike for a tap-in on the wide open net.

GAME 6

SAS AT FCE

3-2

Omar Cummings struck early to give the Scorpions the lead before the match turned into the Daryl Fordyce(FCE) and Billy Forbes(SAS) show. Each scored two goals in back-and-forth fashion, but the final tally by Forbes in the 82' gave the Scorpions the three points and their first ever win in Edmonton.

GAME 7

SAS AT NYC

0-3

The Cosmos were awarded a penalty kick in the 18' that Raúl converted to give the home side the early lead. The Scorpions pressed for the equalizer and controlled the midfield much of the second half, but NYC struck on counters in the 81st and 86th to seal the loss for the Scorpions.

U.S. OPEN CUP ROUND 3

SAS VS ATX

0-2

The Austin Aztex scored early in the second half on a long range volley from fullback Mikey Ambrose. The Scorpions pressed hard for an equalizer and looked to have earned a penalty when Omar Cummings was taken down in the box in the 76'. No call was made and on the ensuing counter the Aztex found their second through Trevin Caesar.

GAME 8

SAS VS FTL

1-1

There were many opportunities for both sides, but the Scorpions played to a 1-1 draw against the visiting Strikers. Joseph Nane opened up the scoring in the 21st minute off an assist from Omar Cummings. Just before halftime, the Strikers equalized in the 43rd minute with a goal from Stéfano. The Scorpions had shots on goal late, but couldn't convert.

GAME 9

SAS AT ATL

1-0

The Scorpions earned a gritty 1-0 win behind a goal from Omar Cummings in the 26' off a beautiful feed from Billy Forbes. The Silverbacks pressured the Scorpions in the second half, but Daryl Sattler came up huge, stonewalling Atlanta with a season-high six saves. With the win, the Scorpions extended their winning streak against Atlanta to 5 games.

GAME 10

SAS VS OTT

0-0

The Scorpions earned a point in the final match of the Spring Season after a defensive struggle failed to produce a goal for either side. San Antonio native Matt Cardone made his first professional start and earned the shutout in goal.

FALL SEASON

GAME 1

SAS AT FCE

0-4

A controversial penalty call in the 5th minute set the tone for how this match would go for the Scorpions in a game played in Fort McMurray, Alberta. A second penalty in the 68' and red cards on Nana Attakora and Daryl Sattler sealed the result before Hanson Boakai and Lance Laing netted the Eddies' third and fourth goals.

GAME 2

SAS VS TBR

3-0

Marvin Chávez scored his first career goal with the Scorpions in the 11' thanks to an Omar Cummings assist. Cummings, who entered the night with five goals, tacked on two more in the 54' and 62' to move back to the top of the NASL scoring list and give the Scorpions a 3-0 win.

GAME 3

SAS VS FCE

2-2

Omar Cummings scored his eighth goal of the year in the 17th minute to give the Scorpions the early lead, but Michael Nonnie equalized for Edmonton in the 36'. Elizondo gave the Scorpions the lead in the 57' on Billy Forbes' 2nd assist of the night, but once again the Eddies answered and the match finished deadlocked at 2.

GAME 4

SAS AT CAR

2-3

The RailHawks scored two goals two minutes apart early in the first half to put the Scorpions on their heels. San Antonio fought back with goals in the 35' by Elizondo and 75' by Castillo. Castillo had a last second chance saved on a 20 yard free kick late so a Carolina PK by Nacho Novo in the 67' proved to be the game winner.

GAME 5

SAS VS MNU

3-4

Minnesota United jumped out to an early 1-0 lead in the 12' through Christian Ramirez, but the Scorpions would answer just two minutes later through Adrian Cann. The match went back and forth from there and a 3-2 MNU halftime lead was extended early in the 2nd by Khalif Alhassan. San Antonio pulled one back in the '86 on Rafael Castillo's 2nd PK of the night, but couldn't find the late equalizer.

GAME 6

SAS AT ATL

3-3

Atlanta opened up a two goal lead after the match had been tied 1-1 at half. Rafael Castillo sent a free kick into the box and found an unmarked Billy Forbes who nodded the ball home to cut the lead to one. And Omar Cummings came through in the 81' as his tenth goal of the season gave the Scorpions the late equalizer.

GAME 7

SAS AT NYC

1-2

All of the scoring took place in first half stoppage time and the opening minutes of the second. The Scorpions struck first when new addition to the backline Milton Palacios took a pass from Billy Forbes and buried it in the back of the net. Minutes later, the Cosmos leveled the match when Leo Fernandes headed home the rebound of a long shot from Raul. Just two minutes into the second half, the Cosmos got the go ahead goal when Hunter Freeman sent the ball into the box off a freekick from the left side and the ball grazed the side of Brad Rusin before redirecting past Daniel Fernandes.

GAME 8

SAS VS JAX

1-0

The Scorpions got back in the win column with a 1-0 victory over the visiting Jacksonville Armada. After not practicing for much of the week with a knee injury, Billy Forbes came on in the 59' for the red and black and proved to be the difference maker. In the 64' Tyler Gibson threaded a ball through to him, and he worked around the box finding the back of the net on a shot from the right side.

GAME 9

SAS AT JAX

0-0

The Scorpions earned their second straight shutout after the game was delayed a full 90 minutes by lighting in the area. There were plenty of sparks on the field though, with both teams getting opportunities early and often in a rain-soaked match. Goalkeeper Daniel Fernandes made eight saves for the Scorpions, but neither team was able to find the game winner and both walked away from their second matchup in two weeks with a point.

GAME 10

SAS VS OTT

0-1

After losing Zourab Tsiskaridze early in the game with two yellow cards, the Scorpions were forced to play against the most defensive team in league with only ten men. There were few chances for both sides in the first half, but a short five minutes into the second half the Fury found the decider. Daniel Fernandes batted away the Fury's original shot, but Ottawa forward Oliver headed the second chance ball in.

GAME 11

SAS VS CAR

3-3

The Scorpions were forced to play the majority of game with only ten men for the second straight match after Adrian Cann received a straight red in the 19'. San Antonio went into the half down 1-2, but Carolina returned the red card favor early in the second half and the Scorpions stormed back to take a 3-2 lead. Marvin Chavez scored two goals, but an own goal in the 77' sealed the tie.

ABOUT THE SAN ANTONIO SCORPIONS & MORGAN'S WONDERLAND

San Antonio philanthropist Gordon Hartman led the effort to create Morgan's Wonderland so people of all ages with and without disabilities could come together in a safe, colorful, totally-wheelchair-accessible park for fun and understanding. The 25-acre park, which features more than 25 rides, playscapes and attractions, just completed its third season. In the past two years, Morgan's Wonderland has attracted more than 200,000 guests from all 50 states and more than 30 other countries.

Because anyone with a physical or cognitive special need is admitted free to Morgan's Wonderland, Hartman sought other revenue streams to help the park meet its financial obligations as well as to expand programs and services at the park for the special-needs community. Morgan's Wonderland opened in spring 2010 along with STAR Soccer, which conveys profits from the operation of 13 first-class playing fields to the park.

Sensing an opportunity to benefit Morgan's Wonderland for the long run, Hartman in fall 2010 secured an NASL franchise – one rung below MLS – and immediately launched Soccer for a Cause, a campaign to build community support for the new team.

The team played its first game on April 7, 2012 on the road against the Atlanta Silverbacks, earning their first point in franchise history with a 0-0 draw. Their first home game was played eight days later on April 15 in front of a sold-out crowd of 13,151 at Heroes Stadium. The Scorpions finished the 2012 season atop the regular season standings before being eliminated in the playoffs.

The Scorpions now play their home games at Toyota Field; a privately funded, 8,000-seat soccer specific stadium. The 2013 stadium opener at Toyota Field took place on April 13 vs. the Tampa Bay Rowdies and drew 8,177 fans. The Scorpions won the first professional soccer championship in San Antonio history on November 15, 2014, by beating the Ft. Lauderdale Strikers 2-1 in the NASL's Championship Final in front of a modern NASL-record crowd of 7,847 fans at Toyota Field.

MATCH NOTES

ABOUT THE NASL AND TOYOTA FIELD

NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER LEAGUE (NASL)

The North American Soccer League is a professional soccer league established in the United States and Canada. The NASL member teams are: Atlanta Silverbacks, Carolina RailHawks, FC Edmonton, Fort Lauderdale Strikers, Indy Eleven, Jacksonville Armada FC, Minnesota United FC, New York Cosmos, Ottawa Fury FC, San Antonio Scorpions FC and Tampa Bay Rowdies. Miami FC and Puerto Rico FC will begin play in 2016. For more information about the NASL, visit www.NASL.com. Follow the NASL on Twitter and Instagram at @NASLOfficial and Facebook at www.Facebook.com/NASLFanPage.

TOYOTA FIELD

Located at the intersection of Thousand Oaks Drive and Wurzbach Parkway, Toyota Field is a soccer-specific stadium with capacity for 8,000 fans. The state-of-the-art facility became the new home of the Scorpions in 2013 after the team played at nearby Heroes Stadium in 2012. Toyota Field shows off incredible luxury suites, an impressive video board and the Miller Lite Beer Garden. The stadium was engineered with expansion in mind and would be able to accommodate 18,500 fans if the second deck is added.
